To reconcile God, how much more the blood of the noblest Creature, mankind! This is the idea which who received human sacrifices the longest among pagans and Jews.
"The death of the righteous atones for the sins of the world,"
(as it says in the Book of Zohar?). Even in its highest bloom.
Do Greeks in desperate situations still turn to this?
Atonement means, as the most powerful, are returned. Even the Christian one.
Origen exists as his own conviction and as the time when it was believed that during major plagues, especially in public misfortune, the voluntary death of a pious man to reconcile the deity, to free the peoples from their misery (can dissolve s). But that blood in particular is a fo

For example, King Philip, upon hearing of more...
Several happy events revolve around a minor misfortune; Plut.
Apophthegm under Philip. Thus Solon makes the Croesus appear the envy of the gods, Herodotus. I, 32; Amassis Polycrates, Herod. III, 40.

2) Cf. Gförrer's Philo II, 196, and Jahrhundert des Heils 11, 188,

) Original. contr. Cels. I.p. 349 ed. Paris.: Ore 6 oravpweig eadav robroy roy lavarov Ur rohr AvFOWRWY ewe vou avyedesaro, avakoyoy rois-arolavovov. unep raroidwv, Eri To 6BEoKi ju xparyObavra A ergijucræ ij apopias 7 dvorkoias.

107

had an extraordinary effect on the gods, has subtle for a very simple reason. The blood was considered for the seat of the Life, the soul. It was the noblest component of the Body, a sweet delight for the god; the reason
Here too, it originally lies in a meal or drink.
Sides of the god. Such coveted refreshment made him
Inclined to the one who offered, he let him bear the sins of the sir.
Ben overlooked. The idea that blood reconciles, because the death suffered by the victim as vicarious atonement sey, is probably much later.

Human sacrifice was practiced by all peoples of the lower reaches of the Earth.
brought back to antiquity, insofar as any news has reached us at all have come, both in Europe and in Asia and Africa; that they are also all too often in practice in America.
were, is well known. Strange that this feared lichen use not consistently external violence feine Ge-had to deliver goods; men also volunteered.
[They] offer themselves as victims, and in not insignificant numbers.
Thus, not only on Christian soil, but also in Paganism, man's existence, with joy for religion worthy causes!

Let's take a look from west to east over the more well-known countries of antiquity, to support our statement to prove it in a few words. On the Pyrenees
The peninsula was initially inhabited by barbaric tribes who, like Strabo reports in the third book that he stood up for his friends

Eixòg yd &v rj ,pðdet rv npayuarwy xarı, Tlyvag dg áLfoovg xcæi dvoinrrous rois noAkois Äöyovg, Yuoiy rotcbryr, and Eva dixccioy g DEATH x0LvoV ANrosavoyr« ExovOlas ArOTDOrLRÖUOUE Eurosiv yaukov dauovioy Evepyovyroy Aouovs 7 aypopias 7 dvorioias 7 re ray naparinybioy. »

Origen refers to these numerous voluntary self-mutilators.
of the pagans for the common good; contr. Celsum J, p. 349
ed. Paris.

—

108 sacrificed, in the entrails of the prisoners, who had their

They slaughtered the god of war, sought prophecies, and gave them the right one.
(to cut off a hand in order to dedicate it to the gods). About
The Gauls and Celtic peoples in general are the Testimonies of the pagan writers and the Church Fathers
It is consistent that large numbers of human sacrifices were made there.
to be. Cicero is outraged that this barbarity still exists.
(was practiced in Gaul at a time?). The Gauls also brought, like the Semites, the sun god, who was called Hesus by them such sacrifices are called; besides this, Teutates, which is compared to Mercury?). In important They dismissed matters of the state 'like Diodorus in The fifth book tells the story of a person in the area of the Diaphragm and sought from its fall, the twitching of the Limbs and the flow of blood to bring green the future
the; and not just in public enterprises and

Not only were people slaughtered there due to danger, but also the
 Some individuals made such sacrifices for their personal purposes.
 The Gaul believed that a human life could only be sustained by death.
 gift of another human life bought from the gods become; therefore, noblemen who are dangerously ill were vowed to do so.
 were, in the event of their recovery, a human sacrifice, or performed the same procedure even during the illness itself.” After Justin's report would have the invaders in Greece Gauls even sacrificed their wives and children when the one's entrails of slaughtered sacrificial animals foretell great misfortune.

1) «ayarı3easiw,“ p. 154. ed. Paris. Casafib.

) Project Fonte. c. 10: “Quis ignorat, eos usque ad hanc diem retinere illum immanem ac barbaram consuetudinem hominum immolandum ?,

3) Lactant. institute. I, 21. Likewise Minucius Felix Octav.
 p. 34 ed. Ouzel. and Tertullian Apologia 9, who says:
 “Multum homicidio parricidio differt. Major aetas apud Gallos Mercurio prosecabatur.

3) Caesar. bark. Gall. VI, 16.

109

deten"). The British also sacrificed people and white—(said from the guts?). The Germans too.
 The large tribe of the Suebi began its annual Main festival with the slaughter of a person?). After the Battle of the Teutoburg Forest: The Cherusci altars were erected on the battlefield, and a large number of people sacrificed their lives—
 They caught the corpses and hung them from trees.
 The prophetesses accompanied the prisoners to the Cimbri.
 with bare swords they crowned them and led them on a bronze cauldron. Over this, they were lifted one by one, and the prophetess cut their throats in two to expel them to prophesy the flow of blood. Other prophetesses
 They cut open the prisoner's body and prophesied.
 the entrails. The Katten sacrificed after a victory.
 about the Hermunduri, the most distinguished prisoners, Ross and man"). According to the Goths, a The battle will only be victorious for them if they before—who had brought a human sacrifice. The prisoners, too,

 After the battle, they sacrificed themselves to their war god and
 The skinned hides of the same were hung on trees.
 The Goths kept their human sacrifices for a while longer.
 (away, when they had already converted to Christianity). The
 The Saxons vowed something similar to the Jewish Cherem, When departing for war, the tenth prisoner was taken to Sacrifice; they determined this after the battle through the Loos and sacrificed him under great torture?). Still in The Saxons fought in the wars with Charlemagne.
 the Frankish prisoners to their god Wodan on the

— — — — —

1) Justin. XXVI, 2.) Tacit. annal. XIV, 30.) Tacit.
 Germ. c. 9 and c. 39.

+) Mone, History of Paganism in Northern Europe, Pages 20, 21.

Mariana, in Clavigero, History of Mexico II, p. 588.

6) Procop. II, e. 25.) Mone, ©. 58.

*

110

The sacred Harz Mountains. The Frisians brought them to their festivals.
 portraying their own comrades as victims, chosen by lot were designated, usually criminals). The Franks They believed that especially the death of a pious person to appease the gods; the relatives drew lots among themselves, who was to die as a victim, and the one whom the lot would decide (He met, was considered a favorite of the gods). The Prussians
 They sacrificed people to their gods Pikollos and Potrimpos.
 Before a battle, one sought to capture an enemy.

will be; to this the high priest Criwe offered the sacrifice knife into the breast and prophesied from the flow of the Blood's happy or unhappy outcome. Prisoners Leaders were depicted with horse and weapons on a log Heaps were burned. The Prussians also sacrificed some.
 the prisoners according to the lot; captured virgins were
 He was crowned and likewise sacrificed. To the god Potrim Children were also slaughtered. The high priest Criwe
 He himself often used to offer himself as a sacrifice in his old age.
 (to burn the people), which among the ancient Hebrews was a strange parallel is found. Until her conversion to Christianity in the thirteenth century of our era
 Human sacrifices were made by the Prussians. By Men

The offerings of the Scythian peoples appeal to the elders.

in many places"); they touch us more closely, we become
 We will return to this topic several times during the course of our investigation.
 must; therefore, no more of that here. Even in the Christian Their reckoning of time was based on animal sacrifices, as the Satyr Lucian in his writing about the victims from (expresses), too mean; they brought their Artemis people victim.

—e_____

- 1) Mone p. 67.) Mone p. 136. 3) Mone p. 92 and 82.
- 9) e.g. B. Hero IV, cap. 62, 71, 72, 9. Herod. V, 5.
- 5) Chapter 13.

Among the ancient Romans and in Italy in general, it was Human sacrifice was not unusual. The first prohibition
 The same was only approved by the Roman Senate in the year 97.

(issued before Christ's birth); Augustine and Tiberius

(also issued prohibitions?); Hadrian renewed these);
However, human sacrifices were still occasionally made.
Presence; in Africa they were among the weak Romans
The emperors even went public again and were unable to do so at all.
not entirely until the complete demise of paganism be eradicated. In earlier times, the Romans regularly sacrificed people; right up until the latest
Over time, certain customs were preserved at festivals, thus creating a Human sacrifices should be compensated. For example, it was customary to... at the festival of the compitalic Lares in ancient times, children on To sacrifice at the Stations of the Cross, later effigies were hung for this purpose.
on"); so the Vestal Virgins rushed into connection with priests for the atonement of the people, initially people of a bridge over the Tiber River, later human figures made of (made of rushes or wax). The Tarquins sacrificed three hundred and seven captured Roman soldiers on one times"). From a report by Livy, one can see that It was common in difficult situations for the state to major disasters resulting in human casualties led to his refuge.
take. These were, among other unfortunate events,
Two Vestal Virgins also fell. They were beaten.
Books of fate were sought, and these demanded «sacrificia aliquot».
extraordinary;» to comply with this statement, especially They dug out a Gaul and a Gaul woman, a Greek

— q —

) «DCLVII demum anno urbis, Cn. Cornelio Lentulo, P. Licinio Crasso Coss. senatusconsultum factum est, ne homo immolare-
tur. Plin. hist. nat. XXX, 1.

) Suet. Claud. 25. 3) Lactant. institute. I, 21. Proph yr. de abst. II, 56.) Macrob. saturnal. I, 7.) Ovid. almost. V, 621; Lactant. institute. I, 21. ©) Liv. VII, 15.) Liv. XXII, 57.

and a Greek woman alive at the cattle market. At play that magnanimous men act for the good of the father
 Those who voluntarily dedicated themselves to the gods in death are found several; I will only mention the two Decius, father and son). The gladiatorial combats at the stake in front of take Romans, usually with some fencers on the
 The spaces that had to remain were nothing other than human ones.
 Atonement offering for the soul of the deceased. Still under Caesar is killed in Rome by the priests of Mars on the Marsfeld (two people sacrificed). Au gustus sacrifices after the victory over Antony, four hundred senators and Knight on the altar of the deified Caesar). Nero, Frightened by a comet, he sacrifices to avert the (Unfortunately, a number of distinguished Romans were involved.)
 Antinous puts himself forward as a candidate for Emperor Hadrian.
 Sacrifice (represented?). Commodus sacrifices in the Mithraic mysteries a man with his own hand). Heliogabalus lets in All of Italy gathers the children of prominent families and bring them to Rome to experience the fine Syrian mysteries to sacrifice.“ The Church Fathers unanimously agree that until the complete abolition of pagan religion in the fourth Christ
 The Jupiter Latialis in Rome, a fine work of art, dates from the 19th century.
 Human sacrifice was received.”

1) Liv. VIII, 9. 10. Liv. X, 28. Plin. hist. nat. XXVIII, 2.

2) «Ivo dvd geg, fagt Dio Cassius XLIII, 24, und recht “Ev red ruvi legougy tg., The reason for this sacrifice, be
 He realizes he doesn't know it.

3, Dio Cass. XLVIII, 24. Suet. in octave.) Suet. Nero
 c. 36.) Spartian. Hadr. 14.) Lamprid. under Commod.

Spartan and Lamprid under Heliogab. Then also Dio.
 Cass. LXXIX, 24. How vile a people must have become!
 who in those times still endured such things!

8) These victims had probably been around since the time of some Culture only for criminals condemned to death. Who doesn't know?
 (Ert ye vöy rig ayvoei),“ says Eusebius. praep. evang. IV, 16,

Even the Greeks were mentioned in the oldest times.
 They regularly sacrificed people. Among most tribes...
 Before going out to war, a person had to be selected as Victims bleed to death). Achilles sacrifices twelve Trojans?). The Messenian Aristomenes brings Zeus to Ithome three hundred people sacrificed). At Pella in Thessaloniki Salien sacrificed to Peleus and Chiron (humans);

otherwise

In Thessaly, people were dedicated to Zeus Laphystius.

sacrifices were made). Zeus of Mount Lyceus in Arca received fine human sacrifices even after Christ's birth).

the

In Sparta, Lycurgus abolished human sacrifice, which 9

9

“that even now in the big city at the festival of Jupiter Latialis, a human being sacrificed?, Tertull, Apologia, p. 9:

“Ecce in illa religiosissima urbe Aeneadarum piorum est Jupiter Quidam, quem ludis suis humano. proluunt sanguine.” Tertulle. adv. gnost. e. 7: “Et Latio in hodiernum Jovi media in urbe humanus sanguis ingustatur.” Minucius Felix im

Octave. p. 34 ed. Ouzel.: Hodie a Romanis Latialis Jupiter homicidio colitur; "here also the epithet: "et, quod Saturni filio dignum est, mali et noxii hominis sanguine saginatur., Also Lactantius, died around 325 AD. institute. I, 21: "Ne Latini quidem hujus immanitatis experts fuerunt, siquidem Latialis Jupiter etiam nunc sanguine colitur humano. „ |

According to Philarchus in Eusebius. praep. ev. IV, 16.

Hom. II. XXIII, 175 ff.

Euseb. praep. ev. IV, 16. Cyril. Alex. contr. July IV, p. 128 ed. Par. ann. 1638. I note that the Church Fathers their notes on human sacrifices usually differ from each other, lean, and that their basis is especially the Neoplatonists Porphyrius (de abstin. II, 56) is, who from older writings prepare such news items, citing their sources. Eusebius cites in praep. ev. IV, 16. the ones here be. Adverse passages of Porphyry, and Cyril of Alexandria follows, contr. Jul. IV, Eusebius almost verbatim. Euseb. praep. ev. IV, 16.) Herod. VII, 197.) Pause. VIII, 2. 38. Euseb. praep. ev. IV, 16.

8

114

until his time, it was dedicated to the Taurian Artemis were). The Athenians also had the in ancient times Does this goddess serve? The Athenian Erechtheus sacrifices fine daughter of the subterranean gods); nor Themiscles brings before the Battle of Salamis, as Plutarch writes in The life of this general is recounted, to whom Dionysus three noble captured Persians were presented as sacrifices. Alexander had the tomb those who knew about the murder killed his father's family. in a sense an atoning sacrifice, which he offered to the shadow of the Lord murders bring. In Athens, even in the latest At certain times annually on a specific day, criminals in jewelry

the sacrificial animals were led around the streets as atonement (sacrifice for the people, thrown from a rock). On
In ancient times, the Greek islands were everywhere the men Gift offerings at home; wherever Phoenicians went, there were also These atrocities. The Cretans sacrificed to Zeus, the Les beside Dionysus man; at Chios and Tenedos were butchered by the Jidvvoos wuddios men; the Phocaeans used to worship the Taurian Artemis as a deity.
(burning). This is alluding to Greece. The
The human sacrifices of the Greeks are comparable to those of the Phoenicians.
in a related relationship, and we will be referring to it more often must come back.

The ancient Persians also celebrated their human sacrifices 93
Among this people, it was not unusual to sacrifice those who were victims to bury certain people alive?). So great later
The Persians' merit in abolishing these grenades is,
as they everywhere in the conquered countries the human sacrifices

2) Pause on. III, 16.) Pause. I, 33.

3) Dorotheus in Cyril. Alex. contr. July IV, p. 128.

) Suidas in the lex. under xagaoua. —

3) Eus eb. pra ap. ev. IV, 16, and Cyrill. Alex. contr. Jul. IV,
p. 128.

69 Mt. Meiners de variis Pers. religious conversionibus.

7) Herod. VII, 114. 180.

115

forbidden; yet this barbarity was not heard even in Perfien itself. completely. Even Xerxes' wife, Amestris, did not twelve people buried alive, the underworld inclined to do!). The Mithridates, which involved human sacrifices were committed and continued throughout the entire imperial era
They spread throughout the Roman Empire and originated in Persia.

Likewise, in India in the oldest times) Men Gift sacrifices are common. This can still be recognized from allegory.
 The acts and prohibitions of human sacrifice. In the Vedas dedicate a person to a god in honor of the goddess Kali.
 A stake was tied and then released; this happens as Colebrooke is insured, here and there even now"); the same
 The sacrificial act involves several people for the Narayana.
 prescribed; elsewhere a person is tied to a rope bound and thrown from a rock. It is eye probably that these customs are mitigations of earlier victims are. There are also prohibitions against eating human flesh, and Herodotus does indeed give information about Indian peoples, which They ate human flesh. Human sacrifices are practiced in modern times.
 Indian religious books are not exactly forbidden, but so so limited that they can hardly be implemented anymore can"). However, there is another type of man offerings from the earliest times to the present day
 The Indians practice this, I mean self-popping, especially... that of the widows, to give the deceased man a higher honor
 To create a degree of bliss and to become blissful oneself.
 Among the Sivaite sect, who do not bury their dead not to burn, but to bury, since they consider fire sacred.
 and fear being contaminated by the corpse, comes The self-immolation of widows was not permitted, but the ) Plut. de enperst. c. 13.) Cie. Tuscul. quaest. V, 27, and after him Val. Max. II, 6.
) Colebrooke Asian. Res. VIII, p. 47 at Bohlen old. Ind. 1,
 p. 302.
) Cf. v. Bohlen alt. Ind. J, 303.
 | g*

—

Buried alive. In contrast, in the sect of Vishnu, who burn their dead, the self-immolation of the Witt very frequently. In the area around Calcutta alone, they two hundred and seventy widows were married in the year 1803.
 burn, and although Lord Bentinck in 1827 this to counteract the terrible use by means of a ban, has he has survived to this day. (v. Bohlen gives) official English reports, an overview of the number of widows who, between 1815 and 1824,

 They had their husbands' bodies burned. The ge
 The earliest annual number in this period is 378, which
 The highest number was 839. Other self-popping individuals were and are also involved.
 of the agenda. People rush to a high degree.
 to attest to the worship of the gods, into the water, in fire, from high cliffs. At religious festivals of the god Jagannathas in Crissa usually run several people came forward to put their heads under the wheels of the to place an enormous 8 on * the idol

The route is 2).

Closer already 1 we the Semitic tribes in Egypt. Even in this country, there are searches for safe sources.
 Human sacrifice was generally practiced in the earliest times.
 their nature and have in some cases been preserved until the
 The complete demise of paganism. According to Manetho... the period up to the time of the Egyptian King Amasis in The temple at Heliopolis sacrificed three people daily.
 After Amasis had driven out the Hyksos, he created these sacrifices and had three candles burned daily for it (?). From ) Alt. Ind. I, 301.) Bohlen alt. Ind. I, 275.

) porphyry. abstinent. II, 56; Eus eb. praep. ev
 The time of this Amasis cannot be precisely determined. If man with armies, History of the States of Antiquity, p. 73 may assume that the age of Sesostri dates back to the 15th year
 If the year 100 BC falls, then this Amasis would be about a few years hundreds later to be set. God at least lets in

The number of human sacrifices in ancient times adds another dimension.

later institution, of which Plutarch de Isid. et Osir.
 It was reported, a clear testimony. They had a bull.
 placed in the position of the person to be sacrificed. This Animals were stamped with a seal on which a Menfd:
 The image showed him kneeling, holding a knife.
 his throat and hands tied behind his back.
 A special class of Prie used these seals.
 The star was named after the Egyptians; and one can see here from this, it can be inferred that such a substitute victim is not we
 There were few. The victims in Heliopolis were dedicated to the sun.
 God. Later, the Egyptians still sacrificed to the evil god.
 Typhon)) annually at a certain time people; in during periods of intense summer heat and during epidemics, it was common (One to burn red-haired people to this god?). The Legends of an Egyptian king, Busiris, the stranger slaughtered as a victim and ate their flesh, have their good reason. The Egyptians did not in ancient times not only sacrificed people, but also consumed human flesh;
 and this barbarity persisted into Christian times.
 nung. We will come back to this in another place.
 come. — The Ethiopians also had their people victims. According to Diodorus Siculus, these atrocities were already common among them.

fine line of Egyptian kings on Sesostris, his son, then a gap of many human ages, then follow the Amasis.
 Typhon is also the sun, namely in its nature-hostile aspect, destructive effectiveness. Plut. de Isid. et Osir.: * Zupuva oloyrai rov He] xouor, Odi de roy Oeinvinnoy Aeyeolci.
 Plutarch also affirmed this destructive effectiveness in the fact that the
 The sun, through its intense heat, renders many parts of the earth uninhabitable.
 barren deserts, drying everything out and destroying vegetation dirbt.
) Plut. de Yasid. c. 73; Macrobian. Saturn. III, 7. Dio d. I, 88.
) Hygin. Fab. 31; Philargyr. ad Virg. George. II. i 9) Diod. II, 55.

118

in so far eliminated that the commandment only read that, Every six hundred years, for the purification of the people, two To sacrifice people. These people were not killed either. One put them in a boat and set them adrift southwards towards a ships to the happy island.

After this overview, we come to the main topic.

Noses of the Hebrews, on the Semitic tribes themselves.

We include here, besides the Hebrews, all those peoples~~er~~ ker and tribes, which the Bible refers to under the name Arameans, Arabs and Cananites, peoples, which all speak one language, the so-called Semitic language talked, which in the different countries according to different~~s~~ the training methods differed in their forms, but through the common basis a kinship of all

Peoples clearly documented. Jewish legend leads the Ab~~s~~

The lineage of these peoples descended from Shem, a son of Noah.

There is no historical truth to such news.

It is unthinkable; the authors of Genesis simply could not

They know as little about Noah as we do. We also conclude the Jews, the Cananites whom they hated so much after their exile from the Semitic kinship, although the~~s~~

They themselves appear to belong to it; however, they attract the Persians come in, because the post-exilic editors of the old Testaments the kinship with this then powerful

The people appeared honorable; however, the Persian language does not This people differs very clearly from the Semites.

The Bible understands Aram or Aramaea to mean...

Countries where the Syriac and Chaldean languages are spoken was; both languages refer to it with the word community~~s~~

The proper name of Aramaic. Without the boundaries which could be specified precisely, she understands under the land Aram the large country routes which are located on the eastern border Palestine's from Arabia northwards and eastwards~~s~~ gen, the countries of Syria, Mesopotamia and Babylon-Nien or Chaldea.

119

From Arabia, we are initially only touched by the un~~s~~ certain northern and northeastern borders of the vast country, the so-called stoned Arabia, where the peoples of Midianites, Edomites, Moabites, Ammonites and Amalekites lived there, who were border neighbors of the Hebrews. came into contact with them in many ways. Midian is indeed Jehovah's homeland! They roamed into the wide step. Many tribes have inhabited the Arabian Peninsula since time immemorial. Some of them also had their fixed seats, which all their worshipped particular deities; as we can see from the whole same way on the northeast border of the country, near Midian (e.g., tern, Edomites, etc.). Essentially, however... The ideas about these deities were aligned; The gods were basically the same everywhere, only they had different names. Each tribe adapted in a special way to the gods of the tribe. It was done. People were everywhere in Arabia. sacrificed, and that was back in Muhammad's time. The service That Moloch or Saturn was also deeper into this land. dominating within. The god had a hexagonal one here, black temple, the priests were dressed in black; the He received his sacrifice on the seventh day, Saturday. When The god of war was given a red temple and sacrifices were made to him. him, a warrior in blood-spattered clothes, who was in a The pool was overturned; the heavenly image of Moloch was The planet Saturn, as the god of war, was Mars. To the friendly Jupiter, the god of creative nature, (A nursing boy was sacrificed every Thursday). As a peculiar form of human sacrifice, which also It is found among the ancient Romans and Persians, and appears among the Arabs buried alive. Porphyry reports, that the Dumatian tribe sacrificed a boy annually,

—

9 Compare the introduction to Wahl's edition of the Koran.
) Compare Gesenius Comment. to Jesus. Th. II, pp. 337, 344, 345.

120

who was buried under the altar). The custom of life Burial was generally not practiced among the Arabs. a horrifying exercise. In that which is hostile to all sensuality. According to the Saturn worship of these people, women were considered a

An unfortunate object, one that tempts the senses. Thus.
 He recounts how often a daughter was born to an Arab man.
 (Koran), he dyed his face black out of grief,
 He didn't let anyone see him and considered whether he should
 He should rather bury the newborn girl in the earth, which was actually done very often. Choice has in a musical note he collected the passages of the Quran in which the Arabs are accused of this abomination).
 – Whether the practice of burying alive, common in the Middle Ages, was not heretical or criminal women, especially from Duke Alba in the Netherlands practiced a
 The custom that the Arabs transplanted to Europe is? — Also Muhammad knew of human sacrifices in Ara during his time.
 "Their idols have seduced them," he says of the inhabitants of Mecca*), «to kill their children, in order to to completely corrupt them and use their religion as a cover to use this boyish piece of equipment. Muhammad himself praised of himself, that his father Abdallah, like Abraham's son once was,
 He was destined to be a victim. Abdallah's father, in fact.
 Abdalmutaleb, praised God, from his ten sons

— —

1) Porphyry. de abstinence. II. 56.

1) Quran Surah XVI, Wahl's edition, p. 214. — Also in the valley;

This aversion to children is found in female ges bad: Blessed is he whose children are sons, woe to him, whose children girls find, "it says in the tract. Sanhedrin at Gerson, Talmud. Judenschatz p. 154.

) Koran p. 668, Note p.

) Quran Surah VI, p. 113. Very similar to the language of the Jewish people
 The prophets. Muhammad also presents the old religion as It is the product of seduction by idols.

to sacrifice one if he finds him at the Semsem well-Let him. After granting the wish, let the lot be.
fell upon Abdallah, but he was saved by a sacrifice of hunddert camels have been solved).

The Canani also belong to the Semitic tribe.
They were called Phoenicians by the Greeks. They had, according to biblical accounts, before the invasion of the Hebrews, not merely the actual Phoenicia, but also Palestine and They split into individual tribes, of which Genesis 10:15-19.
The following should be named. Sidonians, because of their Power from the biblical legend as the erfig-born son Canaan's refers to Hittites, Jebusites, Amorites, Girghite, Hivite, Arkite, Sinite, Arvadite, Zemarites, Hemathites. Also the Peresits belong—

Here. The biblical author directs these well-known Names derived almost from a progenitor Sidon, Heth, Ser busi u. s. w. ab, in the opinion that the name of a people consistently write itself from the name of a progenitor Here he makes the supposed fathers of these tribes.
all of them sons of one Canaan, to serve the community to explain the name Cananites; but this Canaan shall
He was the son of Ham, who was cursed by Noah.
Thus, the hated Cananites will have a stain of their ancestry removed.
mung pushed to, while the Hebrews saw themselves as a tribe-father the firstborn son of Noah, the blessed Shem to allocate, to whom already appointed by Noah Canaan as a servant will be :). — The hated Arabs are supposed to be in a similar way.
Tribes of the Moabites and Ammonites from the Ver-Lot's mingling with his two daughters
seyn. (Gen. 19, 30 ff.) |

We still need to mention the Philifters, who are located in the midst of the Cananite peoples,

) Note on page 442 in the Quran by Wahl.
2) Genesis 9:26.

without being counted among these tribes. Amos be— characterizes them as immigrants from Caphthor); Jeremiah She calls them remnants from Caphthor and designates this (Land as an island or coastline?); where, however, Caphthor to (The search for him is still a mystery to this day). Some suspect, This includes the island of Crete, since it also includes the (Philistine bodyguard of David, called Krethi); An= They explain the country according to the process of the older Uer= stipulations, namely the Septuagint, for Cappadocia in Asia Minor. In any case, the Philistines belong to the semi-= tish tribe; although circumcision was common among them not common, as with Phoenicians and Hebrews, also revered= They had their special god Dagon, but almost... Each tribe has its own special tribal god, and furthermore The Philistines also worshipped other Phoenician deities. Their language must be very closely related to Hebrew. have been, since both peoples were in constant contact stood together.

How these numerous Semitic tribes were now separated by Language and custom were related to each other, so too through their religion.

At first glance, the religion of the Semites offers This poses significant difficulties for the investigation. Firstly... namely, a kinship of religious beliefs is evident everywhere. Ideas of these peoples; but then they enter into a Individual relationships exhibit so many deviations that one It is difficult to make a connection between these contradictions. to be found. The same being appears more frequently in this tribe. kind and productive, in the other more malicious and destructively; now the cult of a god is abolished by the same. People once a creative side, now again a corrupting one.

1) Am. 9:7.) Jer. 47:4.

) Compare Vater's Commentary on the Pentateuch, Vol. I, p. 133.
9 2 Sam. 15, 18,

prominent; in addition, the various tribes found ver-Different names for the deities are common, enjoy different - to these celestial bodies a special veneration; and one wonders Therefore: to what extent have the different names been used in Can we really separate different deities? We have to deal here only with the main deities of these peoples, who were also worshipped by the Hebrews. As Namenun-
 The male principal deities primarily appear in the names El, Bel, Baal, Moloch, Molech, Melech, Milkom, Malchan), as the names of females Asherah, Ashtarte, Melecheth on. Regarding the male-
 It is clear that El, Bel, and Baal are the deities of the earth.
 a page, Moloch and the identically named terms on the other hand, they belong together; likewise, it is joined together.
 Melecheth is entirely connected to Astarte, and is the same being as her.
 Thus, we would still have two main male deities, Baal and Moloch, and beside them two females, Ashera and Ast arte. Baal means "Lord," Moloch means "King"; both Names are suitable for any god, be he evil or good.
 Nature, or also good and evil at the same time. Baal is...
 The sun and Jupiter are worshipped, as is Moloch the
 The sun, but especially Saturn and also Mars. We can-
 To put it more clearly: the sun, Saturn, Jupiter and Mars are the male gods of the Semites and are Both Baal, Lord, and Moloch, King, are called with the
 The limitation is that the latter name refers primarily to the sun.
 and Saturn, as the most powerful celestial bodies, ge-
 They worshipped the moon as female deities.
 and Venus under the names Astarte and Aschera, whose explanation would be too extensive for now and below
 These gods were originally soon benevolent, creative, soon misanthropic, destructive,

Jehovah or Jao is excluded here because he is considered a national god.

the Hebrews receives their own special section.

However, over time they diverge in such a way that in one case...
The nation is more environmentally friendly, the other more so.
The environmentally hostile side is highlighted.

The thought process of these peoples regarding their ge
I think the worship of the forehead only becomes clear when one looks at its
The basic concept goes back to the deity. The original original and first gods of the Semites and probably all Peoples of the world apparently find the sun and moon;
Further planet worship followed later.
This sentence contains the actual key to Mythology of the ancient world. The sun had to submit to the
To portray humans first and foremost as a superior being. Fiery.
She emerged from the darkness every morning, spreading
Her light spread across the earth, slowly moved across the sky.
mel hin und fspendete Wärme und Wachstum). Als das
It was considered a larger and more powerful celestial body for the male.
Deity. Beside her, another light appeared in the night.
The body rises, the moon. Its light is weaker, its Small shape; beside it the night is damp, the dew, the Fertilizing water; the moon was thus used for the white b
The divine deity was explained; the sun was generative, the moon Nature's nourishing and life-giving principle. The remaining Stars were considered insignificant minor deities, which, without a name, formed the company of the two gods made. In life and in nature, this did not become apparent.
not only pleasant, but also sad and terrible ones Appearances. Even such ones had to have their cause in the Both gods found sun and moon; both were therefore According to a certain interpretation, even evil gods. The sun revealed himself as an evil god by the fact that he appeared in the evening disappeared and left the people to their fate, in High summer, but also through its heat, the vegetation... caused famine and plagues; the moon goddess, as a goddess

) Compare Cle anthes in Cic. de nature. deor. II, 5.

The night, in any case, brought terror with it.
 The image of these two gods was everywhere in the animal world.
 The bull and the cow. This animal was able to its power and its usefulness primarily for this purpose. The Egyptians worshipped their sun god Dfiris and the moon.
 goddess Isis under this image); Moloch and the Afstarte of the Arabs and Phoenicians wore a bull's head; Jehovah was admittedly called by the Ifraelites worshipped under the image of the bull); the Greek Son=

The god Dionysus and the moon goddess standing next to him
 Artemis was also formed with the bull's head.

From this ancient sun and moon service, one has to assume, as Macrobius already did, in order to the often so strange contrasts in ancient mythology

“

—

1) Macrob. Saturnal. I, 21: “Taurum ad solem referri, multi-plici ratione Aegyptius cultus ostendit, vel quia apud Helio-polim taurum soli consecratum, quem Netiron cognominant, maxim colunt; vel quia bos Apis in civitate Memphi solis instar excipitur; vel quia in oppido Hermunthi wagnifico Apollinis templo consecratum soli colunt taurum, Bacchin cognominantes, insignem miraculis convenientibus naturae solis.” — Here, the original animal in the Zend=Avefta must also be obtained, and the bull in the Mithradienst.

1) A statement by Rabbi Maimonides is noteworthy.
 On the origin of the Jewish cult, Mor. Nev. III, 45:
 “Constat, homines illos templa exstruxisse stellis in eisque collocasse imaginem, ad quam colendam unanimiter consenserunt. Hinc jussi sumus nos templum aedificare deo optimo maximo atque in eo collocare arcam. “ ) Macrob. Saturn. 1, 17: “Sol, ut veteribus placuit, dux et moderator is reliquorum Juminum. Lunam vero humidior et velut foemineo sexu, naturali quodam pressam tepore inferiora

tenuisse, tanquam ille magis substantia patris constet, haec matris. . Macrob. I, 21: "Aegyptii in eo (Osiride) speciem oculi exprimunt et hoc signo Osirim monstrant, significantes, hunc deum solem esse regalique potestate sublime Cuncta despicere, quia solem Jovis oculum appellat antiquitas. " to brighten up. Originally, the sun and moon carried the two ideas of good and evil, creative and destructive principle; and this is the reason that we even in later times, when the planetary systems had already been established. honor gained validity and a part of the concepts on had taken, yet still occasionally with both They see contradictory effects occurring. Only in Over time, certainly many centuries later, the Semitic peoples believed that, besides the sun and moon, they also to worship the planets. The clear skies of those opposites This had led her to a strenuous observation of the stars. invited; and so they experienced that some stars in the sky move, their position relative to the They changed the rest; indeed, they even ordered these moving ones. Celestial bodies according to their height or distance from the Earth, specifically as follows: first, the moon on Earth, then Mercury, Venus, Sun (this also applied to one planets), Mars, Jupiter, Saturn). It is for the Explanation of the religious ideas of antiquity differed that the solar service is far older than the planetary It serves no purpose at all. The sun, through its properties, even the most uncultured person can experience divine revelation. Honor is immediately claimed for oneself; the worship of the planets but it already requires a precise observation of the starry sky Heavens ahead. The reason for this veneration may well be to be no other than the movement recognized; for These planets stood out against the first due to their brilliance. not even a first-degree star, at most Jupiter

—

120

Compare generally Macrobius, Saturn. 1, e. 19–23; also Plutarch. de Isid. et Osir., where about Osiris, sun, male, generative Principle, and Isis, moon, feminine, receptive, nurturing Principles similar to those have been laid down.

) Dio Cass. XXXVI, p. 37, ed. Hannover. The above order applied among the Egyptians, and undoubtedly also among the Semites.

127

and Venus. It's strange that one can already see this in a photo. Ancients recognized that Saturn was the highest of the true captured planets! Later, these too were Celestial bodies were deified; they were divided between both. Pages focused on the masculine principle, the sun, and on the female, the moon; Sa~~r~~ stepped onto the side of the sun. turn, Jupiter, Mars, Mercur, on those of the moon the Ve~~s~~ nus. Now that the divine personalities have separated~~s~~ As their numbers increased, so too did divine efficacy spread; the sun remained a predominantly good, creative being, beside her Jupiter, the gloomy Saturn, on the other hand, was na~~s~~ A hostile, destructive god, he presented himself simultaneously as The highest planet above the sun became the supreme god; next to it He stood as an evil being and war god who poured blood. Mars, playing with color; the inconspicuous Mercury was received little attention. The moon goddess, besides the old one, took The idea of the industrious nature, now more the cha~~s~~ character of a nocturnal, joyless, all sensuality~~s~~ lovely, cruel female being, and against it was Venus, the friendly, sensual, childbearing goddess. So the Semites now had to return to their old, only male God, to El, whom they Lord (Baal) and Melech (King) named, that is, in addition to the sun, other celestial bodies be~~s~~ come, and the individual peoples either inclined more to the environmentally friendly direction, which is now primarily the sun, or to the nature-hostile one which Saturn has entered. Among the Chaldeans, the sun service retained the Overpower and the name of the god Baalz among the Ara~~s~~ Saturn was especially worshipped by Bern and the Phoenicians. under the name Moloch; but this Moloch is not exclusively Saturn, yes, little like Jehovah; they both carry also, incidentally, the character of the sun; the Greek Dionysus, sun god and night god in one, is with them one and the same being. Depending on the people, more the nature-friendly Baal or the nature-hostile Mo who acquired the hole also enjoyed either the sensual nature goddess in Afchera or the pure Aftar, hostile to sensuality a higher veneration; however, these are particularly contradictory in the case of These female goddesses continually imagining things. In Phoenicia and Palestine, all these gods were associated with... They paid homage to one another; Saturn only appears later as Supreme God especially stands out.

128

For our further investigation, the question now arises:
-originated: we have Baal and Moloch and also the
To consider Asherah and Astarte as one deity, only in two opposite directions, according to the one in the Nature's effective creative and destructive force, in which One people more according to this, the other more according to
Was that expression of power revered? Or should we...
To perceive deities as different beings and...
Treat them separately? One can treat one or the other.
Take the rightful path; for originally they are,
As I said, there were only two Semitic deities, one male.
liches und feminine principle, creative and destructive same; only with the knowledge of the planets but also the
The creative and destructive principles become clearer; a new one emerges.
creative god and a creative goddess, an enemy of nature
A loving god and a nature-hostile goddess; these too were which in turn is found among various tribes under different
The different names are understood, but they overlap, referring to the basic conception of a being, often in its Effectiveness. (Münter) and after him Creuzer?) find followed the first path; they explain Baal and Mo hole for a god, just as the Astarte and Asherah for The same goddess. Surely this path is the easiest. But In later times, Baal is seen as the sun and creative god.

) Münter, Religion of the Carthaginians, Copenhagen 1821.
) Creuzer (Symb. and Mythology of Ancient Peoples, II, 266) completely agrees with Münter.

129

of the nature-hostile Moloch, as Saturn, clearly un-different; likewise Asherah, as companion of Baal, of Astarte or Melecheth, the female side deity of Moloch. Luther already mentioned Asherah in his fine Bible.
translation (he calls the grove) separated from the start; Recently, Movers has started again, the
to keep goddesses apart. So we will...
Embark on the path of separation by bringing life-Garden Baal the Asherah, the corrupting Moloch the Place Astarte to the side; however, the remark their validity remains, that the effectiveness of these various Gods and goddesses do not look with absolute sharpness after the principle assigned to them is rather the activity of one principle also extends to the other, en-opposite sides were crossed. Partly due to the circumstance of Ver-reason that originally only the sun and moon were the four They represented principles, partly based on the experience that in nature the efficacy of one God also extends to that of the other It changes. The warming and invigorating sun is turned onto to the highest degree of their effectiveness, through their intense heat, pernicious, destructive; on the other hand, the ver-
The brutal god, through his destruction, brings new life; as indeed decomposition is a significant means of promoting vegetation.
bile life is and the animal only survives by destroying a to preserve one's own existence in other ways.

Before we discuss these individual deities in more detail...

Consideration will be given to, in general, a Bemerkung will be prefaced with information about the reasons which I determine the human sacrifices brought by the Jews on These four main deities Baal, Asherah, Moloch and To expand Astarte. Until now, the view was fixed.
to maintain and justify that of the Jews only the Mo-
HE 60 Meier 4 was sacrificed. feyen. Would you love - ) Movers, the Phoenicians, Bonn at Weber, 1841.

9

— .

—

—

130

— — — —

st this whole Jewish idolatry, which is connected with a supernatural revelation to the same people not at all some wanted to completely remove the old testament have; at least that's what one wanted, since this was not the case once.
as far as possible concerned, limiting the atrocities; and so it remained
Are the human sacrifices merely on the Moloch, which is to be reborn?
fetched: painting with them specifically linked by name.
will be. But if one wants to use the biblical passages which to refer to a human sacrifice service, summarize and If you judge impartially, you will arrive at a different result.

— — — — —

— — —

The other deities also practiced human sacrifice in rare instances.
This is obtained in several cases. It will be observed during the examination.
to discuss the individual deities in more detail. Here For now, only this much. However, apart from Baal and to whom more human blood flowed than to any other; but Moloch is not explicitly mentioned as a deity in the Old Testament.

named those to whom human sacrifices had been offered); but These two names alone give good reason to assume, that also the female prince placed at their side

zipen, der Afchera und Afstarte, in fo ferne dienien beiden Deities have the same inclination and efficacy as the ver was attributed to masculine principles, a
He would have received the same veneration. Would Moloch be If she was worshipped solely through human sacrifice, then one would have to expect that in those places where human sacrifices were made the Rede ist, sein Namen, wo nicht immer, doch oft vorgehen.
But that's not the case. The name Moloch is found in Connection with human sacrifice only in Leviticus 18:21; Leviticus 18:21.
20:2; Jeremiah 32:35; 2 Kings 23:10. (This could also include...)
Isaiah 57:9 is counted, where under King Mo
The hole is to be understood, and the above-mentioned passage 2 Kings.

1) The Adrammelech and An ammelech 2 Kings 17:31. find Types of Moloch.

131

17:31, where about Adrammelech and Anammelech
It is being done. Other sources speak of human sacrifices in the Generally, without mentioning any god, e.g. B. Deuteronomy. 18, 10; 2nd King 3, 27; 2nd King 16, 3; 2 Kings 17:17; 2 Kings 21:6; Jeremiah 7:31, where, however, even the main deity Moloch was largely understood den ist. But the majority of the places that are occupied by people

Sacrificing acts do not speak of a single god, son~~r~~ the gods: .

Deuteronomy 12:31: "All the abominations of the Lord that he has set before him, have done to their gods; for also their sons and They burn their daughters with fire to their gods,»

Pf. 106, 37. 38: "They sacrificed their sons and daughters~~r~~ (ter the idols) and shed innocent blood, the blood their sons and their daughters, whom they gave to the idols of Canaan
They sacrificed themselves so that the land would be defiled by blood.

Isaiah 57:5: "Are you not children of the rebellion, brood of the dead?"
the lie that was kindled for the idols among allchem green tree, which the children slaughtered in the Valleys, beneath the rocky clefts? »

Jeremiah chapter 7, which speaks of human sacrifices, Verse 2 says that they were brought to the temple in Jerusalem:

"Enter the gate of the house of Jehovah and call there recite these words and say: Verse 4. Do not rely on Lying words, when one speaks: Jehovah's temple, temple Jehovah's is this. Verse 6. For if you are a stranger, an orphan and widow does not oppress, and innocent blood does not shed not in this place or of other gods wander to your detriment: so I will let you dwell on this place. Verse 11. Has it become a den of murderers?

In the Hebrew text, the word "you" is used here (compare) Deuteronomy 32:17), which Luther translates as "devil". The

The expression is as harsh as "The gentlemen of NV".
9*

*

this house, which is called by my name, in your eyes? »

Jeremiah 3:24: “But the shameful idols devoured the Acquisition of our fathers from our youth, their sheep and their cattle, their sons and their daughters. We are lying in our shame and our disgrace covers us; for against Jehovah, our God, we have found, we and Our fathers, from our youth until this day, and They did not obey the voice of Jehovah, our God.

Jeremiah 16:18: “And I will first repay them twice over.”
Transgression and sin, because they defile my land, with the corpses of their abominable idols and abominations my Property rights have been fulfilled. » =

Jeremiah 19:4: Because they forsook me and this man
The place was alienated and incense was burned there to other gods.
which they did not know, neither they, nor their fathers, nor the Kings of Judah, and this place filled with innocent Blood “etc. |

Ezekiel 16:20: “And you took your sons and daughters.”
ter, whom you bore for me, and sacrificed them to them (the god-(tern) for consumption.

Ezekiel 20:31: “By bringing your gifts, in-
To whom you dedicate your children through fire, you defile them through all your idols to this day. »

Ezekiel 23:37-39: “Show them their abominations, that She committed adultery and there is blood on her hands, and that they committed adultery with their idols and even their Children whom she bore to me, dedicated to them as food.
Nor did they do this to me: they defiled my holy place.
They did this on the same day and desecrated my days of rest.
For if she slaughtered her children to idols, then They came to my sanctuary on that same day to defile; and behold, this is what they have done in my house, »

Ezekiel 16:36: “This is what the Lord Jehovah says: Therefore that you squander your gold and expose your shame in your whoredom for your lovers and for all your gruesome idols and because of the blood of your sons, whom you gave to them given, etc.

Up until now, it has been believed that the solution was to... man diese diesen Plural Götzen« in connection with Menschen= Sacrifices through idols of Moloch were explained. This is apparently an arbitrary decision that not only lacks any evidence for itself, but has all the aforementioned parties against him. Would it be Human sacrifices were only offered to Moloch, then, this That's the nature of things; if they weren't so different...
 Old Testament writers, the general term

“They have used deities, which they explicitly did not= not a special god, Moloch, but the Canaanite ones, to refer to the Jewish deities in general. The details Investigation of the nature and service of this Semitic The main deities will provide further evidence that in their service In reality, human sacrifice was common.

OG eel.

The name Baal means something like "Lord" or "Owner and is with the Phoenicians, like with the baby= loniern the name Bel 2, the general designation for the Deity in general, which was originally among these peoples represented solely by the sun. Also the Be= The use of Zeus as the name for the supreme god of the Greeks means in Egyptian, from where they undoubtedly derive their origin= tet, "Lord." The ancient name for the Semitic god In general, it seems that Il or El) had been);

) ya. Y) bya, z.) bx.

) Thus in the fragments of the Sanchuniathon by Eus eb. praep. evang. I, 10. Melchizedek also calls his God this; Genesis 14:18.

We can still find him in the Elohim of the Old Testament. and in the Greek sun god Helios; Jewish Names are often compounded with such as Samuel, Gabriel, Michael, and others; also in the New Testament God is called "Els" in the well-known passage: "Eli, Eli lama fabachthani!" How Hebrew proper names with El to: were combined, such as Phoenician with Baal, e.g. Hasdrubal, Hannibal; also localities in and outside Palestine was named after Baal, so Baal-Hermon, Baal-Meon, Baal-Perazim and so forth, without Doubts are being made about ancient cult sites of this god. In Carthage, there was a similar awe-filled reverence. before uttering the name Baal, as with the Jews before the name Jehovah; one did not name the God by fine name, but he was called the "Old Man", the "Ewig" gen) »; however, one finds on Carthaginian and Numidian Greek coins and inscriptions bear the name Baal. And Romans everywhere refer to Baal as the highest. God of the Phoenicians and compare him to their Zeus and Jupiter?), or also with Kronos and Saturn, depending on the circumstances. as generative and sustaining (Baal imperative), or as destructive A disturbing god (Baal-Moloch) was worshipped.

But was Baal, in his refined way, after all: common god of the Semites, yet the different- The nations separated their individual Baals; for it became clear that not only among the Jews, but also among other Semitic tribes, asserting the need for a special To have a national god. At one time it seemed more comforting to... to know oneself under the protection of a God who alone devoted himself to the affairs of his own people, then be- One could also expect special assistance in the wars. with related tribes who rely on the protection of the general

—

1) Augustine. de consensus. gospel. I, §. 36.

) Herod. I, 183. Diodorus. II, 8. 9. Cic. de nat. deor. III, 16.

a god would have had the same claim. Therefore, they find We always find one of the individual Semitic tribes special aspects of Baal as a tribe deity ver-honors, although the cult of the other directions is usually lich. not excluded. Among the Arabs and Ca-Naniters had the veneration of the destructive principle, Among the Babylonians, the procreative side prevailed.
 received. A deal was struck with the national god, whom one for the king and lord of the land, a league, ge-praised him for his loyalty in his service, dedicated himself to him as an egg-gentum; whereas he himself had blessing and victory over the enemies promised. How Jehovah made a covenant with the Hebrews,
 We also find this among other Semitic tribes.
 Federal Baal). On Punic coins, the god is depicted Baalan, our god, was always called by the Carthaginians.
 Except for individual cities and regions, the asserting the need for a special protective deity, as this also known to Greeks and Romans and in the Christ-
 The continuation of the holy saints found its continuation. Therefore, we read in the ancient testament of many Baalim, Baal deities, a Expression that partly refers to the gods in general, partly to those through
 They referred to their cult sites as different Baales.

We have here initially only heard of Baal, the representative to speak of the life-creating natural principle, that,
 As noted, the highest veneration was accorded to it by the Babylonians.
 enjoyed, however among Hebrews, Phoenicians and Carthaginians the Service of the nature-hostile, destructive, sensuality-free-the principle of fairness, primarily under the image of Moloch, who was overweight.

News of Baal among the ancients was so rare, However, some very important certificates can still be found. He—) 92 by2 covenant baal, like Zeus ögxos, Deus Fidius.

) Gesenius Monogr. on the religion of the Chaldeans, p. 174, 176.

Rhodot himself has the most famous temple of Baal in Bas Bylon visited and gave the following description. After to whom he had previously remarked that Babylon had crossed the Euphrates
 He explains in Chapter 181 that the story is divided into two parts.
 first book continued: In each of these two sections be There is a curious building where one can enjoy the...
 Nigeria with a large and strong wall, in the other
 (the sanctuary of Zeus Belus!) with bronze gates;
 The same thing was still standing in my time and formed a square,
 Two stadiums (1200 feet) long on each side. In the middle.
 A tower made of hard stones was built at the sanctuary.
 of the length and width of a stadium; on this tower
 There stood another tower, and on the latter another, and so on.
 extended to eight towers. Outside was a spiral staircase around
 All towers were pulled; approximately halfway up this staircase
 There was a resting place with benches, where Diejeni
 Those who climb up sit down to rest. On the
 A large temple was built at the last tower, in which... a well-filled cushion, in front of which one can place a golden:
 He placed a table there. There is no statue of the god in it.
 erected, and nobody else stays there overnight, than a woman from among the inhabitants, who was just (like the Chaldeans, the priests of the God, say) the God from all has chosen women. They also claim what they told me each time.
 but they will not make it believable that God himself visits.
 the temple and rest on the cushion. The same shall, after According to Egyptian legend, this was also the case in Egyptian Thebes.
 be; there too a woman sleeps in the sanctuary of Thebai
 Zeus, and it is claimed of these two women that They never associated with a man. Downstairs in the Another temple in Babylon is a sanctuary, in which There is a large golden statue of Zeus sitting inside.
 the position in front of which stands a large golden table;

Jeremiah 51:44.

The footstool and throne were also made of gold; these Objects were, as the Chaldeans say, with a Produced at a cost of 800 talents of gold. Outside In the temple stands a golden altar. Another one
 A large altar is present, on which the perfect Sacrifice of small livestock take place; for on the gold—Nothing may be sacrificed to an altar except what is still milk.
 sucks. On the larger altar, the Chaldeans burn.
 every year, when they celebrate the god's festival, for a thousand Talents incense. There was also a picture at that time—a column, twelve cubits high and heavy of gold, on this hot-ligen Platze. I didn't see them myself, however, I'm only telling you about them.
 what is said of the Chaldeans. This column would have Darius, the son of Hystaspes, who had liked it, dared to However, not to take them away; Xerxes, on the other hand, the son of Darius, took them and also killed the priest who had served him who wanted to prevent anyone from touching her. So this was sacred.
 The church is set up; there are also many votive offerings there. »

(Still one magnificent temple in Carthage)
 mentioned, who undoubtedly refers to Baal, as a sun god.
 belonged, but was attributed to Apollo by the ancient writers—(is divided. Münter suspects?), who is related to Baal
 The sun god Apollo was, when the ancient Carthaginians with the Greeks came into contact when Greeks and Sicilians settled in Carthage and the state received Greek aid.
 peoples he took into his pay, were received in Carthage
 the; since Apollo also appears in Polybius' treatise on alliances, which Hannibal with King Philip of Macedon
 The court stated that it would be explicitly named as a witness. The only one
 The name used by the Greeks cannot be considered proof—to claim that the god was indeed Apollo, since the ) Appian de bellis Punic. c. 79.

) Religion of the Carthaginians, p. 32.

) Poly b. VII, 1.

Greeks and Romans were known to be very willing to welcome strangers. gods whose cult was related to their own, their to assign god names. Apollo, on the one hand as Sun god, on the other as corrupting, bringing plagues- Gendes Wesens?en, however, had with Baal both in his a great similarity to an invigorating rather than a destructive effect lichkeit, as the god also very likely from Phoe Nicia came to Greece; a union of both Deities could therefore easily take place among the Greeks; It is very unlikely, however, that the Carthaginians would give a to a foreign, imported god, such a magnificent temple he had built them, or that the few Greeks living there to have carried out such a project using their own resources can or may. Rather, the immigrant ones will their Greeks worshipped this Baal as a sun god have joined, who bore a resemblance to their Apollo. This view is also supported by the fact that the Cartha which is not at all favorable to the customs of foreign countries were, and a Senate decree even forbade the Greek to practice language and to engage with Greek science (arm) Münter also approaches this in the following View, when he says, "That Apollo, by the way, among the Carians" The fact that Baal was only the Greekized Baal to the people of Thagern and all the Carthaginians suggests that... to take it from the fact that the Tyrians, to whom the Carthaginians captured a colossal statue of the same in Gela (as a symbol of victory?), this portrait of a Greek deity, when the Greek Alexander conquered their city

1) Justin. XX, 5. History shows that the Carthaginians all Greek and Roman temples, which were not Phoenician They were of origin, destroyed in the conquered cities; have they They were not burned, it was only done to plunder them. to be able to. Dio d. Sic. XIII, 59; XIV, 62, 63; Liv. XXX, 205 XLI, 3.

2) Plut. in Alexandr. M.c. 24.

139

besieged, according to a custom that was otherwise also common among them, to fasten their own idols with chains, to the Altar of their patron god Melqarth with golden fetters ban-that, because a citizen had dreamed that Apollo wanted Tyre abandoned. Curtius, who reports this circumstance, adds Furthermore: They had worshipped Apollo eximia religione. He Therefore, they cannot be given a foreign one, but must be given a native one.

to have been a deity under a foreign name: so Baal! — We will therefore be thrown into the- with good reason sem Carthaginian Apollo may recognize Baal, and an-assume that not the Carthaginians, but rather the Greeks-chen and Römer denfelben gräcisirt, i.e. as Apollo daggehave stated. The same will be true of the temple.
of Apollo at Utica, also a Tyrian colony at the African coast, from whose Numidian cedars Pliny praises the handcrafted wooden work, saying that it has been around since Greenland.
The planting town has been well preserved for 1188 years.
have). |

From this temple of Baal in Carthage, which was near Er-Conquest of the city by the Romans, robbed it of its treasures Appian recounts in the aforementioned passage that the
The gable of the same had been covered with a measure of gold.
fey, whose value could be estimated at 1000 talents, that would be (a Talent to 1350 Thalers), estimated at 1,350,000 Thalers.
Inside the temple itself stood a colossal statue of the god, which was also gilded. Valerius Maximus speaks of a Roman soldier who attacked the statue
the golden robe had been torn down, but the god punished by losing both hands in the temple, which one can later find among other torn-down pieces there-

1) Curt. IV, 14.

) Plin. hist. nat. XVI, 40.

140

(found), Cicero), and after him Valerius Maximus”), mention a similar heavy golden Garment with which Gelo from the Carthaginian booty who occupied Jupiter Olympius in Syracuse, and that after-

Here the tyrant Dionysius exchanged it for a woolen one, with the remark that the golden one is for the god in summer=

Too heavy in the morning, too cold in winter.

We may infer from these descriptions of the temples of conclude that the sun god Baal's service among peoples, where the means allowed, as in Babylonia, Phoenicia and Carthage, was most magnificent. He himself was in late more recent times, when some skill had already been acquired, depicted in human form; not so previously; for in the
To the ancient Hebrews, Baal appears only as a stone pillar.
The golden radiance of the sun required that fine image-pillars and temples much gold was used; also from Hosea 2:8 tells the Israelites they have the gold, Jehovah gave them what he turned into Baal.

Court. 2, 13. punish the Baal days, where the Israelites robbed him=

They clasped and put on their ring and their jewelry and pursued their lovers (cf. Hos. 8, 4). Without a doubt.
The clothing of his numerous priesthoods was also adorned with gold. We find such a festive priest's vestment.
2 Kings 10:22, where Jehu allegedly [deceased] the priests of Baal.
gathered for a large Baal celebration and donned their festive robes (Whether this clothing was red)

1) Val. Max. I, 1.

) Cic. de nature. deor. III, 34. The place amieulum grandi pondere, quo Jovem ornarat ex manubiis Carthaginiensium tyrannus Gelo, would of course also allow for the interpretation that Gelo from the
The proceeds from the Carthaginian booty will first make this garment let it be.

) Val. Max. I, 1, where, however, instead of Gelo, the reading Hiero is in found in the text.

) Münt. Religious the Carthaginians, p. 28.

141

remains to be seen; the pallium coceinatum Saturni, of

(which Tertullian speaks of), refers to the priests of Baal= Moloch, for whose unquenchable thirst for blood even the red priestly robes were particularly suitable.

Originally, the image of Baal was probably not another= res, than a stone), then a phallus, a stone Column in the shape of a male member, which can be described as It was revered as a symbol of the creative force of nature. Such pillars were in the Semitic countries and also in Egypt?) erected in large numbers. Among the Hebrews, the oldest... The image persists from ancient times until the Babylonian captivity. described as Baal's stone pillar; inside the Tem= But in later times, it may well take on a human form. to hold; this can be presumed, since prophetic positions= They speak of the precious garments of the deities and also We are talking about gilded pictures, which artists cast (Isaiah 2:20; 40:19). They probably asked for small ones made of metal. cast and gilded images of the gods in human circles= stat (Ezek. 7:20); the poor let themselves be, according to Is. 40:20. to make such pictures out of wood. The original picture But Baal's, as it was usually found in the open air, was a phallus. For example, Gideon, the judge, destroys one.

1) De testimon. animae cap. 2. In the temple of the Syrian goddess to Hierapolis, where the sun god is also worshipped, without an image was, in whose courtyard bulls, horses and lions were kept as sacred When animals roamed freely, the priests wore a white robe. dung, but the high priest wore a purple cloak and a golden The tiara around the head. (Lucian. Dea Syr. 34. 41. 42.)

*) Philo of Byblus in the preface to the Sanchuniathon (at Euseb. praep. evang. I, 10) says that the Phoenicians had the god= The boulders and tree trunks were consecrated. Jacob, too, was involved. anoints stones.

9 On the phallic worship of the Egyptians, cf. Herodotus II, 48. Jeremiah 43:13.

a pillar of Baal!), yes, the Jews and Sfraeli erect ten Pillars of Baal?); Josiah destroys the pillars?) briefly before the fall of the Jewish state. These pillars Baal's were made of stone, as can be seen from the expressions closes, which are needed for their destruction; for it speaks of a breaking; on the other hand were the pillars of the female nature goddess Asherah, who were usually erected next to the pillars of Baal, in the rule of wood; in their case the expression is cut down » needed. Herodotus recounts that he still had columns in Palae I saw Stina, who was once owned by the Egyptian king Sesostris erected. This king, in fact, had in all lands he who subdued them, erected pillars and noted, whether a people had been brave or not; among nations, which showed itself to be cowardly, he had a female one on the column Have the genitals drawn on. These exist in all countries. The pillars have disappeared, but in Palestine they still stand and "Those with female genitalia." The passage It always remains strange; for the fact that these pillars are not merely They were not only signs of Egyptian rule, but also a religious The great importance they had should be evident from this, that the later conquerors of Palestine did not overthrow them; on the Je Hovacultus of the Hebrews, on the other hand, does not cast it in a favorable light. that she tolerated these pillars in her country, even up to Herodotus. ten, that is, even after the immigration from the Babylonian Captivity!).

1) Judges 6:25. Even under the sun itself, which is worshipped by God. (Numbers 25:4; 2 Samuel 21; Jeremiah 8:2), one thought no special divine being, but Jehovah, who enters into the His relationship bore the character of Baal.

1) 1st King 14, 23; 2nd King 17, 10; yard. 10, 1. 2.

3) 2 Kings 23:14

Herodotus. II, 102. 106.

Herodotus was in the year 484 at the beginning of the reign of the Xerxes was born. Let's assume, although there's no doubt about that...

These Baal fans, as symbols of the most important gods—lichen Function, creation and preservation, were, as the evidence is available, also related to the temples of others—placed before or in front of deities. In the temple of the Two magnificent columns of this kind stood at Hercules' site in Tyre;
 One was made entirely of gold, the other of emerald.
 and shone at night, probably through an internally directed—It brought light, an extraordinary brilliance of itself). In
 In the book about the Syrian goddess we read that before the temple of this goddess at Hierapolis in Syria two such phalluses stood, which reached the considerable height of thirty They had fathoms. Each year a man kept himself for seven days.
 long on top of one of these pillars, to see how one believed that at this height he was closer to the gods and from to invoke their blessing upon all of Syria there?). Also Before the temple in Jerusalem, Solomon had two such sows—let them set, which are associated with the dark names Jachin and (called Boas). — We probably have the
 The origin of our present church towers lies in these columns.
 seek those who stand before the entrance of the Syrian and Egyptian Temples were built.

new information can be given that his presence in Palestine
 If it fell around the time he was 30 years old, then the year BC would be...
 The first Jewish colony was established in 454 AD.
 Serubabel (536 BC) still has these columns, at least.
 tolerated. Only as a result of Ezra's immigration (458) might
 They had been destroyed.

1) Herodotus. II, 44.

) Lucian dea Syr. c. 28. The book is certainly wrongly attributed to Attributed to Lucian, for this writer shared the beliefs of the Christians.
 Not the prevailing view in this little book. (Regarding...) gens is the same for the knowledge of the Phoenician cults very important.

) 1st king 7, 21; 2 Chronicles 3:17.

The use of the ancient Hebrews, on mountains and hills-Sacrificing heights could have no other reason than the opinion that at this height one can speak with the heavenly powers to be able to enter into closer contact. Specifically, it was the sun, which it has already been on Ber~~s~~ since the earliest times (gen revered). At that time they did not yet erect any god~~s~~ official buildings, the victims were killed on the mountains outdoors, facing the sun, in front of a Baal's column (such columns are at least mentioned in the book) (as mentioned by the judge). They also made sacrifices in later times.
 still on natural and artificial hills, which both outdoors, as thrown up in the streets of the cities and altars were erected (Ezekiel 16:24-25) to Baal
 (also on the roofs of houses). Among the kings Special temples of Baal are mentioned; Ahab he~~s~~ built one such in Samaria; in the kingdom of Judah there~~s~~
 In contrast, Baal was worshipped in the temple in Jerusalem by Solomon, it seems, continuously, for the entire duration throughout the empire as far as Hezekiah, who "took all the equipment, that was done to Baal and the entire host of heaven was, and let the chariots of the sun burn up." His However, Joahaz's son did again what was evil.
 (in the eyes of Jehovah, just as fine fathers did) »,
 He also restored the Baal service.

The star in which Baal was worshipped, or Rather, what was conceived as Baal was primarily... the sun; fine columns are also called Son by Ezekiel:
 They appear as the pillars of Baal elsewhere, on all the hills and must therefore devote themselves all the more to the god Baal~~s~~

1) Numbers 22:4

2) Jer. 32:29. Throughout the land, not just in the surrounding area.
 In Jerusalem, the nature gods had their altars; Ezekiel 6:6, 13.

) 1st king 16, 32; 2nd King 10, 21.

9) 2nd Kings. 23, 4. 11. 5) 2 Kings. 23, 32,

145

will be healed, as Ezekiel 6:1 ff. says, where he speaks of nature= service generally speaks, only mentioning the solar columns, However, other prophets only speak of Baal pillars. Now that Ezekiel is also prophesying in Chaldea, one can... do not object that he is referring to the sun service in his speech in exile; for he directs his words according to verse 3. Emphatically to the mountains and lands of Israel. To Czech. 8:16. One prays in the Temple in Jerusalem facing east. of the sun; sun chariots are also found in Jewish literature= The temple. One must not react to such news with sk. the worship of one separate from Baal, who followed the sun's course to conclude that they belong to Baal, representing God. as a sun god, according to Gesenius), at the least. It is doubtful that Bel is the planet Jupiter or the God inhabiting him is, which is why the Romans also called him Na= The Babylonians would have called him Jupiter Belus, the national god. Winer disputes this claim (and rightly so, to a large extent). when he replies that the name Zeus or Jupiter cannot To provide proof that one can under Bel the planet Jupiter understood, but merely indicates that Greek- The Romans and the Romans found their highest god in Bel. would have. (If Vatke objects to Gesenius), « already The observation suggests that no other celestial body= per, as the sun, the fertilizing and life-giving thing= awakening natural force, the visible image of Baal, a A planet like Jupiter is not well suited to be a representative. ten of the generative power,» this is indeed generally True, but the evidence that Gesenius provided for the planet The arguments put forward by Jupiter are not thereby invalidated. For it However, this is a significant piece of evidence that among the old ) Comment. to Isaiah II, 331. 335.

) Winer bibl. Realw. I, 176.

) The Religion of the Old Testament I, 366.

10

146

Arabs and Persians considered the planet Jupiter to be a benevolent force. The constellation, revered as a star of good fortune, was so revered that the Babylonians (the deity Gad, worshipped by the Jews) for the planet Jupiter explained?), and that we now have this God Gad in place names, like Baal: Gad, in connection with Baal. Also, the explanation "Su" could be... It should also be mentioned that it was also the case that Ptolemy against Vattel would be much closer to the Greeks and Romans, in the to find the sun representing their supreme god, and that They nevertheless not to this star of the day, but to the the largest star in the night sky, its name at laid down. Rather, it has been with the knowledge of the planetary flow. However, the planet Jupiter, besides the sun, is also included. connected to the concept of Baal; we have heard of it. Already traced at the top.

The sacrifices offered to the god, be partly contained incense, as can be seen from the above. (led to passages in Herodotus and biblical accounts?) emerges partly in slaughtered animals and humans. Among the animals, he was given bulls, horses, and Lions were sacrificed. Bulls are mentioned in connection with the sacrifice. which the priests of Baal offer on Mount Carmel"); The sacrifice of horses and lions becomes reality through this. It is likely that these animals were sacred to the sun; from the Herodotus explicitly notes that the Persians had given the sun Horses were sacrificed because they offered the fastest god the fastest. (who wanted to offer the animal).

The ancient Arabs made sacrifices to the sun. For them, the sun's fire symbolized purity.

) 1/2d. i. Luck. Jes. 65:11.

2) Buxtorf Lex. chald. 1034.

) Jer. 7, 9; 11, 13; 32, 29.) 1. Con. 18, 25.
) Herodotus. I, 216.

147

— —

And therefore only pure beings were allowed to see the god, young man.
Women, married, who are sacrificed. The sacrifice took place.
with the words: "This chosen virgin, like you,
We bring you 93, and also nursing boys were from (they sacrificed to the sun god?). The latter happened, as as emerges from three Punic inscriptions, as well as from the Carthaginians") and very likely also among the Ba—Bylonians. The passage in Herodotus: "On the golden Nothing may be offered to the altar except milk.
sucks h," leaves the matter obscure, but suggests precisely the indefinite and general nature of the expression points to it;
The Arabs also made sacrifices to the planet Jupiter, as
As already mentioned above, every Thursday there is one Infant. On the great altar in Babylon, According to Herodotus' account, the cattle were slaughtered; next to it stood a small golden altar; even the precious metal, through which The fact that this altar differed from the larger one shows that it was intended for a far more important rite. This importance
The quality could not well lie in the fact that only young animals were present here, which were still being suckled, were allowed to be sacrificed; also
One would think Herodotus would have said this, since he once mentioned...
Cattle speak, to put it more clearly. One must rather... this altar to more important objects of the sacrifice, to Children think. It almost seems as if Herodotus had something to say about this.
that consideration which he so often showed towards mysterious religious Customs of foreign peoples were observed and in many
The matter was explicitly granted, but kept secret.
Babylonia was then under Persian rule, and the

1) Muhamed Ali Taleb in Gesen. Comm. to Jes. II, 336.

) Gesen. Comm. to Sef. II, 336. 337.

) Gesenius in Thesaurus II, 759. |

) Herodotus. I, 183: e yaoprov xovocov Bwuov ovx E&eori Jvey, ori un yalaInva uovva. „

10 *

148

Persians did not tolerate human sacrifice. It is likely that the same continued in secret on this altar, as in Persia itself in the mysteries of the sun god Mithras.

The Indians also offered human sacrifices to Baal.

Baal, Melech and Jehovah found each other in ancient times and that same being, the sun; the ancient Jewish Jehovah under differs from these deities only in name, as National name for the sun god among the Hebrews;

He will indeed become an independent god under this name,

But it is also called Melech in many places later on, once

Also Baal. From this, in a fine place. According to the oldest ge

In historical records, Jehovah appears as the sun; to him are

He brought human sacrifices. Moses has the leaders make atonement.

(of the people before the sun); Joshua spares the captured kings in battle, to offer them to the sun god to bring as a thank offering?); nor does David command to be ab

Saul's descendants defended themselves against Jehovah during a famine,

(to hang in front of the sun'). In later times they separate,

As noted, the names Baal and Moloch; the former

The latter is exclusively that of the sun god, the latter that of the Saturn; Jehovah remains both sun and Saturn, creating

The destructive god. The sun god Baal received even in this later time, people from the Jews still sacrifice. Jeremiah mentions it in clear terms in chapter 19, verse 5.

Baal as a god to whom human sacrifices were offered

he says that the Jews built high places for Baal,

to burn their children with fire as burnt offerings

Baal," Another passage in the Second Book of Kings

Chapter 17, verses 16 and 17 are less definite. It says there of to the inhabitants of the kingdom of Israel: "They left all the lands."

offered Jehovah's, their God, and made themselves cast pictures—he, two calves, and made ashes and prayed the
The entire host of heaven served Baal. And

1) 4. Mof. 25, 4.) Jof. 10, 12.) 2nd Sam. Cape. 21.

1490

— —

They consecrated their sons and daughters through fire.
The blaming of the child victims is generally refuted here—to hold and not specifically related to any god; the most natural.
The explanation given for this passage is that it refers to the human sacrifices on
I would exalt all the aforementioned deities; for if they were Children were sacrificed to only one god, so it would be to expect that this god would be named.
Baal, as the last-mentioned god, now takes these Child victims have a particularly special claim on themselves.

Another passage in Jeremiah has its own peculiar Difficulty. The prophet says in chapter 32, verse 35.
to the Jews: "And they built high places for Baal in the valley the sons of Hinnom, to bring their sons and daughters to the Mo—to consecrate the hole, which I did not offer them and did not offer myself.
The thought occurred to me that one would commit such an abomination.
Following this statement, it appears as if he considers Jeremiah still called Baal and Moloch one and the other.
Same being. The passage allows for different interpretations.
Either the prophet gives a god the name of Others call Baal "king" or Moloch "lord," and understands only one of these gods among the two Na—men; or the height itself has listened to both gods, a An image of Baal and one of Moloch were carried, last—
But the child sacrifices were offered; or finally Both names are simply different designations for the Prophet—Prayers for one and the same God. For the decision
The following circumstances come into consideration. In the above-mentioned—

The passage in question is omitted by Jeremiah and refers to Baal as God. named, to whom child sacrifices were burned, also comes the The name Moloch is not found anywhere else in the Prophet's writings. than in our place; however, the third book of Moses mentions (not Baal, but only Moloch). This would This suggests that both names refer to one and the same God.

) Leviticus. 18, 21; Cape. 20, 2.

150

designated, so that the one biblical author of this, the That name would have been more familiar to others. But that alone... contrary to the fact that Jeremiah, although not in the form of Moloch, However, the ammonite name Malkam was often used— needs) and clearly distinguish this god from Baal— det; this ammonite Malkam is now elsewhere It's called Moloch and nowhere is it called Baal. For example, 1 Kings 11:7 says: "At that time Solomon built a high place the Camos, the monster of Moab, on the mountain that stood before Jerusalem lies, and Molech, the abomination of the sons Ammon's; and this name Molech changes with the Be- drawing Milkom or Malkam), so that also thereby Mo- Loch is described as an ammonite deity and by Baal a distinction is made, whose name the old testament nowhere mentions. which is assigned to the Ammonites. We still need to read chapter 23. consult the second book of Kings. Here it among the idolatrous objects that Josiah brought from the The temple was first built by the god Baal with his ge= her usual companion called Asherah (verse 4), then The author then turns to the priests who robbed Baal of his house. cherten. An image of the sun follows Baal, true= probably a gold-covered statue of Baal in Men= fchengestalt; horses and sun chariots are verse 11. er= imagines. In the sixth verse, the Asherah is particularly— named, besides her (verse 7) the pleasure houses, which are attached to the Temples were built and dedicated to their service. In The tenth verse is followed by the Thopheth in the valley of the sons Hin- nom's, noting that Josia had defiled the same, so that no one gives his son or daughter to Moloch consecrated by fire. In the fifteenth verse, it is further stated that... Milkom, abominations of the sons of Ammon, especially listed, with him Camos and the Astarte. So here we have three.

different gods, a Baal, a Moloch and a

9 Jer. 49, 1. 3. a 1, Kings. 11, 5. 33.

151 ammonite milkom. I believe the difficulty will be most naturally and probably as follows to lift. The Jews had lived in the valley since ancient times.

Hinnom, a metal statue of Jehovah, as we saw above.
will be described as having a bull's head and hollow body; this
The image bore the honorific names Baal and Melech, was originally Representatives of the sun and Saturn. Such an image
Other people also worshipped the Phoenicians, albeit in a slightly modified form.
Zic and Arab tribes, and in particular the
The Ammonite god exclusively bore the name "King:"
When Solomon then sent this ammonite god to Judea
When they planted, they had two gods who bore this name.
and were also very similar in their nature. With the
The influences of the Chaldeans were also demanded by the Chaldean sun
God Baal was his representative. He had the dark side.
Saturn not in itself, was under an image in Men
She worshipped a figure, but also demanded child sacrifices as first acts.
The victims were also burned.
not in the column, but on an altar. In which (charming Thale Hinnom) he probably received common
He is the same height as Moloch in terms of his actions; he is the one to whom one is in the last times of the Jewish state everywhere on the Dä Chern, who had so many altars in Jerusalem, when the city counted streets, whose image column in the temple itself next to that of Asherah (stood?). The shawl is apparently...
The Daish Baal is different from the Phoenician and Arabian Baal.
Moloch or Saturn; he does not have a bull-like form, like the other one,
He is the friendly sun god in human form; and there

In the valley of Hinnom, not only Moloch was worshipped; also at their gods had their idols and their service there: and

Jeremiah 19:4.

2) Jer. 7, 9; Cape. 11, 17; Cape. 19, 13; Cape. 32, 29.

152

This Baal next to Moloch in Jeremiah's time in Jerusalem
Since he was revered, this prophet must also have been situated between the two.
to distinguish deities. But if he also does this in With regard to the nature of the service, it asks itself very much, whether it was common in his time to use the name Baal and Moloch to separate so strictly that one can use the word Baal consistently the nature-friendly Chaldean, with the Words Moloch the Phoenician and Arabian, to Saturn designated as the sun god that had become. It seems very close to me Naturally, one sometimes refers to both gods as "Lord".
as "king"; however, at Saturn, who is on—Judging from the monistic designation, the name Melech
They had been standing still. Now Jeremiah says that the Jews
They had built heights for Baal to give him their children.
burning, so he can destroy one god or the other.
to stand, since both children were sacrificed; most likely
By "sten" he means both deities at once. I conclude this.
from the other passage, where it says that the Jews had Baal Heights built to protect their sons and daughters from the Mo to consecrate the hole. For that here the prophet, among the venerated-different designations that follow each other so quickly, the same It's hard to believe that God has this in mind; one must be aware of the...
In natural terms, one expects that he will both times.
he would have used the word Baal or Moloch if he had only thought of the same deity. Probably the Jews associate Baal and Moloch. Baal, in ancient times
First a stone column, later a picture in human form, stood next to the bronze column of the Jehovah Moloch of the same height; the latter God took the child sacrifices in Em which two deities were considered. Thus, Jeremiah criticizes the Jews for having built heights for Baal, makes involuntarily, in a subtle train of thought, the experience was gained tendent that the Moloch statue received the victims, and He therefore continues: to give their sons and daughters to the Mo to consecrate the hole.

Less relevant to us here is a subspecies of Baal that actual god of procreation, Bel-Adonis, the Thammuz the Hebrews; since in his ministry, which first took place in the the last times of the Jewish state, from Menfchen-Sacrificing him is out of the question. But he might also find a place here. find, because he apparently, as an image of the invigorating spring sun, of awakening nature, a modification of the Son; nengottes Baal is, who represents the entire course of the sun sentirt. |

Adoni is a Phoenician word and means "my lord, of which is the Hebrew Adonai, Jehovah's name among the Jews, who were not allowed to pronounce the latter name. The Hebrews called the Adonis Thammuz), di Trennung, whereby the separation of the god from the god of love—tin Baaltis (Venus) is indicated. Through the service This Adonis was supposed to be the victory of the sun's warmth over the Winter is depicted; winter appears under the Image of the evil god, the boar; for the pig is also elsewhere in Syria and Egypt, a name given to the evil god—A wild animal. This boar (Mars to the Greeks) kills Out of jealousy, he killed the sun god Adonis, thereby killing his lover Baaltis is plunged into great sorrow; but Adonis awakens. again from death, i.e., winter will indeed return in autumn. Master of the sun, but in spring the sun returns with renewed strength.

The main seat of this cult was the city of Byblus on the Adonis River in Syria; from there the service also went to Jerusalem above, where, according to Ezekiel (8:14), the women sat at the temple and mourned Thammuz. Lucian (gives fairly detailed news about the Adonis festival?).

Ezekiel 8:14. Regarding the festival of Adonis, which takes place in June... This month, which was celebrated, is called by the Phoenicians and post-exiled—fchen Jews Thammuz.

) De dea Syr. Chap. 6—9.

134

According to him, the inhabitants of Byblus claimed Adonis
She was killed by the boar within her city limits;
Every year at the mourning festival, the Adonis River, which flows from the Libanus comes down, colored red, a peculiarity which one attributes to the blood of Adonis, but which is in the red their origins lie in the fertile soil of Lebanon. Seven days (the Jews used to mourn their dead), and so on.
The mourning for the Adonis lasted a long time. First, he sought
When people found the missing person, they said he was in the forest.
killed by the boar, and gathered at the bloody towards the river; thereupon, a statue of the god was placed before it.
formal funeral. The women had to participate.
Cutting off the hair, a custom we also otherwise know as a custom (drawings of mourning among Jews?), and death ten complain, as at Jewish funerals the lament women. They wail, they beat each other with their fists, » says Lucian, "and spread grief throughout the entire surrounding area."
Once they have ceased their complaints, they sacrifice to Adonis.
like a dead man; the next day they say he is like who came to life, and they sent him up into heaven.
This story inevitably brings to mind the new Testament. — In Egypt, the sun god Osiris was given a testament.
ris, whom the evil god Typhon had killed, a whole
A similar funeral service was held. There are people in Byblus, » Lucian says, "who claim to also celebrate the Adonis festival in Byblus refers to Osiris... specifically in Alexan
In later times, this festival was celebrated with great splendor.
committed; here too, women played the main role).

1) Genesis. 50, 10; 1. Sam. 31, 13.

2) Jer. 7:29; 16:6; 41:5; 48:37; in the Mosaic Law
This is forbidden, as is scratching with pointed tools; 3. Mof.
19, 27, 28; Deuteronomy 14:1. — Mourning women Jeremiah 9:17.

) The description of the ceremony in Creuzer, Symb. II, 100 ff.

Afchera.

The Afherat) will in farewell in the district of our Consideration falls as if they were always at Baal's side.
 stands and therefore the human sacrifices which were offered to him were, also applied to them at the same time, but then also old testa human passages clearly indicate that this god—children have been sacrificed.

As for the explanation of the name, first of all, it is the difference between Gesenius and Movers not from Meaning; Gesenius says the name means something like Luck, and referring to the lucky planet Venus; Mo—Vers, on the other hand, claims that the original meaning of the
 The root word fey means "to be straight"; because now, according to Hebrew...
 From the perspective of the straight, the just are also happy
 feyn müffe, fo folge als zweite Bedeutung «glücklich feyn; ɸ However, Asherah takes its name from the straight line.
 (construction of the column). This may well be correct; later
 But the idea of Afchera has certainly changed.
 It is associated with happiness and blessing. It appears as a who sen, which makes the gods favorably disposed towards man;
 There is no other way to explain how they did not change over time.
 only besides her related male god, Baal,
 but placed next to the image column of each god—
 could. Firstly, Asherah corresponds to the female form.
 Goddess of the creative god Baal, she is the female Ne-preceptor of physical life, the goddess who the Chal—
 who worshipped Venus. This can be proven.
 Of course, it is not the case that even the ancient Hebrews were in this constellation
 They had found their Asherah; but it went too far,

— — — — —

9 une von D gerade feyn, glücklich feyn.

) Movers, the Phoenicians, I, 570 ff. (Bonn, at Weber, 1841.)

156

when Movers gives the ancient Canaanite idolatry the astro—logical direction agreed upon; the Hebrews already worshipped in The sun in the oldest times, and Amos makes the Jew the accusation that she had already set the star ahead in the desert-would have worn them.

More importantly, Movers is making a comeback. made Af her a special goddess of the
(To separate Astarte). It would certainly like to start and The thought of the creative goddess, who, comes to mind.
representing life and the act of procreation, cannot be the
be themselves with the chaste, averse to all sensuality, everything Life of hostile Astarte, who are in the Greek Artemis rediscovered; a crucial piece of evidence for the separation into However, this opposing efficacy can exist between two deities.
do not hand it in; for ancient mythology shows in too many
In cases where completely opposing ideas are held, to the same deity, although it was often hardly possible for the researcher to distinguish between them.
more. It becomes possible to find the line of reasoning which various contradictory effects on the same connected to the essence. In our case, we would also have,
as noted above, a very natural explanation for this opposing effects of the same goddess in the environment
It was stated that originally one celestial body, the moon, represented both.
Nevertheless, for the later time we must consider the Asherah of the Astarte are distinguished. First, a separation is made at the names of various deities through the addition of "God" tin the Sidonian requires, which the Old Testament often demands.
(to the name Astarte?), but never to the name
Ashera is connected. In some places, however, this can be found (more precise designation of the aristoles not?); however, from this it can be deduced

— —

This was already done by the earlier biblical commentators. Luther translated... Asherah with grove, and distinguishes it from Astaroth. Astarte.

2) 1 Kings 11:5, 33; Nephi 10:6; 1 Samuel 7:4; 12:10.

157

It cannot yet be concluded that the Aftarte is related to the Afchera collapse; it would be different if the Asherah also collapsed. somewhere she would be called the "Sidonic goddess"; but this is, As I said, that's not the case anywhere. Furthermore, 2 Kings 23:13-14, apparently the cult of the Astartes of that of Baal and Asherah; for According to verse 13, Josiah first destroys Astara, the abomination. from Sidon, besides her the Camos and Milkom, from which constellation might already result in Astarte decided to side with the nature-hostile beings; Verse 14. but then the pillars of Baal appear with their Ashering.

Would this therefore imply the separation of Asherah from the Afstarte with certainty, yet the certainty appears However, another circumstance hinders this assumption. the way. Namely, at those points where the designation Astarte is used without the addition of « Sidonian goddess», The name Astarte is also associated with Baal, as is usually the case. Only Asherah. The Book of Samuel states in several places... places) that the Israelites worship the Baal deities and Astar ten had served, as can be seen in the Book of Judges 2) and where otherwise one usually finds "Baal deities and Asherians". Yes Judges 10:6 describe the appearance of Astrid Lindgren's gods alongside the Baal deities. with the addition that the Israelites had offered themselves to the service fi- turned towards the Donian gods; so that here hardly any of the The explanation to evade is, among the departures, which are next to For Baal to appear, the Sidonic one must also be understood. In these places, besides the branch starts, you will probably find the plus ral also the plural Baalim s), by which the deities over to be designated as main; so that one could say that these The connection does not yet provide proof that the Astarte

) 1 Samuel 7:4; 12:40.) Judges 3:7.

9) e.g. B. Direction 10, 6: NAMUYDTR DIPANNE

158

likewise associated with Baal; for the plural Baalim suggests also other gods, namely Baal Moloch, with which the Astarte connects very naturally; alone This is contradicted by a passage in Judges 2:13, where... the branches of Baal (in the singular) connect.

These circumstances, which are indeed significant, can But now, the reasons for the Tren are given above= not cancel it; it must be decisive for a dispute= the two deities remain in the position that Asherah never "Goddess of the Sidonians, but probably the Astarte fo" will; for if both goddesses were one being: why does it receive Did Asherah never include this addition? This cannot be based on any assumption. not based on the case, but only on the circumstance that the biblical The author distinguished the Sidonian Astar from the Asherah— But now the question will arise: how did they come up with that? How can we think about the relationship between the two names? We will deal with this. must be content with probability, since from the existing= whose news will probably never provide a completely reliable answer= results can be achieved. The investigations in this field Besides the lack of news, they also offer other things These present difficulties that have probably not yet been sufficiently addressed. were taken into account. The meager news which the ancient writers do not come from one and the same age; but the terms which a year= hundred connected with a god, suffer in the course of the Time usually brings more or less significant changes, and it is therefore quite possible that an earlier book The name of a god sometimes evokes different ideas link, as a later one, and vice versa. Also, it is through= It is not clear that the biblical authors, in the Use such names with the utmost care. have gone to work, so that here and there a mistake

Change may have taken place, particularly in the Books that deal with the earlier history of the Hebrews, and whose drafting falls far later than the time with which they are busy with it. It would probably be possible that a later editor of an Old Testament section, which described the time as centuries away, which the names Ashera and Astarte were taken to be synonymous. or had confused it, without suspecting, of course, that he would one day after several thousand years, us, who know every word of his Taking writing so literally causes extraordinary difficulty. I will prepare some messes. This is just mentioned in passing. The following may serve as the basis for scientific investigations: such assumptions are of no use, but they may be useful. They should not be completely disregarded.

The relationship between the two will probably now take the form of... Names in the following way. The original name is Asherah; he joins Baal as a feminine principle and shares the same ideas with him. We already

It was noted in the case of Baal that this name, up to and including Solomon, is associated with Moloch collapsed, and the generative and destructive principle united within itself; until then, Asherah also represented Both directions. But now, from outside came the (Name of another goddess, Astarte), who thereby characterized as non-Semitic, that neither in Hebrew fchen, still a root word in Syrian and Arabic for finds. Movers suspects the word is Persian. Origins). This new goddess was among the Hebrews

— —

p. in the Septuagint is called the "dordern".

2) With v. Hammer, who said the word of the Persian Astara, Stern. derives. Cf. Treasure Troves of the Orient III, p. 275. Gefenius says (Thesaur. II, p. 1083): nil fere dubito, quin DN idem sit quod MDR stella. Auf das Perfische weist 'also Münter hin Gelig. der Karthag. p. 63).

160

also referred to in the plural, such as Baalim and Ash—ren, which suggests that they have several interpretations= allowed wisdom; they were probably initially considered the same. radezu with the Asherah, for which the above places, where they are next to Baal, like Asherah, appears to be proving his worth. But when Solomon came into closer contact with the Phoenicians- The return came at the same time that Baal-Moloch also emerged. fdiedener von Baal, als schaffender Prinzip, trennt, gefal- The Astarte was described by the Hebrews as one from the Asherah. different nature; they appeared as hostile to nature, all Sensuality-averse female power, like Moloch on male= on the other side; however, Asherah now, besides Baal, exclusively the friendly, nature-friendly, and conducive to the well-being of people and She became a goddess who was kind to life, a blessing. The bringing being found its place everywhere. From Solomon's Time, therefore, of whom it is explicitly mentioned that he is the Astarte, goddess of the Sidonians, erected an altar to Astarte, goddess of the Sidonians, will we consider Astarte and Asherah to be different deities= must strive; the cult of Astarte is mentioned in history Solomon's particularly emphasized?), since the same without two- only through Solomon's friendly relations found its way to the Phoenicians in Palestine and its new= the interest was more important; Asherah, on the other hand, as a long-venerated goddess, remains in the depiction of the Solomon's idolatry is not mentioned. In later times, when the ideas about the individual deities so much mixed, as noted above, also the generative and creative element with the chaste, nature-hostile goddess reunited, particularly among the Greeks; for besides

Rhea and Juno, who represent Asherah,
The young woman will also (like the Syrian goddess in Hierapolis)
Artemis, the goddess of fertility; she has already

1) 1 Kings 11:5

161

at her mother's (Latona midwifery office, represented) and was called by the Parcs to assist the new mothers.
(Is that correct?); her image in Ephesus shows the nourishing breasts in large numbers. In Carthage, in the first Christian times...
For centuries, the heavenly Virgin, who was on the same phoenician soil the old Astarte was based on, also venerated through sexual relationships; the Church Father Augustine speaks of abhorrent games which the Cybele and the Heavenly Virgin were held). But I would also like to draw on these quotations from the Church Fathers.
Roman Carthage, wherever Cybele stood beside the heavens (called the Lish Virgin), a confirmation found
It could be that Asherah and Astarte, the former of whom the Cybele, the latter corresponding to Artemis, not for one and They were not considered the same deity, but rather different goddesses.
were kept apart, even though pure Artemis adopted part of the sexual cult of Cybele men and vice versa, Cybele had cut-down priests.

We therefore separate the Astarte from the Asherah, the receptive and generative principles of nature, and let our investigation on the latter especially.

The name Asherah has already been discussed.
the; among the Babylonians she was called Mylitta, among the Greeks and the Romans are associated with their concept of Ceybele, Juno and Venus. Her image among the Hebrews was a tree.
trunk, which, like the stone pillar of Baal, is most frequently next to these, on natural hills or artificially raised a hill was set; later, when temples were built, the Asherah also seems to shine in these. That this pillar, at least Apollo Dor. I, 4.

) Callimach. Hymn. in Dian. V, 22.
) August. de civil. dei II, 3.
Tertull, Apologet. 12.

11

162

in earlier times, when all art was alienated, wood was
It becomes clear from the words which are involved in the destruction of the Ashers are used; it is usually called »ab« here to cut, to burn; e.g., Gideon cuts down the column.
the Asherah and uses the wood for a burnt offering (for Jehovah). Without a doubt, it was initially the tree itself, which as a symbol of the creative, feminine nature was worshipped for her power; the goddess was recognized in her particular... large and beautiful trees of the land, under which one Then sacrificed. This sacrifice takes place under green trees.
in the oldest Hebrew history until its downfall the states of Israel and Judah; also the altars of Jehovah were which in earlier times was planted under trees and in groves;
This is what the prohibition in Deuteronomy 16:21 refers to. Specifically was the mighty terebinth a hot thing to the ancient Sfraelites?
A slender tree, worthy of veneration simply because of its great age.
(it is supposed to reach a thousand years) and through the same the Descendants are a lasting mark of the ancient sacrificial site. of the ancestors. Abraham builds an altar to Jehovah's un-among the terebinths at Mamre; according to Joshua 24:26.
Jehovah's sanctuary is found under a terebinth tree.
and Joshua there erects the memorial stone of the vow of Israelites are called upon to abandon the foreign gods and only follow the Lord.
to worship Hova; Judges 6:11, the angel Jeho appears.
va's under a terebinth tree, Gideon sacrifices under this Trees, and the circumstance that the victim emerges of itself ignites, indicates the presence of Jehovah; also under Jerobeam, another prophet of Jehovah, will establish his seat under (a terebinth tree). The Reform Party declared

1) Not. 6:26. Cf. Deuteronomy 7:5; 12:3.

2) Genesis 13:18. In this place stood, even in the first A sacred terebinth tree in Christian times. Joseph. bark. Jew. 4, 9, 7; Eus eb. praep. Gospel 5, 9.

) 1 Kings 13, 14.

+

163

the sacrifices under the trees for idolatry, but they lasted They continued on to exile. Especially the foreign deities. and in particular the Asherahs were planted under terebinths and other trees were venerated. In the service of Asherah, they gave These trees and the groves in general also offer an opportunity to meat traffic).

The Asherah appears as a tree trunk very early on.
Time, as the above message from Gideon proves. To these
The tree trunk formed the image of a phallus,
The male member, as a symbol of procreation. That the
The phalluses of Asherah were made entirely of wood,
This cannot be proven; they were probably also in Palestine, where resources allowed, later from precious Made from fabrics. At least that's what the phalluses in (the Syrian temples?). Since usually If two such phalluses appear next to each other, one must Assume one has the masculine, the other the feminine represent a natural principle; perhaps we may also from the above statement by Herodotus about the phalluses in Palestine to conclude that the feminine principle has been excluded here and there stone?) depicted and to distinguish it from the male
The consecrated genitals were attached to it. If
For example, in the temple at Tyre, there is one pillar of gold.
was, the other of emerald, so probably the Kings of Israel and Judah for the temples did not have been satisfied with a wooden column; of the columns which Solomon erected in front of the Temple by the Phoenicians It is said in 1 Kings 7:14 that they were made of copper. sen seyen. However, as a rule, the biblical text supports this.

1) yard. 4, 13; Ezech. 6, 13; Yes. 57, 5.

Herodotus. II, 44.

The image of Venus in the famous temple at Paphos was a conical stone.

11 *

164

Passages that mention the destruction of the Afcheren
These pillars were made of wood.

As noted, they can be found in the oldest biblical texts. (Messages on hills and under trees, sometimes alone) (usually next to the Pillar of Baal), and so on until to exile. Under the kings of Israel and Judah, the ashes so common that, according to the complaint of the Prophets), on all the hills, under all the green trees and especially in the gardens of the Hebrews, like Priapus. The Greeks were seen. The nature goddess found also at the entrance to the temples. From the two pillars, which Solomon had placed in front of the temple in Jerusalem, She undoubtedly listened to one of the Asherahs. In the kingdom The cult of this goddess flourished most in Israel under the King Ahab, favored by his wife Jezebel, a Sidonian princess. In those days, 400 prophets will appear. the Afchera mentioned”), which were obtained at royal expense were. Ahab had built a temple to Baal in Samaria. built, which, it seems, is also dedicated to Asherah “was; there he erected an Asherah.” But it occurs in This kingdom also includes the so-called calves, which have a sense of Jehovah's images; 2 Kings 23:15. Josiah burns the Asherah, which was located next to the altar of Jeroboam at Bethel; 2 Kings 17:16 is also among the reasons by which the Israelites taken prisoner, the anger

1) Micah 5:13.

2») Judges 6:25; 1 Kings 14:23; 18:18, 19; 2 Kings 17:10; 23, 14, 14; Deuteronomy 7, 5; 12, 3; 2 Chronicles 14:12; Micah 6, 12, 13.

3) Isaiah 1:29; 57:5; Jeremiah 3:13; 2:23, 24; 17:2. Micah makes Chapter 5, where he speaks of eradicating idolatry, verse 13. only the Asherah named, which also indicates that their Cult befarrers blühte.

) 1st king 18, 19.) 1 Kings. 16, 32, 33.

165

Jehovah's had taken it upon themselves, they said, they had two cast calves and ashes made; the latter expression It's too close to the calves here to be able to pinpoint him. the later following «they served Baal, to be able to— These Asherians were even destroyed by the Prophet himself. Elisha did not anoint Jehu, although he had anointed the house of Ahab and eradicate the Baal worship; the calves remain and Josiah (The Asherah is still found next to them!). As in the kingdom Israel added an Asherah to the symbols of Jehovah, to the Bulls, together, so they also penetrate the temple in Jerusalem. (even into the Holy of Holies under King Manasseh?), who where she has her column erected.

Of the sacrifices offered to Asherah, The Old Testament writings do not provide a specific indication. correct. Since their pillar is usually next to other idols Since she stood, those who stood with her probably also applied to the other. sacrifices offered to God; but she will also, especially where she appeared alone, having received their special gifts. Na Mentally, she may be called the dove, like the Paphisian Venus. lig gewesen sey, which alone among all birds was sacrificed by the Jews, and very frequently at that?). "Women who have recently given birth had to offer doves": a sacrifice of which one may assume existed before the exile of Asherah was considered. Bucks were also associated with the Paphian Venus.

sacrificed: it is possible that this was also the case with Asherah.
was. The cakes which Greek women offered to Venus Consecrations were customary and can also be found in Jeremiah, where the women

1) 2 Kings 10:29, 31

) 2 Kings 21:7; she appears alone; so Jeremiah 17:2.

Genesis 15:9; especially the poor, to whom a larger animal was added
When the Jews came to power, they used to sacrifice turtledoves; 3 Mos.
1, 14; 5, 7.

) 3. Mos. 12:6, 8.

166

to offer such to the Queen of Heaven 5; this one, however, is rather Astarte, having been Asherah, or perhaps already since she was from so fervently venerated by Jewish women as their sole savior will be?), a mixture of Ashera with Astarte to a new female deity who uses the terms virgin—
It combined ethereal purity and receptive femininity, as the Syrian goddess in Hierapolis.

Especially sacred were the creative forces of nature, and so also the Asherah, the pomegranates, which are of all ages
They are symbols of fertility. We also find them among the Greeks, it was again in the golden apple of Eris, which Paris attributes to Venus, and even more clearly at Columns of Juno. Pausanias reports that the image the Juno, a work by Polykleitos, which is in a temple at Mycenae was admired, holding a scepter in one hand, in the other I held the pomegranate; the latter a secret interpretation is attached, which he conceals with silence.
skip over).

These pomegranates are very important to those the pillars which Solomon had erected in front of the Temple Jerusalem, and which apparently meant nothing else,
as the generative and receptive, male and female Natural force, Baal, and Asherah. He let, in order to...

to carry out the work, as recounted in 1 Kings chapter 7, a famous artist in bronze, Hiram, from Tyre, the son of a Tyrian coppersmith and a widow from the tribe of Naphtali. This marriage already signifies it.

1) Jer. 7:18. Such sacrificial cakes also Hos. 3:1.
) Jer. 44, 17-19.

3) Pause on. II, 17. Compare Philostratus. vit. Apollo. IV, 28. Otherwise, the pomegranate was replaced by the Greeks and Romans. Pineapple, which is used everywhere at the festivals of Bacchus and Cybele appeared. The pine tree was sacred to Epbele.

167

that the Jewish women did not experience any violent [disease] even in David's time Aversion to the idolatrous Phoenicians can be have; so proves the Phoenician artist, who here to glorify a temple built for Jehovah-is brought in, even more so for the kinship of the religious-sen ideas of the Hebrews and Phoenicians of that time.
Hiram conducts his work according to the Phoenician model.
The phalluses in front of large temples looked like this: "He bilt dete, it says in verse 15, "The two pillars of copper, eight-ten cubits the height of one column, and a fathom of The other column comprised twelve cubits. The spot is somewhat dark, because it only gives off the light from one column.
Height is one thing, thickness is another. Probably.
was the pillar representing the male god higher and thinner, while the Ashera stems are somewhat shorter and thicker. On He placed a copper knob on each of these columns, the...
Height five ells, so about a quarter of the rest
The pillar was fraudulent — one cannot deny it, the artist
He used nature as a model for his phallus.
– Seven people moved around the circle over this button.
raised metallic strips in width and height, form-ten also, as it were, a grid around it; the area under This grid displayed lilies in cast (?) work and all sorts of things.
thread; one of these grids, probably the one which

The largest circle in the middle of the button was planted with two rows of pomegranates; one of which Knöpfe is noted in verse 20, that he has 200 pomegranates. had been decorated; this was also the case with the other one. As can be seen from verse 42, which says: "Beer: One hundred pomegranates to the two trellises, two rows of Pomegranates to form a trellis, to cover the two cows"

1) Cf. Jer. 52:21 ff.

) 1 Kings 7:46. Jeremiah mentions only 100 pomegranates. given; Jeremiah 52:23.

168

The knobs on the columns. — These columns received untouched in front of the temple in Jerusalem, the whole throughout the duration of the Jewish state; Josiah also created They did not go away. During the destruction of the temple by the The Chaldeans let Nebusaradan, the general of Nebuchadnezzar, (Break off and take the copper to Babylon). — Be It is noteworthy that even the hem on the outer garment of the The Jewish high priest's [place] was covered with pomegranates; A golden bell and a (purple pomegranates lined up one after the other?).

Regarding the sacrifices that were offered to Asherah And now we have a special word to say about the people. to add a offering. It was already noted above that the Human sacrifices that bled to Baal, and also his companions Terin, the Asherah, will have been considered. It is, as ge says, an erroneous view, caused by a few Passages in the third book of Moses, where only the Moloch is mentioned Speech is when one wants to claim that it is only Baal Moloch in the valley of Hinnom among the Hebrews, human sacrifice fallen; frequent Bible passages prove that this type of sacrifice was far more general than simply attributing them to that valley. could limit it, or even just to the image column there of Moloch. Moloch is only frequently mentioned by name, because he particularly demanded human blood. In rare In those cases, the other deities also received such [gifts].

Victims; they might be on the creative or destructive side.
Those who belonged to it were subjected to bloody sacrifices, and where
When a god once shed blood, it lay among these peoples.
The idea is close to the conclusion that God also demands this.
The most precious, noblest blood, that of humankind. It would not be free from...

*

2 Kings 25:13, 17. At the first deportation to Babylon
They had still left the Chaldeans standing, Jeremiah 27:19; at this Stelle mentions Jehovah without any reproach.
2) 2. Mof. 28, 33, 34.

169

to watch this conclusion being drawn with only one god should have been done; children were both a Gift of the creative goddess, in the form of animals.

Thus, without doubt, the Asherah, the Goddess of fertility, children, out of gratitude for the
The blessing of children and the blessing of nature in general were offered.
A passage in Isaiah points to this quite clearly. It says there, chapter 57, 3 ff.: But you come near, sons of Zau-Berlin, brood of the adulterer and the whore! Over whom does this make
Are you laughing at each other, who are you talking about?
The tongue? Are you not children of the abyss, brood of the A lie that has been kindled for the idols among all things-
the green tree, which the children slaughtered
In the valleys, beneath the rocky clefts? Smooth
The stones of the valleys are your portion, they, they are your lot;
You also offer them drink offerings and bring grain offerings: can
Can I calm myself down about that? On a high and sublime mountain
You will pitch your camp there, and there you will also climb up, to make sacrifices. And behind door and post you place
You abandon your devotion. For you have turned away from me and concealed it. up and climb and stipulate your wages) from them, you
You desire their companionship, you see a place. You move to the Kings') with oil and take much of your ointment; you send your messengers far away, even deep into the underworld).

Idolatry is indeed completely forbidden by the prophets.

usually depicted under the image of fornication, adultery-presented themselves as if the Israelites were equated with Jehovah.

9772? Jer. 57:9.

2) Dixw— i The passage probably refers initially to the Idolatry in captivity, in which the so-called Pseudo-Isaiah wrote; but this idolatry was nothing else. res, as a continuation of the local cult.

170

(thinks about it); however, there is no reason why
We do not literally refer to the above passage as referring to the sexual
The cult of Baal and Asherah may encompass, since the
He also elsewhere than under green trees and under
The celebration is called camping. The smooth stones of the Thä
Those to whom libations and grain offerings are given,
They can be nothing other than phalluses, symbols of Baal
and the Asherah. The expression: "behind door and post"
If you set up your devotion, one could also say:
In your homes you have idols;
the following words: you uncover and ascend and be
You demand your wages from them, you desire their companionship and You see a place — these words are for the Asher cult.
so significant that the meaning of a sexual mixing in the chambers at the temple, under tents and trees, like where she was usually in the service of Asherah is much closer.
The prophetic author starts from the ordinary image.
of adultery committed against Jehovah, but comes as soon to the real whoring in the Baal and Asherian services to speak, whereby the earlier image, admittedly in one of our Jehovah's ideas are of a very offensive nature, through which shimmers, like verse 8: "turned away from me you uncover and climbs elsewhere."

Verse 5: "Those who are inflamed for the idols among every green tree which the children slaughtered in the "Thälern, unter den Felöflüften," celebrates the human sacrifices with the idols under trees apparently in connection).

Isaiah 54:5-8; Isaiah 62:5; Courtly Acts 2:16, from which passage: proceeds in such a way that the marital relationship is primarily affected by the victims had to be upheld. Jeremiah 3:1.

2) Jeremiah also brings human sacrifices in the same way. Hills and rock crevices in connection with chapter 16, verse 16: "I will Send many hunters to hunt them down from every mountain and from every hill and from the crevices in the rocks. For my

171

From Moloch images we do not learn that they are under jeg~~o~~ a green tree was planted; but the Ashers planted in large numbers under trees. the following words, «which the children slaughtered in the Thä~~o~~ "Learn, beneath the rocky clefts," limit the human sacrifices. not to a single valley, but explicitly state that they in the valleys, so in general in the valleys of the country~~o~~ of and were brought under various rock crevices. One cannot object that Asherah poles and Baal pillars are merely placed at heights, but here be only by Men~~o~~ Offer up in the valleys the speech; for the pillars Baal and Asherah were just so likely in the theories— learned, erected on high ground; in the valleys they threw those artificial hills, of which so often at the idol— The speech is about service. Rather, one seems to see the valleys and Rock crevices, primarily due to the springs and streams, are important for the to have visited the offering of the human sacrifices. Dar~~o~~ This is indicated not only by the present passage, whose Hebrew Expression which de Wette translates as "valley", in fine The first meaning is "brook," then it refers to a stream flowing from a brook. (irrigated valley); but also the circumstance, that Elijah did not immediately confront the priests of Baal on the mountain sacrifices, but first leads them down to the Kison stream and (where the sacrifice is performed). From the valley of Hinnom, of course. We do not know from biblical accounts that it was from a

Bache durchfchnissen gest sey; doch fon wie sehr

—

Eyes are on all their ways, they are not hidden.
Their transgression is before my eyes, and it is not concealed.
And I will first repay double transgression and sin, therefore, that she desecrates my land with the corpses of her abhorrent
My property has been filled with idols and abominations.

9 above Is. 57, 5th volume) cf. Winer's bibl. Realw. I, 147.

) 1 Kings 18:40

172

Depicted in a fertile and graceful way, what exists in that hot land Strokes were only possible through sources; according to Hierony-mus (ad Jerem. 7, 31.) it was from the spring of Siloa irrigated. Why one needs flowing water for men?
Whether or not sacrifices were necessary cannot be said with certainty;
Perhaps springs and streams were considered places of habitation for the creative gods, since water was the fertilizing element, Perhaps the sacrificing priest also had to speak with flowing [unclear]

except his hands and implements from the man Cleanse the blood. Incidentally, it is certain that even on Ber were brought to human sacrifice. The Prophet travels in The above passage continues immediately: "On a high and sublime mountain
You will pitch your camp there, and there you will also climb up, to make sacrifices; where, of course, the expression "sacrifice" is used.
The matter remains undefined, since mere animal sacrifices are also included.
can be stood. There is clearer evidence for such men.
Shen sacrifice on the mountains, a passage in Ezekiel, chapter 20.
Verse 28, where it says: "They considered every high hills and any densely foliated tree and sacrifice
ten there their victims and laid down there their anger—

They brought gifts and their sweet fragrance there.
 and there they offered their libations. Therefore, speak to the House of Israel: Thus says Jehovah: How? On the way
 You defile yourselves and their abominations with your fathers.
 Follow her, and by bringing your gifts,
 by consecrating your children through fire, enjoining
 You have defiled yourselves by all your idols to this day.
 The later mention of child victims is quite clear here.
 lich used as an explanation for the annoying gifts that are given under
 They were sacrificed under green trees and on high hills.
 What speaks particularly in favor of the human sacrifices on mountains is that the mountains were holy; Abraham sacrifices on one Berge, Moses and Aaron climb a mountain to...
 To die a sacrificial death, Solomon sets the image of the Mil-come to a hill near Jerusalem, the threshing floor of Arvana, a 173

The sacrificial site that David buys from the Jebusites is located on a hill near Jerusalem; the Jewish Temple itself
 It will be built on this hill.

Münster is therefore certainly wrong when he claims²
 tet'), that no human sacrifices were offered to Astarte.
 As noted, he distinguishes between Ashera and Astarte.
 no; but the human sacrifices can still be attributed to the latter.
 more conclusively than from Asherah. Our above
 The passage in Isaiah speaks primarily of the Asherah; for
 She in particular stood under green trees and took over²
 They primarily participate in the sacrifices of all gods, because they are offered at every God was set. It would be called the above passage, which was written by the
 It involves human sacrifice, committing violence, if one wanted to to refer to the king (Moloch) that follows further down.
 They are inflamed, it is said, for the idols among all things-from the green tree and slaughter the children in the valleys; Smooth stones are your portion, to which you offer sacrifices. Here
 The slaughter of people stands right in the middle between designations² the direction of Baal and Asherah; the green trees indicate on the tree cult of Asherah and the smooth stones on the Pillars of Baal; the plural «idols» speaks without²

1) Münter, Rel. d. Karth., p. 77; he says that at most one could Roman barbarity, during solemn ceremonies dedicated to the gods Do people play with wild animals in amphitheaters? to accuse, to reckon with, according to an allusion in Tertullian Apologize. e. 12: Ad bestias inpellimur. Certe quas Libero et Cybeli et Coelesti applicatis.,

2 nz. Not only here does the so-called Pseudo-Isaiah speak.

in clear terms that human sacrifices to several gods Not only were they fallen, but other prophets as well. Ezekiel, for example. 16:36 says: "This is what the Lord Jehovah says: Because your Gold wasted and your shame exposed is in your whoredom for your lovers and for all your hideous idols and because of the blood of your sons, whom you gave to them, 3e.

174

It is clear enough that several gods are involved here. This is the speech of those to whom human sacrifices were offered. On Mo= Isaiah only speaks in the ninth verse and un= He clearly differs from the above idols in that he calls him by the fine name "King", the image of the King states by describing his service as an anointing and the human sacrifices that are offered to the god, with compares royal messengers who go to the realm of the dead, Sheol, be sent.

We cast our attention to characterizing our goddess Asherah. one more look at the fleshy victims, which in their Services were offered.

Herodotus reports) on the service of the Babylonian Asherah (Mylitta) as follows. The Babylonians, he says, "They have the abominable law that every woman in the to erect a temple to Aphrodite and, once in her life, to a must give up on strangers. The wives of the rich drive in covered carriages with a considerable entourage in front of the temple and stop here to be separated from the rest to undergo the religious act; the women ge-But those of ordinary standing sit in rows in the temple with a rope around their heads. They have to sit here for as long as they like.

until a stranger throws them a coin, saying:

Likewise, Ezekiel 16:17ff., where the prophet says that the Jews
Gods were made from gold and silver and painted in bright colors.
They appeared to have put on clothes. So they apparently also had Idols in human form, and one may assume that Baal and Asherah, Moloch and Astarte in later times these
They also assumed a form. Verse 20, he continues: You near-
You feed your sons and daughters whom you bore to me, and sacrifice-Test them to eat. Was there too little of yours?
Fornication, that you also slaughtered my children and gave them up, by dedicating them to them?, Of gold and silver jewelry and the purple robes of the gods speak. 10:9.

1) Herodotus. I; 199. ö i .

175

"Very well, in the name of the goddess Mylittal." Then follows the woman before the stranger in front of the temple, where the action What's going on. The beautiful ones quickly reach their goal,
But the ugly ones often have to go to the temple for years, until they can fulfill the law. Has a woman been subject to this Once the goddess has performed her service, she is through (no more gifts can be used to induce such an action).
A similar custom can also be found in some places on Cyprus. »

Whether this custom originally has its basis in, that they are a substitute for the actual sacrifice of the first—
It is impossible to decide whether to give up the born girl.
It is equally believable that originally girls sacrificed, rather than immediately coming up with the idea-come, one must give this or that goddess the young-(sacrificing a woman?). The Babylonian custom,

that a woman in her life should once in her life choose in favor of the Mylitta had to give up the temple treasure to a stranger, seems to have been only a favor for the man.

1) Herodotus probably only means the walk into the Temple here; pel; for shortly before (chapter 196) he says, since the Babylonians Having been subjugated and become poor, every poor person should seek through Abandoning his daughters is a crime. Curtius describes the The moral state of affairs in Alexander's time was extremely debauched: Cape. 5, 1: Nee ullus locus disciplinae militari magis nocuit;

nihil urbis ejus corruptius moribus, nec ad jirritandas illiciendasque immodicas voluptates instruetius. Liberos conjugesque cum hospitibus stupro coire, modo pretium flagitii detur, paren-tes maritime patiuntur. Feminarum, convivia ineuntium, in principio modestus is habitus; your summa quaeque amicula exuunt, paulatimque pudorem profanant: ad ultimum (honos auribus sit) ima corporum velamenta projected; no meretricum hoc dedecus est, sed matronarum virginumque, apud quas comitas habetur vulgati corporis utilitas. “

Böttiger finds the origin of this custom decidedly in early times.
Human sacrifice. Ideas on the myth of art. p. 405.

2

—

176

sien, to whom one wanted to give his fine wife as a virgin, why one should postpone giving up until later in marriage expelled. Herodotus always speaks in the above passage only by women); but the real victim will probably be in the surrender of virginity; for in its origin lies, without doubt, the same idea as the human sacrifices, namely to offer the most precious thing to the god or goddess.

But now human sacrifices and the abandonment of the female sex in the service of the same goddess side by side other, and from this at least this much follows, the gruesome
The custom of human sacrifice was made possible by the devotion of the young Virginity not entirely abolished. Virgins were all things sacrificed in antiquity; for all things were supposed to be sacrificed.
Firstborn children are dedicated to the gods, so too are the first ones.
Born girls. Ezekiel mentions in the above-mentioned passage.
tenth place, chapter 16, verse 20, that the Jews also their daughters had slaughtered, as well as Jeremiah 3:24; also Psalm 106, 37, 38 and other passages explicitly state that Both girls and boys were said to have been sacrificed;
I also remind you of Jephthah's daughter and the legend.
of Iphigenia, whose death is supposed to reconcile Diana.
One will therefore be able to ascertain approximately this much:
Giving up one's virginity is a milder degree of service
The goddess was the first; the maiden, who was not hers as
The child was slaughtered, and later her virginity had to be taken away.
to sacrifice one's ability.

Justin reports from Cyprus that the daughters there used to go to the coast to serve Venus to surrender to the stranger and thus acquire a dowry ben 2). From another part of the same story

(writer) we learn that one also in Greece of the abandonment of the daughters brings great success with the gods
He promised; the Locrians, from the tyrant Leophron besieged, they made a vow to celebrate their wares at a festival of Venus.
To give up virgins if they were to win. In Persia received the goddess Anaitis) such sacrifices,
This service is found in all Eastern countries, (especially in Phoenicia?) and Carthage") still in the centuries after Christ's birth.

So too among the Jews from the earliest times
ten until captivity. Even Abraham and Isaac They must have rather broad concepts of duties and rights. of the marriage, since they gave their wives away to others could borrow; more of these below. So early and so retrici donasse, egg erat Venus noun. Initiasse etiam Cypriae Veneri plurimos et vanis consecrationibus deputasse. Statues etiam, ut quicunque initiari vellet, secreto Veneris sibi traditional, assem in manum mercedis nomine deae daret. Quod secretum quale sit, omnes tacite intelligere debemus., Arnob. adv. Gent. V. says of the same service: "Stipes inferunt ut meretrici et referunt phallos propitii numinis signa."

1) Justin. XXI, 3.

2) Kleuker's Appendix to Zendavesta III, 61.

3) Eus eb. vit. Constant. III, 55. N

In the Carthaginian region, the city of Sicca Venerea is known as The seat of such a cult is mentioned. They sought refuge there, after Val.

- Max. II, 6., the daughters just as in Cyprus, a dowry to acquire. Augustine (de civit. dei) speaks of a gift.

de prostitutione filiarum, which received the Vesta meretricum

(IV, 10). It was still in the time of this Church Father in

In these regions, a very pleasurable cult is commonplace:

"The solemn lavationis, (narrates Augustin de civit. dei II, 4.) ante Berecynthiae lecticam talia per publicum cantitabantur a nequissimis, scenicis, qualia . . . nec matrem ipsorum Scenicorum deceret audire., He is not merely speaking of a turpitude obscenorum dictorum, but also factorum, which here happened fey spectante et audiente * sexus ie sima multitudine.

12

178

Far up high one finds ashes, which date back to the age of Judges until the downfall of the states of Israel and Judah This sexual cult of the procreating Baal will also and ruled the receptive and birthing nature goddess have; in the Mosaic Age it will not be granted,

However, an example occurs in the service of Baal Peor in the desert. The goddess had her special priests, who The biblical writers call them fornicators; the sex= The service itself took place partly outdoors under trees and Tents instead, partly in the buildings attached to the temple makers, also besides the altars that are in the streets of the cities were built in specially designated areas= (arches). Solomon probably already had a part the temple's outbuildings for the Afcher service. That's right. A similar institution must also exist in Babylon. have been, since the women, as Herodotus recounts, with the Strangers left the temple, and yet the action continued. It was probably not done outdoors.

up, to the priests of Asherah, whose image still... to Jo= In Sia's time, when the temple was in session, the women of Jerusalem. Are there also clear statements? that the Jewish women, like the Babylonian women, for wages They gave themselves up and determined this reward for the temple. This is the aim of the prohibition in Deuteronomy 23:17: There should be no There are no female lovers among the daughters of Israel, and no male lovers. It shall be among the sons of Israel: you shall not receive the reward

— —

Ezek. 16:24, 31, 2. very similar to the fornix of the Romans, wel=

ches also means Schwibbogen and whorehouse, because the same= chen shops in the vaulted rooms on the ground floor to Rome were operated; Ho rat. sat. I, 2, 30; Juve n. III, 156.

*) e.g. Micah 1:7: "Their idols will be smashed to pieces and All their wooing wages were burned with fire, and all their idols I destroy: she collected such things from her whore's wages and for They will be paid like whores again. (Cf. Hos. 9:1)

Bringing a prostitute the price of a dog into your house is no small feat. Jehovah's, your God, according to any vow; for it is an abomination to Jehovah your God to find both of them.” This prohibition apparently refers to the custom that the Priests and priestesses of the goddess a true Ge— made of it, as the Syrian Kede otherwise did— schen diden, with their bodies for the benefit of the temple treasury to pursue acquisition?), and that other persons are also assigned— len vowed to undergo such an act and to deliver the money to the temple. The proceeds for dogs. — an animal that, although because of its fine, vigorous sex— Triebes very naturally connects with the Afchera would — probably rather as proceeds for an unnatural To understand the surrender of men, whom one therefore dogs.

Let us hear some biblical passages about this. bad service of the Hebrews. In the kingdom of Israel it appeared— as has already been noted, the ashes continuously; This is especially attested to by the prophets. Hosea He says of the Israelites in chapter 4, verse 12 ff.: “My people are Consult his wood, and his staff shall tell him; for the The spirit of fornication seduced her, and she became a whore, unfaithful. to their god. On the mountaintops they sacrifice and on They smoke on the hills, under oak and poplar and tere— Binthe, because lovely are their shadows; therefore your daughters are whores And your daughters-in-law are committing adultery. I can't believe it.

1) A related law, 3 Moof. 19:29: “You shall thy daughters— Do not defile her by letting her prostitute herself, so that the land not to practice fornication and become full of vice.

2) The Spanish dancers who performed in the first centuries of the Roman Empire at Roman banquets, lustful performed dances (Juve n. XI, 164. and Arnob. adv. gent. II.), and apparently also of Phoenician or Carthaginian origin; Gades, as is well known, was a Phoenician colony.

Punish your daughters for being whores, and punish your daughters-in-law, that they commit adultery; for they themselves go set aside with whores and sacrifice with harlots; and that A misunderstanding people will fall into ruin. Hosea 9:1

“Do not rejoice, Israel, with jubilation; for you have committed adultery, Unfaithful to your God, you love harlots on all the threshing floors! – When the kingdom of Israel was destroyed, those who were in charge of the— led Israelites, Babylonian immigrants, this cult in those regions, which also existed in Babylonia were submissive. “Every nation,” it says in 2 Kings 17, 29th, 30th, “made himself a fine god and placed him in the heights- Houses which the Samaritans had built, and the people The daughters of Babel made huts.

The ministry of Afchera did not flourish in the kingdom of Judah. less, as the books of kings lament, even under the first king of the land, Rehoboam, son of Solomon— mo's. It says in 1 Kings 14:22: "And Judah did what Evil was in Jehovah's eyes, and it angered him more. than everything their fathers did with their sins, with which They sinned. And they too built themselves high places and pillars. and ashes on any high hill and under every green tree. There were also suitors in the land; They did the same atrocities as all the nations which Jehovah had committed. "Driven out before the sons of Sfrael'd." — Later, Assa drives the suitors from the country'); but this cannot be fully consistently successful or meant seriously; since Jo— saphat, his son, “the rest of the lovers who remained—” They remained in the days of Assai, his father, from the Lande emptied?).“ The measure, which is merely

1) 1 Kings 15:12

2) 1 Kings 22:47. The biblical authors write to the Reformed... Torian zeal of the few kings who embraced the reforming Those who favored the views of the prophets generally experienced excessive success. to and extend it too far, as can be seen from history.

His attempts to speak in Jerusalem were of little success; for Jehoshaphat's son, Joram, did again what was evil in (in the eyes of Jehovah), and the suitors, who merely from the Temples were displaced (the hill cult outside Ser (Salem's remained untouched even under the above kings?), naly men regained possession of the temple's side buildings. Subsequently, Hezekiah abolishes the heights, breaks them up the pillars and eradicate the ashes. It is thereby merf-worthy that the Assyrian general Rabsake, who Se-Rusalem besieged, this procedure against the Jewish descendants—sens as a crime committed against Jehovah, why the beleaguered inhabitants of Jerusalem did not who could rely more on Jehovah's help." Apparently What effect did Hezekiah's actions have on the Jewish people? made a very bad impression; it appeared as a sacrilege. the local gods. Rabsake, to whom the thereby caused-Gentle discouragement of the people proved advantageous, makes This gave the king's envoy one motive. noticeable for subjugation. — Hezekiah's son, Manasseh, Rebuild the heights, erect altars to Baal, and set (an Asherah even into the Holy of Holies of the Temple): "He placed an image of Asherah that he had made into the The house of which Jehovah spoke to David and Solomon, be—even he can clearly see. The idolatry, which they are supposed to eradicate> have tet, is under the successor always with all fei- There are elements there. So Assai is supposed to drive the suitors out of the country. have driven, under Jehoshaphat, his son, but is found is driven out; however, under Joram everything is already back to normal. Previously. One doesn't hear that these kings repeatedly brought new ones. Idolatrous priests had been sent; the old ones must were still in the country.

However, a remnant of the Buhler, who are now supposedly completely gone.

1) 2nd King. 8, 18.) 1 Kings. 15, 14; 22, 44.) 2 Kings. 18, 4.
) 2nd King. 18, 22, 23. °) 2 Kings. 21, 7/3 |

To my son: To this house and to Jerusalem I will go
 "Leave my name forever." It seems here, as if this image of Asherah were not merely a tree trunk more than that, but rather an image in human form. For that The expression "image" and the fact that a
 A simple wooden column would have been too plain for the temple.
 would be; one would imagine a female figure under this image, made of (made of wood and adorned with a magnificent garment) to think of this statue, which, among the many gold decorations in the temple), also gold and precious stones
 They will not have been missing. King Josiah is destroying the Asher service is performed once again; he creates the image of Asherah.
 from the temple, burn it, grind it to dust and scatters this dust on the graves of common people, too
 "He tore down the houses of the lovers who were in the crowd of Jeho—" va's were where the women wove tents for Asherah.
 Tents, that is, which are then set up outdoors under trees.
 were so that they could worship the goddess.
 Even the Asherah, which was still in the former kingdom of Ifrael
 "He stood at the altar at Bethel and was burned," yes, he sacrificed in fine barbaric zeal even all the priests of the High Ones “unn DDI—NR 2. Kön. 21, 2. The word 7999 means tet an image made by the chisel, but is also by wooden pictures used, as RR 45, 20, 100 Y is attached.

 Compare Yes. 44, 15-17; Yes. 48,

2) As already mentioned above, Ezekiel 16:17ff. speaks of gold. and silver and colorful fabrics, which were used for the images of the gods were turned. Compare Isaiah 46:6.

) 1 Kings 6:21, 22, 23. Here, of course, there is no doubt an exaggeration;
 But the cherubs (verse 25) are completely covered in gold.
 to be an essence. Compare 2 Kings 18:16.

) 2nd King. 23, 6. 7.) 2 Kings. 23, 15.

on those altars in the kingdom of Israel; at least that will 2 Kings 23:20 reports. And yet even this one had fear.
 The attempts at religious conversion had no lasting consequences: so little
 The reformist party of priests and prophets, even though she had adopted a ruler as her own,
 with their barbaric zeal for conversion, a lasting mark gain influence over the population! The own son the
 The reformist king had adopted some of the principles of Father's assumption that little would happen after Josiah's death returned to the old ways; for Joahaz that again, "what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah, quite so, as fine fathers have done), as has his successor Joja Kim?) and the following kings (Joy, ach in), the be already taken prisoner along with the better part of the people
 The company was led to Babylonia, and Zedekiah (!), who last king of Judah.

Thus, throughout the entire time of the Jewish state only two kings, Hezekiah and Josiah, a serious threat
 They set out to abolish the Asherah cult; they succeeded.
 but only for their lifetime; and even then this [period] continued.
 Service, which, as under Manasseh, after the death of such a
 The more powerfully the king emerges, the more he remains hidden.

1) 2 Kings 23:32. I must also refer here to the above statement.
 to return to the observation that the biblical books of the Reformation exaggerate the effectiveness of the kings devoted to Jehovah.
 The prophet Jeremiah, a contemporary of King Josiah,
 The account of that time is quite different; there the idol is service is by no means completely eradicated; rather, the prophet laments continually about the prevailing idolatry. It also appears from the standpoint of Josiah, who was in front of the discovered writing himself did not know that idolatry was against the Mosaic faith.
 The offer was too harsh that he would have sacrificed the priests of the heights.
 who bore no other fault than himself, by doing that to him.
 previously publicly recognized cult.

2) 2nd King. 23, 37. 3) 2. 'King. 24, 9. 9 2 Kings. 24, 19.

184 back. The prophets complain greatly about the sexual

The licentiousness that this Asher cult provoked. From “From ancient times,” says Jeremiah, “you have broken your yoke.”
You broke off your bonds and said: I don't want to Serve! On every high hill you revealed yourself as Whore. How would you like to speak: I have not disobeyed.
cleanses, I have not followed Baal's example? See your Drifting in the valley! Recognize what you have done, you light one! foot-legged young female camel [in heat] running back and forth, a a forest donkey accustomed to the desert, which in her heat after the She gasps for air — who is preventing their mating? Those they seek,
They don't tire themselves out; in their moon they find what they're looking for.
Lift your eyes to the heights and look! Where are you?
Were you not violated? You lay in wait for her along the road like an Arab in the desert, and you desecrate the land by Your fornication and your wickedness. — Recognize your Guilt; for you have fallen away from Jehovah your God.
and wandered about to strangers under every green Baume. — Ezekiel): You took from your garments and made yourself colorful heights and hurt yourself on the same: [The
[The same] has not come, nor will it be..— «You that's worse than Samaria and Sodom in your wan del.» — »The father's shame is exposed in you [Je rufalem]; the women in their impurity slept in to you; each one commits an abomination with another's wife, and everyone defiles his daughter-in-law with incest,
and everyone sleeps with his sister, his father's daughter (in you). »

1) Jer. 2, 20 - 25; Cape. 3, 2. 13. *) Ezech. 16, 16. 47.

3) Ezek. 22:10; 33:26. Compare also Isa. 1:10, 29; ef. 3,
16. 17; Chapter 25, 16; Amos 2, 7. 8., who says of Israel:

“Son and father go to a prostitute to pray to my holy
To desecrate names, to stretch them on pawned garments beside any altar... — Court 2:5, 8, Chapter 7:4. — Jeremiah 2:5, 8.

185

As noted, the Old Testament scriptures refer to:

s figuratively represents idolatry through the image of the whore^s rei, which recurs endlessly to the point of disgust and especially by Ezekiel, taken to the extreme will be. One could therefore argue that some of the above points and from many others who still speak out against the Asher cult—

chen, say, they do not refer to both the sex—

The cult of Asherah, as opposed to idolatry in general.

Simply because of this, the sensual nature of the Orient—talents were particularly well-suited to the task; so

It cannot be a mistake, where the green trees—

men the speech is and elsewhere where the connection is a fpe-

a more civic relationship allows or requires the words of the pro—to grasp literally from the Asherah cult; all the more so more, since it is very likely that the extramarital affair^s

sexual mixing, which is in the service of procreation and receiving nature deities took place, the prophecy^s

ten to that image of fornication for idolatry over^s main cause).

4:7: “Your sons committed adultery and went into the brothel

They came in droves. Like well-fed stallions, they wandered about—

Here, one neighs after another's wife. — Jer. 13:27;

44, 9. — Incidentally, among some peoples of antiquity the Marriage to parents or siblings is permitted. Minucius Felix in octave. P. 35: Jus est apud Persas misceri cum matri-bus. Aegyptiis et Athenis cum sororibus legitimatea connubia.,

Compare, for example, Hosea 4:11-14. Here it says

Verse 11: “Fornication and wine and must rob the Ders

"The Prophet apparently understands the term 'fornication'!"

beer literally and connects it to the drinking bouts of Israel—liten, which also appears in many other places (e.g. Hof. 7, 5; 4, 18.)

be reprimanded. But now he immediately continues in the 12th verse:

“My people consult fine wood and fine staff, let it tell them.”

for the spirit of fornication has seduced them, and they are fornicating, They are unfaithful to our God; on the mountaintops they sacrifice and They smoke on the hills, under oak and poplar and tere~~binth~~

1

—

186

Molo ch.

Regarding the relationship between Moloch and Baal
As we have already discussed, this god is originally associated with Baal.
one and the same being; the name "King" means the same thing.
or perhaps say something more than just the name Baal,
"Mr. v. He was imagined as the king of the nation, Mr.
of the country; the people belonged to him; he demanded his Tribute from all produce, plants, animals, and people.
The image of this god, the bull, shows that Moloch originally the sun is; for the bull — we have already dealt with this — it is stated everywhere in those Countries represent the sun. Also fire, as an image of Mo~~l~~
The hole points back towards the sun; it should represent the god who was fiery sun ball far away, unreachable in the sky passed by, on earth near the people~~s~~ present. With the knowledge of the planet Saturn, shares
The veneration of the sole supreme ruler developed among the Semites.
God, of El, as Baal and Moloch, Lord and King, according to the two opposing principles, the creative and destructive, into two supreme deities, Baal and Moloch; the former is the sun, the latter Saturn; but Do both gods still remain related in a certain way?
shaft. |

Among the Babylonians, the sun god Baal
Main deity; among the Arabs and Phoenicians, the god

— nn

Saturn or Moloch, with which the i Jehovah

binthe; therefore your daughters and your daughters-in-law are whores break off marriage, etc. Here it is obvious that the prosecution...
The phet of idolatry used the image of fornication, but in the same connection also real whoring with the expression designated.

7.

187

is closely related; this one is also mentioned in the Old Testament.

“Melech,” kings, as they were called). The Ammonites were called ten the god Malchan, “our king,” hence the Hebrews also Malcham, Milkom, “their king”). Among the Moa=

The god Camos was called bitter (?), a word about whose being
The interpretation is not entirely clear, but that is probably the case.
derives from Arabic and means so much as the “Serious, Terrible One.” The Edomites call it No god is named in the Bible, however much one might think this at the oracle of Jeremiah against the Edomites (Jer. 49,
7. ff.) should be expected, since this prophet also appeared among the Am=

Monitern calls it Milkam, while the Moabites call it Camos.
However, Herodotus reports in the 8th chapter of the 3rd book, which

“The god of the Arabs is called Orotal and is Dionysus,
They also worshipped Urania, who was called Alilat.
Since Moloch is also otherwise associated with Dionysus
If it is set, then there is no doubt that even with Moloch was the Edomites' ancestral god; especially since the aftermath judgments we have about the religion of the Arabs, nor to otherwise point to a Moloch cult. Among the Phoenicians—
The god is also called Milichus, Malica, Malcan—the”), the Fire King.

1) e.g. B. Jer. 46, 18; 48, 15; Leviticus. 14, 34; 25, 2; Pf. 10, 16.

2) The Hebrew names are found in 3 Mos. 20:2, 5;
2nd King 23, 11; Jer. 32, 35; b. Jer. 49, 1.3; 20
1st King 11, 5, 33; 2nd King 23, 13.

3) w m 4. Mof. 21, 29; 1 Kings 2, 7; Jer. 48, 7, 13, 16. Cf.

Winer's lex. man. hebr. p. 482. Mo vers explains the word through "destroyer, destroyer, from the destructive element of fire; Gefenius in the thesaur. II, p. 693 by "subactor, domitor, Victor, "

) Movers the Phoenicians I, p. 523 That, as Münter, Rel.
Carth. p. 7 claims that the epithet of Zeus Meidixos

188

Thus it is found — this is for the relationship Jehovah's to Moloch is significant — with all the Jews be neighboring tribes the nature-hostile principle to Natio nalgott raised, namely that the Moloch, whose property:
The same things are found everywhere, in the cases where one individual tribes have different names and I in ver
It divides different national deities.

The star in which Moloch was worshipped is, as Saturn was noted; that is why the god is also called that by the Greeks.

deriving from Moloch, could, according to the other meaning of the
An expression that does not correspond to the character of Moloch, to be doubtful; at least the Moloch had of the uecdiria Nothing in itself. But since werdizin leg fal such sacrifices were, which were completely burned, and Zeus Weridixios the Protector of those who invoked him with expiatory offerings, However, fo would like to see a remembrance in this atonement and burning:
a relationship with Moloch; but then the weuddxños would have to

According to Zeus's subtle meaning, also from the wecdixios as ge:
ordinary adjective meaning “feet, timid, entirely”

“will be divorced. And this will be after a position at Pausanias VII, 19, which in general provides a very strange explanation
That is also the case. Here it is told, Eurypylos
I have a box containing a picture column from the Trojan booty.
of Dionysus, which he, who at the sight of the god
He went insane, following an oracle to the coast of
I brought Achaia to the temple of Artemis Triklaria.
Since then, the river has been diverted past this temple of Meilixos:
They are called. Dionysus is here, as is often the case with the Greeks, the ancient Moloch; the river gets its name. The box is the ark commonly used in this service (ark of the covenant); the image
No one can see the god without incurring the severest punishment.
to abandon. The Greek legend in Pausanias tells the story—True truth distorted; the river should first flow into Auerdixios:
to be called, have, etc. — Mellixios is probably called molo:
Chinese epithet of Zeus and Dionysus, the original; so Then the victims who were completely burned were called "ueikizier, and, because such sacrifices were meant to appease the terrible God, Thus the word acquired the meaning “feet, feet”.

.

189

and Romans Kronos or Saturn. The planet Saturn (was considered unlucky throughout antiquity); it was believed that that because of its great distance from the sun, it (rough and cold nature?). The Arabs called him "the major mishap,« the Mars »the minor mishap).» Tacitus, who also already mentioned the celebration of the Jewish Sabbath... derives from Saturn, says that the star therefore has this He was accorded high honors because he was the last and highest the planet 'be!"). Movers counters that Ancients would have in those earliest times when Saturn already venerated and the seventh day is celebrated, not yet knew that Saturn (they could of course not know Uranus) (not noticeable without a telescope) as the uppermost planet, the train—

one of the other circles. One can only imagine the high
 The veneration of this star can only be explained by this.
 from such knowledge. For how were the ancient peoples to—who had come to realize that in this way, so visible to the naked eye unseen Saturn (Pliny says he only appears as minimum sydus, because he summum sydus fey5), as folk ten they had come to this conclusion, this gloomy Saturn, the so many fixed stars surpass it in brilliance, as the highest God to worship, if not first and foremost through the observation that he a planet differs from the fixed stars in its movement be, like Venus and others, then through further experience—rung, that its orbit encompasses the orbits of all the planets

1) Juv. VI, 569: "Ignorat, quid sidus triste minetur Saturni."

) Plin. hist. nat. II, 8: "Saturni sydus gelidae ac rigentis naturae; he brings rain, Chapter 39.

3) From Ali Taleb at Norberg Onomast. and Gesen. Comment. to Isaiah II, 343.

) Tac. hist. V, 4: Quod e septem sideribus, quis mortales reguntur, altissimo orbe et praecipua potentia stella Saturni feature. " |

5). Plin. hist. nat. II, 8.

190 close? Already too frozen perception, which one can only expect from which cannot in any case be denied its connection to deeper antiquity, belonged to a strenuous observation of the starry sky; found

 But once such a thing had happened, the other could happen.
 Coverage, Saturn is the uppermost planet, as well as already there more often than by a later time, which is for her observations were made without any other aids, than the unarmed eye. Only the realization that this Even though Saturn is the highest planet, the celestial body could be seen in a murky light.
 the opinion of the peoples on the highest, most nature-hostile world
 They made it difficult. This discovery, however, might have been difficult for them.

The name Saturn already suggests that it has become something else.
one most likely from D- "hiding" heart leads to a lineage for which the circumstances also speak, that the name Latium comes from a former hidden abode= Hold of Saturn (the Phoenicians with their Moloch), (according to the Roman poets), originate from this, and (that all of Italy is called Saturnin tellus by Virgil?). After= which had just led to the discovery that that there is another, as yet hidden, planet which Being the highest, this star must also receive the highest veneration.
to claim for oneself.

Besides Saturn, the planet Mars was also used by the ancients.
revered as an ominous star; the Arabs called it him, as noted, the minor mishap. Also this pla=
The god Moloch represents neten; this is explained by several Circumstances at least highly probable, to= next, already by the fact that among peoples who inhabit the planets revered, this planet too demanded its representation and No god was better suited for this than Moloch himself.
Mars, as is well known, gave its reddish light to the ancients.
Character of a terrible one, consumed by its fiery heat—

) Ovid. Almost. I, 238. Virg. Aen. VIII, 322.

) Virg. Georg. II, 173.

191

God's words; but Moloch was likewise a representative of the devouring fire; in relation to Arabia
We also have news that there were human sacrifices on Mars. received 9. Further evidence speaks in favor of the veneration of Mars under the image of Moloch the circumstance that the pig, the animal of Mars, also among the Semitic peoples, which The worship of Moloch was sacred. The departure of the Jews before the pig, which the Phoenicians had in the same way, Arabs, Egyptians, Libyans, Syrians, Phrygians and Scythians divided?), is not based on dietary, son=
the religious considerations. The pig was a Animal sacred to evil gods; Mars was in Greeks=

(land depicted with the pig's head?), as well as the Egyptian= The evil god Typhon as a pig. The wild, ugly, panting boars in the heat, which hunt for prey at night and wreaks havoc and devours its own young, was in The animal kingdom is a very natural image for the evil god. As such an animal sacred to the evil god, the Pigs are partly abhorred by the aforementioned peoples, partly They were also sacrificed. Herodotus recounts this in the passage cited. from the Egyptians, that they considered the pig to be unclean Watching the animals and bathing in the river, even if a a pig only brushed against her by chance; also a pig may Shepherds may not enter any temple. But Selene and the Dionysus (the female and male evil god) Pigs would be sacrificed at a certain time, and then

1) The Arabs sacrificed to Mars, as already noted, with blood= Warriors with sprinkled clothes who were thrown into a pool. Gesen. Comment. on Isaiah II, 345.

) Dio Cass. 79, 11; Herodotus. II, 47; IV, 186; Lucian de dea Syr. 54.

) Plat. Amat. c. 12. There was also, without doubt, still of Crete. The Phoenicians considered the pig a sacred animal. (Movers) Phoenician I, 219.

192

Will the pork also be eaten? Lucian asks. the Syrians, the pork is neither eaten by them= eaten or sacrificed, but it is claimed that this is not because (not because they detest the pig, but because it is holy). Others were also made sacred to the gods in the same way. Animals were not eaten, as in Egypt, Libya, and Cyrene. The cows, in Syria the pigeons. There the pigeon was a Most sacred animal, it was a sin to touch it; whoever it Coincidentally, that was unclean for one day 2). Such pigs! sacrifice now, connected with the eating of pork, are often used by the Jewish prophets to teach the Jews (accusations were made); they could not have been attributed to any other god. have, as the destructive principle, the Moloch (namely No god is mentioned anywhere in the text. also through the blessing of the pig among the Hebrews and Phoenicians Moloch in connection with the planet Mars; dung; as in Phoenicia, the home of the Adonis legend, The boar actually appears as a symbol of Mars, for in the area of the city of Byblus in Lebanon, Adonis "was killed by the wild boar." After the Exile, when the prophetic Jehovah was among the Jews had gained validity and turned the old Moloch into Beelzebub or had become the devil, the pig remains with Beelzebub. The boy was consecrated; that is why the expelled evil spirits pray. in the new testament for permission to go into the pigs' to be allowed to do so, which they are also permitted to do.

The biblical texts give no information about the form of Moloch. Writings contain no news whatsoever. According to the description... (of the rabbis?) was the image of the god a metal one Statue with a bull's head, far away, used as a stove

1) Lucian de dea Syr. c. 54.

) Lucian de dea Syr. c. 54; Hero d. IV, 186.

2) Yes. 65, 4; 66, 3.) Lucian de dea Syr. c. 6.

) Winer, biblical Realw. II, 119.

193

Body and long arms, into which the children were placed This description can, of course, only be based on tradition. This is based on the fact that no rabbi has actually seen such a picture. has; alone it is confirmed by other testimonies. Dio Dor tells us), it was in Carthage an iron image of the Saturn had been, who lowered his open hands to the earth; let; children had been placed in these hands, whereupon the The image was raised by a mechanism and the child was in a hollow full of fire. Also the image of the Minotaur on ancient coins and monuments) gives at least this provides proof that Moloch had a bull's head, as a symbol of strength, it wore. For in all these images is Minotaur in human form with a bull's head positioned; but he himself is nothing other than the one with phoenix= Swiss colonists to Crete and other islands of the Middle East A behemoth of immigrants from the sea. With good reason, as The Moloch shown below, one may assume, is to be seen here.

1) Diodorus. XX, 14. It is very strange about this, he remarks. Münster, Rel. d. Karth. p. 10, "that the oldest discoverers from America on one of the islands of the Mexican Meerbus= sens, whom they called Carolina and who probably now the The name "Sacrificial Island" refers to something very similar that was found there in 1518. For there they saw several hollow metal statues of enormous proportions. of a certain size with outstretched and folded hands and into the= fen Colossen Uelbst der cremated Menschenopfer., Mün=

ter presumes after a passage in Diodorus V, c. 19 — 20, which states that a Phoenician ship from the African Futures were cut short on a very remote island sey, the Phoenicians had discovered America in this way and since= whose tires extended there. — A connection of Phoenicians with America are apparently no longer in Ab= to make a speech; continually the new discoveries give rise to old ones Remnants in America an ancient connection of the inhabitants= ner dies sÿes Weltteil mit Aegypten und Phönizien kund.

) Such illustrations can be found in Böttiger, Ideas on Art= mythology, Plate V. ö

13

r TNMTTDTNTET nn — nit > *

,

It was also depicted in full bull form; Scipio hit such a Moloch-like image, hollow and made of ore, with a shot but provided, in Carthage. The one with the Phoenician Moloch, a close relative, is also in the kingdom of Sphraim. and presented by Aaron in the desert in the full form of a bull-shaped. Probably, therefore, they were in Phoenicia and Palestine; not all images of Moloch are of the same form, however, because one had several, some of which were victims. Some ovens served, others did not; some had the whole bull's head. Stated, like the Egyptian Apis, they too took the victims into the hollowing out the body; others depicted the god in the usual way. human figure with the bull's head, perhaps also here and with a human head. The assumption, The intention is to demonstrate that not all images depicted sacrificial ovens. justify the fact that, as a rule, human sacrifices are not in the temple itself, but in front of it or in groves were brought, but the image column of the god Moloch was to— just as reliably as the statues of other gods, their It also found a place in the temples. The oven-like body itself of the victims; therefore, he probably wants to be in those pictures not been appropriated, which did not simultaneously become victims. ovens served. The bull figure in general speaks for itself. not to mention the fact that the Arabs gave Saturn old bulls burned because the bull resembled the god. In Syria, the bull is still associated with Christ's birth. with the chief god of the people; at that time, however, he had been— The aesthetic influence of the Greeks already connected the Human and bull-shaped figures in those regions were eliminated, and The god only appears riding the bull (so far). on old coins) or on a cart of bulls (as Lucian describes it) in the temple to Hierapolis. He was under the control of the Greeks at that time.

It was not natural to the image, but was only done because of

) Lueian de dea Syr. c. 31.

*

195 chen had already become Jupiter. In Jerusalem, we remained—at least the horns on the altar of Jehovah also after (The exile, a reminder of the old bull god). The (biblical expression horn instead of power) still shows in later—

The next time, the line of thought which led the bull to could make it a symbol of the supreme God.

A separate, albeit unclear, passage in Ezekiel) deu
He pointed out that an image of Moloch was also in the temple.
Jerusalem was confessed to, an assumption to which the other forms of worship of Moloch, particularly in the valley Hinnom, among the Jews, is forced. Ezekiel is led by the led the divine spirit into the temple in Jerusalem, to the Entrance of the inner gate, which faces north,
"where the state of the image of jealousy was,
that aroused (Jehovah's) jealousy. "And behold, the Prophet continued, "There was the glory of God Israel's, like the face I saw in the valley. And He said to me: Son of man, lift up your eyes to Northward! And I raised my eyes toward the north,
And behold, north of the gate of the altar was that image of jealousy at the entrance. And he said to me: Men Son of a child, do you see what they are doing? Great atrocities they are, which the House of Israel does here, that I must leave from my sanctuary. — It can be determined with probability assume that this image represents the Moloch, the canani
The chief deity at the table belonged to it because Jehovah was jealous there up there. Because there are other idols in the temple.

) Ezech. 43, 20.) Jer. 48, 25; Complaint 2, 3; Ezech. 29, 21.

Ezek. 8:3-5. When the other idols have taken their place in the temple...
 If the people of Jerusalem found their way there, why not also the much-celebrated one?
 Moloch? Even in Jeremiah 7:31, Jehovah says: "The sons of Jur..."
 They did what is evil in my eyes; they stopped their hideous idols into the house that bears my name—namely is, to contaminate it.

13 *

196

Given that, the question must arise: why was it precisely
 This image is an object of Jehovah's jealousy, and the
 Not the rest, at least not to that degree? The reason
 The only explanation can be that the person depicted in the picture God, whose rank Jehovah contested, national god wanted to be, or was, like Jehovah: and in this case, it can only Moloch is thought of, who is associated with the Jewish Na-tionalgott in Zwiefspaltt gerieth, als flich in den Prophete-schools associated with Jehovah ideas which were expressed by the old, also belonging to the Moloch, significantly off—yielded.

This Moloch, as is well known, was the god who came from The Cananites were worshipped mainly through human sacrifice.
 was; but animal sacrifices were also offered to him, and These, at least, were presented far more frequently, namely, how one may conclude from the Jewish Jehovah cult that the first-Birth of cattle. According to the testimony of Ali Taleb.
 At Norberg, the Arabs sacrificed every Sabbath to the gods.
 Saturn in a black temple, an old bull who was completely burned in a pit. The priest spoke in this context: "Most Holy God, to whom it is proper, evil, not well To do, we bring you that which is like you; take it.
 "Be kind to us and turn your evil nature away from us." Also Pigs, as noted above, and mice, as animals of Night dwellers who live in caves were sacrificed to the god.
 and were sacred to him. According to the Phoenician legend at San-(Chuniathon) King Saturn himself would have his son Sacrificed to Uranus. Greek legend claims that Kro-Nos ate his own children, a myth which already Dio dor in the ancient custom, this god Kin= who, to sacrifice, can find a fine origin?). The god be=

Y) in Eus eb. praep. Evangelical I, e. 10; IV, e. 16.

2) Dio d. XX, 14. The news among the old people and the church:
The fathers of the children agree that Saturn of Phoenix=

197

It practiced human sacrifices until the Christian era.
Come in. Even in Tertullian's time, in the third Christ
In the 19th century, they were used by the inhabitants of the northern Africa's human sacrifices to Saturn were made.

From the scattered messages in the Bible and at The following cases arise for the writers of the ancients, in which were used to be sacrificed to Moloch man.

Initially, in the earliest times, he was given the human=
The first birth of a child, as well as that of domestic animals, was offered.
The writings of the ancients do not explicitly state this,
However, they tell of cases where parents killed their most beloved children.
sacrificed to Saturn, and one can safely assume= men, that what the times of some culture in rarer
In previous centuries, this was a common practice.
Among the Jews, it was the law that all firstborn belonged to the Jew.
Hova is sacrificed. As a mitigation of the sacrifice of the u

adorned and sacrificed to Carthaginians. Plato Polit. fol. 315 near Wower ad Minuc. Felic.: " Kogzmdovioi Sbovoux, ws 60109 09 xai Yyowuov aurois, x raura Eyioi au-roy vieis rw Koovo." Silius Ital. lib. IV Punicor.:

"Mos fuit in populis, quos condidit advena Dido, Poscere caede Deos veniam ac flagrantibus aris

(Infandum dictu) parvos imponere natos. “

Athanas. orat. adv. gent.: “Poivixes xc Heñ res rov Koovoy Ev raic : rexvo d vqicig to . “ Jerome in Isaiah.
lib. XIII, c. 46: “Saturni tanta fuit apud veteres religio, ut ei non solum humanas hostias captivorum ignobiliumque mor-talium, sed et suos liberos immolarent ” etc.

) Tertullian apologist. e. 9. “ Infantes penises Africam Saturno Pr immolabantur palam usque ad proconsulatum Tiberii, qui ipsos sacerdotes in eisdem arboribus templi sui obumbraticibus scelerum votivis erucibus exposuit, teste militia patriae nostrae, quae ad ipsum munus illi proconsuli functa est. Sed et nunc in occulto perseveratur hoc sacrum facinus." Da Tiberius There was never a proconsul in Africa, so Scaliger corrected it: “usque

ad proconsulem Tiberii. „

198

First birth was later replaced by emasculation.
of the pure, nature-hostile God. The priests of Saturnians were generally cisgender; this also suggests (Prohibition of castration in the Mosaic books!) for that,
that castration was common among the Jews;
The law proves the necessity for the later Ge-Legislators to eradicate this custom among the Jews. No
A castrated man should come into the congregation of Jehovah; such a man
But they may be enough until their exile.
have been, since the Moloch cult according to biblical testimony from Solomon to Zedekiah among the Jews in flourishing stand. Voluntary castration was considered in those Semitic Countries long after the birth of Christ considered a holy one, an act pleasing to God, through which man the Be-
I know that he must die to sensuality and embrace a pure, who wished to lead a life consecrated to God. As a mitigation of the Castration in the service of Moloch then makes itself known by-cutting, which is considered an acceptable substitute for the sacrifice of life among most Semitic tribes was performed on all male persons. This so

Common usage testifies that all Semites male sex for a property of the divine king—
The nation's nobility were declared doomed to sacrifice, since for every single person who wasn't truly sacrificed, a kind of A replacement had to be found. We will address this issue.
I will return to this in more detail later. It remains striking.
Of course, how can all meaning be lost next to this dark, destructive one?
hostile nature, through human sacrifice and self-castration revered terrible Moloch again on the other side
A friendly, life-bringing page that brings sensuality-
the nature god exist and through the most unbound sex Mixture could be worshipped, indeed, how it became possible, that both opposing ideas also manifest themselves later as

1) Deuteronomy 23:1

199

who were united into one being: but nature itself offered to such opposites the hand, creating and destroying, Le Life and death, joy and sorrow, yes, in creation thousands of them side by side.

The information provided by the cutting process was However, the human sacrifices have not been eliminated to such an extent that They would only be presented in exceptional cases.
They were. Certain days of the year were preserved, on which which the Moloch among the Phoenicians and Carthaginians rule Moderately, human sacrifices were made. Such days were a
A kind of atonement feast for the sins of the nation, a Pasha.
Eusebius reports that the Phoenicians annually most beloved children, who are their parents' only children had to sacrifice to Saturn. Porphyry bestied
The same applies to the Carthaginians 2); Silius also tells
This is from the Carthaginians and adds that they are to sacrifice the children were chosen by lot).

Besides the usual, annually recurring men
Other offerings were found at special events.

Instead. Particularly in major accidents,
In times of war, drought, and plague, the Phoenicians sacrificed according to the...
Reports of Porphyry, who, by virtue of public—(a very beloved child). “Such sacrifices, » he continues, “one finds in the Phoenician history of the

*

1) Eusebius. in loud. Const. c. 13: “xar' &xa0roy Eroge.”

2) Porphyry. de abstinence. II, p. 150: “xara segiodoy. »

) Sil. Italian IV, v. 770: “Urna reducebat miserandos annua _ case.

9 porphyry. de abstinence. II, p. 201. 1 piÄlrarov riva."Justinus XVIII, 6. says of the Carthaginians: “Cum inter cetera mala ea peste laborarent, cruenta sacrorum religione et scelere pro remedio usi sunt. Quippe homines ut victimas real estate labant et impuberes aris admovebant, pacem deorum sanguine eorum exposcentes, per Quorum vita dii rogari maxime solent. “

200

Sanchuniathon, which Philo of Byblus translated into Greek translated, extraordinarily often. A most peculiar Diodorus Siculus and Lactantius give a good example of this kind.
The Carthaginians had a battle against Agathocles lost; they partly attributed this to the circumstance that they Hercules in Tyre no longer, as at the beginning, the ten ten had sent away all their earnings, but only trifles, partly due to the wrath of Saturn. This namely, they used to sacrifice the most distinguished boys;
For some time now, however, the noble Carthaginians had been receiving foreign Boys bought, raised, well fed, and then instead victims of their own children. When the matter un
This fraud came to light when they were investigated. Since they now
When they saw the enemy before their walls, they made a plan.
knowledge from this change in the father's divine service and now, to appease God, they sacrificed two hundred

Boys from the most respected families all at once. Except Three hundred more adults joined him, who then...
 Guilt was attached (it remains uncertain whether Diodorus the parents means those who hid their children, or men who (who were supposed to be sacrificed as children) to sacrifice voluntarily.
 – In times of great danger to the state, it was customary that Kings sacrificed their heirs to the throne. The old King Saturn
 As mentioned above, an altar should be erected during a plague.
 judges and his only son Jeud with his own hand in royal jewels offered as a sacrifice to his father Uranus brought 2). This given in the religious legend
 The game was played by princes and other noble persons.
 imitated in dangerous situations. The second book of the (Kings?) tells of such a case. When the Moabite king
 Mesa besieged by Jews and Isfraelites in a fine city
 When the hoped-for solution failed, he took his

1) Diod. XX, 14; Lact. institute. I, 21.
) Eusebius. praep. Evangelical I, 10; IV, 16.) Ch. 3, 27.

201

eldest son and burned him on the city wall in front of the besieging army. This caused
 The besiegers were so discouraged that they hastily withdrew.
 Similarly, the exiled Carthaginian general Ma sacrifices Leu's fine son Cartalo, by placing him in the royal and priestly adornments, in the presence of the one he had bela Carthage, which strikes a high cross; also this
 The victim casts such a discouraging shadow over the besieged.
 impression that Maleus left the city after a few days (Obert). According to Curtius' report, the Tyrians were still being proposed in the time of Alexander the Great.
 to sacrifice a noble boy to Saturn in order to ward off evil
 the besieging Macedonians were happy.

Furthermore, the Phoenicians and Carthaginians cultivated Saturn in upcoming major undertakings Men to offer sacrifices, as in the founding of colonies, at the beginning of a campaign, at the founding of a city;

also out of gratitude after the success of an important Enterprise. When the Carthaginians defeated Agathocles.
"They had sacrificed their most beautiful prisoners to Saturn."

Usually, children were given to the god, less frequently other children.
Grown sacrificed; the god demanded pure ones, from the mind still unaware of the transgressions of mature age.
stirred creatures. But adults, like the ones who were...
Leading positions show, not excluded. One may think of assume that persons of a more mature age were previously by the victim
They were killed with knives, then burned; that's how it happened.
In Salamis, for example, the person designated as a victim was tortured three times.
led around the altar, then stabbed by a priest and 9 Justin. XVII, 7.) Curt. IV, 3.

9), Cf. Münter, Rel. d. Karth. p. 21, according to a statement of Clitarch, Alexander's companion and historian, in the scholia on Plato in Sibenkee's Anecdote. Graec.

) Diode XX, 65.

—

— — —

— * *

* 4

22. — 4 years ..

202

(the body burned on the pyre). A Ha milcar, of course, who during a battle with the Syra
Cusanus burned whole animals on large pyres to the gods

(The fire burned, he threw himself down, as Herodotus tells us), when Victory wavered, even into the flames, to glorify the gods. to agree fig; however, this example may not yet be a Be to give knowledge that it is " fey, 8 le= to burn easily... Movers wants the children to have been slaughtered beforehand as well. have been; the roast in the arms of the idol, (He says it's a fable). We must, in these 3 linger for a few moments 0%%. %% re The fire was Bildeldes Moloch or also the; Me hole itself; the sacrifices were considered food of God. The fire consumed them. Among the prophets, one often finds the... An expression that the Hebrews gave their children to the idols (food consecrated); This had to be confirmed in particular by Moloch, on whose altars the fire is not both The method was to raise the sacrificial food as steam to the god.

to supply, but rather the pure king of the world himself

imagined. Certainly, not all Moloch statues have the above designated, described by the rabbis and Diodorus had the form; there were also other pictures without the device. of the movable hands and the oven-like body; such There is no doubt that the victims were slaughtered first and then burned piece by piece on the altars, as was the case with the

The case was with animals. Only in those images which were

They had movable arms and their bodies were described as: Oven Neither

. II" 554

) Münter p. 21. |

) Herodotus VII, 167. Voluntary self-poopers must at the Se= miten nicht sörten gewarsen seyn. So lassen sich auch "die beiden Philaeus, two brothers from Carthage, for the good of the fatherland= buried alive. Sallust bell! Iugurthl-c. 99, 3V aler.

Max. V, 6. fi, TE

3) Mov. d. Phön. P. 380.) Ezech. 23, 373 16, 20. “l (.

203

and was used, it is highly likely, that the children were consigned alive to the flames. Since namely here the god, the fire, even the act of death⁸
If the tung could be carried out, then it will also be considered more worthy.
and have been held more pleasing to God, if one who delivered the victim to him alive. Even the Mechanis-must the movable arm, which lifted the child and The fact that it fell into the fiery abyss indicates that one had the His intention was to let the idol itself have an effect; it was supposed to,
like a living being, to receive its victim and the same in its own special way to get to the food⁹
ten. Had the child already been killed, the idol Should the god himself not throw the offering during the sacrifice, he should not hand it over.
s²am s²ien, so it would not be the movable arms either—could have been; the child could have been taken straight to the can throw a fiery opening. The testimony for this Burning alive, of course, is based solely on the lost Writings of Clitarch, from which the same is taken in the above the scholia cited on Plato and also by Photius is mentioned in his lexicon; Photius adds that Others also give this message; we alone find over-mainly about news of the Phoenician religion, so poor, that even a single certificate can convey fine, appreciative comments deserves inspection, as long as other reports do not contradict it—According to Clitarch's account, the Phoenicians and mainly the Carthaginians, Photius adds: at great prayers?), a living boy of the statue of the Saturn was placed on the glowing arms, whereby as soon as his His limbs convulsed in pain and his Their faces contorted into a smile that could be observed—tete, probably, in order to, as otherwise from the intestines ge—

1) «Baoiv alloi re xai Kieitaoxos,» cf. Münter, Rel. der Carthaginian p. 22.

1) „ey gteyc dig egg.

—

—

204

sacrificed humans, the favor or disfavor of the god arising from it to interpret. At this, the arms of the picture threw the Kna~~s~~ down into the glowing abyss. — The brazen Talos on Crete and Sardinia, which according to legend went into the fire, then sprang out again glowing red-hot, whereupon he offered his sacrifice to the pressed his glowing breast until, under distortions of the ge— Sights, which were called Sardinian laughter, his life exhaled, must likewise be used to confirm the statement. Clitarch's rules apply. | _

The situation is so terrible and detrimental to all human beings. I feel mocked that one would gladly agree with the statement. of Photius, according to which such sacrifices only on important days, and assumes, The children were usually killed beforehand. Very But this horrific procedure will probably remain in place; a A people who murder their dearest children before God, they can also expose yourself to the agony of the fire for a few seconds beforehand.

Movers refers to a [document/statement] which will be mentioned further below. The passage in Plutarch where a slaughter is mentioned is, and in several Bible passages that also mention a battle~~s~~ ten speak, as Ezekiel 16:21 says: “Was it too little that "You also slaughtered my children?" Ezekiel 23:39: "If They slaughtered their children to idols, so they came into my Sanctuary on that same day; furthermore, on some others biblical sayings, where there is talk of shedding innocent blood Blood is spoken of. But nowhere here is there any mention of the Mo~~s~~ Loch explicitly mentions this; since other idols also worship children Those who were sacrificed can only prove that

Slaughter was the usual form, but they concluded Burning alive in certain rarer cases during Moloch services are not included. Jeremiah has two passages where all Things like burning and strangling stand side by side;
Jeremiah 7:31 and 19:5ff.: They built the heights of Tho—Pheth in the valley of the sons of Hinnom, to see their sons and to burn their daughters with fire, which I did not offer.

*

205

and what didn't occur to me. Therefore, look,
“There will come days,” says Jehovah, “when it will no longer be possible.”
Thopheth will be called, nor Valley of the Sons of Hinnom, son the valley of strangulation. But here too one must consider be told that other gods likewise in the valley of Hin nom their altars had and that, even if the place was should only refer to Moloch, thereby creating a living Ver
In rare cases, burning is not contradicted;
Furthermore, the Hebrew expression 100 actually means «ge violently killing wound could refer to a ge violent death by fire, as if a killing by obtain the sacrificial knife.

The sacrifice in Moloch service is described in the Old Testament.

usually referred to by the saying: "a child to whom (To make Moloch go through fire). The question is...
The question was raised whether there might be a way through this formula.
going between two sacrificial fires may be understood as such, so that the children were not actually burned, but only
They would have received a kind of consecration, a baptism of fire.

The passages that pass through this expression
let have, which the bet translates as consecration, are the following:

Leviticus 18:21: "You shall not lay a hand on your offspring."
to give, to dedicate to Moloch.

Deuteronomy 18:10: "It shall not be found among you." will be the one who sacrifices his son or daughter through the fire consecrates. »

2 Kings 16:3: "And (Ahaz) walked in the way of the Kings of Israel, and also his son he consecrated through the Fire. "

—

let it, namely the Moloch, which is usually mentioned.

.
*

W

—

206

2 Kings 17:17: "And (the Sfraelites) dedicated their Sons and their daughters through the fire. »

2 Kings 21:6: "And (Manase) dedicated his son
through fire. | .

2 Kings 23:10: "And (Sofia) defiled the temple."

Pheth in the valley of the sons of Hinnom, that no one more his son and his daughter through the fire to Moloch consecrated.» .

Jeremiah 32:35: "And they (the Jews) built high places for the Baal in the valley of the sons of Hinnom, to their sons and to dedicate daughters to Moloch.

Ezekiel 20:31: By dedicating your children through the Fire, you defile yourselves with all your idols until m this day-

These passages do not explicitly state that the children were killed; but the circumstances alone might suggest that that the consecration of the sons of Kings Ahaz and Manasse is cited as something remarkable, on which to conclude that this is merely a passage through two sacrificial fires could not have been meant.

Leviticus 20:2-5 states it more clearly, where the expression "give the Moloch 9, what is needed is: "Any and every from the sons of Sfrael'8 and from the strangers who to stay in Sfrael, which is of fine seed to the Moloch Whoever gives, he shall be killed, the people of the land shall kill him stone.

Crucial for the explanation, however, is that among the several places where, in part, a cut-off is required to pass through ten precedes, so that the leading of a living Humans can no longer be conceived of, partly due to the end pressure » lead through » not at all, but rather quite ver "burn" is needed.

= In Ä

207

Ezekiel 16:221: Was it too little of your whoredom? (Jerusalem), that you also slaughtered my children and they you gave them up by dedicating them to them (the gods)? »

125. Mos 12, 31: "For also their sons and their Daughters burn their gods with fire.
tern. LU FIRE

2 Chronicles 28:3 says of Ahaz: "And he robbed..." as Thale: the sons of Hinnom and burned fine: sons in the fire, like the scourges of the nations, which Jehovah drove out before the sons of Israel. Here it is The expressions consecrate 2 Kings 16:3 quite clearly through

"burn" is a paraphrase.

Jeremiah also explains the fine term "through".

Jeremiah 7:31: "And they built~~s~~ the heights of Topheth in the valley of the sons of Hinnom, to burn their sons and daughters with fire.

Jeremiah 19:5: "And they (the Jews) have set up high places for the people of the heavens." Baal built a plan to burn her children with fire, when Prandfer dem Baal."

It can therefore be considered a given that The expression "to lead through" means so much as aperbrennen; yet one always wonders whether not nevertheless even a mere passing between two fires instead would have been found? Because in later times quite a few | mitigating customs were invented which made the victim-should include, for example, cutting, burning the hair, (especially later and even in the New Testament?)

N*yi

9 Already Seldpn de dis Syris p. 312 says: "Verum non modo
"Tsaductos, sed etiam crematos in idoli sacrificio pueros illos U 4 bonstentior affirmit." Also Gefenius (Thesaur. II, pag.

"985) declares fid) decided in favor of actual burning. — Josephus (Antiquit. IX, cap. 12) also speaks of a u, real burning.

") Matthew II, 11: % rug Barridew,, baptize in fire. The Fire is also considered a means of purification in the Old Testament;

208

It speaks of a baptism of fire; there the old rabbi.

Furthermore, such as Salomon Jarchi, David Kimchi, Mo~~s~~ ses Maimonides the leading through in the Moloch service also in the milder sense of a harmless consecration~~s~~ (clarify): one would like to believe it is also such a thing
Leading the children through between two sacred fires
It was customary, a kind of baptism, by which they were made pure, the
They should be sanctified by God. This baptism can now be freely performed.
The prophets mentioned in the above passages are not meant to be referring to them;

because she did not have the terrible thing that made her so severe They deserved reprimand; they understand by "leading through" to... reliably a real burning; but besides this ver-burning, which in later times no longer affected all firstborn children
What was practiced may well be a literal leading through.
all children between two "as: full have taken place.

Numbers 31:23: "Everything that can be brought into the fire,
You shall pass it through fire, so that it may be purified.
Virgins of Castabala passed through the sacred fire of the Goddess Melecheth, without being harmed (Strabo XII, 2). Here-
This also applies to the Greek poets.

1) They certainly had an interest in preventing the gruesome act of the real-to conceal the burning of the fires for the benefit of their people;
It seems that even in the first centuries after the captivity, the barbarity of the ancestors, so that the Rabbi:
Only the milder interpretation was preserved through tradition. Mo-Maimonides reports (according to Selden p. 312); "Servito-Res ignis in tempore suo fecerunt homines scire, quod qui non traducerent filium suum vel filiam per ignem, morerentur filii vel filiae: et sine dubio propter illud, quod audiebant, quilibet festinabat illud facere, quia multum timebant super filiös suos, et propter facilitatem operis, quia non erat, nisi traducere illos per ignem, non quod comburerent ipsos."* Against that Rabbi Simeon acknowledges in the Book of Yalkut that...
Children were sacrificed to Moloch. Of the seven
The hollows of the idol, he says, are six for different purposes.
Animals, the seventh of which were intended for boys.

209

The expression -to let pass through, through
"Lead." is so little related to the term "killed."
that one's fine origin necessarily lies in an effective must seek guidance or assistance from these victims.
Mo vers jagt'), one has considered the victims of the children as a considered a passage to the deity; they should, after dissolution, the earthly slag of the body for union with the

to reach the deity; only later will these sacrifices be atonement offerings.
This has become. However, this is contradicted by the fact that in the preceding... exilic writings of the Old Testament, that is, in that time, in which the human sacrifices were made, the idea of a higher, purer life after death, of an immortality that rewards the mortification of the body nowhere to be found. The Jews held similar views, so not long after they had offered human sacrifices; they learned a different way.
They only know the true concept of immortality in captivity.
Even Jeremiah only ever threatens them with punishment for all their transgressions.
(dish punishments); the Chaldeans fell asleep in eternal life Sleep and do not wake again). At that time, the highest ≠ firstly the idea of a Sheol, shadow realm"),
a dark place that demands everyone face the shadows receives all people after death and good and

2

1) The Phoenicians, p. 329.

2) Jer. 6, 11, 12; Cape. 7, 20, 33; Cape. 8, 1; Cape. 15, 7, 8; Chapter 17, 5-9; Chapter 17, 27; Chapter 22, 4, 5. Decided against to speak of the belief in the immortality of the soul≠
The Psalms too; here too it is at most a shadow—
A richness that is equally terrible for all living things. Fear everywhere.
and aversion to death; reward and punishment will already be found on earth; Pf. 34, 13; Pf. 37, 9, 19, 28; Pf. 41, 3; Pf. 112; Pf. 49, 13; Pf. 54, 16, 24; Pf. 56, 14. x.

Jeremiah 51:39, 57.

+) Jeremiah does not speak of this Sheol either.

14

210

Evil is equally terrible. (At Sefia?) Does the Hagr also pious King Hezekiah, who is mortally ill: “Not I will see Jehovah again, Jehovah in the land of life—the, not further people look at the inhabitants of the silent land. For it is not the underworld that praises you, the Death does not sing your praises; do not wait for those who fall into the pit: “Ken, on your loyalty.” Specifically, the 49th Palatine points to the Belief in an afterlife is absolutely decisive. back; one should not envy anyone their abundance, he says, Death makes everything equal; then everything ceases. Man is “like cattle that are slaughtered.” The pre— The belief in a past resurrection of the deceased Ju—the messianic kingdom, from a redemption of this treasure— ten from the underworld, who, however, already at one point as appears in Isaiah, chapter 26, verse 19: “Revival Your dead, my corpses, will rise! Watch “Arise and rejoice, you inhabitants of the dust!” — is a separate view of some prophets, who only emerged in exile) and according to the same, their education and recognition among the people I found it. The above saying is very likely from Isaiah. slipped in; for a few verses before, where the prophet Speaking of the enemies, he says in 26:14: “The dead do not live.” Shadows do not rise again; therefore you have You punished them and destroyed them, and every memory of them. destroyed. » How the challenge of the other Phoenician peoples We do not know what happened at that point during that time.

— —

) Pf. 6, 6; Pf. 30, 10; Pf. 49, 20; Pf. 94, 17; Pf. 115, 17; Pf. 88, 11 - 13; Pf. 116, 9. 17; Pf. 63, 10; Pf. 86, 13. 3c.

2) Isaiah, Chapter 38.

3) Ezekiel, who prophesied in exile, already speaks entirely in the spirit of the Zendavesta on the Resurrection of the Dead, Chapter 37; the But according to him, resurrection is only granted to the Jews; Chapter 37, 11 ff. Other peoples sink into the underworld, without any mention of a resurrection. Ezekiel, Chapter 32.

However, they may conclude, for good reason, that they have distanced themselves from not significantly different from the Jewish ones. Therefore, they the spiritual meaning that Movers attributes to the origin of the The expression "carrying through" gives the ideas of the The age's view of the state after death is far too harsh. against it, so that one could confess to it.

I explain this expression to myself as follows: The sacrifice of the Children could have had no other origin than the Intention to offer the most precious thing to God, namely, to flatter his senses by giving him a pleasant To offer pleasure. As food for the god, the men= The sacrifices in the passages from Ezekiel cited above are described as follows: seeks; the Persians also kept the sacrifices which they offered to the brought holy fire in such a way that they put the same into it= threw, for a food of the god). Later, the Human sacrifice for atonement. Now it is a whole Ancient times held a widespread and deeply rooted belief that the that the deity could be reconciled through human suffering, and that divine grace grows with the magnitude of the pain, which one inflicts on oneself or others with the intention of harming God to demonstrate his penitence: a view that is just right actually belongs to the service of the nature-hostile Moloch, who detests sensual pleasure, who, as it were, revels in it the pain of the people. In both cases, it was due to near, thereby delaying the complete burning of the victim= gladly, that one should spare the person destined to be a victim through a fire was drawn. In the first case, so that the god, the flame, lick it and enjoy it for a longer time, in others, so that the victim suffers longer, to be tortured by his suffering= to provide a more powerful means of reconciliation. I assume the first intention is the original one; They wanted to provide the god with a lasting amenity.

They shouted: Fire, Lord, eat! rug deorora, L el Maxim. Tyr. dissertation. 8, sec. 4, p. 83.

“2 14 *

ten, by repeatedly performing the sacrificial feast through the flames¹ led to; as a result, the idea of the
 The increased pain has a stronger effect.
 So, presumably the poor victims of the slaughter were chained or wet.
 Ropes tied and for some time soon after one, soon moved to the other side of the fire, but finally let them burn completely in it. It may give me the suspicion²
 It is permitted that two fires may be placed close together.
 stirred up, one of which was the male god Moloch,
 the other of the female goddess standing by his side Astarte belonged to it, and between the two the victims until their through complete consumption. In a similar way are in the middle of the sixteenth century in Paris the Heretics were executed. They were dragged in chains that were in The rollers ran back and forth over the fire until they reached the (roasted body burst open and the intestines fell out). The³ s⁴es literal leading through now is probably the origin⁵
 The Arab and Canaanite way of giving the Moloch their men⁶
 The practice of offering gifts originated in a time when one still knew how to make hollow statues. The expression "hin⁷ carry out » remained standing and was subsequently equal⁸ implying killing or sacrificing, even where this is literal
 The procession no longer took place, but the children were presented to a glowing metal statue. Just from This passing through a flame will then to prescribe that milder form of consecration, according to which one the children, sparing their lives, as quickly as possible through the sacrificial pit or over it:
 a kind of baptism of fire, which in a most peculiar way also among the ancient Mexicans?); even further was

1) Cf. "The Intolerance of the Christian Confessions. Nuremberg" berg, in Schrag, 1838, p. 87.

2) Clavigero reports in fine history of Mexico I, 437, that the newborn boys of the Mexicans after water baptism were dragged through a fire four times.

This practice has been mitigated to the extent that one can burn two fires from= moved closer together and the children moved through the open space= carried out.

In those times, of course, when one once believed who believed in immortality will also be involved with the children= have associated sacrifices with the idea that the children there- purified and consecrated as devotees in an afterlife Life would be given special preference; such an opinion is very natural, as soon as the belief in a repayment— The idea of immortality exists. This belief, however, came about the Jews, as already mentioned, only through the Persians and their Zendrelis= region, which did not tolerate human sacrifice, at a time when the Islamic and Jewish kingdom already reached its end had been reached and the heyday of the Moloch cult was over. One could say of the Jews, at most, that they are in the Captivity, where they believed in a retaliatory UN= partly accepted mortality and continued the human sacrifices= set, that idea of a cleaning of the children's lake= who would have died by fire.

The biblical text gives no information about the sacrificial ceremony itself! Writings contain only a few hints. That the clothing of Priest of Saturn, according to reports by Tertullian (de pallio cap. 4.), roth gewesen sey, is already mentioned above. The red color was common among the Phoenicians, The famous purple dyers, popular. Strange that also in Mexico the clothing of the high priest, who had to tear out the prisoner's heart on the altar, Red was! — When the god of terror and night was Moloch was also worshipped in caves; this perhaps a super— relics from the most ancient times, when there were no Tem= Pel built. Minotaur and Cacus built, after the Legend, in caves; the labyrinth, the dwelling place of the The former was a cave-like structure. Also biblical news= ten speak of caves, e.g. Isaiah 65:4: “I will break= I daily stretched out my hands against the rebellious people, that offends me, constantly in the gardens sacrifices and burns incense on the bricks that are in the grave—

 Bern sits and sleeps in caves, the pork

"It eats and abominations in fine bowls." Usually During the Moloch service in Judah, the Topheth in the valley Hinnom mentioned. This valley (h) was certainly the main one.
 The country's sacrificial site, but not the only one, as is often the case.
 The cited passages prove where the prophets, in regard to the human sacrifices not only from the valley of Hinnom, but (talking about the valleys and rocky clefts of the country in general).
 It was located on the south side of Jerusalem, in front of the Brick Gate, and it was a very pleasant place, with gardens and groves.
 Why this valley bears the name of the sons of Hinnom² and who these sons of Hinnom were, is Uncertain; perhaps the family previously owned this.
 Landstrichs and had it for the purpose of public sacrifice ceded to the kings of Judah. The Tophet (was) yet another special place in this valley, the spot where
 - the sacrifices were offered to Moloch; according to Jeremiah 7:31.
 a height built through art; Jerome says"), the Place of the valley, which is irrigated by the spring of Siloa

) DN J or d 1; from this the name later arose.

Yeeyva, among the post-exilic Jews who saw the place at its deepest abhor, a term for hell, as Moloch itself.
 Jewish evil god, the devil, had become.

2) e.g. Isaiah 57:3 ff.

> non 2nd king. 23, 10; Jer. 7, 31; Cape. 19, 6, 13, 14.

) ad. Jerem. 7, 31: Illum locum significat, qui Siloe fontibus Irrigatur et est amoenus atque nemorosus, hodieque hortorum praebebet delicias., This, however, does not unite with the Aus:

The story of Jeremiah, according to which the Topheth was an artificial one
The hill is. Hieronymus therefore cannot mean the Thophet himself.
but only the area where it stood.

215

have been. Do we want to reach the Mexican heights?
Take the explanation of which human sacrifices were made there
If they were brought, then the Topheth would be an earth mound in It was in the shape of an oblate pyramid, four-sided and with terraced steps, which span the entire width of the Taking up sides, running all around and as stairs on the slab led where the sacrifices were made; but We will probably get even closer to the truth when we to take a position in Herodotus as a guide, which is run by the
It concerns sacrifices which the Scythians made to their war god ten). Herodotus says that the Scythians had in the one Individual sections of the country gave Ares a special kind erected as a sanctuary, in a length and width of three stages (about four hundred paces) bundles of brushwood piled them up and formed a square height.
They had flattened the height at the top; the walls were
It had sloped down on three sides, on the fourth side
But it was possible to go up there. It was at that height.
Place an old iron sword in the middle of the area, which represented the god of war. To this god they sacrificed.
not only animals, but also humans; from every hun
The prisoner of war received a man as Tribute (as David did with the prisoners according to the measuring cord) (measured and killed the third part). He was slaughtered.
He held the blood over a vessel and poured it over... the sword fell. — Since the Jewish prophets also at the Thopheth of woodpiles and of a burning
"To speak, one would certainly assume" that the Topheth of the Hebrews was a similar wooden one
It was a building, like that of the Scythians, on which one could indeed sacrificed, which was, however, replaced with sacrifices at large festivals.
to see, completely ablaze in glorification of the fire god
Seventh. 1 view also receives . a confirmation that such large sacrificial fires were common in Phoenician religion. were. We read in the frequently cited writing of Lucian, de dea Syria, that one should plant large trees with sacrificial animals and hung human figures, stacked burning material around, that set the whole place ablaze and offered it as an enormous sacrificial flame to the God caused it to blaze up. — The name Thopheth is still known today. Not sufficiently explained. If one wants to differentiate it from the root word... deriving the one which has the meaning of spitting out, be to express disgust by spitting, so that Thopheth That would mean as much as a despised place; that would be However, this is a likely explanation if the The word would only have originated after the exile, in that time, where one can find the valley of Hinnom and the Moloch service on the Deeply abhorred. The word alone can convey this concept. not in the times when the Moloch service was was practiced; this is also confirmed by Jeremiah, who says of finds nothing abhorrent in the meaning of the word when he reads chapter... 19:6 says that the time will come when the place is not more Than Hinnom or Thopheth, but Than of the Wur I will be called gens. If, on the other hand, the same prophet says verse 13... continues: "The houses of Jerusalem, on whose ground Roofs where smoke was burned on other gods became unclean, like the place Thopheth, , he speaks, as an opponent of the Molochdienstes, only his private opinion, according to which that The place was unclean, or it refers to the contamination of Topheth through Josiah 9. Isaiah says chapter 30, 33: "Yes, a Topheth has been prepared since yesterday, even to him."

5) Herod, IV, 62.

216

1) It is indeed said in 2 Kings 23:10 that Josiah had the valley Hinnom is defiled so that no more children are sacrificed there; A new consecration must have taken place after Josiah alone: for the human sacrifices were there again after his death their departure. Jeremiah still holds a punishment order under Zedekiah. digt im Thale Hinnom: in any case, in this valley the men are The offering of gifts has continued, although perhaps the place of the Topheth was avoided as being unclean. Compare Jeremiah, chapter 19.

It is prepared for kings, deep and wide; fine funeral home.
 He has fire and wood in abundance: the breath of Jehovah, as "A sulfurous stream, ignites him." After this verse, he wants However, Thopheth means something like "place of burning"; Gese—nius and Bohlen therefore derive the word from a per—fischen verbs «verbrennen » ab, whereas Winer notes, that it was not very believable that the Hebrews had a part of Thales Hinnom, which is referred to with a Persian name).
 This remark is, however, refuted by the fact that one considers the rejects the view of Jerome, who used the word Topheth which gives its name to a part of the valley Hinnom.
 Thopheth will not originally be that part of the valley, but, as is evident from Jeremiah 7:31, a peculiar
 They have described a type of building used for human sacrifice;
 only then was that part of the valley named at all Hinnom so, where that artificial height stood or before times was. So, is a be initially established by Thopheth?
 special construction of sacrificial mounds, so it could be The word, however, was brought with it from Persia—dert s²ien, especially since the same also exists outside of Palestine.
 or can demonstrate a similar facility.

Some insight into the customs at this frightful—
 Plutarch, in his work De superst., chapter 13, describes the terrestrial worship of God.
 of the sacrifices which the Carthaginians made to Saturn—ten, hunts: They sacrificed their knowledge and deliberation their own children. Those who were childless usually received from to buy children for the poor and treat them like lambs or to slaughter young birds. The mother stood by, without to shed a tear or to hear a sigh
 let her. Did she notice a tear or a sigh?
 So the money was wasted and the child was still born—sacrificed. All around the image column there was a noise of flutes.

) Lexic. Heb. et Chald. p. 1037.

tenfpiel and drums, so that the shouting and .
could not be heard.

This will undoubtedly also be the case with the Hebrews—
They have been held. Rabbi Simeon also reports in the book
Jalkut (Selden II, 113), that one hears a roaring music
I made and danced, while the boy burned, He
The latter is therefore so that one does not hear the child's cry of fear.
heard. The mother had to watch as her own, first was born, and probably only child, sacrificed; children Loose married couples bought children from poor people or slaves, according to They, like the Mexicans, masturbated their victims beforehand—stÿte, and then handed them over to the sacrificial knife or probably even alive to the flames. Plutarch speaks of slaughter.
ten, then again screams and wailing. The Er Grown people were not allowed to complain; this can therefore only be attributed to the children have a connection. Since the slaughter is now happening so quickly
The way things proceed is such that a long shouting session is not even considered.
can be: so one may probably think of the second type of Sacrifice, to the laying of the living child on the glowing
The arms of the idol think of what has already been said above.
was. The screaming could, of course, also affect other cinemas.
who are to be received, who, likewise destined to be sacrificed, the
They watched the choking scene until it was their turn.
African Minucius Felix says that the parents through ) In the octave. p. 34: "Merito ei in nonnullis Africae partibus a parentibus infantes immolabantur, blanditiis et osculo compri-mente vagitum, ne flebilis hostia immoletur." Likewise Tertulle. apologist. e. 9: "Cum propriis filiis Saturnus non pe-pereit, extraneis utique non parcendo piseverabat, quos qui-dem ipsi parents sui offerebant et libentes respondebant et infantibus blandiebantur, ne lacrimantes immolarentur."It Among the ancients, it was considered a good sign if the sacrificial animal willingly and cheerfully went to the altar; such a sacrifice, one thought,

May it be especially pleasing to God. For the same reason.
The children's tears had to be avoided. Therefore

Caresses and kisses would have suppressed the whining, so that no weeping sacrifice would be offered. After this It seems the parents had turned the children into victims altar accompanied and fie, who were of their impending destiny
 They knew nothing, through caresses in good spirits he She held on until the priest's murderous steel suddenly struck her. She lay it reminds the victims to prevent the wailing cries,
 So the children will not have been allowed to watch.
 But since Plutarch explicitly speaks of lamentations, so this would probably like to be seen in that other kind of sacrifice refer to which one can see the child in rarer and lesser—
 In some cases, he placed himself alive in the arms of an idol.
 – Was a tear or a sigh noticed on Sei
 According to the relatives, the sacrifice had its effect.
 lost, but the child was nevertheless sacrificed — naturally Dearly! The mothers would for the most part keep their children freed from the horrible death through tears and lamentations have! -

Such a terrible cult is certainly not unacceptable.
 chelnd; where it is practiced, it must be inherited, the
 To have the consecration of old age for himself; until he arrives at his...
 Against all human feeling in an entire nation
 Grasping the root of something takes centuries. Voluntarily.
 It may well be taken over by individual fanatics from abroad.
 men, but an entire people, to whom he had been for many centuries
 ten were supposed to have been foreign, will only recognize him through the utmost Let violence impose itself! — And now imagine that in knows the place Tertull. apologist. c. 8: »Infans tibi neces-sarius, adhuc tener, qui nesciat mortem, qui sub cultro tuo rideath, Regarding animal sacrifice Senec. Oedipus:

“Haec propere admove
 'Et sparge salsa colla taurorum mola,
 Placidone vultu sacra et admotas manus

Patiuntur? “

Mosaic law prescribes the death penalty for this service:
 How could it have been practiced so generally among the Hebrews?
 can, if the nation's legislator, if a sacred
 The law of the forefathers declared it the highest sacrilege, which Violators threatened with immediate stoning and every Jews, even their closest relatives, for the execution of this Would have imposed a death sentence? — Don't believe that,
 that image of Moloch in the valley of Hinnom, a foreign one to the Jews, who was the god who would not have had a place in the temple to find and therefore wander out into that valley must! Moloch is of one origin with Jehovah.
 It may be that that image in the valley is from Jehovah's Statue in something, perhaps distinguished by its arms; but
 The image is with Jehovah in the temple in the next Relationship. Also the statue of Hercules, to whom the Carthage
 The fact that the Phoenicians sacrificed people annually was not stated in the temple.
 of God himself, but before him! Immediately After the sacrifice was completed in the valley of Hinnom, they went into the Temple back to Jerusalem to establish certain religious directions to connect to the victim.

Jehovah says in Ezekiel chapter 23, verse 37: "Revealed
 They told them their horrors, that they had committed adultery and shed blood on others.
 her hands, and that she commits adultery with her idols—driven and even their children, whom they bore me, to them—consecrate it for food. Nor did they do this to me: they desecrated it.
 They cleansed my sanctuary on that same day and desecrated my days of rest. Because when they have their children...
 He who slays the idols, they came into my sanctuary.

— —

--- - n/a

— — ä—2— —))): — — — m.

—

1) Plin. hist. nature. XXXVI, 4. Hercules, ad quem Poeni omnibus annis humana sacrificaverunt vietima, humi stans, ante aditum porticus ad nationes. Also the statue of Jupiter In Amathus, to whom guest friends were sacrificed, it stood after Ovid's description in Book 10 of the Metamorphoses. "ante foras."

221

on that same day, to defile it, and behold, they have |
"They have done in my crowd." Here the prophet adds: |
Next, an important confession about the origin and The manner of Sabbath observance. The Sabbath was also observed at the Jews, as with other Semitic peoples, who belong to the Sa-
The seventh day, dedicated to the turn; on it, gifts were offered to the god in the,
Thale. Hinnom brought the human sacrifices. Was the sacrifice
Once completed, they went to the temple in the city.
The latter is also evident from Jeremiah, chapter 19.
According to this passage, the prophet must, at Jehovah's command, go to the Thopheth went to the Valley of Hinnom to meet the Jews there to deliver a sermon of punishment. He apparently placed it there outside.
a sacrificial assembly was in advance; when he returned from the Topheth—
When he comes, he enters the temple courtyard and speaks.
to all the people; whereupon the overseer of the temple can be determined. Here we encounter again those of Ezekiel criticized the celebration, at which one departs from the valley of Hinnom went into the temple. Jeremiah had gone out first into He went down the valley to deliver his rebuke; when he
the people had gone from there to the temple, decreed
He also moved over there to continue his speech. Why?
But if one then went from the place of sacrifice into the Temple? What was the nature of the ceremony which, after full Did they bring human sacrifices, concluding the festival in the temple?
The Bible gives no mention of this; Ezekiel only speaks of a defilement of the temple. One may (as below, where the Ark of the Covenant is mentioned, it will be explained in more detail

(will be), for good reason to assume that one has a He took in part of the sacrificial ashes and bones, the former scattered before the image in the temple, the latter in the Covenant load stored. |

"Incidentally, this terrible service was not limited to..."
to the Semitic countries, but migrated with Phoenicians and Carthaginians everywhere these peoples had storage facilities and established colonies; indeed, even Mexican idolatry has so much in common with that of the Cananites that, after the latest evidence, a connection between both world championships more can be denied.

222

All coasts of the Mediterranean Sea can be found Traces in antiquity indicate that before the friendly Greek Religion reigned there as a terrible Moloch. In the Myths of battles of the Greek heroes against the mis-
The designed monsters still remind us of the efforts-indicates which a milder spirit had to offer to... the horrible service of these Cananites on Greek soil to eradicate. In particular, this fight and victory of Greek spirit through the myth of the Moloch service to be preserved, that Zeus hath Cronus and the Titans in banished to the underworld or to the western end of the Earth, according to the Greek ideas of the time, divided into the countries west of Greece, towards Carthage, Italy, Spain, where the Moloch service through the Phoenicians had taken root.

The four-headed Minotaur on Crete, the Mi-nos is locked in the labyrinth, to whom one has the fevered youth-to eat boys and maidens, which the Athenians all nine years after Crete they had to send tribute until he Theseus slew: this Minotaur, as a man with a Depicted in bull heads, it is none other being than the phoe-
Nizische Moloch, which was on Crete, a colony of the Phoenicians Nizier had a temple. It is significant that the
The Athenians sent seven youths and seven maidens.
had to; because this number seven points back to Mo-hole, to whom she was holy, to whom the seventh day was dedicated.

Theseus kills the monster, that is, he destroys the Mo-
The lochdienst is out on Crete. Even the old three didn't.

) Alexander ab Alex. dier. genial. VI, 26. reports that the Cretans and Rhodesians a well-deserved rest on their holidays-
People and their children fattened up Saturn. =.
Porphyry also says this. De abstin. II, 54.

223 not only to be eaten by the monster, but also to a sacrifice of young men and women, as is the case with The Moloch considered the victim to be both food and a sacrifice. On a (ancient marble vase) Minotaur leads the seven Athenian Virgins to a sacrificial altar; carrying in one hand

He had a club, undoubtedly as a sign that the virgins were to be murdered by him.

Another type of monster, which we already mentioned above
As mentioned, Talos can also do nothing else.
sien, as a Moloch image somewhat altered by legend.
This image, also in Crete, would be, according to the Greek—
According to legend, an automaton made of ore had been the volcano
He had given it to Minos to guard the island.
He was said to have circled the island three times a day, just as he had done one
When a stranger came into view, he jumped into the fire and came out glowing hot, then the stranger grabbed him and pressed him to his burning chest until he amidst sounds of pain that resembled laughter,
He died amidst the so-called Sardinian laughter. The same Talos can also be found in Sardinia, which island which the Phoenicians also once possessed; there he is said to have been.
He lived in Crete before his arrival and murdered many.
have 2). He was therefore certainly the glowing Moloch, whom one dedicated the strangers as victims, who were the phoenix-approaching the stacking sites: at the same time a deterrent-means for foreigners who came to the Phoenicians on their trade routes eavesdrop. Strangely enough, it survives on the island.
Crete, the inclination towards human sacrifice, and in Athens, the Belief that Cretan priests are particularly strong could bring about atonement, until the brighter times into Greece. As late as 596 BC, they let to atone for a blood crime, the Cretan priest Epi-

224

Menides will come to Athens; he demands people-blood, and the young Kratinos volunteers to victims).

Otherwise, this old Phoenician behemoth is in the imagination-lung of the Greeks was transformed into Dionysos; where However, they are from human sacrifices on formerly Phoenician lands.
Sessions are held that are offered to Zeus, there will be Rather Baal than Moloch is the underlying principle. Laetanz tells the story.
Teucrus had among the Cypriots (in the city of Salamis).
A human being was sacrificed to Jupiter; this is the custom.
became and remained so, until recent times, where Ha-Dionysos picked up these victims 2). Here is probably under the Jupiternot Moloch, but the sun god Baal to be destroyed stand; for beside this temple of Jupiter at Salamis
There was another famous temple of the Baal in Cyprus.
(near Paphos); it was there that the male and
The feminine principle of nature was revered; it was compatible with Venus.
More like Baal than Moloch on this lush island. Even under the altar of Zeus in the Cypriot city of Amathus, which stood next to the Temple of Venus, and on which the foreign (the newcomers were slaughtered), there will not be an altar of Moloch, but of Baal. So often but the Greeks offered human sacrifices to Dionysos-
The old Moloch service is the underlying principle. Note-
In a worthy manner, this God also leads the Greeks to Beinames that bear a close resemblance to the shape of the Moloch to reveal; Dionysos was in ancient times associated with the Bull heads are depicted. His name is Teavpoxepulos, TuvoooO.

) Herod. V, 71; Thucid. I, 126.

) Lact. instit. I, 21.

) Ammian. Marcell. XIV, 8, 14.
Ovid. Metamorph. X, 229. |

225

Human sacrifices were dedicated to Dionysus at Chios, Lesbos and Tenedos, like Porphyry and after him (Eusebius reports). Dionysus carried some of these sacrifices. the nickname wuddrog, the butchering one, because one could The victim tore pieces from his body limb by limb (ueliori, Euseb.). Even when the Greeks in later times, when one could already abhorred human sacrifice, in great dangers of The state to them, as an extraordinary means of atonement, When they took refuge, it was Dionysus to whom the battle was dedicated. sacrifices were dedicated. The three captured nephews of Xerxes, which Themistocles, on the advice of the seer Euphrane= tides, sacrificed the day before the Battle of Salamis, were Offered to Dionysus?). At Alea in Arcadia was at a festival of Dionysus, which is called Txlegeic (named, the blood of scourged women sacrificed to God). The inhabitants of Potniä in Boeotia, who once had a priests of Dionysus were allegedly killed, sacrificed, according to a command of the Delphic Oracle, the god of the year= (lich a handsome boy, later instead a goat). The inhabitants of Tenedos sacrificed instead of the humans: to Dionysus later a newborn calf, to whom they thereby wanted to give it a human touch, so that they could do it with The cows that had slung it over their feet were shod, but the cow that had spawned it, how a woman was cared for in childbirth?). On the island of Leukas Every year, a man was thrown down to purify the people. (sing into the sea). This custom also existed in Athens and other places. Greek states, poor people, or the execution—

1) Porphyry. de abst. II, 55; Eusebius. praep. ev. IV, 16th and de laudib. Constant. 13, 4.

?) Plut. Themistocl. c. 13.) Pausan. VIII, 23°
) Pause. IX, 8.
5) Aelian zeoi www idiornros XII, 34.

6) Strabo X, 2. p. 332.

15

226

(voted criminals) in festive clothes at a certain to lead around the city as a sacrifice every day of the year, then to sacrifice for general purification (they were (either fallen from a rock or burned),
It seems to be a remnant of the old Moloch service, namely the all-to be a common day of repentance, which among the Phoenicians was called this God was celebrated annually.

Even for Italy and its islands, further evidence is provided by...
Legends and customs founded by the Phoenicians
The reign of Moloch in ancient times. By Talos, who not only on Crete, but also on Sardinia—
What happened has already been said. Photius also tells the story.
in a fine lexicon, that the Sardinians have the most beautiful war ge-prisoners and the old people who have reached their seventieth year had sacrificed to Saturn. Another legend, which refers back to a Moloch service in Sicily, is the
from the bronze bull of Phalaris in Agrigento. Ci—cero reports), after the conquest of Carthage, Scipio summoned the Sicilians so that they could gather those Ge-selected items in Carthage which the Carthaginians who were once dragged away from Sicily. Among these opponents:
That famous (nobilis) bull had also been present, which Phalaris, the cruelest of all tyrants, had should have; he used to put people alive into these,
and then, to kill them, to light a fire underneath them-ren. Now the age of this Phalaris, which, as Even Aristotle noted that they also ate children.

They were called yazuaxoi, xadtaouara. These people were also:
who had previously been fattened up at public expense for a year. At Aristophan. ran. 733. it bites “xovypoi x'ax rovno@Y; »
Bad people and children of bad people are for this purpose.
needed; Suidas says “ruva,, alfo not exactly a ver-Brecher have annually die must fear ure xalaboud . ec. .

2) Cic, in verr. IV, 33. 3) Aristot. Eth. VII, 6.

227

should, not determine, and the assumption which Gillies (in his fine History of Greece) states that there has never been a Phalaris exists, it is not at all unlikely, if one considers that this hollow bull image, which will soon be in Sicily, soon to be found in Carthage, very naturally from the Moloch services explained, and that the children, which Phalaris eats, also pointing again to the child victims, which were brought to Moloch. The ancient writers are disagree about the image's migration; Tim äus be claims that the Agrigentines had captured the bull of Phalaris in the sea threw; what they showed in their city, jey. that Image of a river god, Gelo. Poly contradicts him. bius, who says that Timaeus has all poets and writing steller against himself. As it may be: we can for our Object so much as to establish that in Sicily and Carthage a hollow, metal bull was present, in which one could He set people on fire to burn them. The story of the Cicero, that Scipio in Carthage had such a bull— The fact that I have met is crucial and cannot be doubted who the. This bull, on which between the shoulders still The gate could be seen, where the people were thrown in. "were, could only be an image of Moloch, to humans" Sacrifices are certainly necessary. Because even if it is right in and of itself... It is quite possible that a tyrant might come up with the idea of Roasting people alive, as was still done in the peasantry- Christian authorities had peasants roasted alive during wars: One simply cannot understand how a tyrant could be acting so vehemently towards the The form of the bull should be lost, which is suitable for such things— directions nothing less than natural is?). Would the

1) Cf. Böttiger, Ideas on the Myth of Art, p. 381.

2) I find at Zonar. annal. XIV, edit. Paris. tom. II, p. 81. a message which suggests that this type of Moloch sacrifices which took place in a burning inside the body of a bull existed, probably because later only criminals would be considered.

15 *

228

The bull is not an image of Moloch; it would not be known that Sicily and Carthage have been in constant contact since ancient times. Contact was established: this bull shape always wants to be a Mystery remain. But now that the Carthaginians have also reached Sicily— Once they had gained a foothold, this riddle is solved very naturally. to the point that this Sicilian bull was a Moloch. be, whose service may well once be entirely a Phalaris— It could have turned out differently. Furthermore, that In Carthage, such a bull was encountered, which the Sicilians declare that of Phalaris. Settled, the Car— The Thais really did bring that bull from Sicily with them to Africa taken: what could determine that? That Metal? No! It wasn't gold and silver; it was copper. They could at least have melted it down. The art value? Of There is no mention of such a thing; nor did the Phoenician Merchant people have little sense of art; they would consider a metal— lenen Stier fchferlich Jahrhunderten erhalten haben, simply because it would have been very beautifully shaped, which However, this is already unlikely because the bull is so was frequently exposed to fire. Only the religious interests are what make such a bull with- had it taken and kept. The story makes sense to me. lung of this bull of Phalaris, which Scipio in Car- Thago is said to have encountered, most naturally in the following way: White.

Sacrificial death was last used as punishment for criminals: The wall was opened without anyone thinking of a victim. In the The passage cited in the Zonaras text states that the Greek emperor Phocas by his successor Heraclius in He was burned by a bull, which had a bronze cavity. had. The bull had come from Pergamum to Constantinople: It was brought. This was done by a Christian emperor. in Christian times; therefore, a sacrifice is out of the question. Indeed. But will this bull of Pergamum be a remnant of ancient Mo?

Both in Sicily, as far as ancient times were concerned,
The island's Phoenician influence extended as far as Carthage had bronze bulls as images of Moloch, in which humans were roasted to ash. Were the ashes of the victims for religious purposes were particularly important, so such a thing was also necessary.
Construction of the image, which preserves the human ashes—mixed with that of the wood received, appeared very practical—nen. There might be such a famous image of a Moloch in Sicily.
had been, that the Carthaginians once took with them across to their took the city. But that what Scipio encountered Whether that old Sicilian image truly existed can be determined.
at least not prove it; the Carthaginians certainly had Even such monstrous images. It is certain that Scipio was a such a scene was encountered in Carthage. This may probably haven't been used for a long time, because over—Human sacrifices in Carthage had become less frequent—ren and man, even if such things were brought in individual cases were, but probably in this terrible way of being alive
He refrained from roasting.

A monster similar to the Minotaur and Talos, was the Cacus at the outlet of the Tiber. Virgil).
him a half-human, a horrible monster, who was cave inhabited, which is where people were drawn and more dete. Beftösdig s²ei hier sönsmenschenblut flusst, die Köpfe but they would have been nailed to the gate. Father of this Cacus was supposed to have been Vulcan, therefore he spat out:
while fire came from his throat.

Cacus was half-human. It is not stated that he was of which animal borrowed the other half of its body had been; but Böttiger recalls, according to Cerda, certainly rightly reminiscent of Ovid's verse: "Semibovemque virum, ) Virg. Aen. VIII, 192 f., "semihominem." Properz gives way in Virgil's description, he breathed fire "per tria ora. IV. eleg. 9, verse 10.

semivirumque bovem.” The monster becomes a Molod)-
 The image was like the Minotaur, a human figure with a bull's head; Vulcan is his father, this indicates that that the image was made of bronze, and the spewing of fire indicates the hearth of fire inside. As Theseus said Minotaur, so Hercules kills Cacus; the Moloch must yield to Greek service. On the medal, on which Antoninus Pius liberated the Protestant Co—Lonie had the monster Cacus portrayed, one can see Youths and maidens, the hand of the liberator Hercules kissing, before which the slain Cacus lies: one, of course, from a later indication that the monster Jüng² Boys and maidens were sacrificed. Incidentally, they find Even in the most recent times, very clear signs of this were evident in Rome itself.
 Traces of a former Moloch service. (Lactantius recounts) Saturn was present in Latium in the earliest times through Men² Shen sacrifices were venerated, though not in the way that People were slaughtered on the altar, one
 But I led him down from the Milvian Bridge into the Tiber overturned, according to an oracle's pronouncement), to—immediately with burning torches. These victims are from Her—
 The term "kules" has been abolished, but its use has been retained.
 to throw down human images for that purpose. Such human Figures woven from rushes, called Argei, were made annually.
 Thirty people, all on May 13th, dedicated to Saturn Atonement from the Tiber Bridge by the Vestal Virgins down I, a usage that leaves very clear traces of the Moloch service, for Saturn appears, who of the Sensuality, foreign priestesses, and fire. The

1) Lact. inst. J, 21. |

) This saying is: “Kai xepalas Koovidn xai To rargi KEUKETE pr. |

) Compare Ovid, Fasti V, vv. 621 ff. He calls the images stramineos.
 Quirites. 0

Death by drowning accompanied by a burning torch would probably be desirable. Even in ancient times, a mitigation for burning ge— being; even the water, as a cleaning agent, had, as the fire, its relationship to the pure, to sensuality hostile god; therefore a baptism of water and fire.

Even on the coast of Gaul, in Massilia, the Custom: to give a poor person a year's leave of absence during a plague outbreak to fatten him up for a long time, then dress him up in finery and parade him through the city to lead and fall from a cliff). Caesar told of the Gauls 2), that they were monstrous, made of rodents braided idols, which they had with living men³. They filled it completely and lit it. Apparently a variety. of the Phoenician Moloch service.

There may be some further comments about the Men⁴ join the sacrificial service of the Mexicans, since he is connected with the Phoenician Moloch service in the most striking kinship stands. |

The idea of a kinship between these two peoples— The existence of religious cults, or at least their religious cults, is not new; Münter in his religion of the Carthaginians and also others Scholars have often pointed to this agreement. fen; every new discovery from the prehistory of America confirms Does it mean more that between the inhabitants of this continent and those of Egypt and Phoenicia in ancient times Connection found instead). What I give here, find out⁵

1) Ser v. ad Aen. III, 57.

) Caesar bell. Gall. VI, 16: "Alii immani magnitudine simulacra hasten, quorum. contexta viminibus membra vivis hominibus complent, quibus succensis, circumventi flamma exanimantur homines. „

My learned friend Daumer undertook the trouble of to gather the messages from both sides, which constitute a ver-bond between the ancient inhabitants of the western hemisphere and attest to those of the Orient, namely Phoenicia. It hunting of Clavigero), who was born in Mexico and lived there for a long time, also about the history of fine fatherlandwho has conducted the most accurate investigations possible, one man, whose character, knowledge and circumstances of the

232

The way he was was that he absolutely had to be believed.
can. Of course, we can only put a few lines in the—
to be permitted in this matter; the question is also open to us, how this kinship is reflected in the religious ideas of the
To explain Phoenicians and Mexicans fey-

The two points which form the basis of Moloch—
The services also include those of the Mexican religious community.
firstly, the idea that the satisfaction of sensual desires Inclinations towards something impure, renunciation, fighting against the Sensuality is a merit: secondly, faith is the
The necessity of atoning for the deity with human blood.

According to Mexicans, this world was un—
Pure, the newborn child came in sin upon the sinful Earth. When the midwife brings the newborn infant into the womb... dote, spoke the words: Take this water; for
The goddess Cholchihuejia is your mother. Do you want this?
Bathe yourself from all those conceived in the womb. Unclean.
Cleanse your senses, purify your heart, and give yourself a good, full-"Provide for future life." Then she turned with after a prayer to the goddess, he again took water into his right hand.
Hand, moistened the mouth, head and chest of the chin;
and said: "Would the invisible God wish he were here" to lower yourself upon this water, to cleanse you from all sins and Cleanse yourself of impurities and deliver yourself from all misfortune! Dear Child, the gods Omecihuatli and Omecihuatel have you in
He created heaven and sent it down to this earth: but

It would be highly desirable that he had this book, which contains such important insights.

will be published as soon as possible, prepared for printing; for it is Be-
The need of science to produce something complete about this highest to obtain an important item.

) Clavigero, Gesch. v. Mexico, I, 387. ff.

233

Know that the life you are now entering is sad,
It is arduous and full of misery; you will not be able to,
To eat your bread without working: God help you in the four—many adversities await you, »

These ideas are similar to those of the later gerei—so closely related to the Jewish tradition that one could consider a Christian who might suspect influence; Clavigero, however, speaks of the original religion of the Mexicans. Since it is practiced alongside the religions of the other faiths.

If Phoenicia found such closely related human sacrifices, then it is possible
One can hardly assume that they are of Christian origin.
seyen. 5

The firstborn sons of the noble Mexicans must-ten, before they took possession of their estates, went to a monastery and to accept severe punishments there: without a doubt, a
A kind of substitute for a previous, actual sacrifice of the firstborn.
Pious people withdrew to monasteries or hermitages, to die to sensuality; the high priest himself had to in major accidents for nine to ten months as Hermits live in a hut in the forest, praying constantly, to injure his body with cutting tools, on these Art shed his blood for the people, and was allowed nothing but Eat corn kernels and drink water. The priests about
They were mainly torn apart for a large part of the year.
their bodies, as with the sacrifice of Elijah, also Baal's—
The priests wounded themselves; they gathered the blood and stuck themselves.
They inserted small plugs into the wounds, then bathed in a
A pond that was constantly stained with blood. Ugh!
During the time of these penitential exercises, they had to fast and... strictness in every community with the female sex—to keep. In general, the vow of chastity was...
The Mexicans were very highly regarded.

Mexicans sacrificed children, bought Slaves and primarily prisoners of war. At a festival
The god Tlaloc drowned a boy and a Girls in a lake; like Saturn there, people in 234

The Tiber was to be overturned. At another festival, they were closed.
They lured three boys into a cave and left them there—starvation, which is once again related to the practice of living in caves through Kin=

The victim is related to the worshipped Moloch. The battle=

The sacrifices were clothed in the same clothing that the god had worn.
wore. This was also the case with the human sacrifices, which took place in were brought to the Orient and Saturn; in the tracing of the scriptures-
The Christians were given what was said to be the wild animals accused of wearing the clothing of the priests of Saturn).

The clothing of the sacrificing high priest was red, like the priests of Saturn; the five priests who assi—

They wore white dresses. All over their bodies were The priests were dyed black. Also the priests of Saturn.
in Arabia, when they were on the Sabbath with olive branches went into the black temple of the god, dressed in black—det ?). The victim's still-beating heart was held by the me—(Rican priests against the sun), then laid it on the
The idol was at his feet; he picked it up and offered it to the god.
and then burned it or stuck it into the idol with A golden spoonful. As in Carthage, so Those destined to be victims were also among the Mexicans.
People were well-nourished for a period of time beforehand, in order to fatten them up.
According to legend, Cacus had the skulls of those he had killed.
murdered people were placed in front of the cave; this Ger
This custom is indeed found in the human sacrifices, which were brought to the Canaanite deities, also other=

1) Mint. Rel. d. Carth. p. 28. |

2) From Ali Taleb in Norberg Onomast. Cf. Winer's bibl.
Realw. II, 455.

3) The Mexicans sacrificed quail to the sun every day;

They also smoked her and greeted her, towards morning:
returns, at their rising. Bread was also given to the gods and Baked goods were served; bowls were set out every morning.
with freshly cooked food in front of their pictures, so that they could see the Inhale steam into your nose.

235 -

forwards; the Taurians, for example, cared for the skulls of men to impale the creatures they had sacrificed to Astarte.
This was also common practice in Mexico. On special occasions—buildings near the temples, which gave off the shape—
Where pyramids were shorter, tall trees had been planted.
and surrounded by posts, on which the heads of the Victims were impaled. The most significant aspect of these buildings
In Mexico, he was called Huitzompan. An officer of Cortés, Tapia, in association with other Spaniards,
the effort of counting the heads on these buildings
They had been placed on the lot. They stated the total to be 136,000.

A start.

On the name of the Astarte, its relationship to Asherah and the reasons that determine us from the—
To separate fer Götti, is already under the article « Afchera »
It has been spoken. It may be noted repeatedly here who—that difficulty, according to which Astarte, like the Asherah, alongside Baal, appears, probably most naturally
The Hebrews initially worshipped the Asherah next to Baal; later, the Phoenician army advanced from Phoenicia.
Name of the goddess Astarte, whose cult was practiced in the age the judge appropriated it in such a way that one could use it with the Ashera just identified. Since the closer acquaintance

1) Astarte appears with Baal in the singular in Judges 2:13;
The phrase "A fstarten mit Baalim im Plur. finden sich Richter 10, 6;" is found in Judges 10:6.
1 Samuel 7:4; 1 Samuel 12:10. — Astarte without Baal stands
1 Kings 11:5, where she is referred to as the goddess of the Sidonians;
Likewise, 1 Kings 11:33, where the god Camos follows; the Astarte

Solomon's exterminates Josiah (2 Kings 23:13). An Astarte in Temple of the Philistines 1 Samuel 31:10

236

Astarte joins forces with the Phoenicians under Solomon. the Sidonians or Phoenicians as a special goddess— before; Solomon first erected an image for her, which was of the Asherah is definitely distinguished; her cult maintains itself. throughout the entire reign of the kings as one of the Asherahs— separate; for the image of that Sidonian Astarte of Solomon It still stands unharmed beneath Sofia, who is destroying it. In However, in that final period of the Jewish state, things became intertwined. Once again, those ideas of the good, sensual and the evil, nature-hostile, chaste female prince- zipe; as a result of this mixing, the heavens appear— queen, who is probably more Astarte than Aschera. Likewise, as has already been noted, during that period one finds also among the Greeks, the chaste one, averse to all sensuality, a gruesome Artemis with breasts, which is a symbol of to give to creative and nourishing nature; the sensual Cybele, on the other hand, acts as if she were the enemy of all. Fertilization would be, mutilated priests. (In Cicero) and Philo of Byblus) the Astarte is practically synonymous with the Venus compared; also among the Church Fathers). Each off— did people become more inclined towards [something] with increasing culture? the gruesome cult of these people, which involved human sacrifice The more she became a goddess, the more she took from the chakra again. character of the sensual Asherah opposite her; also already by the fact that instead of human sacrifices, the gruesome—

1) Cic. de nature. deor. III, 23. Also Suidas in a fine lexicon says Aorcry 7 wa Eilmow Agyoodirn Aeyousvn.,n About the Sidonische Astarte gives him no further insight than that they I worshipped Solomon.

2) in Eusebius. prepar. Evangelical I, 10.

3) Theodoret lib. III. reg. quacks. 50: Horcry de Eorw 7 røeg Ejimow Aypoodiry æo,;uyogeuvoüē vn. "Augustin explains Afstarte for Juno: "Juno autem sine dubitatione ab illis Astarte vocatur." Quaest. in Jud. VII, 16.

The goddess who later offered up her virginity was the Transition to a lustful veneration. Grief—
 The Romans and the Romans no longer knew which of their
 They were to compare the goddesses to the Astarte; it was after and then in Phoenicia and Syria the old ways were revived—the merging of Asherah and Asherah into one deity arose—as the Syrian goddess clearly demonstrates; and Thus, the Astarte was soon associated with the Greeks and Romans.
 Luna is sometimes compared to Juno, sometimes to Venus.
 In contrast, the later Lucian (de dea Syr. cap. 4.) still a significant testament to the fact that the old Sidonian Astarte bore the character of the cruel Artemis.
 He says he holds the Astarte, to which a temple near the
 It is holy to the Sidonians, for Selene.

In ancient times, the goddess wore a bull's head, a
 A characteristic that quite clearly distinguishes them from the bull-headed Moloch.
 the page sets. This is evident from a passage in the fragments of the Sanchuniathon), where it says, “the Astarte placed himself on his head as a sign of royal power.
 dignity, a bull's head placed, and from the name of the Palestinian city of Astaroth Karnaim (the horned ones) Astagne), which apparently derives from the service of this goddess her name was 2). It was very likely that this was one
 The golden calf of the Israelites is an image of Astarte.
 The worship of this goddess spread with the Phoenicians to the coasts of the Mediterranean; we find them in Europe again, whose connection with the bull is also for that This suggests that the goddess was depicted in ancient times as a cow or also in A human figure with a bull's head has been depicted.
 Achilles Tatius gives in the first chapter of the first book fine Erotifa the description of a painting of Europa

) in Eus eb. praep. Evangelical I, 10.

) 1 Mos. 14, 5; Deuteronomy 1, 4; Sofia 9, 10; Sofia 13, 31; 1 Macc. 5, 43.

—

in the Temple of Astarte in Sidon. He sketches her there, as (you can still see them on old coins), as a beautiful Virgin sitting on a bull facing the sea: swims out; with her left hand she holds onto the horn of the bull. Shouldn't the assumption prove justified? let the Sidonians have had no use for this representation at all. want to describe it as nothing other than its founding by Colonies, a migration of their deities beyond the Sea: from which the Greeks then derived the fable of the Ent— Did they write about Jupiter leading a Phoenician princess? Also the legend of Io, who was transformed into a cow. will and in their frenzy sweep far and wide across lakes and seas undertakes, its origin lies in the wandering phoenix— to find between Astarte; no less may Dido in her Connection with the important ox hide the Astarte ge— beings, under whose auspices one finds the Carthaginian co— Lonie founded it. After Lucian, the priests declared the Astarte in Sidon itself, though not in agreement— mung, who is Europe for the Astar. He says: "the Sido— They possess a large temple, which, according to them, the Astarte is sacred. I myself consider the Astarte to be the Moon goddess; however, one of the priests told me it was This a temple of Europa, the sister of Cadmus and Daughter of King Agenor." That the Sidonians, like Lu— cian assured at the same place that their coins The image of Europa, sitting on the bull, is certainly proof that Europa is indeed the goddess of Landes, which was Astarte. As noted above, Such coins have survived to our day; on some In some depictions the goddess sits, in others she stands on the bull. Also The Greek Artemis is associated with the bull. placed; they have coins on which they were betrayed by bulls.

) Bol. Böttiger. Ideas on the mythology of art. Plate IV.

) Dea Syr. c. 4,

is pulled, on others a appears next to her head

Bull's head, elsewhere she stands or rides on the bull 9.

Without a doubt, the Astarte was used as a starting point in ancient times.

cow, or in human form with the head of a cow=

posed. Perhaps a nascent better taste, but in any case the conquest of the people=

Ser, who do not believe in the divine worship of animal forms tolerated, worked to the point that the Afstarte only existed in Men=

The image of the Syrian goddess was formed - The image of the Syrian goddess in Hierapolis, which Lucian describes I, there is human-falt, as was to be expected in those later times= that is possible. The service of this Syrian goddess apparently lies in a mixture of the Asherah and Astarten services is the basis,

 She is Asherah and Astarte, Cybele and Artemis all at once.
 Lucian says that in the innermost room of this temple
 Hierapolis, which only the highest priests were allowed to enter,

There were two statues of gods, one of Juno, the other of an ö

Representing God, who could be none other than Jupiter;
 Juno is drawn by lions, but the god by bulls—
 Juno, however, if one looks at her more closely,
 also similarity to Minerva, Venus, the Luna, Rhea, Diana, Nemesis and the Parcae.

The star in which Astarta was worshipped,
 Was the moon also the pure one among the Greeks?
 Sensuality alien to Artemis, moon goddess; likewise with the Persians the Tanais, who, likewise virgins, the same Beings, as depicted in the Phoenician Astart. The Heavenly Ones The queen mentioned in Jeremiah cannot possibly be to suggest a celestial body other than the moon, who represents a female goddess everywhere in antiquity.

The ancient text gives information about the manner of worship of Astarta. The Testament offers little insight; we only learn that the side

9 Böttiger, Ideas on the Art Myth. p. 331.
) Dea Syr. cap. 32.

240

Niche Astarte from Solomon onwards among the Jews, special features
I enjoyed the drawing. This is from 1 Kings, Chapter 1.

11, 5. 33. highlights where the Astarte, in enumeration of the phö

The Niziic gods whom the Jews served always referred to the An fang makes: Solomon followed Astarte, the God of the Sidonians, and Milcom, the monster of the Moabites. The prophet Ahijah also says so (1 Kings 11:33).

In Jehovah's name: "because they forsaken me and worshipped Ast arte, the god of the Sidonians, Camos, the God of Moab, and Milcom, the god of the sons of Ammon. This service flourished, it seems, quite undisturbed, except for the times of King Josiah; for in his time it still stands the sanctuary of Sidon's Astarata, which Solomon built on had built a hill near Jerusalem. Josiah desecrated

He also used this height in his attempted reformation (2 Kings 23:13); but as is well known, this zeal of the King's success was not successful; for Sofia fell, despite the prophecy of the prophetess Huldah (2 Kings 22:20) in the Battle of Megiddo, and Jehoahah's son led the We find in this and the

In the near future, according to the account of Jeremiah, the heavens Queen among the Hebrew women in great esteem, a god
heit, which, as has often been noted, is a mixture of Asherah and Astarte, yet seems to be more Astarte than Aschera. »

“Do you not see,” says Jehovah in Jeremiah 7:17, which They do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jeru

Salam's? The children gather wood and the fathers burn it.
Light the fire, and the women knead the dough to make cakes.
to ride to the Queen of Heaven and offer libations.
"The foreign gods." In captivity, when a Part of the Jews had moved to Egypt with Jeremiah,
This service is maintained and the Jews defend it fiercely.
stubbornly opposed Jeremiah chapter 44, verse 15: "And they answered Jeremiah said all the men who knew that their Women incense to other gods, and all women who 241

They stood there in great numbers, all the people who lived in
They went to Egypt and into Pathros and said: What you are doing there spoken to us in Jehovah's name, and in this we obey.
Not you; but we will do everything our mouth says.
spoken, to incense the Queen of Heaven and to offer their libation, as we have done, we and us^r
Our fathers, our kings and our commanders in the in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, as we
We had enough bread and we were doing well and we had no problems.
They saw happiness. But since we stopped burning incense...
Queen of Heaven and to offer her libation, man^r
We value everything and we will survive by sword and hunger.
um. "And if we," said the women, "smoke the Offering a libation to the Queen of Heaven, prepare
We, then, without the knowledge of our men, cake to them to depict, and offer her libations? -

For us, this refers specifically to the Men^r offerings that were brought to Astarte.
The Old Testament gives no example; that their cult but was not free from such atrocities, as is partly shown by her Beings, partly the service of related goddesses at ande—other peoples. She was the chaste, pure, nature-hostile one, cruel goddess and demanded blood, including human blood, just like the Moloch standing by her side. Since she as She is depicted as the war goddess of the Philistines, in whose temple
(the Philistines hang up the weapons of the fallen Saul), fo Did she even exist among the Phoenicians as a bloody goddess of war.

The Astarte is probably that Pallas from which Por—(Phyrius says?), that one would otherwise send her to Laodicea in Syria I have sacrificed virgins. It is most remarkable that also the author of the frequently mentioned work de dea Sy-) 1st Sam. 31, 10.) Porphyry. II, 56.

16

242

rin also mentions child sacrifices, which were dedicated to the Fyrfichen goddess would be taken to Hierapolis in Syria.

This writing cannot be attributed to Lucian himself, so it falls short.

but surely not earlier than Lucian, namely into the second century after Christ's birth. A forgery is suspected in

It is quite impossible to think of that position, nor can one assume the author has been reported on negatively; the whole

Language shows that one can find in it a simple, Greek—

Chinese terms, a pious man before me, who has his

Description of the service of the Syrian goddess not from not from hearsay, but from personal observation.

First, he says in chapter 54, which also refers to the Jews.

a curious relationship is found: “the animals which they

(in the temple at Hierapolis) sacrifice, find bulls, cows, goats

They loved sheep. They found pigs alone abhorrent.

They are neither sacrificed nor eaten. Some believe,

This is not because they are an abomination,

but rather in the fact that these animals are sacred. Under

- to the birds, the dove is a most sacred animal; they

They consider it a sin even to touch a dove.

Chapter 58: “Another way to sacrifice is as follows. One...”

throws the wreathed sacrificial animals over the terrace of the Tem—

down into the pelvorhofes, so that they were killed by the fall—

Some even throw their children down from here, but not like the sacrificial animals, but they put the same in a sack and throw it down by hand, whereby

They hurl insults and say they are not children—

The, but calves. » |

Such human sacrifices were therefore still possible in the early

Centuries after the birth of Christ, those who entered the Syrian gods—tin gradually redesigned ancient Phoenician Astarte ge—must be brought. The rule of the Persians, the Greeks and Römer, a staunch opponent of human sacrifice, was able to year—
 Hundreds of times have failed to eradicate these atrocities. How deep

243 must this human sacrifice cult have existed in those Phoenician and sy^r have taken root in various tribes! What might be in This happened in earlier times, when the state government in those countries the human sacrifices have not yet been—not offered, but favored! From news about the story of ancient Phoenicia almost completely exposed, we find immediately—Traces of a terrible horror can probably still be found among the Greeks.

 Human sacrifice service, with which one could create a bull-headed Goddess of the Greek islands and deeper into the north—worshipped in Asia; and this goddess cannot be worshipped in any way.
 those who are, as the Phoenician Astarte, who have their trading people accompanied him on his journeys, gained a foothold in his colonies, but especially in Carthage. For without two^r fel is the Suiuwv Kaoyndoviov, which, according to Polybius, the contract that Hannibal made with the King Philip of Macedon built the old Phoenician castle Astarte. We find her again in the gruesome Taurus.
 (Blessed Virgin?) on the shores of the Black Sea, in the goddess of Comana and Castabala in Kappa^r docien, in the Lacedaemonian Orthosia, in the Roman Bellona. Everywhere she demands human blood! — About this
 Some explanation.

The very name Tauria suggests a bull-headed [body].
 Image of a god. The Greeks did not merely give this name to the Crimean peninsula, where the damsel in distress, which when they found the strangers being sacrificed; also the island

5) Po b. VII, 1.

2) On the human sacrifices which this goddess performed according to Ovid.
 sad. IV, 4. 61. ff. Diodorus. IV, 44.45; Lactant. I, 21. The

The Taurians slaughtered all the foreigners they could lay their hands on to their Artemis. could be; Euseb. praep. evang. IV, 16. and Athanas. contr. gent. P. 21: Txugat ol xalovusvor Tavgiol rn rap' cf rapsevo xahovuevn ro ano vavayioy xal 00005 A JaBoci ray Eilyyoy eis Ivoia y avaypegovoy. »

16*

244

Lemnos, where Artemis is depicted as a goddess with the bull symbol who was revered bore the name Na² as a sacred designation. men Taurien, which very clearly refers to the ancient Phoenician Astarte rejects. Otherwise, Artemis is also called... Zavowrösg, the goddess with the bull-headed sword. On Lemnos These virgins were sacrificed to Artemis. That Iphi— genia, which according to legend are sacrificed to Artemis The name was probably originally the goddess herself; the name is in In the earliest times, this was undoubtedly an honorable designation. (of Artemis), whom later Homeric poetry used to make a virgin out of it, which the Artemis is to be slaughtered. Iphigenia flees, like the Greek poetry says, after the Taurian peninsula and She will become a priestess there of the same Artemis, who is the mother of men. to be sacrificed. Orestes and Pylades, who were there— Those who had come should be sacrificed to their goddess, Iphi² Genie recognizes them and flees with them, while Fie sees the picture the goddess takes with her; everywhere she goes on this flight² It seems she is introducing the cult of the Taurian maiden. lies in this connection between Iphigenia and the Taurian Artemis's proof is sufficient that Iphigenia and Artemis are one and the same goddess are, according to Herodotus, also the The Taurians themselves claimed, as was also the case in Greece Artemis bears the epithet Iphigenia). At the same time, however This legend also contains the clearest evidence that that ancient Artemis Men, closely related to the Astarte² were sacrificed. Herodotus deals with the men² The sacrifice of the Taurians in chapter 103 of the fourth book² ches. "They sacrifice to the Virgin," he says, "Those, who suffered shipwreck, indeed all Greeks,

1) Suidas in the Lexicon under ravewrog.

2) The old name Typiavaoca (still in Lucrez I, 85) indicates even more clearly pointing to a powerful goddess.

3) Pausan. II., 35. in Hermione.

245

which they get into their power, in the following way. After to whom the prisoner had received the consecration, they beat him with a club to the head. Some claim to freeze the body from the top of the rock (for the temple stands on a rocky outcrop) down and impale the head on a stake; Others disagree regarding the head, but they say the body will not be lifted from the rock's peak, not overthrown, but buried. The goddess to whom they sacrifice, the Taurians themselves clarify for Iphigenia, the daughter of Agamemnon's. It is remarkable that Diodorus claimed that the Carthaginians had the same customs at the sacrifices, which are offered to Kronos. We also have as already seen above, one can give the kin to the Syrian goddess, which also descended from the terrace of the temple courtyard-fell. N

Where the Greek in his own homeland or in white terren Kreises of his geographical knowledge those with Men Sacrifice-related veneration of the Virgin Craod'evog, (as is also the name of Artemis,) found that the same were instigated by Iphigenia, who introduced this cult with I introduced her brother Orestes to it. Orestes is said to have...
Temple of this Taurian Artemis at Hale, on the border of the Attic area in the district of Brauron), the one in Lacedaemon founded in monia and those at the outflow of the Tiber.
The Greeks attribute this to their Apollo.
back, who gave the oracle to Orestes, his delusion His senses will be healed when he goes to Tauris and the image of Artemis that fell from the sky there bring to Athenians. As Euripides in his Iphigenia... directed, was on the orders of Pallas, when Orestes the Tem—pel to Halä had built, the Taurian Artemis a man sacrificed. Even the chaste Pallas severed her relationship with the

1) Dio d. XX, 14.

2) Pausanias. I, 33,

246

ancient Astarte, like the related Artemis; at her command
The service of the Taurian Artemis is introduced in Attica.
In a curious way, she too is known by nicknames, such as the Artemis, in association with the bull and the sea—brought. It is called ravooporog ') on the island of Andros;
And legend says that it got its name from the fact that once Anius gave Agamemnon a bull, with which Desire to drive him into the sea and where he
He went ashore to build a temple to Pallas; this This happened on the island of Andros. So the Greeks, the ancient legend of a bull-headed goddess, which came across the sea, transformed into a more pleasing myth-Shapes. In Troy, Pallas receives human sacrifices. Ajax Cassandra, priestess of Pallas and daughter of the Priam, have been dishonored. Since then, the Locrians have had to pay an annual tribute.
two virgins into the temple of Pallas after Troy send which will be burned there 2). On others Greek islands, namely on Icarus, Samos) and.
In Amphipolis, Artemis Tavoono was worshipped.
dog, allegedly, because they drove a raging ox through the
The whole world hunted Poseidon from the sea—to pass through; here again an indication of a a bull-shaped deity who came from across the sea, who a terrible service which is widespread was. The goddess is depicted on the coins of the island of Icarus.
naked with flowing robes on a bull, just like that,
as Achilles Tatius describes the painting of Europa, that he saw in Sidon?). The name Tauropolos ) Suidas in feinem Lexicon, unter den oben beigegeben Bezeichnungen.

) Callimach. fr. p. 564. Ern. |

3) Strabo XIV. p. 639. edit. Paris. Casaub. Aoreuidos legov xalovusvoy TRVEORXOÄLOY.n

4) Liv. XLIV, 44. "templum Dianae, quam Tauropolon vocant.,

5) Strab. XIV, p. 639.

247

Is for that gruesome Taurian Artemis among the Greeks the common name, their temples are called zzvoorVlior.

She is the same being as the goddess of Com ana.

and Castabala in Cappadocia, also the Seythians

ren fie. "In the deep valleys of the Antitaurus," reports

Strabo :), «it the temple of Liu, which is from the

It is called Comana by its inhabitants.

A crowd of enthusiasts (Heopoorjrov). The temple has a large area and the high priest takes part among the Kappa=

They teach the next rank after the king. One maintains this service for the same with that of the Taurian Ar= temis and says that Orestes with Iphigenia brought him from

Brought here from Taurian Scythia. At Castabala

In Cappadocia there is a temple of Artemis Perasia; there

They tell the same story that is told about Orestes and the Tauropolos has; it is claimed that the goddess will Pe—called rasia because they came there across the sea.

Even in Lacedaemonia, where Orestes is said to have his legend

When the king was king, the Taurian Artemis had a temple. Pau= fantias gives quite detailed reports about this. He says the place which is called Limnaeon (initially the

The city of Sparta), is sacred to Artemis Orthia, and that

The image of the goddess should be the same as that of Orestes and Iphigenia from Tauria; under the rule of the Orestes was brought here, like the Lacedaemonians.

He asserted that this was also more likely to him; for he saw

I don't understand why Iphigenia, like the Athenians want, should do that.

They should have left the picture in Brauron. The viewing

The Taurian Artemis is still so great that the Cappadocians, the inhabitants of Pontus, and the Lydians, at

- — — — —
- 1) Diod. Sic. II, 46. N
 - 2) XII, pp. 535 and 537 in the Paris edition by Casaubon—Pausanias III, 16.

248

to whom the sanctuary of Artemis Anaitis is, they assure, possessed the true image; however, this was currently in Be- seats of the Syrian city of Laodicea, which Seleucus used as his base I made a gift. That the Artemis Orthia in Lace- demon, the image from the land of the barbarians, for that He also finds proof in the following. Those who Those who found the picture were instantly driven mad. became, and some Spartan tribes, while they were the They sacrificed Artemis, got into a dispute that escalated into a murder- who passed over, so that many before the altar gave their lives- atoned; the rest subsequently died from illness. I have come. An oracle that I received about this... ordered that the altar be sprinkled with human blood. Then One person is always chosen by lot to be the victim; Lysurgus, however, softened this usage to the point that young children would be scourged at the altar so that their blood would be shed for them. (drinking waters). The Spartan column, therefore, had been derived from the Sacrifice in Taurida retain the peculiarity that they reveling in human blood.

Here, then, is clear proof that that Artemis Tauro- Polos were also used to sacrifice people in ancient Greece. were. The customs at other temples of the Ar- were also observed. The temis point to earlier human sacrifices. For example, the priests of Diana at Ephesus (the Cut-Down Ones), like those the Syrian goddess in the temple at Hierapolis, who, like Lucian reports), in a fit of frenzy, here- evoked by roaring music, in the temple with its own- mutilated with a hand. This castration is a milder form. Use for a real sacrifice of maturing youths;

Instead of life, they brought the chaste goddess a man.
Ability to sacrifice. The temple and grove of Ephesi—
Diana was allowed to, as Achilles Tatius did in the eighth

1) Cic. Tuscul. quaest. I, 14.

) Strabo XIV, p. 641.) Luc. dea Syr. c. 51.

249

Buche reports, besides the effeminate priests, only Jung
Women enter. At the Temple of Artemis at Aegira
In Achaia, the institution was that the priestesses... were not allowed to reach manhood; they had to...
to leave temple service. One may assume that this
The custom suggests an old practice, according to which the after
The high priestess sacrificed human blood to the thirsting goddess.
was, yes, as she came of age; for that
The fact that the priests themselves had to bleed as victims was, as we will be seen immediately, not uncommon in Phoenician cult—lich. In Pausanias's work, however, the human sacrifices are described as... who find themselves in the service of this doreug Týpic, differently justified. It is the way of the ancients, who practiced human sacrifice.
which arose from ancient times in the service of Diana—had inherited, through a sexual transgression of a Prie—to explain sterine in ancient times; they did not think of the
To seek the origin of this cult in Phoenicia, whose color—
They had transplanted him to Greece. That's how it's told.
also Pausanias in the cited passage, a handsome young man
Ling Menalippus had a priestess in ancient times.
Artemis Triklaria, also known as Kamätho, married to him as his wife-
That's enough; the marriage would not be illegal for her according to the law.
She had been, but she could no longer have been a priestess.
Since the parents refused to consent, the young People used the temple as a bridal chamber, but they were died soon after. The goddess, whose revenge was exacted through the death of the Since both people were still not satisfied, there was a failure to thrive and Plague was sent across the land. When the Delphic Oracle was consulted...
When asked about this, the explanation given was that Artemis would will be reconciled if she receives a handsome young man every year Ling and a beautiful maiden was slaughtered. — In Trözene

(the brides had to dedicate their locks to Hippolytus),
And this was, as Euripides reports in Hippolytus,

1) Pause on. VII, 19.) Pausan, II, 32.

250

a reward from Artemis to the chaste Youth. Now, however, the consecration of the hair, namely
The burning of the same on the altar, as we know it even among the Jews, even in the New Testament at Apostle Paul, certainly referring to earlier human sacrifices; one Finally, only the god or goddess burned the Part of the body which is used for special ornamentation held and yet detach without pain, even through the Nature itself could be restored.

An important insight into the old branch service gives us the Roman Diana Aricina. It was already mentioned above.
Under the article Moloch, it was noted that even the Mouths of the Tiber: Traces of the ancient Phoenician Moloch
The same is true for the Astarte. In
The groves of Aricia, not far from the outflow of the Tiber, were ruled The Taurian Artemis as well. From there, according to the Legend has it that her image was only brought to Sparta after The Romans wish to rid themselves of this gruesome service ten; Orestes had also brought the image here). Strabo explains the service of this Diana Aricina as similar to the the Taurian Artemis 2); and so a strange Cruelty, which is mentioned in connection with the cult of this goddess, alongside other traces of the same use in the service of Astarte, probably justifying the conclusion that this fear—bare facility to the old Moloch and start-up service over was mainly peculiar. I mean here the customary practice in the service of Diana Aricina, that the high priest always owns his predecessor of the goddess had to sacrifice by hand, an inherited from ancient times Cruelty, which also refers to the disappearance of Moses and Aaron casts an important light on a mountain. After a
The Romans later established this dangerous prize

- 1) Servius ad Virg. Aeneid. II, 116. et VI, 137.
) Strabo.V, p. 239th ed. Paris. Casaub.

251

Diana's place at Aricia with a runaway slave occupied, who was already doomed to die. He led as The priest took the name Rex Nemorensis and retained his office.
until another runaway slave killed him.
N. then came into possession of this priestly glory.
Therefore, he was constantly confronted with his bare sword—riding, to ward off unexpected attacks, and also
He still had to go with a different slave once a year.
to fight to the death; for he was not allowed any natural—die of a certain death. This institution maintained itself throughout the entire period.
Duration of the Roman state up to the introduction of the Christianity. The cruel Caligula once asserted himself, as Suetonius reports 2), a Rex Nemorensis for too long;
He made preparations for someone stronger to come after him. Even the Portraits of the gladiators, who fought to the death—
Having fought, it was customary to gather in the colonnades of that temple—pels, like an offering, to hang up).
To this temple of Aricia now also extends the strange myth of Hippolytus, which in turn refers to those old custom, according to which the high priest of Astarte depending on was sacrificed by his successor at a certain time, points out. Against the chaste Hippolytus, Neptune points to the Theseus' plea that God would remove this son from the way may clear, a monstrous bull from the sea em—
This makes the young man's horses skittish.
He is torn to pieces; but Aesculapius brings him back to life, Diana transforms him into an old man and brings him to Aricia, where he founded the temple for her and the first He becomes a priest. Since that time, Hippolytus has been called Virbius.
ist so Viel als Vir bis, „twice man.“ The legend lets now Hippolytus will marry the nymph Aricia, with

Ovid, Fasti II, gives a description of the grove on pages 260 ff.
Service. N ) Suet. Calig. 35.) Plin. hist. nat. XXXV, 7.

252

from whom he fathered a son, who was again named Virbius.
– Here again we find that terrible thing, from the sea coming bull, and it requires, as Böttiger says N), no great shrewdness required to follow the old custom, where from A new priest always rises up in the place of the slain old priest lives, the reason for this myth of revival—to find Hippolytus's exercise. Also the son of Hippolytus—polyt ist Vir bis, which means nothing other than that also the successors of the first priest suffered the same sacrificial death die.

Will the Roman Bellona also be associated with this Diana Ari-
Although they differ, she very likely leads her Its origin also dates back to the Phoenician Astarte, which, as with the Philistines, so too probably with the Phoenicians and throughout Western Asia (as Tanais, Atergatis) goddess of the war. Even chaste Pallas had her war.
German armaments in an old context with this war to thank the goddess Astarte. The cult of the Roman Bellona is very closely related to that of Astarte. The goddess
No sacrifice other than human blood may be made.
Their priests had to cut their arms and shoulders with knives.
to cut themselves bloodily and sacrifice their own blood to the goddess 2). The

1) Ideas on the mythology of art. p. 402, ) Horat. Satyr. II, 3. 223; Tibullus. I, 6. 45. This mangling of one's own body, especially the arms, by the priests is not only in the service of the Roman Bellona, but everywhere

It was usually in the branch-starting service. Apuleius metamorphosed.
de asin. lib. VIII: "Ad postremum ancipiti ferro, quod fere-bant, sua quisque brachia dissecant," Prudentius Rom.
Martyr.: Cultum in lacertos exserit fanaticus sectisque

Matrem brachiis placat Deum." The Oberpriester to this substitute replacement of self-stop verobliges. Tertullian apolog. c. 25: » Archigallus ille sanctissimus sanguinem impurum lacertos quoque castrando libabat. “ – Lactant. I, 21: “Ipsi sacerdotes non alieno, sed suo cruore sacrificant. Sectis namque humeris et utraque manu districtos gladios exserentes currunt, efferuntur, insaniunt. “

253

Its use clearly proves to be a mitigation of early symptoms. rer human sacrifices, and here again it is the The priests themselves, who serve as sacrifices. The priests seized, after blood had flowed from their wounds, with Each hand a sword, they ran in a frenzy of enthusiasm. They ran around frantically, uttering prophecies. Something Lucian reports something very similar about the galls in the temple. the Syrian goddess of Hierapolis). Also the scourge, which Bellona carried in her hands, and her yellow hair was (sprinkled with human blood).

The Scythian peoples had a similar service.

“Am meijten,” says Strabo of the inhabitants of Albanien's), » they worship the moon goddess. Her temple is a high priest was appointed, who held the next rank after the King takes over. The priests of the goddess are Many were at times seized by a furious enthusiasm, in which they prophesy. The one of them who, of seized by rage to a special degree, solely through the wanders through the forests, is captured, bound with the sacred chain— felt and receives the most abundant food throughout the year; fo Then he is brought forth as a sacrifice to the goddess, abundantly anointed and killed with sacrificial animals. This sacrifice takes place. So. The human sacrifices must be performed with the holy lance. to be presented; one who is skilled in the matter steps forward. emerges and thrusts it through the priest's side into the Heart. Once it collapses, the Prophecies taken from the corpse, which were taken from the assembly The death was announced. Then the body was taken to a certain place where everyone then steps on it, which for a means of purification. » ) Lucians de a Syr. e. 51.

2) Compare the service of this goddess Lactant. instit. div. I, 21; Martial. XI, 85.

) In the fourth chapter of the eleventh book.

254

The news among the old folks about the Astarte in Kar—Thago provides little insight. Augustine says in the above
The passage mentioned states that Astarte is Juno; it may
This is further proof that the Romans were that god^s
They also gave her the name Juno. Strangely enough, in a way.
the older Roman writers refer to the Carthaginians^s
The deities showed almost no consideration; only later, when they under Roman world rule the gods of all under When peoples mingled, the Carthaginians also became more to the foreground; but they already had significant [efforts] at that time.
Changes have been suffered. The Church Father Augustine, himself an African, mentioned in several places in this Juno, who he also calls Coelestis virgo. This can also be found on ancient stone inscriptions bear the names: Coelesti Augustae, In- victae Coelesti, Invictae coelesti Uraniae, Bona dea sanctissima coelestis, Juno coelestis, Diana coelestis);
Alone, one keeps together the meager accounts of the ancients,
It follows that in those later times of the beginning and Aster cults had already adopted much from each other, that this Coelestis appears sometimes as Diana, sometimes as Venus— occurs, and nothing has been gained for the former Astarte cult 2).

1) Münter, Rel. der Karthag. p. 75.

2) From accounts by Roman writers about this Having served in Carthage rather exposed, one naturally turns to... firstly, to the Church Fathers Tertullian and Augustine.
However, these only provide information about the service during their time.
who is pretty much for the goddess whom they call Virgo Coelestis, and for the Berecynthia mater deorum of the same Be-Creativity was. In Tertullian, first and foremost, one finds only few meager relationships. He once said (Apolog. c. 23):

“Ista ipsa Virgo Coelestis pluviarum pollicitatrix,” from which we at least enough can be gleaned that the Coelestis also apply to him was known as Virgo, and that this goddess called for rainfen was. The latter point is intended to indicate that this heavenly virgin (namely Astarte), ruler of the 2355

Since we are now everywhere on the coasts of the Middle East-sea, where the Phoenicians founded colonies in ancient times, encountering the remnants of the start-up service; so it may well be

The sky, the rain, and the winds were, therefore for the seafar—
The Phoenicians and Carthaginians considered it a very important deity.
Elsewhere he refers to the Coelestis as the main—deity of Africa and the Astarata as that of Syria, which the Coelestis just as the ancient Astarte cha, brought from Phoenicia—racterisirt and provides proof that they also existed in Carthage for the chief deity (Apolog. c. 24: Unicuique)

provinciae et civitati suus Deus est, ut Syriae Astartes, ut Arabiae Disares, ut Noricis Belenus, ut Africae Coelestis, ut Mauritaniae reguli sui ,). — Augustine mentions the Celestial stis more often (e.g. de civit Der II, 4.26; Ennar. in Psalm. 62, no. 7; 98, no. 145 Sermon. 105, c. 9). The main passages are in de civit II, Chapters 24 and 26. The church is listed first.

Father admitted that he himself had participated in the service of the Coelestis.

have. Etiam nos," he says, "Judis turpissimis, qui diis deabusque exhibebantur, oblectabamur, Coelesti Virgini et Berecynthiae matri omnium. , Here he clearly distinguishes the Coelestis (ancient Aftarte) from the Bereeynthia (no doubt the (Roman name for the ancient Asherah), and it follows from this Highlight that, however much the cults of both goddesses have changed over time who became related to each other over time, they themselves, however, except for those in recent times applied to various deities. In the 26th century...

In the chapter he first complains about those in the service of the pagans.

Deities committed “turpitudines palam aperteque erudelitatibus mixtas. Diese erudelitates find without doubt those fearful—terrestrial scourgings, which the priests of Astarte also practiced differently committed crimes against himself; whether he thereby committed child sacrifices and men

Whether one even considers a sacrifice can remain an open question. Then However, he concedes that those in the service of these Coelestis Initiates would have to follow strict moral principles, that this goddess herself is a virgin, who takes away sensuality of the essence, and finds it very puzzling and wrong that that the common man worships them through a lustful cult, since everyone knew that she was a virgin goddess and He demands chastity. He writes this on behalf of the evil ones. Spirits who are hidden behind these deities and

256

From this, the conclusion can be drawn that even in the old Carthage, the Astarte, will receive a truly excellent veneration. have enjoyed. Prosper Aquitanicus gives message of a magnificent temple built by the Coelestis in Carthage had; he praises its magnificent colonnades and says that the precinct of the temple is two Roman miles in had an extent. Even in the first centuries after At the time of Christ's birth, this goddess had a famous place in Carthage. Oracles. The prophetic priestesses of the temple could ten still under the proconsulate of the later emperor Pertinax may cause unrest). In general, this service may be who very soon, as with the Syrian goddess, a mixture of gruesome ascetic exercises and lustful sweating. It was discovered that the foundations in Carthage were deeper. than anyone else. By order of Emperor Honorius through moral precepts the better-thinking, through expulsion They sought to bind the large crowd with their detours in their cult.

“Foris,” he says, “celeberrimo strepitu impietas impura circumsonat et intus paucis castitas simulata vix sonat; decus latet et dedecus patet. Ubi et quando sacrati Coelestis, audebant castitatis praecepta, nescimus: anfe ipsum tamen delubrum, ubi simulacrum illud locatum conspiciebamus, universi undique confluentes et, ubi quisque poterat, stantes, ludos, qui agebantur, intentissimi spectabamus, intuentes alternante conspectu hinc meretriciam pompam, illinc virginem deam, illam- snppliciter adorari, ante illam turpia celebrari; non ibi pudibundos mimos, nullam verecundiozem scenicam vidimus; cuncta obscoenitatis implebantur offieia. Sciebatur virginali numini quid placeret, et exhibebatur quod de templo domum matrona doctor reportaret. Nonnulla pudentiores avertabant faciem ab impuris motive scenicorum et artem flagitii furtiva intentione discreet. Hoc palam descendum praebabatur in templo, ad quod perpetrandum saltem secretum quaerebatur in domo. , — On the service of the Phrygian Cybele, cf. August. civil. dei VII, 26; Lact.], 21.

) De predicationib. et promise. divin.

) Capitolinus in vita Pertinacis cap. 4.

22537

and Theodosius II finally became the Tem^r in the year 408 Pel cleaned of idols and repurposed determined, after the order had already been issued in the year 399 was. Other traces of high veneration of this Juno or Diana in earlier times can be found in Cicero and Valerius.
 Maximus and Pliny. Cicero recounts I, the Temple
 Juno on the island of Malta is held in such high veneration admitted that he remained unharmed in the Punic wars^r ben sey. Apparently, the Carthaginians found in this Juno their origins; perhaps the temple itself was a foundation.
 The Phoenician for the starter cult. The leader of the fleet.
 of the African king Masinissa from the temple
 two elephant tusks of extraordinary size were taken and gave them as a gift to his king; but from him
 They were returned to the goddess with the—
 Note that the robbery had occurred without his knowledge. Pli^r (Nius reports) of an ancient temple of Diana in Sagunt, whose image Zazyntus created 200 years before Troy's destruction
 I brought the downfall here; most likely this was Image of Phoenician origin. This temple was built by Hanni^r bal during his conquest of the city for religious reasons^r
 Founders spared. Ä

Let us now summarize these among different peoples.
 The numerous comments are compiled, so it will be addressed in the subject line.
 of the cult of Astarte in that earlier time, where they were also of
 The result was certainly that the Jews were worshipped.
 to admit that their people were sacrificed. Not un-It is likely that, like the firstborn to Moloch, Son, thus presented the firstborn daughter of Astarte had to be. This is nowhere explicitly stated.
 However, the present investigation and evidence show that

1) Cicero in Verr. IV, 46. The same person reports with slightly different details.
 Words, probably according to Cicero, Valerius Maximus J, 1.
) Plin. hist, nat. XVI, 40. pepereit religione inductus. “
 17

258

namely the biblical passages already mentioned above, that girls were sacrificed just as much as boys, and The victims of female children are sending themselves more towards Astarte than Moloch. As a mitigation of the
 The offering of the Virgin appears to be the true sacrifice.
 Shaft, as this is almost entirely due to the latest antiquities scholars unanimously recognized. The pure goddess was the
 She hated carnal mixing; she wanted only virgins.
 have; they therefore sought to reconcile them by...
 She sacrificed her firstborn virgin. Later, a
 The means of information consisted of telling her about her virginity.
 who brought girls to victim: and this circumstance constituted a Transition to the sexual excesses, which Over time, they joined the cult of this goddess.
 The news from the priests is extremely strange.
 to sacrifice in the service of this Astarte. There is good reason to do so.
 to conclude that in the cult of Moloch, it was in the earliest times
 the same institution, which in a curious way also found among the pagan Prussians. The high priest was not allowed to die a natural death; just as he had lost his dignity Having accompanied him for a certain period of time, he had to die as a great A sacrifice of reconciliation for the people. I don't need to know that.
 to indicate how similar precepts were also found in the Epistle to the Hebrews-Positions occur, such as Christ with a is compared to a high priest who is not through the goats and Calves' blood, but reconciled by his own blood.

Other peculiarities of this starter service are the castration of priests and their prophecy.
One may assume that castration already began at the was performed on children who were destined to become priests were; however, in the frequently cited writing of Lucian "on the Syrian goddess" an explicit testimonyniß, that adults emasculate themselves in honor of the goddess-
ten. Lucian tells in chapter 51 that there are feyen at the Main festival of the goddess through roaring music in the Tem-

The presence of the people present was filled with such enthusiasm, that each time a number of young men stepped forward, ready— seized standing swords and, in honor of the goddess, himself emasculated. With the severed part in his hand.
Then they ran around the streets like mad.
and threw the member itself into a house. One will be hereinvoluntarily reminded of the New Testament passage:
"If a limb bothers you, tear it out and throw it away."
from you!"

Finally, a few words about the Phoenician
Cults in general and especially appearing in the start-up service Prophetic beings. After various experiences, which history shows us, one can be sure of-assume that the so-called gift of prophecy originated-
It was a disease in which the person rapidly... rare attacks of abnormal nervous activity individual uttered words or sentences. Some of these utterances had a natural relationship to the future, partly one sought to attribute such a meaning to them. Either they were infected Individuals of their own free will commit such a holy madness,
or. one sought out this atmosphere through dancing and music.
to move the mung. Phoenicia was the true homeland.
this holy frenzy; from there it spread in service of Dionysus and Cybele throughout the entire Roman Empire). The frenzy of the Bacchantes was nothing other than, as that state in which the Phoenician priests knew—pronouncements. At the Pythia in Delphi, the-
The same ecstasy was induced by vapors. Later came Be-W and position added; the prophets gave

Je IV, 27: Ecce aliquis instinctu daemonis pereitus dementia, 1 insanit." — Minucius Felix in Octav.

p. 30: "Hi sunt et furentes, quos in publicum videtis excur-rere, vates et ipsi abs que templo, sic insaniunt, sic bacchantur, sic rotantur, par et in illis instigatio daemonis, sed argumentstum dispar furoris.,

17 *

260

clear and natural prophecies about the presented
In that case; where this takes place, it cannot be of any ecstatic nature.
The situation is no longer the subject of discussion. Even the earlier prophets
They are brought into ecstasy by music. Even the prophetess Mirjam, Aaron's sister, moves among dancing and pausing ken before the Israelite women; even in the books
Samuel, the prophets travel in trains and prophesy un—(with timpani, pipes and harps), apparently a very similar one A dignified procession, like that of the Phoenician prophets. Elisha requires a string player so that "the hand of the Lord may be upon him" come to him 2). Prophetic enthusiasm is infectious—Kend. When Saul comes near the prophets and He also prophesies when he considers their nature; the same is done by the servants whom he sends to the prophets: and one such Contagion is indeed manifested in this pathological condition.
Nerve activity to this day 3). Still into the ) 1st Sam. 10, 5. *) 2 Kings. 3, 15. 16. |

It is the same disease, which is found in several sects of the Mit:
Telalters, among the flagellants, dancers, etc. shows. People were discovered through the careful observation of such elevators by seized by the same fury. The dancers, as Cha says—peaville Gesta Pontifium Leodiensium T. III, p. 19: Ho-rum tale erat institutum. Utriusque sexus homines a daemonibus possessi seminudi sertis capita cingebant, choreas non in plateis tantum, sed in ecclesiis et domibus absque ullo pudore ducebant, nomina daemonum hactenus inaudita in carminibus suis usurpabant. Choreis finitis eos daemones gravissimis pectoris doloribus eruciabant, ita ut, nisi nexibus quibusdam umbilicatum fortiter stringerentur, magnis furiosisque ululatibus se mori proclamarent. , — At the end of the seventeenth and on

 At the beginning of the eighteenth century, among the persecuted Re-Camisards in southern France formed the gift of prophecy in a contagious way. The people who heard the prophecy—
 When others looked at him, he was initially overcome by a weakness in arms and legs, then they fell unconscious onto the
 The ground fell, foam came to their mouths, their limbs-They twitched, their bodies and necks swelled. Thus they remained in the
 They usually lay speechless for some time, then they began to speak.

261

The new testament says that the Phoenician prophetic system is obsolete.
 The enigmatic tongue speaking (y}woouiz N,] and Pro:
 phezeihen Croopnreicir) in the first Christian communities is a remnant from the ancient Phoenician and Jewish Prophetism. In speaking in tongues, one spoke in a—Statistical state, unrelated, probably self—educated, therefore completely incomprehensible and meaningless Words in which one sought a hidden meaning; that Prophecies were made in understandable words, but in Sentences whose meaning was mysterious.

to say, even to deliver entire sermons. This state of affairs overwhelmed them.
 Children, against the will of their parents, who then fast-
 They tried to drive out the evil spirit by letting it be and beating it; this
 It is said to have been partly effective and partly ineffective. In the
 In the prison at Uzez, there was a large number of such white people.
 children saying "saying" together; the medical faculty of Montpellier was tasked with investigating their condition and to submit an expert opinion on the matter. "They didn't want to deal with it."
 "To speak of it as devilish," chases the Theatrum Europaeum ad ann.
 1703, "they did not desire to consider them divine; nevertheless
 The child should be given a name, and so they said,
 It would be fanatical to do so without clearly explaining what is meant by that.
 would understand this word. In those regions there were
 There were several thousand such prophets at that time. Those who
 Those who already possessed the gift of prophecy sealed their allegiance with a kiss.

Enthusiasm. (Cf. Brue, Histoire du Fanatisme; Theatrum Europ. XVI, p. 351.) — In the last days
A prophetic illness was reported from Sweden (cf. village (newspaper of March 26, 1842). A large number of farmers girl aged 8 to 12 years appears with Prophe-
They gave letters. The girls "preached, assured, and helped."
At night, heaven and hell are open; they know who is in them.
sits, and proclaims the end of the world. Usually.
They are quiet and like other children; but when the attack comes,
They begin to convulse and preach. The people stream towards them.
Thousands flock to it and believe in the prophecies. The doctors explain the appearance of a disease that is most severely related to
He was stuck. Many girls have been taken to hospitals.

Second section.

The ancient Hebrew national god Jehovah.

—

The Jehovah of the New Testament is usually also carried back into the older history of the Hebrews.
The old, true Jehovah, however, is different from the New Testament one.
very different, although the latter, despite all its fine "mil-whose properties, even insofar as the character of the al—ten retained the belief that he could only be reconciled through blood.
may even require the sacrificial blood of his son to
to be merciful to people.

The claim already made above may be relevant here.
Preceding: the Old Testament Jehovah is human blood flowed, publicly and by state authority, for as long as it was permitted for the Hebrews from abroad to bring people to make sacrifices. Only through the rule of the Persians—the human sacrifices, which were also carried out by Israelites and Jews
...which were still practiced in captivity, were suppressed.
Voices which a few prophets in the last
During the time of the Jewish state, protests were raised against these atrocities,
They remained unsuccessful in Palestine itself. In captivity

Only then was this better spirit able to help a small to find favor with parts of the Jewish community; until then, sacrifices were made.
People according to an ancient law of Moses, to which not only the kings and the people, but also Priests and prophets held.

This will be the task of our further investigation.
to substantiate this claim in detail. First and foremost

263

We have, for their justification, the essence and the character to consider the raft of the Old Testament Jehovah.
The ancient nature of this God is indeed present in ours, from which later reformist party from elected and revised teten alttestamentlichen Bücher fehr perwifchtz doch find uns sufficient traces remain to reveal its original state To recognize the being by it. Will it now turn out to be...? suggest that this Jehovah possesses attributes which who are pretty much opposed to those who believe in the Christian faith Dogmatics attributes to its Jehovah; however, there could be arguments against it—a number of passages from Old Testament books be raised, as they already are the Christian dogmas
The ancients have been placed in the foreground for centuries.
have. These passages alone can only prove so much,
that some of the later prophets refined their Jehovah, which is certainly not denied by us either is stated. We, on our part, build upon what has already been said above.
explicit principle: Where in the Old Testament two contradictory attributes of Jehovah or religious Facilities appear, so the one for the old and Thus, truths are valid which are true for the later prophetic spirit.
This contradicts itself. For on the one hand, the entire Hebrew history shows... story that this prophetic spirit until the downfall of the Stagtes Judah had absolutely no support among the people themselves;
But then it was proven that the Mosaic and over main Old Testament writings in the spirit of those later ones Prophets were edited. These newer editors were who probably wanted to incorporate their own views into the text as much as possible.
have [genes], but not claims and facilities that contradicted their convictions. They now find each other immediately.

religious views, religious institutions, in particular in the Mosaic books, which others, in the later pro-Passages that contradict the Phetic meaning; thus they must
The former are considered the original and true ones. Because The god of the same age cannot even once be a universal god.

264

One time a tiger, the father of all men, the other time a god.
of the individual nation, which cruelly destroys all other peoples-follows; he cannot now be a spiritual being, transcending all sensuality.
wanting to be a sublime being, now again sacrificial food long, show breads and libations. Also in the later Jehovacultus are those sublime views, as they are especially Isaiah, Pseudo-Isaiah and Jeremiah declare, not in the God's service itself has penetrated; the omnipresent Jehovah nevertheless lived under Ti- until the destruction of Jerusalem.
still in the Holy of Holies, where it is performed three times a year-had to search; the saint who does not want the blood of bulls, but good works, nevertheless still received his daily blood tigon victims and could not escape the "sweet smell".
honor; yes, even today's Jews still respect the reform mori-like spirit of those ancient prophets, in whom Jesus from Nazareth continued to have an effect, so little that it affected even the in recent times their ceremonies are withering away; how for the Sadducees' party, the prophetic ones Scriptures not recognized as holy and binding. Regarding this...
In its place, a greater number. Evidence for our Be-
There is no lack of substance; rather, they flow in abundance.
It is difficult to see. Those who want to see will find it.
There was enough evidence; but the dishonesty of the dogmatists left Up until now, everything that didn't fit into their system had been put aside.
and gave the little she needed as a result a sincere investigation.

a. Jehovah is the national god.

First and foremost, the information already mentioned in our heading will be addressed.
to prove the given claim in more detail, that the previous-

Prophetic Jehovah is not the only God, but only
He was the God of the Hebrews, who also worshipped other gods.
His existence was acknowledged, but he was considered the god of the nation by the

265

Hebrews alone, or at least venerated with distinction wanted to be. It has been this way for a century already.
unbiased theological and historical research granted; however, they want to remain on the orthodox side.
this undeniable result of an unbiased Bible research-
The situation is still so inconvenient that I too find the reasons difficult to understand.
I must present this again here, convinced that one can probably do so Do, to say something you believe to be true so often, until it gains recognition. Orthodontics, however, is in= always with a reply at hand, this or that,
What is not good for you has already been said, and would like to avoid the inconvenience of this in the future.
Necks manage to hear it once more; but since they themselves their well-known results incessantly to the eyes and ears who presents people with this, then she will probably excuse me, if I dare to bring up an issue here bring, which so far has only been in a very narrow circle is known.

The main evidence for our claim is provided by the whole
Jewish history. Jehovah doesn't care about that anywhere.
The fate of other nations; it's always only the Jews,
to whom he devotes his attention; in them he strikes
he takes up residence, from them he demands his sacrifices, ih=
He grants his protection to them alone and even gives them gifts.
A country already inhabited by other peoples also attracts with them into war against neighboring tribes). A A single, universal God would certainly have also considered the ancient ones.
must take into account the inhabitants of Palestine who have their good had a right to their native land; Jehovah
However, he doesn't care about her; he only cares about his own.
Hebrews; he even commands them to expel those nations,
yes, to completely eradicate them. Later Jewish history=

19 Pf. 60, 12. The Ark of the Covenant even gets into the Ge-The Philistines' captivity.

266

Writing motivates this gruesome procedure through the Idolatry of those tribes; the expulsion and extermination
It is supposed to be a punishment for idolatry. But would it be from
It would have been to be expected from a benevolent God that he would have taught these peoples instead of consuming them-
gen. To the Jews, an Abraham, Jacob, Moses, Jo-fua fol er direkte Offenbarungen erhaben, wo—had been enabled by the Hebrews to to recognize the reprehensibility of idolatry; those peoples
But they remain abandoned by him; he sends them no Moses.
like his people, and yet they, who do not have the better knew and certainly could not recognize in the Jews
They were punished with extermination for their idolatrous cult.
Only a national god who is outside his own purview could act in this way.
The nation did not take any people into account; moreover, these people have his Jews, who passed the sentence of extermination against the nations
They should carry out their duties, continually devoting themselves to idolatry.
surrender and, at their higher revelation, such a punishment
They earned far more than the Cananites.

The patriarch Abraham concludes for himself and the-
His people make a covenant with Jehovah, such as a ruler.
with the other. Abraham takes Jehovah as the God of his tribe, and in return Jehovah promises power and Lands. "I will establish," it says Genesis 17:7, "my..."
a bond between me and you and your seed to you, according to their genders, as an everlasting covenant, that I will be God to you and to your descendants after you. And I will give to you and to your descendants after you the land of your
During his stay, he granted the entire land of Canaan as his perpetual property, and I will defile their God." Exodus 12:3: "I will bless,
Those who bless you, and those who blaspheme you, I will curse, »
The sign of the covenant is circumcision; the soul of an uncircumcised man will be exterminated from their People; he has broken my covenant (Genesis 17:14).
Whoever is uncut means, in other words, is apart from the covenant; Jehovah does not tolerate him among the Hebrews;

 The uncut one shall be destroyed, like the Canaanites;
 all uncut ones, including the Old Testament in general
 Those who believe that non-Jews understand that they are an abomination to Jehovah; God not only fails to provide for such people, but orders them to be exterminated.

Jehovah does not want to be the God of other nations; "Jeho—Va's inheritance is his people, Jacob the lot of his own—thums; he found it in the land of the desert, there he surrounded it
 It guarded it like the apple of its eye, like an eagle watching over its surroundings.
 hovering over his young, he spreads his wings over them and She carries it on his wings; Jehovah alone guides it.
 and no foreign god with him).» He recognizes the
 after the gods of the peoples as real beings.
 This view, although several of our prophets have already opposed it its occurrence has spread throughout Judaism and into the preserved from the first Christian centuries. Initially, stan the gods of the individual nations, according to their opinion the Jews, to their peoples in the similar relationship ei a covenant, like Jehovah to his Hebrew people. When he with the appearance of our prophets and especially through the stay among the Persians, the concept of Jehovah refined, as the national god gradually became the sole and the all-powerful deity was lost to the pagans Although deities retained their divine prestige, one thought each-but now, supported by Persian demonology, mach—evil spirits were active in the images of the gods, a belief, which can also be found everywhere among the Christian Church Fathers (finds). In the Mosaic books, Jehovah is still described.

1) Deuteronomy 32:9 ff.

2) The evil spirits that infect humankind are also mentioned in the Quran.
 to lead people into idolatry. Sura VI, p. 112, Wahl's edition.

– According to Palm Sunday 97:7, all gods worship before Jehovah; "for "You, Jehovah," it says in verse 9, "are the highest over all the earth, exalted far above all gods.

268

Moses enters into battle with foreign gods; he struggles to... through his deeds before Pharaoh, the miraculous powers of Egypt to preempt the magician. But Jehovah is more powerful, than all the gods; Moses wants to prove this to Pharaoh, "You shall know," he says, "that there is no God like any—" Jehovah, our God»), and Jehovah confirms this statement— by saying that he also asserts his right to the firstborn of the Egyptians expands; 2. Mof. 12:12: "I will be through the The land of Egypt will go this night and strike down everything Erft-born in the land of Egypt, from humans to cattle; And I will administer judgment upon all the gods of Egypt. That these gods were understood to be divine beings That it exists will probably not be disputed; for what A demonstration of power would be if Jehovah [regarding] life who wanted to demonstrate his power over objects? Even the The expression "courts practice" commits an offense, so a crime. knew this in the subject of the court. Still In Isaiah (19:1), the gods of Egypt tremble before Jehovah's face.

It is a well-known fact that Jehovah in the Mosai is always referred to in books as "the god Abra—" Ham's, Isaac's and Jacob's, "the God of the fathers, "the Hebrew God", "the God of Israel 2): Benen nungen, which very clearly characterize him as a national god Siren and all other peoples to separate themselves from him, as it also otherwise quite the intention of our Mosaic Law is. Only very rarely does a place occur which the Se-hova is described as the only god. Wisdom of the prophets influencing the spirit of the priesthood- to have an effect even in that late period when one can... older pieces of our mosaic writings, such

) 2. Mos. 8, 10.

) 1. Mof. 31, 42; Cape. 32, 9; Cape. 33, 20; Cape. 46, 1; Exodus. 3, 6, 15, 16, 18; Cape. 5, 3; Cape. 6, 3. 7. x. 3c.

★

269

Beautiful evidence of a better understanding only as rare occurrences Inserts appear that do not belong to the rest of the presentation.

(votes)! There are so many gods among the patriarchs, who invite to their service, so that Jehovah almost with fear-lichkeit sich es ans sey, den Jacob für sich zu win. He appears to him and says (Genesis 28:13):

"I am Jehovah, the God of Abraham, your father, and The God of Isaac; the land on which you rest, that will
"I will give to you and your seed." Jacob is very surprised, that Jehovah is also in the area of Bethel:

"Truly Jehovah is in this place, and I knew it."

"No." God accompanied him, "See, I am with

"To you," he says, "and keep you wherever you go;"
Out of gratitude, Jacob makes the stone on which he
He slept once and anointed him with oil; from then on, the
The place Lus bears the name Bethel, meaning house of God. But the
The existing privileges are sufficient for the celebrated patriarch.
not yet, to accept Jehovah as God; he sets the God to test me one more time. "If God is with me
"It," he says, "and protects me on this path, which I move, and give me bread to eat and clothes to wear—move, and I happily return to my father's house—ters: so Jehovah shall be my God, and this stone, which—I have placed this as a memorial; it shall become a house of worship, and Everything you give me——leaves him the priesthood to close wisely — "I will tithe it to you. But—Sometimes Jehovah draws Jacob's attention to the advantages, which he would give him, Genesis 31:12: "Raise up Open your eyes and look! Every goat that kills the sheep—fspringen, find bunt, gefprenfelt und geflecken; drauf fährt he continued: "I am the God of Bethel, where you once stood."
"Anointed, where you made a vow to me." But Jacob has still has not decided to follow Jehovah; his wife

) So e.g. B. 5. Mof. 4, 35, 39; Cape. 10, 17; Cape. 32, 21.

Rachel can still use her father's household gods for a
 They hold a great treasure and steal it; about that is also Jehovah is not angered; rather, God stands with the
 The idolater Laban, in direct contact, appears to him at night in a dream and warns him, to bring suffering to Jacob to do. The God of your father spoke to me yesterday
 "spoken," Laban said, as he saw the fleeing Jacob.
 has said, "Beware that you do not speak to Jacob, neither Neither good nor evil! Jehovah finally gives Jacob a serious warning.
 A fine promise, Genesis 35:1: Arise,
 Go to Bethel and live there and establish a church there Altar to the God who appeared to you during your flight from Esau. Now Jacob commands his noble lineage: Remove "The foreign gods that you find among you." Even the Joshua.
 But the Old Testament has Sof say to the Sfraelites.
 24:15: "If you do not like serving Jehovah, then Choose for yourselves today whom you will serve; whether the gods, which your fathers served beyond the river, or to the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you live; I
 But my house and I want to serve Jehovah, »
 It is peculiar and certainly based on ancient legends.
 is based on the fact that Jacob was everywhere Jehovah appeared to him.
 He shall, or where his presence is needed, erect a stone.
 tet, whom he anoints), as he also does at night, not to to sleep on it, but far more likely than a
 The guardian deity carries a stone to the place where he will be
 He laid his head down. Like Jacob, Laban also erected stones,

) 1. Mof. 23, 11, 18; Cape. 31, 45; Cape. 35, 14. The Phoeni-
 The stones were idolized; they were images of the gods.
 Philo of Byblus in the preface to the history of the Sanchuniathon (in Euseb. praep. evang. I, 10). Likewise
 They revered the tree trunks; the service of nature in a crude age.
 He chose the simplest thing as an image of his God. Even in late In ancient times the prophets made the smooth stones, the He-Bräuern to the accusation.

when they both entered into the union. This proves that in those Ancient times, raw stones, images of the gods among the He Bræren were, as is typical of a nomadic tribe that had many Centuries later, under Saul, still without a sword, with going into battle with mere rags, it's no different— may be abandoned.

Particular importance is attached to the expression ge— Exodus 20:2-3 states: “I am Jehovah, your God, who you were taken out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. You shall have no other gods before you. my attack.” This passage is meant to prove that the Ju— who only believes in the existence of Jehovah, one God would have believed what Moses had already prescribed for them here. I have. I disregard whether this saying is from Moses. be or not; he could agree with it in terms of its content— they will be, since it is quite possible that Moses had from the Hebrews the sole worship of what was given to them national god demanded, with which he would then of course not have can penetrate; only the verses that follow— Ben, namely the derivation of the Sabbath celebration from a Jehovah's rest after the six days of creation, let the above At least don't mention Moses in this context. to trace back. But if one now considers this statement wants to find proof that the Jehovah of the Hebrews is not He was merely the god of the nation, but of them alone. that a divine being has been conceived; thus one stands This proof rests on very weak foundations; for the This passage actually argues for the opposite view. Will to make a legislator understand to a crude people that the God he teaches, the one and only God, ruler of the world and that it is the fate of all peoples, he may not say: “I am Jehovah your God; for with this he says, that Jehovah did not want to be the God of other nations as well, He shuts out the other nations before his God and... These deities are seen as unique and essential.

He is also not allowed to say: "You shall not do anything else."
 The gods have before my face; for thereby
 He confesses once again that other gods exist; rather
 He would have to say: I am the only, eternal, almighty one.
 God; besides me there is no god; all the gods of the nations are "Vain illusions;" such as the fifth book of Moses has a few such passages that evoke the spirit of a Je—Saiah and Jeremiah remind us." But now Jehovah also goes even in the fifth verse: "You shall not worship them, nor let yourself be led to serve them; for I Je= hova, your God, I am a jealous God, punishing the offense of the fathers against their sons, on the third and fourth sex of those who hate me, but by which= when the foreign gods were recognized as real beings= those whom Jehovah envies for the honors which the Hebrews present.

It would take me too far afield to go from Moses through the
 the whole Hebrew history, the evidence is gathered= Places that present Jehovah as the national god. He is God remained the sole Jewish nation until the Babylonian captivity. I'm only closing a few more doors.
 Places that demonstrate this. Moses says in Exodus 15:11:
 "Who among the gods is like You, Jehovah? Who how You glorify Yourself in holiness, terrible in fame, Miracle-practicing? » Moses' brother-in-law Jethro speaks 2 Mos.
 18:11: "Blessed be Jehovah, who has saved you from the
 The hand of the Egyptians. Now I know that Jehovah is greater.
 is, as all gods. Jephthah means the king of the Ammonites Judges 11:24: "Isn't it true, what Camos told you,
 Your God, who gives you possession, do you take that? And so What Jehovah, our God, has given us, that we need.
 We also acknowledge the gods as We= fen an, when he speaks to the Sfraelites in 1 Samuel 7:3:

1) Exodus 34:14

"If you turn to Jehovah with all your heart, then you will be far away."

"The gods of a foreign land from among you!" Psalm 48:14.
 It says: "This God is our God forever and ever;"
 Pf. 68, 36: "You are terrible, O God, in your sanctuary."
 Israel's God gives power and strength to the people. Rev.
 77, 14: "What God is as great as God?" Pf. 113, 5:
 "Who is like Jehovah our God, who dwells on high?" Psalm 82:1: "God appears in the assembly of God and in the midst of the gods he holds court (here, of course).
 According to verse 6, they wish to have an official among the gods—
 (to understand sons). Psalm 86:8: "No one is with you equal to the gods, Lord, and nothing is like yours Deeds. Psalm 95:3: "The Lord is a great God and a great King over all gods." Psalm 97:7: "To Shame will come to all the servants of images who worship idols.
 To praise; to worship before him all the gods. P. 136, 2:
 "Give thanks to the God of gods, for his is eternal." Grace). Even in Isaiah, chapter 19, verse 1, tremble.
 Egypt's gods before Jehovah's face, when Jehovah on A swift cloud travels to Egypt, and chapter 8, verse 19 says
 The same prophet said: "If they say to you, 'Consult the Murderers and wise men [fo replies:] Should "Not a people should consult a fine God?" (Ezekiel) 10:9. The Jews promise: "Jehovah has given the land-
 "Let them do it and Jehovah does not see it." The Prophet Elijah
 He says, at Jehovah's command, to the messengers who are the sick man
 King Ahab sends to the god Baal-Zebub to destroy him to ask for advice: "Probably due to the lack of a God in Go to Israel to question Baal-Zebub, the God of Ekron).

1) Compare also Exodus 3:6, 10, 13, 15, 16, 18; Exodus.
 4, 5; Exodus. 20, 2, 3; Exodus. 23, 13, 24, 25, 32; 2. Mom.
 29, 45, 46; Exodus. 34, 14; 4 Mos. 15, 40; Deuteronomy 3, 24;
 Deuteronomy 6, 14; Sofia 24, 2, 14, 20; Pf. 114, 2. 7.

2) 1 Kings, Chapter 1.

* 18

Jehovah was also the Jewish national god.
 Held by foreign peoples. The Philistines ask (1 Samuel).
 5, 8: "What shall we do with the ark of God?"
 Israel's?" The inhabitants of Efron complain 2 Samuel.
 5:10: "They have taken the ark of the God of Israel."
 brought!» Foreigners bring their sacrifices to the god;
 1 Samuel, Chapter 6. Rabshake, the general of the Assyrian king—
 King Sennacherib summons the besieged inhabitants of Serufalem to: "Have the gods of the other peoples given-
 Each one saves his own country from the hand of the king of Assyria? Where are the gods of Hemath and Arpad?
 Where the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena and Iva, that they Would Samaria have been saved from my hand? Which ones are among all the gods of the lands who saved their land from my ner Hand, that Jehovah should save Jerusalem from my Hand? So speak to Hezekiah, the king of Judah, let Do not be deceived about your God, to whom you rely.
 'Trust me!' In Psalm 42, the enemies mock, true~~r~~ probably in captivity: "Where is your God?" "Me
 "Find my tears, food day and night," it says in verse 4.
 "Since I am constantly being hunted: Where is your God?" And Verse 11: "By crushing my bones they revile me
 My tormentors, they always say to me: Where is your God? »
 Psalm 79:10: "Why should the nations say, 'Where are you?'"
 God? Let it be made known among the nations before our eyes.
 against the vengeance of the shed blood of your servants! Give back to our neighbors sevenfold in the breasts their scorn, with which she mocked you!

This was already mentioned in the introduction.
 that especially the political impotence of the kingdoms of Judah and Israel gave rise to the idea among the Jews

1) 2 Kings 18:32; Chapter 19:10. Also Isaiah 36:18 ff., where The same words are found in 2 Kings, chapter 19. This is almost a word-for-word translation.
 with Isaiah chapter 37; likewise 2 Kings 20:1-11 with Isaiah 38:1-8.

I have, that Jehovah is also Lord over the victorious nations, sole God. The humbled national sentiment of the reform—

 The Mori-Jehovahist party sought power, which Egypt on the one hand, Assyria, Babylonia and Persia on the other.
 On the other hand, they developed a consolation in the fact that Jehovah brings about these events and only as punishment for the idolatry of his chosen people against other nations—to let them fade completely into the background. With the Return from Babylonian captivity, the Jewish Jehovah, however, extends his sphere of influence over the entire earth.
 extensive; yet he is not the sole lord of the earth, it
 He is now confronted by the evil god of the Zoroastrian system, who Devil, opposite whom he only encountered after several thousand years can overwhelm. The gods of the pagans have not been since.
 more like Jehovah, but angels of the evil God (as was also the case with the Christian Church Fathers), those who dwell in the statues of the gods and the people deceive. Even now, the Jews remain the chosen ones.
 Jehovah's people; God does not take the other nations away.
 He said they were unclean, and he tolerated them only because of the Hebrews.
 First, they are saved so that the Jews can use them during the—
 The appearance of the Messiah will allow him to take revenge on them.
 the hardships they themselves suffered at the hands of the heathens.
 Jehovah in his own person then chokes among the heat—
 “Who is he?” it says in Isaiah 63:1, “who is coming.” of Edom, in red robes of Bozrah? He, resplendent in his garment, proudly striding about its mighty Strength? — It is I who promise salvation, mighty to save—
 ten. — Why are your robes and your clothes red like of the winepress treader? — I treaded the winepress alone and from None of the nations were with me; and I entered my—
 In my anger I crushed them, so that they Juice splashed onto my clothes and all my garment—
 I scribbled. Because a day of revenge was in my interest and The year of my redeemed had come. — This Ge—18 *

Thanks to revenge, it is predominant among all prophets; we
 We will return to this in more detail below. The rest
 The Gentiles are pardoned, not out of Jehovah's compassion, son= because the world empire of the Jews is of subservient peoples—may; the remaining heathens must do the work of the Hebrews do; their treasures go to Jerusalem. Until Today, the Jewish God stands by all non-believers. Jews in this relationship. The Jews are continually the chosen people, to whom Jehovah enslaved the other nations—ten determined. Their messiah, who of course has not yet has appeared, should still be considered when it appears after the These are letters of the Old Testament promises that at the beginning of the messianic kingdom, the seed Abra~~h~~ They said there was a great deal of choking among the non-Jews and then let the Jewish world empire enter into existence, in which the Hebrew lords, the non-Jews forced into Jehovahism~~h~~ who are servants. In this sense, the Jewish Jehovah is universal god since the Babylonian captivity, in no one else. Just don't see through the orthodox lens.

Glasses that may only find the Pauline system, into which Old Testament, and the evidence will be found on all pages. approaching. A Jew, in any case, will be difficult for me to... dare to contradict; for these things are known to him. nug. The presentations of more recent rabbis, which include such articles~~h~~ Those who would like to be removed from their belief system are not true Judaism no longer; this stands and falls with the hope~~h~~ nung on a secular king who made the Hebrews lords of the earth. Especially chapter 30 of book 5. Moses is important in this regard. In advance~~h~~

Compare Zeph. 3:9; Jer. 30:9; Isa. ch. 60; Isa. 66, 19, ff.; Yes. 45, 22, 23; Yes. 49, 7/6/22; Yes. Cape. 25; Me. 5, 7; Habak. 3, 12 ff.; Hagg. 2, 6, 7; Zecharj. Cape. 14; Yes. 49, 26; Yes. 11, 13 - 16; Yes. 26, 11; Yes. 30, 28; Yes. 34, 3. 6. 8. 9; Yes. 35, 4; ef. 43, 3.4.

277

Those leaving will hear the most horrific curses against the Jews. identified those who would turn away from Jehovah; convert them

They, however, resist and remain faithful to the Mosaic faith—

“Set it down, so Jehovah sets it down,” it says in Deuteronomy 30:7, “all these Curse your enemies and your haters who have ensnared you—

(follow). This is one of the primary motivations—

Reasons for the Jews to cling firmly to the old folly;

for the most faithful adherence to the Old depends on the—

the appearance of the Messiah. In rabbinic writings,

It is no secret that the promised bloodbath

This applies to Christians at the appearance of the Messiah; in the book Zeror hammor ?) e.g. the above passage from Isaiah, where

Jehovah returns, dripping with blood, from a strangling in Edom, understood by Christians. Behind names like

“Children of Esau, Edomites,” is how the modern Jews described their Threats and hostile hopes against non-Jews

“The enemies who hate you,” says Rabbi Bechai in the book Cad hekkemach fol. 9, “find the children of Esau, (di the Chri= (sten). Cf. Eisenmenger discovered. Judenth. II, 98.

2) Fol. 37 in Eisenmenger J. c. Likewise, in Abarbenel's Book of Mashmia Yeshua, fol. 31, the passage in Ezek. 38:21 ff. applied to the Christians. Eisenmenge. J. c. — In the Ge= Pray on the Day of Atonement in the so-called thick tephilla fol.

350. It says: “Make me also worthy of the coming of your To see the Messiah and swiftly avenge the vengeance of your people. in our days., Fol. 70. in prayer on the Sabbath before Pentecost= sten: "May our God grant in our days before our eyes..." avenge the shed blood of his servants, just as in the law. It is written by Moses (Deuteronomy 32:42). In Machiavelli or It bites: “How a person feels enmity towards that one, who hates him, keeps him in his heart until he finds a place who finds ways to take revenge: so too does the holy, blessed God his enmity against Esau and takes the right, appointed course Time in heed, to take revenge on Easter night; for we who— who will be redeemed in the month of Nisan (March)., Eisenmen= ger J. e.

hidden), and with curses against such peoples, they find the filled with rabbinic writings. Perhaps this will be newer rabbis want to deny it and speak of spitefulness¹ chen, as is the custom; but who then should the Edomites and sons of Esau, who are the future Messiah Should they devour it? — One should no longer... Don't be deceived! Ancient Judaism is characterized by hatred towards Completely permeated by dissenters; the Jewish God wants no other people than the Jews; all the uncircumcised. are unclean, the chosen Hebrew sins when he forms a community with them: This is not only written in the book² literally in biblical and rabbinic writings, but the Hebrews have also been doing so for two millennia through their Mode of action, by closing itself off from all peoples Truly clearly enough demonstrated.

b. Jehovah is fire.

N The Old Testament Jehova is therefore not the only

God, but rather the original god of the Hebrews. He is also Nor is he a spiritual, invisible being; rather, he is A form, consisting of a fine matter, is fire. Fire was considered, as it was for the Persians, also for the Jewish ones. Priests, as a representation of the sun, for the divine element. The nature of fire, its clarity and vibrancy, Its subtle, beneficial, and terrible effects demanded the best restricted field of vision in the earliest times especially to a divine worship of this element on 2). That here The British people needed a more obvious physical one. to have; the altar, on which the eternal fire burned, was dedicated to him

1) Cf. Eisenmenger Th. I, Ch. 17.

2) The thunderstorms played a role in this. Cf. Psalm 29; Pf. 68, 34. The lightning was the punishing arm of the Fire god, the sun; thunder, expression of his wrath.

burned, for the image of God or perhaps also for the God himself. The bull was the symbol of divine power.
 The altar of the Hebrews had four bull's horns, which were without Doubts related to the four cardinal directions; between—
 The eternal fire burned within them; here the God makes fine sacrifices. The upper part probably had the—
 The altar in the oldest times took the form of a bull—pfes and the whole thing was a similar picture to what we were used to.
 still preserved by Moloch; for, as I already said before I took the opportunity to remark that the old Jewish Jehovah is according to its nature and its cult, that general semi-
 The divine king (Melech). That he as fire upon-trete, had to admit the old orthodoxy, so sour
 She too received such a confession; the biblical stelaelen find too clear and too frequent. »Between the Cherubim, Lund says, for example, at the end of the ninth chapter of his Jewish sanctuaries, "on their wings dwelt the great, almighty God in a fiery wolf's rot, »
 He adds, with concern: "the great, almighty God," because he probably feels how little sitting over the Bun—deslade sich zu Omnipresence, Omnipotence and Dominance over who wanted to send the universe. "But what might God, the
 "Mr., have moved," he asks on page 70, that he is above the
 "Want to live in the Ark of the Covenant?" He knows how to do that with Masius.
 and Buxtorf three reasons; 1) Jehovah wanted this to be he took his seat above the law, proving to the Hebrews—that he should be strict about the same; and he appeared in a a visible sign, because those inclined to idolatry Israelites needed such a thing if they were not at other visible gods should fall away; 33 "God has in This sign of the cloud and the fire represents the person of Jesus.
 Christ and a fine apartment among us want to educate! — These sentences do not require evaluation. — The
 The relationship between the Jewish Jehovah and Moloch had to be proven.
 It became increasingly clear the more openly one approached it.

To shed light on the dark area of Eastern religions. Also learned men who are intent on upholding the orthodox
 To maintain their position, like movers, they must already have these To acknowledge kinship. Movers says, for example, in his Works on the Phoenicians, p. 318, that already the Sfraeli-
 Those who worshipped El as Moloch can be deduced from the following: Considerations: 1) due to the fact that even in the later Idolatry of the Israelites Jehovah Moloch was also (cf. Judges 11:34 ff.; 2 Samuel 21:3 ff.; Numbers 25:4; Micah 6:7) and just as the Chiun of Hierapolis was worshipped alongside the female nature goddess (cf. Deu—ter. 16, 21; 2 Kings 23, 15; 17, 16.); but then 2) from the appropriation of the cultic ways of Moloch, where I am headed—Men, the consecration of the firstborn and the circumcision Calculate. Fire is particularly important in this respect.
 in the cult and in the symbolic language of the Israelite scriptsteller, the eternal fire on the altar, the distinction between the sacred and foreign fire, the theophanies Jehovah's in the flame of fire or in the column of fire of the Israeli army camp, the symbolism of Jehovah as a freak-"Sending fire." Movers wants to save Moses by doing this.
 that he explains that the legislator has taken to heart the ideas of the people.
 accommodated, like the Christian apostles to the Jews; alone
 That doesn't help. The whole Jewish history
 This view is refuted. "It is Died," he says, "only partly symbolic forms, it is unlikely anyone will be thereto deduce that the Islamic god is like Moloch
 "Being thought of as a fire or fire god" — why Isn't that right? However, we deduce this from it, and with good reason, we have good reason to do so.
 Reasons. How should the Sfraelites behave in the same Cultusweise thought something completely different than their Neighbors? They were also participating in all the other cults of this country.
 neighbors with whom idolatry was the state religion until the
 The fall of the two empires: the Accommodation of Moses 281

would therefore have been very inappropriate!) — But now for our investigation!

I will first mention some points in general, where Jehovah is described as fire; further we will
a look at the historical appearance of this divine throw fire and then conduct a special investigation into the altar of burnt offering, as an ancient image of Jehovah-Moloch, so how to connect via the Ark of the Covenant.

Fire is the visible image of Jehovah and through fire
He also has a very special effect. The god is depicted as fire.
carried ahead of the Israeli column in the desert. Of the Days when the sunlight obscures the glow of the fire—hinders, he appears to the common people as smoke or wolves-Column, at night it shines as a column of fire. We read Exodus 24:17: “And the Lord called to the Lord on the seventh day Days from the cloud; and the appearance of glory.
Hova's was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain—
“Before the eyes of the sons of Israel.” — Deuteronomy 4:24
“For Jehovah your God is a consuming fire, a “Jerky God.” — Deuteronomy 9:3: “Therefore know that...”
that Jehovah, your God, is the one who goes before you, a “A devouring fire.” — 2 Samuel 22:9: “Smoke rose up Fire ate from his nose and from his mouth; coals burned out of him). — P.S. 50:2: God appears out of Zion;
Our God comes and he will not be silent; fire devours before
A great storm is raging around him and all around him. — Isaiah 30:27 “Look, the name of Jehovah comes from afar, in burning with anger and mighty flames; his lips are full

) Recently, my learned friend Daumer has been discussing the Mo—Lochdienst underwent special investigation. His work,
“The Moloch service of the Hebrews, is with the present appear approximately simultaneously and certainly not have an effect miss.

) The same passage verbatim, Palm Sunday 18:9.

282

Grimness and a sharp tongue like a ravenous fire... — Captivity 33, 14:
“Listen, you distant ones, to what I have done, and understand, you near ones”

My power! Sinners tremble in Zion, they quake.
 seizes the wicked: Who among us may dwell with the Lord?
 consuming fires and who among us dwells among the eternal Gluten?" — Jeremiah 5:14: "Therefore Jehovah says,
 the God of hosts: Because you speak this word,
 See, this is how I set my words on fire in your mouth.
 and this people will be turned to wood, and they will be eaten." — Jeremiah 20:9: "I thought I wouldn't mention Jehovah's again and no longer speak in his name; so it was in my a heart like burning fire, enclosed within mine bones; and I grew tired of enduring them, and—I didn't like it anymore." — Jeremiah 23:29: "Do not be my
 A word like fire, says Jehovah, and like a hammer, which Rocks shattered? — Ezekiel 10:4. And it rose up.
 the glory of Jehovah from the cherub to the threshold of the house, and the courtyard was filled with the splendor of the Lord-Sehova's happiness." — In the first book of Kings, where the Prophet Elijah sees Jehovah, his appearance is described in chapter 1.
 19:11. It was described as follows: "Look, Jehovah passed by, a great—Large and strong winds, tearing mountains apart and shattering rocks-ternd, before Jehovah; Jehovah was not in the wind.
 And after the wind an earthquake; not in the earthquake was Jehovah. And after the earthquake, fire; not in the Fire was Jehovah. And after the fire, the sound of a gentle woes... The fire is therefore here indeed the gentle one
 The next contractions, which include the essence of Jehovah, Even in Hebrews 12:29 we read: For our God is a consuming fire.

The divine fire, which represents Jehovah, will definitely different from any other fire; it is hot—) Compare Luke 3:16; Acts 2:3; 1 Corinthians 3:13, 15;

 Numbers 11:25

283

lig and may be placed on the altar, like that of the vestibules, which (also depicting the goddess herself again), never to be extinguished 2).
 Only from this one sacred fire may the sacrifices be made.
 be set on fire?). It is the god who makes fine sacrifices who also wants to consume himself; all victims must be brought before the fire= They will be brought to an altar of sacrifice under penalty of extermination. Aaron's sacrifice reveals "the glory of the Lord before" to all the people, and fire comes out from Jehovah and He eats the burnt offering and the pieces of fat on the altar, and The whole people see it, they shout for joy and fall on it.

"Faith builds an altar to Jehovah and He offers burnt offerings and thank offerings, and calls upon Jehovah, and He answered him with fire from heaven on the altar of the (burnt offering). This can be seen in the later passages. It is lovely how they strive to keep this sacred fire, which in earlier times, as a divine being, he offered his victims—to make him a divine messenger, at least to separate from "Jehovah's glory." At Abra—ham and Mofe appear to God as a mere flame of fire"); The chronicles and the books of kings do indeed bring that Fire with Jehovah in the next connection, distinguish However, it is from the god. The text recounts Solomon's sacrifice. Chronicles"): "When Solomon had finished the prayer, it fell the fire from heaven and devoured the burnt offering and the Sacrifice, and the glory of Jehovah filled the house.

1) Ovid. almost. VI: "Nec tu aliud Vestam, quam vivam intellige flammam. "

) 3. Mos. 6:12-13 a

3) Leviticus 6:9, 12, 13. This also applies to the Greeks and Romans. The sanctity of the sacrificial fire is evident in the fact that the Holy water, with which the sacrificers were sprinkled, by dew—was consecrated from the altar after a fire. Athenaeus IX, 76; Aristoph. Pax. 559.

) Leviticus. 9, 24.) 1 Chronicles 22, 26.

6) 1 Mos. 15, 17; Exodus. 3, 4.) 2 Chronicles 7, 1 ff.

281

And the priests could not enter the house of Jehovah; for it had the glory of Jehovah, the house of Jehovah fulfilled; and all the sons of Israel saw how the fire and the glory of Jehovah descended upon the house, and bent down with their faces to the earth Paving stones and worshipping. — Elijah calls upon a fine God):

“Jehovah, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel! Today I will Know that you are God in Israel and I am your servant, and that I did all these things according to your word. Ant² Words to me, Jehovah, answer me, that this people may know, that you, Jehovah, are God, and so direct their hearts— um. Then fire from Jehovah fell down and consumed the fire— sacrifices, and the wood, and the stones, and the earth, and that It leaked water from the ditch. And when the people saw it, they They looked up at her face and said: Jehovah, he is God! Jehovah, he is God!

This divine fire now consumes not only his Sacrifice, as a lovely food, it also makes itself known through its Consuming violence, terrible to the enemies, kills natives and strangers. In part, it is the divine personality. itself, which manifests a destructive power as fire, part— White fire only appears as a means of punishment in Je— Hova's Hand. When the Hebrews worshipped the cast calf, Jehovah said to Moses: Let me, that my anger may be directed against them (I ignite and I eat them?). Moses warned the Hebrews before idolatry; for Jehovah is a ravenous beast. (Fire), thus consuming those who anger him.

1) 1 Kings 18:36 ff.

2) Exodus 32:10. De Wette translates: “that I may destroy them;

To consume, to devour, is precisely the expression which belongs to the divine.

Fire is set when it is to be described as consuming.

5. Moof. 4, 24; 2. Mom. 24, 17; Yes. 29, 6; Job 1:16.

3) Deuteronomy 4:24.

285

Aaron's sons Nadab and Abihu once dared to...

to light the smoke pan without extinguishing the fire from the holy to take fire, "then fire came out of Jehovah and He devoured them, and they died before Jehovah. In the outrage Korah's "fire came out of Jehovah and devoured the two"—
 One hundred and fifty men, who offered the incense (brought).“ When the people in the desert before the ears of Ses hova's laments the distress it endures, as it grows enraged
 Jehovah's anger "and a fire burned among them"— Hova's and ate at the end of the camp. Then the
 The people went to Moses, and Moses prayed to Jehovah, then he lay down.
 the fire). Upon entering Palestine, they fear Israelites before the great and noble people of the Anakites.
 Then Moses encourages her: “Know that Jehovah, your God, is your God.”
 It is God who goes before you, a devouring fire;
 He will devour them!» Even during the passage through the red Sea had Jehovah's pillar of fire for her people against the Egyptians fought.” In the Book of Joshua 10:14, Je
 The same applies to the Israelites. Under Samuel they fear
 The Hebrews before the Philistines; Samuel sacrifices a lamb.
 and cries out to Jehovah for Israel, “There,” it says in 1 Samuel.
 7, 10, Jehovah thundered with great blows on the same Days over the Philistines and confused them and they were Defeated before Israel... The divine fire proves itself... riding, the servants of Jehovah through his consuming power glorify; “Am I a man of God?” says the prophet Elijah to the commander whom King Ahaziah had with who sent him a request for medical assistance, «so falle Fire from heaven, and it will devour you and your fifty. There Fire fell from the sky and ate him and his fifties.
 Fire and consuming heat are among the threats.
 and Jehovah's punishments predominate, displays of power that
 1) Numbers 16, 35.) Numbers. 11, 1-3.

) Deut. 9, 3.) 2. Mof. 14, 24.) 2 Kings. 1, 9th fl.

286

best correspond to his fiery nature. Isaiah says:

“Bon Jehovah of hosts will be punished with thunder.” and crashing and great sound, storm and weather and “The flame of consuming fire.” (Moses threatens the Jews):

“Jehovah will strike you with consumption and with fire—over and with heat and with inflammation and with drought and with burning and yellowing (of the grain); these will “They will haunt you until you die.” “Fire blazes in my...”
 “In anger,” Jehovah says, “and burns to the core.” deepest underworld and devours the earth and its fruits and “Sets ablaze the foundations of the mountains,” Sodom is through Fire from heaven destroyed even pious Job.
 “Flock: Fire of God fell from heaven,” reports Job’s servant”), and burned among the sheep and among the Mine and devour them, and I alone escaped, it to you to report. “Like wax melts before fire,” it says.
 Psalm 68:3, “thus the wicked vanish before God.” Psalm 21:10:
 “You make your enemies like a fiery furnace when you—” in his presence; Jehovah destroys them in his anger and they consumes fire. (P.S. 89:47) How long, Jehovah, throws
 If you constantly seek refuge, your life will burn like fire.
 Grim? Psalm 97:3: Fire goes before him and It devours all its surrounding foes. The mountains crumble like wax.
 melt before Jehovah’s face, before the face of the Lord
 “The whole earth.” In the later performance, this will be...
 Fire surroundings, garment of Jehovah’s human form;
 Pf. 104, 2: “He wraps himself in light, as in a garment.”
 Let us now follow this sacred fire in its ge—staggered appearance in the books of Moses. The earliest
 The place where Jehovah appears as fire is found in the Ge—Abraham’s story, Genesis 15:17. Here it also appears the altar on which the fire burns, as part of the

1) Yes. 29, 6.) Deut. 28, 22.) Deut. 32, 22.
 Job 1:16.

287

God’s; we will return to this place later, where it is about the burnt offering—
 The altar is being traded, and we need to examine it more closely. Then
 The new God, previously unknown to the Hebrews, reveals himself.
 first to Moses in the desert of Midian, where he the
 He tends his father-in-law Jethro’s sheep, like a flame of fire.
 Exodus 3:1: “Moses was tending the sheep of Jethro, his son father-in-law, the priest in Midian, and he led the

 He led sheep beyond the desert and came to the mountain of God.
 Horeb. There the angel of Jehovah appeared to him in a Flame of fire from the bush; and he looked, and behold,
 The bush burned with fire, and the bush was not destroyed.
 consumes. And Moses said: I will go, that I may Look at this great face, why the bush does not burn.
 And when Jehovah saw that he was going to see, God called him out of the bush and said: Moses, Moses! And he said:
 Here I am! And he said: Do not come near, draw your Take your shoes off your feet; for the place on which you are standing,
 It is holy land. And he said: I am the God of your land.
 Father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God
 Jacob's. Then Moses hid his face, for he was afraid.
 "To look at God." — The passage leaves in its broad scope
 In this context, an important insight into the origins
 The relationship of Jehovah is to do. The object will will need to be examined more closely later; here it is provisional.
 only so much. Jehovah is a very— to the Hebrews in Egypt.
 unknown God (Exodus 3:13 ff.). His homeland is Mount Horeb or Sinai), where he also later fine

The names Horeb and Sinai mean the same mountain; the
 The mountain has two peaks, one of which is perhaps Horeb, which Another name was Sinai, from which the whole mountain was then called Horeb, soon Sinai was called (cf. Winer's bibl. Realw. II, 549).
 Just as Olympus is the mountain of Zeus, so is Sinai with its
 The surroundings of the Hebrews were the ancient homeland of Jehovah. Exodus.
 34:2: "Go up to Mount Sinai in the morning," says Je.

288

Law granted; (the god retains a fine inclination for the mountains;
 His temple, too, must be built on a mountain.
 Midian, at his father-in-law Jethro's house, learns Moses to know Jehovah, and the kinship of God with the deities of other Arab tribes is therefore Very understandable. For four hundred years the Hebrews had been already in Egypt; the memory of the deities, which the patriarchs venerated may have been rather unclear.
 have been. Moses recognizes that independence is necessary.

that his people necessarily needed a special tribal god; he explains the fine Midianite Jehovah as the God of Abraham. The god is fire; he visibly draws his way during the journey of the Israelites in the lead; by day they see him at the top of the mountain. During the day as a column of smoke, at night as a column of fire; but no one may approach him; he is always at the side of the train. An uninitiated person may approach him; he is always at the side of the train. a good distance ahead, and if you stop, then you have to... He and the camp were to be kept at a distance of 2000 ells.

hova; and stand before me there on the mountaintop.. Deuteronomy 10:1: "Hew two tablets of stone and ascend to me on the mountain. Habakkuk 3:3: "God comes from the south." Her and the saint of Mount Paran. IND a mountain in the Near Sinai, of which Deuteronomy 33:2 says: Jehovah came from Sinai and ascended before them before Seir, appeared from the mountain Paran; and he came from the holy myriads, to his right. ten fires, to guide them, (Judges 5:5: Mountains he: trembled before Jehovah's face, this Sinai before the face of Jehovah's, of the God of Israel., The same passage is found in Psalm 68, 8. 9., then verse 16 continues: "You mountains of God, Basan's mountains, you peaked mountains, Basan's mountains, why do you, peaked mountains, lie in wait for the mountain chosen by God? to his seat? He will inhabit it forever! The car God's are twice ten thousand, one thousand, and one thousand again; Among them is the Lord, the Sinai in the sanctuary. You ascend to the high seat, you lead prisoners, you receive gifts from people; and the rebels too shall dwell with the Lord God.

289

(must be observed). This is an advantageous arrangement. 'for the priests, to whom the people could not access their secrets' could see. Without a doubt, there were also those involved in this fire. secret chemical arts were effective; it soon burned small, soon large, perhaps also in different colors, to match the To proclaim the people's approval or disapproval of Jehovah. True The holy one, which preceded the procession, was probably located there. Fire on a copper sacrificial altar, which the priests tru—

gen; for it will burn even later on such a one. Uebri-
 It becomes quite clear to us, as it continues in the Old Testament.
 while it may mean that Jehovah brought the Hebrews out of Egypt—
 ten led. This leading is to be understood literally.
 Jehovah goes before us as fire, shows the way and gives by halting and by departing, he made it known that one Now camp, now continue the march. The fire is not done with the intention of leading the army campaign serve, as on the trains of Alexander the Great;
 It does fulfill this purpose, and was probably designed for precisely that reason.
 preserved in a higher flame; but it is God himself, who goes before the army. Psalm 68:8: "God, when you you went out before your people, as you marched through "The desert, and the earth trembled." — 2 Mob. 13:21: "And Jehovah went before them by day in a column of cloud, to lead them on the way, and at night in a column of fire,
 to shine for them, so that they could travel day and night.
 The column of clouds that formed during the day did not yield, nor did the fires—(pillars at night before the people). When the Egyptians the
 The Israeli army is being pursued, the divine pillar is preparing itself.
 to protect her protégés. She leaves her location.

290

at the head of the army and steps between the pursuing Egyptians and the Israelites; Exodus 14:19: Then it broke the angel of God who marched before the army of Israel, and went behind her; and the column of clouds broke open from in front and stepped behind them. And she came between the army.
 the Egyptian and the army of Israel, and was the cloud the darkness (namely on one side, against the Aegyptter hin), and illuminated the night (on the other side);
 And so these did not approach them all night. Under-whose, when the pillar with darkness haunted the Egyptian army
 It covers, but shines brightly for the Israelites, as usual, they pull These through the Red Sea. At daybreak, they set sail.
 Egyptians continued the persecution, "then Jehovah looked upon the Army of the Egyptians in the clouds and pillar of fire and ensued
 The Egyptian army was confused; this gaze should be without

Doubts suggest that Jehovah hurled lightning bolts at the enemies;
The Egyptians said: "Let us flee from Israel; for Jehovah fights for them against the Egyptians. Not always
The divine fire is visible to the people. As often as one sees it...
Gert, you can no longer see it at such a height; but if the people turn to Jehovah when Jehovah faces important matters Matters to be brought before the assembly, about—main, if the priests were concerned with their God on the Let the people act, then the flame will appear in mighty glory.
High altitude. The Israelites demand meat in the desert; Moses says (Exodus 16:7): "In the morning you shall
to see the glory of Jehovah; draw near before Jehovah;
For he heard your grumbling. And it happened when Aaron spoke to the entire congregation of the sons of Israel, then wander-ten they turned against the desert, and behold, the glory of Je—Hova's appeared in the Wolfen. So the god was let appear as a mighty flame to silence the grumbling people fright. Strangely, something appears here where Israel—liten near Mount Sinai or Horeb, Je—hova again near this mountain; «they turned 291 against the desert, namely Mount Sinai. But Jehovah reveals himself when the people have no water and Moses mutters against it, on a rock of Mount Horeb:

"Go before the people," says Jehovah (Exodus 2).
17:5, "and take with you from the elders of Israel, and Take your staff, with which you struck the Nile, into Take your hand, and go. See, I will stand before you there.
You yourself are on a rock at Horeb, and you shall see the rock Strike, and water will flow out for the people to drink.
And Moses did so before the eyes of the elders Sfrael'3, »
– The presentation badly conceals the artwork, where through which one sought to influence the people here. Moses was well known in the vicinity of Horeb; for there hü
He had recently killed his father-in-law's sheep.
Jethro, he also knew the springs of that region. Je
But now he must perform a miracle and Moses must accomplish it.
gen. As one gets near the source, the Ge presupposed by the settlor and the initiates; one lets the fire

Jehovah's appear above the spring; the train arrives,
The water is already there; Moses brought it through a miracle.
Brought forth, the elders saw it! —

The train is now camped on Mount Sinai.
God's), where Moses' father-in-law Jethro lived, who now with his daughter Zipporah, Moses' wife, and her Both sons, Gershom and Eliezer, come to the army.
Jethro rejoices in all the good that Jehovah has done.
to Israel. Now I know, he says, that Jehovah is greater,
as all gods; he accepts burnt offerings and sacrifices for God, and Aaron and all the elders of Israel are coming, (to eat the bread with Moses' father-in-law before God).
– This relationship of Jethro to Jehovah must not to be overlooked. Jehovah is by no means unknown to the Midianite.
an unknown god, like the Israelites; Jehovah is much ) Exodus. 18, 5. 7) 2. Mof. 18, 10, ff.

5 19 *

292

more originally God of Jethro; Jethro's homeland, the Mount Horeb, or Sinai, is also the home of Jehovah; the Berg is literally called the Mountain of God. When the train Having reached the mountain, Jethro joins the family.
of Moses, and the stranger immediately consulted the council of the
The elders had a significant voice. At his instigation
It is likely that Jehovah is being left by his holy To give some laws for the people down the mountains. So far, the following have been done:
Moses departed alone, without having a divine law for himself.
Ben; this autocracy offended the elders; Jethro met the institution that the sovereign power is distributed and Laws were established. "What is that which you do?"
"With the people," he says (Exodus 18:14), "why does he..."
You alone, and all the people will stand with you from morning till night.
For the evening? What you are doing is not good; exhausted.
You and this people who are with you will be destroyed; now Obey my voice; I will advise you, and be God.

with you! Represent the people before God and bring the hands del before God, (let Jehovah give a law), and Make them aware of the laws and statutes and teach them the
 The way they walk and the deeds they do
 They shall. But you, choose for yourself from all the people a brave man.
 Men, and they may judge the people at all times and May all great troubles bring them to you. If you Do such things and God commands you (and a divine commandment).
 (You base your decision on what you have for yourself); so you can be
 They will stand, and all the people will come to their place.
 "Men in peace." So, on Mount Sinai, a
 A solemn enactment of the law was held. The people encamped before it.
 Mountain opposite; but Moses ascends to God)).
 Jehovah calls him down from the mountain; Mount Sinai is considered Therefore, actually as Jehovah's residence. Here first
 The Israelites enter into a covenant with God, Jehovah.

) Exodus. 3, 1; Cape. 18.5; Cape. 24, 13.) 2. Mof. 19, 3.

293

He spoke if they wanted to obey a finer voice, so he would He shall take them as his own from all peoples, they shall ten fein heilige Volk, ein Königreich von Priests sein.
 Moses goes down and presents these words to the elders;
 They agree, and he goes back up the mountain to the
 The answer was to be proclaimed to Jehovah. God replied.
 Then: "Look, I will come to you in the thick cloud, so that the people may hear how I speak to you, and may rebuke you.
 "Trust forever." One makes all preparations for a future marriage.
 to make a strong impression through fire; in order to be unheard, one must Jehovah commands: "Beware of going up the mountain and to touch his end; whoever touches the mountain shall be put to death.
 He shall be stoned. No hand shall touch him, but he shall be stoned.
 or be shot, be it man or beast, it must not live. When blowing the Jobelhorn, they should...
 "Fly up the mountain." — On the third day, Je appears Hova as fire god in his highest glory, Exodus 19:16 ff.:
 And it happened on the third day, when morning came,
 Then there was thunder and lightning, and a heavy cloud.
 on the mountain and a very loud trumpet call; and it trembled all the people who were in the camp. And Moses led the people went out of the camp to meet God, and they marched the foot of the mountain. But the whole of Mount Sinai was smoking, because Jehovah descended upon him in fire, and Its smoke rose like the smoke from a furnace, and The whole mountain trembled. And the trumpet sounded. On and on, very strong. Moses spoke and God answered.

— —

) The author here leaves the pillar of fire, which until now has been the Israelites moved ahead, not, as is natural, going up the mountain, but it comes down from the sky to the mountain. Different. in the fifth book of Moses. There the fire does not come down, sons whose flames rise to heaven. 5. Mof. 4:11: The The mountain burned with fire up to the sky at midnight. Clouds and darkness...

294

to him in the thunder. And Jehovah flew down upon the mountain. Sinai, to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up. Then Jehovah said to Moses: Go down and warn the people, that they do not break through to Jehovah to look, and many of them fall. Even the priests who belong to Jehovah Those who approach Jehovah should sanctify themselves so that Jehovah may not be under They shattered. And Moses said to Jehovah: The people I cannot climb Mount Sinai, because you have We were warned and told: Guard the mountain and keep it holy him. And Jehovah said to him, "Go down, and Come up again, you and Aaron with you; but the Priests The priests and the people shall not break through, to rise up. to Jehovah; lest he should crush them. And so Moses went down to the people and told them. In the In the following twentieth chapter, God gives the law. Verse 18 ff. then continues: "And all the people saw the thunder and the flames and the sound of the trumpet and the smoking mountain; and when the people saw this,

They fled and stood at a distance. And they said to Moses:
Speak to us and we will listen; but do not speak.
God be with us, that we may not die. And so it stood.
The people came from afar, and Moses approached the darkness, in which God was." Soon after (2 Mof. 24:12) Je commands hova once again: "Climb up to me on the mountain and
Be there, and I will give you the stone tablets.
Moses and his servant Joshua set out, and Moses He ascended the mountain of God. And so Moses ascended the
The mountain and the cloud covered the mountain; and the glory
Jehovah's rested on Mount Sinai, and it covered him
The cloud lasted six days. And he called Moses on the seventh day.
out of the cloud. And the sight of Jehovah's glory
It was like a consuming fire on the top of the mountain in front of in the eyes of the sons of Israel."

The cloud column now follows the army again.
from Sinai; Exodus 33:9: When Moses went to the tent

295

came, yes, fly down the column of clouds and stood in the
He opened the door of the tent and spoke with Moses; and all the people saw
The pillars of cloud stand in the doorway of the tent, and everything
The people stood up and bowed, every one in the doorway.
his tent. And Jehovah spoke to Moses in his presence.
In his presence, as if a man were speaking to a close friend.
Moses demands to see the inside of the cloud column, which It is only the shell of Jehovah. He must return to the... climb Mount Sinai, to the top of the mountain where Jehovah who wants to reveal himself to him. The god then descends into the cloud and pronounces the name of Jehovah after he who stood beside Moses; but he fell to the ground and worship. From now on, the pillar leaves the mountain and moves into the small hut that was her home, until when the tabernacle was completed; Jehovah had to Moses gave the promise to also fer- with the Sfraelites to draw a new one, and therefore he is now leaving his holy place.
Mount Sinai). As well as the larger Tabernacle and the
When the Ark of the Covenant is ready, the cloud will enter there, Exodus.
40, 34: Then the cloud covered the tent of assembly and The glory of Jehovah filled the dwelling place. And Moses could not go into the meeting tent; for it was resting

The cloud and the glory of Jehovah filled him.
Apartment. And when the cloud rose from the apartment—nung, fo the sons of Israel set out, on all their Trains. And if the cloud did not rise, then they broke.
She did not rise until she had lifted up. For the cloud Je= Hova's was on the apartment that day, and fire was in her at night, before the eyes of all Israel all its features. Since the creation of the Ark of the Covenant
The cloud remains above them in the Holy of Holies; on the Jehovah chooses a fine seat for the lid of the Ark of the Covenant; Exodus.
25, 22: “And I will meet with you there ) Exodus. 34, 34; Verse 9. ff.

296

and wants to talk to you from the lid, between the two Cherubs who are on the ark of the law, everything, what I will command you concerning the sons of Israel.” Numbers 4.
7, 89: “And when Moses entered the tent of assembly, to talk to him, he heard the voice that spoke to him spoke from the lid that was on the ark of the law was, emerging between the two cherubs, and he spoke to him. It was a sign of Jehovah's wrath when the Cloud moved away from the hut. Just as Moses... marrying a Black woman from Ethiopia, whereas Mirjam objects.
and stop Aaron. The pillar of cloud descends, steps in front of the meeting tent and Jehovah speaks through her:
“If there is a prophet among you, then I, Jehovah, will do Visions reveal themselves to me; in dreams I speak to him. Not so
My servant Moses; with all my band is ex bes
I trust; I speak to him mouth to mouth and let him
look, and not in pictures, at the form of Jehovah.
he looks. And why aren't you afraid to speak like this?
who is my servant Moses? And the anger of Gethsemane was kindled.
Hova's against fie, and he I away; and the cloud departed from the tent, and behold, Miriam was leprous like snow. »
Just as the cloud punishes with its fire, so too do we above Seen. After a later presentation, she granted it.
The Hebrews also received the further favor of being allowed to serve the army—

The train overshadowed the burning suns of the people.
(radiation prevented).

After these points listed here, it can now be the Even an impartial observer would hardly doubt what this is all about.
Fire and cloud column had a significance.
Jehovah dwells in the fire; the smoke, the cloud, is the outer shell of this fire dwelling; by lighting it
The presence of incense on the incense altar was made clear.
God's "smoke drifted through the tabernacle"

—

) Pf. 105, 39; Book of Wis. 10, 17; 18, 3; 19, 7; 1 Cor. 10, 1.

297

through to heaven and gave the outside shrouded
The people provided proof that Jehovah associated with the priests.
Moses steps into the smoke when he speaks with God.
When Jehovah appeared by day, the people saw nothing but the
A cloud of smoke; but at night the radiance of the fire shone through.
through, and Jehovah revealed himself as fire. It goes on for quite a while—a clear trend through the Old Testament is that one should the fire (perhaps only at a later time) only as a garment thought, radiating through a hidden element within it-Gene human form of Jehovah. This innermost being No one can see without dying; Jehovah promises—to Moses, to see his true form let; but even this chosen one may only receive God from see the back; for at the sight of the face one would have to (he dies). Jehovah covers his hand over Moses, who is in a
The gap remains until its glory has passed, then (He takes his hand away so that Moses can see his back).
Another time, the elders of Israel also beheld Jehovah.
on Sinai. "And they gazed," it says, "at the god Israel's, and beneath his feet it was like work of transparent sapphire and as clear as the sky itself.
But he did not lay a hand on the noble sons of Ifrael.
And they saw God and ate and drank. Since here only the feet are mentioned and the face of Jehovah is never mentioned

—

9) 2. Mof. 33, 20.

2) A curious parallel to this passage can be found in Herodotus II, 42. The Zeus in Egyptian Thebes was with a ram's head depicted. This was explained by the Egyptian priests. According to Herodotus, Heracles had pressed Zeus to compel him to do something. I wanted to create a fine form, but Zeus refused. Finally, when Heracles persisted in his gentle pleas, Zeus created a cloak— He held up his fur and allowed himself to be seen in this covering. Since— To him, one should depict the god with the ram's head.

) 2 Mos. 24:10

298

one can see without dying; so thought the biblical authors, the elders, would have spoken of the actual Jehovah's figure only noticed the feet, which were sticking out from underneath. emerged from the flame; as did the Christian ones Artists interpreted this passage as referring to Jehovah as Represent a flame of fire with feet. (Ezekiel describes) Jehovah's appearance was like this: "Above the fortress was, as the View of sapphire stone, the shape of a throne, and on the shape of the throne a shape as if from the appearance of a People on top of it. And I saw the look of Gold's ore, like the sight of fire within, all around, from the looking upwards from his loins, and from the sight of his loins I saw below it as the sight of fire, and there was A radiant glow all around. That was the appearance of the figure. the glory of Jehovah. » |

e. The image of Jehovah is the altar of burnt offering.

We come to the altar of burnt offering, from which
As we have already noted above, it was originally a
It was a sacrificial statue of Jehovah.

) Ezek. 1:26 ff., where the prophet apparently refers to the passage in Exodus.
24, 10. in memory. — Compare also regarding the Fire Jehovah's Judges 13:30; Malachi 3:3; Daniel 7:9; and in New Testament Acts 2:3; 1 John 1:5; 2 Thessalonians 1
7. 8. — According to the Book of Enoch, around the castle of God an crystal wall, surrounded by trembling flames; into the
The castle, made of crystal, stands against the wall; the gate
The valley is ablaze with fire, the roof is aglow with twinkling stars.
forms. Inside the castle it is as hot as fire and as cold as ice.
Inside this castle stands a second one, which houses the throne of God.
in the shape of a shining sun. All around the
The throne is fire; beneath it flow rivers of fire.
The floor of this second castle is fire, the ceiling of the room consists of lightning and circling stars, the roof is ablaze of the fire.

299

The bull is a symbol in all Near Eastern religions.
common symbol of divine power; in particular, he is Image of the divine king of the Semitic tribes, the Me Lech, Moloch. That this beast was also an image of Jehovah.
sey, is decided by the idolatry of the Israelites, to whom the bull service, namely the worship of Jehovah under the
The image of the bull is used as a common accusation. Also As is well known, Aaron had an image of the Je— erected in the Sinai desert.
to create the hova in the form of a bull. By having the god on the Mountains themselves appear as fire and give laws, glorify—
The Israelites below worshipped him as a fine bull—image. Moses' zeal against this bull is a late tere addition, which intended to replace the ancient bull symbol of to have it rejected by the legislator as idolatrous. Regarding this... in its place More; here only the remark that also the bronze sea of twelve stones erected in the temple—carried by cows and the chariot of the Ark of the Covenant or bulls are drawn). The image of the Moloch of

1) 1 Samuel 6:7; 2 Samuel 6:6. To the horned statue of Jehovah
It would be very fitting if Moses, when he came down from the mountain, came down with the law, according to Exodus 34:29, and appeared horned.

he wore the badge of his god, just as Alexander did with depicted on the horn of Jupiter Ammon and the Hebrew Prophets put on horns when they symbolize the power of Jehovah to present it in a clear and concise manner. The Vulgate has the expression in that Place 2 literally grasped by horns, and Moses has been since then formed with horns. The newer ones have just done this considered it ridiculous and explained that horn meant so much here.

as a ray, Moses' face shone. I don't see why, why one cannot fix the idea of horns, that
The word should not be understood in its first meaning, and I confess
I agree with Grotius's view insofar as he believes one
The spot where two horn-like things shoot out of the head must—
To understand the transmission of radiation segments. Macrobius also says so. Sa-turnal. I, 19. of the horns of Jupiter Ammon: Ammon-

300

Ammonite was, as we learned under the article Moloch » ge:
They saw a hollow, metal statue with a bull.
head, which also served as an altar, since the sacrifices were made in
They were burned. May this image be the fol-
The description of the burnt offering altar is compared.
will be.

How to procure the old burnt offering altar of Moses
We have no reliable information about its nature.
judge; for none of our Old Testament authors has
We have seen him, and we do not know how far the [unclear] has spread into our [unclear].
sources used in the Old Testament writings stretch. This remark also applies to others.
on our investigation regarding news from the mo-Saxon ages apply; but we will always be with Zziem-can assume with reasonable certainty that the most essential Parts of the Hebrew worship service, the veneration of a National god Jehovah, his symbols, sun, fire and The bull, the altar of burnt offering, and the Ark of the Covenant on Moses trace back; however, the representation of these objects will Things were far simpler and cruder in Moses' time, than in Solomon's time. The description of the Mosaic altar of burnt offering, which Exodus 27:1ff. and Exodus 27:1-38, 1. ff. is probably given according to the pattern nem, quem Deum solem occidentem Libyae existimant, arietis cornibus fangunt, quibus maxime id animal valet, sicut: radiis sol. "Grotius means in the annotations. to the biblical Passage: "Videtur Deus, cum in Moses hoc praestitit, respexisse ad vituli cultum. Vultis aliquid rapsum, "I have given Jehovah", says, "habete et experimini, an ferre possitis.", This selection Of course, this is not tenable. But completely it would be in our The context of the meaning fits that Moses, as a herald of divine law, with the symbol of divine omnipotence, with appeared with shining horns. "To shine," is the Hebrew word for "to gleam." Expression is absolutely out of the question, at most a beam; for horn, is the basic concept of the word and requires something pointed.

301

of Solomon's altar, only the altar was given Moses's scale, although of course the The height of three ells seems too low. The burnt offering The altar of Moses shall be five cubits long, five cubits wide, and to have been three cubits high; a height of three cubits. But it afforded the assembled people no sight, whereas A width and length of five ells is again superfluous.

The Mosaic altar of burnt offering was moved during the procession to Poles carried; This is the first point where we enter which must be stopped; Exodus 38:5: "And he poured out four Rinken to the four ends of the copper grid as a container— ter for the poles. And he stuck the poles into the Rinken at the sides of the altar, to carry it with them. » The patriarchs had built altars from earth and stones.

The Israelites are also offered a gift of earth and stone.
 to erect altars?), even Moses built altars at (Place of the victim); but here we have a Altar, which is carried along on the arduous procession, how other nomadic peoples carry their idols with them.
 ren. Was this altar of burnt offering not meant for more than the other altars: why go to such great lengths to clean them?
 to be dragged along on the trains, whereas otherwise one can be everywhere
 Is he ready to build stone altars? The altar of burnt offering But it was now also hollow inside. Why? One will say, in order to transport him more easily; alone
 There would have been no need for transport at all if this Al-should imagine nothing other than a sacrificial site;
 One could have looked at the altars of earth and stones.
 could be content with what was also built. Also The Moloch statues were made of bronze and hollow inside; we know sen 9 a intention; they should take in the victims; no

- 1) 1. Mof. 12, 7, 8; Cape. 13, 4, 18; Cape. 22, 9; Cape. 26, 25;
 Cape. 33, 20; Cape. 35, 2. 3. 7.
- 2) Deut. 27, 5; Jof. 8, 30.) Exodus. 17, 5; Exodus. 24, 4.

30%:

The hollowing out of the Jewish fire serves another purpose.
 They had a sacrificial altar. It says in Exodus 27:8:
 "You shall make it hollow from boards, and the expression."
 Breter seems to be a use of fire inside to oppose; but instead, a copper will be added.
 a coating is granted: «coat him with copper» read we 2. Mof. 27, 2. The place would like to distinguish itself through the falos explain the monastic altar. This one was also made of bronze, However, according to 2 Schron. 4:1; 7:7, it had a width and length of 20 cubits and a height of 10 cubits; at this Al-However, a framework of beams will be necessary inside.
 beings to support the copper, also here was the inner space so large that a sacrificial fire, especially if the
 The interior was clad in copper, the supporting timber frame couldn't attack. I think the board...
 The work in the mosaic altar is an addition of the later Ver-

Fassers, who decorated this altar in his own way. That the metal object that one carries on the trains led to the conclusion that it was more than an ordinary altar.
 Acknowledged. What is this hollow, copper, with hearing aid supposed to do?
 nern verfezene, hochheiligt ehrt Objekt, der auch described as an altar, it has depicted something other than what it represents.
 a bronze sacrificial statue, image of the god and altar at the same time, as other Semitic tribes also had? In one case...
 The metal statue was now a broad covering.
 not necessary inside. But even if the mosaic
 If the altar had been lined with wood on the inside, then it could be
 This does not yet constitute proof that one is inside oneself
 I could not set a fire; for he could also be inside coated with copper and the rotten wood after
 At certain times, it has been replaced by something fresh!
 The difficulty with the wood remains even when The fire may only be stoked above the altar and there alone allows the victims to be burned, and this must surely lead to
 At least something must have happened. The heat could, of course, have also...

303 + from above, only the copper plate consuming the wood worked.

Of utmost importance to our claim that this ironclad
 The altar of Moses and the later altar of Solomon, a metal image
 The one who was Jehovah, to whom sacrifices were made, is the Um
 It was stated that the Jews were involved in the founding of the new state.
 After the captivity, nothing was offered by a bronze altar.
 want to know. This is already what is apparently meant.
 Jehovah's prohibition, attributed to Moses for this purpose
 Exodus 22:23: You shall not have silver gods before me.
 You should not make golden gods.
 You shall make me an altar of earth and place it upon it sacrifice your burnt offerings and your thank offerings, your sheep and your cattle; in every place where I have named myself Let me praise you, and I will come to you and bless you. And If you make me an altar of stones, then build
 They were not struck; for you will swing your iron there "Over, so you desecrate them." The passage bears clear traces.
 that they already before the founding of the new temple, probably written in captivity; Jehovah no longer requires that one stand before the metal statue, the altar of burnt offerings; offer sacrifices to it; the altar shall be... to build from earth and he wants to be in every place be ready to give a blessing. Yes, the hatred against the metal on Altare goes so far that the stones of the altar are not a to be beaten with iron tools, which

 It was previously usually explained that the stone in the nose
 The state of being holy is the iron, but the iron that is used in war would be turned to desecrate the altar — and yet the constantly busy at the altar with the iron sacrificial knife! —
 According to this commandment, Jehovah expressly forbids
 All metal at his altar, he wants a burnt offering.
 have tar of earth: and yet the Mosaic and Solomon's burnt offering altar of copper; how could the Could this commandment have already been given by Moses?

304

But we now have an equally explicit, repeated statement offered in the Mosaic Law that the altar of burnt offering be of
 It should be copper: why does Serubabel align itself with the Construction of his burnt offering altar not according to the plan established by the Ge use of the fathers' sacred precept, which copper was used Was it enough?) Was there a lack of funds? Cyrus gave up the old one.
 Temple treasure out; they had thirty golden basins and Thousands of silver basins, and moreover, rich bean flowed Tax 2): one should not consider the number of copper plates. ha, be able to procure which are necessary for the manufacture of a would have been necessary for a mosaic burnt offering altar? Ju that, the Maccabee, tears through Antiochus Epiphanes demolished the burnt offering altar and built another one.
 (again, not made of copper, but of stones).
 Likewise, the altar of burnt offering was in Herod's temple, in a time when the temple had enough money and Hero who himself decorated it most magnificently, not by Ku horse, but without iron and of unhewn stones).

 — Why this? — Because the old bronze altar was an image of Je Hova's depicted the reforming Jewish party on the deeply abhorred; hence also Ezekiel, who otherwise so pretty much according to the provisions of the Mosaic books tet, in his description of the new altar of burnt offering, none (Syllabic for copper or other metals mentioned). Already Jeremiah may mention in chapter 52, where he describes all the equipment, also the copper, which the Chaldeans mention from the temple in Jerusalem, this copper The altar of burnt offering is not mentioned at all. In any case. It still existed in his time; King Ahaz had ) Esther 3:2.) Esther 1:6 ff.

) 1. Macc. 4, 47. Joseph. de bell. Jew. I, 4.

9 Joseph. antique. XV, 11.5: “ Kareoxev&097 ares . xai ovderore Eiyavey Kurov qidugog.

Ezekiel 43:13 ff.

305

He had moved him aside and with the consent of the High Priest's another, following the pattern of an Altar in Damascus, built, also this latter altar seems not to have been made of copper, since the old one had opposed it (above the copper one is called); but we read nowhere that the old bronze altar had been destroyed; 2 Kings 16:14. It is explicitly stated that he should be worshipped in the temple, at the I have placed it on the side of the new altar.

The bronze Mosaic and Solomonic altar now had furthermore, horns, like the Moloch statue, and this ornament It also remained in the later stone altar in the temple. According to our information, there were four such horns. Exodus 2. 27:2: “And make fine horns on the four fine corners; on His horns shall be his. One will not be mistaken if It is assumed that the altar was originally made according to the image The bull only had two horns. But these horns They were symbols of divine power, so they were increased. Over time, according to the four cardinal directions, to four, in order to to express that divine power extends in all directions (extend towards?). The horns were the most important part of the

1) 2 Kings 16:14-15. It is not mentioned to what extent the altar of Ahaz had been made, and whether he intended it for the future. I received it as a burnt offering altar, nor does one learn anything about it. the fate of the old bronze altar. In the 15th verse it says Ah: I will consider the copper altar.

Perhaps he should, since Jeremiah was no longer in the temple. "Does he mean to have come to the valley of Hinnom? Perhaps they would have been on No more people were sacrificed at the altar of Ahaz, but from then on these sacrifices would have been made on the old altar in the Thale offered Hinnom and would be after the sacrifices were completed. then came to the temple? The 19th chapter of Jeremiah

This might suggest something like that.

2) One cannot think of mere ring-shaped decorations, it were real horns. The Hebrew expression 0 is the

The same as is customary with bulls and goats. Josephus calls fie de bello Judaic. VI, 6: "xeparosideis ywviag.n ' 20

8300

Altars: the priests had to attend every bloody sacrifice. or even smeared with sacrificial blood. This already happened at the dedication of the altar Exodus 29:11: Slaughter the bull before Jehovah, before the door of the assembly tent, and take some of the bull's blood and smear to the horns of the altar with your finger and everything Pour the remaining blood onto the floor of the altar. This had to happen daily immediately: Exodus 29:36: "And you shall slay a bull daily as a sin offering." ten to atone and to purify the altar by cleansing it You will reconcile him and anoint him to make him holy. Seven For days you shall reconcile the altar and sanctify it, that it Most holy jey.» Under the anointing is not the Be Stroking the horns with blood is meant; this is already implied in the «Grown», but a real anointing, smearing with a fragrant, fatty substance; for Jehovah loves the fat and anointing of the burnt offering altar with

The use of fragrant oil is explicitly prescribed.

Exodus 30:28. The anointing of the horns with blood...

Shah, especially on the Day of Atonement, Leviticus 16:18:

And he went out to the altar that stood before Jehovah, and

Reconcile him, and take of the bull's blood and of the Blood of the goat and smear it on the horns of the altar.

all around. And he splattered it with blood with his fin.

ger seven times and cleanse him and sanctify him from the sins purities of the sons of Israel; » even in the bloody sacrifices, which private individuals contributed); only in very small cases

Animals, such as pigeons, seem to benefit from the smearing of the

to have horns with the blood; the measure was too little; otherwise, the horns of the burnt offering would have to be used.

altars from the blood of every animal their Pay tribute.

) 4, Mos. 4, 25, 30; Pf. 118, 17.

.

_2

Diese Hörner ee nun u den reformatorischen Pro

They did not like the prophets; they were attributes of idolatry to them.

a circumstance that provides further evidence that the horned

The altar was originally a statue with a bull's head.

Be. In the kingdom of Israel, where Jehovah was worshipped as a bull,

The altars also had horns; the less they could those at the altar of burnt offering in Jerusalem, from elsewhere their

The origin is traced back to a bull image of Sehoa. Listen,

Amos says in chapter 3, verse 13, "and warns the house of Jacob!"

says the Lord Jehovah, the God of hosts. For to

Time, when I punish Israel's misdeeds against him, so punish

I at the altars of Bethel, and be cut down by the Altars, horns, and fall to the earth. Jeremiah expresses Chapter 17, 1: "The sin of Judah is written in iron."
Stylus, with a diamond tip; engraved in the tablet to their hearts and to the horns of their altars.

The interior design of the altar of burnt offering is described below.
We find only dark traces in the Old Testament writings.
remained; it had to be the post-exilic editors of the Pen-Tateuchs are keen to keep this institution shrouded in secrecy.
to broaden. We first learn, as noted above, that
The altar was hollow. This hollow was made quite arbitrarily.
Previously, attempts were made to eliminate this by removing the above-mentioned items.
second location, where Jehovah erected all metal altars forbidden, with that first place where Jehovah has a hollow demanded a bronze altar, threw it together, and, in order to both... to reconcile conflicting points, he claimed, Because of its weight, the altar, which was on the
had to be carried in trains, made hollow; just as one
He wanted to sacrifice, but it was filled with earth. There-
But there is no mention of "von" in the text. Since the Mosaic books otherwise in their religious precepts down to the smallest detail-
If they had gone to the most convenient way, they would have reliably ordered that If one were to fill the bronze altar with earth, the-
The same thing actually happened. As I said, it doesn't mean either in | 20*

308

the one place where a hollow, bronze altar is required, that the cavity be filled with earth, still in the other, where Jehovah set up a burnt offering altar of earth before writes that this earthen one received a bronze coating must. Both positions are opposed to each other, must to be kept apart; the hollow, bronze altar is the original, ancient burnt offering altar; made of unhewn stone Stones and earth is the new one, from the reformers after introduced into exile. Nowhere can one be found.
Trace that the Mosaic and Solomon altar was made with earth would have been filled; rather, other Andeu show

They were hollow. This is what it says in Exodus 27:1.
 "And make for him a grid of net-like work, of copper, and make four copper grooves on the net, on its four ends, and place it under the frame of the altar.
 below, that the net extends to halfway up the altar. ≠
 The area is somewhat dark and therefore also varies in color.
 It has been clarified. Some place this net above between the four horns of the altar, so that it was a kind of roof would be; Others, and among them Josephus 2), want that the net had formed a rust on the surface of the altar, through which the ashes fell into the altar; again An≠ those, and among these was Rabbi Solomon, to whom Lund (follows), claiming that this bronze grid has the four outer surfaces of the altar up to the upper half were identified, which then no longer broken through, but made from whole slabs

4) In the Hebrew text it says NY “ and it becomes fepn“: the Network Pl h to the middle.. Should 7y beer not be considered “on, or “in. to grasp? For would the author have had to express want the net to extend from the base of the altar to the side surfaces.

If the altar were to reach halfway up its height, then
 He probably also described the lower half more clearly.

2) Antique. III, 7.) Lund, Jewish. Antiquity P. 181.

309

— —ꝛp¹ꝛ2T̃ —y^e—j

It had been assembled. However, one cannot see that.
 one, for which purpose the lower half of the altar is made of a grid≠
 The work should have existed. At most, one could surmise, which would mainly support my view, this
 The latticework around the lower half of the altar is certainly meant to be≠ beings, to allow a view of the fire, which is below a fire was kindled in the altar to burn the flames of the victims in the upper part of the church.
 to consume half of the altar. Others say that

A grid ran through the inside of the altar, in the middle.
 This view is certainly the correct one. That the grille on the
 It was located in the center of the altar, as stated above.
 The position was granted. But what is the purpose of such a grid?
 Apparently to hold the victims over the fire and thereby but the flame has free rein in seizing the victim to procure. Without a doubt, initially it wasn't on top of things.
 offered to the altar; the upper part was formed by a bull's head,
 Between its horns burned the eternal, holy fire.
 The sacrifices took place inside the altar of burnt offering, or, which is the same for us as the statue of Jehovah; truly, how
 As we shall see shortly, Jehovah also appears as an oven.
 Inside the altar were two sections; at the large Solomonic altar, perhaps even several, like this one as claimed by the Moloch statue. In the lower abbey
 The fire was kindled, which was fueled by the sacred fire.
 had to be taken between the horns; into the upper Section which is separated from the lower one by the grate
 When the time came, the sacrifices were made. This way of sacrificing was also quite suitable for the altar of burnt offerings, since in case of fire
 They always sacrifice the entire animal, which is consumed by the flame.
 had to be done; this could be done in an enclosed space.
 It will happen more safely. For the burning of living people.
 It was, in any case, a closed room that thwarted any attempt to... removing it from the flame was impossible, far more suitable.

The altar of burnt offering was very holy; it stood there not in the Most Holy Place, but first in the same place, Exodus.

310

40:6. Jehovah commands: "Set up the altar of burnt offering." the door of the dwelling of the assembly tent. It indicates
 This is based on a peculiar idea of the Jews, whereupon we must come back down below; the altar of burnt offering was a subordinate appearance intended for the people Je Hova's represented the angel of Jehovah, who frequently appeared in the ancient world.
 ten testament takes the place of God and yet how Jehovah himself. All sacrificial fires had to be extinguished under penalty of law.
 the extermination, lit by the sacred fire the one that burned upon him. This sacred fire was the living God; he wanted to consume all the sacrifices himself; his half was not allowed to give a sacrifice to any other flame who to make the sacrificial meat pleasing to the god, It was salted beforehand; the libations were poured, little Stens in the new temple, through tubes into the interior of the altar's and thus gave the god something to drink. After the From the Jews' point of view, the place in the temple where this Altar stand, the same place on which Abraham s²his

“He wanted to sacrifice his son and later use him as a sacrificial site for the Je⁸buster, David bought from Aravna). Nobody was allowed to enter or even touch the altar of burnt offering, as the priests. They too had to prove themselves beforehand, just like everyone else. when they entered the Holy of Holies, hands and feet were shen, «so that they do not die). Even the Levites were allowed⁸ They must not approach the altar of burnt offering under penalty of Death, Numbers 18:3: Only for the holy vessels and They should not approach the altar, lest they die. However, Exodus 29:37 states:

“Whoever touches the altar shall be holy; and completely like it.”

Lund, Jewish Antiquities, p. 315. To burn the entire sacrificial animal⁸ nen was undoubtedly the oldest type of victim, and remained so. the most solemn and effective among the Greeks (oAöxavora, from Moloch also served as a nerdizix lig, compare Xen. Cyrop. VIII, 3; Anab. VII, 8.) .

5 Mof. 30, 20.

su

lich of the utensils in the Most Holy Place (Exodus 30:29): Whoever stirs them up shall be holy. These sayings have caused great difficulty for the outriggers; for us They offer none of that. How, one thought, the priests must wash their hands and feet before touching the altar⁸ ren, otherwise they would have to die; the Levites, who nevertheless belonged to the Ab: tare are much closer than the common man, may at The punishment of death should not be approached too closely: the common But man, for he or the people in general are called not the general "who" — this one would be holy if he Did he touch the altar? They helped each other and said, "Such a..."

 I then had to be admitted to the priesthood;
 But how flawed this explanation is! Truly, then they would have the poor Jews can do nothing better than to give the Al~~o~~ to touch them in order to get rid of their misery all at once;
 then it would have been easy to join the first class, to whom the priests are to be added, and the number of fine members~~o~~
 That would certainly reach the hundreds of thousands within a few weeks.
 It has grown! Apparently, in this lies the idea that "he should be holy!"
 a terrifying threat; This gives the whole picture~~o~~ hang; if even the Levite must die, how much more
 The ordinary Jewish man? I find in these images...
 s~~o~~prok one of the most striking proofs that the pre-exili~~o~~ Jehovah said that people had been sacrificed to him. Whoever the
 By disturbing the holy places of Jehovah, he dedicated himself to Him.
 God offered him up as a sacrifice; he became a sanctified one, to Jehovah
 One being had to be sacrificed to him). Thus it will be

1) A curious parallel can be found in the religion of the ancients.
 Germans. In a sacred grove of Hertha on an island.
 In the Baltic Sea stood a chariot dedicated to the goddess, which was equipped with was covered with a carpet. Only the priest was allowed to remove this carpet.
 Sometimes the goddess would descend from the sky and lived inside the car. This was a time of great Festivities. The wagon was then hitched with cows.

 and traveled around the country. Wherever he went, they felt

312

The message in the Talmudic tractate Succa is very explanatory, after which a woman named Maria once lived in the Temple went, removed a slipper and the burnt offering~~o~~ Tar struck with the words: Wolf! How long will you
 "nor consume the treasures of the children of Israel!" Certainly, the woman did not smash the altar because of a sacrificial animal~~o~~
 gen; her sweetest thing, her greatest treasure, was a child torn away, and in furious despair 8 5 ie
 a horrific crime in the eyes of their people.
 Burnt offering~~o~~Altar was the god, he received his sash sacrifices for consumption, namely the firstborn, and were Therefore, to the women who gave him his dearest, his firstborn child

They had to offer up a child, a terrible creature.

In addition, the altars in old
Time Jehovah · meaning that Jehovah in the form of a out

The inhabitants were delighted. After his Nückkebr, the Wa=gen and the goddess washed in a remote lake; the Slaves who helped carry the holy chariot who had touched and seen the goddess, devoured each time the lake. — Diefer covered wagons with cows, which a car driven around the country that no one is allowed to touch, whose contents one cannot see without dying, dies in a most peculiar relationship with the Ark of the Covenant the Hebrews, who also covertly targeted one with cows or bulls is driven in a horse-drawn carriage and their contact causes death brings (1 Samuel 6:7; 2 Samuel 6:6). I put the place of the Tacitus here, the above de morib. Germ. c. 40. reports:

“Est in insula Oceani castum nemus. dicatumque i in eo: vehiculum veste contectum, attingere uni sacerdoti concessum. Is adesse penetrati deam intelligit, vectamque bubus feminis multa cum veneratione prosequitur. Laeti do this, festa loca, quaecunque adventu hospitioque dignatur. Non bella ineunt, non arma sumunt: clausum oinne ferrum; pax et quies tunc tantum nota tunc tantum amata, donec idem sacerdos satiatam conversatione mortalium death templo reddat. Mox vehicle and clothes et, si credere velis, numen ipsum secreto lacu abluitur; servi ministrant, quos statim idem lacus haurit. Arcanus hinc terror sanctaque ignorantia, quid sit illud, quod tantum perituri vident. “

313

The presence of the oven in the area indicates that there are still very clear traces of it.
hands are, which demonstrate that the altar of burnt offering is as a person has been considered and treated).

In ancient times, the altars were called Jehovah.
2. Mof. 17:15, for example, tells us: “And Moses built an altar and called his name: Jehovah my Pa-

 "It might not be noticeable that this isn't exactly the..."
 The altar of burnt offering is called Jehovah; if even ordinary altars...
 Those who bear this name, to see how much more that before all Holy altar! One is, of course, prepared with the reply.
 The passage is meant to say nothing other than that Moses
 An altar was erected to commemorate the victory over the Amalekites.
 I built it, which only bears the name as a memorial.

"Jehovah my banner" led, it only wanted to express-
 It is expressed that Jehovah is the banner, the protection of Israel's Be. But I doubt anyone will dispute my right.
 want to do something, to take a passage literally, if they literally gives a meaning which, in my opinion, about the old testament fits perfectly into the circumstances.
 Such are the traces one looks for. 3
 the; for it is for us to know these conditions only that which was left over, which the later editors of the Old Testament writings, which were concerned with the old religion-to blur the area, which escaped during its revision;
 and these points cannot naturally be such,
 which openly and without any embellishment expose the old nature

Even the ancient thinkers couldn't get past the idea-to resist the notion that the altar of burnt offering represents a being. The Jesuit Villalpandus in the second volume of his commentary on Ezekiel p. 39 says, by naming Ariel as a lion summarizes: Deus quasi discerptor, id est leo ferox, seu leo sacer Deo dicatus, p. 393: vitulorum cornua gestasse quasi trophaea factae praedae.,

314

Eyes lay, Our place says literally: 5 Gr mW RN)"

"And he called the fine name Jehovah my banner." Je-Hova is the general name for the altar, as a special
 But this altar receives a name with which Moses the Je-who wants to honor the awarded victory, the nickname

“My banner. The passage in Judges 6:24 is quite similar.”
 Here Jehovah appears to Gideon; he wants to see the stranger Honor the guest and slaughter a billy goat for the occasion; Je-Hova orders him to place the meat on a rock,
 "And the angel of Jehovah raised the tip of his staff."
 out, which was in his hand, and touched the flesh and the unleavened bread: and then the fire sprang from the rock
 He went up and ate the meat and the unleavened bread, and
 The angel of Jehovah disappeared from his sight. Then he built Gideon built an altar to Jehovah there and named it:
 Jehovah Shalom (Jehovah Salvation). To this day... he still went to Ophrah the Abi-Esriter. — Even later,
 "Without a doubt in Babylonian exile," says a devout Hebrew.
 Psalm 43:3: “Send out your light and your faithfulness, that they may guide me, bring me to your holy mountain and your a dwelling, that I may come to the altar of God, to the God of my jubilation, and I praise you on the lute, God, my God!

That the altar had been the image of Jehovah, for that Another noteworthy commentary also speaks out.
 The first and crudest image of God is a stone;
 Jacob anoints stones, as already mentioned above.
 The next step was to assemble the stones into an altar; furthermore, it seems that in the age of the patriarchs not having come; the bronze altar is a product of Mosaic times. As often as the patriarchs addressed Jehovah-
 Before they want to call upon the saint, they first build an altar, and why is this?
 Apparently, because the altar presented them with the image of God.
 was, to whom they turned with their requests; Genesis.

315

12:8: “And Abraham set out from there toward the Mountains, eastward from Bethel, and pitched his tent
 Bethel towards the evening and Ai towards the morning, and built there Jehovah erected an altar and called upon Jehovah's name.
 Later, in Genesis 13:4, he comes again “to the place of the
 The altar he had built before. And Abraham himself called there the name of Jehovah. It is also said of Isaac, Genesis.
 26:5: “And he built an altar there and called the

(in the name of Jehovah).

This includes, in particular, the standing expression.
mim? 0 «before Jehovah's attack. It shall be sacrificed will be “before the face of Jehovah.” For example, Moses to Aaron (Leviticus 2:9): Take a young calf.
for the sin offering and a ram for the burnt offering, and bring
"They should be before Jehovah." Then the people should also some Animals are brought to be sacrificed before Jehovah.
the animals which Moses demanded to be brought to the door of the assembly= lung tent, where the altar of burnt offering stood, and it enters the
The whole community before Jehovah, » they rearrange themselves the altar. Finally, fire goes out from Jehovah, namely= from the altar, and eats the burnt offering and the Fatty bits 2). — A lot of similar expressions speak for a physicality of Jehovah in ancient times; one sees God= (face of God), comes before God's face, seeks God's face), flees from God's face"): Everything Indications of Jehovah's physical representation in altar of burnt offering, to the God who was visible to the people;
For he who was in the Holy of Holies kept himself hidden. Of course, we are The outriggers with such places will soon be finished; it is a Anthropomorphism, it is said, is an image of man= taken advantage of; the Jews did not think of it, so Et=

.) 1 Mos. 26, 25.) Compare 3. Mom. 1, 3; Cape. 3, 7/1/12; Cape. 4, 4. and f. w.) Psalm 42, 2. 9 Psalm 100, 1. 2.
Psalm 105:4. Jonah 1:2.

*

316

which is to be taken literally. But these Jews can...
Yes, until very recently, I haven't been free from that thought.
to make Jehovah have a form; a refinement is It's already good if they deviate from the old metal statue.
and give it human form. This refinement was called= However, some prophets have taken this to the point, that they see Jehovah as a spiritual, omnipresent being

 They explained; but the Hebrews never understood this any differently.
 as Ezekiel in the passage mentioned above, namely that Jehovah in a fire-radiating human form on a
 I sit on a throne in heaven. The beautiful place of the Pseudo-Je-Saiah Chapter 66, 1: "Heaven is my throne and the earth
 My feet's stool: where is a house that you will build for me?
 "Could you, and where is a place for my resting place?" — how They exploited the rabbis so miserably! In the rabbi-Niche beech Rasiel, which according to legend was made by the angel Rasiel, who was supposed to have been handed over to Adam, will be, on this place, to which Jehovah assigned a monstrous body-(wrote)). The whole height of Jehovah is, according to the-sem Buche, two hundred thirty-six times ten thousand Miles. From every single member of Jehovah's family, here
 The measurement is given in miles. The height of his feet-soles is three times ten thousand miles; from the sole of the foot to The height to the heel is one thousand times ten thousand and five-one hundred, from the heel to the kneecap nineteen times ten thousand and four miles, and immediately to the brain-shell, three times ten thousand miles in length and It has width. The beard is 11,500 miles long;
 The black area in the eye measures exactly that many miles; the
 The right eyeball is thirty thousand times ten thousand times the size of the left eyeball.
 Miles away. The length of the right hand is two-twenty times ten thousand and two miles," — and this Measure is so important that Rabbi Ishmael and the Rabbi

— —

1) Eisenmenger discovered. Judaism I, p. 2.

_ 317

Akkiva assures everyone who knows that he is a child of
 I will be in the future world.

The expression 257 «vor. expresses very clearly a köpersonal presence of that before whom something happens;

For it literally means: before the face. Thus it throws
 Aaron laid his staff before Pharaoh (Exodus 7:10); so reads
 Shaphan the book before the king 2 Chronicles 17:18; so
 The riches are brought before the King of Assy.
 Isaiah 8:4. The sacrifice before the face of Jesus—va's is also literally to be ver= in relation to the older time
 They all had to stand before the burnt offerings.
 to be brought to the altar, which, as an image of God, is to be his well-being=,
 one should enjoy the sight. Even the large ones.
 Every animal had to be sacrificed at the sites where side altars were built.
 first led before the altar of burnt offering, to be shown to God;
 "him, on penalty of extermination." Even Hezekiah commands, before to worship at the altar. The Assyrian general Rabshake to this king, who relies on Jehovah, he replies:
 And when you say to me: "On Jehovah our God," Let us trust: is it not he whose heights and altars His= kia abolished and spoken to Judah and Jerusalem: before
 "You shall worship at this altar." In the same way
 The "ar" in the Ark of the Covenant is also of a material nature.
 The presence of God is needed. Moses goes into the holy place.
 tent, to speak before Jehovah; 2 Mof. 34:34. When the
 The Ark of the Covenant, which the Philistines had held captive, David is overtaken with great solemnity, play
 David and all the people before God, with all their strength= ten; Usa will hold the cart on which the chest lies, since
 The bulls became timid; over this Jehovah became angry and The man dies there before God. =

We come to the main piece of evidence for our claim=

D mob

318

The notion that the altar of burnt offering was originally dedicated to Jehovah
 I imagined Jehovah appearing personally as a smoking man
 Open the oven.

The passage is found in Genesis 15:17 and reads: "And
 The sun had set, and there was darkness: look

There was a smoking stove and a flame of fire.
which passed between those pieces. Let's go to the connection back. Jehovah promises Abraham, that he would give him the land of Canaan as his possession.
Abraham demands a guarantee for this promise:

“Lord, how will I know that I shall possess it?”

Jehovah answers: Bring me a three-year-old cow and a three-year-old goat and a three-year-old ram and a turtledove and a young pigeon. Then he brought it all of these and divided them in the middle and laid each one Half of the other half opposite. Jehovah says: “bring me” and Abraham, “brings him; the God is therefore corporeal present, namely in the metal statue; a spirit could do not say that one should bring him physical objects should bring; for such a one would be invisible. In the

The intention behind “bring me” remains on Jehovah’s side, Even to do something with these animals; the god steps
as a person who, together with Abraham, shared a Ge Abraham wants to carry out the task. However, Abraham takes the Zerthei len of the sacrificial animals alone, and this proves just how that the author imagined Jehovah as a statue;
The god is indeed present in this statue; he speaks from it.
he; but he does not allow himself to be approached for manipulation; Abraham
The dismemberment of the sacrificial animals alone puts this into action.
The ceremony is nothing other than the one practiced in antiquity.
customary way, a solemn promise or alliance and to affirm it under oath. A sacrificial animal was slaughtered, laid it in two halves, and both parts went through the space between the two, in order to indicate that a breach of the oath would bring the same fate upon one another.

319

They bring full [something], as over the dismembered sacrificial animal. From Abraham, the biblical narrator, imagines that he is on either side through the passage between the sacrificial items does, as soon as they were ready. But Jehovah, the God

The terror loves the night. The sacrifices must lie
 They stay until night falls, then Jehovah also wants to go. through. Meanwhile, Abraham gets everything in order;
 as the birds of prey approach to devour their victims,
 He scares them away. With sunset, it now becomes apparent Abraham "a deep sleep, a terror and a great Finfterniß." The expressions terror and sleep want of course they don't fit together, one could either to understand a terrible dream, or a fright, who robbed him of his senses; but it seems to me probable
 The author only let Abraham into a deep... fall asleep because Jehovah never sleeps with awake eyes.
 one can see without dying; and so it shall be here,
 where the Jehovah statue becomes a living being, Abraham
 To see in a dream the apparition that exists in reality passes. Jehovah, it seems, first steps forward.
 Abraham went and spoke his promise, which he now fulfilled.
 who wants to swear an oath, to explain it to him once again in detail.
) Liv. I, 24; IX, 5; XL, 6. Among the Chaldeans Ephrem Syrus ad Gen. 15. Among the Boeotians Plut. quaest. Rome.
 c. 111. Hence the expression soxíc, orövdas reuveiv, foedus ferire, and for the victims of oaths themselves, ra row. Pau-
 San. V, 24. Another ceremony at the oath of the ancients
 The Hebrews were those who touched each other's private parts (Genesis 1).
 24, 2.). The expression, placing the hand under the hip, is euphemistic. Cf. Gramberg I, 439. Also the Arabs
 They took the penis in their hand; the Greeks swore an oath.
 in the excised reproductive parts of the sacrificial animal; therefore perhaps the Latin testis and the German Witness. The Usage is therefore written in such a way that one considers the reproductive parts to be held close and in them, like the seat of manhood, so too found the seat of man's honor.

320

Security, with which this is based on a four-hundred-year-old
 When stays in Egypt are discussed, it is clearly indicated nug on the much later origin of the whole story there. Meanwhile it has become dark, and behold, Jehovah in the form of a smoking oven and a fire flame n), which as a Jehovah statue, in whose interior Fire glowed like in a furnace, and on their heads the flame of the eternal fire burned, he performed his oath.

 He also swore, by passing his hand between the offerings.
 goes. On that same day, it continues, Jehovah closed
 "A covenant with Abraham." — A clearer testimony for Our claim can no longer be demanded. — At
 The legislation on Sinai takes over the entire mountain.
 The image of Jehovah, of a smoking furnace, in Exodus 19:18:
 "But the whole of Mount Sinai was smoking, like the smoke of the..."
 Ofens, and the whole mountain trembled violently. 5. Mof. 4, 11:
 "The mountain burned with fire all the way up to the sky, at Darkness, clouds, and gloom, and Jehovah spoke from the "Fire. Deuteronomy 5:22: These were the words Jehovah spoke to the mountain from the fire, from the clouds and the dune.
 Kel in a loud voice. Like the altar of burnt offering, nobody who was allowed to touch, including Mount Sinai at that time, 2. Mof. 19:12: "Beware of going up the mountain and to touch his end; whoever touches the mountain shall be put to death.
 be; no hand shall touch him, but he shall be stoned or
 It shall be shot, be it human or beast, it may not live. »

Finally, the Jewish altar of burnt offering also leads the same epithet as the fire gods of the Ammonites and Moabiter, Moloch, and Camos. His name is, like Ariel's.

) Literally WIN D ey N m» and behold an oven of the smoke and a flame of fire 3c.

9 Not: Lion of God; cf. Movers d. Phon. I, p. 335.

321

Description of the altar erected in the new temple will be; here he mentions the upper part of the same, which Without a doubt, in ancient times it had the shape of a bull's head.
 had, Ariel. "From Ariel above," it says in the 15th verse, the four horns. And Ariel is 12 cubits long and 12 ells wide, squared, on four fine sides. This
 The name of the Jehovah statue referred to the city of Jerusalem.
 lem, the seat of Ariel, as well as the city of the
 The Ammonite was named Ariel. The whole city was a holy place.

The god's name, she bore his name in solemn speech;
 The entire people were holy to God and led their lives in worship.
 Naming as an honorific. Ha! Ariel, Ariel,
 The city where David camped, says Isaiah chapter 29, verse 1. "adds
 Year after year, let the festivals circle: then I oppress Ariel, and there are groans and moans; but it remains with me as Ariel,» In addition, we now have this Ariel, altar of burnt offering, everywhere not like a thing, but like
 A person is treated. The altar is reconciled.
 The expression 2, which denotes this action,
 It means both expiare and placare; both terms are based on the Holy of Holies and transferred to the altar of burnt offering
 They have been. They are partly due to the sin of the people.
 They are contaminated and therefore, like the people, need blood.
 as cleaning agents, some are holy, through sin Objects offended by the people, which are destroyed by blood= must reconcile. Exodus 29:36: "A bull for sin."
 You shall sacrifice daily for atonement and the almighty purify him by making atonement for him, and you shall cleanse him of his sins—to consecrate it. For seven days you shall renounce the altar—to reconcile and sanctify him; whoever touches the altar shall be made holy. feyn). The altar of burnt offering, the outward appearance Je—Hova's is in closer contact with the people, he is Representative of the Hebrews, daily orders their affairs=

i) Ezekiel 43:30; Leviticus. 16, 19, 33.

21

322

ten; all public acts of worship will before him; he is therefore also daily through the
 The sins of the people defile and therefore need daily cleansing.
 a purification. In contrast, the God in the Most Holy Place is withdrawn from the human environment, is by less affected by sins; for him, therefore, even one [penance] is sufficient.
 (a one-time reconciliation in the year on the great Day of Atonement).
 As was customary among the ancients, using a portion of the sacrificial blood.
 the image column of the god, with the other the sacrificers were sprinkled; so too with the Hebrews; one half of the blood they burn on the altar of burnt offerings, which are on those on the people 2). Should there be an alliance between Jehovah and closed to the people, then the altar of burnt offering, as the passage just mentioned shows, as Jehovah rises; everywhere he is visible before the people. Jehovah appearing and acting in form. Very clearly described. This is also confirmed by passages such as the following from Psalm 118:

“My praise and song be to Jah, he was my salvation.”

Open for me the gates of godliness, that I may enter and Yes, thank you! This is the gate to Jehovah; the righteous go to
She is one. I thank you that you heard me and are my Savior.
You were. O hear, Jehovah, help! O hear, Jehovah, bless!
God is Jehovah and he illuminates us. Binds the sacrifice.
With ropes, to the horns of the altar! My God, you are You and I praise you, my God, I exalt you! — A

— —

) 3. Mos. 16:14.

2) Exodus 24:6 ff. The God on the ark of the covenant is also described with Blood sprinkled (Leviticus 16:14); seven times and just as often the altar of burnt offering (Leviticus 16:10); everywhere the sacred number seven of Saturn.

5 INN of N shine, a tribe to which Ariel is related.
is. Bright Face of Jehovah Pf. 80, 20; Pf. 119, 35.

* May the face of Jehovah shine upon you and be gracious to you, ö 6, 25.

323

According to this passage, a devout Hebrew wants to give to Jehovah for to express one's gratitude for being rescued from an accident.

He goes to the temple: “Open to me the piety

“Gates,” he says, “that I may enter and give thanks to Jehovah!”

He leads a sacrificial animal with him. After he entered is, he turns to the altar of burnt offering, the statue of Jehovah, and says: Jehovah is God; that is, this Jehovah

He truly possesses divine power; he is truly God.
The statement "God is Jehovah" can only be made by the one who do who think of Jehovah as a specific person, where it could be questioned whether they really
He has divine power. The Hebrew is through the answered prayer.
He was assured through his prayer that Jehovah was God; That Here he steps before the statue in the temple and speaks the above.
Words. It goes on to say that Jehovah illuminates us. These
The position is significant. It is to be taken literally; that Fire shone between the horns. Very likely.
The priests thereby expressed Jehovah's favor and displeasure.
proclaiming that they have the eternal fire on top of the burnt offering altar either in a friendly, calm flame, or with Steam and crackling sounds burned. A friendly glow.
A sluggish flame was a good sign; therefore, here: Jehovah illuminates us;» and elsewhere) the request: «Let your Shine upon our faces; "Raise the light above us."
of your countenance! Enthralled by this friendly light!
Then the Hebrew calls out: "Tie up the offering, go to the Altars Horns! He wants to thank the god for his expression to immediately prepare the enjoyment of the gift through grace, that he had intended for him. One should, of course, expect:
"To Jehovah's horns! Even if the..."
the author of the Psalm used this expression: the reform
The authorial editor of the Old Testament could not find him
Don't leave it standing there.

Psalm 67:2; Pastor 4:7; Pastor 80:4, 8; Pastor 89:16. God's wrath.

smokes Pf. 74, 1. | ' 31"

324

—

The gifts that Jehovah receives, he consumes whole.
The altar of burnt offering is particularly noteworthy; it is also in this respect Je=
The victims are made before Jehovah, as shown above.
or also to Jehovah, to Jehovah), namely before and on the altar of burnt offering; it consumes them, and they are a pleasing sensual pleasure for the god, as we will later will be demonstrated in detail. One might object that... Greeks and Romans sacrificed on altars; among them were but the altars are not at the same time images of God, so I object: the situation was different in fire service; here First it was the fire itself, but then the spaces in Connection with the fire-place image of the god. In the Ue However, others everywhere also attach themselves to the altars. The gods used the same terms as their statues; God is present on the altar, as in the statue. Egg It was customary in the religion of the Semites that their image A depicted divine Melech, both statue and altar. was, and the Hebrews are no exception. The altar of burnt offering actually appears as a column of images. 2 Chronicles 6:12 ff., where it is mentioned on the occasion of the dedication of Solomon's Temple it says: "And Solomon stood before the altar of Jehovah, in the presence of the entire assembly lung Israel's, and spread out fine hands. Namely Solomon had made a frame of copper and attached it with ten placed in the vestibule, five cubits its length and five Its width was a cubit, and its height was three cubits, and thereon... He stepped forward and knelt on his knees in the presence of the whole crowd. Zen assembly 9 and spread his hands out to him He turned south, and said: Jehovah, God of Israel, there is no god like him. You in heaven and on earth, preserving covenant and grace to your servants who walk before you with all their heart » u. s. f. — At this point one can truly say: What ) me Isaiah 18:7. "At that time gifts will be brought

* * .

to Jehovah of hosts, 2c.

325

Is another certificate really necessary? She proves everything. If even the chronicle leaves such clear traces here has left, what might the original report have been like

Ben? In the following verses, she does distract more, it
 From verse 18 onwards, later prophetic ideas are described.
 interwoven, according to which Jehovah is enthroned in heaven and no house is needed; but the first verses say enough; Solomon prays at the fine new copper altar of burnt offering in the new temple literally; he has a staff placed before the to raise themselves up, to be honored by the entire people's assembly.
 to be seen. He steps onto this platform, kneels down, spreads his hands against the statue of Jehovah, which at its
 He looked out over the assembly, towering ten ells high.
 and addresses them: Jehovah, God of Israel! And this is true.
 also quite in line with the other historical news, which we possess from Solomon. The man who gave Moloch and, in general, erect statues to the gods of his wives
 He who let, must also have such a thing for his national god.
 The statement that Solomon was only destroyed in his old age by his wives
 The claim that someone has been seduced into idolatry is without merit.
 All support. We will discuss this further in a more appropriate setting.
 have. Incidentally, the same report also contains a
 The site, which houses the altar of burnt offering as a statue of the nation, nalgottes refers to: The oaths had to be sworn before the fire sacrificial altars were laid down); This remained a custom until the later times; it also became common in everyday speech (Habit of swearing at the altar). It can be This use is not based on any other conception than that one stands before Jehovah at the altar of burnt offering, that oneself
 the presence of God linked to the altar; precisely this
 The present should deter perjury. One more thing.
 another passage from the story of Solomon, which refers to the old altar
 As far as that's concerned, he would like to join the evidence that the fire

1) 2 Chron. 6, 22.) Matt. 23, 18.

The sacrificial altar was said to have been the image of Jehovah. Adonia, the Solomon's brother, whose life the latter seeks to destroy, be Seek refuge at the altar, flee there, and seize the Horns of the altar). However, they were not present in antiquity.
 not only statues of the gods, but also altars as to

Refuges were respected precisely because the altars, like the Image columns, for which objects were valid, at and in which of the God stay; only here do the horns and the seizing the same object to more than one mere altars, they transform it into an image of God's. Horns were by no means necessary for the victims, A mere sacrificial flock did not need them, they found much more symbols of the power of a living being; if When Adonia seizes the horns, he turns to the part of the divine image, which the power of the god permeates; lichen should I.

We come to the relationship of the altar of burnt offering.

) 1 Kings 1:50 and 51

2) Incidentally, it may also be noted here that before the exile The altar of Jehovah in the temple is indeed the most excellent, the Re- Jehovah's presence was such that one could safely travel around the land. other altars of Jehovah on mountains and under large trees; men had. The reforming party assigns all these altars to the idolatry; in their view it would be against Moses' precepts. There had been writing and idolatry, an altar outside the temple to have. But on the contrary, the temple and the pre- Scripture, to sacrifice only there, an innovation; the worship of Jeho- va's on mountains and under trees, on the other hand, is the ancient one, until the undisputed cult that was based on the founding of the temple, which also among the kings, it continued as lawful in the eyes of the people. preserve. When Hezekiah attempts to abolish the high-altitude cult; The Assyrian general Rabsake considers this an intervention. into the national Jehovah's service. He says in 2 Kings 18:22: So You say to me: In Jehovah our God we trust: Is it not he whose high places and altars Hezekiah abolished? and spoke to Judah and Jerusalem: Before this altar Should you worship at Zerufalem?

327

to the Ark of the Covenant. The altar of burnt offering alone was not the only image. Jehovah's; Jehovah is also sought on the Ark of the Covenant. The relationship between the two casts a most peculiar light. on the idea that became so important in later times;

lung of a "son of God," and precisely these pre-
 The position again serves to clarify the old relationship. between the altar of burnt offering and the Ark of the Covenant. It is towards the east.
 Italian terms, not even for a secular king proper to expose oneself to the gaze of the crowd and with to enter into external life; even less so one's own nete sich ein facher für den Gott der Nation, na-mentally for Jehovah, in whom, as in the old Semitic Saturn in general, the prevailing idea is that he averse to the world of the senses. Meanwhile, other gods are connected to the world.
 to enjoy joy and pleasure, to have their veneration even in the sensual pleasures of people, is the Jehovah considers the sensual world unclean; he withdraws from it.
 Back, it craves to come into contact with her. The
 The world, however, remains the same. How can we help?
 Jehovah is to rule the world, but he must not quarrel with it.
 to put into circulation: he therefore releases a middleman from himself emerge, which as ruler of the world with the same in enmity
 A bond is formed. This is the beginning of that idea of a Sons of God, whom we later see so artificially formed.
 It may be noted in passing that the same
 The idea of a divine, world-ruling Middle God-sen also among the Persians in the god Mithras and at the Phoenicians in the Tyrian Hercules, to whom one annually, as the fire god, he held a great festival, to which, after the report of the frequently cited Lucian (de dea Syra), People from far and wide, from Phoenicia and Syria.
 came together. They straightened large trees that had been cut down.
 up, hung sacrificial animals and human clothes on it and set the trees on fire. This appears to be the case among the Oxyphians.
 Central Europe under the name Phanes, a designation,

328

which apparently bears the Old Testament name of this Mittlers, DI or yd "face of Jehovah like Ur (sprunges is). The real Jehovah dwells in and on the Ark of the Covenant; but its outward appearance, that which is made of Middle Kingdom that emerged from it, which the Jewish Ans opportunities are led, represented by the altar of burnt offering.
 sentirt. Ä u

Everywhere in the Old Testament the angels of Jehovah
 When this appears, it refers to this intermediate being, the god who wrestling with Jacob in the sand at night, this is the angel); (also Heracles, who came from Phoenicia, from whom phö-Nizisian Archal, fire and D conquer, wrestles with Zeus went to Olympia and in the fight with Hippocoon he dislocated (his hip). Jehovah's angel leads the Hebrews from Egypt), he comes between the Jewish and Egyptian (Table army); Jehovah sends a fine angel before the Sfraelis ten her; they should beware of their face; the Jehovah's angel fights against the Egyptians; he is also said to have fought before
 "To go and drive out the Canaanites"); to
 In David's time, he stretches his hand over Jerusalem to...
 (to destroy the city). Jehovah's angel encamps around fine admirers and saves them), but he persecutes the Enemies of Jehovah's Witnesses). He associates with the prophet ) Compare Movers, The Phoenicians I, pp. 556 and 432.

— — —

2) Genesis. 32, 24. 3) Numbers. 20, 16. + 2. Mof. 14, 19.

) 2 Mos. 23:20-21

Exodus 32:2. Jehovah does not want to go with the Sfraelites,
 But he wants to find the angel, with a fine face, with them.
 Exodus 33:14.

7) 2nd Sam. 24, 17, 19, 5) Pf. 34, 8.

) Pf. 35, 6. It is in these battles of the angel or Jeho-va's against the enemies of the Hebrews to a material appearance and the intervention of God was remembered. Jehovah says to David 2 Samuel 5:23: Come to the Philistines opposite the Becha-

329

Elijah). Jehovah also sends a fine messenger before him in Malachi.

(here). In Isaiah, this angel leads a bloody battle for (the Jews): Who is it that comes from Edom, in red Bozra's clothes? He, resplendent in his garment, Proudly carrying on in his immense strength? It is I, the It promises salvation, mightily to save. Why is red yours? Your robe and clothes are like those of the winepress treader? The winepress—I went there alone, and none of the peoples were with me. me; and I trampled them with my anger and crushed them. In my anger, that her juice splashed onto my clothes And I soiled all my clothes. For a day of revenge was in my spirit and the year of my redeemed was I came! And I looked around, but there was no helper; And I was amazed, there was no support. Then my My arm and my wrath sustained me. And I trampled. the nations in my anger and crushed them in my Wrath, so that its sap ran to the earth. In Ezekiel The angel, the manifestation of Jehovah, appears as a man: Ezekiel, chapter 43, verse 5; the glory of Jehovah filled the House, and I heard one speaking to me from the A crowd, and a man stood next to me).

This angel is also called King, Melech, and Son Jehovah's, precisely as a burnt offering altar, the Jehovah statue in the temple. The second psalm relates to this, where It says: "The one enthroned in heaven laughs, the Lord He mocks them; then he speaks to them in his anger and In his fury he frightens her: "Have I not my King anointed on Zion, my holy mountain! Tell I was informed of the decision; Jehovah spoke to me: You are mine Son, today I have begotten you. Demand of me, so Perennials; and if you hear the sound of footsteps in the tops of the Becha shrubs, then hurry; for then Jehovah goes before you to strike down the Philistine army.) 1st king 1, 3.) times. 3, 1.) Jef. 63, 9. ff. Ezekiel 9:3; 10:3. x

330

I will give you the nations as possession and property. the ends of the earth; you shall shatter them with iron.

Scepter, like a potter's vessel, shatter them. And now, her Kings, come to your senses and be warned, you judges of the Countries. Serve Jehovah with fear and tremble with quaking.
Kiss the son, lest he become angry and you perish.
on your way. For soon fine wrath will blaze forth! Hail Als
Those who trust him! — ö

The Son or Angel of God, who in the fire—
The altar depicted as a sacrificial altar is also a representative of the Jewish people; its power and the fear which it inspires
Having spread among the surrounding nations, it originates with the Hebrews.
over; and so the Hebrews themselves are called son Jehovah's Psalm 80:16: "Protect what your hand has laid Plant and the son you have chosen! Keep your Hand over the man of your right hand, over the man of man.
Son, whom you have chosen! Then we will not waver.
"From you; revive us, then we will call upon your name!"
The kissing in the second psalm actually points to The Jehovah statue. It was initially a sign of worship.
(offer against superiors); but also the images of the gods
They were kissed; in Baal worship, there was a kissing of the god.
(as a matter of course). Jehovah's bull images at the Israelites were also kissed: Court 13:2: "Whoever
"If you want to sacrifice, kiss the calves!" or according to another Ue= Translation: "He who wants to kiss the calves must follow men." sacrifice 3). »

— — — f an

1) 1. Mof. 41, 40; Esth. 1, 13.) 1 Kings. 19, 18.
The place is called: pi oz DIN mar, and it | wonders
The only question is whether THE human being is superfluous and needs to be translated.

Be with everyone or who, so everyone who sacrifices, or whether to take it as an object, so that it would have to be translated:
"Who sacrifices people?" For the first interpretation, find the

But the angel is now Jehovah himself again; he
 In the same context, it is sometimes called Jehovah, sometimes angel.
 Jeho va's. Thus it appears in the 16th chapter of the 1st book of Moses « the
 The angel of Jehovah to Hagar; but she “called the name Jehovah, who spoke to her: You are the God of Looking.- In the 13th chapter of the same book, one reads verse 3:
 “And Jehovah said to Jacob: Return to the land of your fathers; ¯ but verse 11: And the angel of God-
 He spoke to me in a dream: I am the God of Be-Thel, go from this land and return to the land of yours Homeland. The angel Jehovah appears to Moses! s in Newer ones, and however, DN comes more often in this sense.

danter before, 3. B. Jef. 29, 19. Compare Winer's Hebrew Lex. p. 19.
 Gesenius in Thesaurus I, 24 translates the passage as sacrificati-turi inter homines, ie homines, qui sacrificaturi- sunt, and adds: minime, qui immolaturi sunt homines. Oppose it a the oldest translations the THE all as object and understand the passage about human sacrifice. The Septuagint says: Gûbbœre avdosroug, uosxor Y Eve pq, 7e ; also the Arabic and Syriac translation understand the passage about human sacrifice;

 In contrast, Targum Jonathan describes the passage in such a way that Cattle were sacrificed instead of humans. Cf. Bibl. poly-glossy. London. tom. III. under Hos. XIII, 2. The translation;
 "Whoever wants to kiss the calves should sacrifice a human being," would However, it makes good sense. Jehovah (and therefore also the calves) was holy. Whoever touched the altar of burnt offering, its image, was holy.
 was sacrificed. Only that person was allowed to touch the image.
 to kiss, who saves his person through the sacrifice of another man-fchen löseste. One sees from the sanctity of the altar, which is not was allowed to be touched if one was not offering sacrifice to the god Llanheimfallen wanted that kissing the image or the altar not just any expression of reverence by the Hebrews towards God was. Only the sanctified were allowed to kiss the god, but sanctified One became one by offering oneself up as a victim. Brought If one sacrifices a child, then one will have kissed God.
 because one gave the child a substitute for one's own life.
 Perhaps the right was later extended to include the right to...

The image also shows that she was allowed to kiss during an animal sacrifice.

332

a flame of fire in the bush); when Moses then saw the bush
As he approaches, it says: "And when Jehovah saw that he was..."
He went to see, and God called to him from the bushes. In the book the judge comes) the angel of Jehovah and sits down in The terebinth tree; it appears to Gideon and greets him.
him; but then it continues: "And Je turned..."
He said to him, "Go and save Israel from the hand of Midian; fie, I send you!" In the thirteenth
In a chapter of the same book, the angel of Jehovah appears Samson's parents; when he is recognized, Samson calls out...
Son's father Manvah: "We will die; for we have Ben God saw, and his wife answered: "If ever
If he had the desire to kill us, he wouldn't have had Brand and received a grain offering from our hand. »

Apparently, this is an angel or son of Jehovah.
nothing other than Jehovah himself, insofar as he is before the human beings appear, visibly emerge; and this happened in Temple through the altar of burnt offering. How Christianity applied this idea during its creation and from
It is known that... When the Jews in exile...
Having met Ferver's, this ancient angel or Son of Jehovah, the second of the seven Amshaspands, or Archangels of the Zend religion. In the Zend Avesta, seven Such Amshaspand's, the highest good angels, are listed; likewise
Many welcomed the Jews; we find these seven good ones.
Spirits still in the Book of Revelation under the Na (Men Sephiroth gathered around the divine throne). The
The first of these angels is the good God Or in the Zend religion.
Muzd himself. The second is called Bah man; he is king over the five following good archangels, King of Gorod man, namely of heaven, where the blessed dwell; he helps people cross the Chinevad Bridge, which is in ) Exodus 3:2, 4.) Judges 6:11, 12, 14.

) Revealed. John 1:4; 5:6.

He leads the kingdom of heaven, he is king of the world, he feeds and
It rules the universe and sits in the sky at the right hand.
Ormuzd on a golden throne. So honored.

Is this Bahman, that the Zend-Avesta is not merely Ormuzd's, but also Bahman's teaching is called. In the preposition related to this Bahman, but essentially from what differs from him is the god Mithras, whom we already above, alluding to the Old Testament angel of Jehovah have compared them. This god is, according to Persian... Teaching in Zend-Avesta, the first of the Izeds, those good ones Angels who are initially subordinate to the Ashvins. He was called Mediator; for as the sun god he formed the Mediation between Ormuzd, the good god of light, and Ahriman, the evil god of darkness, by daily, traversing the realms of both gods. Mihr, Sun, In Persian, it also means love; Mithras, the god of love, brings a reconciliation after 12,000 years between Ormuzd and Ahriman came into being; the evil averts Towards good; Mithras is the reconciler of the world. His festival was around the time of the winter solstice towards the end of the celebrated on the 8th of December, according to Caesar's Roman calendar. Cal. Jan., on December 25th, and already the churches. Father Augustine must admit that the Christians have the uncertainty. They knew the birthday of their religious founder and celebrated it on this site. ten days; "the Ehren," he says, "celebrate not because of the sun this day, but because of this, who created them!?) O The worship of this god Mithras later spread throughout the entire Roman Empire; Human sacrifices were made in its secret service. celebrated until the latest Roman imperial period. The Chaldea Those who performed the service were made particularly...

— u

1) Meörns Plut. de Isid. et Osir. c. 46. — The Evidences can be found in Kleuker's Zend-Avesta. August Sermon CXI, in the fifth volume of the Benedict Edition also to the accusation that they were made from the flesh of the oppressed Children were eating. More on that in his own place.

U

334

Among the later Jews, who remember their ancient angel Jehovah's Persian ideas of Bahman and Mišra'el. When they connected with thras, this angel is then called Metatron. This Metatron is called the Prince of Fear in the Talmud. (called tes); he is called the King of Angels in the book Zohar; For the entire host of angels is under his command. and likewise the whole world; he is a ruler over all rulers and one king over all kings, Prince of the Law, of the Temple, of Wisdom, exalted above all things¹ reign in heaven and on earth, only to Jehovah un²terthan; Jehovah says of him: "My name is in him," He is "the beginning of God's ways and brings the commandments." before God. According to some rabbis, This Metatron is Enoch, who appears in the first book of Moses. According to the interpretation of the five books of Moses by Rabbi Menachem was assured by the angel Metatron himself that He said he was Enoch. After the holy God asked me, this angel had taken "from the earth, so that I before the throne of glory and the wheels of the wheel³ gens serve and all business of the divine majesty. I was supposed to fix it, but then my meat was immediately put into a flame. me, my veins on fire, my bones in coals, the light of my eyelids into the brilliance of the lightning, my eyeballs into fiery torches, the hair of my My head into a flame, all my limbs into fire, Burning wings, my body in a burning fire transformed. From my right hand came fiery Flames were struck, and fire burned from my left. Bright torches, all around me was a roar, a storm wind and stormy weather, the voice was in front of and behind me a shocking movement 2).

1) Eisenmenger discovered. Judenth. I, 311.

) Eisenmenger designed. Judaism II, p. 395. 398.

d. Image of Jehovah in or on the Bun eslade.

Let us now step away from the altar of burnt offering, which stood before the
(The door of the tabernacle has its place) into the tabernacle itself. This is divided into two parts, the sacred.
8 and into the Holy of Holies D' wp; both abbeys lungs are separated by a curtain, in which Che rube artificially woven in; at least in later times;

In Moses' time, such artistry was not found among the Israelites were not to be remembered. The sacred was a kind of...
Anteroom for Jehovah; all the furnishings in it were equipped with Gold-plated. The show bread table stood here, on which them the twelve loaves for Jehovah lay, which were laid out on every Sabbath day. bath had to be replaced by fresh 2). On the same Several vessels stood on the tables, the purpose of which was discussed in the article.
Individuals leave no messages. The bet about Insert the passage from Exodus 25:29, where these implements are mentioned.
The saying is: "And make his bowls and his cups."
and fine jugs and fine bowls, with which [the drink sacrifice! be poured out; of pure gold you shall make them do." Winer, on the other hand, says,) fo Much is clear that the
The first two expressions are for dry things, the latter?
intended for liquids; there is no doubt that the third vessel contained the wine, which was used during the
The meal should not be missing, the fourth one should be a drinking vessel.
stood there; enough, we have equipment here for Food and drink; I only allow myself to speculate about to add that such a bowl can also be used for blood donations may have served. Furthermore, a large [item] stood in the sanctuary.

y Leviticus. 4, 7.) Leviticus. 24, 5-9.
) Winer's Bibl. Realw. II, 476. up and T.) Hess and MIN.

golden chandelier, on which seven lamps burned, which lit every evening; once again the sacred fire divided into seven flames, since Saturn is the seventh planet of the old one. In the middle of the holy place stood the golden one. Incense altar; it was small, only one ell long and wide. and two ells high, but it also had its four horns, which (were smeared with sacrificial blood). According to the biblical account... This altar was only used to honor the Je^s to light incense. This happened regularly at every morning and evening; any other use of the incense specifically designated for this altar, which, according to the Explanation of the Septuagint from Stacte, Seenagel, Galba^s If it contained frankincense and salt, it was punishable by death. forbidden). However, if this smaller, golden one now appears dene altar, in comparison with the altar of burnt offering, very innocent, since he only claimed incense for himself takes; so I cannot protect him, supported based on a message from Herodotus, in a bad way^s I thought. Smoking was an essential part of it. part of the Baal cult"); the use which is associated with Baal That it is rejected as idolatrous is undisputed with Jehovah. in daily practice. Now Herodotus reports in the already Chapter 183 of the first book of the above was discussed. great temple of Baal in Babylon, so that one there had two Al^s I have a large one, on which large animals were sacrificed. would, and a holier, small, golden one, on wel^s Only suckling creatures may be sacrificed.

1) Exodus 25:31; Exodus 30:7-8. All these implements were of solid gold; Joseph. de bell. Jud. I, 5; Pom^s Pejus entered the Holy of Holies during the destruction of the Temple. and saw them there, without taking them away.

2) 3. Mof. 4, 7; 2. Mom. 37, 25.) Exodus. 30, 38.

) 2 Kings 23:5; Jeremiah 7:9; but also the Semitic cults over^s bapt 1 Kings 11:8; 2 Kings 22:17; also during calf herding 1 Kings 11:33

337

The relationship between the two altars in the Temple at Jeru^s The situation in Babylon is too close to that of those in the city.

one should not assume that there are also that more sacred golden altar in the Temple in Jerusalem. Infants were sacrificed. This AL also demanded blood. Tar. Once a year on the Day of Atonement and at every A priest's sin offering required the horns of the priest himself. (are smeared with blood); infants, who are also among the Ara. Those who were sacrificed in Bern are considered a sacrifice of particular importance. Purity, as is only fitting for this altar in the Holy Land. chic, have been considered. The kinship of those in the above ca. The temple furnishings in Baby described in the chapter by Herodotus. lon with that of the Jehovah's Temple in Jerusalem is striking. lend that we must linger on this for a moment longer.

“The sanctuary in Babylon,” says Herodotus, “has below (also another temple, Cynos, chapel). That same A large golden image of Zeus sits before him. There stands a large golden table, also the base (zodiac) and the throne is made of gold. Outside the In the chapel stands a golden altar. There is also... a large altar on which the perfect sacrifices brought by small livestock, for on the golden Nothing may be offered to the altar except milk. suckles. On the larger altar, the Chaldeans burn. annually, when they celebrate a festival to this god, for a thousand Talents of incense. Also, at this holy place stood at that time still a column made solid of gold, twelve "Ellen high." — Here we have the entire setup of the Tabernacle; only the seven-branched candelabrum is missing. Firstly A large altar is named, on which the Animals are sacrificed; this is the Jewish burnt offering.

Exodus 30:10; Leviticus 4:7; Leviticus 16:18. Regarding sin offerings Only the horns of the burnt offering altar were removed by non-priests. painted; Leviticus 4:25, 30.

22

338

tar; the large golden image of twelve cubits appears as a later personification of this altar in human form.

Herodotus does not specify the exact location of this altar. took it, but he apparently did not apply it at first. the golden altar; it will be, like the altar of burnt offering in Jerusalem, further away from the Holy of Holies be. First, before the Holy of Holies, the chapel, stands a golden altar, like the one in the Temple of the Hebrews that was the case; the golden incense altar stood in the sanctuary. According to Herodotus' description, the golden table stands in front of the image of Zeus; this golden image is found among the Hebrews— likewise, the table was covered with bread; but with them stood he is in the Holy Place and is from the Ark of the Covenant through a foreword. The slope is separated. In the sanctuary, the chapel, is located To Babylon, a golden image of the god, seated on a golden thrones, and this throne stands again on a Underlay, Boon. This is also found in Jerusalem. The Paddoov is the Ark of the Covenant, the throne is formed by the Cherubim, and on the throne — Jehovah is likewise described as To be seated in a golden image. What is the purpose of a throne on the Bun? Deslade without a column? Isn't that what everyone says? Jehovah He was said to have sat above the Ark of the Covenant: and so it was! First in the new temple, after returning from captivity, No image of Jehovah was tolerated anymore. This is what happened next. More details.

According to the biblical account, there was nothing in the Holy of Holies. than the Ark of the Covenant, a wooden box 2 1/2 cubits long and 1 1/2 ells wide and high, inside and out with gold documented. According to Philo, the gold plates were supposed to be very solid. being); the lid was, according to Exodus 25:17, through= made of gold. There is nothing to contradict the assumption that These news reports were founded; for however poor the youth... Given the existence of a diverse people in earlier times, one would surely expect that

— — —

1) Philo vit. Mos. lib. III.

the nation's greatest shrine, so much gold has been placed on it can drive, as one could for the decoration of this drawer was allowed. Inside the Ark of the Covenant, according to Exodus...
 25, 21., the "Law, Nothing further, as in the first book the kings) is expressly assured, as two stone Law tablets; however, Exodus 16:33 commands that also a basket of manna as a memento "before the law" to place, and according to Numbers 17:10, the verdant one should also Aaron's staff was kept before the Law.
 The statement was interpreted according to Hebrews 9:4 as meaning that these items had actually been in the drawer; only removed This suggests that they probably never existed at all.
 is only permitted by keeping it "before the law".
 spoken, which probably means nothing other than that one
 I placed it in the Holy of Holies, before the Ark of the Covenant.
 So, the only remaining contents of the Ark of the Covenant would be the Law. We
 We will temporarily leave this contents of the drawer and turn to... to its exterior. On the lid of the same, which is for—especially sacred, as evidenced by the news that He was made entirely of gold, two councils stand—
 Blessed beings, the Cherubim. Who are they? The Night-
 Judgment in the Bible does not provide a clear answer; 2. Mof.
 25:16 is commanded by Jehovah: "Put in the ark the
 The law that I will give you, and I will make a lid of pure gold, two and a half cubits in length, and an ell and a half its width, and make two Cherubs of gold, of rounded work, you shall see them.
 make a [chet] at both ends of the lid.
 rub at this end and a cherub at the other end,
 On the lid you shall make the cherubs, on both fine Ends. And the cherubs shall spread their wings over it.
 ber, covering the lid and their an- with their wings faces turned towards each other; the anger should be placed on the lid.
) 1 Kings 8, 9.
 22

340

The view of the cherubs is directed. From this place I learn-
 We speak of the form of the cherubs as nothing more than that They had wings and faces. According to Genesis 3:24.

ten fie guarded paradise with a fiery sword and They therefore also had to possess arms and hands. In the Books of Samuel, in the palms and the books of the Könige), where the cherubs are mentioned more often, it is discussed about Her form gave no further message. Ezekiel Schilling dert fie) as a being in human form with four wings,
 The feet of a calf and four faces, namely with the Faces of a man, a lion, a bull, and an eagle, who
 The entire body is covered with eyes. This description is incorrect.
 probably among the Mosaic books, where only one Ge—
 The view and two wings are the subject. Philo gives information about the
 This being gave no further message than that he said, They are “winged images”. Josephus also calls them winged animals, whose actual form was never revealed before Moses mand saw and which one could not even imagine).
 With these Jewish messages, a section of the San-Chuniathon can be compared in whose fragments at Eusebius). Here the Phoenician historian says, Tautos have insignia of the royal dignity of Kronos invented; these consisted of four eyes, two from the front and two from behind, two of which were gently closed; then in four wings at the shoulders, two of which are used for flight spread out, two were lowered.

I don't want to indulge in speculation, like after These hints were probably shaped by the cherubim.
 want to be; apparently we must see ourselves as a togetherness

) 1st Sam. 4, 4; 2. Sam. 6, 2; Pf. 18, 11; Pf. 80, 2 Solomon
 He placed two cherubs, each ten cubits long, in the back room of the temple.
 erect height and brought cherub figures on all walls and Curtains of the temple. 1 Kings 6:23 ff.

2) Ezech. 1, 5. ff.) Phil. vit. Mos. lib. III.

) Joseph. antique III, 6; VIII, 3.) Euseb. praep. ev. I, 10.

similar in other religions of the Orient were, as symbols of divine attributes. If now but the Hebrews placed two on the lid of their ark of the covenant such deformed beings could initially be placed on the God Jehovah, it can't be thought of that cheaply. They would have, as long as there was an Ark of the Covenant, Jehovah, who was supposed to sit between the cherubs, as a imagined a disembodied, spiritual being; if the whole salo—monastic temples were full of images of such beings, which, besides If Jehovah stood on the Ark of the Covenant, then so too must Jehovah on the Ark of the Covenant itself an image was.

It is incompatible with the from the outset. Concepts of the spirituality of a divine being, the same on to restrict a certain space. The form of a Ge—The object stand is created by occupying a certain space. determined; that which occupies a finite space has its The boundary has a form. Jehovah dwells in the temple; All Hebrews must journey to him; at numerous places Len, as we shall see later, is praised for being Mount Zion is Jehovah's dwelling place; and this dwelling place is further restricted: Jehovah sits in the Most Holy Place. on the wings of the cherubim and sets his feet on the lid of the Ark of the Covenant, which is his footstool. We We need to examine this more closely.

Jehovah speaks Leviticus 16:2: Speak to Aaron, who to a brother, that he should not enter the sanctuary at all times behind the curtain in front of the lid on the drawer, so that He will not die, for I will appear in the cloud above him. Lid. Verse 13: "And he shall put the incense on the fire." before Jehovah, that the fire of the incense would cover on the law, so that he would not die. And he took of the bull's blood and squirt with his finger over the front of the lid facing east and in front of the He shall break the lid seven times with his blood.

342

Singer." The lid of the Ark of the Covenant is very sharply defined here. as the place where Jehovah resides; to a gei—

A slender being cannot survive in such a narrow confinement. to be remembered. The cloud in which Jehovah appears "Will, is nothing more here than the steam from the smoker." altar; the steam from this altar shall rise over the image of the Ges hova's approach, which is on the wings of the cherubim over the lid sits, the same before the entering high priest to conceal, who would have to die if he saw Jehovah from Anger as seen from the perspective. The cherubim form, as described. it is not unclear, a chair or throne, on where Jehovah sits. I remind you of the ancient Ge custom, which has remained in practice until our time, on the figures on the chairs or thrones of the princes To display tiger animals to symbolically represent the ruler's power to express. On the Ark of the Covenant, it was the gods Animals, symbols of Jehovah's power and wisdom, which served as a throne; the parts of the cherubim from The bull and the lion should represent the power that comes from man. shen and eagle besides the many eyes the wisdom Je hova's represent. The wings of the two cherubim had to meet in the middle above the Ark of the Covenant to form a to form a seat; the heads bowed towards the lid, as it seems, to serve as a base for the hands of the statue. to serve. Biblical passages in which the wings of the cherubim Places described as Jehovah's seat are frequently found. 1 Samuel 4:4: The people sent to Shiloh and they took from there the ark of the covenant of Jehovah, the hosts, the (sitting on the cherubs). 2 Samuel 6:2: "David and with "to reign over the cherubs"; but we must defend ourselves for ourselves to adhere to its literal meaning, and according to this is called 520 SW which contains Cherubis. Compare Gesenii thesaurus II, 634.

DIN IV De Wette usually translates this expression

All the people left Baal~~h~~Judah to go up from there~~h~~ bring the Ark of God, in which the name of Jehovah is inscribed.
 invoked the host of hosts who sits upon the cherubs will be.” 2 Kings 19:15: “Hezekiah prayed before Jehovah and He said: Jehovah, God of Israel, who is upon the cherubs
 You sit, you are the only God of all the kingdoms of the earth).
 1 Chronicles 14:6: David and all Israel went to Kiryath~~h~~ Jearim, in Judah, to bring up the ark of God Je~~h~~
 hova's, who sits on the cherubs, where the name is called~~h~~
 Psalm 80:2: Shepherd of Israel, listen, the
 You lead Joseph like sheep, you who are on the cherubs
 “You sit, let it shine!” Psalm 99:1: Jehovah is King, it
 The nations tremble; he sits upon the cherubs, it swans—“Ket the earth.” Ezekiel 9:3: “And the glory of God—”
 The Lord of Israel rose from the cherub, over which they was, towards the threshold of the house. — The lid of the
 The Ark of the Covenant is referred to as Jehovah's footstool.
 1 Chronicles 29:2: King David rose up on fine
 He stood up and said: Hear me, my brothers and my people!
 I had intended to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of God and our footstool~~h~~
 God's relic. Psalm 99:5: “Exalt the Lord, our Lord.” God, and fall down at the footstool of his feet, holy
 "He is!" Psalm 132:7: Let us go to a fine place.
 "Nung, fall down to the stool of fine feet."

Where so clearly of a sitting, of a sh—
 If it's traded for feet, then you also have to have one.
 to have a physical being in mind; a spirit can neither a house to turn into a home, another seat, another foot~~h~~ Demand a stool. All circumstances compel acceptance.
 that Jehovah, who is on the wings of the cherubim
 It was originally an image that sat above the Ark of the Covenant.
 The seating and the footstool clearly indicate a man.

1) The same passage in Isaiah 37:16.

The figure of this image, however, could also that of a bull, symbol of the divine chen Kraft, since the horns were also on the burnt offering and The incense altar appears, and Moloch with the bull's head was depicted. But we have a most peculiar

 The remaining space, which could have been described as a human face, wants to. When David is pursued by Saul, the Michal lowered David to the window and laid the Thera-phim, household god, in David's bed, also seeks through a Braid of goat hair, the hair going away from the picture to replace). This attempt at deception speaks volumes

1) 1 Samuel 19:11 ff. According to chapters 17 and 18 of the book
 The judge sanctifies a mother before Jehovah, one thousand one hundred.
 Sekel Silbers and lets the metal be used for her son Mich a to have a goldsmith make a cast image of Jehovah, also A carved, overlaid image and therapy. Micha
 He places the images in a house of worship, makes one of his sons his...
 Priest and opens an oracle Jehovah's Judgment. 18:5. After According to the Book of Judges, there is no doubt that in The Judges period had images of Jehovah and those that were from gold or gold-plated items were used for a large event.
 He held a drawing of the god. This is evident, except for the one just...
 The passage mentioned above, in the story of Gideon. This ifrae-
 The religious hero is pardoned by Jehovah through appearances.
 (Judges 6:23), he also destroys the altar at Jehovah's command.
 and the pillar which my father erected to Baal and Asherahhad judged, and is filled with the Spirit of Jehovah (v. 34). There: with which one could not ask, fine victory over the Midianites will be won by the multitude of warriors, and thus Jehovah's glory
 Because his numbers are diminished, he dismisses 22,000 (!) of the combat-ready troops.
 Hebrews and defeats the Midianites with 300 men so that not fewer than 120,000 men remain on the field. (Judgement 7:7) (Chapter 8, 10.) The Israelites now want to make him king;
 But he does not speak. 8:23: "I will not rule over you,
 And my Son shall not rule over you; Jehovah shall rule over you. But I have one request of you: give Anybody can give me the earring of their prey. Of these Earrings that were said to have weighed 1700 skeletons, bar for the fact that the household god has a human face, over-

 It had a predominantly human form. The form of this image
 One can probably infer the shape of the other statue from this.
 which appears in David's circle and explicitly refers to Jehovah is called. This statue irrefutably proves that to David's time from a pictureless Jehovah's Witness cult, no Speech can be. The priests of Nob find David's number Saul had them killed. One of them, Abyathar, flees with the image of Jehovah, in whose sanctuary David just as he had kept Goliath's captured sword.
 (1 Samuel 21:9), how the Philistines took Saul's weapons in Hanging the temple of Astarte (1 Samuel 31:10). The
 The priest brings the image to David and his horde.
 He treats it as Jehovah, attributing the same to his trains with and it also happened in the Philistine city of Zi—complaint, which King Achis had assigned him as his place of residence was. Before every undertaking, Jehovah is asked to...
 Council was asked; e.g., 2 Samuel 30:7: "And David said to Abiathar the priest, son of Ahimelech: Bring But show me the exaggerated picture! And Abiathar brought the exaggerated image of David. And David asked Jehovah and said: Should I pursue this band, I will will befall you? — For there were probably signs on the picture-brought those who answered yes or no. — Had now the-David's image of Jehovah is a human figure, a human being.
 Face, one might surmise, that even that
 The face of a man was seen above the Ark of the Covenant.

"Gideon exaggerated the situation and presented it in fine city in Ophra, (Judges 8:27). That this image to the Jehovah belonged to him, says the preceding narrative, which tells the who tries to portray Gideon as the most zealous servant of Jehovah,
 This is also made clear enough by the following verse 33.
 confirmed where it says: "And it happened when Gideon died
 That was when the sons of Israel again fornicated with Baal and Baal-Berith made himself into a god...

However, the Semites would have during their star worship
 no human image of the god was needed, since the gods appeared visibly in the sky and was for the sun god the Fire presented a very natural image; only man is too inclined to project his human qualities onto the to transfer deity, so that these peoples too may not be on a humanization of their star gods would have had to come
 The idea that God can act on Earth
 He must hear the prayers, observe the people, and Sacrificial meat, bread and wine, and fragrant steam
 He finds pleasure in the fates of his followers.
 By acting on behalf of the nation, he also compelled them to the assumption that the celestial god has human organs, It acts within a human body. The first book of Moses creates man in God's image; when in
 The truth is, the opposite is true, namely that man
 He forms his god according to human characteristics; thus Let us take from this passage so much that the
 A more noble human form in Jehovah's service, later any other
 The idea of Jehovah was suppressed, and that probably also the Hidden image on the Ark of the Covenant had human form have. In the later Jehovah cult, the pre-Positions of fire and human form; the god has the
 The shape of a man surrounded by fire. (From Ezekiel) Jehovah sits on a throne with fiery wheels, from which led by cherubim. "The form of these animals, it is said,
 "was like burning coals, like the on They saw the torches; lightning flashed from the fire; the animals

—dm — — — — —

) Ezekiel Chapter 1. In Daniel, Jehovah has the form of a old man. Dan. 7, 9: I looked until chairs were set up were placed and an elderly man sat down, his garment as Snow white and the hair of his head like pure wool, his
 A chair, flames, and its wheels blazing fire. A
 A stream of fire flowed and emanated from him; a thousand times thousands.
 They served him, and myriad times myriads stood before him.

They ran back and forth, as if watching a flash of lightning.
 Looking at the wheels and their work was like the gaze of a Chrysoliths; their rims, tall and terrible, were full Eyes all around, on all four legs. Wherever the mind goes.
 When it was time to go, they went; when the animals went, they went the wheels beside them, and when the animals rose up from the earth, so the wheels rose; the spirit of the Animals were caught in the wheels. Above the animals' heads was the shape of a celestial fortress, like the sight of the Krystalls. Beneath this fortress, her wings had just been—directed, one at the other. And I heard the sound.
 their wings, like the sound of great waters when they went—like the voice of the Almighty, a sound like the sound of a camp; when they stood still, they let Their wings drooped. And there was thunder above the fortress.
 which was above her head. The following is what already follows.
 The above description of Jehovah: "Above the
 The vestment over her head was like the look of sapphire.
 stone in the shape of a throne, and on the shape of the Thrones, a figure resembling the appearance of a human being on top of it. And I saw the view of gold ore, like Viewing fire within, all around; from viewing its From my loins upwards I saw what looked like fire, and there was a radiance all around. Like the sight of the bow, which The sky in the clouds is on a rainy day, so the approach was the splendor all around. That was the appearance of the
 The form of Jehovah's glory. And I beheld and fell upon my face and heard the voice of One,
 "He who spoke!" — That this description of the Prophet
 There is no doubt that the ancient Ark of the Covenant lies at its core;
 She is glorified and taken up to heaven; Jehovah goes followed by the winged cherubim; under (the throne finds fiery coals), a picture of the al-Ezekiel 10:6: "And it happened, when he commanded the man who was dressed in linen, and gefprodyen: Take fire between whose lower room the sacrificial fire burned. Here too.

So a being sits above the cherubim; the throne is not empty, and Jehovah has human form.

But what was inside that mysterious interior?
This ark? According to biblical accounts, the tablets of the law.
Had it contained tablets of law: the founders of the new
The Temple would surely have brought back an Ark of the Covenant—places, just as they do with the other sacred implements to restore their new temple. But the Federal—
The shop is no longer found in the new temple; the reform Motorists do not know the need for such a thing, the people had to make do without the Ark of the Covenant; this is a significant tendes testimonial that this holy ark is in the eyes of the Reformers considered it an object of idolatry. In the
The introduction already mentioned that one with Bohlen and Vatke, they must accept the ten commandments.
In their biblical form, they do not date back to Moses.
However, even the most rudimentary nomads feel the need without some legal provisions, and even Moses will in that case, to give such things: only the mosaic
The Ten Commandments contain, in part, regulations which never were followed, the entire version of it speaks in favor of a later time; nor do the prophets anywhere refer to it Mosaic tablets of law. Let us think, for example, of the one above. mentioned David's image of Jehovah and compare it to the First commandment, Exodus 20:4: "You shall not make for yourself an image..."

- - - - -

emerging from the wheels beneath the cherubim: he went in and stepped next to the wheel. And a cherub stretched his hand between the cherubim after the fire between the cherubim and took it and gave it into the hands of the man dressed in linen.
— When Isaiah saw Jehovah in human form on the throne sees and fears to die because he is a sinful man.
I saw a seraph flying with a glowing stone.
come and thereby purify him; Isaiah 6:6.

chen, nor any parable, which is in heaven above and what is on the earth below and what is in the water under the Earth; how could it be possible that this commandment already led to
 Would David's time have existed? However, as already mentioned,
 This is not to claim that Moses had no laws at all—certain provisions; certain norms, even if Since they are only transmitted orally, every measure of People living side by side; but that's highly doubtful.
 Is it that one could already write in Moses' time,
 At most, hieroglyphic symbols were used. It could However, Moses now presents a hieroglyphic representation of the
 The content of his, certainly very simple commandments, as they are in a—a part of our Mosaic commandments is still contained
 They may have placed it in the Ark of the Covenant; there are only good reasons for this.
 speak in favor of us being under the so-called “law” in The Ark not the law, but the God who—
 The Hebrew expression for "the same thing" means to understand.
 The law contained in the chest is called Eduth. Now
 We learn from Sanchuniathon that among the Phoenicians
 the supreme god, the king of the gods, was called Adodos;
 Both words are closely related, without Doubts have one and the same origin. According to Saturn's will...
 This king, Adodos, reigns over the land besides Astarte.
 the country. If one goes to the etymological origin of the Eduth back, fo shows itself first as root word s the
 The term means not only testimony, but also witness.
 and even Isaiah 55:4 (Law-giver, leader); white ter is derived from this, and this word means just-(both witness, as law, testimony): should not now also hy means the law and the legislator, so that so originally the God who gave the law, in the Where would the Ark of the Covenant have been located? For this, already through the bis—

) Sanchuniath. with Eusebius. praep. Evangelical I, 10.

) Gesenius in the thesaur. II, 999.) Gesen. at the beginning Places.

350

The following further fairly well-founded assumptions are supported by:
 Circumstances. The tabernacle is also called a dwelling or tent.

(called Eduth). This expression openly suggests a bar on the fact that one understands under the Eduth a being I have it; because surely one doesn't build something for free once. inner tablets an apartment; but then it should be in the To live in Jehovah's dwelling. Had one now been under the Eduth did not understand Jehovah; one would probably rather— They said: Jehovah's dwelling place, as the dwelling place of Eduth; because the food banks could not have been considered more important to be, as Jehovah himself. Furthermore, the Ark itself is not called not only the Ark of the Law, the Ark of the Covenant, but also God's Ark, Jehovah's Ark :). What else could this be? (meaning that Jehovah was in the Ark)? The interior The loading was his stay on the trains, where one could find these his dwelling, in which the god from a pasture was carried on the other hand, in front of the people. wrapped. If one stopped, wanted to make a sacrifice, a feast celebrate; so they took the picture out and placed it on the Throne of the Cherubim: in the temple it is always on this They have sat on thrones. The prophets also see Jehovah. truly in human form on the throne between the Cherubim sit; so says Isaiah of his calling to Prophets Chapter 6, 1: “In the year of King Uzziah's death, there I saw the Lord sitting on a high and exalted platform. His throne and his train filled the temple. Seraphim stood above him, each had six wings.

0 Nn ore or 725) w.

– mm? or DIOR TII 8 3.9. 1. Sam. 4, 11. 13. 17. 21. 22;
1. Sam. 5, 1; 1. Sam. 5, 3; 1. Sam. 6, 2. 8. 11. 18.

Vatke suspects that the image of Jehovah in the Ark is a holy one. It was a stone, to which the tablets of the law were later attached; cf. Vatke, the Religion of the Old Testament, p. 321.

331

And one called out to the other and said: “Holy, holy, Holy is the Lord of hosts. And the house was filled with smoke. Then I said: Woe is me, I am ruined!

loren." This also includes the one already mentioned above.
 See Ezekiel chapter 1. Also the fact that Jehovah in When someone speaks to the Holy of Holies using human speech organs, it will be
 To speak for an image in human form. According to 1 Samuel.
 Chapter 3. Jehovah calls upon Samuel three times, and each time he believes.
 This one, Eli had called him; then Jehovah held a long
 A more formal address to him. Even the shape of the chest speaks volumes.
 for it to become the container of a human-like figure
 I have served; it is 2½ ells long and 1½ ells wide;
 Stone tablets of such length and width would have been needed by Moses cannot carry it. The drawer is shaped like a coffin;
 A considerable width was necessary because of the image of Jehovah, formed in a seated position to sit on the throne
 It had to be. The Philistines simply call the Ark "the God of Israel." It says in 1 Samuel 4:6: "What does Did the sound of this great cry resound in the camp of the Hes Brethren? And they realized that the ark of Jehovah was in the la They came. Then the Philistines were afraid; for they
 They said: God has come into the camp, and they said:
 Woe to us, who will save us from the hand of this might—God's tyrant? This passage is all the more peculiar because The biblical author only gave such a language to the Philistines puts it in his mouth and thereby shows that even in his
 The conviction was that the Ark was for God. For, as the ex
 As the story goes, the Philistines were not afraid of the Ark.
 Instead, they struck down the Hebrews, took away the ark, and held them captive for seven months. At one Elsewhere the Philistines ask: "What shall we do?" with the Ark of the God of Israel? Send the Ark
 "The God of Israel is gone!" — The Hebrews also call

) 1st Sam. 6, 1.) 1st Sam. 5, 8, 11; 1. Sam. 6, 3.

'The Ark of God. It says Soph 3:11: "Behold the Ark of the covenant, the Lord of all the earth, will be before (go to the Jordan). When the Philistines...
 Ark of the Covenant, held captive for a long time, was returned to the Jewish Bring the border town of Bethsemes and this box here too, as elsewhere, demonstrates their power by the fact that in their Nearly 50,000 human lives (fifty thousand men) perish, (Do the people of Bethsemes complain?): Who is able to stand?

 before Jehovah, this holy God? And to whom should he "Leave us?" Apparently, then, the God's chest is indeed
 Not the box itself, but its contents. After Joshua 24:1. The Israelites assemble and come forward, God; David dances before the Ark of the Covenant, Uzzah dies before the Ark of the Covenant, and in both places the biblical
 The text contains the expression "before Jehovah," "before God."
 That the image of the god had been in the ark, However, those who are involved in the Jehovah's service-related cults. A holy ark is not unique characteristic of Jehovah's worship; one finds a such as in the religions of other peoples, among the Etruscans (kern and Germans!), among Greeks and Romans'

*) This spot was already a point of contention in Buxtorf's time.
 have been. A certain Masius and Drusius claimed, Here the Ark is called God; they based this on the accent Sakepbkaton, which requires the translation: the Ark of the Covenant, the ruler of all the world. Against this, he objected.
 Buxtorf hist. arc. foederis, cap. 1, ein, es sey diese Ueberfelung not necessary. De Wette translates: The Ark of the Covenant of the Lord of the whole earth. However, nothing can stop us. to give the position, as above. Overall, the meaning boils down to...
 One thing above all; Jehovah is inseparable from the Ark of the Covenant closely connected.

2) 1st Sam. 6, 20.) 2nd Saturday. 6, 14.) 1 Chr. 14, 10.

5) Eus eb. praep. evang. 2, 3. The passage concerning the Deut fchen (Tacit. Germ. c. 40.) has already been discussed in detail above give.

6) Pause on. VII, 19; Ovid. ars. am. II, 609. ff.

333

and Egyptians). Of the latter, who were border neighbors and old comrades of the Hebrews especially here (Herodotus reports) that the priests belong to Papremis a picture of the god Mars in a small gilded case temples kept and on the eve of a festival, when the sun set, on a four-wheeled vehicle (on one such person drives, according to Ezekiel, also Jehovah) into a whose holy bands had been carried. Two of them led the way. Armed parties engage in battle. Also Even in recent times, the French have been in Egypt such processes, where priests possess a holy ark (was found buried on ancient monuments). Appian reports on a golden image of Apollo. (at least he names the god) in Carthage, who is based on a golden chapel stood, which in weight a "Worth had a thousand talents." On old Coins can also be found depicting the Moloch of the Ammonites on a chapel like this 5). It is strange to find in this Bel the legends among the Greeks of Dionysus, the God, whose kinship with Moloch and Jehovah Dionysus was occasionally pointed out by us. Dionysus, created by a rain of fire, will be born as soon as he is born. Ren is, with his mother Semele from Cadmus into a Boxes were placed and thrown into the sea; the tide drives them on. the box in the area of Brazil). Another besides The aforementioned legend of Pausanias I is still far away. More significant. After the destruction of Troy, Eurypylus received Eurypylus made a box from the prey, in which an image was hidden. of Dionysus, which Hephaestus himself had made. Eurypylus opened the box; but as he saw the image ) Plut. de Isis et Osiride VII, p. 446. Reisk.) Herod. II, 63.

) Description de l'Egypte Vol. II, 44. *) Appian. bell. Pun. VIII, 173.

) Moïse et les Phéniciens I, p. 355.) Pausanias III, 24.

7) Paus. VII, 19.

23

354

When he saw it, he went insane. Here, the one into the Laden, closed God, whom no uninitiated person may behold, without exposing oneself to the most terrible punishment), as this also the case for those who belonged to the Jewish Covenant. The loading screen was viewed.

Ea now confesses herself. More verse in the more frequently cited tenth treatise on the Phoenicians, page 356, "it is not in It is the least likely that the gold-plated Holy Ark among the Israelites, the transfer of an ancient... It is customary. This is all the less doubtful since after the prophet Amos 5:26. the Israelites still in the desert carried the chapel of Moloch: "You carried the hut of your Melech and the Chiun (bearer) of your pictures that you have made. -

However, regarding the contents of the Ark of the Covenant, other traces are present, from which it emerges. It is possible to use human bones, ashes of cremated remains. legs kept within it. Just as the god kept his firm Once he got his seat, the box was no longer important to him. necessary; it will then be used solely for the safekeeping of such holy things. have served as bones; but as long as he was on the trains If it was carried in the box itself, such things become holy.

1) The Greeks often mention the mysterious caste, which represents a encompasses God or heroes, connected with the sea, a circumstance that indicates that these god chests are about the sea was brought to Greece by the Phoenicians were. Aleus lays his daughter and the child she had borne by Heracles had put it in a box, which he threw into the sea. (Pausanias VIII, 4); Acrisius closes the Danaë and her He put his son Perseus in a chest and threw him into the sea; Kasten swims to Seriphus (Apollo II, 4). Pallas places Erechtheus in a box; when Pandrosus and Herse... Opening the same door, against the prohibition, they behold a young dragon. They flew into a frenzy at the sight and plunged into the sea or from the Acropolis (Ovid. Metam. II, 542; Pausan. J, 18.).

Objects were located next to his statue. I have been already under the article Moloch to the curious spot as pointed out in Ezekiel 23:37, where this prophet says:
 "Reveal to them their abominations, that they committed adultery"
 and there is blood on their hands, and that they worship their idols
 She committed adultery and even her children, whom she bore me—
 They gave it to them as food. Nor did they do this to me:
 They defiled my sanctuary on the same spot Days and desecrated my days of rest. For when They slaughtered their children to idols, so they came bring them into my sanctuary on that same day, to to profane; and behold, this is what they have done in my "House." — This passage offers a profound insight into the whole Horrible beings of the old Jehovah's Service do. When Were the human sacrifices offered? The Prophet said so.
 No secret of it, on the day of rest, on the Sabbath. And to whom was it Is this Sabbath holy? To Jehovah, and likewise to Mo—hole. When the sacrifices in the valley of Hinnom were finished, then they moved One goes into the city to the temple. One can also see this, as already mentioned above, from the nineteenth chapter of the Prophet Jeremiah. Then, as the prophet Jeremiah said, expresses, "the sanctuary desecrated," something was taken before, what is an abomination to the Prophet, he even dislikes it not to mention. The action itself can be understood from this point.
 not explained, however, she says so much that the men-
 The offerings had just ended when the action in the Tempel was performed. In contrast, other after-focus on a closer track. It is found that in the service Moloch's bones were considered a great sanctuary.
 Clemens Romanus reports that in Tyre the tomb of Hercules show; according to Mela 2) the Tem—
 The pel of Melqarth in Gades is holy because the bones

) Clem. Rom m. recogn. X, 24. "Herculis sepulchrum. , ?) Mel. III, 6., "cur sanctum sit, ossa ejus ibi sita efficiunt.,

of the god there were kept; according to these passages (It is hardly doubtful anymore) that even the "sanctuaries" of Hercules, which the Phoenicians during their emigration² carried with them 2), holy bones were; these bones

) Compare Movers Phon. I, 356.

*) Just. XVIII, 4: "Sacris Herculis repetitis exsilio sedes quae-runt." Just. XLIV, 5: "Cum Gaditani a Tyro sacra Herculis in Hispaniam transtulissent" etc. According to the news at the The ancients used the sacred chests, which were particularly located in the gravel. to find a Chinese Dionysus service, or even to do something about it to conceal something full of mystery, which the imagination of Horrible threads are woven. Suidas says under ἐριονείη in feix-nem Lexicon: ῥασιόρας λεγεῖν αἰὲρ ῥοδίον. The Athenians celebrated the aggyhagic in honor of Athena, a felt that was sure from the Astart service; at this festival, says Suidas, ῥοδίον γυναικῶν ἐριονείη Γεκοῖον ῥοδίον ῥοδίον. The Young² The women who carried the boxes were called ggy these were æcycyeig yuvaixes, chaste, holy virgins. The &gGHroy But the mysterious thing that was carried in the box is... Suidas, a pale thing, something pernicious. Valerius Flaccus Argonaut II also mentions the cistas in the Dionysus service. plenas tacida formidine. Clemens Alexandr. says admon. advers. gent. p. 14. ed. Col., he wanted to uncover the secrets, which lay in the sacred chests: these were namely oyoaui ai. rugeruideg xc rolunai al rorava rolvoupala, xovdpoe dd, xal dcn, Ὀπίον Ἰοννοὺν Βαοοαρον, goal, Kap-dec, vapgnxes, xirrois, Plols, unxaves. In contrast, Cle- notes mens in the same writing p. 12, that in the hetrusian kifte of Dionysus rod Jiovbcov aidioiy arexeciro. In the above The place mentioned in Pausanias was Liovvcov xai ayaluc in the box. The Egyptian sacred boxes suggest a Storage of bodily remains. Also the Hebrew Aus² Print for the Ark of the Covenant MIN means much as a coffin; 1. Mof.

20, 25, but of course also means any other box; 2 Kings. 12, 10. Eus eb. praep. evang. X, 12. speaks of such a Coffin in which the remains of Apis were kept and who was buried in the temple; he takes the story from Nymphodorus. Chrysostomus serm. 67. believes one were undoubtedly kept in a sacred box, which man on military campaigns and during emigrations as a saint⁸ the nation with fi) took, as did the Jewish The Ark of the Covenant accompanied the Hebrews to war. But now... It further wonders: where did the bones in these come from? Boxes? Movers suspects), it's just folk belief. The fact that the bones of the god were hidden in this shop would be; on the contrary, it is very likely that those c. Bones of children who had previously been taken to had been consecrated for magical purposes in the sacred fire. "Wur⁸ who buried the remains of the child victims in this casket, he says he, «so it explains itself, how from the narrowly encased sleep senen Raum, in which the gruesome secreta Chaldaeorum mo⁸ those, the plague could really break out, when a Roman fcher soldier in the temple of Baal⁸Chomäus the container opened). This assumption is not only supported by this Confirmation that the Arabs gave the boy whom they annually sacrificed, under the pillar (the image of the god), which led to served as a sacrificial stone, buried), but also through The above passage in Ezekiel, and no less through the narrative

I had to remove Joseph's remains from Egypt, Ray BapBapwv Exeivoy evnoiws e ayloynwy rowuyroy Jeovs. Spu⁸ The veneration of relics among the Greeks (Cyril and Alexius, lib.). VI. contr. Jul. p. 204. from Plato: moo0xuyyoouev reg cry Inxas. According to these notes, in the holy shop, which among Phoenicians (E use b. praep. evang. II, 3.), Egyptians, Hebrews, Trojans, Greeks, Germans, Hetrusians and Romans Mern finds three different holy objects kept there⁸ den, 1) the image of the god, 2) holy bones, 3) all kinds of Ra⁸ rities which were used in mystical practices. Not every box contains all types of items. have been.

) The Phoenician J, 357.

) Ammian. Marc. XXIII, 7: ex adyto quodam coneluso a Chaldaeorum arcanis labes primordialis exilivit.

) Porphy. de abstin. II, 56.

358

in the Book of Joshua, chapter 8, verse 29, according to which the Hebrews about to give a large tombstone to the body of the sacrificed king of Ai
A pile of stones; that's what they erected to form an altar. Apparently, it's hanging there.
the action by which, after human beings have been accomplished sacrifice in the Valley of Hinnom, the temple, as the prophet says, desecrated, together with the victim itself. It was brought from the bone and the ashes inside and placed them hot-lignite evidence of the worship shown to the god outside the
The temple was part of the chest, which was the base.
of the throne on which he sat.

e. Jehovah is a being.

This old Jehovah now, who is depicted as a golden image in Human figure sitting on the throne above the Ark of the Covenant, He is also in his needs and inclinations the gods very similar to the so-called heathens; he needs a shelter nung, he enjoys meat, especially blood and fat, delights his olfactory organ at the grease vapor, like the Homeric ones Gods; he eats bread, drinks wine, and demands that one He added salt to the food to make it more palatable.

In the first book of Moses, Jehovah has not yet given a firm [concept/specification]. Apartment, but even here it is of a sensual nature. The god Initially lives in a beautiful garden in company. of those divine beings, the Elohim; here he comes to the Thoughts about creating people. In the cool of the day. (he wanders in the countryside); he is so little omniscient and omnipresent, that he calls out: Adam, where are you?» as the who hid in the bushes. The garden bears lord

1) Genesis 3:8: “And they heard the voice of God Jehovah, who walked in the garden in the coolness of the day, and Adam and his wife hid from God Jehovah among the trees. men of the garden.,

359

lichen plants, namely two trees, whose fruits belong to the To grant those who enjoy it high knowledge and immortality; Jehovah does not want to grant these goods to humankind; he It therefore forbids them to eat from these trees, whose Fruits are meant only for him and his under-gods.

But people still eat from the tree.

of knowledge. “Look,” Jehovah replied, “who

Man has become like ours, so that he can do good.

and recognizes evil; but now so that he does not lose his hand

Stretch out and take also from the tree of life and eat and live forever! He is now driving the people out of the

Out of the garden, so that they don't fall from the tree too.

to eat immortality and live forever, like himself. No

Besides the garden, Jehovah also dwells in heaven, from there

He descends when he has business on earth; Genesis.

11:5: “Then Jehovah came down to destroy the city and the

to see the tower [of Babel], which the sons of Men

“We built,” “Well then,” he says in verse 7, “we want to “Go down and confuse their language there!” Genesis 1.

17, 22: “And when he had finished speaking to him in a fine manner,

God ascended from Abraham.

Jehovah requires Moses to provide him with a dwelling place—nung baue, he shows him himself the model according to which he wants to have built them, and writes down every single detail.

the material, the shape and the color, even the number the loops and hooks 2). When the apartment is finished,

Jehovah moves in. Solomon builds him a house.

Temple. David speaks 2 Chronicles 18:15 Behold, I dwell

1) Genesis 3:22

*) 2. Mof. Chapter 25 and Chapter 26; this also goes on in Ezekiel. Prescription down to the smallest detail; Ezekiel 43:13. In the age Ezekiel's is probably the greater part of these provisions. have been formed.

9.2. Chr. 2, 1.

360

in a heap of cedars and the Ark of the Covenant Jehovah's under the carpets. But Jehovah replies to this Nathan: "Go and tell David my servant: you You shall not build me a house to live in; I already have one. I have not lived in any house since the day I came to Israel. performed, until this day; and I went from tent to Tent and from dwelling to dwelling; I Solomon! Follow me I will build a house and I will establish his throne on Forever. I will be his father and he shall be my son. When Solomon had built the temple, they brought the The holy tent and the ark of the covenant in the temple, and with it Jehovah moved in, and Jehovah's house was filled with a cloud, and the priests could not stand there You will perform service before the cloud; for the glory Jehovah's word had filled the house of God. At that time, he spoke. Solomon: Jehovah has decided to live in darkness. I built a house for you to live in and a place (to your seat for eternity) Since then, Jehovah has lived Likewise on Mount Zion, as a king on his Burg. Pf. 15, 1: Jehovah, who may dwell with your Lord? Tents, who dwell on your holy mountain? Psalm 20:3 "May he send you help from the sanctuary, from Zion under..." May He support you!» P.P. 24:3: "Who may ascend on Jesus?" va's mountain and who stand on fine holy dwelling place? » Pi. 42, 2: "Like a hind thirsts for streams of water, My heart yearns for you, God! My heart thirsts. after God, the living God! When will he come and... Do I appear before God's face? P.P. 65:2: "To you belongs Trust, hymn of praise, to God on Zion! P. 74, 2: "Ge

“I think,” a Hebrew in exile calls out to his Jehovah, “think think of your community, which you acquired before old age, he— solve as your own tribe, the Mount of Zion, where you lived!» P. 76:2: “It is well known in Judah

1) 2 Chronicles 5, 13, 14; 2 Chron. 6, 1. 2.

361

God, in Israel is great is his name; and in Salem is fine
"Seat and fine apartment on Zion I!" In Ezekiel Jehovah fogar his own gate, through which he entered the new temple, chapter 44, 2: "And Jehovah said to
To me: this gate shall remain closed and not be opened.
than will be, and no one shall perish through it; for Je= Howa, the God of Israel, entered through it, and so
Be it locked.≠

Because Jehovah now dwells in Zion, the Hebrews must to wander to him, "to appear before God on Zion" only On Zion they can offer sacrifices to Jehovah. The Bir
The Lord Moses gave this decree very firmly, whereby they
Of course, they forgot that in Moses' time one spoke of a woh= nung Jehovah's on Zion could not yet know, 2 Mos.
34:24: "I will drive out the nations before you and expand your borders, and no one will invade your country.
desire, when you ascend, to appear before the Three times a year, you will see the faces of Jehovah your God. Deuteronomy 11:12 16:16: "Three times a year all your [spirits] shall appear Men before Jehovah your God, in the place which-he will choose, at the Feast of Unleavened Bread and at the Feast of Weeks and the Feast of Tabernacles, and One should not appear empty-handed before the face of Jehovah 3)!»

Jehovah needs food, just like the gods.
of the heathens. He enjoys everything that the people find delicious.
Kend finds what he needs, but he demands the best parts everywhere.
The Hebrew, like the pagan, thinks of one when he offers his sacrifices.
Sensual pleasure on Jehovah's side; it was believed that May God enjoy the fragrance of the food, or Jehovah he≠

It also appears as fire and does not merely feed on Steam, but consume the sacrificial meat, as already mentioned above.

1) Compare also Pf. 9:12; Pf. 26:8; Pf. 48:2; Isa. 57:15, 2c.
) Ps. 48, 8.) Deut. 31, 11; 1. Sam. 1, 22; 1. Sam. 10, 17, 19; 1 Sam. 11, 15.

362

was shown. It was considered particularly beneficial if the fire came from the Lord and the offerings (eaten). Furthermore, a pleasant smell is mentioned. spoken, which Jehovah requires and whose pleasing nature must whom God has appointed to bestow grace, Genesis 8:20:

“Then Noah built an altar to Jehovah and received from to all clean animals and all clean birds, and offered sacrifices Burnt offerings on the altar. And Jehovah smelled the dear—
He smelled the scent and spoke in his heart: Never again
I will henceforth curse the ground for the sake of mankind.
will!» In many places in the Mosaic Law it commands Jehovah, to give him such a lovely fragrance, e.g. B. Exodus. 29:18: “Burn the whole ram to the altar: a burnt offering it is to Jehovah, a kiebli—

“A pleasant smell, a fire is for Jehovah.” Leviticus 3:10
1, 9: “the belly and legs [of the young ox! shall
He should wash it with water, and the priest should clean the whole thing.
to light on the altar, as a burnt offering, as kindling
"Pleasing fragrance to Jehovah." All Hebrews must to give Jehovah such a pleasing aroma (4 Mos.) 15:13: Every native shall do this, in order to... spend a pleasant aroma burning for Jehovah; and If a stranger stays with you and he brings a A fire of pleasing aroma to Jehovah, so shall he thun 2). Even the victims from the plant kingdom find for Jehovah (a pleasant smell?). It is a sign of the highest disgrace, if Jehovah does not take pity on the lovely
The fragrance that the Hebrews prepare will refresh him; 3 Mos.
26:31: “I will destroy your cities and destroy your lands.”
I despise your holy things and will not delight in your devotion.

“A pleasant scent.” David speaks to Saul (1 Samuel 1).
26:19: If Jehovah has provoked you against me, then may

—ñ—ä—: — — —

) Leviticus. 9, 23, 24. *) Exodus. 29, 25, 41; Leviticus. 1, 13, 17; Leviticus. 8, 21. 28. .) 3. Mof. Cape, 2; 3. Mom. 6, 21.

363

He can smell the grain offering; but if it is people, let them be
She is cursed by Jehovah.

Otherwise, the victims are also called Food Jeho—va's. 4 Mos. 28:24: "These are the offerings you shall give every day."
of the seven days, as food, fuel, lovely Ge—Ruchs for Jehovah. This view remained valid as long as that there even was a temple of Jehovah. When during the Be= Jerusalem's garrison by the Romans: the Antonia fortress had already been conquered and due to a lack of priests, the daily Josephus used the example of the fact that devout sacrifices in the temple had to cease.
this circumstance, which the Jewish leader John brought to the attention of—
to request the gift of the temple, since God through the
The victims would have to stop being deeply offended, something even Titus and the Romans didn't want. "So far," he calls out to him, "Do not be held accountable against the One who has committed a crime, from whom you hoped would help you; received daily
God the traditional sacrifices. But if one
If it deprives you of your daily food, you won't be able to use it for Look at your enemy? And you dare to call God your enemy?
to keep a federal comrade, to whom you have fine ancient vows—
"Rung taken into custody I?" — Jehovah is against these fine Food is by no means a matter of indifference; he envies other gods= to whom the same sacrificial food is offered; Deuteronomy 5:10.
32, 38: "Then Jehovah will say: Where can I find their gods,
the rock they trusted, which gave their fat
The victims ate and drank the wine of their drink.
Victims? They may rise up and help you, they may "Your shield is fine!" Ezekiel 44:6: Thus says the Lord, Jehovah: Let it be enough of all your abominations, house

Israel's, by being sons of foreigners, uncut at Hearts and uncut flesh, into my sanctuary bring them to desecrate my house, by letting them
I offered my sacrificial food, fat and blood, and

Joseph. bell. Jud. VI, 2.

304

For my covenant, bring all your abominations. Against this, he within himself Jehovah with pleasure in what was offered to him Food from well-fed animals. Pf. 20, 4: Hear Thee.
Jehovah, on the day of tribulation, may he remember all your
May your grain offerings and your drink offerings be rich in him!

I don't want to dwell on the individual cases.
to list in which sacrifices are offered to Jehovah had to; the god was not concerned with individual sins.
and limited the guilt offerings of the Hebrews; he had his right.
on all firstborn children in the whole land, including the firstborn children.
lings of the crops, and besides, he had to be fed daily,
A lamb with side dishes is served in the morning and evening;
In this daily sacrifice he had fine standing mornings
and evening meals, such as humans require daily; Exodus 29:38: This is what you shall offer on the Altar, two year-old lambs of the day steadfast; the one You shall sacrifice one lamb in the morning, and the second lamb offer towards evening, and a tenth of white flour, sprinkled with crushed oil, a quarter hin, and a potion sacrifice, a quarter To the one Lamb. And You shall sacrifice the second lamb towards evening, as the
The morning grain offering, and its drink offering you shall add to it.
offer sacrifices for a pleasing aroma as fuel for Jehovah. —
Here, the wish that Plato expressed in the eighth book was fulfilled.
de legibus states that daily for the good of the city
a sacrifice was offered to a god at public expense
May all animals that were sacrificed to Jehovah be.
They had to be well-fed and without flaws; none could be below
Counting 8 days; calves, sheep and goats were one year old Rig required, young cattle, without specific designation of

) Thus Zeus also speaks, Com. II. IV, 45 ff., that Ilium, Priam and his people are dear to all the cities under the sun fey: »o yap wol wore Bwuos Edevero daros elöns, loigñe re xvicoyg re.,

365

Number of years; everywhere it was looked after to give the god that
To serve meat to animals at an age when it is at most delicious, where of course the priests also enjoy it.
best tasted good). The first grains had to be prepared.
They were ridden before they could be presented to Jehovah;
The grains were roasted, crushed, and mixed with Oil 2). The baked goods were made from fine white flour.
prepared and probably sprinkled with oil. Leviticus 1:4: "When you want to bring the offering of a grain offering, something Baked in the oven, it's white flour cake, uneleavened, sprinkled with oil, unleavened flatbreads, anointed with Del,» Everything had to be seasoned with salt for the god;
for just as a person cannot eat unsalted food-det, fo not even to Jehovah; Leviticus 2:13: "All your
You shall season the grain offering with salt, and you shall add to the covenant.
Do not let the salt of your God be lacking in all your sacrifices.
(You shall offer salt.) But now, to a
A good drink was also part of a complete meal, so it was...
For every burnt offering and grain offering, also a libation of wine (added, which was poured around the altar). The
The amount of wine depended on the quantity of meat.
fches, which was set before Jehovah; on a bull reqnete man ½ Hin, auf einen Widder ½, auf ein Lamm ½ Hin Wein 9).

If one wanted to calculate how many animals Jehovah
If it was consumed wholly or partly in one year, then it would ) Homer also speaks of the fat vapor aiyay releiov, Hom.

II. I, 66; and among the Romans hostiae integrae, lectae, eximiae required. Ovid. almost. I, 335; Juve n. X, 66.

2) 3. Mof. 2, 14.

) So too with the so-called heathens; Plin. XXXI, 7. 89.
Also in Ezekiel 43:24.

9) Deut. 32, 35; Jos. antique. III, 9.

) 4. Mof. 15, 5-8; Cape. 28, 14.

366

a sum comes to light that is astonishingly long.
would have to. Before captivity, however, our mosaics are
The provisions regarding the victims are certainly only relevant to...
Part of it was available and put into use; also Jehovah did not receive nearly all of the offerings at that time.
Hebrews; the other deities also took one to look at.
a substantial part thereof. In contrast, in the new,
Temples, when the people had regained their strength, such as... in the age of Herod the Great, on the high feast days, where the Hebrews of the whole country gathered in Jerusalem—gathered and certainly all brought their sacrifice to God wanted to literally splatter the area around the altar with blood—
They had swum. When David brought the Ark of God to Jeru—falem holt, wird, so so wills the narrative 2 Sam.
6, 12, stopped every six steps and a cow and sacrificed a fattened calf. Surely no pagan god would have done that. such a mass of sacrifices was not required in the secular antiquity and receive, like Jehovah!

All the sacrifices of the people were now primarily for that one.
outward appearance of the god, which is caused by the fire—sacrificial altar was represented, on which the victims were also represented all had to be presented. In contrast, the Jehovah placed his own food and his [spirit] above the Ark of the Covenant.
own wine. On the golden table in the holy place lay twelve handsome bread cakes made from the finest flour in two rows, as if for breakfast and dinner, which so-called showbread; Exodus 25:30: "Place on the "Table show before me." In the second temple
Each of these loaves of bread was ten handbreadths long and five wide.

and seven inches high at the edge); they always formed a considerable amount of food. On the eve of each New bread had to be baked for the Sabbaths; these were baked in the

1) Winer's Bible Realw. II, 474.

*) Jos. antiqu. III, 10.

367

The oven was kept hot and warm on the morning of the Sabbath. (laid down before Jehovah). The Jews assure that these Brode stayed warm all week.

The reason for this was, of course, also to create a lovely scent. Jehovah on the Ark of the Covenant through the curtain, which separated him from the table of the showpiece, einath- One should. That even golden vessels with wine should be placed on this The fact that the table stood in the sanctuary has already been mentioned above.

Now we must especially consider that Parts of the sacrifice, which is offered to the god for the pre— The most important thing was, I mean the blood, and besides this, the Fat, and all the more so since this point has so far been— while being placed in incorrect lighting. After the The unanimous assertion of our present-day Jews is, in fact, Blood is considered impure in the Jewish religion. This claim must be categorically rejected as untrue. will be meadows; the blood is not impure in the Old Testament, but holy.

Throughout antiquity, and also among the Hebrews (?), this was the prevailing view. The blood is the seat of the soul. Insofar as one imagines the

1) 1 Samuel 21:6.

2) In the Gemara Joma near Wagensseil, note 3. ad Mischn. Sota Chapter 3, Section 3. The removed showpieces belonged to the Priests. It was said that these loaves were so blessed that a Pieces the size of an olive are perfectly sufficient to satisfy hunger.

sufficient; Lund Jewish Antiquities p. 745.

) Cicero says Tusc. quaest. I, 9: Empedocles animum esse censet cordi suffusum sanguinem. Pythagoras with Diogen. Laert. VIII, 30: 7oepeolai = wuvae ano rov aluaros. Compare Leviticus. 17, 11. 14. Joseph. antique. III, 11. — H y won Xaong gvooe alu &oriv, fagt Philo in the Schrift de eo, quod deterius potiori insidiari soleat page 170 (Parisian Edition of the year 1640); he recognizes in the sacrificial blood of the Thie= res a sacrifice of the animal soul for the benefit of the human soul: Wu, dg einiv, Eori Oxovdn ro alu, de victim. P. 839.

368

Deities were thought to have a more delicate body, it was believed. now also that they have the blood in which the soul spreads= tet sey, a particularly appropriate and tasty near= rung offer; besides, there was also the blood, precisely as the seat of the soul, the noblest component of the body and therefore it= It seemed fitting to offer the god especially his blood- to offer a way. This is the origin of that principal The use of the victims' blood. The enjoyment, the God's food is everywhere the first foundation and cause. abandonment of the victims; the thought that the life of the Thie= The next conclusion was that his blood might reconcile. only emerged from the idea that what was presented Blood to whom God grants a pleasure that brings him grace against the giver).

This is very clearly evident from the Old Testament of the Serbs; Here, as mentioned, the blood is literally sacrificial food. Called Jehovah. In Ezekiel 14:7, Jehovah complains, that the Hebrews offered fine sacrificial food, fat and blood, to= whose gods they offered; he commands in verse 15 that in the

The blood, he says, will be poured in a circle around the altar, there= with no part of the soul lacking libation. p. 839. — Tre- Batus explains in Macrob. Saturn. III, 5. that there are two Types of sacrifices, one to do the will of the gods in the

to read entrails, the other, in quo sola anima deo sacra-tur (unde etiam haruspices animales has hostias vocant).

Even the Church Fathers understood the sacrifice of blood, even of human blood, from a meal on the side of the god.

Tertullian adv. gnost. c. 7. says: Et Latio in hodiernum Jovi media in urbe humanus sanguis ingustatur., Minucius Felix in Octave. p. 34. says: "Jupiter Latiaris hominis sanguine saginatur. "But the later pagan intellect knows..."

Lience not only rejects the idea that the gods the not only did he drink blood, but he also denied the reconciling power of the blood. Dionysus. Catonis distich. IV, 15: Cum sis ipse nocens, moritur cur victima prop te? Stultitia est, morte alte-terius sperare salutem. "

369

The Levites are to offer fat and blood to the new temple.

Specifically, it is the connection of the blood with the Fat, which inevitably indicates that something is wrong with one Consumption of blood, of consuming it, as one consider it worthy and pleasant food; e.g.

3. Mof. 17:6: "And the priest sprinkled the blood the altar of Jehovah and light the fat on fire for sweetness Scent to Jehovah. Leviticus 3:16: "The priest shall to light on the altar as kindling for the lovely

Smell is all fat for Jehovah. Both prohibitions, that of the Blood and fat usually appear side by side;

Leviticus 3:17: "An everlasting decree for your future generations
Genders aside in all your homes: No more fat

"Blood you shall have!" and indeed fat and blood will be given to the

The people were forbidden, not because they were impure, but because they were the Food designated for the Lord, and therefore holy; Leviticus 7.

23: No fat from bulls, sheep, or goats should be used.

They eat it. For whoever eats the fat of cattle, of which one offers fire to Jehovah, so that it may be eradicated.

The soul that was eaten from among their people. And no blood.

You shall not eat anything from the bird in any of your dwellings.

even from cattle. Every soul that eats blood, may it be Jehovah exterminated that same soul from her people.

However, on his part, the food peculiar to him, to those with,
to whom he is especially gracious; he suckles his people with the Ram fat, wheat kidney fat, and with (the blood of the grapes). I refresh, 'he says by Jere' mia 31:14, "I will feed the priests with fat and satisfy my people."
"My blessing."

Everywhere Jehovah demands blood, everywhere he receives it:
And yet the Jews claim that the blood is impure!
The mere sight of blood makes one nervous.
Hova has a favorable effect. When the god was at night

1) Deuteronomy 32:14
24

370

wants to set out to defeat the firstborn of the Egyptians, He commands the Israelites to drink from the blood of the slaughtered to take the lamb and "smear it on the two feet"
"Sten and to the upper threshold of the heap." Do I see that?
"Blood," he says, "then I will pass by you and No plague will befall you to destroy you if I "Strike the land of Egypt." This smearing with blood fol as a statute to be observed in eternity J. At The sacrificing priest smeared the victims' blood with the Fingers to the horns of the altar; what remained was Poured around the base of the altar. The holiest part of the altar.
The tars, the horns, the seat of divine power, were with soaked in blood; Moses and after him all the sacrificing priests.
Without hesitation, they took their finger and dipped it into the blood.
and smear the horns with it 2): how would the blood have changed?
Can it be uncleaned? — Not external use, they say, contaminated, but the enjoyment! — But Jehovah himself ≠
Yes, they drank blood, and the ancient Hebrews enjoyed it too, as did...
It will be demonstrated in its place. This very present one.
The Jews believed that consuming blood was unclean.
and the strict prohibition of blood in our Mosaic Law Laws strengthen the evidence for the claim that before The consumption of blood was common in exile, not merely in the case of animal victims, but also in the case of human victims. Because The stricter a ban is, the greater the impact.
The tendency to transgress, the older the habit.

One may conclude that what is forbidden is forbidden. Of all animals that to be sacrificed, is required in every kind of animal sacrifice Jehovah, that the blood be poured all around the altar; even the little blood of the pigeons, which was not enough, Jehovah wants to use it to make the rounds around the altar. not to be without it; it had to be taken from the side of the altar

1) Exodus. 12, 7, 13, 23, 24.

2) 2nd Mof. 29, 12, 16; 3. Mom. 8, 15.

0 .

371

Let it run. For the granting of every wish, for every Type of offense, for every type of pollution, Je blood; when a priest sins, blood; a nobleman, Blood, the common man, blood 9. To the Holy of Holies The blood had to be brought; even the local Jehovah had to be brought. Once a year, on the Day of Atonement, she is adorned with blood. blow up, as the Jehovah statue outside, the fire Horse altars, happened daily. With great care the The scattering of that image above the Ark of the Covenant by the (High priests carried out annually?). He must be ardent Take coals from the altar of burnt offering and place them on the golden The incense altar causes a vapor to form through the burning of incense, which the image of Jehovah was concealed behind the curtain, "so that he would not fterbe;" then «let him take some of the bull's blood and Squirt with his finger over the front of the lid. Morningward, and before the lid he shall break seven times "From the blood with a delicate finger." Likewise, "he brings the Pour the goat's blood behind the curtain and do with it. the blood, just as he did with the blood of the bull, and squirt it on the lid and in front of the lid. Editors of the Old Testament have not revealed anything to us here either. left as an empty lid: but the lid on and for God certainly did not need this blood. That was enough for the one who sat above it!

Jehovah is not defiled by blood,
So little the people; the blood is holy, makes holy, be freed from sins and even from physical impurity.

) Compare primarily 3. Mof. 1. to Chapter 4. In the case of a Jehovah can also be appeased by money in the census;
Exodus 30:11: "When you count the number of the sons of Israel..."
If you take in those who have been tested, then everyone shall make atonement.
to give his soul to Jehovah at his testing, that not May a plague come upon them during their inspection. They shall... give: half a shekel.

9) 3. Mof. 16, 12 ff.

24 *

372

The high priest is consecrated with blood. Slaughter one Aries, Jehovah commands at the dedication of the altar and the priest), and take some of fine blood and smear it to Aaron's right earlobe and to the right earlobes of his sons and on the right thumb of their hands and on their right big toes, and burst Pour the blood around the altar. And take some of the blood.
on the altar and of the anointing oil, and sprinkle it on Aaron, and his clothes, and his sons, and the garments of his sons with him, that he might be sanctified.
and his clothes and his sons and the clothes of his Sons with him." — This ceremony doesn't mean much.
Less than a complete bath in blood! — Like the Priest ster in Athens before the popular assembly of the blood of the sacrificed young pigs jumped over the seats to to purify the assembly 2): so Moses also breaks up the blood shed on the assembled Hebrews (Exodus 24:8):
"Moses took the blood and sprinkled it on the people and He said: Behold, this is the blood of the covenant which Jehovah "Make a pact with one another concerning all these laws." Also, the Blood in cases of illness. 3 Mo. 14, 14: Let the priest take it.
Take some of the blood of the guilt offering and smear it on the right earlobe of the person cleaning themselves [from leprosy!]

and on his right thumb and on his right big Large toes.

Such diverse uses of blood certainly prove Striking enough that blood was not associated with anything by the Hebrews.
It was considered contaminated. Anyone who washed their face or hands and feet smeared with blood, whoever smears himself with blood... who allows his body to be sprinkled, still believing it to be a holy one
To commit an act: he can certainly also do so before the Be
There is no great aversion to touching the blood with the lips.
have!

1) Exodus. 29, 20.) The east h. adv. Conon. 39.

373

f. The moral side of Jehovah.

According to the usual account, Jehovah is the
According to the Old Testament, an all-wise, all-good, all-loving God, a just and merciful father of mankind.
If the Mosaic Jehovah were truly this being; then However, he would have to make the most horrific sacrifices.
shy away. Even in our later years, through the subsequent re formats edited books and generally in the Jewish community
In the story of [the person] he is a completely different person.

The god's most prominent characteristic is a fearful one.
terrestrial, wrathful being; even in the
This idea is inspired by the spirits of the post-exilic reformers.
predominant. The pre-exilic Jehovah probably had
It also has a contrasting, mild, gender-based side;
But only dark traces of it have been left to us. Whoever of the
He who dies becomes in the sight of God. You can see my face.

"You cannot see," Jehovah tells Moses, "because you cannot see."
"Me, the man, and lives." Speak to Aaron, that he do not enter at all times into the sanctuary behind the fore Hang it before the lid on the chest, so that it does not die; for
"I appear in the cloud above the lid." "Warn the people, that they should not break through to Jehovah, in order to They look, and many fall from among them. Even the priests, who Those who approach Jehovah should sanctify themselves so that Jehovah does not under the schmettere).. «We will die,» Flagt Simson's father Manoah, "For we have spoken to God!"

 However, this also prevailed among other peoples.
 The position that man who has the God- must die
 I see with my eyes; but with Jehovah this stretches deadly effect also on its pictorial representation

) 2. Mof. 33, 20.) 3. Mof. 16, 2.) 2. Mof. 19, 21, 22.
) Rt. 13, 22.

374

and immediate surroundings; that is where death usually occurs.
 an effect not exactly intended by the god divine majesty upon frail man; at the But God intends to kill the Jews or to at least inflict significant harm on him who approaches him without to be his priest. The Levites, too, are not allowed to be to approach the sacred objects once, otherwise they would die-ben); the people are not even allowed near the living quarters-Jehovah's coming, "whoever draws near to the dwelling place of Jehovah" hova's, who dies 2). Where the Ark of the Covenant is taken,
 There she spreads terror and destruction around her. When the Philistines had brought the Ark captive to Gath, «Fam Jehovah's hand over the city, a very great blessing-tongue, and he beat the people of the city, both small and large, that boils broke out on them. Then they sent the ark.
 God's Ark to Ekron. And when the Ark of God came to Ekron
 When it came, the Echronites lamented and said: They have They brought the Ark of the God of Israel to me, to kill me.
 and my people. There was a deadly dismay in the
 The whole city, the hand of God there was heavy. And Those who did not die would be beaten with bees.
 (len, and the city's cry fly up to heaven?). —
 It would still be possible to hear if the Ark only covered the enemies.
 Israel's, by whom she was held captive, such Us would have brought good fortune; but it also stirs among the innocent.
 Israelites with death and plagues. The Philistines let them, on the Counsel of their priests and prophets, as a guilt offering to Jehovah, make five golden bumps, according to the number of their princes, and golden mice, according to the number of their towns; for also Mice had ravaged their land; they placed the Ark on a new car, place their victim in a special box the threshing floor, harnessed the threshing floor with two young cows and let They go, convinced that God will guide the cows as he

) 4. Mof. 18, 3. 2) 4. Mof. 17, 13.) 1st Sam. 5, 10 - 12.

375 wishes. The car really does turn towards the Jewish border and meets in the Jewish priesthood town of Beth-Bethsemes. Although the inhabitants of Bethsemes now Jehovah immediately took the two cows and other animals to Despite the sacrifices made by the people, God still strikes down a cruel blow.

Seventy men and fifty thousand men, because they had the chest had seen, "and the people mourned that Jehovah was under inflicted such a great defeat on the people).
the pitiful idea of the biblical narrator, which could exist without Shyness allows 50,000 people to die in a small country town-to let ben, that probably in total not 5000 inhabitants

He had, wants to find proof of glory in this defeat
Find Jehovah! "Who can stand?" they say.
People of Bethsemes, before Jehovah, this holy God?
And to whom shall he go from us? — Also under David
The Ark will once again demonstrate its shattering power;
And yet she is powerless when Nabuchadnezzar sees her and the Temple destroyed! — In Saul's time, the Ark was sought.
not asked; David suggests they go from Kiryath-To summon Jearim. All Israel is assembled; one
She places it on a new wagon, which is loaded with cattle.
It's exciting. David dances ahead, Usa and Ahio lead the way.
gen. «And when they came to the threshing floor Chidon, Usa stretched out her fine Put out your hand to grasp the ark; for the cattle had gathered themselves torn free. Then Jehovah's anger flared up against Uzzah, and He hit him because he had stretched out his hand towards the Lade, and he died there before God. Then David was born
It is clouded because Jehovah has dealt a blow to Uzzah, and he

He called that same place the Battle of the USA to this day. And David was afraid of God that day and said:

—
— a

1) 1 Samuel 6:19. The remarkable way of speaking 70 and 50,000 Man, this can be explained by the fact that a later editor The 70 were not enough, which is why he added another 50,000. set the text.

376

How could I bring the Ark of God to me? And that David did not bring the Ark to himself in the city of David. and put her down to the house of Obed Edom the Ghittite. The god in the ark lashes out blindly. that he himself kills those who are about to kill him glorious, to save him from profanation; for eyes USA probably had no other intention than to hit the car. to stop, who was in danger of being scared away by the now timid Cattle being knocked over.

But it is not merely this pictorial representation. Jehovah's, who appears terrible and destructive: the whole The god's disposition is malevolent; wrath and anger are his prevailing emotions; to kill, from His usual punishment is to be savaged from the people. he also in the Mosaic books even on the slightest ver going into his service. He quickly turns to the fear. most terribly irritated, and the reconciliation, which is achieved through persuasion and sacrifice, however, is usually intended only difficult to accomplish; in such cases one feels

The god then probably also showed remorse for his actions. Where he does not freely bestow favors where they are offered to him first he had to force his way out, then he showed malice, knowing the benefit to embitter. Often it causes people themselves to rebel against it.

 His will to act, he hides their hearts, in order to... so that he could then punish. In his anger, he is not himself more powerful "even forgets the oaths sworn; ent=
 He is also ruthless in his curses against his own people;
 But towards non-Jews he behaves without any humanity whatsoever.
 Even the prophets revel in garish descriptions.
 Despite the fearfulness of Jehovah, even among them there are Anger and rage are the predominant emotions of the God. Behold, Jehovah is moving out of a fine dwelling place, »
 Isaiah 2 says, "their iniquity against the inhabitants of the earth

Y) Chapter 1 14; Chron. 2 Sam. Cape. 6.) Jef. 26, 21.

377

to punish; and the earth reveals its blood and does not cover it more of their murdered. "Thus speaks Jehovah the Army." (ren, the God of Israel): Drink and get drunk and Spit and fall and do not rise again from the sword, which I am sending among you. Behold, by the city which When someone calls me by my name, I start to get really upset.
 You drive, and you want to go unpunished? Jehovah roars
 From his heights and from his holy dwelling he lets
 His voice rang out, he roared against his hut. Un=

Happiness spreads from people to people, and a great storm... rises from the outermost reaches of the earth. And there lie the Er= on that same day Jehovah's defeat of an end to the Earth to the other end; not lamented, nor carried away.

 They will not be buried; they will be used as fertilizer.
 the field. The meadows of peace are devastated by the fury of Jehovah's anger. He leaves like a The lion's thicket; their land is devastated by the wrath.
 of the violent sword and through the fury of his Zorned.» Thus speaks Jehovah of the hosts): Behold,
 I will send among them the sword and the famine and the Plague and make them like the abominable figs, which one cannot eat because of wickedness; and I chase them after with sword and famine and plague and give them to Abuse of all kingdoms on earth... "The Lord

He ruthlessly destroyed all of Jacob's apartments; he slashed
In the fury of his anger, he drew all the horns of Israel, and drew his Right back from the enemy and burned in Jacob like "Flaming fire that devours all around." "Thus speaks the Lord Jehovah"): Woe to all the wicked abominations in the crowd
Israel's, that they may fall by sword, famine, and plague.
They shall. Whoever is far away shall die of the plague, and whoever is near, shall fall by the sword, and he who remains and preserves

) In Jeremiah 25, 27. ff.) Jer. 29, 17 ff.) Complaint. Jer. 2, 3.
) In Ezekiel 6:11-12,

378

whoever is, shall die of hunger; and so I will mean
"Unleash your fury on them!" "On my life," he said.
the Lord Jehovah), with a strong hand and with outstretched Poor you, and with poured-out fury I will hate you rule! «' God of vengeance, prays a psalmist),
"Jehovah, God of vengeance, appear! Arise, Judge of the Earth, pay vengeance to the proud!!! "The Lord to you"
His right hand shattered kings on the day of his wrath.
He holds judgment among the nations, filled with corpses, torn apart= (heads are shattered across a wide land). "Wait, my..." Jehovah comforts the Jews at Zephaniah!), "on the day, as I rise up to the prey; for my purpose is to conquer nations to gather and unite kingdoms to discuss them to pour out my wrath, all the heat of my anger; for
The whole world will be consumed by the fire of my zeal.
Finally, a few more excerpts from the terrific majesty=
(statistical description in Habakkuk), where Jehovah sets out Regarding the Hebrews' revenge on their enemies: God comes from Southward and the saint from Mount Paran. Before him
Plague goes forth and pestilence follows him.
He stands and measures the earth, looks and makes nations tremble;
And the eternal mountains are scattered, the ancient heights are lowered;
He treads the old paths. Your bow is bare, sated.
your arrows; the sun and moon remain in their dwelling;
Your arrows fly like light, like the gleam of your spear.

Lightning. In fury you stride across the land, in anger you shatter.
You crush the nations. You go forth to help your People, come to the aid of your anointed one; you will crush his head.
To the wicked race, exposing the vestments of men! ≠
Terrible is the wrath of Jehovah; and how man
In his highest rage, so too is his God in anger.
not powerful; even if he appeases for the moment

) Ezech. 20, 33.) Psalm 94, 1.) Psalm 110, 5.
9) Zeph. 3, 8.) Habak. Cape. 3.

379

If he is, he cannot stand for the fact that his anger is not from something new breaks out. When the Jews worshipped the golden calf=ten, Jehovah says to Moses): "Come up, go down, for Your people are doing wicked things; they have a cast-iron calf.
They made it and worshipped it! I look at this people, and behold!
They are a stubborn people, and now let me, that my My anger against her burns and I devour her, and I will "Make you into a great nation." In contrast, Moses Ideas. Why, he says, Jehovah, follow your Anger will burn against your people, whom you have exiled from the land of Egypt with great strength and a strong hand?
Why should the Egyptians speak: Unfortunately, he
They carried them out to kill them in the mountains and to destroy them.
Erase from the face of the earth? Cease the fury of your anger!
nes, and repent of evil against your people!
Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Sherael, your servants, to whom you swore) said to you and to them: I will

1) Exodus 2, Chapter 32.

*) Jehovah also feels remorse in other ways; he regrets having wronged people.
to create (Genesis 6:6; cf. Jeremiah 26:13).

Jehovah swears with his hand raised to heaven (Deuteronomy 32:40):
"I lift my hand to heaven and say: This is how I was Live forever!, Pf. 89, 4. 35: I made a covenant with my

To the chosen one, David swore to my servant: forever
 I will confirm and establish your seed on the basis of gender.
 and gender your throne. I do not wish to violate my
 The bond and the word of my lips will not change. Once sworn.
 By my holiness, I will never lie against David. - Fr.
 132, 10: For the sake of David, your servant, do not refuse to your anointed one! Jehovah swore to David truth, he will be there I will not depart from you: I will plant fruit from your womb.
 on your throne, if your sons keep my covenant and My decrees that I teach them, so shall their sons also follow.
 forever they sit on your throne... Ezekiel 36:7: So
 The Lord Jehovah says: Behold, in my zeal and wrath
 I speak because you bear the reproach of the Gentiles. I exalt my hand [to swear] that the nations around you, that they shall bear their disgrace. (Cf. Numbers 14:30) multiply your seed like the stars of the sky and the stars of the heavens.

380

 This whole land I have spoken of, I will give to your seed
 "Give them that they may possess it eternally." For these reasons Jehovah knows nothing to oppose him. He has given it to the Abra-Ham, Isaac, and Jacob swore to bring their descendants into the to multiply countless numbers and grant them the land for all eternity.
 to grant Palestine. However, he soon...
 He forgot his oath; he must be reminded. Next.
 Moses cites as a reason for forgiveness that the verannihilation of the Israelites to the God before the Egyptians would be an insult; they would say that Jehovah had the Israelites only out into the seclusion of the mountains led there, in order to kill them here unnoticed. Both Reasons make Jehovah think and "he let himself be!"
 Regret for the evil he had spoken of doing to his people.
 But Moses, when he came down from the mountain, said
 He gathers the Levites around him and says to them: This is how it says Jehovah, the God of Israel: Let each one draw his sword.
 on a fine side, goes back and forth from a gate to other gates of the camp, and each killed his brother.
 each one his friend and each one his neighbor-bar. And the sons of Levi did according to the word of Moses.
 and on that same day three thousand of the people died.

Send man. This choking is followed by a great one.
 Human sacrifice: And Moses said: Come today with with all his heart for Jehovah, each one with his son and his brother, and bring blessings today upon you! — But also through this considerable number of The cruel Jehovah is not yet reconciled to the sacrifices made by the victims.
 Moses climbs the mountain again and speaks: "Do you want to to forgive their sin; "but Jehovah answers: Whoever..."
 Whoever sins against me, I will blot him out from my heart.
 Beech. — Could Jehovah be reconciled? I hear the Or-thodorie replied, "But such terrible punishments..."
 not yet sufficient to eradicate idolatry among the Israelites to eradicate! In truth, such objections are not raised.

381

 through the later creation of Mosaic Law by Even myself, and I wouldn't have anything to reply to that. But imagine Let's consider this point of view for a moment! What is the purpose of the I ask, what cruel procedure is this, from Jehovah's side?
 Since he must have foreseen that it would be fruitless? What?
 That is why he chose precisely this Jewish people, who even the most inhumane treatment could not bring him to his Why does he want to force sole worship? Why does he want the Canto completely destroy the Canaanites because of their idolatry and their to give the land to the Israelites as their perpetual property, who Is it no better? — Although Jehovah, through Mo-se's ideas moved him to make the decision to not to destroy the Israelites; yet he considers it permissible.
 then, to keep away from them, lest his anger nevertheless, break free from them and destroy them. The God does not feel the power within himself, mindful of his oath.
 oath, which obligates him to spare the people, beto control anger; he manages it like people of weak character, deemed necessary, the cause arising from the
 to take paths that lead him to violate his oath-could lead. Up, he says, "go up from there, you and the people you brought up from the land Egypt, the land about which I told Abraham, Isaac and Jacob swore: to your offspring I will give it. And I will send the angel before you and drive out the Can-

Nanites, the Amorites, the Hittites, and the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites; for I will not in your presence Pull up into the middle; for you are a stiff-necked people, therewith me not to devour you on the way. Speak to to the sons of Israel: You are a stiff-necked people;
If I were to wander among you for a moment,
"I would devour you!"

) 2. Mos. 33:1 ff.

382

Remarkably, Jehovah is also fine later on.
not mindful of his oath, although Moses reminded him of it here-has. In the 14th chapter of the fourth book of Moses, "mur-all the sons of Israel against Moses and against Aaron, and The whole community spoke to them: If only we had been Die in the land of Egypt or die in this desert!
Why does Jehovah lead us into this land, that we may travel through it?
Sword fall, our wives and our children become prey will? Isn't it better for us to return to Egypt? And they said one to another: Let "Set ourselves a new leader and return to Egypt!" Then Jehovah's glory appears in the meeting tent.
to all the sons of Israel, and Jehovah speaks to Moses: How How long will this people reject me, and how long will they
They don't trust me, despite all the wonders I've witnessed.
What have they done? I will strike them with pestilence and destroy them.
I will make you into a people greater and stronger.
than it." Mofe counters: So who the Egyptians hear it and it will be said to the Be-inhabitants of this land who have heard that you, Jehovah,
You are among these people who see each other eye to eye.
You, Jehovah, let your cloud stand over them.
and you go before them in a column of clouds during the day and in a cloud of fire at night. And if you were to kill now
This nation as one man, so will the nations which Having heard of your glory, they say: Because Jehovah has done this could not bring the people into the country which he had promised them Sworn, he slaughtered them in the desert." Through

These reasons are once again given to Jehovah, the Israelites.
to forgive; but the spies, who through their output say the despondency of the Hebrews had caused, star-ben through a plague from Jehovah).

Numbers 14:37. Jeremiah says Lamentations 1:10 after the revelation.
Conquest of Jerusalem: The enemy stretches his hand towards all

383

These examples contain ideas of Seiten chosen people who made the firm decision Je-to change hova's, to make God hold a fine oath to determine and appease his anger. To take elsewhere External means produce this effect. Soon after the
The incident just recounted is once again the subject of a conspiracy theory.
The campaign against Moses. Korah, Dathan, and Abiram with two
One hundred respected Hebrews oppose Moses and Aaron on 9. "Let it be enough," they say, "because the whole
The congregation, all are holy, and Jehovah is among them, and Why do you exalt yourselves above Jehovah's congregation? Is it
It is not enough that you brought us up from a land, flowing with milk and honey, to kill us in the desert, that you too set yourself up as ruler over us? » Then he-Moses is very angry, asks Jehovah for help, and the Ver-Sworn men are swallowed alive by the earth, «it Fire came out of Jehovah and devoured the two hundred and fifty Man, who were just about to give the god incense to offer up work, to exercise a priestly right which they have at-
They spoke, but Moses only spoke to his brother's family.
Aaron had been assigned. How little of a miracle there was here.
found, says verse 41: "And the whole community murmured..."
the community of the sons of Israel against Moses the next morning and against Aaron, saying: You have the people of Jehovah killed! » But Jehovah is now angry with the people and wants to destroy it; "Get out of this community, »
He speaks to Moses and Aaron, "I will suddenly devour them."
gen.» This time, however, Moses does not turn away from preconceived notions and They pleaded to appease Jehovah, who already had a plague.
had begun to strangle the people. Take

Treasures, she (the city) sees it, as the peoples in it
They shall never enter the sanctuary, of which you commanded.
come to your community.

) 4 Mos. Chapter 16.

384

“The smoker,” he said to Aaron, “and light a fire.”
then from the altar and place incense on it and bring it Go quickly to the church and reconcile them; for it is The wrath originated from Jehovah; it began the Plague. And Aaron took, as Moses had spoken, and ran right in the middle of the community, and behold, it had begun the plague among the people, and he brought incense and reconciled.
The people were pleased. And he stood between the dead and the living.
bending, and the plague was averted. And there were Those who died of the plague, fourteen thousand and seven.
One hundred, not counting those who died because of Korah. And Aaron came back to Moses at the door of the tent of meeting, and The plague was averted. — Thus raged the terrible Je-Hova, in favor of his favorites, even among his own
The people, who in the present case certainly did not do wrong had! The steam from the incense from the hand of the
The chosen priest offers God a very pleasant one!
"The pleasure of him suddenly stopping in the middle of a fine rage,
as well as the smell of incense reaches him.

But even the chosen ones are not safe from him-nem Grimme; because of a minor oversight he shatters also downed fine priests. Aaron's sons, Na dab and Abihu provided it, the fire for the smoke pan from
To take altars, they placed ordinary fire in the smoke pan and brought the same thing before Jehovah: «ba went Fire from Jehovah and devoured them, and they died before him.
Jehovah). “Even Jehovah wants to strangle Moses, because He had not circumcised his son. The biblical story-lung thinks of a literal choking; Jehovah attacks suddenly-

He confronts the legislator on the way and chokes him for so long, until Zipporah performed the circumcision. And it happened.

“On the way,” it says Exodus 4:24, “at the inn, there Jehovah came upon him [Mofe] and wanted to kill him. Then

) 3. Mos. 10:2

385

Zipporah took a knife and circumcised the foreskin of her son and threw it at his feet and said: One blood= "You are my bridegroom!" And he let go of him.

An even worse side is happening in Jehovah's Ge= Müthsart kund. Grimm is terrible in a god, But malice places God among ordinary people. down. The Old Testament Jehovah is treacherous, malicious, He is deliberately leading people to ruin.

The people in the desert lamented their hardship before the Ears of Jehovah 9 — should it also be for the poor people to have been remorseful, if it was his God's misery presented? — But when Jehovah heard the complaints, “as he...” His anger flared up, and a fire burned among them. Jehovah's and ate at the end of the camp. — So already A consuming fire because of mere complaints! — «Since The people cried out to Moses, and Moses prayed to Jehovah, when The fire died down. But the rabble that was among them was, had cravings, and again they cried. The sons of Israel said: Who will give us meat to eat? We remember the fish we ate for nothing in Ae= Egypt, the cucumbers and the melons and the leeks and of the onions and garlic; and now our Palate dry, nothing there; only on the one hand have “We our eyes!” — Who will hear these complaints from Israel? Liene can be blamed; who wouldn't have felt the need to help in their situation? Is that right? Moses wants to lead them to a land where milk and Honey flows, and they find nothing but misery! — And Moses heard the people weeping for their families, one Everyone at the door of his tent: there the fire broke out

Jehovah's anger was great, and Moses disliked it. The Ge-
The settlor is now speaking privately with his God.
not particularly polite: "Am I with this whole people?"
"I went pregnant," he says, "and gave birth to it, that

"4 Mos. Chapter j
25

386

You say to me: Bear it in your bosom, as the
The guard carries the infant to the land which you have given them.
Sworn to my fathers? Where shall I get meat, it's the-
to give to all the people? For they weep against me.
and say: Give us meat to eat! I am able not only to carry this whole people; for it is too Difficult for me. In response to this rather harsh speech, he shares Jehovah sent seventy men with the spirit of Moses, that with them to support him, and speak to the people, commands
He said: "Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, when you shall eat meat; for you
You wept in Jehovah's ears and said: Who gives To eat meat? For we fared well in Egypt; and Jehovah will give you meat to eat. Not for a single day.
You shall eat it, and not for two days, and not for five days, and not for ten.
Days, and not twenty days: up to the time of a moon,
until it comes out of your nose and disgusts you will be, because you have Jehovah, who is among you,
I threw myself and wept and spoke before him: Why?
"We found ourselves out of Egypt!" — What a character!
This God! The poor, starving people who have long Having nothing but manna grains, they begged for meat: he but, like a malicious person from whom something is extorted, says: Now you will also have to eat meat until the Disgust until it comes out of your nose! — And a wind
It goes on to say that they were driven out by Jehovah, "and brought watch" teln from the sea and threw them onto the camp during a day-travel here and on a day trip there, all around the camp and at two cubits above the earth. And the people set out all day and all night and spent the whole morning gathering the quail.
The meat was still between her teeth, it was still not consumed: then Jehovah's anger flared up. against the people, and Jehovah established among the people a

"A very big defeat!" — So first he grants
The request doesn't even promise meat in just a few days.

N 387

but for a whole month: but hardly does the people begin as he was about to enjoy the pleasure, he pushed it away.
He drives away from a gift, like a madman, devouring it.
under the same. — Another time) the people were shown derum «impatient on the road and spoke against God» and against Moses: Why did you bring us up from Egypt, that we should die in the desert? For there is no bread
There is no water, and we are disgusted by this loose food.
Then Jehovah sent among the people the snakes that...
"Raphs bit the people and many people died in Israel."
The passage mentioned above also belongs here.
Ezekiel, to whom Jehovah says: "I also gave them Statutes that were not good, and rights by which they
They were not alive, they defiled them through their offerings, by They all offered firstborn gifts so that I might destroy them, since with them they recognized that I am Jehovah." — Every nation that whoever receives a law from his God will believe that God Give him the law for his own good; it will be based on the law.
to hold on, hoping in this way not only to the
To be pleasing to God, but also to be happy.
found. But why does Jehovah now give the Jews in the Would a law exist? To destroy them; he admits it.
He gave the Jews statutes that were not good.
By observing these statutes, the Jews, their first
By sacrificing those born, they destroy their offspring, as it Jehovah's will is; but at the same time they act contrary to it.
against the will of God, because he the human sacrifices despised. Jehovah's purpose is to unleash his anger upon the people. to satisfy which demands the destruction of the Israelites. This
He achieves his purpose through his law in a twofold way.
First, the Ssraelites must offer their firstborn,
But then, in offering this gift, they commit a crime.
and make themselves worthy of punishment; in other words, God

) Numbers 21, 5. ff.) Ezekiel 20, 25. |

25 *

It forces the Jews to sin through a law! — and according to the eccentric concepts of Ezekiel, it should such a procedure of God serves to destroy the Jews² to make it known that Jehovah is the Messenger; the God should reveal himself to glorify such an outrageous course of action, fine Demonstrate power! — What a god! — That's how it is everywhere. in the Old Testament; to a morality, to a sanctity of God is rarely conceived according to the concepts of educated peoples. The prevailing tendency is to portray God as to depict a terrible, powerful being that chosen people easily gain dominion over the Neighboring peoples, later spread across the entire earth. If Jehovah only proves himself powerful and terrible: a man³ Poor morality does not do his glory the slightest thing. Abort! — “Man paints himself in fine gods!” and yet this longed-for political power and World domination for the Hebrews for millennia was only a It remained a vain dream!

Jehovah provides the occasion for sinning; he verses It breaks people's hearts when this serves its purposes It is helpful. This fable of... is of no help here. Dogmatists, who have been in since John Damascus in Exercise (ift), according to which the blockage is not effective, fonts dern deservite, permissive to be understood and the Bible applied the terms actio and operatio where they merely permissio dei, understood, wanted to know; That means unred⁴ proceeding in a manner that violates the truth in order to escape black To make it white! The passages are clear: Jehovah prevents the recognition and obeying of his will in this matter or that person, in order to thereby create a reason to... to hold him, to punish him, or otherwise to demonstrate his power. This is specifically stated very openly in the story. of the exodus from Egypt. Jehovah spoke to Moses:

3) John Damasc. de fide orthod. IV, 20.

See that you see all the wonders that I have placed in your hand
 You lay before Pharaoh; but I will destroy his heart.
 (He is determined not to let the people go).
 Jehovah, whom Moses met in the desert, and who here appearing in public for the first time, wants to speak before Jews and Egyptians to demonstrate his power through wondrous deeds that were his Servant Moses is to be carried out. But now there is reason to fear, that Pharaoh already exiled the Jews upon their mere request of Moses or even after the first miracle, where through which the cause then slips away, with further miracles to emerge. Jehovah prevents this by the fact that he Pharaoh's heart is stuck: «Sch wants to get Pharaoh's heart stuck» harden and do much of my signs and my wonders in Land of Egypt. And Pharaoh will not listen to you:
 And so I will lay my hand on Egypt, and my

Lord, my people, the sons of Israel, bring them out of the land Land Egypt through great courts. And the Egyptians
 They should recognize that I am Jehovah when I lift my hand extend across Egypt and lead the sons of Israel away from their midst. Instead of these wonders at the Egyptian to show the king at the table, who according to this view is alone
 The guilty part could be, Jehovah brings the plagues about the innocent people; indeed, he spares the king.
 Naturally, precisely to demonstrate his miraculous power. When he did that (He says he had battered the whole country with bumps and bruises?): -Now
 I could have reached out my hand and hit you, and your people with the plague, so that you would be destroyed by it:
 Earth. But for this reason I let you live, so that I will let you see my power and so that you may see my Na
 "Tell the whole story of the inheritance." So here it will be...
 As has been said before: the new god wants to make himself famous through Pharaoh.
 to do; after every plague, he hardens his heart anew,
 so that he would not have the opportunity for his gruesome miracles

) 2. Mof. 4, 21.) 2. Mof. 8, 15,

(escape). In the same way, Jehovah also wants the heart
 The Egyptians harden 2: "Look," he says, "I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians so that they will follow you, and I will glorify myself in Pharaoh and in all his Power, in his chariots and in his riders. And the Egyptians should recognize that I am Jehovah when I... glorify Pharaoh, his chariot, and his retinue.
 tern." — What, then, is the basis of this glorification? What is it based on?
 How should the Egyptians recognize Jehovah? — By the fact that he knew them drowned in the sea!

The idea of a hardening or freezing up of the human heart, from an eclipse of the soul
 The message from Jehovah goes through the entire Old Testament.
 through to the new one. According to Judges 2:3.
 Jehovah to the Israelites: "He does not want them [the Canaanites] drive them out from before you, so that they become your adversaries and their Gods will become your snare. Go and speak to the gods.
 (Jehovah says to the people in Isaiah): "Listen, you will follow,
 But you shall not understand; you shall see, but not perceive.
 You shall harden the heart of this people and their ears

55.2. Mos. 7, 13, 22; Cape. 8, 19; Cape. 9, 12; Cape. 10, 20, 27.

2) 2. Mof. 14, 17.

3) Isaiah 6:9. Mark 4:11 echoes this passage:

"To you it has been given the gift of the mystery of the Kingdom of God to to know; but to those outside everything is given in parables;
 so that they may see, but not recognize, and indeed... to understand, but not to comprehend, so that (ure) they do not become better
 They will turn and their sins will be forgiven. (Matthew 13:14)
 Luke 8:10; John 12:40; Acts 28:26; Romans 11:8. On The Jews must sin in a similar way in the new testament.
 to fulfill prophecies; John 15:24: Had
 I have not done the works among them that no one else has done.
 If they had, they would have no sin; but now they have the same sin.
 to see and yet hate me and my father. But it
 The word that was written in their law had to be fulfilled.
 Ben says: They hated me for no reason.

to numb and blind sensitive eyes, so that it does not see with being with his eyes and with his ears not hear, and his heart
 I feel and repent and be healed... Why, Ge O Lord, do you let us stray from your ways, do you stray?
 (Our heart against your fear)? — One also asks of Jehovah, not only to blind the enemies with physical blindness strike, as Psalm 69:34: Their eyes are dark, that Do not see them, let their loins constantly waver, pour over
 May your wrath and the flames of your anger reach you; » but one also demands of the God that he destroy the enemies punish them through stubbornness of heart: "Pay them punishment."
 Give them credit, Jehovah, according to the work of their hands!
 Obstinacy of heart, may your curse be upon it!
 Pursue them in anger and destroy them under God's heaven.
 (away)!» |

Jehovah goes so far as to even consider subtle truthful-
 He gives the price to bring destruction wherever he wishes.
 judge. The proclaimers of Jehovah's will are the Prophets. When Ahab, king of Israel, of their four hundred gathered them to ask if his enterprise
 They all agree that it will succeed against the Syrians:
 "Go forth, and the Lord will give Gilead into your hand."
 Then they also bring in the prophet Micah, who in great Bem Anseen stand, so that he too might give fine oracles. At Jehovah's life, this prophet swears, What Ever who will tell me, I want to talk about that. And when he went to "King," the king said to him, "came Micah, shall we..." Should we go to Ramoth in Gilead to fight, or should we stand back? And Micah said to him, "Go away, and it will be given to you."
 If it succeeds, Jehovah will give it into the King's hand!
 But when the king pressed Micah further, asking him to But yes, to tell the truth, the prophet explains, that the

) Isaiah 63:17

Lamentations, Jeremiah 3:65. Compare also 5 Moofius 29:4; Ephesians 29:10.

"The undertaking will turn out badly. I'm going," he says.
 he 9, "Jehovah sitting on a fine throne and the whole
 The host of heaven standing beside him on his right and to his left. And Jehovah said: Who wants Ahab persuade him to ascend and fall at Ramoth in Gilead?
 And this one said so, and that one said so. Then he went
 The Spirit came forth and stood before Jehovah and said: I will discuss. And Jehovah said to him: By what means? And he
 He said: I want to go out and be a lying spirit in my mouth.
 all his prophets. And he said: You shall heal him.
 And you will be able to do it: go out and do so.
 And now, "behold," the prophet continued against the king,
 Jehovah has placed a lying spirit in the mouth of everyone
 This one of your prophets, and Jehovah, has spoken evil words.
 about you! — If Jehovah now accomplishes his fine will through the Prophets reveal, but also a lie in the prophets Gengeist lays: how is it still to him and his prophets Trust? Even the prophets themselves cannot judge whether
 The spirit that drives them, whether it be a lie or the truth; everyone holds His mind was truly authentic. Even in the story just told.
 The four hundred prophets are firmly convinced that Je
 I speak the truth from them. Zedekiah appears before Micha.
 He slaps him on the cheek and says: Where would the
 Has the Spirit of Jehovah departed from me to speak to you?
 But the success shows that the truth is on Mi's side.
 That is; King Ahab remains in the battle. — That Ser
 even if the Prophet were given a false spirit, he confessed.
 Isaiah likewise. That is the way of the ancient Jehovah.
 servant; every appearance, bad or good, finds its
 The reason lies in Jehovah; he is the primary cause of all effects.
 There are many prophets who do not know in the sense of Isaiah.
 Prophets who promote idolatry say: also Their spirit is from Jehovah, but God has given them a

) 1 Kings 22:19 ff.

"Given a bad spirit. Start, fret," says the prostitute.
 (phet), blind yourselves and become blind! Drunken, find fire, but not from wine; they waver, but not from strong Drinks. For Jehovah poured upon you a Spirit of Sleep addiction and closed your eyes (the prophets) and your
 He veils the heads (of the seers). And so it is to you.
 "The entire law is like the words of a bricked script!"
 Let us now hear Jehovah in his threats.
 and curses against his chosen people. The Jewish understanding has struggled to comprehend all the horrors.
 meln and it be a curse to the god against the transgressors to put words in the mouth of the federal government. "If you don't tell me..."
 obey, "Jehovah says," and does not do all these things.
 messenger, so I order upon you terror, consumption and high fever, which causes the eyes to go dark and
 The soul languishes; and you shall waste your soul in vain.
 You sow, and your enemies will consume it. And I will judge.
 My face against you, that you may be struck down before your enemies, and that those who hate you may rule over you.
 fchen, and you flee without being pursued. And if you
 If you have not obeyed me until this, I will punish you further.
 Seven times more for your sins, and break your insolent ways Pride. And I will make your heavens like iron and your Earth like bronze, so that in vain your strength wasted; and Your land shall not yield its produce, and the tree of the
 The field shall not yield its fruit. And if you enjoin on me...
 If he opposes me and refuses to obey me, then I will strike
 You seven times more according to your sins. And I Send the beasts of the field against you, that they may bring you the children.
 who will rob and devour your flocks and your number reduce the desolation of your streets. And if you Do not let me rebuke you through this, and who walks towards me; so I will walk towards you and

) Yes. 29, 9.) 3. Mof. 26, 14. ff.

I will also strike you seven times for your sins. And I
 I bring upon you the sword that will bring vengeance to my Bun

Practice this, that you withdraw to your cities, and send A plague among you, that you may be given into the hands of the enemy, by breaking the support of your bread, that ten Women bake your bread in an oven and they will give you the Return the bread according to the weights and you eat it and don't You will be satisfied. And if you do not obey me because of this, and who walks towards me: so I too walk towards you in
 I will be angry and punish you seven times for your sins.
 And you shall eat the flesh of your sons and the
 You shall eat the flesh of your daughters. And I will destroy your "Heights," the author continues, who apparently is in the Ges imprisonment wrote and the long-standing idolatry of the
 He has the Hebrews in mind, "and cut out your pillars from and throw your corpses upon the ruins of your idols
 And my soul abhors you. And I make your Reduce cities to rubble and devastate your sanctuaries and I don't want to revel in your sweet scent. And I Devastate the land so that your enemies will be horrified by it, who dwell therein. And I will scatter you among the Peoples and draw your swords behind you, and your
 The land shall be desolate and your cities in ruins. » |
 Similar curses are hurled against the Jews in the fifth.
 The Book of Moses, chapters 28 and 32, was spoken. The author
 In his disgusting fantasy, he goes so far that he Jehovah threatens him to unleash such a terrible hun-Gersnoth send that the Hebrew women send their husbands and begrudge children the afterbirth that passes between their
 They came forth from the legs, and the sons whom they bore;
 For they will eat them secretly in lack of everything, in (of distress and anxiety). "Fire blazes in "My anger," he says 2), "and burns to the deepest

1) Deut. 28, 57.) Deut. 32, 22.

395

The underworld devours the earth and its fruits and sets it ablaze
 The foundations of the mountains. I will bring misfortune upon them.
 I will use up my arrows against them. They will be consumed.
 consumed by hunger, by heat and poisonous disease; and I will send the tooth of wild animals against them, along with the poison.
 of those crawling in the dust. From the outside, it should rub off.
 Sword and in the chambers the terror, such young men

as virgins, infants together with the grasping man!»
 From a God who punishes the transgressions of his commandments
 Thus, if the Hebrew punishes, he also expects that he will punish the enemy.
 May he pursue his beloved with similar ruin. Prayers to Jehovah, that he might bring misery and wretchedness upon an enemy
 The sentence to impose may be found not rarely in the Old Testament. Psalm 71, 13: "Bol Shame must perish, those who oppress me."
 the one covered with scorn and disgrace, which my misfortune fuchen; but I will continually hope and increase all your
 "No glory!" "May their village be a desert, no one in their tents."
 Inhabitants! Add guilt to their guilt and let them
 They will not achieve justice before you! May they be wiped out.
 will be from the Book of Life and with the righteous
 "Not recorded I!" "Pour your wrath upon the nations, who don't know you, and about the kingdoms that your name
 Do not call on them; for they have swallowed Jacob and His apartment was trashed! Give it back to our neighbors!
 Benfach in den Busen her scorn, with which she mocked you,
 Lord! But we, your people and the flock of your pasture,
 We want to thank you eternally, regardless of gender.
 (To proclaim glory). «Sa, God shatters fine enemies
 Head, the parting of the hair of that one, who walks in his guilt.
 The Lord says: From Bashan I will bring them here, they bring from the depths of the sea, that you may lay your foot
 You bathe in blood, your dog's tongue against the enemy's ) Pf. 69, 26. 2) Pf. 79, 6 - 13.

396

(Part have).» A Hebrew prays horribly in Psalm 109.
 against an enemy. Set the wicked man over him," he says,
 "And let the adversary stand at his right hand! From the Ge-Judge him, go guilty, and let his prayer become sin!
 May his days be few, may another take his office!
 His children are orphans and his wife a widow! Um-
 His children must wander about, begging and calling from afar.
 from their ruins! May the usurer attract everything to himself,
 What is his, strangers are plundering his work! Nobody Preserve his love and let no one have pity on his orphans!

His offspring will be destroyed, in the other sex
May their name be extinguished! May his fathers' guilt be remembered.
Jehovah and his mother's sin has not been blotted out!
They should always be before Jehovah, and he should eradicate his memory from the Earth! Because he didn't think to practice love, and pursued the wretched man and the poor and the beggar
They tried to kill him. He loved the curse, so let it befall him!
He had no pleasure in blessings, so let them be far from him!
He puts on a curse like a garment; like water he soaks through it.
into his inner being and like oil into his bones; let him be like the garment he wraps himself in, and as a belt with which He always girded himself! This shall be my adversary's reward from Jehovah and those who speak evil against me! But you, Jehovah, Lord, stand by me for your name's sake, for
"Great is your mercy; save me!"

When God deals so harshly with his own people, as the above threats indicate: in order to, or rather against Not Jews! Those curses and their execution constitute, according to from the Hebrew's point of view, a just punishment from Jehovah.
to his people for their long-standing idolatry. The punishment
It will pass; Jehovah will again take his people into his mercy.
on. The relationship of God to the 9 Dr. 68, 22 ff. Compare also Pf. 5, 11; Pf. 54, 6; Pf. 55, 24;

Pf. 56, 8; Pf. 59, 6, 7.

397

Non-Jews. He doesn't concern himself with them at first.
and it is fortunate for her if he abandons her to her fate.
But then they are a means in his hand to help his people to punish or to glorify; they are treated like things treated, which exist only because of the chosen Jews
Are. If Jehovah uses them to punish the Hebrews, then he is Later, he would be so merciful again, granting his people bloody revenge on them.
to allow; if Jehovah wants to glorify himself and his people, then These are again acts of violence perpetrated by him and the Hebrews.
can be exercised against non-Jews: in any case, it is
The lot of the heathens is terrible. What these so-called heathens...
Jehovah has ordained for the Jews to possess it; he has granted it.

even orders them to be robbed, fat, fine people in the country into which their hands, with effort and sweat, cultivated have power, and have the old inhabitants exterminated. From Even the most distinguished among the Prophets cannot be set free. Even in the rare passages, according to which in the messianic kingdom a conversion of the
The place where heathens are to be found is not being taken out of consideration for others.

Jehovah's for the non-Jews, but for the best of Jewish people
The lust for power, which desires a vast, populous empire, people who needs to exercise power. This also occurs conversion only occurs after the Jews, under their messianic rule,
The king took terrible revenge on the heathens, the greatest They destroyed a portion of them; only the remainder of the heathens may repent and the first good deed that this [be]
The return granted consists in the fact that they return their gold and Bringing silver to Jerusalem for the glory of Jehovah must. — He dreamt such a big, terrible dream.
the wretched Hebrew people in their political powerlessness;
It dreamt him vividly, and still dreams him to this day!
I have come to understand the sad and miserable position into which the Old Testament, including the Prophets, all sets non-Jews to be Jehovah and his chosen people, 398

more often taken into account; they now follow here through biblical Statements and news will be explained in more detail.
Even at his first appearance in Egypt, the
The Jewish God expressed a complete lack of feeling towards humans, who do not belong to his chosen people. Because the
The Egyptian king, being stubborn, punishes the innocent
Egyptian people with the most terrible plagues; he begot
(He turns all the water of the land into blood), sends frogs, Plague, smallpox, hail, locusts, darkness over the Land and kills all firstborn from the firstborn Pha rao's to the firstborn of the prisoner in the dungeon.
As he bids farewell to Egypt, he commands the noble people,
to steal golden and silver vessels from the Egyptians, «extract Israel with (foreign) silver and gold).
“I will,” he says, “give favor to this people in

in the eyes of the Egyptians; and it happens when you go, So you will not go away empty-handed. And every woman shall from her neighbor and housemate, silver and gold Borrow vessels and garments, and you shall give them to your sons.
 and daughters lay and thus the Egyptians behead! — On Such a shameful way must be the chosen people who after The Egyptians' merciful favor, their trust in the honor to abuse the freedom of Hebrew foreigners. And so He led his people out in joy, in jubilation his people.
 chose, and he gave them the lands of the nations and the
 The work of the nations took place. Of course.
 It was difficult enough for the Hebrews to conquer the nations.
 conquer, Moses was unable to lead his people into the

) Of course, the Egyptian magicians also did this, and their wish It was all the greater because they still found water to transform, after Jehovah had already “turned everything into blood”;
 Exodus 7:22.

2) Pf. 105, 37.) Exodus. 3, 21.

) Ps. 105, 43, 44.

399

promised «sworn» land, as it is everywhere-is called to introduce; but where they were once victors,
 There, at the command of their god, they had to commit a barbaric act.
 practice on the defeated, who have hardly appeared anywhere in history their equal. The maidens of the defeated tribe
 They usually took them in a truly barbaric way, for possessed; everything else that had breath had to die.
 ben, not the men alone, but also women and male children; the blood spread even to the cattle.
 the greedy fury of these cannibals; and even if they do not were themselves willing to commit an immense killing of defenseless people
 The priests forced them to impose punishments on their fellow human beings; Jehovah would become enraged whenever he saw even one person at let live. The later biblical account seeks these.
 to justify horrific barbarity through probability that the remnants of the peoples would turn the Jews into abominations have seduced them with idols; but what those people's idolatry to call it, was and remained with the Jews, despite this ver-Driving is a constant occurrence. Newer ones speak With regret, I speak of a sadly barbaric war law.

that time; however, the matter has a completely different reason:
The enemies were offered to Jehovah as a great sacrifice.
consecrates; Jehovah wanted to give some of the spoils as a token of his mercy.
to have his part, the people were consecrated to him according to

The prophets had their Jehovah swear to him as often as they saw a prophet.
Consider important confirmation necessary: and that's where ed comes from, that Jehovah grants wishes through an oath reaffirmed goals that were not implemented. For example, it says that...
Isaiah 62:8: Jehovah has sworn by his right hand and will... nem grossen Arm: I will no longer give your grain for food to your enemies, and not sons of strangers shall consume your must.
drink, for which you toiled, — and yet Palestine has been since from the time when this oracle was given, to the present day Day in foreign power and the Jews are liable to pay taxes to all people-core.

400

Under certain circumstances only in their male part, or completely with women and children, or, if you want even more wanted to do, also with the livestock and all belongings-

Possibilities, depending on whether one was more or less prepared before the battle
He felt it necessary to secure his support. I I will now discuss the individual cases of this horrific religious Fanaticism is not included; the more important aspects of it will come later.
will be discussed in detail. Right back to the earliest times.
The king will, at Jehovah's command, follow this procedure.
practiced against the enemies, then it disappears with the increasing menden Cultur, which the traffic of kings and the people which led to tensions with neighboring states.

This is how Jehovah acted before the time of those reformers-fchen endeavors, through which our Old Testament

Writings were revised and brought to light, with the people who do not have happiness, or rather unhappiness had to be Hebrews. Even later, in the view of those Reformers themselves, who were particularly involved in the prophetic As books reveal, Jehovah does not treat the Gentiles much. better). The Jews were constantly a pawn of the powerful neighboring empires; finally, they even had to... They left the land promised to them by Jehovah and were Led into captivity by the heathens. This was painful. The reformers delved deeply. They searched for the reasons that Jehovah may have caused them to be with his chosen one Volke also to proceed, his own glory among the Hei- to diminish him so much and subject his people to their scorn to give. Powerlessness could be the cause on their side.

1) Jeremiah also shows a desire for revenge against the neighboring Tribes to a high degree; Chapters 48 and 49. Cursed, means It is in the oracle against the Moabites, chapter 48, verse 10, whoever... Jehovah's work (the murder of the Moabites) is done casually, and Cursed is he who keeps his sword from bloodshed! . Horror and Pit and wrath against you, inhabitants of Moab, says Jehovah.

401

Jehovah was not there: he therefore allowed the shameful misfortune to occur. Punishment for idolatry will come. Punishment is the Captivity; yet Jehovah does not hide his face. persistent; the punishment reaches its end. Do you return to Ser O Lord, your God, and obey His voice completely, As I command you today, so Jehovah your God will direct your Return to captivity and have mercy on you and gather yourself You again from all nations. When your exiles would be at the end of heaven, from there Je will give you- Hova, your God, gather them and bring you from there. "For a brief moment I left you; but with great Love, I took you back. In the blaze of anger, I hid I cast my face before you for a moment; but with eternal "I will have mercy on you," says your Redeemer, Jehovah. "With eternal love, yes, I love you, that's why I have given you "Grace preserves." "For Jehovah does not reject his people." "And he does not abandon his own property." "He remembers..."

forever his covenant, the word that he commanded on the dew= send genders, which he closed with Abraham and what he swore an oath to Isaac).

When the punishment on the side of the Jews has been served, Jehovah has once again accepted his chosen people into grace= When men have, the situation changes; now Jehovah lays all the Curses on enemies). Jehovah creates justice for his enemies. He will have compassion on his people and have mercy on his servants when he sees that they are in need. The power was gone, and all, slaves and free men, were gone. find. When I have sharpened the lightning of my sword, he speaks, and my hand reaches for the dish: so be= I will pay revenge on my enemies and repay my haters. I. I intoxicate my arrows with their blood and my Sword devours flesh, with the blood of the slain and the dead. Capture, from the head of the enemy's princes. Rejoice!

) Deut. 30, 2.) Jef. 44, 7; Jer. 31, 3; Psalm 94:14; 105, 8. 3) 5. Mos. 30, 7.
26

402

O tribes, fine people! For the blood of fine servants will avenge He and revenge he pays his enemies and reconciles his People).

And now, under political pressure, it takes hold in captivity, that dream plucked from thin air of the world domination of the prophets, in which the prophetic enthusiasm and Jewish arrogance continue= rend not little enjoyed, but fortunately the man= that has not yet been fulfilled to this day, and how The Jews themselves probably admit this to some extent nowadays, which will never come true. The chosen people He is reconciled with his God: from now on the A great time for the Hebrew people. A descendant of David appears. as king, leads the Jews to victory over the nations, In revenge for the long humiliation, he submits to her

Scepter the earth, makes them masters of the world.

“You are a holy people,” it says in Deuteronomy 7:6.
Jehovah, your God; Jehovah, your God, has chosen you let, his own people be from among all peoples, which are on the ground. Not because you are more numerous,
Like all nations, Jehovah has turned towards you and you chosen, for you are the fewest among all nations, but because Jehovah loved you and kept the oath he had taken He swore to your fathers... "Only you have I known."
of all the sexes of the earth).. «And it happens,
if you obey the voice of Jehovah, your God, so that you are careful to do all his commandments, so make You, Jehovah your God, are the highest over all nations.
the earth).» “Thus says Jehovah of hosts: After
He has sent me out to the nations for glory, have robbed you; for whoever touches you touches you.
an eyeball; for behold, I swing my hand over

1) Deut. 32, 34. ff.) Amos 3, 2.
) Deuteronomy 28:1

403

you, and they would become prey to those who They served them! “Israel, my servant, Jacob, whom I chosen, Seed of Abraham, my friend, whom I-reached from the ends of the earth and from its margins
He called, and said to you: You are my servant, I will choose you
I will not reject you: — Do not be afraid, for I
I am with you; do not despair, for I am your God, strengthen you.
and help you, and support you with my saving right hand.
Behold, it will be to shame and disgrace all who are on They angered you; they become like nothing and perish, the
They struggled with you. You throw them searching and not finding them, the
They argued against you; like nothing and nothing again, who waged war against you. For I, Jehovah, your God,
It is I who grasp your right hand, who says to you: Be afraid
No, I will help you! Do not be afraid, you worm Jacob, you "Little group Sfrael, I will help you," says Jehovah, "and your
The Savior is the Holy One of Israel. See, I will make you a Threshing wagon, sharp and new, with double cutting edge: you

You shall thresh and crush mountains and turn hills into fields Chaff. You shall throw it away so that the storm carries it off.
and the whirlwind scatters them; but you will rejoice.
about Jehovah, the holy Israel, you boast in praise).

About the time when the Messiah will appear and the
The prophets said that a bloodbath would begin among the heathens.
pretty sure; everywhere the messianic empire is said to be connected with the Return from captivity; so they want
It was all the prophets, for they all had at least the Deportation of the Israelites behind fi; most lived shortly before or during the Babylonian captivity and in the early days after the return; the focal point
All their hopes therefore very naturally fell on the time.
point where Jehovah, by bringing him back from exile, showed mercy again. It is truly astonishing, ) Zechariah. 2, 8.) Jef. 41, 8. ff.

26 *

404

like people who treat the prophets on a daily basis,
For centuries they were able to conceal what was true in all chapters irresistibly impose that this messiah niche hopes do not extend to the indeterminate tet find, but the messianic kingdom surely with the hoped ten return from captivity begin), that Furthermore, they do not have such purely spiritual purposes as one might assume.
it is presented in Christian dogmatics, but rather as The ultimate goal is the political power of the Hebrew people, a Jewish one.
to establish a world empire, in which, however, also, according to to whom the nations have been subjected, peace, tranquility and good Customs should prevail. Thus the Jews have this whiteness understood since their inception, and whoever is sincere whoever wants to be will have to admit that their interpretation is the rich tige sey. The time of the Messiah's appearance is free
The Jews had to, as already in Daniel, when they All precious hope should not fall entirely, in further and further back, precisely because the Messiah did not appear;

They were and are in a very similar situation to the Christians regarding the Second Coming of the Christian Messiah, who according to New Testament passages, during the lifetime of the then People should enter 2), but also always further out= It had to be postponed because the expectation was not met. Regarding the person of the messianic king The prophets do not agree. Haggai, perhaps. just to flatter Serubabel, what else? That is certainly not the nature of the prophets, perhaps precisely because They were convinced that the Messiah would come immediately after the baby= ) Compare e.g. B. Jer. 30, 8, 9; Jer. Cape. 31; Zeph. 3, 9-20; Yes. 61, 1 ff.; Zecharj. Cape. 8. 2c.

2) Matthew 16:28: Truly I tell you, there are some among To those who stand here, who will not taste death, until that they saw the Son of Man come into his kingdom. Luc. 9, 27; Luc. 21, 32; 1. Cor. 15, 51; 1. Cor. 1, 7, 8; 1 Cor. 4:5; 1 Cor. 7:29; Rom. 13:11ff.; 1 Thess. 4:15-17.

405

Ionian captivity during the founding of the new state= tes must appear: Haggai explains the Serubabel for the Messiah 9: The word of Jehovah came to the second ten times at Haggai, on the twenty-fourth of the month, and said: Speak to Zerubbabel, the governor of the province of Judah, therefore: I will shake the heavens and the earth, And I overturn thrones and eradicate the power of the Empires of the peoples, and I overturn chariots and their leaders= rer, and horses fall and their riders, every one through the The other's sword. At that same time, Jehovah spoke to the Hordes, I will take you, Zerubbabel, son of Seal! Thiel's, my servant, says Jehovah, and hold you like the Signet ring; for I have chosen you, says Jehovah the Lord. "Army chariots." — In Jeremiah and Ezekiel, the Messiah, the resurrected David himself. It happens on On that same day, says Jehovah the host, I will Break your yoke from your neck and your bonds from your heart. tear and no longer become strangers make you useful;

but they will serve Jehovah, their God, and David, their king, whom I will set up for them.

“Do not be afraid, my servant Jacob,” says Je.
O Lord, and do not tremble, Israel! For behold, I will deliver you from of the distance and your seed from the land of his captives
The group and Jacob return and are calm and safe.
And without fear. For I am with you, says Jehovah, you to help; for I will destroy all nations, Wherever I scatter you; only I will not make you die.
from 2). “I want to help my sheep so that they don’t more to be plundered, and will judge between sheep and Sheep; and I will put one shepherd over them,
My servant David, who shall tend them, shall tend them.
to be their shepherd, and I, Jehovah, will be their God.
and my servant David, Prince, in their midst). Thus ) Haggai Ch. 2, 21 - 24. 9 Jer. 30, 10 ff.) Ezech. 34, 23,

— —

406

The Lord Jehovah says: Behold, I am taking the sons of Israel.
out of the nations among which they walk, and Gather them from all around and bring them to their land. And I make them a people in the land on the mountains of Israel;
and one king shall be king of them all, and they shall not
There are no longer two peoples, and they no longer divide into two.
Kingdoms. And my servant David shall be king over them.
and be one shepherd to them all. And they shall dwell in the land that I gave to my servant Jacob, in which Your fathers lived there, and they shall live there, they and their sons and the sons of their sons forever and ever, and my David the servant shall be their prince forever, Zechariah.
crowns chapter 6, 9-15, a high priest Joshua, son of Joza.
Daks, to the Messiah. He says: Look, a man, offspring is his name, which will sprout in his place, whereby he seems to be referring to Joshua's son, who to found the messianic kingdom. The prophet imagines himself the time is very near; “he will open the temple Jehovah’s build,” he continues, “and carry the king’s adornment, and those from afar will come and at the temple Je-"Hova's build." — Otherwise it's always an unexplained one.

 distinguished offspring of David's family, as is known, who as Messiah is expected. Micah is even so bold as Bethlehem, the city of David, as the birthplace of the Messiah to describe: “But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah — you should be small
 You are among Judah's descendants — from you will come;
 proceed, the ruler shall be in Israel, whose origin from prehistoric times, from the days of antiquity. Therefore [Jehovah] will give her up until a woman is born,
 Then the rest of the fine brothers will return to the sons of Israel.
 And Jacob's remnant is among the nations, in the middle of many peoples, like the lion among the animals of the forest, like the young lion among flocks of sheep, who, when he

9) Ezek. 37, 21 ff.

407

breaks in, tramples down, and tears apart without rescue. He-
 Your hand will be over your enemies and all your Adversaries are exterminated. »

But how does Jehovah treat non-Jews in this regard?
 the appearing of the Messiah? First and foremost, the Hebrews will be told Bloody revenge was taken upon them. I am zealous,” says Jehova, «for Zion with great zeal and with great fury
 I strive for this. At the same time, I strike all the horses.
 with timidity and their riders with madness; over the house
 But for Judah I will open my eye, and all the horses of the people.
 I strike him with blindness. At the same time, I make the Judah's chieftains were like a fire basin under wood and like a torch of fire among sheaves, so that they devour them
 To the right and to the left, all the peoples all around. To the same Time protects Jehovah Jerusalem's inhabitants, and the weak
 Among them at that same time was David and the house
 David's equal to God, like the angel of Jehovah before (to them). “But this is the plague with which Jehova will strike all the peoples who went to war against Jerusalem: He will destroy every meat, while he stands on his feet, and his eyes

 Gens vanish into their caves and his tongue vanishes (in refined speech).. Everywhere, of course, it is initially only found the peoples with whom the Jews came into contact, ge to whom Jehovah's wrath rages; the then geographi
 The Jewish perspective extended only very meagerly beyond the major neighboring countries. At Joel's Jehovah holds judgment over the Gentiles in the Valley of Jehoshaphat, where, of course, no significant number of people could find space.

1) Micah 5:1, 2, 7.

*) Zechariah 8:1. With this prophet the main blow begins. against the Gentiles only after they besieged Jerusalem once more have. Chapters 13 and 14.

) Sachar. 12, 6, 8) Zechar. 14, 12.

408

"And it will happen afterwards, when I will give a sign on Heaven and earth, blood and fire and columns of smoke;
 The sun turns to darkness and the moon to blood,
 before the day of Jehovah comes, the great and terrible one.
 Then it happens that whoever calls on Jehovah's name will saved; for on Mount Zion and at Sernphelem if Salvation, as Jehovah spoke, and among the Entron nenen is whom Jehovah calls. For see in the same day Then I will be the captivity of India and Jerusalem.
 bring them back; and I will gather all the nations and lead them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat and argue with them there about my people and property Israel, which they have destroyed under
 "The peoples and my land are divided." "Let's set out, Draw the nations into the Valley of Jehoshaphat! For there
 I will sit to judge all the nations around me. Lay down the Sickle up; for the harvest is ripe! Come, stamp your feet;
 For the winepress is full, the tubs overflow; for Great was their wickedness!

Even among the prophets, one can find the idea that that such a slaughter of nations, as occurred during the An-
The coming of the Messiah is to take place, requiring a great sacrifice for May Jehovah be and serve to atone for the sins of Israel.

“Do not be afraid,” Jehovah says in Isaiah, for I redeem you, I call you by name, you are mine. I am Jehovah, your God, the Holy One of Israel, is your Savior:
I give Egypt, Ethiopia, and Saba as your ransom.
instead of you. Because you are precious in my eyes, worth your time.
Respect you and I love you; therefore I will give to people.
Your life and the lives of nations instead of yours! Be afraid.
No; for I am with you, from the east I bring Your seed, and from the ruins I will gather you! I Speak at midnight: Give it here! and at noon: Hold it!
Not back! Bring here my sons from afar and

1) Joel 3, 7 ff.) Jef. 43, 1. ff.

409

my daughters from the end of the earth, blessed ones, who ficht not with my name, which I created for my honor, the
I formed and made!!» After this point, Je-God created the Hebrews for his glory; the rest of the peoples
They mean so little to him that he treats them like sacrificial animals, to slaughter them as atonement for the sins of the Jews.
The same thing that the so-called Pseudo-Jesaia says here,
The prophet Isaiah also says in chapter 34: “Jehovah is angry against all peoples and enraged against all their host; he raved banish them, give them up to be slaughtered. Their slaying Gens are thrown down and their corpses, on rises
Her stench, and mountains melt with her blood. It disintegrates.
The entire heavenly host flows and rolls down like a book.
The heavens, and all their host falls down, like leaves.
Withering of the vine and like the withering of the fig tree.
For my sword is drunken in heaven: behold, on The earth brings it down upon the people of my ban, to judgment. Jehovah's sword is full of blood, gefatted on the fat and blood of lambs and goats,

from the kidney fat of the rams, for one victim holds Jehovah in Bozra, a great battle in the land Edom. And wild buffaloes and bulls rushed with them.
 together oxen; and their land will be drenched with blood and Their soil was fertilized with "grease". Because one day of revenge
 Jehovah is holding a year of retribution to avenge Zion. —
 Here, this prophet also imagines a great cherem,
 a sacrifice of an entire nation with bulls, sheep and goats, the clean animals, for Jehovah.

After this strangling, the nations are defeated, gedem brought into slavery by the Hebrews; the king
 The Jews now rule the earth: "Incline your ear
 And come to me, listen, so that your soul may live. I
 I will grant you an eternal covenant, the graces of Da-

9) Isaiah 43:1 ff.

410

vid's, which persist. See, to the legislator of the people
 I made him a prince and ruler. of the nations). Now Jehovah is also moving into Jeru again falem ein: "Thus says Jehovah: I will return to Zion." and dwell in Jerusalem; and Jerusalem will be called the faithful city and the mountain of Jehovah the hosts of the holy mountain?).» From then on, Jerusalem was the capital of Earth. All Jews come to Zeruf-alem: "Raise up all around Open your eyes and look! They all come together, gathered around.
 to you; your sons come from afar and your daughters who carried on his arm. Who are those who, like Wol Can they fly along like pigeons to their burrows? Because My islands and Tarsis ships await me, to bring send your children from afar; their gold and their silver with them for the sake of the name of Jehovah your God, of the Holy One of Israel; for he glorifies you." The Heathens have been largely wiped out, as can be seen from the...
 As already mentioned, this is sufficiently clear; «The people
 "Fer," it says in Isaiah 60:12, and the kingdoms,
 Those who do not want to serve you perish, and the

"Peoples are being annihilated." The remaining ones will partly sold as slaves), partly they remain as tribute= obligated Jewish subjects in their countries, partly who= whom they used as slaves to work in Jerusalem.

"Instead of being abandoned and hated and never-
 When man entered you, I will make you eternally majestic, to Bliss for both sexes. And you'll be sowlful!
 to the milk of nations and the breast of kings=
 And you will realize that I, Jehovah, am your Savior.
 and your Redeemer, the Mighty Jacob I. »It goes
 The sons of your oppressors bow down to you and they bow down.
 all your taunts will fall to the soles of your feet

1) Yes. 55, 4.) Zechariah. 8, 3.) Jef. 60, 9/4 ) Joel 3:13.) Isaiah 60:16.

411

and call you Jehovah's city, Zion of the Holy One in Israel). The subjugated heathens must do the work of the Jews. to carry out: They build the devastations of the past= They raise up the ruins of the past; and they renew the devastated cities, what lay in ruins of gender to gender. And strangers stand and feed your Herds, and foreigners are your farmers and your vintners. But you are called priests of Jehovah, servants You are called the Lord of our God. The kingdom of nations— You will consume their glory and enter into their splendor.

a 2). In particular, the subjugated Gentiles of Jerusalem= rebuild the land: And the sons of foreigners will rebuild it. Your walls and their kings serve you; for in my I struck you with fury, and in my mercy I will have compassion.

"Me, your I." Especially pleasing to the Hebrew is the Ge= Thank you that the subjugated heathens gave back their riches, their They had to hand over gold and silver to the Jews, that so all the treasures of the world flowed together to Jerusalem; especially the later prophets feasted on this premonition. Position. "Your gates stand open forever," it says in the Isaiah, "Day and night they will not be closed to to bring you the treasures of the peoples and their kings with Ge

"Follow." "Then you will see and rejoice, and it will tremble and Your heart expands; for the sea turns to you.
 The riches and treasures of nations will come to you. A great many Camels will cover you, dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; all come from Sheba; gold and frankincense
 They bring them and proclaim the praises of Jehovah. All the flocks Kedar gathers to you, the rams of Nebaioth serve.
 ascend to your favor upon my altar, and my Lord;
 "I glorify the house of God." That is the word (of the Lord).

1) Yes. 60, 14; Jer. 30, 8. 9.) Jef. 61, 4. ff.
 Isaiah 60:10. Even the temple must be built by strangers; Zechariah 6:15.
) Isaiah 60:4 ff.

412

Federal), which I concluded with you when you left Egypt and my Spirit dwell among you; fear
 No! For thus says Jehovah of hosts: One more Small time, small it is, so I shake the heavens and The earth and the sea and the dry land. And I he= Shake all nations, and the Koftbarfeis will come ten of all nations, and I fill this house with Lord=

"Laughter," says Jehovah of hosts. "Mine is the silver."
 "Give me the gold," says Jehovah the host.
 Greater shall be the final glory of this house than its first.
 "Be," says Jehovah of hosts; and in this place
 "I will make peace," says Jehovah the host.
 "The wealth of all the surrounding peoples is being gathered, Gold and silver and clothes in great quantity).. Show
 "Make you powerful," prays a psalmist, "God, who is for us wrought from your temple over Jerusalem! To you must Kings bring gifts! Rebuke the beast of the reeds, which Bull herd with the calves of the nations, that they may be un=

Throwing silver bars! »

If the Jews are in possession of world domination, then they will receive
 She, their king, under the protection of Jehovah, undisturbed in this;
 They enjoy their happiness in peace. Peace spreads.
 over the whole kingdom; the Gentiles have turned to Jehovah.

returns; everywhere there is unity and obedience against
 The law. No further mention is made of violence in your...
 Lands, devastation and ruin within your borders; you
 You call your walls hail and your gates glory. And Your people, they are all righteous; they will possess the land forever, a seedling planted by me, a work of my hands
 (for glorification). "Then I will address the nations
 Clean lips closed, that they all call upon Jehovah's name, him
 They serve unanimously. From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia.

) Hagg. 2, 5. ff.) Zecharj. 14, 14.) Pf. 68, 29. ff.
) Isaiah 60:18, 21. .

413

They will attract my worshippers, the sons of my scattered ones.
 bring as my offering 9. "And it happens,
 Who remains of all the peoples who came against Jerusalem, they come year after year to worship before the King, Jehovah of hosts, and to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles 2). -The strangers who settled there to join Jehovah, to serve him, and to proclaim Jehovah's name To love, to be his servants, all who observe the day of rest, not to profane him, and to hold fast to my covenant,
 I will bring them to my holy mountain and let them be joyful-
 May they be in my house of prayer; their burnt offerings and their sacrifices Sacrifices are accepted on my altar; for my house
 It will be called a house of prayer for all nations. 3. So Jehovah speaks to the hosts: Next nations will come men and residents of many cities, and the inhabitants of the One will go to the other and say: Let us go, to beg Jehovah, and Jehovah of hosts su Chen! I want to go too! And many peoples will join us.
 come and numerous nations to Jehovah the Army to seek refuge in Jerusalem and to plead with Jehovah. In sel In those big days, ten men from all tongues took hold of the nations the corner of a Jew and say: we want
 "We will walk with you, for we have heard that God is with you."

Enough about the Old Testament views on the messiah

niche kingdoms and Jehovah's behavior towards non-Jehovahs Jews in this dreamed period of Jewish world domination I.
These messianic hopes of the Old Testament also would like to expect an impartial processor who will... revealed its true nature. I was able to do this for my ) Zeph. 3, 9, 10) Zechariah. 14, 16.) Jef. 56, 7 ff.

9) Zechariah 8:20.

9) Exactly the same views of the messianic kingdom are held by pronounced to the rabbis. Compare e.g. B. Eisenmeng. entd.
Judenth. II, 773.

414

a purpose, characterization of the old Jehovah, only the
to give basic features in which all Old Testament prophets agree; these are revenge against the heathens, under yoking of the same, then a peaceful kingdom; every pro
However, phet reassembles these individual parts into his egg a genthügenous kind, and it affords an interesting Un investigation, the individual men on their way to their farm-to pursue. The confidence with which they They painted a picture of the Jewish world empire, which fills them with amazement; and However, they too suffered, in part, the same fate as the first.
Christian teachers with the prophecy of the Second Coming of the Messiah)) — one lost faith in the verses
1. The heat, since it didn't want to arrive. 2. The Christian Dogmatics, as is well known, only encompasses the last part of the Prophecy, the peaceful world empire, for their purposes in Claim taken; she only knows the messianic king since his peaceful entry into Jerusalem and wants to be nothing in previous wars against the heathens knowledge, the horrific scenes, the judgment upon the peoples are postponed until the return of the Messiah).

) 2 Peter. Cape. 3.) Malach. 3, 13. ff.

3) Luke 21:25 ff.; Matthew 24:2 ff. Also in the New Testament The idea is not the same everywhere. The Gospels speak usually only from one court about the twelve tribes, Luke 22:30; Matthew 19:28; Chapter 20:20; Judges are the twelve apostles, so that it seems the pagans should not even be at Rich people participate. In contrast, Matthew 25:32 speaks of all He spoke to nations; Paul also includes the Gentiles; but He adheres to the old prophecies to such an extent that all Jews want to have a share in the messianic kingdom. He wants (Romans 11:15). (11, 25 ff.) do not conceal the secret that only for that reason about a part of the Jews had come to a standstill in order to save the day. to provide time for conversion. Then everything will be Ifrael will be saved, as it is written: It will be from Zion the Redeemer will come and turn away the transgressions of Jacob, »

415

That this view reflects the spirit and will of the old order Whether the statement decided against it is obvious.

But now, to characterize Jehovah, we must Consider one more point, the character of the people whom he chooses as his favorites, with whom he enters into direct contact.

Jehovah seeks certain individuals among the Hebrews. out, with whom he establishes a closer relationship than with the rest of the people. In a peculiar way, they have now but these persons usually have highly conspicuous morals Infirmary. Noah, for example, gives in to drunkenness and... curses his son Ham, who, when he was drunk from his intoxication= (sleeping, accidentally noticed in an indecent position); Abra= Ham passes his wife Sara off as his sister and He cedes them to foreign kings in order to gain advantages from them. received; Isaac follows the same advantageous procedure with (Fair woman Rebekah). Lot, even if the angels themselves... rescued from the destruction of Sodom, sleepy on two consecutive nights his two daughters= (ter). Jacob deceives his blind father Isaac about the "Blessing and lies about Jehovah" — and through this

May all nations be blessed by this ill-gotten blessing! How This man cowardly crawls before his evil conscience.
 a superior, upright and honest brother Esau!
 He calls himself Esau's servant, bows down seven times before him.
 to earth, earnestly begs that his Lord and brother may
 To let him find grace, send him gift after gift.
 forward, as he comes near his brother to see his to escape unscathed, and exhausts himself so much in Flattery, that he says Esau's face appears to him like the face of God 5). What father ever had a worse Had any sons when this Jacob? His firstborn, Ru^s

9 1 Mos. 9, 20. ff.) 1. Mof. 12, 11; Cape. 20; Cape. 26.
 >) 1 Mos. 19, 30 ff.) 1 Mos. 27, 20.) Genesis. Cape. 32 and 33.

416

Whom does a woman of a fine father seduce; Judah, from whom
 The scepter will not be taken, from which the Messiah
 Amen, commit incest on the Tamar;
 The entire group of these siblings agrees to...
 to kill his own brother, Joseph; on Reuben's advice
 They throw him alive into a pit, then they sell him.
 as slaves to passing merchants, his Clothes in blood and move the old father through the Terrible news after years of sorrow: the beloved His son was torn apart by wild animals, — and these Sons are the patriarchs of the people who belong to Jehovah chosen from all other nations! Joseph himself,
 The celebrated Joseph has so little human feeling that he buys up all the grain and the same during the price increases will not cease until the starving Egyptian people
 He surrendered all his possessions for it, and finally, when it was not can pay more, to buy some grain out of hunger (gives serfs). — Balaam, the prophet, to whom Jehovah himself comes to negotiate with him, whose donkey even expresses it in human words, which say nothing else can speak, rather than what Jehovah puts in his mouth.
 nevertheless, the Midianites were advised to persuade the Israelites through to seduce their wives, and falls as an opponent of the auser^s elected people, whom he had previously blessed three times). —

Moses and Joshua, terrible as their God, rage against their own people, even more against other peoples with a Callousness and bloodlust such as are hardly seen in a law-Found givers or conquerors of completely barbaric nations will be. For the slightest mistake, Moses faces death; he
 But he himself allows himself to transgress the law and remains unpunished. A poor Sfraelite gathers wood on the Sabbath; he must be stoned; but Moses marries foreign women,

) 1. Mof. 35, 22; Cape. 49, 10; Cape. 38.) 1. Mof. 47, 19. ff.
 3) 4. Mof. 22, 9. 12. 20. 29. 38; Cape. 31, 8. 16.

417

without heeding his prohibition and the rebuke of his siblings care. When the Israelites worshipped the golden calf had, he calls out (Exodus 32:26): "To me, whoever calls on Jehovah..."
 heard; the Levites must wander around the camp and turn right and put down the Hebrews on the left, without investigation, immediately-Whether guilty or innocent, among three thousand men.
 But his brother Aaron, who made the golden calf, who has led the service of the same remains spared, is thus-Even the high priest! Like any other despot, Moses considers above all his family, and rages inhumanly against them.
 Those who oppose his unlimited powerattempt to step forward. — As Samson, whose birth was due to the
 The angel announced, the fine riddle solved, the
 The Spirit of the Lord upon him, that he slew thirty men.
 and steals their garments as the price for their release to pay for the riddle. Like a useless fellow binds
 This messenger of God brought fires to the poor foxes.
 tails and chases them into the grain. In his meaty...
 He changes his pleasures at will; initially hot
 He gives advice; then he goes away and the fine woman is given to a Others, then he sees a whore in Gaza and lies with her,
 Finally, he sides with Delilah, who leads him to his doom.
 (brings). — Samuel, how sour does this priest make me?
 To the honest King Saul! Before a battle against the
 He commands the Amalekites to completely exterminate this tribe.
 ten, men and women, children and infants, oxen and to kill sheep, camels, and donkeys). The Jews brought including all human beings and a number of animals, only leaving the better part of the cattle She is alive. Then the Lord relents, according to the prophecy... this priest; that he made Saul ruler ) Guidelines, Chapters 13 to 16.

2) 1 Samuel, Chapter 15. The Amalekites, however, killed their prisoners. do not be kindled; 1 Samuel 30:2.

27

418

“had; Samuel gets angry, shouts all night long Jehovah; but he cuts the captive King Agag to pieces with to pieces by his own hand "before the Lord! — What a Piety! — Saul will be punished because he did not completely control the cattle. had destroyed, in the name of Jehovah, the throne for loss explained and anointed David king in his place. The He, however, was more willing to commit cruelties. He let the saw captured enemies in half, burn them, put them under the threshing floor (lay down wagons, shatter them with wedges). — The whole of life the David is a continuous chain of dishonesty. and abominations of all kinds. We will do the same to Characterization of the religious standpoint of his age in the second part of this book into a somewhat different A more detailed assessment is needed; therefore, not here. More about him. — And what was the situation like in this family? God-chosen ones, assured of being repeatedly (will be) that he has kept Jehovah's commandments and rights and have done what was pleasing to the Lord? His one Ammon's son defiles his half-sister Tamar; for this Absalom kills his half-brother Ammon; the same Absalom Lom dethrones his father and sits down next to him. During the father's lifetime, the use of the paternal hat rems); later another son of David, Adonia, ) 2nd Sam. 12, 31.) 1 Kings. 11, 33, 34; Yes. 37, 35.

3) To explain this action, the oriental custom serves, according to which completely oversaw the regent's harem from the father to the Saul's son inherited the property. Saul's harem had passed to David. David's Harem on Solomon's Hill. For old David, they had Finally, a very beautiful girl was being sought for her graduation party, who would last until until his death, when he was considered his favorite. After David's death, Abisag, in Solomon's possession. Adonijah, deprived of his throne, This girl asks Solomon for help. But he notices the Presumably intentional, he finds hidden claims in this request. relinquish the throne and have Adonijah executed at once. 1 Kings 2 22 — 25. The pseudo-brother of Kambyses, Smerdis, steps down.

419 \

likewise an attempt to seize the throne, and Solomon, the celebrated Solomon, to whom one has several biblical ascribes to books to which Jehovah often appears, in order to speak with to speak to him, whom he has pardoned with the highest wisdom, the (who chose himself as his son) — this Solomon was murdered~~de~~ det his older brother Adonia, the rightful throne~~de~~ to inherit, he keeps a harem of a thousand women, submits the idolatry of all surrounding peoples and dies, himself according to biblical confession, as an idolater 2). — From Little is told us about the lives of the prophets; Spu~~de~~ that even the most famous among them have their significant Those who had moral deficiencies can nevertheless also be found Given our meager news coverage, consider life. one Elijah, the greatest prophet according to Jewish belief, to whom, at Jehovah's command, the angels and ravens provided food bring, the dead man who raised the dead, who is Jehovah in person Look, with whose cloak one can only plunge into the Jordan may, in order to divide his floods and walk with dry feet to go through, which last time even took place in a fiery chariot ascends into heaven: does he not behave like a sheep? Mane? He does not teach, he does not convert through love, he only creates external wonders, like Egypt's magic~~de~~ rer under Pharaoh; fine greatness consists in bloody persecution~~de~~ gung of other cults. By order of King Ahab, they gathered The Israelites set out on Mount Carmel, with them four hundred and fifty prophets of Baal and four hundred Prophets of Asherah. A contest is to be held.

Cambyse's death also fell into the inheritance of his harem's Brother's; Herod. III, 68. In the treatise on sacrifices, chapter 5. Lucian calls it a Persian and Assyrian custom, the physical To marry sisters. This refers to Tamar.

1) 1st King 3, 5; 1st King 9, 2; 1 Chronicles 29:6; 2 Chronicles 1, 7, 12.

2) 1 Kings, Chapter 11. The chronicle conceals what you know about Solomon did not know.

27 *

420

between Baal and Jehovah, to establish which God the greater one. Elijah builds an altar to Jehovah. to the mountain, even the priests of Baal erect their house to their god one such. Both sides slaughtered a bull; At Elijah's suggestion, the true God is to be revealed through this- to reveal that he made his sacrifice without the assistance of the priests, sets fire to it of their own accord. The priests of Baal They call upon their god until noon, cutting themselves with sharp objects. Tools: the altar will not light; Elijah dage= gen leaves his altar, around which he has dug a trench, Pour water over it, and the victim will burst into flames. Perhaps it will be said that a crude people cannot be tamed. to convert through instruction and teaching; such must Sensory signs are used. But consider this: But, in Elijah's time, half a year had already passed since Moses. A thousand years have passed, and still the Israelite people As crude as the pagans, the prophets still have an effect. like the Egyptian magicians: where is the influence of a supernatural enthusiasm, a more perfect religion= Teaching? — One would think Elijah would have had this wonderful He used the event for his conversion; he should now have turned to the Prophets of Baal turned to them, making them aware that that their god was worthless, and that they and the surrounding Israelites exhorted to faith in Jehovah; at least that's what one would think.

Priests of Zeus acted in a similar case;
But no, Elijah commits an act that one could only imagine... to trust the Mexican priests who sacrifice human beings
He can, he commands the people to abandon the prophets of Baal seize them, lead them down to the Kison stream and slaughter them the four hundred and fifty with my own hand; This little (as the biblical narrative praises), even if the fact that such an extent must be reasonably doubted.
What became of the four hundred prophets of Asherah

—

) f. Kings, Chapter 18,

421

Fey, one does not learn; the author seems to be on the slipper of the
He forgot to mention in the story that at the beginning of it...
He also brought these prophets up the mountain.

Even those prophets from whom we have been told about scriptures-
Those who have been preserved are not free from moral failings.
This has already been mentioned above, as Micha swears, the
To speak the truth, and yet an untrue prophecy-
The sign gives. Jeremiah, noble Jeremiah, he cannot to be acquitted of the charge that he was involved with the Chaldeans, who fought against their fatherland, by mutual consent had been. Nor can it certainly be approved, if he, even if only in a prophetic impulse, were to see himself and fine parents cursed I. But this man remains, besides Isaiah and the so-called pseudo-Isaiah, the noblest Appearance in the Old Testament story. Courage these men, with whom they endured the horrors of that time opposed the service of God, the boldness with which they—

The prophet probably realized that an alliance with Egypt against the mighty Chaldeans, the fall of Jerusalem bring about lem's; but however much he may zeal for the Chaldeans

He would have liked: a reward from them, after the sub-
 Go to Jerusalem, do not accept! To a disheartenment
 He has helped the Jews in the fight against the Chaldean army.
 He certainly contributed a great deal. Even under Jehoiakim, Jeremiah in the temple he read a scroll in which he spoke about the captivity threatens and promises victory to the Chaldeans, Jeremiah 36:29; he demands the Jews were instructed to go to the Chaldeans, Jeremiah 21:9; chapter 1.
 27, 3. 7; Chapter 38, 2. 4; he definitely wants the destruction of Jeru—Salem's, Jer. 37:10. They seize him and put him in prison, when it was believed he intended to flee to the Chaldeans; Jerem.
 37, 11 ff. After the city's destruction, he is taken by Nebu-Cadnezzar distinguished, Jeremiah 39:12; Chapter 40:4; and from the General Nebusaradan was given gifts, Jeremiah 40:5. Even after the Destruction of the city, he is still an opponent of Egypt, Chapter 1.
 41, 13, 14.

Jeremiah 20:14

422

about the sacrifice and ceremonial service of their age
 ben, who demanded a spiritual worship of God, is truly Admirable. Not all the prophets handed down to us
 They remain on an equal footing. Against the human sacrifices
 They are mostly zealous; however, some speak out against it.
 The later ones, like Ezekiel and Malachi, to Ceremoniendienst the word. The character of the prophet Jonah, as he described in the book entitled with the fine name—
 The description is completely unworthy. When Jehovah the urges the prophets to go to Nineveh and repent there Jonah does not want to obey Jonah's preaching and runs away.
 He flees to a ship. A storm arises, they gamble, in order to to find out for which sinner Jehovah unleashed the storm Let it rage; the lot falls on Jonah, who now enters the thrown into the sea and swallowed by the well-known fish.
 will be. This man, at Jehovah's command, spits the prophet out.
 Land. Now Jonah is preaching to the inhabitants of Nineveh, these They convert; the local king even commands that oxen... and sheep fast, and the animals should also wrap themselves in sacks.
 (len and call to God). Thereupon Jehovah releases the,

Ninevites, the punishment announced by the Prophet, the Destruction within 40 days. Jonah becomes angry about this; He said he knew this right from the beginning, that's why he he refused to go to Nineveh; he preferred to stay die?). —

In favor of these of his chosen favorites now Jehovah deals unjustly and harshly with other people and gruesome. A few examples may serve as evidence. consequences.

Abraham, as already mentioned, when he went to Egypt= ten pulled, with whom Sara had made the appointment), she should

- 1) Jonah 3:8.
- 2) Jonah, Chapter 4. Compare, by the way, the beautiful passage verses 9-11.
- 3) Genesis 12:11 ff.

423

to pretend to be a fine sister. The Pharaoh's Supreme Pharaohs Now they saw and praised them to Pharaoh, and the woman was taken into Pharaoh's house. And Abram that He did good things for her sake, and he received sheep and cattle and Donkeys and male servants and female servants and camels. But Jehovah struck Pharaoh with great plagues and destroyed his house because Sarah, the wife of Abraham. Then Pharaoh summoned the Abram said: Why did you do this to me? What? Why didn't you tell me that she's your wife? Why? You said she was my sister, so I took her. to a wife? And now look, there is your wife, take her and go. And Pharaoh summoned men on his behalf who... They led him and his fine wife and everything that was fine. The narrative states clearly enough that Pharaoh had no ge= would have wanted a relationship with Sara if he had been knew that she was Abraham's wife. Abraham, then, who had her The one who pretends to be his sister is the guilty one, not Pha= Rao; and yet the latter is punished, the patriarch goes free Abraham follows this profitable departure of Sarah. to the neighboring kings and also further afield. When he went to Gerar came, "he asked Sarah, his wife: She is my Sister. Then Abimelech, king of Gerar, sent and took Sarah away. But God came to Abimelech in a dream.

at night and said to him: Behold, you are doomed to die
For the sake of the woman you have taken, since she is one
The man's wife is; but Abimelech had not given himself to her.
approached. And he said: Lord, do you also want righteous people?
Killed? Didn't he say to me: She is my sister?
ster, and she too said: He is my brother? In Un-Guilt of my heart and purity of my hands I have
This was done. And God spoke to him in a dream: Also
I know that you did this out of innocence of your heart,
And I also prevented you from sinning against me: therefore I didn't let you touch her. And now give that Return the wife to the man, for he is a prophet, and he 424

will pray for you, that you may live; but where you are
If you do not return it, know that you must die, you and Everything that is yours. Then Abimelech set out in the morning.
He got up and called all his servants and spoke all these words.
in their ears, and the men were very afraid. And Abimelech called Abraham and said to him, "What have you done?"
What have I done to you, and what have I sinned against you that you
Such a great sin has been brought upon me and my kingdom?
You have done to me things that one should not do.
And Abraham said: I thought, surely there is no fear God in this place, and they will murder me to
For my wife's sake. And indeed, she is mine.
Sister, my father's daughter, just not the daughter-
She was my mother, and became my wife. And it happened when God let me wander out of my father's house
At home, I said to her: Do this love to me:
In every place we go, say from me:
He is my brother! Then Abimelech took sheep and Cattle and servants and maids and gave them to him and set
He gave back to him his wife Sarah. And Abimelech said: Behold, My land lies before you: live wherever you see fit. And
To Sarah he said: Look, I have a thousand shekels of silver.
Given to your brother: behold, let this be a covering for your eyes.
for everything that happened to me and you and to everyone;
And so your justice will be done. Then Abraham prayed to God, and God healed Abimelech and his wife and his maids, that they might bear children. For he had shut up Jehovah every womb in the house of Abimelech, to make Sarah's, "For the sake of Abraham's wife I!" — These tales), which are based on the simple historical material that the patriarchs, according to the ancient sexual freedom of the chal-

1) Genesis, Chapter 20.

They are also very similar to Isaac and Rebecca. given; 1. Mof. Chap. 26, 7 ff.

4425

Danish Baal service, their wives the princes of the lands which were given over to provide free grazing land and other advantages to obtain from them are from the biblical authors formed in a way that still conceals the offensive nature of the matter greatly enlarged. They probably feel that the patriarchs at Those who acted unjustly by abandoning their wives are therefore seeking this flaw on the side of Jehovah's chosen ones through to justify the fear that one might see her as the beautiful woman because it would kill. But such a thing is now completely out of the question. no other example justifies it; the behavior of the Rather, Princes clearly shows that a killing or even Persecution solely for the sake of the woman was certainly not intended. could be. But not enough, it must now be this Lending women away also serves as a glorification for the Defeat the patriarchs; Jehovah appears to the kings and says to them that Abraham was his distinguished favorite; since They are very afraid; Abraham will get his wife back. and gifts as well. Jehovah, however, expresses his opposition to this. Abraham said not a syllable that he had done wrong; it is where God only looks after Abraham's advantage; the The patriarch lends his wife for profit; Jehovah but it restores it to him, along with its advantages. — Lot, who sleeps with both of her daughters, will not be found either. rebukes. The biblical author only uses this circumstance, to brand the origin of the Moabites and Ammonites brands, a circumstance which makes the whole fact very two makes 9.

Jehovah does something very similar when Moses is an Aethio-Pierin takes as his wife. As much as the biblical author approves of every Society with foreigners, specifically marriage, is prohibited:
Nevertheless, Moses' marriage is defended; Jehovah
Do not punish Moses, but those who perpetrated this law.

) Genesis 19:30 ff. Lot is nevertheless mentioned in the New Testament of the Righteous. 2 Peter 2:7.

426

to condemn marriage to a Moorish woman, a marriage that was probably even back then it was allowed to stand out, if already our so-called Mosaic commandments did not yet exist; especially since
Yes, Moses (which is of course unlikely) according to Exodus.
7, 7. was already over eighty years old when he received this heat-council castle. We read Numbers, Chapter 12: "And Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses about the Ethiopian woman will, which he took; for an Ethiopian woman
He had taken it. And they said, "Does Jehovah speak?"
Just to Moses? Doesn't he also speak to us? And Je-Hova heard it. But the man Moses was very faintthig, more than all the people on the whole earth).
Then Jehovah suddenly spoke to Moses and to Aaron and to Miriam: Go out, you three, to the assembly tent!
And all three of them went out. Then Jehovah came down into the cloud column and entered the door of the assembly building.
tent and called Aaron and Miriam, and they both went out. And he said: Listen to my words! If a
If there is a prophet among you, so I, Jehovah, will do in the vision.
I make myself known to him; in dreams I speak to him. Not so
My servant Moses: with all my household he is beholden
I trust; I speak to him mouth to mouth and let him look and not in pictures, the form of Jehovah he
he looks. And why aren't you afraid to speak like this?
who is my servant Moses? And the anger of Jeho burned.
Va's against her, and he went away; and the cloud departed from Tents, and behold, Miriam was leprous like snow; and Aaron turned to Miriam, and behold, she was a leper.
Then Aaron said to Moses, "Please, my lord! Lay the
Do not sin against us, that we have been foolish and that

We have sinned! Do not let her be like one stillborn.
nes, to whom half the meat comes from the womb

Even in those places where it is quite obvious that someone else
Speaking of which, one can claim that the Mosaic books are by Moses!

Me

427

It is rotten! Then Moses cried out to Jehovah and said: O God, Heal her! And Jehovah said to Moses: But if her Father spat in her face, she should not be ashamed.
Seven days? She will be locked up for seven days outside.
of the camp, and after that she may resume recruiting!»

When David counts the people, what in the eyes of the
For Hebrews, this is a very sinful act; Jehovah punishes them.
not David, but a plague comes upon the people.
men. Chapter 24 of the second book of Samuel tells this incident as follows: "And the wrath of Jehovah
It again flared up against Israel, and he provoked David with who said: Come, count Sfrael and Judah. Then the king spoke to Joab, the commander of the army.
With him: "Go through all the tribes of Israel" (from Dan).
until Beersheba, and gather the people, so that I may learn the
The number of the people. And Joab said to the king: Let it be Yes, Jehovah, your God, to the people, however many there may be, to add a hundred times, so that it would make the eyes of my lord, of the king, see; but why does my lord, who King, this matter? However, the king's word remained firm.
nigs against Joab. When the count was over,
"David was stung by his heart and he said to Jehovah: I
I have sinned greatly with what I have done! And now, Je≠
O Lord, take away the sin of your servant,
For I acted very foolishly. And when David on≠ The morning dawned, and the word of Jehovah came to Gad, to the prophet, the seer of David, and said: Go and Speak to David: Thus says Jehovah: Three things I command you

Go ahead, choose one of them, and I'll do it for you. And so Gad came to David and told him and said to him:
May seven years of hunger come to your land, or that you flee for three months from your enemies and they give you chase after them, or that there be three days of plague in your land?
Now consider and see what I bring in reply to him, who sends me. Then David said to Gad: I am very 428

Woe! Let us fall by the hand of Jehovah; for Great is his mercy; but by human hands he wills
I did not fall. And so Jehovah gave a plague upon Sfrael.
from morning until the appointed time, and they died
Seventy thousand men from the people of Dan to Beersheba.
And the angel stretched out his hand over Jerusalem, it to destroy: then Jehovah repented of the evil and he said to the angel who was perishing among the people: Enough,
Now withdraw your hand. —

When King Ahazija was ill and messengers went to Efron sent to ask the god Baal-Zebub if he would return
Having recovered from his illness, he went as follows.
Incident after which Jehovah once again killed innocent people killed in order to glorify himself and his prophets).

“The angel of Jehovah had spoken to Elijah the Tishbite:
Go forth, go to the messenger of the King of Samaria
I confront them and speak to them: Perhaps due to the lack of a God—
Go to Israel to question Baal-Zebub, the God of Ekron? That is why Jehovah speaks thus: From the bed,

What you have climbed, you shall not come down from.
But you shall die. And Elijah went away. Then they returned.
The messengers returned to him (the king) and he spoke to to them: Why are you returning? And they said to to him: A man came towards us and spoke to us: Ge-Hey, return to the king who sent you, and speak
To him: Thus says Jehovah: Perhaps due to the lack of a God
In Israel you send to ask Baal-Zebub, the God of Ekron? Therefore, from the bed upon which you climbed,
You shall not come down again, but you shall die.
And he spoke to them: What was the way of Man?

who came to meet you and spoke these words to you?
And they said to him: A man dressed in hair and with a leather belt around his loins.
And he said, "It is Elijah the Tishbite." Then he sent to

— — — — % — —

) 1 Kings, Chapter 1

429

He gave him a colonel over fifty and a fine fifty. And He came up to him, and behold, he was sitting on the summit of the mountain; and he spoke to him, "Man of God, who
The king said, "Come down!" And Elijah answered and spoke.
To the colonel over fifty: Am I a man of God—tes, so let fire fall from the sky and devour you and your Fifty. Then fire fell from the sky and consumed him and His fifty. And the king sent another.
other colonels over fifty and his fifty. And the
He began and spoke to him: Man of God, thus says the King, come down quickly! And Elijah answered and spoke.
to them: If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven!
Mel, and devour yourself and your fifty. Then God's fire fell.
from heaven and devoured him and his fifty. And he (The king) again sent a colonel over fifty, to third time, and his fifty. And the colonel over fifty,
The third one came up and bent his knees before Elijah and pleaded and spoke to him: Man of God, may my life and The lives of your servants, these fifty, are dear to you.
Eyes! Look, fire has fallen from heaven and has the two colonels over fifty, the previous ones, and their Fifty devoured; but now may my life be precious in yours
Eyes! And the angel of Jehovah spoke to Elijah: Go Go down with him, do not be afraid of him. Then he
He got up and went down with him to the king, »

That such examples will be multiplied many more times over.
"Could be" is no secret to those who are familiar with the old Testa.
have looked around more closely).

g. Jehovah's relationship to the gods of the Angren-
. zenden peoples.

It is so far, regarding the Old Testament ideas lungs of Jehovah, not yet sufficiently taken into account

9) The disaster is not taken into account in the new testament either.
which stems from the glorification of the chosen ones for other men 430

that the historical appearance of this God in the ancient testament for at least a period of more than one encompasses a millennium; I only mean to say, a millennium, from Moses, around 1500 BC, to the Maccabees in 160
BC; for the accounts which go back to Moses,
have too little historical foundation to be addressed to be able to become. So, as a rule, now also constantly religious.
Great ideas, I think it can't possibly take a year.
pass by a thousand times without encountering the religious concepts of a
The people underwent various transformations over different periods of time.
to carry with them. The Jews had during this long period so many fates and came into such close contact with the neighboring states, that they are free from the influence of foreign religions regions could escape as little as other peoples, all the more so less, since they are immune to these influences except for the return from who did not resist Babylonian exile at all, much more, in the manner of antiquity, the power of a god to judge according to the power of his nation, to like to be foreign who were inclined towards the cults of powerful peoples. Among the patriarchs

—

It was undoubtedly the Chaldean element, the veneration of the ancient El and his under-gods Elohim through the procreation drive and a resulting sexual imbalance

denheit, which is the prevailing one in the cult of the nomadic family direction. In Egypt, about which we certainly didn't mention. Having no message, the Hebrews seem to have abandoned the old religion. mixed with the Egyptian religious peculiarities to have largely abandoned ten of their tribe. It is incorrect that the Hebrews had to migrate from Egypt. The appearance of the star has hardly any other. The effect was that the innocent children in Bethlehem were killed. brought the inhabitants of an entire city into the deepest distress. Mernis will be transferred. The liberation of Peter by a. Engel's actions result in the execution of the prison guard. Apo Stelgesch. 12, 3. ff. To glorify the death of N, arose an earthquake.

431

must bring an animal sacrifice to their god Jehovah, because animal sacrifices were not tolerated in Egypt; (the Egyptians also sacrificed animals) and, as above shows, even people. The Jehovah's Witnesses, a in its original form jumps and his long-standing practice of terrible cult, It will only be given to the Hebrews through Moses; we will I will return to this in more detail in the second section. Jehovah is originally an Arabian deity; his homeland Mount Horeb or Sinai, where the tribe of Midian lived where Moses lived. There Moses met God and made He then made him the national god of his people. With difficulty he Subsequently, he remained among the judges of Jehovah in the His dignity. Since David, God has been under the influence of the Phoenician; they build his temple; later, with the power of The Roman power of the Assyrians influences this people on him; Finally, since the rule of the Chaldeans, Jehovah has come under the refining influence of the Zen religion. Jehovah, which the Jews brought from Babylonian captivity with Bringing it back is fundamentally different from the old one; it not only does he tolerate no other gods beside him, but he also... God became the world and also, after the

Ormuzd's role models in the Zend religion, in his fearful one

[The following sentence appears to be a fragment and is omitted: "lichen character."] In contrast, Ahriman [constitutes]

Besides Ormuzd, now there's also an evil god besides Jehovah and

The main moments of Zoroaster's teachings are thus concluded.

a battle between the evil and good gods, from the evil ones and good angels, of the victory of good, of the Ascension resurrection of the dead and the Last Judgment.

1) According to Herodotus II, 45, the Egyptians sacrificed animals

Bulls, calves and geese; to Dionysus and the moon goddess

They also sacrificed pigs. Some kept sheep and goats.

The Egyptians did not sacrifice. Those who sacrificed in the Theban Circle ten, as Herodotus II, 42 reports, no sheep, but goats; the sheep sacrificed in the Mendesian Circle abstained but the goats.

432

I cannot influence this for my purposes here.

take a closer look at which the religions of Neighboring peoples, for certain periods of time, directed their attacks on the Jewish people.

They practiced ideas about Jehovah; the post-exilic period without

That no longer falls within the area I had in mind for the previous

I have laid out horizontal writing. This influence is recognizable.

however, still in the books which deal with the pre-existence to deal with the Hebrew history, even though the Editors of the same were endeavoring to make their own, in the viewpoint gained during Babylonian captivity on to bring back the Jewish past. But perhaps too

a further characterization of Jehovah in general

some remarks on the kinship of this Jewish

National god with the gods of neighboring peoples (makes will be done). ö

) Julianus says in Cyril. Alexandr. contr. Jul. IX, p. 306 edit. Paris., that the Jews in all customs with the Hei those who agreed, except in their belief in one God:

“rois Elveiv ouoloyovrag Jovdalov's SE death vouig he Eva Sey uöovoy; „ the difference in another respect be far from us meaning: “zaparav ovdauns 7 wixpa diiapepdusda oog al-Ankovs." Regarding the form, this is also stated by the Jews were partially granted this. According to Rabbi Maimon, who
Of course, she belongs to those who are condemned because of their enlightenment.
Following these practices, Moses established the cultic forms of the natural service.
Jehovah transferred to make it easier for the Hebrews to worship Je bova's to determine. Spencer de leg. Hebr. rit. p. 771 leads from Maimon. Mor. Nev. to: Reliquit creator species illas seu modos culturae et transtulit eos de cultu creaturae ad cultum creatoris et a rebus imaginationis phantasticae ad noun suum. In divina sapientia consilium fuit, ut idololatriae memoria deleretur et maximum illud dei existentia et uni-

Tate fundamentum in gente nostra confirmaretur: neque tamen obstupescerent hominum animi propter istorum cultuum abolitionem, quibus adsueti fuerunt." Likewise Rabbi Shem Tob, interpreter of Maimonides: “Cum autem deus misisset
Mosen, magistrum nostrum, et praecipisset, ut populus ipsi

433

Even the name Jehovah-- is difficult to understand Jewish Origin, by no means one belonging only to the Jews
The highest name of God. The Bible states
Even so much so that this name was mentioned before Moses to the Hebrews not known!); more recent scholars suspect he (It only came into use in the age of David).
The Old Testament explains the meaning of the word by:
"I am who I will be" or, as the bet about states: "I am who I am." For when God Moses says:
“Look, when I come to the sons of Israel and speak to them: The God of your fathers is sending me to you, and They said to me: What is his name? What should I do?

 How can they answer? And God said to Moses: I am the one who
 I am; and he said, this is how you shall speak to the sons.
 Israel's: I am who sent me.
 The explanation of the name is now, however, the dignity of a God's very fitting name, it means: I am the Eternal One, Un-variable); only when one considers the low level of education inserviret eo generali cultu, quo erant educati: ipse praecepit, ut omnes isti cultus aut ritus, qui fiebant in gratiam imagi-num, fierent in honorem dei, Spenc. 772.

) 2. Mof. 6, 3.

2) Bohlen, the Genesis 2c. Introduction p. CIV. A. Th. Hart:
 Mann, historical-critical research on the formation of the five Books of Moses, p. 157.

) 2 Mos. 3:14. MIN NN A

) This reveals the well-known inscription on the Temple of Isis at Sais.
 associated with whom Plutarch mentions de Iside et Osiride cap. 9: Eyò eiu xd TO yeyovog xc 09. xc èdō ne-vov, xt rov Euov menkov ovdeis zw lynrös arexahvpev.n
 Compare Court of Justice 12:6; Revelation 1:4, 8.

Gesenius acknowledges this declaration and the derivation tung of the word Jehovah from N, quae est forma antiquior pro

28

434 thinks, on which the Hebrews still in David's time

 If one is found to be in this position, one must agree with the judgment of those who are in this position.
 which in this Old Testament explanation of the name to find a reflection that does not belong to the Mosaic Age

 It can be written. Would one also like to express the opinion...
 Give space, Moses could have this idea of the Egyptians have brought priests to the tables; so the rest of them approach him Contrary to this religious founder's ideas about Jehovah, according to which this god in a very human guise appears, which by no means requires deeper speculation—zen lets.

mr) fut. cal Un. In hac explicatione antiquitus recepta,

He hunts in the Thesaurus p. 577, acquiesci potest eo magis, quum oleum fere et operam perdidisse censendi sint, qui peregrinam huic vocabulo originem vindicare vellent. Nam neque in Phoenicia (Jeu apud Philonem Bybl. est ipse Hebraeorum Yun) neque in Aegypto vetere (Ja Gnosticorum itidem est IM? veteris Testamenti) vestigia ejus reperta sunt: neque eorum opinio, qui et et Jovis (and Jupiter) ex antiquissimo quodam fonte orientali fluxisse conjecerunt, magna veri specie gaudet: Jovis enim, try Varrone de ling. lat. 5, 20. ortum est ex Diovis (ut bellum ex duellum), quod ex Zeus, Jos ortum esse admodum probabile est. Licet igitur inter Jehovah et Jo-vis aliqua similitudo intercedat, nulla fere est inter Mm et Zeus, Ag, Diovis. — In a note, Gesenius says:

“ Unani addere liceat conjecturam iis maxime non displicitu-ram, qui illud etymon nimis subtile, reconditum et ab Hebraeo-rum antiquiorum ingenio alienum censuerunt, ut Koppe (ad Exod. I.c. in Pottii syll. IV, p. 59), Bohlenius (ad. Gen.
 p. 103.), Vatici (theol. bibl. p. 671.). Quid enim si statua mus)) esse potius a Fut Hiph. (ut ea) et eum significare: qui existere fecit, ie creatorem?,

1) Koppe, Bohlen, Vatke; compare the preceding Us note.

The Greeks call the God of the Hebrews Jao);
 This word was also the ge among the Phoenicians and Chaldeans.
 Mysterious name of a god. The words Sao and Jehovah apparently have an origin); may it nor to decide whether Jehovah is from Jao or Jao is derived from Jehovah, or whether both words have their own origins.
 To take one's ancestry from elsewhere collectively: so much
 It is certain that they are both closely related, and these relatives
 The classification is not based solely on the similarity of the wording, but also on a convergence of ideas, which were associated with God. Jao and Jehovah are originally one and the same being, which also manifested itself in Greece, where Dionysus is found.

) Diod. Sic. I, 94: « rc de rois Jovdalois Mwony rov IA erixaklovusvoy. eoy.” Otherwise, the forms Tevo can be found, Yes. Among the Samaritans, the god was called TaBe.

) Lydus de mens. IV, 38. 74. Ol Xaldaioi rov Se (viz the Dionysus) T Aeyovoy, ayri roñ Yyws vonroy, in Sorvixc yA00n. Compare the article Jao at Movers, the Phoenix-zier p. 539 ff.

2) Mo vers says J. c.: The mysterious littera trina Ja is eyes:
 probably N, the apocopied Hiphil instead of y, he makes life, formed like so many names in Hebrew and quite corresponding to rero@yoXuuarov U v.

According to Macrobius Saturn. I, 18., the sun was called in the sky Apollo, sunk Dionysus. Dionysus and Apollo are Originally, it referred to a god and meant the sun. More on this later.
 The entire 18th chapter of Macrobius is about this. Hoc equidem, " it says chap. 17., mecum multum ac frequenter agitavi, quid sit, quod solem modo Apollinem, modo Liberum, modo sub alia-rum appellationum varietate veneremur. , Hinc et Virgilius," it says chap. 18., "scribens, Liberum patrem solem esse et Cererem lunam, qui pariter fertilitatibus glebae et maturandis frugibus vel nocturno temperamento vel diurno calore fashion rantur." "Even in Thrace" eundem haberi solem. atque Li-

28 *

436

The basic conception of the deity in feminine mythology
As we noted above, the sun is the symbol of the peoples.
In addition to the sun, Saturn was also studied as a key planetary science.

berum accepimus." Likewise Julius Firmicus de error.
profane. religious p. 13.: Nam Liberum ad solem volunt referre
commenta Graecorum, Proserpinam vero Liberam dicentes Lunam esse confiningunt. "Zeus approaches the mother of the Dionysus as fire, Dionysus should—to escape his death in According to another legend, he transformed into fire.
torn into seven pieces; he is a night god, loves the mountains, who Pomegranate is sacred to him; he loves raucous music and dancing.
Jehovah also appears to Abraham at night, wrestles with him, Yes
I am trapped at night and must leave when day breaks.

The pillars in front of his temple in Jerusalem are decorated with garnet.
decorated with apples. David dances indecently in the style of the Bacchantes.
dig before the Ark of the Covenant, so that Michal could be brought before him.
throws. The serpent which Moses erected and which It was only destroyed by Hezekiah as an idol that it was found also in the Dionysian service. The Bacchantes adorned themselves with scarves.
gen. Clemens Alexandrinus calls fie (admon. adv. gent.):
" ayeoreuusvar roig ö pee. Catullus in the epithalam. Pelei et Thetidos says of them in verse 256 ff.:

Pars e divols o raptabant membra juvenco;

Pars sese tortis serpentibus incingebant;

Pars obscura cavis celebrabant orgia cistis,

Orgia, quae frustra cupiunt audire profani..

Dionysus carries the bull's head or horns, like Jehovah and Juggernaut. Taurum vero ad solem referri, multiplici ratione Aegyptius cultus ostendit."The god's name is Tavoos and Tav-Goxeows, you can still find him with horns on coins: forms; Spenc. rit. Hebr. 828. Oi 'Eiinvēs," it says at Porphyry. abstinent. III, 16., "zeooyyway xegar& ravpov ro Aio-vu. Eusebius. praep. ev. III, 11.: O de Jiövvoos xowa x005 i Hu &xer a x r. Find caves for Dionysus holy, as to Moloch; "speluncae Bacchicae," Macrob. Saturn. I, 18. Dionysus is the god of war; Macrob. Saturn. 1, 19: Colitur etiam apud Lacedaemonios simulacrum Liberi patris has an insignia, not thyrsos. Sed cum thyrsos tenet, quid aliud, quam latens telum geritur, cujus mucro hedera

437

Most High God. To Jehovah and Joo it is especially
It is typical that both ideas unite in them,
They are both the sun and Saturn, but Jehovah later with a predominant Saturnian character, but will He as a begetting God as in Samuel's time (1 Samuel 7, 6.) so during the Feast of Tabernacles continuously through water honors, which was the fertilizing element, in contrast to the destructive, the fire.

The Phoenician Sao is the only begotten son of Saturn, the self-revealing Kronos, the highest god, his
No name may be mentioned, just as little as that of Jehovah.
among the Jews; he is known only to the consecrated. (Jao)

labente protegitur?, Then continues: "Calor vini, cujus Liber father auctor est, saepe homines ad furorem bellicum usque propellit; Dionysus is also "auctor triumphi., In the My-During the steria of Dionysus, a mysterious meal is served and Drinking before. Jul. Firmicus de error. prof. relig. p. 23.:
Ex rvurävov Beßooxe, e xvüßalov rerwoxa, said the Initiates. Herodotus compares Dionysus to the

The sun god Osiris. Herodotus. II, 42. Of the sacred shop in the Dionysus service, whose secret one cannot see without exposing oneself to the most terrible punishments, It has already been traded. The captured Hebrew Ark of the Covenant. Punish these Philistines with boils; they send them back and consecrate them. their golden images of the boils (1 Samuel, chapters 5 and 6). When the Athenians did not show Dionysus the respect he deserved He punishes them with sores on their genitals; The Athenians therefore dedicated phalluses to him. Schol. ad Aristoph. Acharn. 242.: “ Myyioavyros roũ Se 90005 xareöanmpey Ice re aidoin ry aylouv xai ro dewov & t % ws Bareinov g T7V vO0ovV Kpeitrova YyEevousymy HAONg yayyaveiag nal r x-vns, aneorainoay lewpoi er Orovdns" o de Eraveldoyres Eyaoay lcd eivai U rauryy, ei did xn runs Ayoierv roy Se lTeilevres ouy roig nyvelusvos or Adiyyaioi yalkovs idig re xa dinuocig xarebxevaday Kal rÿõ8s Eyeyaupov ri gedv, vröuyyua rowvueyor roö æddoug. , Compare Hero d. I, 105.

1) Movers Phön. p. 265. 541.

438

But it is also sun god, namely the sun god according to his beneficial and harmful relationship, he is, after a position in Macrobius), simultaneously Sol and Dionysus. Among the Greeks, Dionysus is often called the Beina—me Tc given, yes this Zus or Eöütos, as a nickname of the god, is also associated with the Jewish Jehovah. brought dung; according to Tacitus) it was claimed that the Jewish God is none other than Dionysus. In a strange way, he leads this Phoenician and Chaldean Sao- also the epithet Sabaoth, like the Jewish Jehovah the Sabaoth s). Becomes now also the name Teeßcchd at Jan von Pu. NM

«fieben» is derived, Zebaoth, on the other hand, from NIS «die Heer»

fchaar,» fo apparently both words have the same premise
The position is based on this; for the divine host consists precisely from those seven planets, which are considered powerful,

He thought of gods who stood beneath Saturn. Saturn himself was

1) Macrobius. Saturn. I, 18: Consultus Apollo Clarius, quis Deorum habendus sit, qui vocatur Ius, ita effatus est:

— — Soctdeo roy 4 fvov vvarov S,, Euuey Tc, zeluari u T' aidyv, Ai d'eiaipos apzouevoro neliov d Jepovs, uerorwpov d'aßoov Taw. :

Hujus oraculi vim, numinis nominisque interpellationem, qua
Liber pater et Sol Ja significatur, executus est Cornelius Labeo in libro, cui title est: De oraculo Apollinis Clarii.,

2) Tacit. hist. V, 5: “Quidam arbitrati sunt... Liberum patrem coli.”As noted, they called (Lydus de mens. IV, 38.

the Chaldeans the Dionysus 1st century AD: In Plutarch's Symposiac.
IV, 5. points out an initiate into the Athenian Dionysia
the relationship between the God of the Jews and that of the Jews.
Verbal form dur, “fagt Movers Phön. 547, “findet sich in to the Tjaxxog, the shouts of joy at the Dionys's birthday celebration= sus, of which Baxyos only a deliberate distortion of the secret= ligten Tæxxog zu feyn fscheint.,

3) In the passage cited above by Lydus it further states:

xðx , T Ha & de wollaxov de ,jp, “ and IV, 98: Ts rob ÆnMIOVPYod. »

439 j

the first of the Seven, like Ormuzd the first of the Amshas—pand's. 1

That Jehovah was worshipped as the sun is evident from several Old Testament passages make this very clear, namely from that in the fourth book of Moses, where the sun Men—offerings were made. When the Israelites began the service (Jehovah commands Moses to participate in the Baal-Peor):

“Take all the heads of the people and hang them for Je.”
hova before the sun, so that the blaze of anger may turn away Jehovah's of Israel. After the conquest of Ai, he hung Joshua beheaded the king of Ai by the tree until evening—time, and at sunset Joshua commanded,
They took his body down from the tree. Also
The sun stays in the middle of the sky for almost a whole day.

Day, until the Israelites have defeated their enemies: "it hova, it is said, "fought for Israel 2). After winning Joshua killed the five captured kings and hanged them. They tied their hands to five trees and hung from the trees until... Evening. And it happened at the time when the sun was setting, Then Joshua commanded, and they took them down from the trees.

"Tomorrow your salvation will come," say the Hebrews. to the messengers from Jabes, bringing aid against the Ammonites to seek when the sun shines hot (1 Sam. 11:9). David sacrifices Saul's male body to atone for a famine. descendants hang "to Jehovah at Gibeah; e" the Gi Beonites hung them up on the mountain before Jehovah, and so (These seven fell all at once). Quite special is... But now it is the fire, in whose company and surroundings The bung Jehovah appears everywhere, which is directed at the sun, as Siderian image of the god, indicates. N

The old Testament, however, is far richer in passages, which prove that Jehovah was worshipped as Saturn. In the above passages, the god is evidently the star of the ) Numbers 25, 4.) Jof. 10, 12. ff.) 2nd Saturday. Cape. 21.

440

During the day; it even reveals a religious obligation, which Sacrifices offered to the sun god — one She hangs on him all day long, as long as he himself is at it. Heaven is present, facing the view, — with sunset to lose weight again, as if one wanted to avoid it, to grant the after-god his share of it. On the other hand Jehovah appears again in other places, decidedly as night God rises. I refer to the passage already discussed above, where Jehovah waits the night to establish his covenant with Abra to confirm where he was as a smoking oven, after the sun has set, between the sacrificial offerings goes through. The night god is Jehovah, as he wrestles with Jacob, "Until the dawn broke. When day came, he spoke." Jehovah: "Leave me, for the dawn is breaking." The god must depart, it seems, because he has his

The run has to start as the sun. Amos blames the He-Brèer, that she had already worshipped Saturn in the desert-ten, which he himself, of course, according to his reformatory view already distinguished from Jehovah at that time, but unjustly. "Have you offered me a sacrifice and a grain offering?"
 brought, he says 2), in the desert forty years house Iftaels, you carried your king's hut and the Chijun, your images, the star of your god, which you Made for you. Saturn, according to the ancients, is the uppermost, seventh planet; Jehovah also reigns in the seventh-ten heavens). As with the Phoenicians, Saturn the Re-governance of the world to the planets below it-divides, so Jehovah is with the Hebrews; he himself rules the Jews.
 the other peoples are powered by the sun, moon and

1) 1. Mof. 32, 26.

2) Amos 5:25-26. Chijun is also the name for Saturn.
 among the Phoenicians, Babylonians, Syrians, and Egyptians. Compare Mov.
 the Phoenix. p. 289.

9 Isaiah 14:13

441 guided by stars). Like Saturn in Phoenicia, which Osiris in Egypt was formed with many eyes, (Sa-Turn has four eyes according to Sanchuniathon; Ofiris is called...

 Plutarch the Many-Eyed): so too of the eyes Je-Jehovah spoke; Palestine is a land, "to which Jehovah, your God, he watches over you; the eyes of Jehovah are constant, of your God, from the beginning of the year until the End of year 2). The other planets are also considered for Jehovah's eyes; Jehovah has seven eyes: With joy-Those seven saw the lead weight in Zerubbabel's hand, the eyes of Jehovah, which see through the whole world-
 "fen". According to the number of planets, the week had
 In antiquity, it was fixed at seven days, and the individual Peoples considered the day sacred, the star whose constellation they particularly admired.

revered; the first day was that of Saturn, the supreme god planets), and this was, as by the Phoenicians, fo
It was also considered holy by the Hebrews. It is a knew that both in Jehovah's service and in ordinary life...
The number seven appears everywhere in the daily life of the Hebrews.
steps; the holy lampstand of the tabernacle had seven arms,
Seven days had to pass for an animal if it was to be sacrificed.
The priest should have done this seven times, and he had to be cleansed of the blood.
to be thrown to the altar, the AL had to endure seven days of torture.

a

) Deut. 4, 19.) 5. Mof. 11, 12.

2) I use this expression in the manner of the ancients, although They also included the sun, as is well known. a

Zechariah 4:10.

The planets had this consequence for the Egyptians: The uppermost Saturn, then Jupiter, Mars, Sun, Venus, Mercury, Moon.
(Dio. Cass. XXXVI, p. 37. ed. Hanov.) The division
"The week in seven days according to the seven planets," says Dio.
Cassius aa O., started from the Egyptians; at This division of my knowledge was not familiar to the ancient Greeks.
known; but now it is everywhere, even among the Romans.
leads.

1

442

Balaam built seven altars to the Lord so that he might be reconciled with the Lord.
He sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams on it;
The seventh year shall be a year of rest, dedicated to Jehovah.
consecrate it, after seven times seven years the jubilee shall be—bath celebrated u. s. f. Also Saturn leads strange
In a similar way, the Phoenicians called it "Sfrael".
Jehovah's relationship to neighboring gods except for the Reformation prophets, it is a completely friendly; Jehovah only wants to be a national god.

 to enjoy the veneration of his people, he wants to be supreme
 To be God tolerates other gods beside oneself; indeed, such were considered probably, as a kind of court state, for the glorification of God's. All the prophets agree that there will be no
 During that time Jehovah alone was worshipped, by worshipping the Israelites—all previous periods suffered the accusation of ab—to make idols. Let us hear about this point these Men themselves in more detail.

5 "Hear this, O house of Jacob, who call themselves by Israel's name and those that originated from Judah's source, who swear by Jehovah's name and the God of Israel to praise, but not with truth and honesty... apostate
 (You would have been called nig from the womb). "You brought nothing
 You give me your lambs as a burnt offering, and with your slaughter
 You did not honor me by sacrificing me; I did not give you anything to create.
 with gifts and do not tire yourself with incense; you buy Don't test me for money, spice tube, and with your victim's fat
 You did not satisfy me; but you gave me responsibilities.
 With your sins, you weary me with your transgressions—ungen).» «Since the days of your fathers you have departed from my statutes and did not keep them 9." "Thus speaks Jehovah: For three transgressions of Judah and for four I will take
 I will not return it because they despise Jehovah's law.

) Eus eb. praepr. ev. I, 9; Selden de diis Syr. p. 321.

2) Yes. 48, 1. 8. 3) Jef. 43, 23.) times. 3, 7.

443

and do not adhere to fine statutes, that their lying idols
 They mislead, whom their fathers followed).

"They did not destroy the nations, as Jehovah commanded them-len; they mingled with the peoples and learned their Deeds; they served their idols, which were given to them to the trap; they sacrificed their sons and daughters to the gods Zen and shed innocent blood, of their sons and daughters—
 the blood they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan, that en
 The land was consecrated with blood. And they defiled it.
 They were guilty of their deeds, and of their actions).

Since the time of Gibeah you have sinned, O Frael! Rejoice not to the jubilation of the nations; for you are a whore, Unfaithful to your God, you love harlots on all cornfields^{en} nen).» «This is what Jehovah says: What did your fathers do with
 I found something wrong in that they distanced themselves from me and Did they follow vain idols and act vainly?
 Priests did not think: Where is Jehovah? and the handlers
 The people of the law did not know me, and the shepherds of the people did not know me.
 They fell away from me, and the prophets prophesied in the Nas
 Men of Baal and those who did not help, they transformed (after). "Like a thief is ashamed when he is caught."
 will, so is the House of Israel ashamed, they, their king—
 nige, their colonels and their priests and their pro—
 Prophets who say to the wood: You are my Father!
 And to the stone: You have begotten me! For turn to me
 She turned her back and not her face; but at the time of hers
 In the face of misfortune they cry: Arise and help us! Where are they now?
 Your gods, which you made for yourself? Let them rise up,
 Can they help you in your time of need? For so much
 The number of your cities is like the number of your gods, Judah! Why?
 Are you arguing with me? You have all fallen away from me, say [the speaker].
 Jehovah. In vain have I struck your sons; discipline

1) Amos 2:1. 2) Psalm 106:34. 3) Courtly Acts 10:9; Chapter 9:1. 2.
 Jeremiah 2:5, 8

—

444

They did not accept it; your sword devoured your prophets like
 A devastating lion. My people have forgotten me since...
 (countless days). The shameful idols devoured the acquisition of our fathers from our youth onwards, their sheep and their cattle, their sons and their daughters.
 We lie in our shame, and our disgrace covers us;
 For we have sinned against Jehovah our God, we and our fathers from our youth until this day and did not obey the voice of Jehovah un^{en}

"The sons of Judah did evil things."
 "In my eyes," says Jehovah, "they set aside their abhorrence."
 idols in the house that bears my name
 (It is called, to contaminate it)... "They went to the starvation site."
 in the thoughts of their hearts and the Baals, like their fathers (they have taught it). ≈ "We know, Jehovah, our Injustice, the guilt of our fathers; for we have sinned against you 9. "Thus says Jehovah the Lord ren: Because your fathers forsook me and went to others
 They followed the gods, served them, and worshipped them.
 and have forsaken me and not kept my law;
 And you are doing even worse than your fathers, and look, you
 Everyone follows the stubbornness of their evil heart,
 Because you do not listen to me, I will throw you away.
 this country).» «Dad was your change from your (Youth, that you did not obey my voice).
 The prophets remembered my name among the people in to bring oblivion through her dreams, which she he
 They count one another: just as their fathers meant Na
 (They forgot about Baal)? "You gave them that Land which you swore to their fathers; but they went
 They did not listen to your voice and walk in your law-

Jeremiah 2:26 ff. Compare especially 2 Kings, chapter 17.

2) Jer. 3, 24. ff.) Jer. 7, 30.) Jer. 9, 13.) Jer. 14, 20.

6) Jer. 16, 11. 7) Jer. 22, 21. 2) Jer. 23, 27.

445

They did not do anything. Everything you commanded them to do, they did.
 (They did not). "The sons of Israel and the sons did it."
 Judas's only evil in my eyes stems from her Youth enticed me; for the sons of Israel only tempted me with the work of their hands, says Jehovah. For to my Anger and to my wrath, this city was from Days since they were built, until this day, so that I will remove them from my presence, because all the evil that the sons of Israel and the sons of Ju that's done, to provoke me, they, their kings, their commanders, their priests and their prophets and the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And they turned back to me the Back to the side, not the face; from early morning onwards

 I taught them, but they would not listen to receive discipline.
 And they placed their abominable idols in the house,
 which is named after my name, to defile it—
 They built high places for Baal in the valley of the sons.
 Hinnom's, to give their sons and daughters to Moloch consecrate what I did not command them and did not place in my heart (Sense has come). "They and their fathers find their way from me."
 fallen away until this day. Therefore thus speaks the Lord.
 Jehovah: Because you raged more than the nations around come here, you who have not walked in my statutes and my Rights not done, and even according to the rights of the peoples
 Not done for you: therefore, by my life, speak
 The Lord Jehovah, because you have defiled my sanctuary Through all your abominations and all your horrors: so I will also [my eye! pull off and I don't want any pity and (not spared). "Your origin and your birth (is from the land of the Cananites). I'm making a End your vice and your whoring from the land
 Egypt, so that you no longer look at them

Y) Jer. 32, 23.) Jer. 32, 30.) Ezech. 2, 3; Cape. 5, 7 ff.
 Ezekiel 16:2.

446

(raises and no longer remembers Egypt).. You
 You took your sons and daughters whom you bore to me, and offered them up to be eaten. Was it too little?
 Because of your whoredom, that you also slaughtered my children and gave them up by dedicating them to them? Behold, jeg
 A wise orator will say the following proverb to you:
 Like mother, like daughter! You are the daughter.
 your mother, who rejected her husband and children,
 You are the sister of your sisters, who gave their husbands and rejected children, your mother is a Hittite and your father was an Amorite. Your older sister is Samaria and her daughters, who live to your left,
 and your younger sister, who lives on your right,
 It is Sodom with her daughters. But you did not walk upon it.

You did not do their ways or their abominations;
 Soon it was too little; you did worse than they did in all your changes). "How, on the path of your Fathers, you defile yourselves and their abominations, you whore follow her, and by bringing your gifts, by Consecrate your children through fire; if you defile yourselves through fire, you will be defiled by fire.
 all your idols until this day: and I should Let me ask you about it? By my life, you say.
 the Lord Jehovah, with a strong hand and with outstretched Poor you, and with poured-out fury I will be against you rule !!»

These numerous confessions of the prophets, which still exist
 could be significantly increased, because of the lawsuit
 The idolatry of the Hebrews is the recurring theme of the the prophetic writings that have remained with us — they prove more than sufficient evidence that what the prophets said about... to call idol worship, the worship of other deities alongside it hova, was deeply rooted in the people. The reformatory
 The party of these prophets received the monotheistic award in their school.

1) Ezech. 23, 27.) Eßzech. 16, 20. 44. ff. 2) Eßzech. 20, 30 ff.

447

A pictorial view of Jehovah presented as a revelation of the god in the earliest times; the better religious in themselves Ten of a newer school were presented to the Prophet's disciples.
 to bear as an ancient law of Jehovah, to which the people had already been obligated in ancient times, of which it but it has fallen away again. There is no other way to explain it.
 as the prophets continually spoke of apostasy—can, which, as Jewish history proves and Our previous investigation also sufficiently demonstrates—than have, which cannot be found anywhere, since those better ones prophetic ideas never actually come true.
 They had received the tung. The prophets themselves knew the time. This Not to mention the waste, he went to them, as was natural, beyond all historical memory; they left the Ju already “in the womb,” “in the womb” of Jehovah apostatize and confess by renouncing the idolatry of An⁸ beginning and prevailing among the Hebrews at all times was. This is also suggested by the behavior of the people, the pro—in contrast to Phetic condemnations, a significant testimony.

The legitimacy of the existing cult is certain,
No one listens to those individual prophets at any time.
persecutes and kills them as innovators 9).

As long as the people still roamed around nomadically, as long as before the temple was built, one would be less likely to see Ber-have had cause to invoke other deities besides the national deity.
to worship Nalgott. Every nomadic tribe had its own.
Tribal god and that undoubtedly meant something about it Good. Only occasionally are deities invoked during this time.
the neighboring tribes their sacrifices from the Hebrews⁸ have to hold on. But as the field of vision expanded and

*

1) The Jews who had already been taken to Babylon are complaining through the prophet Samaya at the Priesthood in Jerusalem⁸ Peace, that the raging Jeremiah should be tolerated in the temple. Jer.
Chapter 29.

448

with the construction of a temple the cultic forms splendid⁸
As the temple was built, it was part of its splendor to also include the to include the powerful gods of neighboring peoples. On⁸ Initially, the zeal of the prophets seemed to be directed only towards this.
to be, that Jehovah is not alongside these gods—shortened, he presents himself as supreme god, king of the gods⁸ hold; however, this zeal increased with the danger to Jehovah's view is such that the national god is no god at all⁸ who would tolerate another god beside him. Unfortunately, we are about the religion of the related Arab tribes, where Moses learned about God through the religion of the Ammoniter, Moabiter and Edomiter only extremely meager

Traces remained: certainly the religious ones were sights and the cult of these tribes with those of the Hebrews very closely related, and traditions from this side would contribute significantly to changing religious behavior to put the teachings of the ancient Hebrews in the true light. Surely These tribes also have their literature and sanctify you. had tungen; the Edomites in particular and the Tyrians were (ren famous for their wisdom). Ezekiel 5:7. Jehovah accuses the Jews: "You are not in my Statutes changed, do not have my rights and not even according to the rights of the nations around you done. Also found the neighboring Arab tribes. not at all as inconspicuous and contemptible as the Jewish one This usually represents national hatred. We see from the A song of triumph, which Jeremiah recounts about their enslavement and the Babylonians' abduction is agreed upon, that they developed strength and prosperity and turned to the Hebrews looked down with derision 2).

But what can we now learn about religious ideas?
The fact that these tribes remain suggests a close relationship.

- 1) Obadiah 1:8; Jeremiah 49:1. The Tyrians are wiser than Daniel. Ezekiel 28:3.
- 2) Jer. Cape. 48. and chap. 49., especially chap. 48, verse 27.

449

Shaft with the terms of the Hebrews: a point that already in the treatment of the main Semitic deities came. In recognition of this kinship, the reformed church... The party in the Mosaic books) the prohibition of go: "Be careful that you don't get tangled up in..." to follow them after they have been destroyed before you, and that you do not seek their gods and say: How these Peoples serve their gods, so will I do! You You shall not do such things to the Lord your God; for all abominations They did to their gods Jehovah, whom he hates; for They also burn their sons and daughters with fire. their gods." — The Jews should not sabotage their Jehovah. venerate, as the Arab and Canaanite tribes do theirs

Gods, commands the reformist party in the name of Moab's; That means exactly as much as the Jews have in Truth has so far worshipped their Jehovah, as in the 106th Psalm, Verse 34 is expressly granted: "They did not destroy The nations did what Jehovah commanded them; they mingled with the nations and learned their deeds;" and 2 Kings 17, 7: They feared other gods and walked in the sanctuary among the nations whom Jehovah drove out before the sons of Israel." » ||

What the Israelites call Jehovah's people and the They bear the name of their god "Israel"; this also means people. and the Moabites' god Camos. » Camos wanders into the Misery, says Jeremiah?) "Fine priests and fine princes all of them. - "Moab above Camos will be put to shame, as if..." The house of Israel has been put to shame at Bethel, their defense. "Woe to you, Moab, the people are lost." of Samos!» Camos is the national god of the Moabites and has, Like Jehovah, other gods also surround him: I make a The end in Moab, says Jehovah, to those who sacrifice on

) 5. Mof. 12, 30. 31.
2) Jer. 48, 7, 13, 46.
29

450

of the height and incense to fine gods). Already above It has been mentioned that the altar of burnt offering was used as The image of Jehovah was also called Ariel, like the Moabite Camos, which can be seen on coins of Rabbat Moab with burning torches depicted, and that the city of the Moabites and Jerusalem (Salem collectively used the name Ariel?). The god The Ammonite was Moloch or Malkam; also The Ammonites are called the people of Malkam: "Why did they Malkam Gad has taken possession of it and his people live there fine cities I? The name of this behemoth or mal came, which is the same as the Hebrew Melech, king, Jehovah leads the way very frequently in the Old Testament, especially in the Psalms. We read there, for example: "Hear my cry,

My Melech (my king) and my God; for to you I pray
I!)! Jehovah is King forever and ever; he is King.
King of Glory 5), You are my King, God I!»

“Jehovah is a great King over the whole earth.”
Rusalem is "the city of the great King N." »Sing

God, sing to our King; for King of all the earth is God 0). They miss the train of my. God and my nes Königs), «God is my King from of old *)

“Jehovah, my King and my God.” Jehovah is King adorned with majesty); a great king over all gods). “Jehovah is king, therefore the World 16). Jehovah is King, let the earth rejoice!

“Jehovah is King, the nations tremble; he sits enthroned on The cherubs, the earth shakes. Jehovah is on Zion.
Great and exalted above all peoples, praise be to your name!
Men, the great and terrible, holy is he! Exalt Jesus!
O Lord our God, and fall down to his footstool

2) Jer. 48, 35. 4. Mof. 21, 29.) Mov. Phön. p. 358.

) Jer. 49, 1.) Pf. 5, 3.) Pf. 10, 16. 5) Pf. 24, 7.

7) Pf. 44, 5. 9 Pf. 47, 3.) Pf. 48, 3. 0) Pf. 47, 7. 8.
227 Ps. 68, 26.) Pf. 74, 12.) Pf. 85, 4.) Pf. 93, 1.
16) Pf. 95, 3. 16) Pf. 96, 10.) Pf. 97, 1.

451

Feet DI» Thus, according to Amos 5:26, the Israelites wore the desert, “the hut of their Melech,” their king. It This point has already been discussed under the article Moloch.
spoken; Melech, king of the Jews, Moloch
The Ammonite and the Camos of the Moabites are originally
They are one and the same being.

But how do the different names behave?
of the Jewish God Jehovah, Melech and Ifrael each other? Since the Phoenicians also called Saturn Israel-ten 2) and the Jews “sons of Israel, house of Israel, » Palestine is called "the land of Israel"; so it is to

First and foremost, it is so certain that the Jewish God in ancient times which bore the name Sfrael, a compound of d and O great God.” The first book of Moses leads

5 Pf. 99. Cf. also Isa. 44:6; ef. 52:7; Jer. 10:7; Jer. 46, 18; Jer. 48:15; Zeph. 1:5; Zeph. 3:15; Mal. 1:14.

2) Eusebius praepar. evang. I, 10. gives from the translation of the Sanchuniathon by Philo of Byblus, the passage: * Kooovor roivuy, 09 ol Doivixes T veayi r000CyoDEVoVOL , 'Beordevey rij ogg xi d cregov her iyy roõ Blov relevryv eig Toy ro Koo-vou dre xt ēju eig etc. etc. The old king Saturn was called So, for the Phoenicians, it was also Israel. After further development- Payment: Saturn married the goddess Aowßosr and with this he begot the only begotten son, Jehoshad. This word, which apparently shares an origin with Judah, it is said to mean, even now, a native in the Phoenician language.

If one says that Sanchuniathon mixes Jewish ideas here= lungs of Abraham and the patriarchs with the Phoenician Ideas about Saturn; this is how this claim is supported. no other proof than that in the first book of Moses a A narrative emerges that presents the matter differently. I believe rather, that even in the first book of Moses the ideas of Saturn mixed with those of the nation's forefathers Abraham is in Jewish legend what in Phoenician legend... Saturn, the celebrated being to whom one attributes the attributes the sacrifices of the firstborn sons; for Saturn also He sacrifices his firstborn son at the above place. Judah.

29 *

452

Chapter 32, verse 28. the name Israel from Jacob, who was a I wrestled with the god all night long, and therefore which should bear the name Israel, which then became a fighter with God, is explained. Only when the biblical verse... However, this may also be based on a myth (because even Heracles wrestles with Zeus), so it is obvious that of an unclear meaning, completely unsuccessful Legend, which nowhere in the old Testament appears The naming of a people cannot be avoided.

Rather, in my opinion, Israel is the ancient name the teaching of the God of the Hebrews, according to which the Israelites listen, just as the Moabites called the people of Camos, who The Ammonites are the people of Malkam. El is the Semitic. Basic word for the divine being; Elohim) in the more Today, the Jewish God is very frequently mentioned in earlier times. called. The Hebrew gave the common name of God. El is a decorative epithet, thereby emphasizing his power and strength. Israel called him DRAW This

The name was used as a common and everyday name. needs that he subsequently the priests of holiness no longer seemed to correspond to the divine essence. He

1) What does this plural Elohim, "the gods," mean? He resorted to a majesty plural; the Jewish God is said to glorify "the gods." — The Jewish The god is originally a sun god, then the sun and Saturn. at the same time. Elohim are without doubt the planets themselves, which one sees oneself as deities under the leadership of the sun or the Saturn thought. Initially, all the stars were probably Elohim, later only those in whom a movement was perceived, The planets. Jehovah is the supreme of the Elohim, like Ormuzd. the chief of the Amshaspands, he is therefore called Jehovah the Army swarms. As a representative of the Elohim, the god is also for He called himself Elohim alone. At Sandyuniathon, in the Phoenician religion, the Elohim, sons and companions of Ilos or Eloah, the of Saturn (oyrgl. the frequently cited fracture piece by Eusebius. praep. possibly I.).

453

was therefore replaced by the secret name Jehovah, who recurs everywhere in the holy books, the old The divine name Israel, on the other hand, appears only as

The name of the people, and comes as God's name in oblivion.
 heit; a circumstance that prevents a later author from...
 The declaration stated that the national name Israel should be spelled from a battle between the patriarch and Jehovah.
 Time when people began to use the name Jehovah
 What he needed cannot be determined; perhaps he already had it.
 In Moses' time, it was a secret of the priests; perhaps he came first to the Hebrews in the age of David, upon closer examination Connection with the Phoenicians. Is the derivation of the Words of dn the correct ones, so the use of the Names hardly reach above David. I alone...
 I understand that with these mysterious words, Jao and Jehovah does not place the main moment on the consonant, son which seems to be based on the vowels 140. It is these Vowels are, in a sense, the main sounds of human speech.
 organs and as such very suitable, both the divine, to describe all-encompassing beings, as well as in the May
 The use of antiquity for mysterious purposes was already evident through its Simply speaking something can have a special effect. To These letters are also the first sounds which the Humans speak and are equally fluent in all languages. They may gen therefore as a mysterious designation of the highest God tes in the mouth of the priests into a very high antiquity extend and most likely originated in Egypt
 ten find, where Hermes also had a secret name.
 On the part of the later Hebrews, it was due to a lack of another derivation, very natural, the word time to base it on the word "Mr". What now, finally, the Benen
 When King Melech arrived, she went to everyone.
 Times alongside the name of the God of the Hebrews;
 for Jehovah was truly known as the King of the 454

Nation thought; in the same way Jehovah is also called Baal.
 "Lord," like the deities of the neighboring peoples).
 Jehovah also stands in neighborly relations with his neighboring gods.
 licher relationship. The images of the same are in his Tem pel, as has often been noted); the temple also has foreign priests, which Ezekiel concedes when he says:
 "You left behind sons of foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and uncut flesh, come into my sanctuary, to desecrate my house by eating my sacrificial food,

 He offered fat and blood, and thus brought about my covenant.
 all your abominations, and you did not attend to my service
 ner sanctuaries, but rather set those who serve my service
 They concerned themselves in my sanctuary, to you. At the initiation Dedication of the Temple by Solomon 1 Kings 8:41-43
 It is explicitly stated and expected that strangers also would come to the temple to offer their worship to Jehovah to bear witness. Jehovah quite peacefully asserts his His position as a national god gives him special veneration.
 besides the foreign gods, the Jews wander in the middle in the condemned idolatry in Jerusalem to the Temple
 pel, to celebrate their national festivals”); the priests, of course
 They are in any case consistent with this entire being, and if

1) Hosea 2:16: “And it happened at that time when you called:
 My husband, and no longer do you call me: My husband.
 O% Baal, for he means Lord and Master; the god will depicted under the image of a husband; but that the Prophet the naming Baal as the name of the god and epithet

 The following verse shows what Jehovah has in mind, where he continues:
 “And I will remove the names of Baal from their mouths.”
 Balaam considers Baal and Jehovah to be the same god. Balak Balaam leads him to the heights of Baal, where they sacrifice to him.
 Jehovah and Jehovah appear in person. Numbers 22:41; Chapter 23, 1. ff. ö

2) Jer. 7, 30.; Jeremiah 32:34; Ez. 5, 11.) Ez. 44, 7. 8.

4) Jer. 5, 19.; Jer. 6, 20.; Jer. 7, 2.; Jer. 14, 12.; Jer. 26, 2.
 17th; Jer. 36, 9.; Complaint 2, 6. ff. Ezech. 20, 39.

455

Even some prophets zeal against it: the majority of them
 Ben approves of it). The kings, too, completely embrace idolatry. surrendered, yet found ≠Jehovah's anointed ones 2). They swore with Jehovah and with Moloch. "Stretch out my hand."

about Judah and about all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, says Zephanja), «and eradicate from this place the remnant of Baal, the name of the pagan priests and the priests, and the worship on the rooftops before the host of heaven and the pray before Jehovah and swear by him and also swearren at their Moloch (82792). The peoples which worshipping related gods, they are in a closer relationship-

"To Jehovah. In Ezekiel," Jehovah says of the people.
rians: You were a spreading, covering cherub; and I set you down on the holy mountain of God; under fiery flames
You walked on stones. You were blameless in your ways.
Change from the day of your birth until your transgression:
you were found, due to the size of your trade.
your inner self filled with injustice (so not through the god-(dual service), and you sinned: and so I rejected you from the mountain of God and wipe out the cherub who covers you-Away from the fiery stones. Your heart rose above of your beauty; you corrupted your wisdom for your sake-
For the sake of glory. Through the multitude of your transgressions, Through the injustice of your actions you have lost your home.
"Desecrated lights." (Jeremiah 5) Jehovah does not bring not only the captured Jews, but also the Moabites and Ammonites return to their homeland. In the fifth book of Moses
It says in chapter 23, verse 7: "You shall not cast a shadow over the Edomites."
(Beware; for he is your brother). (This also applies everywhere.)
among the Reformation prophets, the thread of religious verse through the wall shaft. The images of the gods were placed opposite each other.

1) Jer. 14, 13.; Jer. 16, 11/10; 23, 33.) Complaint. 4, 20.
) Zeph. 1, 4, 5.) Ez. 28, 14. ff.") Jer. 48, 47; Jer. 49, 6.
Moses also speaks to the Edomite brothers, in Numbers 20:14.

...456.

Respected and held sacred. David destroys the Philistines.
The star did not remove the images of the gods, but rather it takes them with); he would undoubtedly see them in the temple of his God.
preserved, like the Philifters on the other side.
Had Jehovah already captured the Ark of the Covenant, would he have had a

He had a temple. The chronicle seeks to save its hero.
 (by reporting?), the king burned these pictures;
 But the credibility of the chronicle is known, especially in this respect! Certainly, the books of Samuel would They should not have concealed this burning, if it really was
 It would have taken place instead. Perhaps such places could be created.
 Don't overlook it! Especially the efforts of the later Chro^s Nik, to cover up such things, are the most striking examples.
 white against the validity of our Mosaic Law and ice the Jehovah's service founded on it in the Davidic period^s old. — As the Philistines, on the other hand, were opposed by the Ssraelites.

She brought the Ark of the Covenant into the temple of their god Dagon.
 Bringing it to Asdod has already been reported above.

Hebrews also accept the consecrated gift of the Philistines, which golden bumps and mice, without decency in reception, and Jehovah so little detests this pagan distinction, that they were first shown to him at the Ark of the Covenant in a be^s kept in special boxes. Also the oracles of the gods.

 were used by each other; the sick king of Syria lets (to inquire of Jehovah concerning his condition), Ahaziah, King of Israel, however, asks Baal-Zebub in a fine manner
 "illness around council," which Elijah considered an insult to his Prophetic dignity and the Israeli national god on^s takes. The Philistines recognize Jehovah as a god.
 5), as the Jews in turn the gods of the nations; the Philistine king Achis even swears "by the life of Jehovah";
 The Assyrians also find in Jehovah ben God, the national god.

— —

1) 2nd Sam. 5, 21.) 1 Chr. 15, 12. 3) 2 Kings 8, 8.
) 2nd King. Cape. 1. 9) 1st Saturday. 5, p. 11; Cape. 6, 7. 18. % 1st Sat. 29.6.

God of the Jews). Joel complains 2) that Tyre and Sidon and the circles of Philistia with the Jewish treasures they had decorated the temple; and the Jewish prophets to On the other hand, they find comforting hope in the fact that the clay node of the pagans through the Messiah into the temple according to Jerusalem would be brought.

The entire setup of the Jehovah's Witness cult, all of it I find absolutely nothing peculiar about religious customs. Jews; they consistently find their parallels partly among the Phoenicians, partly among the Egyptians, up to the late The previous rule states that one may not have an image of God. Lucian gives the strange news that in the temple to Hierapolis in Syria, the throne of the sun god He stands, but there is no image of him; the sun and the moon goddess are the only gods, of those Syrians have no image of; this is not allowed. since these deities appeared in visible form in the sky (Lucian). Here we have the link to the prohibition: You shall Do not make for yourself an image or a likeness! Jewish mythology descends to the legend, that the gods mingled with men and heroes would have produced, Genesis 6:1: "And it came to pass, when mankind They began to multiply on Earth and to give them daughters; when the sons of Elohim were born, then the sons of Elohim went 5) the

1) Isaiah 36:18-20. The Assyrians and Babylonians act in Nas. men of Jehovah's and are chosen and favored by God; said Sennacherib 2nd Kings. 18, 25; Cyrus Jer. 44, 28; Jer. 45, 1. ff. 13. 14; Isaiah 48:15.

2) Joel 3:10.) Lucian. de dea Syr. c. 34.

) Also in the temple of the sun god Bel, at the level of the Babylonian In the Babylonian tower, there was no image of the god, but there was There stood a precious bed and a golden table for the god.

ready. Herod. I, 181. f

°) DIN” 22 An Engel, can not be thought of here,
For the doctrine of angels was only developed later. These sons

458

Daughters of men, that they were beautiful, and took them Women of all who played with them. The giants were on the earth at that time; and after the sons of Elohim
when they had intercourse with the daughters of men, they bore children to them,
These are the heroes, men of glory since ancient times.
had been. Even in the Talmud, the Jewish legend terrifies, does not shy away from such mixtures. After the Prophet Elijah ascended to heaven and transformed into an angel
when he transforms, he sometimes comes in the form of an Arabic Merchants descend to Earth. Once on the Day of Atonement.
He meets Raf Yehuda and speaks to him about how he is on
The earth had come to satisfy his sensual desires in many things.

To satisfy the virgins of Nahardea. On the response
Judah's question: what did the holy God say to such a thing?

“Say,” the prophet replied, “that sin rests.” before the door (Genesis 4:7), that is, according to the rabbinic
'Shen's explanation: "evil nature compels sin."

Like the Phoenicians, the Hebrews also sacrificed on Ber
Gen; the mountains in general are sacred. The fifth book Moses commands in chapter 12, verse 2: “You shall destroy all places, where the peoples you are driving out served their gods, on the high mountains, on the hills and under all the green
"nen trees"; but the whole Hebrew story shows Quite the opposite; the Hebrews were actually seeking the mountains.
up and the green trees, where Arabic or Cananitic Sacrificial sites were intended to also sacrifice their victims there.
to judge. In Phoenicia, the mountains were given a kind of divine worship; a mountain on the Phoenician coast called the face of God 2), likewise it is called by the Hebrews

The gods of subordinate stars become the Elohim.
If the Elohim were the planets, then it is very likely that among the Sons of the Elohim to understand the fixed stars.

) In the tract Joma near Eifenmeng. entd. Judaism

2) 9eov xooowroy Strab. XVI, 2.

(a mountain in Perea). Lebanon is called in ancient times Testament Baal» Hermon) and was, as Eusebius in Onomasticon reports, even in the first Christian centuries considered sacred by the surrounding pagans. from the earliest times until the complete dispersal of the Jews The mountains had a sacred character for the Hebrews; Even in the New Testament, Jehovah appears on the mountains, to glorify the Messiah. Even the patriarchs sacrificed on mountains; Abraham, in particular, sacrifices on the mountain Moriah, where the Jebusites also sacrifice, David buys later Aravna gave this place of sacrifice, Solomon built the Temple. pel on the same. Jehovah appears to Moses on Sinai, Moses sacrifices on mountains, as does Joshua; in the Judges Time is spent holding religious gatherings on Mount Tabor (gen); in the age of David the descendants of Saul (hanged before Jehovah on a mountain); Horeb is called (still in the Book of Kings, the mountain of God?); Zion will It is everywhere called the holy mountain; Jehovah is the “Holy One”. (from the mountain). The Syrians say in 1 Kings 20:23: “Mountain The gods are their (the Israelites') gods; that's why they have the They had the upper hand over us; but we will fight with them.

1) Peniel 1 Mos. 32, 31; dir. 8, 8. |

) dir. 3, 3; 1 Chr. 6, 23. According to Sanchuniathon (in Eusebius praep. (evang. 1, 10) the mountains Lebanon, Anti-Lebanon, Kafius and Brathy took their name from the divinely revered sons of light, fire and flame.

9) «as legòy ruuaosai dr ray Elvav.“ The same assures the Christian Church Father Hilary, + 368 AD, in his Commentary in Ps. 133: “Certe hodie gentes montem hunc profana religione venerantur. „Even in ancient times, the mountains are found holy, Herod. I, 131.

) Joshua 8:10,) Judges Chapter 4; Chapter 5:3.) 2 Samuel 21:9.

7) 1 Kings 19:8

Habakkuk 3:3. Compare also Zephaniah 3:11; Obadiah 1:16, 17; Sadyarite. 8, 3; Jer. 31, 23; Ezech. 20, 40; Dan. 7, 16; Joel 3:22; Ezech. 35, 12; Yes. 65, 25; Yes. 66, 20.

460

ten on the level, whether we don't have the upper hand over them will be." The enemies boast, "The Eternal Heights" ber to have brought Israelites into their possession, and also Eze Chiel responds to this idea. Jehovah commands the Ezekiel 36:1: "But you, son of man, who..." Prophecy to the mountains of Israel and say: Mountains of Israel, Hear the word of Jehovah! Thus speaks the Lord (Genesis 13:14). hova: Because the enemy speaks of you: "Ha, the ewi The heights have become our property: » fo rede I in the fire of my anger against the remaining people and against all Edom, which has taken my land. to property with great joy and arrogant contempt tung, to empty it into the loot. Even the fifth book Moses speaks without reproach of sacrifices in the blessing of Moses. on mountains: the tribe of Zebulun is to lead the tribes to the mountains. Mountains load and there offer sacrifices of piety). Jehovah's righteousness is like the mountains of God - It says Psalm 36:7. The mountains of Basan are called "God's" Mountains» Pf. 68, 16; why do you lie in wait for God's mountains », means es, «up the mountain that God chose as a fine seat? » "I lift my eyes to the mountains," says a He Hebrews, Pf. 121:1, where will my help come from? » Befon The mountains were holy places as dwelling places of Jehovah. Sinai, Zion, and Carmel. From Sinai and Zion came It has already been traded several times; Jehovah was actually there "I thought of myself as living there; come up to me on Sinai," he says. the God to Mofe." For the Jews, Jehovah dwelt on Mount Zion, for the Sfraelites on Mount Cars mel. The Israelite prophets Elijah and Elisha (on)), here Jehovah performed fine miracles, set He set his sacrifice on fire and sent fire upon the messengers of the King Ahaziah; here, in the lovely forests of the

2) Deuteronomy 33:19

) 1st king Cape. 18; 2nd King Cape. 1; 2nd King 2, 25; 2. Kon. 4, 25.

461

Carmel, in the middle of the mountain, is where Jehovah himself lives according to the literal sayings of the Jewish prophet Micah).

Jehovah also appears in the bush on Sinai, yes, this one

The god's sojourn under trees even becomes a sta-

The name for Jehovah; "the grace of Him who in the Bush lived, comes to the house of Joseph," it says.

in the blessing of Moses 2). That the Hebrews the altars of Jehovah erected under trees, was already mentioned in the article.

The existence of "Afchera" has been more precisely proven. For example, Abraham is mentioned.

Genesis 21:33 says: "He planted tamarisk trees in Beersheba."

and there called upon the name of Jehovah." Carmel was now but also a sacred mountain for the Phoenicians, and this

The circumstances further suggest the relationship between the two.

Cult. Even in Vespasian's time, there was a cult on this mountain.

a famous Phoenician oracle, whose priest at that time

Basilides from the entrails of sacrificial animals, the Vespa-

(Sian predicted the imperial dignity). Tacitus gives the aftermath.

(It is said that Mount Carmel was worshipped as a god.)

However, there was no image of God on it, but only an altar was found: and from the priest of this altar

Vespasian had just received his oracle. A very similar situation occurred in...

This relationship, according to Herodotus, was the cult of the Persians. He (fagt), the Persians considered it foolish to have idols, Tem-

They built temples and altars, worshipping Zeus on the

9) Micah 7:14.) Deuteronomy 33:16. .

2) Suet. Vesp. 5: Apud Judaeam Carmeli Dei oraculum consulentem ita confirmavere sortes, ut quidquid cogitaret voveret-que animo, quamlibet magnum, id esse proventurum polliceren-

The promise has been fulfilled; the priest says at

Tacitus hist. II, 78: "Datur tibi magna sedes, ingentes termini, multum hominum. "

4) Tacit. II, 78: Est Judaeam inter Syriamque Carmelus, ita vocant montem deumque, nec simulacrum deo aut templum situm tradidere majores: aram tautum et reverentiam. "

Herod. I, 131,

462

Highest peaks of the mountains, there they brought their victims and They invoked the entire celestial sphere as Zeus.
If, therefore, the reformist party in our Old Testament...
Menden books on the cult of the heights and the sacrifices under green trees are described as a relic of Mosaic law;
Thus, it does violence to Jewish antiquity as well.
like so many other institutions they established on Moses It carries back. The sacrifice on mountains, under mighty trees men, is an ancient custom of the Hebrews, like the Phoenicians, and It remained in Judah even after the construction of the Temple.
in practice. What is new, however, is the stipulation that one may only do so in
She was allowed to sacrifice in the temple. She was exiled by the Jews were never recognized, although the Temple
it was the main place of sacrifice and served as a religious unification point.
the nation, where one gathered at the high festivals collected.

That also in the Phoenician and Egyptian Re
The league finds a sacred tent (Y) and a sacred ark,
This has already been mentioned above. As, according to Sanchuniathon, the image of the greatest of the gods in Byblus on a with ox-drawn wagons are driven 2), so also the load Jehovah's. The interior furnishings of the temple in Jerusalem is also the same as in Phoenicia. Tyrians They built Jehovah's temple! No people will a hostile god of the neighboring people Build temples; likewise the Jews would not have allowed their Jehovah to build them.
to have a house built by the Phoenicians, if this Cana

They would have been unclean and hateful to God before him.
The Phoenicians also had their two phalluses with the Pomegranates erected in front of the temple in n, and

m) Münter, Rel. der Carth. p. 126. The Pböntzier also mourns= ten in sackcloth and ashes, like the Jews, Münter p. 148. In Baal services can be found in music and dance (1 Kings 18:25).
also in the service of Jehovah; David dances before the ark of the covenant.
) Mo vers Phön. p. 542.

463

These remained unchallenged until the conquest of the City! Like the division of the temple in Jerusalem
The Phoenician temples also had their Holy of Holies, which only the highest priests were allowed to enter; so in the famous temple at Hierapolis); it was in this temple= offered twice daily, as in Jerusalem 2). Fat was also an important part of the sacrifice among the Egyptians,
As was the custom among the ancients, they too poured oil on their They sacrificed and considered fasting to be pleasing to the gods.
a pleasing act, which they performed especially before the sacrifice subjected to). On the curious kinship of the jü=
The disgust of the pig with the cult of the Neighboring peoples have already been spoken to. Pigs are the Priests in the temple at Hierapolis considered them an abomination; they were Not sacrificed and not eaten. Some, however, believe= “Ben,” Lucian added boldly, “this is not happening because they an abomination, but because they are holy). Also those scy=
German peoples who sacrificed humans and drank human blood=
They did not sacrifice pigs and did not tolerate them in their Lands). In Egypt, the pig was an unclean animal;
The Egyptians washed themselves whenever they even thought of a pig.
brushed against it; the swineherds were not allowed into any temple
They came and could only marry among themselves, since
No one else gave them a daughter. To Dionysus and

1) Lucian dea Syr. c. 31.) Lucian dea Syr. c. 44.

2) Herod. II, 40.

*)-Lucian dea Syr. c. 54. Also Plutarch (Symposiac. IV. p. 670) Paris edition of 1624) suggests a veneration of the Swine It's not something among the Jews. If they abhor the pig, it means
If he did, they would kill it like magicians kill mice. But
The mouse among the Jews was also similar to that of the pig, Typhonian animals. Plutarch is certainly mistaken when he believes the Jews worshipped the pig because of it his digging in the earth as a teacher of agriculture

I have gaolten.

9) Hero d. IV, 62. 63. 64.

464

But in Egypt, the moon goddess was worshipped on the full moon.
Pigs were sacrificed, and on these days the Meat was eaten; only on the full moon, says Herodotus, should one eat.
The Egyptians ate the flesh of pigs; their arms bowed
They made pigs out of dough on these days and sacrificed them.
The eel, which among the Egyptians was the evil god Ty phon was holy and by falling from a rock (where sacrifices were made?), stands out significantly among the Jews, even if only a few traces have been left to us).
I am reminded of Balaam's donkey, which carried the angel of Jehovah sees, whom Balaam himself does not notice, and whose mouth
"Jehovah opens" that she speaks to Balaam). (Noticeable)
The wise man will solve the first birth of man and that of the donkey placed side by side, also the donkey 3. Mos. 11.
where the unclean animals are listed, not among these called animals. The law gives the choice to remove the donkey.
neither by using a sheep nor by breaking its neck chen, Exodus 34:20: The firstborn of the donkey you shall

1) Hero d. II, 47.

) Plut. Symposium c. 5. Plut. de Isid. et Osir. c. 30. It was
This animal was despised as Typhonian in Egypt. Jablonsky Panth. aeg. III, 45. "

9 The Gentiles accused the Jews of having given the donkey divinely revered, Ta cit. V, 4; Plut. Symposiac. IV, 5. Antiochus A golden donkey's head was said to have been found in the temple during the looting. have found. Jose ph. contr. Apion. II, 7. Also the god= Gentiles give the Jews a special veneration of the pig. Guilt. Lund, Jewish Sanctuary. p. 1671. The Egyptian Legend Plutarch portrays the evil god Typhon in a battle beat them, flee riding on a donkey for seven days and, when he comes to rest, which Hierosolymus and Judae witness. In the rabbinic book Yalkut chadasch by Eisenmeng. II. 721 The ox in Exodus 21:33 refers to Messiah, the son of Joshua. Seph's donkey, the Messiah, the son of David. The donkey The Messiah is said to have one hundred colors. II, 698.

) 4 Mos. 22, 23, 28,

465

Solve it with a sheep, and if you don't solve it, well, break it. His neck. You shall kill all the firstborn of your sons. solve and before my face one should not appear empty= nen). That the donkey here collectively represents all unclean things Animals set aside, as Michaelis assumes, is a will= A bold claim; a legislator cannot be so vague. speak; the Mosaic books express themselves rather in the= equalize regulations very precisely; a sacrifice of the donkey But it would still be left behind: because one is not allowed to give the donkey anything. to break his neck (what does this mean other than to sacrifice him?), if you don't want to solve it.

Certainly, one must not forget the origin of the food prohibitions. in that conception of the Pentateuch which only the= wants to let those animals enjoy that ruminate and chew their cud. (have cleft hooves). Later legislators had two animals dedicated to the evil god before him, the pig and the donkey, before whose consumption one has since ancient times a had a certain reluctance, although he never completely succumbed to exile. was left out." The pig had cloven hooves and

It didn't chew the cud again; the donkey had no cloven hooves.
and did not chew the cud again; according to these circumstances, I explain ten those people who wanted many religious precepts, all animals that bore the same markings, for impure. The loosening of the firstborn camels will, of course, not required, although according to the law) even the camel

1) The same 2 Mos. 13:13.) Michael. mos. Law IV. $. 193.

) 3. Mos. 11:1 ff.

Pseudo-Isaiah permits the Jews to enjoy pork.

Regarding the accusation in Isaiah 65:4; chapter 66:17: Donkey meat was eaten in

The need, 2 Kings 6:25. When the Syrian Ben-Hadad Samaria besieged, there was great famine in Samaria, and behold, they be-They rode it until a donkey's head was worth eight sekels of silver and a four-theil Kab Zaubermit fünf Sekel.

) Leviticus 11:4. The large herds of donkeys and camels, which the patriarchs held, were certainly not solely as 30

*

466

was unclean, and firstborn camels were nevertheless born Know many things beforehand; be it also that a regulation concerning
The process of loosening the pigs did not exist because that
The pig was not kept by the Hebrews anyway.
If now in our Mosaic Law, besides the solution
the firstborn of man also that of the donkey, and only that one, is prescribed; so this may be proof that the sacrifice of the donkey in earlier times alongside the sacrifice of the firstborn sons among the Hebrews in special practice was and that both were in a peculiar relationship.

The sacrifice of a ram at the Jewish Reconciliation—
The same parallel can be found among the Egyptians.
where, when an animal had been sacrificed, the head of the dessel was usually placed to strike down and speak the words about it: Where= far away, over the sacrificers or over Egypt, an evil came.
"One should, so may it be turned onto this head."
The head was then carried away and thrown into a river.
or sold it to foreigners if there were any nearby.
were. Because of this curse, the Egyptians ate nothing at all.
no animal head, just as the Greeks did with curse sacrifices.

Pack animals were not only used, but also eaten. Donkeys are also everywhere not exempt from the Cherem= victims, although never be called dogs (cf. Genesis 12:16; Chapter 1).
24, 35; Chapter 30, 43; Joshua 6, 21; 7, 24). The adjacent People ate domestic animals that were declared unclean in the Pentateuch.
with the exception of the donkey and the pig. The Arabs fan= camel meat, as it is today, was also eaten in antiquity.
delicious Dio d. Sic. 2, 54. Harbor find with them a very ordinary food (Michael. mos. Right IV. 5. 203.)
The Phoenicians also ate dog meat. Darius forbade this.
Carthaginians alongside the human sacrifices Justin. XIX, 1. The Persians ate horses, camels, and also donkeys. Herod I, 133. In Greece and Italy were served by poorer people who ate donkey meat.
Apuleius ate. Metamorphosis. VII. Meat of young donkeys
It was even considered particularly delicious in Rome (Pliny, Histories).
nat. VIII, 68.

467

Nothing was enjoyed because one believed one was eating the curse into oneself. into). The Jews, as is well known, led the goat on whose
The sins of the people were distracted, into a desert.
and let him go. Elsewhere, D tells...
Herodotus, that the inhabitants of Thebes in Egypt only on one day of the year they sacrificed a single ram,
They all beat each other and then the ram in a hot
They were buried in the crypt.

A kind of Pasha appears in Egypt during the reign of Dionysus=

“Everyone slaughters Dionysus,” says Herodotus.

(at the supper before the feast) a pig before fine

Door. Furthermore, the Egyptian and Greek can be found there.

Chinese Dionysus festival in the Jewish Feast of Tabernacles.

“The Egyptians,” reports Herodotus in the aforementioned passage, “celebrate the Dionysus festival, with the exception of the choirs, almost just like the Greeks.” Dionysus is, according to Herodotus, the Egyptian sun god Osiris 4), and Jehovah is also Son= nengott. Plutarch finds the Feast of Tabernacles according to time and the type of celebration is very similar to the Greek Dionysus festival. related). The Jewish cry Hallelujah, which is associated with Jah, the Jehovah, appears, was the usual Freu= denruf at the Greek Dionysus festivals?). How can one Even the origin of this festival is only doubtful! They build huts from green branches, drink, feast, dances and jumps for seven nights by torchlight, which Women are present; they have made things from the priests' underpants.

) Herod. II, 39; Hom. II. XIX, 276. Paus. III, 20.

2) Herod. II, 42. |

3) Herod. II, 48: 75g oprys cn dopmin».

9 Herod. II, 42.

5) Plut. Symposiac. IV, 5: * xawös Eori xai d roönos Jiovuow KOOONKWY. m

6) 7 00 praise Jehovah, among the Greeks 670, or EAedeö, of which oloAudw, G ovvvv,p etc.

30*

*

(the wicks made for illumination): it is a lavish Harvest festival, originally among those (already under »Ash'era (discussed) sukkahs and tents the creative Nature was also revered through sexual freedom). The pomegranate points in this direction, or in its absence, the Lemon, which the Jews still carry at this festival, Very clearly to this day. After the explanation (of the third book of Moses) the festival shall take its name from the huts which the Israelites built in the desert would have lived there; but in a sandy desert one has no Huts of foliage, and even less so one celebrates a Firm, because people once lived in huts made of leaves; it is This is neither such a wretched nor such a brilliant state of affairs, that one might feel compelled to hold a celebration in honor of it. found. These huts have no other origin. had a jump when the daughters' huts, which were through the King of Assyria led Babylonians to Samaria built 9; they were, like these, for sexual mixing⁹ determined. The festival was a celebration of procreation. Nature; water was offered for seven days on the Altars (cf. 1 Sam. 7:6); but water is the fertilizing one. Element, Venus is born from the sea. Still in The main festivities were held in the forecourt of the second temple. the women, where they also drew and poured out water. There, both sexes spent seven lavish nights together.

) Cf. Win. bibl. Realw. II, 7.

Even the old orthodox Lundius, although he believes that the Devil as a god ape, the Feast of Tabernacles among the Greeks⁹ mocked, and that one could see from this how busy everyone is⁹ It was once the devil who sought to undermine God's holy order. can't shake the thought that in this Jewish Many immoralities are committed with delousing; Chapter 25 to 27 in the Jewish holy sites.

) 3. Mof. 23, 34. 4) 2 Kings. 17, 30.

until it was later deemed good to replace the women with a to separate the men with an iron gate.

If one now considers the striking kinship of Jewish and Egyptian customs go completely back to Moses¹ leads to the Hebrews' sojourn in Egypt; so One is certainly mistaken. What originates from there will
There is little; even circumcision is difficult, even down to...
Moses returned; for in the desert she found, according to her own...
A confession of the Bible does not take place. However, it does occur.
an Egyptian influence (since Solomon) is in effect and is in ice nem continuous rising understood until the downfall of the Kingdom of Judah. They concluded alliances of protection and defense with the Egyptians, both the kingdom of Israel 2), as the kingdom Judah); after the Battle of Megiddo, Judah came to some Time under Egyptian rule." Jeremiah fights continually, but in vain, in favor of the Chaldeans, the Egyptian influence; finally, the kingdom of Judah falls due to fine connection with Egypt 5), and a part of the Jews turns away from the Chaldeans to that land 9). Since Sa² lomo, so the Egyptian customs are becoming more and more have found their way into the Israelites' society. The Einthei³ Dividing the Hebrews into twelve tribes is difficult to apply to the to trace back to Jacob's sons; she probably has one

1) 1st King Cape. 3; 1st King 11, 40.) 2 Kings. 17, 4. ff.

3) Isaiah 30:2 ff.; Chapter 31:1; Chapter 36:6. Isaiah is also a Enemy of Egypt, like Jeremiah later.

) 2nd King. 23, 33. ff.) Jer. 44, 30.) Zach. 10, 11; Jer. Cape. 41.

7) Among the Romans and Greeks, Jewish and Egyptian Uses for closely related, in Tacitus and Suetonius er⁴ appear "sacra Aegyptiaca et Judaica, "Aegyptii Judaicique Rite "side by side." Plutarch calls the Jews Symposiac.
IV, 5 * Aiyuaruagovyres."n Spencer de leg. Hebr. p. 776.:
"Eleazarus, Judaeorum pontifex in literis ejus ad Ptolemaeum datis (apud Aristeam lib. de LXX) Aegyptiorum inquit sacerdotes, populi principes, etsi multis aberrant, in quibusdam ta-men nobiscum conveniunt, „

astronomical basis and is the replica of an Egyptian a later establishment. This is not to say that the Israelites would not divide themselves into separate groups beforehand.
 tribes had divided, who traced their lineage back to sons of Jacob's derived; but the number twelve, which only thereby
 It can be achieved that old Jacob also gets his two Grandsons, Joseph's sons Ephraim and Manasseh, as sons (assumes), clearly shows a different one, without doubt.
 astronomical classification principle, points to the twelve times
 The cycle of the animal kingdom and the division of the year into twelve Months ahead. Bohlen says that this division of tribes borrowed from the Sabaean Arabs and with related to the twelve signs of the animal kingdom have), which Wiyer calls a casual assumption, (of which one hears many now). Even if The Ishmaelites, like the Abrahamites, were divided into twelve tribes.
 fell *), if the same was true for the Persians 5, when the Egyptians make twelve divisions in their land ten and twelve kings): should not also be used in the Ifraelites, the reason for their classification, must be sought elsewhere.

than in the Jacob's family? Should this coincide?
 The classification is not based on a general astronomical reason.
 Must have had, the twelve lunar cycles of the year? Is Yes, surely the sacred number seven also applies to the Hebrews.
 of astronomical origin! I, for my part, do not conceal, that I the historical existence of most of those alleged I doubt Jacob's sons; since the Hebrew story is quite

) 1 Mos. Chapter 48.) v. Bohlen Introduction to Gen. p. LXXVI.

) Win. bibl. Realw. II. 596.) v. Bohlen J. c.

) Xenoph. Cyropaed. I, 2. 4.

6, The so-called eonptifche Dodekarchye Her o d. II, 147, which the Egyptians after the expulsion of the priest-king Seti, 671 until 650 BC, established. Heeren presumes this unity~~≠~~ lung in twelve realms be the return to an old institution been. History of the States of Antiquity. p. 78.

471

He knows nothing about them except their names, although the Hebrew otherwise traces back to his ancestors everywhere.
Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob are an eternal repetition in the Old Testament: but concerning the life and deeds of a Zebulun, Isachar, Asher, Naphtali — Who has something
Have you heard about it?

A later influence of Egypt is also indicated by the Jewish separation from other peoples, which the He~~≠~~
The Brethren did not observe this before their imprisonment. A Egyptians, says Herodotus, man or woman, will never be one Kissing Greeks on the mouth, neither with a knife, nor
To use a roasting spit, or a Greek's cauldron, also from
Do not enjoy pure bull meat if it is cut with a knife.
(a Greek was cut up). The prescribed Jewish purification customs are found in very similar ways.
Sages in Egypt and Phoenicia. The Egyptian priests
They bathed twice a day and twice a night; they were allowed to Only wear linen clothes that are always freshly washed.
had to, indeed, as Herodotus assures us, they had a Countless sacred customs to which they are obliged were 2); no Egyptian was allowed to wear anything other than a linen cloth.
to enter a temple in one's robe; one's woolen outer garment
He laid it down before the temple; people also wrapped themselves in linen.
(buried in garments). Who in Phoenicia buried a dead who had seen him was unclean for a day; the relatives of the
For the deceased it was thirty days!); the Phoenician Gal~~≠~~
They were allowed to leave if they had buried one of their comrades, Do not enter the temple for seven days. Hereditary, as with the Jews, also had a priesthood in Egypt; the priests~~≠~~

Herod. II, 41.

9) Herod II, 37. The practice of bed-sleeping also contaminated the Egyptians.
tern Herod. II, 64. a ) Herod. II, 81; cf. Suet. Otho 12.

) Lucian dea Syr. c. 55.

472

The law passed from father to son; every Tem~~ple~~ Pel had a high priest, whose position also extended to (inherited by the son). Such high priests took office in Egypt~~ian~~ ten and Phoenicia the first rank after the king), (sometimes even attained royal dignity). The Prie~~st~~
"The service in Phoenicia is quite similar to the Jewish one." In Temples at Hierapolis offered three hundred sacrifices at one offering. priests employed); similar to the Levites, one had for the Hierodules held lower-level positions. The ancient Egyptians only had them.
male priests; even among Jehovah they held this dignity only men, which is very natural, since Jehovah is a man was thought. But as with the Arabs and Phoenicians To Baal and Moloch, that's how Jehovah stood in ancient times.
a female deity at her side. Of course, there was nothing about that.
The Old Testament leaves us with only a few vague hints.
left; but it can already be seen from the close relative~~s~~ close a rift in which Jehovah stands against Moloch. Thus For example, in Exodus 38:8, the following curious passage can be found:
"He [Bezaleel, who at Moses' command brought the holy vessels]
[shafts manufactured] made the basin of copper and fine Frame of copper from the mirrors of the rising white~~s~~ but, who marched [to service] before the door of the Assembly tent. It is further said of the sons~~es~~
According to Eli's 1 Samuel 2:22, that they slept with the women, who entered for service at the door of the assembly~~s~~ tent. - Either Jehovah had a female Goddess beside her, to whom these serving women belong, or he himself had female priestesses). It is striking that

1) Herod. II, 37. ®) Justin. XVIII, 4.

3) Joseph. contr. Apion. I, 14.) Lucian dea Syr. e. 31.

) Lucian dea Syr. c. 42.

One can think of nothing else but a Kedefchen= service thinking; cf. Genesis. 38, 14; 5. Moof. 23, 195 Herod. 1, 199, in fact, our article Asherah. On a female also the commandment in the law according to which the priests lay nene Hofen tragen follen, um die Schabenabdeckungen), wenn they perform the service at the altar or in the meeting tent= so that they do not die. Philo's explanation 27, Moses probably gave this commandment because the priests often quickly ascended and descended the altar s?ien and thereby easily exposed himself in an unseemly manner= ten is not enough; for the linen gown which they according to Exodus 28:39 they should also wear it, and the one until "Going down to my feet provided sufficient protection against exposure." gen; to the running and jumping of the priests during their ceremonies Directions are out of the question anyway. It will also be... especially 2 Mof. 20:26 commands that the altar have no steps should have, so that the priests' shame upon ascending will not be uncovered, and once again the regulation will be reiterated. The wearing of underpants is given in Leviticus 16:4. Much= This more frequent ban suggests, according to the traces in the Pro= prophetic beings, of whom we shall speak immediately, thereupon, that in ancient times, undressing during service was common, which were prevented here by an allegedly Mosaic commandment (will be done). Such exposures, in turn, are in

473

The fact that Jeroboam had two children also suggests that he was a secondary goddess. Calves erected.

1) Exodus. 29, 42. 43.) Phil. vit. Mos. III, p. 522.

) Maimonides (More Nechov. part. 3, cap. 45. bei Lund jüd. (Heiligh. p. 178.) finds the cause of this commandment of the trousers "Wearing in the service of Baal-Peor. You know," he says, "how served Baal-Peor by exposing her shame. Therefore, God commands the priests to make themselves undergarments. chen, to cover their flesh when they were on duty, imglei that the priests should not go up steps to the altar. – But it is significant that the altar before the exile this The forbidden steps really had it. Ezekiel knew the altar. no different than with steps. Ezekiel 43:17. After the valley mud would have Balaam, who also received revelations from Jehovah holds, membro virili prophesied. (Tract. Sanhedrin fol. 105. at Connection with a sexual cult that is widespread throughout the old testament emerges and is undoubtedly among the Jews joined the Jehovah's Witnesses just as the Phoenicians did. Niziern the Kedeschen being at the service of Saturn. It This point is discussed under the article Ashera. has been, to which I refer here. As a remnant the That custom may apply to the old sexual cult, according to which, even in the post-exilic temple, the wicks for the Illumination at the Feast of Tabernacles by women from the ab The priests' underpants were made in the 9th century. The prophethood, which in a admittedly small a part of his limbs the most respectable side of the The religious essence of the Hebrews is presented here, but it is not a An institution unique to Israelites; it is found Eifenmeng. I, 447). It must be taken into account that in Dionysus service 76 aidioiv of the god an object of the Ver It was honorable. In the sacred ark of the Etruscans, this was Member of God preserved. Clement of Alexandria admon. adv. gent. p. 14. reproaches the pagans that They worshipped parts of Dionysus in their mysteries, which the I will not mention decency, * uöpuv, apenra we aAnlas ur aloxuyns, avadxuyrog d, Löffchye the lighting "During your mysteries," he calls out to the hierophant, "hey xe." Oov rov Jaxxov ro ypws! Exirgepov aroxpupai ry vuxri rd uv- grijo c Female side in the Eleusinian Mysteries ava-

474

oreilerai (7 Bau H) ra aidolia xc e „jes bet ri Seo, näm
The delight of Ceres, who is thereby amused; Clemens Alex. p-13, where the verses of Orpheus are also quoted:
Ne anovoa werlovug aveouparo, dete de xdvrc
Zuuaros ovde woeroyra turov, vie d ey Taxxos etc.
Among the Dionysus sesses in Egypt, the women had, nad) He Rodot II, 48, instead of phallic images the length of an ell, which they carried around in the villages, “vevov r aidioiv, ov xollo rew Eia0009 &0y rt allov Owuaros' roonyeerai d av-as al d Cl aeidovoai rov JAiövvooov' diöri de udo re &xel TO aldoioy ai xiyea uovyoy Tov Owuaros, Sri Aöyog weni avrod ipög Aeyouevos.»
) Treatise. Succa 3, 5 in Winer Bibl. Realw. II, 9.

475

in all religions of the ancient Orient. In Egypt:
those who, according to Herodotus, gave the oracles at the temples;
A special department of the Prie was employed there ster with the prophecy; the Old Testament also speaks (of the prophets of Egypt). Likewise, prophets of the Baal and Asherah are mentioned in the Old Testament and Prophets of the Chaldeans 2). Most closely related to The Jewish prophets may have been the ones of the neighboring Ed omiter, Moabiter, Ammoniter, Tyrier and Sido—never have been. We see from Jeremiah 27:3, 9, that all these peoples had their prophets, who were also critical—
They were asked about the circumstances surrounding Rath, how the pro-Prophets of the Jews. Jeremiah warns the emissaries of this Bob who had come to Jerusalem to meet with the king Nige Zedekia concerning the approaching Chaldeans to behave towards those of their prophets, soothsayers and To respect the summoners who are called to war against the Chaldeans advise. Ezekiel says the same about the prophets.
ten of the Ammonites, that they see deception and lies as true
add. There were also Befch wörer in the Jehovah's service, fie wer; who was mentioned in several places without any reproach; without Doubt was the summoning a task of the prophecy
Ten. Behold, I am sending among you snakes and adders, for the
There is no incantation; they will stab you, he says.
Jehovah in Jeremiah 8:17: “They have poison, like a "Deaf adder," it says Psalm 58:6, "that does not cease the voice of the summoner, of the banner, of the bane is knowledgeable. Even in Sirach, chapters 12 and 13, one reads: "Whoever pities a conjurer who was bitten by a snake will be? Here, of course, in a slightly different sense. In the above places, summoning is a remedy against the poisonous Bites; in Sirach it is merely a spectacled art.

) Yes. 19, 3.) Jer. 2, 80; Cape. 50, 36; 1st King 18, 19. Ezekiel 21:29, 5

476

What was originally a highly valued characteristic of the Prophetism was, according to the later view of the Pentateuch, offensive because of its connection to idolatry. It says in Deuteronomy 18:9: "You shall not do according to the law." Abominations of the nations; they shall not be found among you. who consecrates his son and his daughter through fire, who Not a magician, nor a sign interpreter, nor anyone practices fortune-telling. Summoners, or banishers, or necromancers, or A wise man, even one who questions the dead; for an abomination Jehovah is anyone who does such things. — Even the four The names indicate a widespread practice that Its nature among the Hebrews. — Also prophetesses. Jehovah's existed; Miriam is mentioned as one of them, Moses' sister), Deborah, wife of Lapidoth, who Judge and prophetess at the same time is 2), the Huldah, to Salum is married"); Eze warns against false prophetesses (chiel); many Hebrew women must have come to this passage. have been occupied with prophecy.

The news that occasionally reaches us about the The remaining Phoenician prophetic beings also bring into this relationship between the religious institutions of the Phoenicians and Jews into a close kinship. So far the Phoenician story. turn and Afstartendienst sufficed, the prophetic nature was a A kind of shamanism. Its origins are rooted in how As we noted above, the prophetic gift to a sick person persistent nervous activity, to which, however, an artificial one soon develops liche Pflege gesellen. One appeared in a striking manner.

 Elevator, transported by a roaring music into the background disturbance and, seized by this, in a state of being hot
 In a fit of frenzy, he uttered prophecies amidst violent gestures.
 The ancient prophets of the Hebrews are mentioned by tambourines and Pipes set in motion with enthusiasm. Moses' sister, the Pro Phetinz Mirjam "took the drum in her hand, and it

1) Exodus. 15, 20.) Dir. 4. *) 2 Chron. 34, 20.) Essz. 13, 17.

477

All the women followed her with drums and dancing.
 These women were certainly not just any Israelites, son
 the prophetesses who, under a female leader, celebrated holy events
 They performed marches and dances, like the prophets. To Saul
 At Gibeah Elohim, one encounters a choir of prophets, before to them harps and timpani and flutes and lutes, and They prophesy. And then it happens, says Samuel.
 to Saul, "the Spirit of God is upon you and you prophesy."
 You go with them and throw them, transformed into another man.
 The prophecy of the Jewish prophets therefore did not consist of solely in the fact that, when asked about the future, they give an answer they were given, but they turned out like the Phoenician prophecies ten, unprompted or driven by music, in an enthusiasm that manifests itself physically through vigorous movement expressed in the limbs and in which they expressed all sorts of things statements that could be interpreted as hints of the future sought to lay. As often as a school appeared in the process, it will be prophesying before the people to roaring music have presented; a part of the instruction in the Prophecies tensschulen will certainly also rely on the usual gestures and that general prophecy had been directed).

The outward appearance of the Jewish prophets is reminiscent of in turn, the sexual independence of the Phoenicians Jewish cults. The older Jewish prophets went into their rem prophetic elevators naked. So striking. This lukewarm.
 ten mag, so it is according to clear biblical statements

That's undeniable. It initially stems from an error.
The numbering in 1 Samuel 19:20 ff. highlights "Saul," it says,
"He sent messengers to fetch David. And when they..."
They saw the assembly of the prophets who prophesied, and Samuel, who stood there as their leader: so it came to the Bo-

1) Exodus. 15, 20. 91. Sat. 10, 5. ff.

2) Elisha still speaks when he is to prophesy (2 Kings 3:15-16):
"Get me a string player." And it happened, when the string player...
When the tens player played, the hand of Jehovah came upon him.

478

ten Saul's the Spirit of God and they also prophesied).
And it was reported to Saul, and he sent other Bo-ten, and they also prophesied; and Saul sent again Third messengers, and they also prophesied. Then he too went.
after Rama and came to the great pit at Sekhu and He asked and said: Where are Samuel and David?
He said, "See Najoth near Ramah." And he went there.
after Najoth near Ramah, and the Spirit also came upon him.
God, and he went on prophesying until he after Najoth came to Rama. And he too took off his clothes.
He went out and also prophesied before Samuel, and lay there naked.
all day and all night. Therefore, it is said man: Is Saul also among the prophets? — The passage
It is clear, there is absolutely no other explanation: the prophecy-
The drawing took place with the body unclothed. The prophets are all naked, and when Saul was near them, the gift of When prophecy comes, he also undresses. The Naked
The ceremony bore the character of a sacred consecration, as they...
He demands closeness to God. Even Moses had to be before Jehovah in to stand barefoot by a burning bush, because the place
It is sacred. This has also been true in India since ancient times.
to this day, nudity is considered sacred;
The Indian philosophers received from this very naked
The prophetic spirit, according to this view, spreads like a Material material concerning the immediate surroundings of the prophets. Et-Lucian dea Syr. c. 51 tells a similar story about the Phoenixes.

adorn. At the great festivals of the Syrian goddess in Hierapolis, where the galls under the din of cymbals, timpani, flutes and songs that celebrated their orgies, he says, will arise again. new bile. It then attacks many who are only considered to be... Shivers had come, a holy frenzy; the youth whom She seizes, tears off her clothes, and rushes off with A scream into the heap of gathered bile, seizes one of the swords that are ready for this purpose, emasculates itself with that, and runs naked into the with the severed part. streets all around.)) Exodus 3:5.

479

They are known to the Greeks as Gymnosophists.
But is the above passage not the only one which...? weis delivers that the ancient prophets fulfilled their mission and their They performed their office naked. Isaiah also gives through a to recognize his unclothed appearance, that he is acting on behalf of Je= (Hova's come. Jehovah commands him): Go and loose Remove the sackcloth from your hips and take off your shoes.
your feet. And he did so and went naked and bare. foot. Then Jehovah said: Just as my servant Isaiah was naked and walk barefoot for three years, a sign and a pre-image for Egypt and Ethiopia, so the king of Assyria leads the prisoners of Egypt and the exiles= ten Ethiopians, young men and old men, naked and barefoot, with the vessel exposed, a disgrace for Egypt." It
This naked appearance of Isaiah is surely rooted in the old
The Prophets' Naked Walk in the State of Prophesying Reasons. But the later time of the Prophet, in which This exposure is probably no longer as common as it used to be, was customary, and with it the Prophet himself linked to the Going naked is a symbolic act that signifies downfall.
which is meant to allude to the empires of Egypt and Ethiopia. In general
It seems that this prophetic nakedness has indeed been directed towards later times preserved, but since the influx of foreign people= ker, where the prophets mainly predicted misfortune, when a sign of misfortune for the nation, or even as an expression of grief over the idolatry which The prophets continually rebuked. Micah says, as it were,
(as an introduction to subtle prophetic pronouncements?): «There;

I must complain and lament, barefoot and naked
"Give it over!" In earlier times, undressing was common among fri-during these events; David exposed himself when he was before he danced towards the Ark of the Covenant, which was probably a sign from his side
He was imitating the prophets; for he himself was considered to be

9) Isaiah 20:3. 2) Micah 1:8.

480

a prophet and also offered sacrifices, like a priest. It
"But it happened," it says in 2 Samuel 6:16, when the ark of Jesus was opened.
When Hova came to the city of David, Michal looked, who Saul's daughter, through the window, saw the king there.
They leaped and danced before Jehovah, and despised him in her heart. And when David returned to his house To greet David, Michal, Saul's daughter, came.
He spoke against it and said: How did the King of Israel behave today?
glorified because he exposed himself today before the maids ner Knechte, fo wie fich entscheidet einer der freiwilligen.
According to the usual explanation, the shoulder dress would be
The king's vigorous dancing sometimes lifted him high.
gone; but here, there is more to think about. In a Lands where men wore no trousers and their legs
Since most parts were uncovered, one will still find in them to find it a subtle impropriety that a dress is tanned
A slight movement, something rising up. I'm thinking here of a Intentional exposure, in the manner of those described by Maimonides accuses the Baal service and its actions because of the
The Pentateuch prescribes underpants for priests.

The way in which the Old Testament prophecies ten introduce their prophecies, agrees with the outward appearance Cynicism, which we were just talking about, probably goes together.
They perform some action which affects the content to symbolically represent the prophecy. By doing so...

Their first task is to attract the attention of the people.
and to prompt the question of why they did this or that do; then they give the interpretation of their procedure.

These symbolic actions are now sometimes of a kind that one must infer from it, a prophecy.
Nothing was too disgusting and nothing too immoral, to choose it as a symbol. One would gladly be willing to the men who are otherwise partly so worthy of respect, free from such actions by any declaration to speak; but it is not possible if one knows the truth.

481

doesn't want to hurt anyone. Have they chosen the less noticeable ones?
symbolic actions, as the clearest evidence suggests, actually carried out; so they also refrained from carrying it out.
not those who offend us, all the less so, since Even in these cases, the accomplishment is recounted and nowhere mentioned.
is being set up.

For example, Jehovah commands Ezekiel to travel as a wanderer.
to dress and walk back and forth in front of the people. Dar.
When someone asks: What are you doing? and the prophet gives
In Jehovah's name, the explanation that this means Emigration into captivity. He takes two pieces of wood.
and binds them together. The Jews say: "Do you want "It doesn't show us what this means, 7?" and he explains
Jehovah wanted to make it known to them that the fraelites and Jews were brought by him from captivity and to
They would be united as a powerful people. Jehovah Chapter 21, verse 6 commands him: "But you, son of man, groan, that my loins break and sigh with bitter pain right before their eyes. And when they speak to you: Why?
Are you sighing? » fo say: "Because of the rumor that it comes. The prophet Zedekiah, asked for advice by Ahab, Whether he will be successful against the Syrians is something he is anxiously wondering about.
horns and says: Thus says Jehovah: With this you will the Push the Syrians until you destroy them." Jeremiah lies down a yoke around the neck to indicate that the Jews were un-would come under the tyranny of Nebuchadnezzar. The more Hova spoke to him: Make for yourself bonds and yokes and "Put it around your neck." The prophet Hananiah, who who holds the opposite view, takes the yoke from him

Necks, breaks it and says: Thus says Jehovah: Thus will I broke the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon— break from the necks of all peoples within two years. 9. To ) Ezech. 12, 9.) Ez. 37, 18. Cf. Cape. 24, 19.

— — —

) 1st king 22, 11.) Jer. 27, 2; Cape. 28, 10.

31

482

Jeremiah must be told to compare the Jews to pots.
Hova's order to go to a potter's house; he buys
a bottle and breaks it in front of the assembled Jews, as a sign that Jehovah would break the people, «fo
how to break a pottery vessel »; he records Jehovah's command: a linen belt, put it around your waist.
then bury him by the Euphrates, dig him up after vie len days again, the belt was rotten, this be indicates the Jews whom Jehovah used to carry around his loins, and which are now rotten, find Y.

Up to this point, these symbolic actions have just Nothing objectionable. Jehovah alone commands, for example, the Ezekiel, that he should make his bread with human dung, in order to to suggest that the Jews among the pagans eat unclean bread would eat (). Ezekiel replies: Ah, Lord Jehovah, Behold, my soul has never been defiled, and carrion and I haven't eaten torn food since my youth.
Here, and nothing unclean has entered my mouth.

“Meat.” Jehovah then answers: “Look, I will give you Allow cow dung instead of human excrement, so that you may eat your bread on it.
"Prepares." — When Kings Rezin of Syria and Pekah
from Israel to take up arms against the Jewish King Ahaz, Isaiah, at Jehovah's command, goes to meet Ahaz in order to to encourage him and urges the king to speak to him to demand a sign of a happy ending. The
The king does not want to tempt Jehovah; so Isaiah gives a [something] of a sign he himself favored, saying: Behold, the young

 The woman will become pregnant and give birth to a son and to name him Immanuel. Before the boy knew evil
 To know how to reject what is bad and choose what is good, will
 The land is desolate, before whose two kings you fear 5).
 As can be clearly seen from the location, there was a ) Jer. 18, 1.) Jer. Cape. 19.) Jer. Cape. 13.

) Ezech. 4, 12, 15.) Jef. 7, 14-16. |

483

Virgin nearby, a prophetess who accompanied Isaiah tete, through which this is admittedly little for the moment Encouraging signs should be realized. Isaiah delays
 Nor did he succeed in fulfilling his prophecy.

“I want to get reliable witnesses,” he says, the Priest Uriah and Zechariah, the son of Jeberechiah. And I approached the prophetess, and she became pregnant and He bore a son, and Jehovah said to me: Name his Names: Quick comes, prey hurries, robbery. For before the boy Knowing how to call father and mother will grant one wealth.
 of Damascus and carry the spoils of Samaria before the Kings of Assyria). Whether this prophetess was the bride of the Isaiah, may he have been placed there; the biblical text
 It says nothing about that. That even our Old Testament pro prophets, at least in part, to discuss the sexual (The lack of constraints of their time was not raised), even their [unclear]
 Jehovah's command also carried out symbolic actions
 Those chosen from this circle clearly show Ho sea. We read Hosea 1:2: Jehovah said to Hosea, “Go, take...” a whore and children of whores; for the land behind is whoring Jehovah. Then he went and took Gomer, the daughter Diblaim's; and she became pregnant and bore him a Son. And Jehovah said to him: Give a fine name Jesreel [God scatters J.. Again Jehovah speaks to (him): “Go again, love a woman who has been married by a is loved by a lover and commits adultery; just as Jehovah the
 The sons of Israel love and turn to other gods.

(Isaiah 8:2-3) I suspect the fleshly mixing with such men, holy in the eyes of the people, as among the Indians, Babylonians and Phoenicians, in the older These were the times for a religious act. Jeremiah makes two. esteemed prophets, Ahab and Zedekiah, who spoke in the name of Jeho^{va}'s prophecies, to the accusation that the shameful deed was committed in Israel and committed adultery with the wives of their neighbors. Jeremiah 29:23. 3) Courtly Love 3:1.

31 *

484

and love the raisin cakes [of the idol sacrifices]. And I bought them for fifteen [sekel] silver and one Homer and a Lethech Gerfte. »

Regarding the prophecies themselves, the Jewish prophets certainly not from those of the Angrians either^{re} The two countries differed. They also granted, for a fee, They consult their oracles in even the most minor private matters. Saul cannot find his lost donkeys. Finding what he was looking for, he turned to a man of God for help. to obtain an oracle from him; fortunately, his Be^{re} The glider carried a piece of money with him, because without a reward he could As this passage shows, one cannot have a prophetic (Explanation received). "When their teeth have to bite," Micah says of the prophets 2), "thus they call out peace!" But against those who give them nothing to eat, they will arm themselves. The war." This will, as already noted above, be the general my way has been; exceptions, where our Old Testament Those who belong to the spiritual prophets may enjoy a higher status. have given. Also in the writing that has come down to us^{re} ten are the prophecies not far removed from the kind that perhaps in connection with a higher gift, with a vision into the unknown^{re} future could be thought of; one doesn't even find that on^{re} declining figures in this regard among the Jews, as with the Greeks, where the Pythia knows what the crocuses are. sus on the day on which his envoys in Del^{re} (Phi to question the god), and the misfortune on the fifth

Descendants of the Lydian king Gyges prophesied 9. On A more precise determination of the time of fulfillment can be obtained from the Old Testament prophets rarely use this; they use it in the Their relationship usually uses very ambiguous expressions and they postponed it to a more distant future, if the prophecy

– 6

) 1 Samuel 9:3-10. This seer is Samuel verse 19.
2) Me. 3, 5.) Herod. I, 47.) Herod. J, 13. Other a Oracles consulted by Valer. Max. I, 8.

485

did not intend to arrive at the specified time, “If the (Face, says Habakkuk), «so wait be; then will come
It cannot be avoided... This weakness of the prophetic Prophecy was not even a thing for the Jews of that time.
mystery. «Son of Man, » says Jehovah in Ezekiel 2), “What good is this mocking speech to you in the land of Israel, where you
He spoke: Time passes and all faces are gone.
Lost? Therefore say to them: Thus says the Lord Jesus.
hova: I want to put an end to this mocking speech and one
'Do not lead them in Israel. But speak to them:
The time is drawing near, and the word of all faces. For it (fol for the) no vain face and no deceptive truth
Question is in the multitude of Israel. For I am Jehovah, I Speech: What I say shall be done and no longer remain unspoken.
be pushed around; yes, in your days, rebellious spirit!
Bad, I speak and let it happen, says the Lord, Je O Lord, Son of Man, behold, who speaks of the House of Israel chen: The face he looks at will last for a long time,
And he prophesies for distant times! Therefore, speak to him.
to them: Thus says the Lord Jehovah: No longer shall all My words will be postponed; what I say will not be said.
“This will happen, says the Lord Jehovah.” — (Also in Jeremiah)
The Jews say: “Where is the word of Jehovah? Let it come.” “Yes!” They had expected the non-appearance of an oracle.
two very favorable ways out. The prophecy announced either luck or misfortune; if luck did not prevail, then

The cause was found in some event that had occurred in the meantime.
menen Sünde; if the misfortune failed to occur, then this was attributed to:
Jehovah's patience. Contradictory prophecy
Genocides were commonplace; every prophet declared

His oracle for the right one and designated the one who.

1) Habak. 2, 3.) Ezech. 12, 21 ff.

3) Y iterum, porro, praeterea. For the past, therefore, he admits Jehovah made prophecies that did not come true.

Jeremiah 17:15.

486

proclaimed the opposite, like a false prophet.

“The seers will be ashamed, and the truth will be put to shame.”

“Fairy,” says Micha, “but I am filled with Strength, with the Spirit of Jehovah, and righteousness and might,
to make known to Jacob his apostasy and to Israel his sin.
As a rule, our prophetic writings
all those prophets who led their people to become false were called false prophets.

Resistance against the advancing enemies, namely ge to the Chaldeans, to encourage them to seek and to form an alliance
It may be true that Egypt should advise against Chaldea.
that Jeremiah and Ezekiel saw further, when who called for submission to Chaldea; but it
This Jeremiah al makes a highly unfavorable impression.
len enterprises for the preservation of national self-sufficiency Constancy, every flare-up of national sentiment, every [unclear] sought alliance of the smaller states against the others to see the Chaldeans working towards their goal as planned, to to see how, after his people had perished, he separated himself from Nebuchadnezzar pays tribute and has it paid for. If you Something, so this procedure points to a combination

Micah 3:8. Disputes of the Prophets about the authenticity of their prophets. We have already consulted the oracles several times. Here's another one. some passages. Jehovah puts the false prophets to shame.

Isaiah 44:25; the Israelites only want prophets who drink wine
They prophesy (Micah 2:6, 11). The prophets in Jerusalem to Jo...
In the time of the sinners, Zephaniah 3:4. And the false prophets.
They rely on Jehovah (Mic. 3:11). The Jews also Prophets of Baal (Jeremiah 2:8). False prophets who speak in the name of God.
Jehovah's prophecies, which Jehovah did not send (Jeremiah 5).
31; Jer. 14:14. Also in the case of the prophet Hananiah, opponent of Jeremiah, Jehovah speaks the prophecy in the first person.
Jeremiah 28:2; the Jews who were taken captive to Babylon have false [sayings].
Prophets Jeremiah 29:8. The prophets Ahab and Zedekiah pro-
They prophesy lies in the name of Jehovah (Jeremiah 29:21-23). In the Nas Men Jebova's prophecy is false (Ezekiel 22:28). Compare also...
Jeremiah 37:19; Lamentations 2:14; Ezekiel chapters 13 and 22. (See also)

487

relationship of the Reformation prophets with religious believers Movements in Chaldea; Jeremiah also mentions in the above-mentioned-led to the place where he had his belt on the Euphrates buried and left to rot as a sign of the downfall of the brings back Jews, an indication that he was already there before the
The downfall of his people in Chaldea was... It is striking that...
It was, however, then again that Jeremiah did not go to Chaldea, but himself goes to Egypt when he visits his countrymen-people in vain before emigrating to Egypt-had warned. But this circumstance also speaks in favor of it. that the Prophet preferred to give his Jews to the religious one-rivers of the Chaldeans, as the Egyptian left them, and whose half considered his presence in Egypt more necessary than in Chaldea. This man's actions will be explained by to explain the circumstances that the assertion is not possible for him finer better religious conviction, for which he at the Having found kinship with the Chaldeans, the ultimate goal was to... he the political existence of his fatherland, albeit ungladly, sacrificed. The impossibility of his over-to gain entry into the Jewish elite through procreation, to eliminate polytheism with its human sacrifices,

him and his like-minded associates, the downfall of that time religious and political constitution of the Hebrews wish
He found it valuable. He hoped that this would be so unimportant for the new teachings.
The common people are worn down by political misfortune.
will be made and a new state of affairs the reform matorif? ...

The theme of the prophecies of our prophets is very simple, on the one hand a threat of misfortune lichen, devastating war, a taking into prison genschaft, for which they use the example of the kingdom of Israel and the
They faced the growing power of the Babylonians; on the
On the other hand, the promise of victory and world domination.
Jews. They now constantly switch between their Purpose; today the happiest future awaits the Jews,

488

Tomorrow again the deepest misery, today they find their way to the Lord.
the world, destined for slavery again tomorrow, depending on a good or bad oracle regarding the Prophet's intentions (is useful). Contradictions arise in this way Saying again and again. Isaiah prophesies to Hezekiah that His death was imminent: but as the king prayed, Jehovah laid down fifteen more years to go?). After Jeremiah continually as punishment for idolatry: famine, plague, imprisonment and Having threatened death, he again gives his terrible oracle.
Price if the Jews make themselves available to the Babylonian king (want to submit to the law). First, Jehovah sends a "fine servant"
Nebuchadnezzar, to discipline the Jews through subjugation gen "); but then Babylon will be destroyed again, because (it was against Jehovah). The Jews were to be punished to be imprisoned for idolatry;
But now the rest voluntarily leave their homeland and move to Egypt, so this is a crime). The captivity

She is supposed to glorify Jehovah because she provides proof that the
to be vain and powerless before the previous foreign gods, the Jews cannot help: and yet the deities are
The victor of the same kind. The Jews ask: why?
Jehovah cannot help us if he is to be more powerful,

as Baal? The prophets know the answer: Jehovah does not want it!
 He is angry at the idolatrous Jews and favors the idolatrous Assyrians and Babylonians! — By a One
 The fulfillment of the prophetic prophecies cannot be spoken of.
 be. Prophecies that even the most ordinary understanding cannot understand.
 ben donne. For example, that a sick king might get better or |

7) Compare, for example, Courtly Love 2:11-12 with verses 19 ff. — Micah 2:11-12.
 10 with verse 12. — Jer. 16, 9 with 16, 14. ff. — Jer. 29, 17 at 30, 10. — Ezech. 16, 52. ff. with 16, 63.

) Isaiah 38:1, 5 |

3) Jer. 27:13. In stark contrast is Jer. 29:16ff.

) Jer. 27, 6.) Jer. 50, 24, 28; Jer. 51, 24, 36, 52.

6) Jeremiah, Chapter 44, 3

489 that war would come, that this or that people would fly or that they would perish, that the Chaldeans would be victorious and after the usual way the conquerors of that time turned the Jews into a will be moved to another country: such oracles are all The thing has come to pass. But just as the prophets from the

 To venture out into the individual in general, has the one Their prophecies came to an end. It was with them in
 In most cases, not even a calculation of the
 The future, on which they based their oracles, but they posited
 They practically presented their patriotic wishes as prophecies, which will bring the future to fruition. Had a Neighboring people actively spread their hatred, so they were quick with a terrible prophecy at hand; wanted
 By encouraging the Jews, they saw only hope in the future.
 Abundant happiness and power. The gift of prophecy was a Art weapon in her hand, which she used for protection and defense needed, not only for their nation against other nations, but also for themselves against individuals. As the prophecy ten Ahab and Zedekiah against Jeremiah, prophecies

Jeremiah, that the king of Babylon would roast them;
When the prophet Shemaiah lashed out against Jeremiah, his god was said to have been killed.

(to be severely exterminated from the people). In a With such procedures, it can be all the less noticeable that also in our prophetic writings, which are a selection,
It is rare to find a prophecy that has come true,
But oracles will likely appear on all sides, and they will never be found.
times fulfilled for ind). Ä

95 Ger. 29, 22; Jer. 20, 32.

*) Prophecies that never came true, or of which the
The situation. It has come to be found, for example, the following. In Egypt
The river and the lakes shall dry up. Isaiah 19:5-6 — The Egyptians should fear Judah (Isaiah 19:17). — The Al

The tar of the Lord shall be in Egypt (Isaiah 19:19-20). (Later, it had Jehovah also built some temples among the Egyptian Jews;
(But Jerusalem did not recognize them.) — Egyptians and Ally:

—

490

h. Human sacrifice in the service of Jehovah.

The individual historical examples of people's sacrifices which the Hebrews offered to Jehovah,

They serve Jehovah; the three nations of Egypt, Assyria and Israel unites, Jehovah sweeps them away (Isaiah 19:23-25).
The riches of Tyre shall go to the Israelites
Yes. 23, 18. — The stars shall rot Isa. 34, 4. —
The land of the heathens shall become burning pitch and a wasteland.
be for eternity; only hedgehogs and night owls shall be well there Isaiah 34:9-11 — No uncircumcised person shall go after Jerusalem come (Isaiah 52:2). — Jehovah wants to exalt the Jews.

 over all nations; the returned Jews shall the nations expel Isaiah 52:5-6, Isaiah 54:3. — Never shall the Jews again
 A calamity will befall you (Isaiah 54:8). — No water can protect you from it.
 The Jews accomplish something, Ephesians 54:17. — All the treasures of the Nations are flowing to Palestine to the Jews (Isaiah 60; Isaiah 61:4).
 5. 6. — Jehovah even swears to harvest the fruits of the Jewish land to no longer entrust it to strangers (Isaiah 62:8).
 The Jews are supposed to live to be a hundred years old, the lions straw.
 devour (Isaiah 65:20, 25). — The Jews shall devour the Phoenicians to sell them as captives to the Sabaeans (Joel 3:13). — No
 A stranger should press on to Jerusalem more (Joel 3:22). — Egypt
 It shall become a desert (Joel 3:24). — Judah and Jerusalem shall be in the eternal possession of the Jews (Joel 3:25). — All Peoples are led into the Valley of Jehoshaphat to be executed there because of the Scattering the Jews to receive their reward Joel 3:7. —
 Many peoples journey to Jerusalem to receive instruction there Seek Mecca. 4:1, 8. — The Jews crush many nations.
 Micah 4:13; compare chapter 5:7, 8; chapter 7:16, 17. — The rest
 The Jews shall defeat the Moabites and Ammonites (Zeph. 2:8ff.).
 – The meffianifdye realm begins immediately after the prisoner:
 Zeph. 3:9-20; Jer. 30:8-9. — Jehovah draws, the Crushing his enemies, Habakkuk came to the aid of his people. 3:12 ff. —
 The Jews will consume Esau's stubble like fire,
 They conquer the land of the Philistines, see Obadiah 1:18-21.
 All nations must bring gold and silver to the temple in Je= rusalem fschaffen Hagg. 2, 3 to 9. — All royal thrones fell overthrown, but Serubabel will be preserved (Hagg. 2:22). — The Nations shall be subject to the Jews (Zechariah 2:6-9).

491

should be investigated particularly in our second department to be taken; here we will treat the subject provisionally.
 In general. The items listed individually in the Old Testament – Strangers are to build at Jehovah's temple (Zechariah 6:15).

 All Jews of the east and west shall gather in Jerusalem.
 Zechariah 8:7-8 — The Gentiles each seize ten the hem of a Jew's coat, in order to go with him to Jerusalem to pray to Jehovah (Zechariah 8:22-23). — The Jews

 They are supposed to defeat the Greeks (Zechariah 9:13). — Vain victory Dreams Zechariah 10:4; Zechariah 12:4–9. — The Mount of Olives shall split in two in the middle, see Zechariah 14:4. — Fable severe punishments from the nations that waged war against the Jews Sa Charlemagne 14:12 — The remaining pagans celebrate the leaves Tent feast in Jerusalem (Zechariah 14:16). — Judah and Israel will unite after the exile (Jeremiah 3:18). — Those from Jews who have returned from exile should never again be scattered.
 Jeremiah 24:6 — Zedekiah and the Jews, who, after Jeconiah and the better part had been taken away (Jer. 24:1 ff.),
 Those left in Judea were destroyed in the land, not killed.
 Jeremiah 24:10 will lead the way. — The land of the Chaldeans will be eternal wilderness (Jeremiah 25:12). — Since Jehovah's own Since he has not spared the city, he will spare other countries for less.
 Spare: all the kings of the world shall partake of the cup of the wine of wrath.
 drink (Jeremiah 25:15ff.) — Jehovah wants all captive Jews bring back Jeremiah 29:14. — There will no longer be strangers to make the Jews useful (Jeremiah 30:8); the foreigners should do much... more serve King David (Jeremiah 30:9). — All who the Jews will eat, and they will be eaten again. Jeremiah 30:16.
 When the Jews returned from captivity, then
 From now on their king will be one from among them (Jeremiah 30:21). — The People from the land of Ephraim are to go to Jehovah in Jerusalem.
 Jeremiah 31:6; they too return from captivity.
 31:7 to 9 — The Ephraimites lament in captivity the calf service Jer. 31:18 ff. — Jerusalem is after great rebuilt on a new plan (Jeremiah 31:38 ff.); the returned Jews are granted an abundance of happiness (Jeremiah 33:6). — Also the
 The captured Israelites are brought back (Jeremiah 33:7).
 The rulers of Judah shall all be from the house of David (Jeremiah 33:17).
 — David's seed shall be multiplied like sand on the beach
 Jeremiah 33:22, 25 — The body of Jehoiakim shall be thrown down

Cases are few overall; the post-religious Reformation
 They have left us only traces; in contrast, we find Among the Hebrews, religious institutions existed which were very clearly prove that human sacrifices also occurred before the exile in the service of the national god, not just here and there, in isolated, rare cases, but had to be offered regularly and in large numbers.

— — — nn

Jeremiah 36:30 states that this king is dead; however, according to 2 Kings 24:6, this king is dead.

He died peacefully in Jerusalem; only the chronicle leaves him in chains.
to Babylon (2 Chronicles 36:6). — The Jews, which Turning to Egypt will bring sword and plague; no one will escape.

shall remain (Jeremiah 42:17; Chapter 44:14); and yet Jew draws

Remia himself with Jeremiah chapter 43. — Israel will the Ammonites subjugate Jeremiah 49:2 — Sodom is to be restored

Ezekiel 16:55 — Egypt shall become a wasteland, the Egyptians shall will be scattered (Ezekiel 29:12; Chapter 30:26). — After forty years

The Egyptians are to return from captivity (Ezekiel).

29:13 — After Nebuchadnezzar's victory over the Egyptians

Jehovah causes a horn to grow for the host of Israel (Ezekiel 29:21).

The Egyptians will come to know Jehovah through punishment (Ezekiel 32:16).

— The gathered Jews should no longer be scattered

Ezekiel 34:28 — The land of the Edomites would become an eternal desert.

to be made; from this the inhabitants shall recognize Jehovah

Ezekiel 35:14 — The whole house of Israel shall return.

36, 10, 24. — The bones of the dead Israelites shall also be revived and led into the kingdom of Israel (Ezekiel 37:12).

— All Israelite tribes shall be reunited (Ezekiel).

Chapter 37; they shall be gathered from all countries and under a king shall stand (Ezekiel 37:21-22). David shall be their king.

Ezekiel 37:24 — They shall dwell in their land forever.

Ezekiel 37:25 — The temple shall remain forever in their midst.

Ezekiel 37:26 — A King Gog is said to have risen up against the Israelites.

Fields draw (Ezekiel 38:2, 17, 22; Chapter 39:4); they will so to strike so terribly that one must spend seven months on the dead

Ezekiel 39:12 has buried them. — The Jews are to be buried after the prison.

people live safely in their country and no one

She shall be filled with dread (Ezekiel 39:26). — David's throne shall last forever.

Pf. 89, 37. — Solomon's kingdom * to last forever 1 Chron.

18, 14; u. s. f.

The historical appearance of the Jews is also discussed.
 Human sacrifices have taken the same course as in the case of Phoenicians and Carthaginians. The barbarity of the lower ages-Thumbs brought the terrible gift willingly and regularly.
 But advancing civilization sought ways out by... partly reduced the number of victims, partly substitutes devised a way to satisfy God, without any real sacrifice taking place. How long all Whether firstborn children were truly sacrificed cannot be proven.
 cannot be determined. Presumably, it was already known before those times.
 Our prophets in the redemption and circumcision and He-
 A justification has been found for this barbarity; for the prophets speak in relation to their time only of a slaughter of the sons and daughters, without specifically naming these victims as firstborns to describe. In contrast, the Paschal feast was with people-Sacrifices were celebrated until the fall of the Kingdom of Judah.
 The higher the birth height of the child, the stronger the sacrifice; for a special act of piety it will be were considered to be a firstborn child as a Passover sacrifice deliver. Furthermore, the Hebrew also promised in important matters.
 Private matters, in case of serious illness the victim of a Child. In Babylonian captivity, the Human sacrifice is not practiced. Since the rule of the Persians
 They were found throughout the Persian Empire, and therefore also among the Hebrews no longer tolerated as a public worship practice: a Circumstance which the reformist Jewish party faced in the Founding of the new temple after the captivity very which proved beneficial. But even in the second temple, they held still adheres to the old institution of the Passover celebration to such an extent, that a human being was sacrificed during Passover week. How Everywhere, even among the Jews, there were only Verbreakers or strangers, who are seen as a continuation of the old people-Sacrifices had to bleed to atone for the god. They spared the execution of one or more criminals on the Pashaweek, they were probably also trying to get their hands on a foreigner, to kill this one silently as a sacrifice: and this is it.

precisely what they have been doing to this day in all their lives
tions are blamed. — Into our circle of before The victims of the lying section now fall first.
human first birth, the human sacrifices at Passover, the vows of human sacrifice, as a kind of such law Vow the cherem and sacrifice of the enemies, but then including the facilities that take the place of the actual
The victims' rights should be represented, namely the circumcision and The Nazirite. We will address these points in order.
consider.

The sacrifice of the first human birth.

According to the prevailing view, the human Firstborn from the days of Moses, redeemed by Abra
They have been around since the earliest times. This opinion is supported.
to some passages in the Pentateuch in which a solution is given prescribed for human first birth, and on the Later practice of the Jews. The main passage is found in Exodus 13:11: Let it happen when Jehovah sees you
He brings you to the land of the Canaanites, as he swore to you.
and to your fathers, and it is given to you: bring everything that the mother breaks, presents herself to Jehovah, and all the first young of the cattle you have, the males to the Lord. But All the firstborn of the donkey you shall redeem with a sheep,
And where you do not free them, break their necks; and all the firstborn of men among your sons you shall You solve it. And let it happen when your son asks you in Future and speaks: What is that? So speak to him: With Strength of hand Jehovah brought us out of Egypt out of the house of bondage, and it happened because Pha Rao was persistent in trying to dismiss us, so Jehovah killed everything.
Firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Men
I offer up to the firstborn of the cattle; therefore I sacrifice to Jehovah everything that breaks the mother, the male,

And I will redeem all the firstborn of my sons. And let it be to you as a symbol on your hand and on your headband between= See to your eyes; for with strength of hand has he given us Jehovah expelled from Egypt.” — That is how they the post-reformers themselves or at least the

 The people explained the matter; but in truth, for which not merely the previous course of our investigation, but also clear,
 The Bible passages to be cited below speak of how she behaved.
 differently. Let's look more closely at the present Bible passage.
 Face, so she can see the traces of falsification and the
 They do not hide the youthfulness of their mosaic paint. First of all... first she says so much, that the sacrifice of the firstborn and also the obligation to find a solution not above Moses= rich; it even includes a stay in the desert house and postpones compliance with the law to the time when Palestine has been conquered. I concede that only Moses this sacrifice of the firstborn has been legally established; but Surely experiments have already been conducted in the desert.
 to implement the new law, even if the legislator
 ...couldn't quite penetrate it at first. After all the later references to the Mosaic Age urge to discuss the relationship of the people in the desert to Moses and his law the view that Moses with sharp
 He attempted to enforce his regulations by means of but encountered significant resistance and continued until his death
 the universal acceptance of the laws of his new God
 He could not force Sinai; in any case, he must had the larger party on their side; in the other case
 He would not have been able to hold on. The post-exilic
 The authors, it seems, had an old passage in mind.
 to himself: “Bring everything the mother breaks to Jehovah
 And all the firstborn of the cattle that you have.
 Males to Jehovah.” Apparently, the second one wants to through "and" appended, literally referring to cattle sentence
 Don't say the same thing as the first one: Bring everything that the Mother breaks, offering herself to Jehovah.” In this first sentence, Although it is written in general terms, it mainly refers to

*

The first human birth is commemorated. Reference is made to these two.
 Sentences were followed by another regulation, which...
 Victims of the first birth of man and donkey, one of the Jehova sacred animal, demanded even more sharply, perhaps The sacrificial method of the donkey is breaking its neck or falling down.
 prescribed a height; for in this way the Donkeys were sacrificed to Typhon in Egypt and also in the cult
 The Astarte, as we saw above, was such a thing.
 Falling of people and animals is a common occurrence.
 of the victim. The subsequent processor, who performed the sacrifice to eliminate the human first birth and a release to the
 He wanted to put in place, but did not consider it necessary to remove the donkey.
 to remove the place, but the solving also involved on this animal, which had become unclean to him and after However, it had to be solved according to his concepts, without being think that the donkey, who in this way fine religious wich-had completely lost its physicality, as an isolated unclean animal It no longer fit alongside the human first birth. The
 The reason now arises from which the Hebrews drew their
 They are to explain to their sons the sacrifice and redemption of the firstborn,
 It is so significantly flawed that its inventor is embarrassed to clearly note a historical fact which that could justify this sacrifice. Jehovah has the Egyptians punished by killing the firstborn; this misfortune has determined the Egyptian king to let the Hebrews go;
 in remembrance of this misery of the Egyptians or also
 Out of gratitude to Jehovah, the Jews also began to kill.
 their firstborn; the horrible thing with which Jehovah attacked his enemies Punishment also comes over them; they take it on voluntarily.
 in remembrance of a kindness they received in the desert never recognized at all! — Let's fully enter the field Moving beyond pure history, this explanation falls short.
 the sacrifice of the firstborn completely collapses into its nothingness;

497

for a wondrous killing of the Egyptian firstborn-
 One cannot truly be conceived!

However, this passage leaves one thing unaddressed, which the later interpretations must have been offensive. The resolution of the first

Birth is recognized as a liberation from sacrificial death.
 Jehovah killed the firstborn of the Egyptians; out of gratitude
 The Hebrews also wanted to kill their firstborn;
 Jehovah permitted them to save their lives with money.
 solve. A real human sacrifice therefore also lies in this.
 The idea is based on false premise; the Jews were victims of the Erst-born obligated; it is a favor from Jehovah.
 that he acquired his property through a pure sacrificial animal or by paying a certain amount of money
 This can be remedied by...
 that, contrary to the above passage, it was declared not The firstborn were destined to be victims, but to the priesthood; the removal of the same has been introduced since then The tribe of Levi exclusively assumed the priesthood.
 have; thus, one would not exempt the firstborn from sacrificial death, but rather the obligation to become a priest. That's how it is.
 Fourth Book of Moses, where Jehovah says in chapter 3, verse 12: Behold,
 I have taken the Levites from among the sons of Israel.
 instead of everything firstborn that the mother breaks, from the
 The sons of Israel, and the Levites shall belong to me. For My firstborn are all my children; at the time when I was all my children—
 Born in the land of Egypt, I have everything Erit-
 Those born in Israel are sanctified, from man to beast;
 “It shall be mine, Jehovah’s.” But if Je Hova, the Levites, of whom one hears in Jewish history
 Nothing was heard except in David's time, instead of the firstborn.
 sons are taken: why must one nevertheless choose the firstborn Can it still be solved? I see in this place and in the one that relates to it linking ideas, the effort to reflect public opinion to provide compensation for the sacrifice of the firstborn, without thereby to impair the priests' intake. The firstborn

| 32

—

The sons of the Hebrews were originally devoted to Jehovah.
 destined; they were either sacrificed or ordained as priests
 The priesthood was raised in the church. It only came long after.
 Moses (until the founding of the Temple, Hebrews could also be included) sacrifices (who are not priests) into the hands of allegedly a family or tribe, the Levites, from whose

 The firstborn were said to have sprung from the middle of Moses.
 who has since been rejected from the priesthood, in relation to
 But the sacrifice was left to the parents' discretion, the same effect to have it carried out or by means of an amount of money to release the child. That in the first temple there was still no
 The prohibition against thinking of the victim had been imposed, but at most of
 A choice between sacrificing or buying the child's freedom:
 Jewish custom continues to this day, as evidenced by this.
 For even today, the Jew lays his firstborn son along with some thalers, he placed some money on the table in front of the rabbi.
 and says: "My wife has borne me a firstborn son brought into the world, which the law assigns to you. Thereupon The rabbi asks what the father prefers, the money.
 or the son. He replies, "The son," and thanks him.
 Jehovah for the permitted solution. The rabbi takes Then he takes the money, places it at the child's head, and says:
 "This is a firstborn son whom God commanded to be redeemed."
 Len. Since you were still in your mother's womb, your heaven
 Your father and your parents have power over you; now you belong
 You to me, the priest of the Lord. Your parents, however, have decided to solve it for you, have for you and your solution
 Sung gave this money, which is due to us priests.
 Grow up in the fear of God, marry, and be Strive to do good works! If a son dies before the age of thirty
 On those days, the father is not obligated to redeem him;
 If he has already paid the money, then the rabbi must pay it again.
 (publish); for — there can be no other thought to rr

9 Lund Jewish Handwriting. p. 667.

499

The reasons lie — Jehovah has now made a fine sacrifice of himself.
 fetched and the Hebrew. is not guilty of giving up the son.
 pay that he is not allowed to keep; he is not paying from any source for a reason other than to remain in possession of the child.

Nowadays, a rabbi would certainly be embarrassed.
 would come if the child's father wanted to answer:
 I prefer the money to the son; take him instead.
 The Lord! But this release to this day
 This provides reliable evidence that in earlier times the regulation the priest was not worried about a child given to him, that before the captivity, as long as the human sacrifices still belonged to the Jewish state cult, in truth to the
 It was left to the father's will whether the child was sacrificed.
 should or should not be, and that there were many fathers who chose to sacrifice, albeit not for the five Sekel to experience, but in the intention, a pious, dem to do a work pleasing to Jehovah, promising blessings.
 The explanation that... is extremely weak and completely untenable is... which spares the child not from sacrificial death, but from the be-
 The priest's approval should be bought out. Only in Referring to the earliest times, where the victims were primarily from taken from the priests, this interpretation could be a... to some extent, this can be justified. The priesthood enjoyed a certain degree of privilege.
 to the Hebrews the highest esteem; the parents would
 They would have considered it a stroke of luck if their firstborn had been in this
 The stall can be entered. Now the father is even supposed to get money.
 to give so that his son would not attain the highest honors long, so that the priests would not take over the care of his upbringing to take away the boy's hand, the same to their esteemed, to incorporate into a powerful, divinely favored class! If nowadays a rabbi would ask the father: Do you want You give me five skeletons, or should I send your son to Rabbis educate: would not nine out of a hundred Jews be successful?
 Many answers: He's supposed to become a rabbi?
 32 *

500

— em — —

However compelling these reasons may be, the Permission to solve a later addition to the old Ge offered, but the interpretation of the loosening as a buying one's way out of the appointment to the priesthood is a one-sided embellishment the old horrors be: so it is not necessary to have a special one to place their emphasis on the same, since very clear results

There are sayings that were decided and without any
 To acknowledge the ambiguity that the first birth of humans in
 He had been sacrificed to the Jehovah's service of earlier times as well, like those of animals. The prophet Ezekiel explains in a
 The point already mentioned above directly concerns the stay in the desert for the time in which the law of these sacrifices
 The commandment, which was given, calls a bad law and refers to Moses as the originator of the same; for if Even if he doesn't mention this man by name, one knows...
 Yes, indeed, that Moses was the only one who was in the desert.
 There were laws. Jehovah speaks in relation to the Sfraelites in of the desert 9: "I gave them statutes that were not good were, and rights, by which they did not live, polluted through their offerings, by presenting all the firstborn brought, so that I might destroy them, so that they might realize, that I am Jehovah," The prophet knows the commandment of the Victim of the firstborn as an ancient Mosaic, he denies it not off; but like all the bad things of earlier times from the prophets, to purify their Jehovah, the school as is attributed to the people, so too are these people sacrifice. Jehovah gives this terrible commandment to sacrifice the people.
 to punish; the Hebrews should recognize that Jehovah God be. Admittedly, a peculiar procedure, which here the prophet submitted to his God; for if one considers the
 To learn about God through his laws, he could Hebrews in this terrible law, which commanded him,
 To sacrifice the first, dearest child, just a terrible thing

Ezekiel 20:25.

501

To know God: and this quality was indeed present before Namely, whose recognition the prophets desired. A
 It casts a strange light on our above-mentioned statement.
 Inscription of the burnt offering altar, that also of these the
 The same expression is used in Ezekiel for children sacrificed to Jehovah.
 is needed), as with the Moloch victims, namely: « Towards
 "Let them pass, burn them." The children were thus... originally not slaughtered, but in the metal Jehovah

The statue was burned in the hollow of the burnt offering altar.
 One cannot object that the Prophet used this one here.
 Letting the expression pass only because it is in a fine time was common practice for victims in general, and one may do so.
 do not think of a similar procedure as in Molochdienste.
 By what right can one make such a claim?
 posit? According to what we know about the altar of burnt offering at have brought about the fact that he had an irregular metallic
 There had been a statue with a bull's head, in whose hollow
 Rather, this expression is what it means when the victims were burned.
 The term "burning the firstborn" is very aptly chosen.
 and the matter thereby receives its complete confirmation, that also Exodus 13:12 Jehovah in relation to the sacrifice literally prescribes to the firstborn that one should go through
 "Let them go, burn them to the Lord"; here too is the expression commonly used in Moloch service 2): Furthermore, our Mosaic Law itself states:
 several places the regulation that the human first aid burt should be sacrificed to Jehovah without any harm being done to him
 To allow a resolution; we will with good right grant such a resolution.
 Consider the older regulations, where one can overlooked activating the later innovation of solving. It
 This is Exodus 13:2: "Consecrate to me every firstborn child, every one of you, what the mother breaks, among the sons of Israel, among men

9 y ee ch. 20, 26. 9 nina HD

502

and cattle; it shall be mine. - Here, little men are and animals are placed entirely on the same level, and it will not
 The author said that one may release people. immediately moves on to the prohibition of leavened bread. Only in the middle of the chapter, where the commandment is repeated,
 This is followed by that addition about the solution of man and donkey, which we have already discussed. It is even clearer Exodus 22:29: You shall give me the firstborn of your sons give. So you shall do with your ox, with your Sheep: they should stay with their mother for seven days; on
 "You should give me attention." Gramberg can't help with this.

Don't suppress the remark: One almost would have tried to think of human sacrifice, because the expression which is not explained further and the poet continues: so (You shall do this with your ox, etc.) The place is striking. The first human birth is used as a model on^s posed; however one deals with her, so too should one deal with the This happened to animals. If the human first birth had been solved... Had it been done, the author could not have continued: «so» You shall do this with your ox and your sheep. This also includes the strange statement of the Prophet Micah 6:6: "With what shall I approach the Lord, Should I bow down before the God of the heights? Should I bow before him? Do they approach burn victims, or year-old calves? Will Je^s hova have taken pleasure in thousands of rams, in My^s riaden streams oils? Should I my firstborn give as an offering for my sins, the fruit of my womb as an offering for my sins. A sin offering of my soul? — He has made known to you, O Man, what is good; and what does Jehovah require of you, as To practice justice and to love piety and to be humble Walk before your God? — The prophet here leaves a devout Hebrew who is well-disposed towards his God^s He wants to please. He counts the ordinary objects.

) Gramb. critical story the Nel. of the a. TI 106.

503

of the sacrifice, through which one can obtain the grace of Jehovah believed he could procure, and among these, even without... Further disapproval was called the human first birth. For even if the prophet at the end of his pro^s Phetic viewpoints consider such pious exercises as external rejects actions that Jehovah, who relies on the Ge^s Meaning sees, not demands: thus he speaks against that Victims of firstborn children do not show any particular disapproval; It stands untouched next to the burn victims of years old. Calves and is only mentioned last for that Sacrifices are to be considered, to which the Jews attribute the highest effectiveness. attributed. Had the idea of human sacrifices " Vatke says, "entirely outside the sphere of Jehovah."

Since it was located in the service area, the question could not be asked of the Prophet. arise, whether Jehovah will be pleased if

The idea of considering firstborn children or children in general as a sin and offer sacrifices for guilt. Such a thought would be quite something.

from the outset considered blasphemous and idolatrous closed. — We have here one of the few remaining places, which do not seek to conceal,

that Jehovah received his human sacrifices, like the Phoenicians

Deities. It also allows us a safe glimpse into the

The relationship in which, in Micah's time, the laws were established.

The giving of the sacrifice of the firstborn stood. The solution was already introduced; one had become a victim of the firstborn.

no longer connected to his son; for such sacrifices are made

In our case, it is clearly left to free will.

Human sacrifice was not forbidden, however; because

Micha places them next to the victims of the calves, the rams, and of the oil as usual and lawful. The Prophet seems to be thinking of more mature, already independent children,

1) Vatke the Rel. of the a. T. 1. 276.

The prophet lived during the reign of Hezekiah and gave his oracles around 740.

BC; he was a contemporary of Isaiah.

504

whose offering was considered a sacrifice for something special,

He speaks of the offering of the firstborn as a sin.

victim or guilt victim. The sacrifice of the eight-day first

But those born could not be considered a sacrifice for guilt; it was a prescribed first offering to Jehovah.

Should we now try to piece together from the few traces available?

to describe the historical course in the Old Testament, which took the sacrifice of the firstborn among the Hebrews men hat; so the following should result approximately. The

Believe that to God, of all that He gives, is the first.

and must be presented in the most excellent way, is limited to not just in Phoenicia and Palestine, but is rather an egg

The peculiarity of all antiquity. Even the Greeks.

and Romans brought their first offerings), Aristotle leads even traced the origin of the victims back to the harvest festivals, where human gratitude, the first fruits, the god's (tern consecrated). Even examples of a sacrifice of the human's. The concept of first birth is found among the Greeks. In the Gebad of the Athamantids at Orchomenos in Boeotia was considered. Since ancient times, the rule has been that the firstborn son had to suffer a sacrificial death for the good of the people). For the Phoenicians and Jews, something else was added. Their Saturn, Melech, or Jehovah was king of the nation; He also demanded his tribute from humans. Actually. The whole nation belonged to him; all of Israel is Jehovah's. firstborn son"); the more decisively he takes to At least the firstborn have a claim for themselves. You near "Do you care for your sons and daughters whom you bore to me?" he asked. he in Ezekiel 5), "and sacrificed them [the foreign god's [tern] to consume. Was there too little of your whoring, that you also slaughtered my children and gave them up, in

- 1) Tibullus. I, eleg. 1, 11 ff.; Horat. epist. II, 1. 139. ff.; Pausan. XI, 19.) Aris dead. eth. VIII, 11. °) Herod. VII, 197.
4) 2nd Mof. 4, 22; 2. Mom. 12, 2; Jer. 2, 3.9€. 16, 20.

305

to whom you dedicated them? « See, all souls find mine, it says in chapter 18, verse 4, as the father's soul, so The son's soul, find them both; the soul which Whoever sins shall die! His right to property makes Jehovah asserted through death. On behalf of all who to whom God gave the souls of the firstborn; they are the means of connection between Jehovah and the people, The latter can only remain Jehovah's property for a long time. to remain, that a new generation always has its firsts The born are consecrated to the god as a sacrifice. This was the Main dogma of older Judaism; all hopes of The people joined in, the most extravagant ones. Promises are based on the willingness to first... to sacrifice those born. I swear by myself, says Jehovah (Hova to Abraham), "that because you have done such things and your son, your only one, did not refuse to let me see you

I want to bless you and multiply your seed like the stars of the sky heaven and like the sand on the seashore; and your Same shall possess the gate of his enemies... How far the
The custom of sacrificing the firstborn, reaching upwards, can be cannot be determined. Certainly, Moses made the sacrifice of the firstborn.
prescribed as Jehovah's law; its institution was However, this is probably not new to the Israelites. In the northeastern part In Egypt, human sacrifice was practiced in the older times not operated carelessly; alone in the temple of the sun god
Three sacrifices were made daily to On or Heliopolis, i.e., in one...
Over a thousand people in a year 2). Due to the circumstances, that the temple belonged to the sun god and Amassius, who abolished these human sacrifices, offering three candles daily as a replacement.
He ordered them to be burned, it should be noted that the victims

) Genesis 22:16

) Porphy. abs tin. II, 56. This has already been discussed above.
This happened, at least, in Moses' time; for Amazigh, who abolished these human sacrifices, fell later than Moses.

—

506

were burned. It is likely that here too, first... born of the Egyptians, delivered to the procreating god had to be. Thus, by Moses having the firstborn...
By commanding burning, he mimics a use of the surrounding Peoples after. Whether such sacrifices were already made by the Jews before Whether Moses was brought there may remain undecided; the
The historical memory of the Hebrews does not extend beyond the end.
Train from Egypt up into the desert. In the desert, under the eyes of the of Moses, where the people were gathered in a confined space where the firstborn lived, as far as the power of the
The legislator's requirement was sufficient, that they had been regularly sacrificed;
otherwise
during the judicial term. It is in the nature of the elderly.
Heartfelt, that one should not abandon this barbaric obligation

Then sought, yes, as the external constraint subsided. In the door mixed times of the Judges, where the Hebrews had no common
 The group united, but there was no permanent, legal head.
 The country ruled, therefore the offering of the firstborn may Many things have been neglected; also, it was then hadn't even thought about a solution yet. With the founding of the Partly new facilities were created in the temple, partly existing ones were built.
 the older ones through the shared national shrine stigt. I suspect that since the construction of the Tem pels left it up to the Hebrew to decide whether to give his firstborn son who wanted to sacrifice or ransom; for the priests it was Buying your way out of trouble is a lucrative practice; they are often used.
 to have come to the aid of elderly hearts.
 It is simply inconceivable that all Jews of the country their firstborn to Jerusalem in the Temple had brought them to either sacrifice them there or to buy it out. Before Exile, it wasn't just in the Tem pel, but sacrificed throughout the land, and to all the victims
 There must also have been priests at these sites who...
 Sacrifice of the first birth performed or the ransom in Em
 They took part; only on high feast days did they draw their hands back then.
 to Jerusalem. This relationship is described by the prophets.

507

Although described as waste and idolatry; however, in the Ger genteile the founding of a temple and the attempted A new institution forced that all victims could only be considered in Jerusalem was to be performed. Certainly, on the mountains and under old trees in the land of Judah not only foreign Gods, but also Jehovah, as in the kingdom of Sfrael, were worshipped, and the child sacrifices, of which the prophets say that They were brought to all heights and into all rocky crevices.
 Those who are, are therefore probably to a large extent victims.
 were the firstborn who were offered to Jehovah;
 For Jehovah and Moloch are in their essence one and the same God; only the Reformation prophets spoke of their Jehovah Everything that they have in the national divine
 The king was offending, removed, and the ammonite alone Moloch transferred. After captivity, since the Green burying of the Second Temple until the destruction of Jerusalem

The Romans did not practice the sacrifice of the firstborn. more tolerated, but all the more firmly insisted that the more the firstborn was freed. They also got involved in the Two decrees were given to the new temple, which were based on this. to point out that in earlier times a real sacrifice took place found. For now, every Jew, even the gentiles, was being forced to... living farther away, his firstborn after Jerusalem to bring the altar and present it in the temple; there only The father was able to release his child. This institution demonstrates clearly that a previous real sacrifice was thereby represented ten should be. Furthermore, it was known to be everywhere a It is considered an insult to God and therefore frowned upon to do so. A crippled animal was sacrificed; the sacrifice had to be flawless. Thus, among the Jews in the Second Temple, the Firstborn children who had a defect, neither there The problem cannot yet be solved, which in turn points to an earlier situation. The determination points to the victim. One could, of course, de even the priests were not allowed to have any physical ailments. to have in themselves, and so this circumstance could be both for a determination of the firstborn to the priesthood speaks chen; but even so, the matter boils down to one thing. The Firstborn children had to be given to God, and this This happened either by sacrificing them to him, or by They were ordained as priests. Even as priests they were They were not exempt from sacrificial death in ancient times. It is a A peculiarity of the oldest religions is that the price (who had to offer themselves as a sacrifice to God), and that the high priest after a certain period of his ministry He died a sacrificial death for the good of the people. We will be in the second section, where the death of Aaron and Moses This important point will be addressed in more detail. subject to consideration. If the Hebrew now first...

— —

) Deuteronomy 15:21

508

He did not release his born son, so he surely did it only for that reason, in order to to free him from sacrificial death, let it be that he would have had to suffer immediately, or later as a priest to the themselves would have been exposed; for the priesthood at and for himself, as the highest honorary office, would be appointed by the father not rejected, but rather sought out for his child have been. But now a third thing is added, which the solution in the second temple was as the mitigation of a proves to be a previous real sacrifice. The solution had to be, as As mentioned above, after seven days and at the latest within This must be accomplished within thirty days. If the child died within... half of this time, so the father was not guilty of the Priest to pay the ransom; had he already paid it, So it had to be returned at his request. What This means something different than what the father said, "He has the son through..." Has salvation from death been purchased? Does Jehovah take it upon himself to... the son himself, he makes him through natural death

The Phoenician priest of Saturn was consecrated to a fine god, was also called Kadesh, a saint of the people?).

309

his property, so this is just as much as if the The priest would have sacrificed the child to God; the father needs no ransom to be paid).

Finally, one more remark may be made. As is most likely, a large part of the assigned by the prophets to the Ammonite Moloch Child sacrifices of the Hebrews in earlier times were offered to Jehovah have, whose bronze sacrificial statue has little or no effect, perhaps at most due to the lack of arms, from the ammonite Moloch image difference: this is also the case with the sacrifices of the First birth, usual procedures, that in which child sacrifices in Moloch services were similar. The biblical text ge It is, as has been noted, literally true that the firstborn Jehovah has been burned; Jehovah demands this. Offering of the firstborn with the same expression, which cher in Molochdienste refers to the burning of children.

From this I would now conclude that in earlier times besides the solution, another use has gone into it, which It conveyed the true sacrifice and the solution in more detail. We Read in the new testament about a baptism by fire. An idea cannot be pulled out of thin air; it must be can be traced back to an old custom. In the Mexicans, as we saw above, were given the new= newborn children, after they had been baptized with water, Four times through fire. So here we have more. a baptism of fire: the idea of the new team is certainly known ) Lightfoot cited in the Horatian Hebrews, ad Evangelist Luke, cap. 2 in second volume, p. 497 edit. Ultraject. Rabbenu Asher in Beco-Roth. fol. 68, 2. Quicumque natum sibi habet primogenitum, tenetur ad eum redimendum quinque siclis, postquam ad diem tricesimum pervenerit, sicut dicitur redemptio eorum post mensem unum Num. 18, 16. Also in Becoroth fol. 49, 1: Si moriatur natus intra triginta dies, sique dederit pater pretium redemptionis sacerdoti, restitution; si moriatur post triginta dies et pater non dederit pretium redemptionis, det., |

*

510

ftaments on the same use in the old Jehovah= and Mo= Hole services back. Perhaps that one initially, however the firstborn were truly burned, this baptism of fire on the other children, in order to give them a holy to give consecration; perhaps also that this baptism only arose recently, when a way was sought to protect the firstborn from to be able to preserve life. The boy was freed by An animal that was burned, however, swung it to to dedicate him to the fire god, even though through the fire= through or at least over it. The dangerous part This procedure will bring about further mitigation. to have two sacrificial fires lit and the children carried or pulled between the two.

8. Men offering sacrifices at the patcha festival.
Consistent accounts from the ancients state: 5
that a festival was celebrated annually in the Phoenician cult, where human sacrifices were regularly made. It happened

This was true both in Phoenicia itself, as well as in Carthage and in the Phoenician colonies in general. Soon one reads that they had ten slaughtered their firstborn at this festival, soon

Is it just a single, previously fattened person, soon
The chosen one must be the parents' only child.
It is YOURS from these scattered W so much with you

1) In Eusebius de laud. N M. c. 13, the only ones are found and most beloved children, it is explicitly stated here $\rho \alpha \iota \sigma \%$ Eros. In Pliny hist. nat. XXXVI, 4 find it in general nen humanae victimae, which the Carthaginians omnibus annis sacrifice. After Alex. dier. ingenious. VI, 26 and Porphy. abst. II, 54 it was a well-proportioned man whom the inhabitants of Crete and Rhodes annually to Saturn sacrificed. In Porphyrius and after him in Euseb. praep.
Evangelical IV, 16: The Carthaginians sacrificed to Saturn (xara Re).
giodov, de rod vouluov zapu yununs, Euyviov aei alua.
But may the boys, who later for this purpose
They bought them, probably from abroad.

511

certainty that the Phoenicians had a festival every year, at which for the public good the Saturn human being blood had to flow; most likely one will end up in the
The celebration will be a reconciliation festival, marked by human blood.
to erase the sins of the nation and prepare for the coming year to secure the grace of God.

Various circumstances now justify the suspicion that the ancient Passover of the Hebrews was precisely this phoenix—The festival had been and continued until Josiah in the same way He was celebrated.

Turning first to the name Pasha MIDI,

So even this dark word suggests a connection. to conclude with the Phoenician sacrificial service; for there is The root word MDI has the meaning «fspringen 9, fo would we think of the dancing of the Baal priests at the sacrifice (remembers); but the meaning "to go over" should be for the The explanation of the name would apply, so that would be

) Gesenius in thesaurus II, 1114 gives the word nDa as first meaning saliit, saltavit, then 2) transsiliit, transiit, 3) claudicavit. Now no transitio, your liberatio, immunitas a calamitate (sparing), inde 1) sacrificium whether liberationem et immunitatem populi oblatum, 2) this paschalis ie dies quartus decimus mensis Nisan (Leviticus 23, 5). Winer in his Hebrew lexicon, p. 781, sets as its first meaning trans iit, loc um fecit alicui, hine pepereit; then 2) luxavit. Of which NDB (propr: vel transitio vel liberatio) 1) agnus paschalis, 2) festum vel convivium paschale. The first Christian Zeit incorrectly derived the word from waozev or also from passio. The Jews Josephus and Philo adhere to the abmanagement of the Pentateuch. The former translates MDH as vureoBaotic, vreosseros (antique II, 14th); The latter (de sept. et fest. thief.) with dirBarnpe.

23 The same word is spoken at the dancing of the priests of Baal (1 Kings).

18, 26. used.

512

Word very closely related to passing through) in Moloch services, which, as noted, refers to victims. It is as much as burning. The second book of Moses, chapter 1. 12, 23, 27. derives the origin of the festival and the name the same from the exodus from Egypt; Jehovah be, as he went out at night to kill the firstborn of the Egyptians² gen, at the blood-stained doors of the Hebrews before² passed over; in remembrance of this stewardship and of the The Egyptians' punishment would be the festival called Pasha, which... The. This interpretation is rarely accepted as correct. Since that is possible, the idea of a Ver² is also present here. Atonement through blood is destroyed, Jehovah goes gently. Passing where he sees blood, spares the firstborn of the He² Brèer, because he voluntarily painted on the doors Blood is satisfied. This reconciliation through blood is now Surely that's also the prevailing idea of the Pasha, sey that the word means much as sparing, sparing The passing of the punishing God before the sinner interpret, or that the designation, similar to the passing through in the Moloch service, from a special procedure in which The offering of the sacrifice was taken as an example. It was during the Derivation of "jumping" thought of joyful dances, which on Pasha, as on a harvest and joyous festival, of which People have been practiced; only from a dance We hear no joy anywhere; rather, on this Pasha rests A dark veil hangs over everything; one could at most think of religious dances of the Phoenician service, which are not in² not merely an expression of joy, but at certain festivals 1) x- Strangely enough, this word also appears in 2. Mof. 12, 13. next to or. It is called: Zy] »And it will be through² Jehovah, to strike down Egypt, and he slays the blood the upper sill and on the two posts, so Jehovah will pass by!

were associated with bloody bodily injuries. Harvest
 The Pasha was indeed a fixed date; but among the firstborn...
 There were originally also people there, and such Even victims, though one was used to them, could not devastate the people not to encourage dancing for joy. That the return the origin of the festival in Egypt is incorrect, in which (Most of the newer thinkers agree). The reforming
 The party, after its exile, is very keen to ensure that...
 Jewish festivals on Moses, on Egypt and the desert to to redirect, they should be memories of the exodus like for the third word of this party in our Old Testament writings “the deliverance from Egypt is, against which she had a very particular aversion. Nor.
 In the new testament, this redemption is the standing one, for the
 A completely unpalatable topic for non-Jews, with which the apostles their speeches to the Hebrews begin. In contrast, in the oldest books of our Old Testament canon, in the books of Judges and Samuel, nothing of a
 The Jewish people's aversion to Egypt; also The exodus from this land brings nothing but happiness—highlighted. One wouldn't want to say there isn't one here.
 There had been an opportunity to refer to Egypt; rather was in these books, which were closer to the event,
 There was far more cause then than later. If one now proceeds... completely back to the desert, as is evident under the
 The people even have a longing to return to this land;
 It probably never occurred to Moses,
 a horde which, as the Pentateuch says, continually Accusations made for carrying out the act would be unreasonable.
 to celebrate the departure with a festival. It has been a long time coming.
 This had been commonplace for centuries, evidence of Heathens, so often they do not get along with the biblical messages to agree, to reject outright as false; the ) Bread. Win. bible Realw. II., 233.

33

>14

"But nowadays, no impartial researcher will be found more obstacles to giving such certificates the recognition they deserve. influence on the establishment of a historical fact take place. Thus, it is now the unanimous testimony of the ancients, that the Hebrews did not leave Egypt voluntarily), but partly because of differing religious customs, but because of an unclean disease, leprosy, forced to emigrate by the Egyptians 2): and if one wants to include this certificate with the wishes

The Mosaic books confess to such a violent exodus ben only dark to 2. Mof. 12, 33: "And the Egyptians pressed the people, to drive them quickly out of the land; for they said: We find all of death.

2) Josephus mentions several such things in the first book of his Contr. Apion. Testimonies, namely that of the Egyptian historian Manetho, Chaeremon and Lysimachus. According to Manetho Did an Egyptian king Amenhotep have a horde of lepers? people banished to eastern Egypt and forced to live in to work in the local quarries. Later he instructed them the city of Avaris, which was formerly inhabited by shepherds. There em These people rebelled and elected Osariph, a priest.

from Heliopolis, who later called himself Moses, to become the leader. He gave laws according to which the Egyptians could be Do not worship gods, including those considered sacred by the Egyptians. He should eat the animals he keeps. The rebels should have dealt with the already emigrated shepherds, initially victorious and great atrocities were committed until the Egyptian king with Hee The Ethiopian military advanced against them and brought them to the persecuted the borders of Syria. — According to Lysimachus, un The Egyptian king Bochoris was infected with leprosy. plagued the Jewish people by begging in front of the Egyptian temples nourished. Bochoris had consulted the oracle, which he therefore consulted, received the instruction that the temples must be cleansed of the defiled. cleanse. Now he has drowned the lepers in the sea. (which Jewish legend transfers to the Egyptians), the remaining But those who were infected with unclean diseases, through to lead armed forces into the desert. There they would have Council held talks on what to do in this sad situation, also and the complaints of the people, with their helpless state Comparing it to the desert, it will certainly receive a high rating.

 Degree of credibility. Is this now the excerpt from Egypt?

They fasted through the night and lit a watch fire. To follow
 On that day a certain Moses gave them advice, wise to move until they came to inhabited areas. — The Er Chäremón's numbering is very similar to Manetho's;
 They call Moses by the refined Egyptian name Tisithres.
 Hekat from Miletus, according to Diodorus Siculus XL, 1, says that he was in Egypt.
 Many foreigners had lived there, whose religious customs were contrary to the local customs.

lig influenced Egyptian religion. At that time, sey Aegypt ten had been plagued by leprosy, and it was hoped that to get rid of this evil, if one gets rid of the foreigners. exceptional ones. They were therefore driven out of the country. The
 The bravest of these exiles had fought under Danaus and Cadmus undertook a train to Greece and other countries men; but the greater part came from neighboring Judea Possession was seized, which at that time had been uninhabited. The An Leader of these people, Moses, be a brave and wise man.
 beings, founded cities and the temple in Jerusalem, religious and civil laws were given, and the people were also divided into twelve Tribes divided because he considered this number to be that of the annual moon cycles, considered the most perfect. What follows is a review.
 view of Mosaic law, which clearly has a Jewish source betrays. — Tacitus says in hist. V, 11: Most of the writings fplaters agree (plurimi auctores consentiunt) that the King Bochoris, when a plague broke out in Egypt, which defiled the bodies, the oracle of Hammon around a I have approached remedies and received instructions to do the Ju—to transport the people, whom the gods detested, across the border.
 They then gathered the people together and sent them into the desert.
 Driven, Moses, one of the exiles, had the wailing ones he warns against expecting help from either gods or men, but
 To trust him as a heavenly guide... — Strange
 Is it that even those messages that apparently do not originate from Egyptian, but flowing from Jewish sources, the violent

They were justified in expelling the Jews because of leprosy. Thus For example, Justinus XXXVI, 2 knows the story of Jesephus.
fairly close to Genesis, we know that Joseph went to Egypt
sold, where he rose to high rank and was barren=

33 *

516

Since there had been no volunteer, only a very late
Time to dare to link the nation's religious festivals to it;
and from this point of view the explanation of Passover as a commemorative celebration of the preservation of the Jewish firstborn in Egypt completely untenable, to be sworn= that one can assume a real defeat of the Egyptians anyway= cannot think of a firstborn son.

I agree with v. Bohlen that the Pasha
It was originally a festival of the sun god.
It was begun in the spring month, on the 15th of Nisan.
For the Jews, the first month of the year was, so approximately in our April, and should mark the victory of the sun over the
To glorify winter. Such a spring festival was held at celebrated by most nations of antiquity, especially also among the Egyptians. This is what the painting of the
The door, as the Jews want, with blood; however, it was probably not blood, but red color, the color of fire, the Sun, or perhaps blood was used in the absence of one
: other red-dyeing material. The Egyptians coated it with their spring festival houses, trees and sheep with red (Color), also the Peruvians. The spring festival was now at the same time a harvest festival; in those hot regions there had the grain in the first weeks of our April already
It has reached maturity: the first harvest was gathered. Among the First offerings presented to the creative sun,

I had predicted times of great hardship; but then, when the Jewish community...
The history, which has a large gap of 400 years, makes Moses to the son of Joseph and says that the Egyptians had an oracle advised to expel the Jews suffering from leprosy from the country—so that the plague would not spread further. Moses had made the leader of the displaced and the Egyptians Hei=

He stole lights. The Egyptians had pursued him to steal them.
to take them off, but were brought home by storms forced to do so.

1) v. Bohlen Geneva. CXL. Intro) Epiphan. haeres. XIX, 3.

517

These were also the firstborn of humans. For this purpose, one had, besides Besides gratitude, there is another motive.
The month of Nisan marked the beginning of a new year; it required a powerful means of atonement to atone for the sins of the past to erase the year and to be merciful to God for the coming year.
to obtain; this remedy was found in human blood, primarily in the blood of innocent children. The law
It now stipulates that the firstborn sons must be born in time of thirty days either sacrificed or redeemed would have to: but such children will also be sent to the Pasha have saved up; the sacrifice of the firstborn is quite certain.
with the festival in the closest relationship; for until the Today, the firstborn among the Jews must at Passover fasting. It seems that during the time when one fasts the first of the seasons...
Burt frequently solved the human sacrifices at Passover, providing a substitute.
They should form a system for the continuous sacrifice of firstborn children.
In earlier times, Pasha was not celebrated; I ver—
I believe that it only began with the construction of the temple by the Phoenicians.
was introduced among the Jews. Even the books of Moses They refer the celebration of this festival to the temple. In the five=

In the tenth book of Moses, chapter 16, verse 5, it is commanded: "You can do this
Do not slaughter in any of your cities on Passover, which Jehovah, your God, gives you; but in the place which Jehovah,
Your God, who will choose to place a fine name there,
There you shall slaughter the Pasha in the evening, at the Un=
"Sunset at the time of your departure from Egypt."
Even in the books of Moses, one only hears of a first one.
Passover celebration); at least once one had to celebrate the festival.
to celebrate under the eyes of the legislator; then the Passover, except in the later book of Joshua, chapter 5, not more is mentioned except for the Reformation of this festival under to King Hezekiah. Here it is described as an object of the Disapproval from the reformist party.

) 4 Mos. Chapter 9.

518

One of the main endeavors of those few kings who in The intention of this party is to act in a way that re-enforces the Pasha.
form.

For us, this is primarily about the men offerings that were brought at this festival. Book Literally, such things are nowhere granted in the Old Testament.
the; but the attempts of the reformist party to change the old to modify the Passover celebration, the customs relating to the Passover lamb in the Second Temple, the fact that one had to wait until to the destruction of Jerusalem by the Romans, even then in Reformed Judaism, the execution of some crimes
he postponed it until Passover week in order to use it as an atoning sacrifice to let them die, yes, even customs of today's youth
The events at Passover speak clearly enough for the fact that before During the Passover, people were regularly sacrificed to the captives.
were. From all these more or less clear traces
This results in a horrible outcome for me, the next one Further proof will follow immediately. Slaughtering took place at that time.
of the first temple on Passover for certain sections
The Jews killed a man, mixed some of his blood with Bread instead of sourdough and enjoyed some of this bread, to whom a reconciling power was attributed; then it was The body of the sacrificed person was roasted, and every Jew had to a small bite of this meat as atonement for his Eating sins.

We are proceeding to do this according to the investigations so far perhaps no longer such a striking result to explain, in more detail above. First and foremost, it raises the issue of It casts a bad light on the old Passover celebration, that one in the old testament not until he hears something from her, until she to be changed. In the books of Moses and Joshua is spoken of by a Pasha; these writings fall

However, very late and completely under the influence of Post-exilic school. The oldest Old Testament books, The judges and Samuel do not mention a Passover festival.

519

The Books of Kings and the Chronicles speak of how said, not until there is a reformation of the
They can tell it themselves. The latter writings are included in this.
other in gross contradiction. The chronicle lists the reform (attributing the Passover festival to King Hezekiah), However, he also mentions the Passover celebration again under the (later Sofia as a most welcome innovation), sets even at this second celebration he added: "And it wasn't a pa has been held, as this one, in Isrgel, since that time Samuel the Prophet; and all the kings of Israel had no such Passover was observed as Josiah observed, and the priests and the Levites and all Judah and Israel that was there, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. In the eighteenth year
This Passover was observed during the reign of Josiah.
In doing so, she reverses what she said in chapter 30, verse 26.
He said of the Passover of Hezekiah: And it was a great Joy in Jerusalem; for since the time of Solomon, the son of Solomon... nes David's, King of Israel, was likewise not ge They appear in Jerusalem. - The matter becomes clear when one the account in the Books of Kings with this statement compares it to the chronicle. The Books of Kings know none.
Reformation of the Pasha under Hezekiah; they only mention that Hezekiah had eradicated the idols 9 and a pious Je Hovadians had been; the Passover, which was dedicated to Jehovah's service
This king apparently let the person belonging to him go untouched.
exist. However, in the law book which one under the later Josiah in the temple, a completely different Passover celebration prescribed. Josiah commands the people 5):
Keep Passover to Jehovah your God, as it is written.
It is written in this book of the covenant. For there was no
"Such a pasha was held," the narrator continues, from the time of the judges who judged Frael, and

) 2 Chr. Ch. 30.) 2 Chron. 35.) 2 Chron. 35, 18.

) 2nd King. Cape. 18.) 2 Kings. 22, 21. fi.

520

all the time of the kings of Sfrael and the kings of Judah, but in the eighteenth year of King Josiah is This Passover was observed by Jehovah at Zerufalem. The chronicler wants to see the reformed Pasha up to Hezekiah. to postpone; the opportunity seemed favorable to him, since he was in the document he had before him, which referred to this king as a He found himself praised as a devout Jehovah's servant. He uses this. Circumstances and, at his own risk, undertakes a brilliant reform Pasha's story, which only came up during treatment King Josiah should have taken his place. When he now went to When the story of Josiah comes up, he forgets that according to his Reports indicate that Hezekiah was already supposed to have reformed the Passover, and confidently adds the epithet that his charter gave to Josiah, but he had already returned to Hezekiah, also again to Josiah; so that he, through the explanation that it was from Sa Muel's Passover was not celebrated in this way until Josiah's time. Its entire celebration, which took place in Hezekiah's time, was cancelled. What they supposedly found was declared untrue. But if now Furthermore, the Books of Kings tell of the times of the Judges. throughout the entire time of the kings, there was no such thing. Paschal feast was held, if the chronicle further claims once: since Samuel, the other time: since Solomon, I Pasha is no longer celebrated in that way; thus it is made it very clear that one simply... did not know if the Pasha had ever been celebrated was done as prescribed by the discovered law book and Josia arranged the celebration, and this means exactly that: The Passover feast has never truly been like this before. They were celebrated.

Apparently, then, the Passover celebration, as it is described in the prescribed in Mosaic books, an innovation that only under King Josiah (Ct. 611 BC), according to the a provision contained in the discovered law book was recorded. The chronicle stands where it introduces the... The origin of this festival dates back to Hezekiah, also the sisterhood improvements which will lead to the acceptance of this reform by the found Hebrews. “Hesphemy,” she said, “spoke to all the Levites.” friendly to those who were knowledgeable in the fine tidings Jehovah's; the king and the rulers give the sacrifices— animals from their own resources 2); the priests and Levites were ashamed— ten themselves and sanctified themselves?); many of the Sfraelites have— (they did not sanctify themselves and did not eat according to the scriptures); Instead, they laughed and mocked this Passover celebration. If the Passover under Josiah was in accordance with our Since the prophets underwent a reform, this festival must be preceded by customs have been committed that better convey the abhorrence of the to agitate like-minded people; otherwise, the festival would not have taken place. It needs to be modified. The question now is: what exactly did that modification entail? These customs? The Old Testament itself states, as— hunting, no information on this; one can only learn from the Reforms themselves and from some old remnants that have Having received the reformed Paschal Bible, they infer the atrocities, which were to be suppressed by the innovation. As Customs of the old cult that must be eradicated, be— The prophets depict partly gender mixing, partly Sacrifices to other gods, partly human sacrifices. From one There is no trace of sexual worship at the Passover festival; There is also no mention anywhere of a Passover of the Hebrews in the Services of foreign gods were spoken; so that one might believe The purpose of the reform was likely to be to... to dedicate another festival to Hova, whose celebration one can bask in. had transferred to deities: therefore nothing remains, than to think of human sacrifice. Although it is said that The prophets also accused the Hebrews of They ate pork, and Herodotus speaks of a feast. the Egyptian on the full moon, where he enjoyed pork and the poor who could not buy a pig

) 2 Chron. 30, 22. 2) 2 Chron. 30, 24.) 2 Chron. 30, 15.
+) 2 Chron. 30, 18.) 2 Chron. 30, 10.

They formed and sacrificed pigs from dough; the pig However, I would like to contact the Pasha—to be: yet the human sacrifices at Passover in second temple and other traces point too clearly to the ab-Battles of people, more than one would believe,
 The reform of the Pasha would only have meant the elimination of the pigs.
 intentional, and not including the human victims. Very.
 The two were probably connected (2); on
 At the larger sacrificial sites, people were slaughtered and-Nose of human flesh; otherwise, one was content with... in families, to slaughter a pig that was true to its inner self.
 Build and adapt to the taste of his meat with the Men was related to [someone].

In the second temple, the object of the sacrifice is a Lamb. This Easter lamb took the place of a little man, Herod II, 47. The Jewish Passover was also celebrated on the full moon.

 celebrates. Incidentally, the pig also represented an image of the fruit.
 ability, because of the numerous young that this animal gives birth to, and was also considered by the Romans to be the creative force of nature sacrificed. Ovid. almost. I. Verse 349: "Prima Ceres avidae ga-visa est sanguine porcae" Juven. Satyr. II, 6: "Caedere

Silvano porcum. , At weddings, a white [unclear] was sacrificed.
 Pig; Juven. Satyr. IV, 10: "Voveasque sacellis exta et candiduli divina tomacula porci. "

In ancient times, only people were seen at Passover:
 had slaughtered; then, generally, the pig was put in place of the animal whose flesh and entrails which bore the greatest resemblance to humans, but sacrificed Nevertheless, people were still present at the respected sacrificial sites. Thus
 The Romans sacrificed to the Lares, who, as we saw above, Children slaughtered, and so did pigs. Horat. serm.
 II, 3: "Immolet aequis hie porcum Laribus., Juvenal says Sat. IV. from the Jews: "Nec distare putant humana carne suillam., The festival is probably also among the Egyptians, which Herodotus speaks of, originally involving human sacrifices committed crimes that had long been abolished in Herodotus' time were.

represented by the likelihood of an innocent child;
 For the Jews, the lamb is an image of innocence.
 Everywhere, with increasing civilization, there is an effort to... traditional sacrifice of a human by an animal replace, and the Passover lamb of the Jews certainly has the same Origin. In Salamis on the island of Cyprus, for example, it was In earlier times, a human being was sacrificed annually in the month of March.
 The sacrificial offering was first led around the altar three times,
 Then a priest thrust a lance into his body and the
 The body was completely cremated on a pyre.
 King Diiphilus moderated this practice to the extent that Instead of a human being, a bull was sacrificed. The time of The sacrifice and the burning correspond to the Paschal sacrifice of the Jews; Cyprus was, as is well known, a Phoenician colony. I On this occasion, I would like to draw attention to the lance thrust, which is a strange one for the New Testament story parallel; already above under the article Astarte have
 We have seen that even in this service among the Scythians the
 The custom was to kill the human victim with a lance thrust. to kill in the side. Among the Egyptians, it is found, as already noted, a similar mitigation in old people= sacrifice in the sacrificial bull, which was sealed with a imposed a human figure; sacrificed at Laodicea in Syria
 In earlier times a virgin was chosen annually, and later instead of the same... a doe 23. I don't want to discuss this any further= broad enough, as with all peoples, so it could also be done with The Hebrews did not completely reject human sacrifice.
 not create, but needed an object that would be available to the people could serve as a substitute; among them the lamb or the goat was placed in the place of the human sacrifices at Passover).
 It will now be our task to prove this in more detail.

1) wioxevurıgov Eus eb. praep. ev. IV, 16.

2) Euseb. praep. ev. IV, 16.

This animal was best suited, since its purchase
 This was also possible for the poor Hebrew; according to the law.

First and foremost, the idea must be rejected.
 as if the Paschal Lamb had been slaughtered with the intention of to celebrate a joyful communal meal. The Pasha—Lamm was, by his very nature, a victim—here): it could only be in the forecourt of the temple in Jerusalem was slaughtered, its fat and blood were used, as with each sacrifice, the former burned on the altar, the latter cast against the altar. The Carthaginians also blasted it.
 at the annual festival where they sacrificed their children, that Blood on the altar 2). However, it was forbidden to any Jew.
 permitted to slaughter his own lamb: this permission had
 But he also did this with other sacrifices (Leviticus 1:5, 11).
 And especially during Pasha's reign, this was already a necessity.
 as the priests would not have been sufficient in the short time to kill thousands of lambs. Since there was no Tem^{pl}
 If there were no more pel, the Jews would not slaughter a Passover lamb either.
 Furthermore: clear proof that the lamb is a sacrificial animal
 It was. The consumption of meat was not intended to satisfy hunger.
 not at all excluded; it was sufficient and the rule, only to enjoy a bite of the meat. Rather, it went a meal, the Chagiga, beforehand, and only after this They enjoyed some of the Easter lamb. The rabbis (3) give
 The purpose of this previous meal was to fatten the Hebrews.

The Hebrew was “between a sheep and a goat”
 Election opened. The view which Spencer de legib. hebr.
 rit. page 381. according to Jonathan Paraphrastes, the Lamb be introduced to the belief of the Egyptians in holiness to oppose the sheep and Jupiter Ammon, one must rely on rest.

1) Exodus. 2, 27; Cape. 34, 25.

2) “saivyovosı e robe Bwuovs“ Eus eb. praep. evang. IV, 16.
 The evidence concerning the customs at the Pasha's sacrifice² lambs in the second temple, which I will not mention in detail,
 They can be found in Lund and Winer's biblical Realology under Pasha.

) Lightfoot hor. Hebr. ad Joh. cap. 18.

525

to ensure that they do not become too greedy over the Paschal lamb, fell and in the process, against regulations, injured one of the legs of the Lamb would be broken. The shallowness and unsustainability of the validity of this explanation is obvious. Rather, this shows the Meal, that in the first temple on Passover next to the men's Animals were also sacrificed. From the sacrificial meat The animals were eaten to one's heart's content until satiated; then But this was followed, as a sacred rite, by the enjoyment of a bite of the sacrificed human being).

The Passover lamb was not allowed to be boiled, but had to be (will be fried?). The most varied explanations of this The regulations have been tried. According to the most common The rabbis' interpretation would be the roasting of the lamb of the— half prescribed, because cooking the same during the out- There was no time for the exodus from Egypt; Others say, The lamb reminded them of their liberation from Egypt, Since then they have been a nation of kings, a royal kingdom. sterthum, and it is not fitting for kings to eat boiled food. eaten; the enjoyment of the roast would therefore be a sign of Rule); others want to include a [something] in the roast. To find a sensualization of Egyptian sorrow, or even a This was a source of annoyance for the Egyptians; for there the Since sheep were a sacred animal to the Egyptians, so the The smell of roast lamb must greatly distress them. Christ's Lich interpreters explain the roasting by saying that it is the only- the simplest and quickest way of preparation, so that the fried Meat is tastier than boiled meat, or that The animal's legs would have broken during cooking. must do what had been forbidden. All these explanations However, they are not enough; the relationship in Egypt

1) Lightfoot ad Joan. 18, 28 from Tract. Pesachim fol. 70, 2: “«Oves per Paschate, boves per Chagiga., ) Exodus 12:9. Cooking was probably not entirely excluded;

Deuteronomy 16:7

) Hottinger jus Hebraeor. p. 23,

526

That's irrelevant for us anyway; even assuming the Pasha Write from Egypt, for Jehovah commands there the Jews even before the festival), the Lamb on the tenth to set aside the month of Nisan and the same on the fourth of ten~~s~~ ten to fry towards evening; one cannot therefore say,
Due to lack of time, frying was preferred to boiling.
has been; the assumption that Jehovah is of better taste or for easier preparation, frying beforehand~~s~~
What I wrote is petty; such motives can probably be found in a cookbook, but not where it is It concerns the explanation of a religious festival. I believe rather, this roast points to the earlier
Human sacrifices, burned in the altar of burnt offering, at Pa~~s~~
They were therefore roasted. This supports the assumption.
First, the striking circumstance that the Paschal lamb in had to be roasted in a special oven, which presumably~~s~~ (which was modeled after the old burnt offering altar). In
In this oven, the lamb was placed on a rack, as we also found it in the altar of burnt offering, so that no dividing wall exists between sacrificial animal and fire~~s~~ found which could have stopped the flame. Did one want to the lamb in an earthen or metal vessel over
If the flame was placed, the latter had to be perforated, to also imagine a kind of rust which would expose the flame did not prevent the attack. The roasting spit, which one had given to the Animals through the body, was made of garnet wood. manufactures; metal was forbidden. This use also has Rabbis and Christians have made it difficult; for us it will
He was further proof. It was said that the animal had come from the outside.
They would have to roast over the fire, but an iron roasting spit would be...
It got hot and would have also burned the meat from the inside out.
Fried. Apparently extremely bland! And why did that have to happen?
Was the wood taken directly from the pomegranate tree? Also

—
1) Exodus. 12, 3. 6. 9.) Lund p. 993.

527

For that, they knew what to do; the pomegranate wood was moist and suitable.
and thus very good for Bratfpieg II — The reason is surely elsewhere. The pomegranate tree was sacred to the sun god;
The apple of this tree was considered a symbol of procreation, of creative nature; the pillars in front of the temple in Jerusalem, the hem on the high priest's tunic, were decorated with pomegranates I: so one has from the wood taken that which was holy to the sun, to whom Jehovah was; so It was also fitting on this New Year's Day celebration that It was celebrated in honor of the sun.

Justinus Mar delivers a most peculiar message.
tyr) on the treatment of the slaughtered Paschal lamb.
One didn't just stick a roasting skewer in from below after the head through the body, but also another through the
The animal's chest across, to attach its forefeet to it to fasten, so that these two spears form the shape of a formed a cross, and the lamb was as if hanging on the cross.
The credibility of this message cannot be questioned.
to be spoken of; Justin was in Palestine from a famous-

) Lund p. 992.

2) 1st King. 7, 18, 20, 42; 2nd King 25, 17; Exodus. 28, 33.

) Justin, martyr. dial. cum Tryph. pag. 218. ed. Lond. 1722:

“ai rd nelevoFEv mooßarov Exeivo e 0Aoy yiveolai, roõ c-Sog rod Oravpov, di o maoyey Eueilev 6 Kousrog, 0Vußokov jr.
To yap orrwuevoy nooßarov , Oxmuarizöusvov u) To Oxyuari rov Oravpod örrarar: eis yap Opsiog oBehloxos dic regovarai cmd rv XATWTÄTW UEooy Mexoi ri xepains, x eis cu xcro TO UEr&ppEVoV, & RoosaprwraL rail Mi Xeipeg rob x-Barov. "After this point, it was probably something else entirely."

as a gruesome mockery of the crucifixion of Jesus, when the Jews in the first Christian centuries, here and there a Christ^s Stenknaben crucified under torture. Cedrenus reports one such a case under Theodosius, in historiar. compend. I. p. 336. edit. Paris.: “Jovdaioi eis rov luuoy rediov x avvovvo raid ovAlaßövres, ws æcicovreg dijdey xc TV Oravoov duaovpovres, rovroy Exoeundavy Eri Evkov, avekoyres Baoavoiz. »

528

Born into a Jewish family, his father knew Jewish customs. exactly, and couldn't dare to engage in a polemical discussion. Conversations with a Jew about the customs of the Hebrews^s write, who were related to Christians, if the same didn't really exist. But now this cross shape fits. not obviously for the body of a sheep, but only for that of a human being; and I therefore find myself to the assumption is justified that the child sacrifices took place on Pasha in the old temple, after she was slaughtered, on a cross (stretched and thus placed on the grate). The

This must be compared to a Greek legend about Dionysus. which are apparently somehow related to the Pasha celebration, as indeed the ministry of this God everywhere on the ancient Jehovah's service This can be traced back to Dionysus, who was also a sun god. When the Titans After they had torn Dionysus to pieces, they hung a cauldron on him. over the fire and first cooked the limbs of the god in it, Then they stuck a roasting skewer through it and roasted it over the fire, noting that cooking the lamb is also possible: This occurs during the Jewish Passover celebration. Clemens Alex. adm. adv. gent. p. 12th ed. Col.: “Oi d Tiraves, oi xai dice-oravavres auroy (namely 709 Sicvvoov), Eußadlkoyres ra un xc dir ,o, xe, Gäu repireipoyres vrelpexov Hoycaiorowo.n Arnob. adv. gent. V: Desistimus Bacchanalia praedicare, in quibus arcana et tacenda res proditur sacratis, ut occupatus puerilibus ludicris distractus a Titanibus Liber sit, ut ab iisdem membratim sectus atque in ollulas coniectus coqueretur. “On this legend, fid founded a ceremony in the mysteries which this method of the Titans imitated. In Julius Firmicus de errore prof. rel. p. 15th ed. Wower. The sun appears speaking and offers its veneration to the heathens.

before Dionysus. Among other things, she says: "Alii crudeli morte caesum aut in olla decoquunt aut septem veribus corporis mei membra lacerata subfigunt. "Page 9. says Jul. Fir m. von the Titans: "decocta variis generibus pueri membra consumunt."The Cretans, he continues, omnia per ordinem faciunt, quae puer moriens aut fecit aut passus est. Vivum laniant dentibus taurum (Dionysus was a boy; in earlier times) The depiction has certainly been given more faithfully, and not just as a...

529

Crucifixion was an ancient form of sacrifice in the service of the sun; Hence the commandment in Deuteronomy 21:23 not to crucify anyone. to leave them hanging overnight. The sun god tolerated no such thing. a body that had begun to decompose. Michaelis in Mosaic Law V, 22. assigns to the legislator his customary Natural health considerations apply; however, the Ge offered old considerations for the sun god, which Crucifixion took place during his ministry; so did the execution.

bull, but a boy was butchered) erudeles epulas annuis commemorationibus excitantes et per, secreta sylvarum clamoribus dissonis ejulantes fingunt animi furientis insaniam, ut illud facinus non per fraudem factum, sed per insaniam crederetur, praefertur cista, in qua cor soror latent absconderat. Perhaps the rest of the legend could also lead us to a further assumptions about the customs in the old Pasha lead to, that Pallas, in fact, stole the heart of Dionysus and fschwungen habe, rod xe 79 xaodiav foll fie den Namen Pallas received it. The swinging motion is reminiscent of weaving. among the victims of the Hebrews. The heart appears to be the seat of the life, to have had a particularly important significance, since even the thrust into the side of the crucified man without a doubt He intended to meet the heart. (Rabbi Isaacus Sangarus says in the Book of Cosri, translated by Buxtorf II. p. 103: "« Totum quippe corpus rite ordinatum et dispositum est, quando refertur ad regimen cordis, quod est sedes primaria ipsius animae; quod si reseteat in cerebro, secundo illud fit mediante corde. Eademque quoque ratio est vitae divinae, sicut Joshua ait Jos. 3, 10: Deus vivat in medio vestri.) — According to Greek legend, Zeus also gave the limbs of the torn one.

Dionysus was buried with pieces for Apollo, and Apollo...
She took place in a cave on Mount Parnassus, which in turn refers to the Lade, als. Sarg Fund auf Knochen, als ihrer Inhalt, hints.

The pomegranate tree, from whose wood the roasting spit for the Pasha

The fact that sacrifices had to be made was also known to Dionysus sus holy. The women who celebrated the festival of Thesmo in Athens Those who committed phoria did not eat the pomegranate seeds because It was believed that the pomegranate tree grew from the blood drops of the deceased.
from the torn Dionysus. Clem. Alex. admon. adv.
gent. p. 12. "

34

530 of criminals was considered a victim. The cross was in

In the earliest times, probably an image of God himself; from The image of Asherah shows that it was originally made of consisted of a raw tree trunk; the cross therefore intended to be perhaps it was the first attempt that God made with Ar to depict men, as do the metal Moloch images
They had arms with which they received their victims.
men. The sun god Baal was depicted with arms, which he stretched out in the form of a cross, just like Moses on the mountain. In Numidia in the year 1833
a votive stone was found on which Baal, in Men Schengegestalt, surrounded by a halo of rays, the two it represents the shape of a cross. The inscription of the According to the Latin translation by Gese— Steines reads—nius (Scriptur. linguae Phoen. II, 197.): « Domino Baali Solari, Regi aeterno, qui exaudivit preces Hicembalis etc.»
The stone is now in the Asian Museum in Lon don and is depicted in the third part tabula 21. of the ge
They called it the writing of Gesenius. Not only from the Christians.
The veneration of the cross is written here, it will soon be found among several peoples long before Christian times the). This was also the case among the ancient Hebrews.

Socrates (hist. eccles. V, 17) recounts that in Alexandria they had once during the destruction of a Serapis temple, among others, here^s The pagans found glyphic figures of the cross. They explained that this cross signified eternal life, which the Christians eagerly seized in order to make proselytes. Cf. Rufinus, Hist. Eccles. II, 29. In India, the Followers of Sivas have been equestering their sacred bulls since ancient times. the ankh, which to this day remains the symbol for the planet Venus. The Indians also wore A cross like this on the chest. On Egyptian monuments Every priest holds such a cross in his hand. On Sidonian... Coins from the third century BC bear the Astarte. a staff in his hand that ends in a cross. At the

531

The cross shape is holy; Moses stretches out on the mountain, fine: both Arms in the shape of a cross, and this helps to victory for the Hebrews fighting below; the hanging of humans before Jehovah to the sun, of which some Examples found in the old EEE included a crucifixion;

Ehinefen means the cross ten, and perfectly "the old Hebrews marked their flocks with the cross, Greeks and Hebrews who were illiterate signed with the cross. The Mexican idols had a A cross on the forehead. One among the ruins of Palenque. "Relief preserved in Guatemala," says von Humboldt, "of Since I possess a drawing of it, it seems to me beyond doubt to posit that a symbolic figure in the form of a cross is It was an object of worship. Among the Aztec hieroglyphs...

One of the glyphs depicts the sun in its four phases.

marked by footprints and also attached to the Ge^s The shape of a cross is reminiscent of this. In Scandinavia, a sign stood as a reminder.

des. Nunenalphabets the hammer of Thor before, which the
The crosses on the Palenque relief are extremely similar.

This rune was used in pagan times to denote the u those objects to which one ascribes a certain sanctity wanted to. Cf. Critical investigations into the historical development.

Development of the geographical knowledge of the new world by Alex. v. Hum

'boldt, translated from the French by Ideler I, 544., furthermore
v. Bohlen alt. Indien p. 210.

8). Exodus 17:11: And it came to pass, as Moses had laid his hand on the earth.
+ lifted, so Israel had the upper hand, and as he wielded his fine hand

“I

“He allowed Amalek to gain the upper hand. But Moses’ hands

% t Were. difficult; then they took a stone and placed it under

J.
*..

him and he sat on it; and Aaron and Hur supported his Hands, one from this side, the other from that side, and so on.

His hands were fastened until sunset.
And Joshua struck down Amalek and his people with the blade.

of the sword.

5 According to the Hebrew expressions used in the hanging of the People before. Jehovah T are commonly used, cannot be at a constriction of the throat, but must be thought of as a cross.

to be thought of. v2 means to dislocate (Genesis 32:26) and indicates

34 *

332

It was precisely this type of sacrifice that was used,

To roast people in the shape of a cross at the summer festival.

on a violent stretching of the limbs, as occurs in the Crucifixion was the usual practice. (See: 2 Thessalonians, p. 620)

D Hiph. in palo suspendit, palo affixit, pr. luxavit membra, quia hoc supplicio membra luxabantur. At the other one

The expression Ne ift “hang” has the basic meaning, but

This one too, since it is used in the same way as 2, becomes a hand= execution by being carried out on the cross, i.e., by tying the arms to the body and show legs on a stake or on a cross; “in erucem egit, Winer in Lex. hebr. p. 1042. The Chaldean – Word for crucifying a2 (compare the Chaldean paraphrase of Joshua 8:29), which is also found in Syriac and Arabic,

In Arabic it is also called assa vit carnem, combussit, after Castell. lex. heptaglott. p. 3176. Incidentally, it is noteworthy.

worth that the punishment of crucifixion is only applied to those people= core was usually, in those who worshipped the sun, in Persians, Egyptians, Carthaginians, Seythians. Among the Greeks finds fi seldom. Win. bibl. Realw. I, 802. — Related

The hanging of prisoners on a cross is the Ge custom, the armor and weapons on a tree trunk, the One had previously. He abated, to hang up. So Aeneas in Virgil's work. XI. Book: "Ingentem quercum, 'decisis undique ramis, constituit tumulo fulgentiaque induit arma, Juven. Sat. X.: «Bellorum exuvia, truncis affixa tropaeis. " Suet. Calig. cap. 45: . *Truncatis arboribus et in modum tropaeorum 'adorhatis}, This | arrange for Minucius Felix in the Getav! P. 33. edit! Ouzel. against the pagans who gave the Orthodox the veneration of the cross To make an accusation, to the following remark: «Crucis nec colimus, nec optamus. ybs plane, which ligneos deos consecratis, cruces ligneas, ut deorum vestrorum partes; forsitan adoratis. Nam et signa ipsa et cantabra et vexilla castrorum, quid aliud, quam inauratae cruces sunt et ornatae? Tropaea vestra victoriae non tantum simplicis crucis faciem, verum et affixi hominis imitantur., Minucius. Felix finds the cross married^s ation also in paganism; P. 34: Cum. homo porrectis manibus deum pura mente veneratur, ita signo crucis aut ratio naturalis innititur aut vestra religio formatur. “

533

The trail leads back even further; the deeper one delves into the The further back in time we go from antiquity, the greater the barbarity becomes, and One cannot escape the conviction that one must move into the older sten times *s*²*ei* on the eastern hemisphere, at least in in the Semitic countries, human flesh was also eaten^s the same as in America; which Münter also concedes, when he says: Cannibalism was practiced in the most ancient times indisputably linked to the human sacrifices).» The Ge The command in Exodus 12:9 reads: You shall not eat any of it raw? and not boiled in water, but roasted over a fire. was inclined to interpret the Hebrew expression as Hungarian, "not fried » to grasp alone he refers to the meat in Natural conditions, as well as the Chaldean paraphrase and sy^s The author states that the translation of the word "verstehen" (understand) is a misleading translation. three seemingly different states in which one

He used to enjoy meat raw, boiled, and roasted.
 The first two types will be banned. Like a legislator
 This should lead to the decision to issue a decree that one
 It is not good that meat should not be eaten undercooked.
 to be foreseen; this goes without saying; if one wants to
 To fry a piece of meat will also fry it out;
 However, he will likely have had reason to enjoy it.
 to prohibit raw meat. Even into the late
 The times of Greek culture were even experienced by the Greeks themselves.
 (They ate raw, bloody meat at the Dionysus festivals):
 And this sufficiently proves that such things are all the more likely to occur in
 This happened to the Phoenicians; the Jews also ate in ancient times.
 (otherwise the meat is raw and with the blood). I suspect
 Therefore, the Passover was celebrated in this way in ancient times.
 It has become common practice to put a person on a cross before the
 1) Münster Rel. of Carth. p. 18.

) Nerudus. Targ. et Syr. vivus. Gesen, in the thesis. II, 881.

3) The evidence is presented in the following section.

) 1st Sam. 14, 32; Ez. 33, 25. ö

534

He hung up the sun, then stabbed him in the side with a lance.
 pushed in order to kill him and gain blood, in the evening (removed the body) and then took a piece of the meat Eaten raw in bites, later fried. Evidence that the Phoenix ornament and Hebrews at their sacrifices in truth human beings
 I won't mention here what they ate meat, since
 The next section will be dedicated to this point.
 This literal accusation is not true of any religious celebration.
 The Prophet's sayings are better than the customs of Passover.

Also in the prohibition: "You shall not break his leg."
 chen, » I find a reference to earlier human sacrifices 2).
 The Jews interpret this prohibition in various ways.
 Breaking their legs, they say, would have delayed them too long.
 or: one has had disputes about the ban.
 Mark wanted to prevent it, or: it was not fitting for kings, to gnaw on bones, or: breaking them would be a minor injury

They expressed appreciation for the Paschal Lamb. Christian Explanatory commentators interpret the commandment as an indication of the New Testament story. Of all these explanations The one who has the most for herself is the one who is in the “

5 It is important that Joshua see the bodies of the sacrificed five kings in the evening he was taken down from the cross: he had eaten, but could The Passover will only take place in the evening. From this, one can see that the sacrifice hangs before the god, the sun, throughout the day had to, but in the evening it was enjoyed. Even the corpse As is well known, Jesus was taken down from the cross in the evening.

2) Spencer conjectures de leg. Heb. rit. p. 397, the command, dem not to break the lamb's leg and to eat it in the house, It was directed against the Dionysian service, in which the Bacchantes eat bloody pieces of meat during their frenzied dances torn apart and devoured. Even if the Pasha with the Dionysus service connected, so is the breaking of the leg, which possibly once here and there by a Bacchante The fact that a piece was being practiced was a moment that was too insignificant. than that our Mosaic commandment is directed against this point could be. a

535

a low regard is found. For ordinary victims, the commandment was not given; there the bones were allowed to be broken will be; we will also thereby be directed towards a Ge pointed to the object of the sacrifice, which was holier than the Animal, on humans. The sacrificed one was not both the People, as destined for God; the sacrificers enjoyed just a bite of the consecrated food, to feel the to make them partakers of God and His grace. The rest was preserved unharmed and given to the god down to the last detail. Trace handed down, that's burned; that's where they belonged now. but especially the bones, which, as we have already seen elsewhere have seen those to whom God was especially holy.

The clearest indication of earlier human sacrifices is the Be The sentiment suggests that one should at least receive a portion of the Paschal lamb.

Enjoy a piece the size of an olive 9; More
 You may eat, but no less than one bite. One Such coercion would probably not have been necessary if the Pa
 Originally nothing other than a roast lamb would be. Was the Pasha originally already a lamb?
 whose enjoyment should recall a joyful event: why Doesn't this dish fill the entire meal? Could one have... not equally a larger number of goats and lambs can acquire, as those courts which the previous What made Chagiga? Would the sole consumption of lamb have been sufficient?
 meat not even more strongly to the Egyptian Pasha erin nert, as the enjoyment of a bite after a meal? Or perhaps the financial circumstances of the poor would not Provided, to indulge in lamb once a year?
 On the other hand, the rabbis prescribe that
 The Hebrews drink their four cups of wine at this feast.
 should: and if he borrows the money or his clothes would have to be moved! They say this communal enjoyment that an animal could be beneficial to national unity,

) Lund p. 997. .

536

The Jews should remember that they belonged to one tribe.
 But it was always just individual families who of a lamb, and this purpose was far more likely achieved through the communal meal in general, rather than through Distributing individual bites of meat after the meal.
 There's another reason. The Pasha is ur originally an object whose enjoyment is not appealing, it is a very special kind of meat that you can't get from the local area not because of its use or its taste, but because as the religion demands; it is the flesh of a sacrificed person Humans, and this sacred flesh differs so much very different from any other food, so much so that one, like Once the bite is enjoyed, nothing else about the mouth matters.
 may bring. Initially, in the times of ancient barbarism, it one can undoubtedly also eat the flesh of a man sacrificed to God.
 eaten, like that of the animals. The increasing

Culture abhorred the consumption of human flesh; but Religion held him captive. Finally, the time came when...
 The horrifying custom of the ancestors can only be observed at the
 The main festivals of the year were retained, and that through the
 The annual enjoyment of a single bite is sufficient for religion.
 could be. Women were not forced to become the Pasha.
 to eat, but they could participate; even these bestimes
 Mung is important. Women are excluded from it.
 Pasha not, but one forces maternal tenderness.
 not to eat from one's own child, probably because She refused to be forced in thousands of cases. Where did this come from?
 Release from work if it is nothing more than a Would it have been a piece of roast lamb? Any woman would with pleasure took part in such a meal
 Ben! The Karaites didn't let any unborn men go either! to people. In the salad of bitter herbs, which is reminiscent of supposedly meant to remind us of the bitterness of Egypt, can I can find nothing else but a means to counteract disgust to counteract what for the later Hebrew the food of the 337

“Abominations,” as the prophets say, had. The red the wine, which was passed around in a cup, was apparently intended to replace the sacrificial blood that was used in the Alterthum was enjoyed everywhere in expiatory sacrifices. We will be referred to These points are discussed in the following section, which deals with the enjoyment
 We will return to the topic of human flesh in more detail later.
 Besides the Paschal lamb, at this festival you will find the Enjoying unleavened bread. The question arises: why?
 Did the bread on Passover have to be unleavened? One has Various explanations have been given. The Mosaic books, and with them, today's Jews find the cause in the haste, with which the Hebrews left Egypt; always Is it this haste in moving out that gives rise to the re—religious customs were supposed to have been observed on Pascha: and yet
 On the other hand, it is claimed that Pharaoh not pressuring the Jews, but wanting to keep them in the country—
 len. Philo and the later thinkers find in the Sauerdough, something impure, a mass that is already beginning to pass into corruption, therefore one should choose consecrated bread.

not send. It is easy to doubt that in this approach
 The reason for the prohibition lies in the sourdough.
 not forbidden for all victims; at Pentecost it was (He offered leavened bread to Jehovah); he would have for Considered unclean, he would be kept away from all victims.
 have been held. Only later did the Easter festivities begin to take shape.
 to use sourdough to create the impression of something impure connected and gave rise to parables, like that of the yeast of the Pharisees. On the contrary.
 One could see it everywhere on the sacrifices, offering the food to God.
 to hand it over in a way that people find most palatable⁸ det; therefore, the sacrificial meat was salted, oil was poured on the sacrifices and would not even offer leavened bread to God—have contained them. The explanation that is far more compelling is that ) Win. bibl. Realw. II, 287.

* —
 —

338

one as an ancient custom from a time when one who didn't yet know the sourdough, the bread from the victim.
 I left it unleavened at the harvest festival; but it will Even with this explanation, ask why one celebrates Pentecost.
 sten, where, after the harvest is complete, the harvest festival is held Didn't they also offer unleavened bread when celebrating? — Some Passages from the second book of Moses, which are considered a remnant of preexiliation⁹
 The old commandments remained and were incorporated into the new Passover ritual.
 The elements woven into the narrative lead us down a completely different path:
 During Pasha, the sacrificial blood was supposed to replace the leaven.
 to add a sacred spice to the bread at the beginning of the new year, to give a reconciling power. We read 2 Mo. 23:18:
 "You shall not sacrifice the blood over the leaven."
 of my sacrifice, and not the fat of my feast shall stay until morning." Likewise, 2 Mo. 34:25: "You You shall not pour the blood of my victim over leaven.

ten, and not until morning should remain the victim of the Passover festival. »

The provision concerning the blood, which is included in this Given both places, f obviously refers to the Passover festival; for it immediately closes a second verse. order in which the Pasha is named will. You shall not spill the blood of my victim over Sauer. dough slaughter: » what is this supposed to mean? The blood, that is Clearly, this is combined with sourdough. sets, which is not random, but points to a ritual, after which dough and blood were combined. They helped each other.

2
—

) In our German Bibles, it is usually translated as: at the Sourdough, which obscures the meaning. In Hebrew= The text states which word in its first meaning ganz fscharf über heißt hy summitas, summus, altissimus, in alto Gen. thesaur. II, 1024). In both places the Hebrew- fche Text by.

539

so far with the translation «bei,» and asked, the place be= This only indicates that at Easter, when the Pasha was slaughtered, He was not allowed to eat or have leavened bread in the house. Al= This regulation cannot be applied generally. will be, she speaks of a slaughter of the Pa= fhaopfers over the sourdough; we raise the opened dough to it= She took off her tight, wide coat, which didn't suit her. She is as she is, and that means nothing other than: Her The blood of the Passover sacrifice should not run on leaven. Let it be. One could now assume two things; either it is the ban was only issued by the reformist party, or

 It dates back to an earlier time. In the first case, it would
 It must be assumed that it is in Solomon's Temple
 It was customary to prepare the leaven for the sacrificial bread with to be moistened with the blood of the Paschal sacrifice, and the Reformation
 They would therefore enjoy the sourdough at Easter Parties are completely forbidden. In the other case, which is true for me... more likely, the regulation would have originated from an earlier time.
 men and say: At Easter, when you share the bread with the blood
 You must not use leaven when you are wetting the Passover sacrifice.
 need the dough onto which the sacrificial blood flows must be unfired, for the blood should give it that spice to give in a higher, sacred degree, which one would otherwise only achieve through which is intended for the sourdough. After both explanations, we are left with...
 So much: the dough for the Easter bread, let it now be leavened.
 or unleavened, was in the first temple with the Blood of the Passover sacrifice mixed; and this had in the
 (The old woman had her good reason). The blood was 9 The evidence is in the next section. Most likely, they have These breads at Pasha's, which are still baked in a round shape today will represent the shape of the sun and the sun

 God himself means, from whom one can receive forgiveness of sins.
 ate. We saw above under the article Astarte that to Jeremiah's times, the Hebrew wives of the Queen of Heaven, the Monde, Brode buken. Diese Brode haben ohne Zweifel die Ge 540

The noblest physical substance, it contained the soul and was food. of the gods. By consuming this divine food, they believed had the shape of a crescent moon. In a similar way, one will They depicted the sun god in round discs made of dough.

 Herodotus tells a similar story in the aforementioned passage.
 The place of the Egyptians. There the poor baked, those who had no
 They could buy a pig, at the Dionysus festival this was called by the god.
 They made a lump of dough and sacrificed it. Also the Jewish Housewife in the time of the Second Temple and to this day throws in a

A piece of dough from the sacrificial bread into the fire. The many holes, which are inserted into the round Pascha cakes, seem to suggest the sun's rays. With this slaughter Comparing the sourdough to the other side is an important point in... Tertullian Apologia, chapter 8, where the pagans confront the Christians throw that they put the blood of a slaughtered child on bread let it run: "Infans tibi necessarius adhuc tener, qui nesciat mortem, qui sub cultro tuo rideat; item panis, quo sanguinis jurulentiam colligas." The Church Fathers point out Naturally, such accusations are met with indignation; Such things are foreign to the New Testament and its teachings; but pure inventions of malevolent demons, like the Kir The fathers of the children think they certainly won't find them. Certainly, there are some in the Orient. given to Christians who, prompted by the doctrine of the Eucharist, the 'ancient customs of Pasha, which the pagans still practiced back then They practiced a very similar way in the Mithram mysteries, in secret mimicked gatherings. — For the "over, the dough Battles are reported by Cyrillus Alexandr. contr.' Julian. IX, p. 128, ed. Paris. a parallel. There it is told, under the perforated floor above which the Gladiato where they fought, there was an image of Saturn, with an open Mouth, which was supposed to catch the blood: Hexgunro de rig dr vn Koovos, AlYois rerenueioig bro , ¶a e,, Wa To Tod rxe0oyros xaraualvoro Augow.» ∩ It comes from this point: it was also customary in the Saturn service to draw the blood of to let it flow down onto the god above, perhaps because of Saturn The god of night was the one who represented the setting sun. So, the victim was slaughtered over the dough in order to... evil underground god, the night sun, which the men to reconcile those who have left. This dough was put into the Ge The shape of the god, the sun, was formed, and it was eaten in the

_341

to give people a special consecration, with the to get closer to the gods. Therefore, one drank from the victim's blood or dipped a bite into it. When, in later times, one was advised against consuming raw blood Feeling disgusted, one came up with the idea of using a pot To arrange food around covered in blood and enjoy it. Sa

Chariah speaks of a covenant blood: "Also to you, for yours
 For the sake of the blood of the people, I release your prisoners... To Fangs, one must have drunk pure blood at the Pasha's;
 Through this rite, one renewed at the beginning of the new Year, the covenant with Jehovah and atoned for the sins of the Past; later, as elsewhere, one will only be...
 They had mixed a little blood with the wine. The Ge
 The customs during Passover in the Second Temple already show one Aversion to the consumption of blood. The bite of the unsoured... ten Brodes, which is enjoyed on Passover night, is served with please wrapped in herbs. I suspect that only the bread... bites eaten on Passover night, stained with blood made were, but also for the seven days of Pa sheep's bread for ordinary use, unleavened bread without Blood was enough. The three cakes, which nowadays

Opinion of enjoying God himself and thereby becoming holy
 gen. This also gives credence to the statement of Rabbi Hillel in Tractate Sanhedrin (Gerson Talmud. Judensch. S: 130) some Light; according to which the Hebrews will no longer receive a Messiah.
 'Should, since she had already eaten him in the days of Hezekiah'
 ten. Incidentally, it is common among the Semites and elsewhere as well.
 u lid) had been, to secure the sacrificial animal at a high altitude and from down below with the killing tools to the same thing
 hen. Virg. Aen. VI, 248: "Supponunt alii cultros, tepidum-que cruorem suscipiunt pateris." Vir g. Georg. III, 492: Ac vix suppositi tinguntur sanguine cultri summaque jejuna sanie infuscat arena etc., The sacrificial animals were also thrown down the sacrificial knives come down; Dionysus. Halic. VII, p. 478: "Oi da xirroyrog deri deoay rag Opayidagin .
 Zechariah 9:11

—

The first dish at the Passover meal should be the first one.
 The high priest, the second the Levites, the third the Jewish
 The word "people" means: here too, a distant trace of enjoyment. of the flesh of human sacrifices. The entire nation will
 It is as if sacrifices are offered to God at this festival, and one eats from the object of reconciliation, in order to partake of it to be held accountable.

So all this points to a terrible service, how he quite agrees with the atrocities committed by the Prophets will be handed over to Moloch. Jehovah will also really in all prayer formulas at Passover as “Kö”
"No one addressed me. Lord, our God, King of the world."
all the prayers that the Jewish head of the household recited, except for the (He speaks today at the Passover festival). Very clearly you know us also on the so-called Moloch, that is fire service the custom that everything that is at all from the Pasha what was left over, the remaining meat and bones from Paschal lamb, the remaining bread, the remains of the Chagiga vers had to be burned 2). The whole thing was considered a great sacrifice considered for the forgiveness of sins, for the salvation of souls Liturgy for the beginning of the year; on each of the seven days
Furthermore, a goat had to be made to forgive the sins of the people. will be slaughtered. Whoever fails to pay the Pasha... ten, “whose soul shall be exterminated from their people, because He did not offer Jehovah's sacrifice in his appointed time;
The same person bears a fine debt (s). In contrast, through the lawful celebration of Pasha! the complete renunciation
The release of some prisoners "To This" has been achieved.
fem. Feste certainly has no other reason than the Ae icht,
. that sins may be forgiven 2). |

—
“

5 Lund 995. ff. 1 717,
1) Maimon de sacrif. paschal. cap. 3. 10 bei und ©. me.
9) Numbers 9:13
) The same usage among Greeks and Romans. Win. bibl. Realwe l, 237.
It was also customary to release prisoners during the Bacchanalia.

543

But this provides very significant evidence that that people were sacrificed at the old Passover festival is the historical fact that even after the prisoner

The group still offered human sacrifices at this festival. When the
The formation of the time no longer allowed members of the family.
milie, of the same people to sacrifice to the gods, was sought to satisfy the old religious custom by doing bought strangers' children, kidnapped strangers and took them to the hospital.
fer brought. In such a way, as we know from the Ar
I saw Moloch in Carthage for a long time.
It met the gods' gruesome demands. Finally, it came to pass.
one to the point that one condemned criminals to death on saved the feast and in their execution the substitute for found the previous victims of innocent people. This type

Human sacrifice was maintained in Rome in the service of Jupiter.
Latialis lies far in the Christian era. That which was also practiced in Athens, where one participated annually in anem beftarten Tage Verbrecher im Schmucke der Opfer animals led through the streets and then from a rock
It has already been noticed that he fell. Especially be A telling example is the inhabitants of Rhodes, who formerly, at the festival of Saturn, an innocent person, later sacrificed a criminal whom they always called «uezor av Kooviav» kept 9. So it was with the ) Porphy. de abst. II, 54. Even the first ehorticulturalists were at the execution, the red clothing of the priests of Saturn was worn.

drawn. Münter Rel. d. Karth. 28. The Gauls believed that

The victims of criminals were particularly pleasing to the gods.
feyen (Caes. bell. gall. VI, 16). Like Diodorus Siculus in The fifth book reports that the Cimbri also sacrificed their people.
Breakers. They held them in prison for five years.
and then they were hanged as sacrifices with many other firstborn children at the gallows, where they erected large pyres. The Rö Christian apologists almost universally make such claims.
Victims in the service of Jupiter Latialis are accused. Minuscius Felix in the octave. P. 34: Hodie a Romanis Latialis Julater Jews even in Roman times and up to the Destruction of the Temple custom, some crimes committed at Passover (more to execute). According to our investigations so far This usage will not be explained by the fact that one it is based on Deuteronomy 17:12-13. For there it says ed: The man who would act with arrogance, that he did not obey the priest who was serving there. before Jehovah, your God, or the Judge: let it die itself. A man; and so remove the evil from Israel, and the The whole nation should hear it and be afraid, and no more. "Vermeßen feyn." At first, one doesn't know if the late Author of the fifth book of Moses at this point, where not a syllable about an execution on the holidays= It is said that the people's assemblies at the high places are really He means festivals when he says the whole people should to hear it; one would rather expect him to be in this In case it would say: "the whole people should..." but he really remembers the executions on Pasha's Day= ken, so it is not yet proven that the Oeffent= The fact that this is the true and only reason for these executions had been; the story of the new testament shows au= likely that the execution of the death sentences on Pa= She should replace a victim. Also, a school visit is still possible. dig alongside this execution of criminals, which this view is supported, even after the course of our previous investigations will by no means be so un= to the reader. will appear true and malicious, as the Jews portray them=

pter homicidio colitur, et, quod Saturni filio dignum est, mali et noxii hominis sanguine say inatur. So did Tertullian and Lactantius, who have already been cited above.

1) Tract. Sanh ed. f. 89, 1: Non interficiunt aliquem, neque in Synedrio cujuscunque urbis, neque in Synedrio Jafnensi, sed ad-ducunt illum ad Synedrium magnum Hierosolymitanum eumque Usque ad solemnem festivitatem adservant et tune durante festo inter ficiunt.

Place. The post-existing Jews were accused.
even before Christian times, that they had a stranger to be arrested, fattened the same and at Pasha sacrificed; and so we would have, besides the sacrifice of Verbre chern, the second aid, the necessary men
To fulfill the offering of ashes at Pasha's without a fellow countryman to kill: one took a stranger; how could one possibly do so?
Isaiah 43:3-4. Jehovah says to the Jews: "She is Jew."
O Lord, your God, the Holy One of Israel, is your Savior: I Give Egypt, Ethiopia, and Saba as your ransom.
Because you are valued and respected, and I love you, I give Men Sigh instead of you, and nations instead of your life.

Apidn tells in the lost book ge against the Jews, which we know from the rebuttal of Jose (Phus knows the following striking story). When the Kö
King of Syria Antiochus Epiphanus (in the year 169 BC)
(B.C.): when he plundered the temple in Jerusalem, he encountered a
A chamber in which a person lay on a bed; in front of the
There stood a table laden with various foods.
was. As soon as the prisoner saw the king, he fell.
She knelt before him, stretched out her right hand and begged, to grant him his freedom. The king commanded the man, to sit down, to tell him who he was, how he came here and with what intention. The prisoner then began to he cried and told them that he was Greek by birth and He had moved around the country for the purpose of earning a living.
lured him into the temple and into a special chamber before. closed off to every human sight. Since one could treated kindly and provided with plenty of select food
He saw that he had not initially found his captivity unpleasant;
Later, however, his situation seemed precarious to him, and it
He was overcome with great fear, which is why he rushed to the servants.

gen sey, to inform him about the intention behind his imprisonment.

) Joseph. contr. Apion. II, 8.

*

7 u

35

546

He learned from them that the Jews had a secret
They would have a quarrel, after which they would annually invite a stranger sing, fatten him up throughout the year, then put him in a led them into the forest, sacrificed there, ate his flesh and throw the rest of the body into a pit. Since the day that the day was imminent on which he was to be sacrificed, please he begged the king to deliver him from the hands of the Jews tear him apart and save his life.

Josephus's response to this report: Little say. I admit that he himself is unaware of this secret
The law knew nothing about it: a point that also applies to the newer ones.
Accusations should probably be taken into account; not all Jews
They will know about the matter; it will prove to be of the highest order.
A dangerous tradition passed on only by a few. First of all Josephus replied that this story could explain the temple robbery.
Antiochus cannot be excused; for the king is not with the intention of forcing their way into the temple to capture the prisoner to save; he had previously been properly informed of this.
We know nothing. This point doesn't concern us here. So
Then he says, why should the Jews only give the Greeks Follow up, as other foreigners also travel through Palestine ten? This does not support the example of the Greek. sideways; without doubt they took the one whom they had given a a favorable opportunity came into his hands at the right time.
He goes on to ask: how is it possible that all Jews... to gather such victims and so many tandems from one Eat the only human? But this is not claimed either.

Finally, he adds: Why did Antiochus, do not parade these people around Syria with pomp and circumstance. led to boast about his deed? This is the one
A point that deserves some commentary. A Syrian
It probably wasn't that important to the king to be in the temple.
to find a person in Jerusalem who would live up to his statement after he was destined to be a victim, that he was in his father's would have led around the country; especially since the human sacrifices were still

Pr
85
'
7 +

547

in those times, particularly in Syria and Phoenicia, quite a lot, were not unheard of. Rather, and this gives a significant meaning... The most likely testimony to the truth of this story was, according to Strabo's accounts, even at the time of this historian, although, over a century later, in those countries it was common that. Each year, some of the slaves serving in the temple are taken away: fattened up with selected foods and slaughtered the deity's (tete.). In the Mithridomysteries, the sacrifice of the Children and the consumption of human flesh to the very end Times of the Roman emperors 2). That the Syrian goddess in Hierapolis still had children in the second Christian century We have covered the sacrifices under the article Afstarte goddess. Incidentally, let me also draw attention to the curious parallel are made aware of which we have under the same Afstarte. They taught the text from Strabo. A priest runs there. the Afstarte among the Scythian people of Albania in holy Enthusiasm in the forest, is itself praised by other prizes seized the star, bound in the temple with a sacred chain and fattened for a year with selected foods, then sacrificed him by piercing him with the holy lance in the. See it after the heart. 232. . % % l % all - 7 It is striking that Josephus was among the eyes.
For very dubious reasons, it does not list the one who is from usually put the modern-day Jew in the foreground

It is said that Jews are strictly forbidden to draw blood.
to enjoy the fact that heathens are considered unclean; and one the
I will not offer an unclean sacrifice to Jehovah; the latter point
He would, of course, have preferred to conceal this in a document which was intended to instill in the heathens the aversion to the Jew to behave. I take the opportunity to respond to this.
To address the concerns of today's Jews in a few words Visible. We've already discussed the blood above.

y) bread. Movers Pbon. p. 360. similar

2) More on that below. i To | 35*

*

.

548

discussed and will be discussed in the next section come. The blood is not unclean to the Hebrew, but a sacred object, food of the god. The
The truth is that he nowadays enjoys the pleasure of blood in Avoiding ordinary life out of fear, closes off the possibility
It is not out of the question that blood was consumed during sacred ceremonies.
will; precisely this avoidance of blood during daily
Food gives the rare pleasure of it something extraordinary.
something from which one can expect a special effect.
Unclean creatures are certainly exempt from sacrifice to Jehovah.
not excluded. The pre-exilic Jews maintained over Do not consider non-Jews unclean. This is one Idea that only arose in the last times of the Jewish state tes from Egypt and from the reformatory
The party was used to protect the few Jews who sought refuge there.
the captivity separated from the heathens, before the Ab to preserve paganism. In the spirit of the Reformation pare Neither the consumption of blood nor the human sacrifice; what
...which continues among the Jews as a secret tradition.
inherited is a remnant of the old cult, which the reformers did not were able to devour them completely. This is also very natural. One can be a long-standing practice of sacrifice that For the most sacred things, it was not so completely abolished that It should not retain any remnant of it for a long time.

 From Moses to Cyrus, for about a year's worth of time,
 The Hebrews sacrificed people: they will be, at their Traditions of returning to the new temple after captivity not having it with them calms you down. can, that the strongest sue
 There is no need to use any new medication at all.
 Did the Jews of the Second Temple, therefore, in this respect, acted contrary to the prophets of the Reformation, that they in Breastfeeding still brought a human sacrifice every year at Passover, so they will also ignore the other innovation
 They have assumed that a stranger designated as a victim is unclean.
 Be. The ancient Hebrews had a large number of non-Jews.

®

*

.

549 sacrificed, entire tribes offered up to Jehovah consecrates: Nobody thought that Jehovah would make such sacrifices un

 I will receive it graciously. Even after the passage mentioned above.
 In Isaiah, Jehovah takes responsibility for the sins of the Hebrews.
 Foreigners as victims. However, the object offers
 This presents yet another side of the explanation. The only Animal, which the Jews still sacrifice today, the Rooster, which is slaughtered on the annual Day of Atonement, is considered unclean according to Talmudic 1) concepts; since the Jews
 The Persians distinguished between an evil and a good god.
 As they learned, their ideas about the bearing of sin; since that time it has been considered appropriate, also to blame the sins of the people on an unclean being invite and the same with these sins to the evil god zuschicken * Zune Borfielung already appears in the third book

714 2% . 4

* 2 treats. Baus Kama cap. 7 (in Lightfoot hor. Hebr. ad er 34): Non alunt gallos Hierosolymis propter sacra, nec
.igacerdotes: eos alunt. per totam terram Israeliticam."Rationem reddit Glossa, Etiam Israelitis prohibitum est . alere

.» Hierosolyimis propter. säcra " etc.

£9 On Yom Kippur, Jewish people still offer sacrifices today.

Men a rooster, women a hen, pregnant women

because of the doubtful sex of her offspring, a rooster

...and a hen! This rooster sacrifice, too, shall be a human being.

Victims represented. Kirchner (Jewish Ceremonial, p. 118) says that Jews sacrificed a rooster because Y in the Hebrew alphabet

a man in. Zalmudifchen means a rooster. She slash=

They turn the rooster around their heads three times and speak: This is instead of me; this one is in my place; this one is my replacement.

Reconciliation (Capporo). When a poor Jew, says Eisenman=

1. Geri discovered. Judenth. II, 150, cannot buy a rooster, fo

'He seeks a Christian to whom he can accuse fine sins, from which the converted Jew Ferdinand Hesse in the 7th chapter of the 2nd part is=

ner Judengeißel ais 2so writes: Which among the Jews poor are that they cannot buy a rooster, they run the Mor=

Gens set off early, until they find a Christian to whom

Give him three or four pfennigs and ask him if he can change your cap.

550

Moses emerges. The High Priest must choose between two goats, of which one to Jehovah 5 the other to whom he angels

* .

1147

. ai; 17571 1 „ 11

Porro wanted to be, that is so much said as: I should die and

I have sinned, go to hell for my forgiveness, my God.

"Repent of sins and die for me." And so they curse us, Ehri.

ften the curse: Capporo mito 'meschunng. AUIIDOFUVTDO NNDD,
That is: You must go to your death for my sin and death;
ben; they mean that the three or four pfennigs were their sin-which can be placed on the necks of Christians, who are guilty of sin to bear their burdens and atone for them and suffer for them... Likewise
The converted Victor von Carben also writes this in chapter 16 of his Jewish booklet. So reports the highly learned Mr. Johann.
Jacob Schudt. Gonrector of the Gymnasium in Frankfurt in his Compend. hist. jud. p. 553, that he himself was seen in Hamburg

“

67 A

U

I have that the Jews have done such things, which he also told me.

as told orally. — These sacrificed roosters are from

They ate the Jews, even though the sins lay upon them.
The explanation given is that this would eliminate the sins in consumed their bodies. Only their entrails raise their blood.
the roof, because sin as something internal through the Ce-remonie of the transmission to the rooster into the intestines of the
It has passed over itself. As in the time of the Temple of the Sun-
When the billy goat was sent into the desert, the ravens shall...

The guts are carried away from the roof with the sins. (Church mazine; FOR. Cerem. p. 118. Note M1) — Eisenmenger brings on

Besides the places mentioned, there are several rabbinical sites! [The text then abruptly shifts to a different topic:] ... which...

to form a commentary on Isaiah 48:4 and clearly explain that According to Jewish law, his punishment also included his death.

...that the Jews could be freed from the punishment of sin, Zus

God is merciful and gracious.
and has compassion on Ifrael / and although man sins,
So wills, but God wills not strike him himself, but lets the Curses and punishments come upon others so that his children to be reconciled... In the Parashah: Nizzavim deffelben Bücher

"stands as a commentary on the words of Isaiah: Therefore I want

“I will give men in your place and nations for your soul, that the Nabbins teach that one should not read Adam, humans,
but Edom, Edomites, which is the name given to Christians.
From the person who finds what he is, if he repents, God will take 551

or Goddess Azazel) belonged to, cast the lot, the one Sacrifice the goat to Jehovah, the others on whom he the
He transfers the sins of the people to Azazel. In the 16th century...
Chapter 7 of the third book of Moses is supposedly attributed to Aaron was given the order: He should take two goats and set them up.
They stood before Jehovah before the door of the meeting tent. And Aaron cast lots for the two goats, a lot for Jehovah and a lot for Azazel. And Aaron, bring the goat, on which the lot for Jehovah was revealed, and op=

He offered him as a sin offering. And the goat on which the Loos, who came out for Azazel, is to be brought alive before Jehovah.

to be appointed, to reconcile him and to release him for Azazel into the desert.= So there is now an evil god, to whom the sins of the people were atoned for on a holy ground

sends animals; thereby Jehovah is also reconciled;

The goat is presented to him to show that one...

the sin and place it on a man from the seed of Edom.

In the Parashah Vajikra of the same book Zeror hammor it says:

"When the holy God averts judgment from a person"

det, so s=es er, according to the nature of the court, an another

People from Edom's lineage to the place where the primordial...

Partly, instead of that, is fulfilled... In the Book of Shekechath leket and in Jaleut Shimoni it means: The holy God takes all the sins of Israel and laid them on the godless Esau (the Christians)Q. In Yakut Chadasch fol. 19: "Because the Israelites

If they are found, the nations will be punished. Rabbi Yehoshah,

Levi's son said: If the nations knew that they had been beaten

If the Israelites sin, they would become like any other.

to post two guards for the Israelite to keep him away from sinning=

Hold on. In the Machzor, the Jews pray: Call for freedom!

out, as in ancient times, to free ourselves with it, and give the

Many peoples in our place; let them bear the misfortune, which is prepared to come upon us. The peoples of the world

They are to be struck with plague to destroy the Israelites. Capporo,

To blow-dry. »

"Muy

"%. os

552

Having incurred sins, he was henceforth to be pure.

It does not concern us here that the post-exilic reforms

Motorists, indeed the Moloch, whose service they found so offensive.

was, to make the evil god and fine valley Hinnom (Ge= henna of the new testament) to hell: but that is for

It is important to us that a creature which belongs to the evil god consecrates, therefore becomes unclean, and bears the sins of the people. can and must take. That this idea of the after- the exiled Hebrews were also extended to non-Jews, Our detailed note just added will be referred to- have sufficiently justified their reasoning. a

Let us now turn to another piece of evidence that this Pasha was originally celebrated with human sacrifices. sey. Even the information provided so far about the nature of this celebration will lead the reader to more frequent comparisons with the neutesta- have given cause to mental history; we who these striking relationships for a few moments must devote our exclusive attention.

As is well known, Jesus died on the cross at Passover. suffered. The idea that Jewish people also believe that This death was a sacrifice for the sins of the people. It should not be concealed in the new testament. "One of them," It says in John 11:49. Caiaphas, who in that same year The high priest was, "spoke to them (to the assembled Synedrium): You understand nothing, too. You do not consider, that it is better for us that one person for the people (die and not the whole people perish). Sol- "But he said," the narrator adds, "not of to him personally, but since he was high priest in that same year He prophesied that Jesus would die for the people, »

I have noticed that since the founding of the new Temple after the Babylonian captivity of the people-

2 Tuzis ou oidare oddir, One Bunkoyiseode, place 6 vupegse july; va lg aydowros arodayn vv roō Aaov ; xc, at 6Aoy ro E g Ge, victims were generally abolished, but that, as deut- Traces of a secret tradition were passed down, which required that once a year, at Passover, to Atonement for the sins of the people: May human blood flow. For This assertion is now also supported by the present source.

555

 very clear proof. It is provided by the high priests.
 a meeting was called to, as the biblical narrator believes that one can have any advice at all about Jesus of Nazareth, probably, however, already with the intention of overturning his death sentence.
 to bring about and the fulfillment of the same on Passover—lead. When the advisors chose one or the other Mei-
 When the nung is handed over, the high priest Caiaphas intervenes.
 and, through the above remark, gives the negotiations the
 The turn of events he desired. He, as High Priest, was in Possessing the secret, he probably knew that at the Easter festival a person had to die, and considered the pious Jesus to be especially adept at making a powerful atonement for the people to give, to make Jehovah highly favorable and so on. to hasten the arrival of the Messiah 1), It is

5 It probably had an effect. Another tradition took hold. The Jews
 They believed, and still believe, in a double messiah.
 The first shall be a son of Joseph and atone for the sins of the
 The people will be killed. The other, who scattered the Israelites were gathered and the Jewish world empire was founded, is a son of David. It is said (according to Eisenmenger, discovered Jud.) II. 720.) in the book Menorath hamaor fol. 81: They also have Our rabbis said that another king, who was not of the seed of David shall be, before the same (the actual-(chen Messiahs) will come and be killed, which they they called Medsias, the son of Joseph, just as we in the (Talmudic) treatise Succa in the chapter Hachalil Read fol. 52: When he (the second Messiah) sees that the Messiah, the son of Joseph, will be killed, so he will to speak to him (to Jehovah): I desire nothing from you.
 deres, als das Leben., In dem Buche Schene luchoth habberith Folio 242 states: "First, the Messiah, the son of Joseph, will be born, and after that Messiah, the son of David, came; and when,

AI

★

It is significant that the High Priest himself made the point regarding Language conveys the idea that a person must die; it allows us to understand that a person must die.

They also expect him to be the first to discover the secret of The necessity of a human sacrifice on Passover is fully established. He had been initiated. One cannot assume, however, then the House of Joseph will put that right again, which they through the division of the kingdom of the House Da have corrupted Vid's. For Messiah, the son of Joseph, will not come for its own purposes, but because of the Mef Sias, the son of David, will appear; for he will. to give himself up and pour out his soul into death and be Blood will corrupt the people of God... — It is too wicked dern, that this tradition, which at Eisenmenger is associated with various It has been further proven in recent times that this is not the case in certain locations.

the explanation of the New Testament story was used.

That they first came from Christianity to Judaism men sey, will be those who express the hatred of the rabbis against They knew everything Christian, not just the Christians. So they believed it First become a Messiah from the kingdom of Israel or Ephraim appear; this is understood to mean the son of Joseph, who is also called the son of Ephraim (Issa II. 723); since the kingdom Israel, the tribes of Manasseh and Ephraim, whose origin derived from Joseph, understood within itself. This Messiah is to die ben and through his blood first atonement for the former the apostasy of the Israelites from the kingdom of Judah, but also for the sins of the Jews in general; such a subordinate The proud Jews assigned a role to the Israelites. Is If the people are persuaded, then the second Messiah will come, who will destroy the world The kingdom was founded from Judah, from the line of David. Now it was , as is well known, Jesus of Nazareth was not from Judah, but from = the ancient Israelite territory, upon which the inhabitants of Judah even back then they looked down with pride, although the ancient Israelites even never returned from Babylonian captivity were; hence this statement: what good can come from Nazareth?

come? Shouldn't the high priest in this [place] be [there] of a Parts of the people declared Jesus from Israel to be the Messiah. found that Messiah, son of Joseph, who was responsible for the Polk must die to allow the arrival of the Messiah, of David's son, to mediate?

555

that in the Gospel of John the speech of Caiaphas is quoted verbatim will be rendered correctly; however, the words "You know" will be rendered differently.
Nothing is "at least correct in its meaning".

and in the mouth of the High Priest means about this much ten, as if you knew as well as I do, that death that the actions of a person are now necessary for the good of the people,

If you only knew what hopes for the happiness of the Nation, for the arrival of the Messiah from the death of this Ga-Lilacs bloom; so you would agree with me that

His execution must be carried out. It will be in The site does not conceal the frequently recurring view, that the entire nation was guilty of death, that they were at Passover is actually every Hebrew offering an sacrifice for his sins.
must give, as is still the case today on the Day of Atonement, every Jude explicitly remarked during the sacrifice of the rooster that he that this animal should die instead of him. It is better that

One. Man dies for the people, says the high priest, and not that the entire nation perishes: This cannot happen which means: if the vicarious atonement is not
If it is brought, Jehovah will take vengeance on the entire people.

The intention is to relate the statement to the Romans and claiming the high priest meant to say: If we
If they do not kill this man, he will incite a revolt.

Gen and the Romans will take revenge on our entire people.
take. Such a preventive procedure alone is certainly / not in the spirit of the Jews of that time; they would have
They would rather see the country in revolt sooner rather than later.
against! the hated Romans; Jesus had also seen had so far aroused so little suspicion from Pilate, that the latter would satisfy the Jews' desire to execute him
It was even strange. Pilate in general was the
Not a man, who only through the synedrium to dangerous

Persons 3 will be added *). Finally now

1 24 er
u 8 . H

D Bergl. PR de bell. Jew. II, 9.

556 .

but the dying is still visible to the people.
probably the idea of an atonement sacrifice, rather than the Relationship to the Romans a further indentation ver-served.
From the same egg onwards, it continues, "ready They fought to kill him; it was decided to kill him as to offer Passover sacrifices, and one now had to observe the initiationtong meet, since the Jews do not dictate the death penalty and were allowed to carry out, on the innocent one a in the eyes to bring about a capital crime against the Roman governor-Two prisoners were already on the Pasha-a week reserved for execution; but of the death of this
Those who were innocent were held to special expectations. I know.
I don't know if this view has already been expressed and discussed anywhere.
is founded; but it seems to me that the assumption that a mere hatred of the Jewish elite, especially the Phari-Saxon party, which brought about the death of Jesus, wanted not enough. Jesus was to the Jewish priests and The dangerous man doesn't even attempt to do what one would expect.
is inclined to believe; the fine party is still there at the time of its death.
utterly insignificant; his teaching was not an innovation, but rather primarily taken from the prophet Isaiah, it was based on a careful selection of the more excellent passages of the old testament; in the rejection of the external ceremonies
The sect of the Essenes, who even had no bloody sacrifice, went brought, much further, how this party actually went the principles of integrity and charity, of Struggle against: the world or sensual mortification, as Preparation for an afterlife, still in sharp focus-practiced a higher degree than the first Christians. Because of such Teachings, even if they involve disregarding the external

As for the ritual, which the Pharisees might not have found agreeable, Jesus would not have been put to death; for they were Such fighting was already familiar from the Essenes,
He also had many issues with the external exercises.

537

Prophets against themselves, and what the bitter language, that Scourges through the speech that the Pharisees had
They can be offensive, but there are only a few sources that support this.
Thus, prophetic prestige depended on such a manner of speaking.
off, to which one likewise through all the prophets was customary. Furthermore, there was envy because Jesus claimed to be the Messiah.
who wanted to do it will also find it difficult to find the reason.
sen sien; for the Jews were also aware of the behavior of others,
of completely insignificant people in messianic efficacy
Welcome; back then, every trace of a messiah was seized upon.
with both hands.

I suspect that among the higher ranks of the priesthood
Regarding the death of Jesus, there was a twofold intention. Firstly, was it the old Paschal sacrifice, which was made through the death of a Pious people should be treated in a special way.
Then, however, it was believed that through the bringing about of the cross cestodes Jesus, to help with the fulfillment of a tradition come, from which the appearance of the Messiah and the
The beginning of the Jewish world empire depended on it. As in the so As demonstrated in the preceding note, the Jews believe in a double appearance of a Messiah.
The first should be from the kingdom of Israel, for the sins of the
The people suffer death and thereby also the punishment to atone for the Israelites' apostasy from the Kingdom of Judah.
This messiah will soon be (as in the new testament) as a second Elijah was thought to be, which prophet to the Jews would give them the blessing.
The most important person in the kingdom of Israel was soon called the Messiah, the son of Joseph, because the descendants of Joseph's sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, the main one formed the last part of the kingdom of Israel. He is the Precursor of the actual Messiah. As well as he for the Sun
When the people have suffered death, the Messiah emerges.

the House of David, from the kingdom of Judah, which the founds a great world empire. Since Jesus, who truly Joseph's son is called, from Galilee, the ancient Greek.

358

He was in the area because he appeared peaceful and preached humility; so Jewish theologians might well have come to the conclusion that he May that peaceful Israel, destined to suffer for the people, be it a peaceful Israel.
liturgical messiahs; the priests who hold the threads of the process
Those who led, acted according to this view, "they might also be part-Even if some doubt, no one will have been against it.
that the procedure should be carried out according to tradition;
Because, even if Jesus were not this Messiah, death
A pious man is always of use to the people.
It would have to be. The Pharisees, indeed the Jews in general, are following up.
the new testament in such a way that one can believe must have said that they had very doubtful that Jesus that the promised Messiah from Israel really was, 'they would have but the person of this man, who does bear some resemblance with that of the tradition, wanted to forcibly impose, to designate Jehovah to be the Messiah from the House of Da-Sending videos... The manner of sacrificial death is based on ancient traditions.
Crucifixion was used in the service of the sun god.
The lance thrust is not performed with the intention of making a test.
to ascertain whether the sufferer is still alive, but is ver-occasion to comply with the old sacrificial tradition; the legs
They are not broken because the victim is not mutilated.
was allowed to be; the body must be removed in the evening.
will be, just as Joshua did there with those lifted from the sun. a nige only stays on the cross until evening. b

If one were to object that this view is contradicted, that the Jews did not consider the crucified Jesus to be a Mass-sias from Sfrael acknowledged; so it must be replied that the Image of a suffering Messiah, son of Joseph.
It was not a general popular belief, but a doctrine of Jewish theology, which was neither all-
It was not widely known, nor did it find recognition. The new
The Testament refers to this belief as a claim.
the scribes), and the behavior of the people. (among the)

1) Matt. 17, 10; Marc. 9, 11. .

559

repeated attempts by individuals to attain messianic dignity to attribute to shows that the Hebrew in general is concerned with It was not to do with a suffering messiah that he should lose his hope. rather, they are looking towards the promised powerful king. directed to the house of David. But to the disciples of Jesus He certainly has the idea of a suffering messiah. She works to find this promised one in her teacher. They would not engage in such a harsh confrontation with the Jews either. They would have come to an end in opposition if they hadn't both had different ideas. transferred to their teacher or for his glorification in John the Baptist, that forerunner), in Jesus the found the actual Messiah from the House of David. There= with. they fulfilled the hottest hopes of the Jews, who had a powerful savior from Roman rule, the founder of a Jewish world empire expected, on the sentiment-most graciously. Incidentally, it is also in the new Testament Everywhere Jesus is not only seen as a sacrifice for the sins of the not understood as people, but his death at Passover will also very much in relation to the Paschal Lamb= He is everywhere the innocent, spotless Lamb of God, which bears the sin of the world 2). "Our Passover too,= (Paul says) Christ was slain for us. It is well known, like all Christian theology from the churches= fathers up to the middle of the last century in their typology endeavored to compare Jesus with to extend the Paschal Lamb into even the smallest relationships= 3 *

9 Moth. 11, 13, 14; Mattb. 17, 12, 13.

2) John 1, 29, 36; 1 Peter 1, 9.) 1 Cor. 5, 7.

Even roasting finds a fine point of comparison in the The love of God, in which Christ is roasted. Vogt Miscellany.

bible P. 50: Ratio mystica, cur ex agno paschali crudum quic-

quam non debuerit comedi, sed assum igne, haec est: quia Christ, agnus ille dei amoris igne assandus erat in Eruce! Hine Christianorum coetus eum B. Luthero pie

560

But let's turn to the last of the above-mentioned
Evidence that the old Pasha celebration involved human sacrifice
It has been committed. Even to this day.
Among Jews, there are customs associated with Passover that are linked to the old sun and fire service and the associated human sacrifices are in the most accurate relationship.

At the Passover festival, all utensils must be cleaned by fire.
will be. Metal equipment that spreads the fire
Those carrying items will be left in the fire until they are glowing hot; others Harnesses that cannot withstand fire are immersed in a kettle full of boiling water, which was placed over a fire hangs. Tables and chairs are cleaned by... a glowing iron or heated stones with grasps with pliers, holds over the objects, and water pours it over. It is this in the literal sense.
a purification by fire, a baptism by fire, of which (we have spoken more often). In every heap, men seek Boys and girls, burning wax candles in their hands, in The whole house is looking for sourdough. We saw upstairs, that in Heliopolis in Egypt, instead of the three men, which were formerly sacrificed, three wax candles daily burned. These three burning candles also represent a very... depicting a sacrifice to the fire god; the flame, which God consumes the candle, and it will be given to him in this way.
a lasting pleasure is granted. I believe that also the candles in the hands of the Jews at Passover initially to represent the true victim of the person who wore it should; probably all firstborn children originally had to They carry such candles, since according to the law they actually should.
ten are to be sacrificed. When the women are baking the Passover bread, the dough. Divide into cakes } must fi ie a canit: Here is the true Easter lamb of which God has commanded,

That was probably roasted in passionate love on the cross.

- 2 So Isaiah was also cleansed from sin by the fact that a seraph
Hold a red-hot stone to delicate lips. Isaiah 6:6.

561

Cut off a piece of it, about the size of an egg, and with to throw a blessing into the fire: which in turn...
The old victims were remembered. The remains of grain that were found and sourdough are left to stand in the open air overnight

hangs and in the morning by a boy under the open sky

Mel burned. But what now most clearly points to the old
Human sacrifice is indicated, it is customary that all first-days Those born must fast on the first day of the feast. Apparently through the renunciation they impose upon themselves, they should [consider] the

To offer God a substitute for the life given to us. Is that what we're supposed to do?
Fasting signifies a general penance; why do only those fast?
Firstborn children? Should they take over their families' jobs?
Why don't the fathers of families fast instead?
the firstborn, who were made victims by the law
Those who were right must fast, and this commandment extends except for the youngest children; for sons under the age of thirteen ten years, for whom fasting is not yet appropriate,

The father submits to this obligation. Also in this respect Therefore, proof must be found that the Paschal Lamb, which male sex had to be, a human being victim, most likely the sacrifice of a firstborn represented. The firstborn fasted out of gratitude against Jehovah, who took the life of the sheep instead of his own.

7. Human sacrifice offered as a vow.

In our mosaic books, two types of Vows differed; those from which one could be exempted by any replacement can solve, and those that cannot be replaced

Both types can also be found on the Darbrin= their application by humans, namely a Man both from others on whom he is dependent, the to be pledged to Jehovah, as well as to oneself to Jehovah consecrate. We will first discuss the milder method, which could be dissolved, then from the indissoluble vows, which the Hebrew language refers to with the word Cherem.

36

562

It says in Leviticus 27:1: "And the Lord spoke to Moses and said: Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them: If someone makes a vow to Jehovah, then according to In your estimation, the souls belong to Jehovah. And it Be your estimate of the male figure of twenty years old up to sixty years old fifty skels of silver, after the Se= bowl of the sanctuary; and if it is a woman, let it be Your estimate is thirty skeletal; and is it from five years ago? old up to twenty years old, so be your estimate of the Twenty skeletons for the man and ten for the woman Sekel; and is it from one month to five years old, So let your valuation of the man be five skeletons of silver. and for the woman three shekels of silver; and is it

sixty years old and over, is he a man, for say Your estimate is fifteen skeletal units, and for a female person ten skeletons. And if he's too poor for your estimate,
So, place him before the priest, and the priest will assess him.
him; according to the circumstances of the one making the vow, the priest shall [pray to him].
to appreciate. — In such a way, everything that is possible can be appreciated.
Worthy, to whom Jehovah is praised, are both clean and unclean.
Animals, even houses and land, only the firstborn
No, since it is already holy to God.

It is highly likely that this regulation will contain the Priests were after money. They went through this Regulations even allow unclean animals to enter their temples cash; if a Hebrew had no ox to which he could turn in misfortune and Illness or even out of gratitude to Jehovah would have given
He could praise, but perhaps he owned a donkey, a horse.
meal; even this, though impure, was accepted;
Regarding giving, the priesthood has no say.
Time has placed obstacles in the way of believers. For us
But now the question arises: what does it mean to have a man?
To vow to Jehovah? We see from the above passage, that every age and gender makes a vow to Jehovah could be presented, and indeed, not merely minors.

563

Not just children, but also adults. The matter would be brief.
explain this, if one were to assume that among the on
To understand that promised people are slaves, in whom it
It all came down to money. You either killed the Did he pay the purchase price for them to the temple treasury or give them to the priests who then resold them or joined the never whose temple services were used. However, this is contradicted by... that the entire area was not occupied by prisoners of war or serfs, but rather people.
in general; the regulation tft quite generally on «The Sea» directed to those who are dedicated to Jehovah; also will Jehovah's children from one month to five years praised, who had already submitted a trade article with difficulty, with whose upbringing certainly did not concern the priests either ten; so that the question always remains: What do we have?

 the priests did to these vowed children when they were not resolved? Should be under the oath to Jehovah
 So much as one human being can be understood, now he is free or serf, to give to Jehovah as serfs, so that the priests could have sold him back as a slave:
 This also does not correspond to the concepts of the one making the praise.
 For it could well be conceived that a Hebrew would give his child hands it over to the priests so that it may be in the service of Jehovah.
 it would also be used as a victim; but would have a child removed from the temple, given to another Hebrew as a slave sold, to become a neighbor's servant: to a A father would hardly understand such a vow.
 to have it. But it is now further along in that position also from old, sixty-year-old people are being spoken of, and this would speak again for a swearing-in of serfs; an adult A free Hebrew, one must think, would not have been from one of them whose can be praised; here only serfs can be mentioned.
 the speech be or of a voluntary, personal vow his person.

The position will most likely be explained as follows:

36 *

564

let. The biblical author understands his solution to People in general. The Hebrew could give his child, to his Sellavians, to vow themselves to Jehovah; all these Such cases did occur; indeed, it seems, following the example of Jephthah, that and a passage from the story of Moses, where the latter the Hebrews exhorts us today to go to Jehovah with full hands, with to come to their sons or brothers, that in this Be the violence of the family elders went very far; that the father also an adult child, the older one a young one
 He could vow to his brother. (These to the one who was pledged to Jehovah)
 were in exactly the same relationship as the Hiero Dulen at the Phoenician temples. They belonged to the god on, were his property, had to, as long as the priest
 The group liked performing the lower services in the temple.

but destined from the outset to be sacrificed to God; so where a human sacrifice was often to be made, was in Er~~st~~. Lacking another human, a hierodule was sacrificed. In the case of small children who were pledged to Jehovah, this occurred. Certainly, if no solution was found, the victim would die on the spot; because with the raising of infants, the price has changed~~er~~. The partnership was certainly not submitted. The resolution did not occur. both with the intention of moving from that lower temple service to free; rather, it should be a purchase of life; for sacrificial death was the true determination of the Hie~~re~~ rodulen. This can be seen from the passage Leviticus 27:29. which are of the holier kind of vows, of the Cherem, It is said that no person who is praised as a cherem is involved. There, it can be solved; he must die. Through this

9) They are called 59 (God) Given; in Joseph. antiqu. XI,

5.1. ledooio, Joshua makes subjugated foreigners into, Joshua. 11, 23, 27. In the 68th Palm, verse 19, it says of Jehovah: You You ascend to the high seat, lead prisoners, receive gifts Gl. Menschen und die Empdrer auch sollen wohnen bei Bus .

565

The bid will be the permitted solution in the milder form of Vows appear to be a way of buying one's way out of sacrificial death designated.

It is very likely that permission for a solution is a later establishment; one can therefore believe all the less, The Hebrew, during the oath-taking of a person in the The solution was already in mind, and it was rare. It came to a real sacrifice. The value of the Ge~~st~~ Love is lost when human life is replaced by money can be bought off; if one knows the latter beforehand, it is called, dedicate his son or himself to Jehovah, no more, deliver 50 skeletons to the temple treasury: This, however, is a (very insignificant offering) for the offering of life or even just for a lifetime of low-level service in the Temple. The ease of the solution clearly shows that a later time this institution was affected, which was about people.

 There was no more sacrifice to be made; however, I believe that already Before his imprisonment, this milder practice was in effect.
 But even in a time when this solution was allowed to take place, the Hebrew in important situations of his life did not participate reassured, but the sworn sacrifice was actually carried out.
 have; for he must feel that money in the eyes Jehovah's sacrificial death cannot be replaced. It is clear to us in This relationship is evidenced by a most peculiar example in the 116th book of the Palm.
 remaining, which at the same time certifies a case, in which to vow to sacrifice a relative to family fathers
 They used to do this, namely in cases of serious illness. It was believed that to be able to buy one's own life with the life of another nen; even the Gauls had the opinion that it was a difficult er
 The sick could only be saved through a human sacrifice, the offering of a (other lives, save from death). The psalm may apply here

) One Sekel is 7 Groschen. Conv. M. Winer's bibl. Realw. II. 520.
) Caes. bark. gall. VI, 16: Qui affecti gravioribus morbis quique in proeliis periculisque versantur, aut pro victimis homines immolant aut se immolatuos vovent, administrisque ad ea

366

follow completely; he does not speak of the human sacrifice.
 literally, he wouldn't have thought of us otherwise, but but clear enough to understand the author.

I am happy, says someone suffering from a serious illness.
 recovered Hebrew, "that Jehovah may hear my voice, my Supplication; for he inclined his ear to me all my life.
 I will call him. The ropes of death surrounded me.
 The torments of the underworld befell me, distress and pain.
 But I called on Jehovah's name: O Jehovah, save my Soul! Jehovah is gracious and righteous, and our God.
 merciful. Jehovah protects the simple; I was wretched.
 And he helped me. Return, O soul, to your rest; for Jehovah, do you good! For you saved my soul from Death, my eye from weeping, my foot from the fall. I

I will walk before Jehovah in the land of the living.
I confided in them, even when I spoke: I must suffer much! I
In my dismay, I thought: All people are deceived.
How shall I repay Jehovah for all his blessings against Me? I will raise the cup of salvation and I will call on Jehovah's name; I will make my vows to Jehovah.

to fulfill before the eyes of all his people.
Precious in Jehovah's eyes is the death of the virtuous.
Men. O hear me, O Jehovah; for I am your servant, I am
The son of your servant, you who freed my bonds; to you I will
I will offer sacrifices of thanksgiving and call upon Jehovah's name;
I will fulfill my vows to Jehovah in the presence of his all the people, in the courts of the house of Jehovah, in
"In your midst, Jerusalem! Praise God!"

The author clearly states that he is suffering from a severe illness.
was succumbing to his illness and his illness was extinguished.
doubted; human help was in vain, all people

—

sacra Druidibus ufuntur, quod pro vita hominis, nisi vita ho-minis reddatur, non posse deorum immortalium numen placari arbitrariness.

567

“Little baptism,” he said. In this distress, he made a vow and Indeed, as is literally stated, the vow of a Sacrifice. A sheep, a cow, as is sacrificed daily.

What was, is not an object upon whose presentation a with The Hebrews struggling for death would have had a special sorrow can be set; animal sacrifices are not even possible except for the not only during recovery, but already in the course of the
They themselves offered up their illness to seek Jehovah's help.
to acquire. Here it is a valuable object, to whose Sacrifice is understood only in extreme need, a Ge= class whose life is dear, whom one only temporarily promised, so that he would not give him up in vain, a human being, Most likely, a child of his own. "Not a fine bru"

"That," says the 49th Psalm, "is something man can solve, he Can God not pay a ransom to ensure his continued existence for generations to come? and do not look into the pit; his life is too precious.

Purchase price!») The Psalm also gives a pretty clear indication of this.

It became known that it was difficult for the author's heart to be

To fulfill a vow. He almost wants to, now that he has recovered,

He no longer thinks about his vow; he encourages himself:

"I will fulfill my vow to Jehovah," and soon after

Once again: "I will fulfill my vow," and that is...

before the eyes of the entire people. The latter by—

The sentence points to something extraordinary. An animal sacrifice could not to draw the eyes of the people; such sacrifices were commonplace; but a human sacrifice, the sacrifice, certainly was.

of a child at a time when such victims are already rarer.

were. And not just in front of the people, but,

as has been said twice, in front of the entire Bol

The author intends to fulfill his vow; he therefore intends to to save the sacrifice of his child for a grand celebration, where

1) According to Psalm 34:23, life can be redeemed; there, Jesus redeems it.

Jehovah himself for the righteous. Jehovah redeems his servants.

Beneath and not repent, all who trust in him.

568

all the Hebrews are gathered in Jerusalem, and before their Eyes fulfill a fine vow. "Costly is in Jehovah's

"The eyes of death of the pious," he says. This passage cannot be interpreted as if the verbalms of the Psalms counted among the pious and said

should be so that God might keep the pious alive;

because then it would apparently have to read: «Kostbar ist in Jeho-va's eyes the life of fine, pious people); but here it is Quite the opposite was said: Death is precious.

Pious. Precious means much as highly regarded.

"of significant influence 2)," and among the pious - or «Saints» 3) one will most likely find the understand the firstborn who were sanctified to Jehovah; so that the author therefore wants to say: "Highly esteemed by Jehovah is when you give him a firstborn who gives him which is already sanctified according to ancient law, brings it to sacrifice.

In the present instance, the victim is taken out postponed until Jehovah gave proof that he had given the The wishes of the one making the vow correspond; Jephthah also sacrifices the promised daughter only after the victory has been won. In other cases, the sacrifice was brought beforehand, in order to force God, so to speak, to comply with the desire to correspond. We know of no such thing from the Hebrews themselves. such an example; however, a case which immediately shows It should be handled that they also provide such a forced victim with protection. truly an extraordinary, compelling influence on Those who trusted Jehovah will consequently have brought such things themselves.

In critical situations for the state, during drought, famine

) This is what it says Pf. 49, 9: DVD: 112 N), pretiosa est redemptio vitae eorum. In our place, however. 2 72, pretiosa

est mors. a ) N in the first sense means gravis fuit. Gesen. thes. II, 620.

9 Ton pius, sanctus.

509

noth, in difficult wars the kings and nobles had the obligation to sacrifice one of their sons to make God inclined and, as it were, to compel the people to free oneself from misfortune. This practice was introduced by the Speak to the most ancient times, to the god Saturn himself back; this too should be in great danger of war *) fine They had sacrificed their only son. A meeting was held. and decided by vote 2), which sons were to be sacrificed should be; full of such examples, it says at Eusebius), is the Phoenician story which Sanchuniathon wrote it. He also tells such an example. the Old Testament 2 Kings 3 After the death of the Israelite The Moabite king Mesa refused the king's table, Ahab. to Ahab's son, Joram, the tribute of wool, which he had previously had to deliver to the Kingdom of Israel. In Verse Agreement with the kings of Judah and Edom now drew Joram into the land of the Moabites, everything devastating, blocked all sources, had all fruit trees cut down, the fields with He threw stones and destroyed all the cities except Kir-Hareseth. King Mesa was imprisoned here; a verse The king's attempt to fight his way through with seven hundred men. The attempt failed. In this desperate situation, he "took his" a firstborn son, who was to become king, on his Instead, he sacrificed him as a burnt offering on the wall. And "There was great anger," it continues, "against Israel." and they left him and returned to the country. This passage proves a great deal. Mesha sacrifices his son. not on the ordinary altar, in the temple, but on the city wall, apparently so that the besieging armies to witness the sacrifice. He was therefore present at the sacrifice.

570

The son had a twofold intention: first, to bring God to to force help, then to show the enemies that he here I bring a sacrifice, to which the divine aid will come to him. He could no longer escape it. Of course, he had to face it. to expose the besiegers to such a sacrifice of the ascribe the same power to the firstborn son as he does; otherwise had he not performed the sacrifice on the wall, but Down in the city, on the ordinary altar. Now But find the besiegers Jews and Israelites; besides They too, of course, Edomites, but it will not be said want, Mefa had calculated the impression solely on the latter; because of the withdrawal of these who were then liable to pay interest to the Jews Edomites, if one had allowed such a thing differently, would not have helped the king. Israelites and Jews the parts also in relation to the effect of the sacrifice of a The firstborn fully embrace the conviction of the Moabites.

The success is also extraordinary. Although the train to a favorable prophecy of Jehovah through the prophet (Ben Eliza) was undertaken, although the whole country already in the hands of the Hebrews, yet the besieged armies quickly withdrew in response to this sacrifice. The king, who led the Jewish army to the city, was weak enough to feel helped by the explanation—len, the Hebrews had lifted the siege of the city—Ben out of abhorrence for the sacrificial act of the Mesha! The sensitive Hebrews! Sacrificing their entire history They sacrificed the prisoners of war with their wives and children. House, their own firstborn, have just now the whole Land of the Moabites in the most barbaric way, according to the (Prophecy of Jehovah), devastated: as if, but see how a person is sacrificed on the Moabit city wall, Does this make such a disgusting impression on her delicate sensibilities? Lending hearts, that they give up all the advantages they have gained, and move back home, yes, they even forget that

1) 2nd King. 3, 18.”) 2 Kings 3, 19.

s7i

the according to our Mosaic law for the extermination of the idolaters are obligated to serve! — Should one further object, It was idolatry that existed in Judah and Israel at that time. It was predominant, one could not conclude from this point— I would like to see similar or the same ideas expressed in Jehovah's service. would have had validity; so the decisive consequence would be opposite. The king, who led the Jewish army to— He leads, is Jehoshaphat, the same one who wrote the books of the Kings and the Chronicles as a devout Jehovah's servant— (described, who also drove out the idol worshippers) and the Jehovah cult gained prominence. Jehovah himself is present at the involved in military campaigns. King Jehoshaphat wishes the end— Jehovah's saying about the coming war— men; he goes with the king of Israel and that of Edom to the prophet Elisha, from whom the three kings— (some received the following statement): “Jehovah will destroy Moab Give them into your hands, and you will strike down all fortresses. Cities and all chosen cities and all good trees

(you will cut down) and block all water sources and all Both fields are ruined with stones. It continues.
Jehovah's oracle is not one of them; it ends where the sacrifice is made-
This follows, which prompts the retreat. Verse 27, however, after-
It is said that he sacrificed his son to Mesha: And it was a great anger”) against Israel, and they withdrew from it.
and returned to the country, in other words: through
The sacrifice of his son had given Mesa the grace and

1) 1st King 22, 5-51. 2 Chr. Ch. 7 20.

2) 2 Kings 3:18

Here the Jews, with Jehovah's approval, practice this barbarity.
martial law; Deuteronomy 20:19 but Jehovah will issue the Felling of fruit trees is prohibited: further proof that Our Moses' law later is.

9) Wrath, the wrath of God. Such wrath from Jehovah also comes 2 Chronicles 29:8 concerning Judah and Jerusalem and 1 Chronicles 28:4 about Israel.

572

had attained the assistance of God to such a degree that the
He became very angry at the besieging Israelites, so
The siege had to be lifted hastily in order to avoid to be subjected to a terrible punishment from God. The God
The Moabite was Camos. Either Mesa made the sacrifice brought to Camos, whose power against Jehovah was from the Hebrews were recognized in our place; or Mesa op-He gave his son to the neighboring god Jehovah, to see him, who until-which led the hostile Hebrews so fortunately, favorably for to agree; the latter seems more likely to me, since it must have had a more significant impact on the Hebrews.
For even if Mesa had bestowed the highest honor upon the fine god of Samos,
Sacrifices were made, but for the Hebrews this would not yet be so
There would have been much to fear if only Jehovah, what he has done so far
He had proven himself more powerful than Camos. Mefa sacrificed
But his son to the Lord, so this had to be the case-

ern appear most dangerous; since the king, in being sacrificed his firstborn son and heir to the throne, to whom God rendered the highest service that he could after dama a person could prove themselves to be of a more sane nature. In any case, it remains From this passage we learn so much that even among the Hebrews, in Serving Jehovah, the sacrifice of a man for a means The goal was to avert great misfortune. Why else? — I must repeat the remark — should the Hebrews, in the middle among the Phoenician tribes and in the ongoing ensuing return with the same, to differ in so many points from these un have they differed?

Among the vows, which originally constituted a real Since human sacrifice was the subject, we must also consider that Nasiräat) count.

In the sixth chapter of the fourth book of Moses, it is said... offered: "If a man or a woman takes the vow of a

—

JN, DIOR 72; evkauevos and nyiaouevos in LXX.

973

Those who have vowed to dedicate themselves to Jehovah, so they shall of wine and strong drinks. The whole
During the time of his consecration vows, no knife-maker shall lay upon his head.
come; until the days are fulfilled which he dedicated to Jehovah,
May he be holy; may he freely let his hair grow.
Head. Throughout his consecration he has dedicated himself to Jehovah.
holy. When the days of his consecration are complete, then one should bring him to the door of the assembly tent. And he
He offered his sacrifice to Jehovah, a year-old lamb, flawless, for the sin offering, and a ram, flawless, for Thanksgiving offering. And the consecrated one shears before the door of the his consecrated head in the assembly tent and take his consecrated hair and place it on the fire which It burns beneath the offering of thanksgiving. And the priest takes the Boiled ram's belly and an unleavened cake from the basket and an unleavened flatbread and lay Sel biges on the hands of the consecrated man after he has his Ge consecrated shearing. And the priest weaves such things as weaving.

 Before Jehovah; it is holy to the priest except the breast of the Web and except the club of the lift; and after that may the Drink consecrated wine. This is the law of the antlers.
 ten. »

It is customary to offer one's hair to the gods.
 consecrate, in the same way among Egyptians, Phoenicians and Romans Mern. Theodoret says it was the custom among the pagans to
 To let boys' hair grow and then... to dedicate to demons). In Egypt, the Ges was practiced needs to go back to Osiris, who was on a journey to Ethiopia Pien let her fine hair grow until her return 2). Lu cian reports 3), the inhabitants of Trözen in Greece
 The young men and women would not let the land pass until...
 They celebrated their wedding until she sacrificed her locks to Hippolytus.

) Theodore. quaest. in Lev. 28: avarı3eval rois daiuooı.
) Diod, Sic. 1, 18. 88.) Lucian. de dea Syr. c. 60, 574

The same custom was observed in Hierapolis in Syria. Here they sacrificed the young men, the firstborn of the beard; the boys
 "Let your hair grow from birth as something sacred."
 sen, but then let them shave off the same thing in the temple and place it in a silver or gold capsule, which one,
 Label it with the boy's name and hang it in the temple.
 In Athens, too, boys were allowed to grow their hair;
 When they entered their youth, they went to Del phi, to sacrifice her locks to Delphic Apollo).
 Nero kept his first beard in a golden, rich capsule decorated with precious stones and placed it on the Ca Pitol as a consecration gift.

I think the matter requires no further comment;
 Apparently, this sacrifice of hair is a substitute.

(a ceremony for an actual human sacrifice). The People wanted to dedicate their children to God, to sanctify them. But was one made right by worshipping on his altar? died. In order to achieve the purpose nonetheless, the God a precious part of the body, which is through the Nature has been replaced, which can also be removed without pain could solve it. The custom of individuals dedicating themselves to the gods whether they were ordained by their parents is ancient. and originally certainly resulted in actual sacrificial death had; for abstaining from wine and letting it grow The loss of hair was for the barbarity of the lower ages thumbs a far too mild and insignificant task to to find merit before God in their solution. The The consecrated person will likely distinguish themselves through certain ceremonies as a outwardly depicted as sacred, but according to a be

1) Plut. in Thes. cf. Ho m. II. XXIII, 141. ff.

2) Suet. Ner. c. 12. Cf. Martial IX, 17, 3, where the hair to the is dedicated to Aesculapius.

The sacrificial ceremony for the animals began with a little— Especially among Greeks and Romans, that their forehead hair was shaved. cut off and threw into the fire as firstfruits, Virg. Aen. VI, 246.

They really did die a sacrificial death at that time. For such consecrated individuals, the mitigation came into effect that one only "When the hair was sacrificed, this practice was extended to the Ju—" gend at all, in order to use these for the later years of a to receive special favor from the gods. Since: Even sick people used this remedy to try to recover. to regain their health, and travelers left in the Strangers, where they are in need of special divine protection— ten, their hair grows, which they then look for after a happy home They offered sacrifices to the protecting God. Among the Jews it is "It's custom," says Jo se phus, "that those who are ill have survived hardship or other distress, thirty days Live a life of devotion, abstain from wine, and shave your hair— fcheeren:» Even Samson and Samuel were Nazarenes; even The Apostle Paul made such vows on his journey, (to commend oneself to divine protection). Also from

Women are reported to have taken the vow of a Nazirite.
imposed; so by Berenize, sister of the Egyptian
King Agrippa (of the same name).

We come to the most terrible part of the Je ehova= cultus, to those indissoluble vows which one Cherem named. The word comes from DM, which both to destroy, as consecrate means *), yes that so the Jehovah knows= Then just as much. It is as if exterminating, the god his highest. Pleasure is found in consuming. The vow will also be made to the great oath 5) n It is this the most terrible

– 77

1 * 15 N

* J ssöph: de bell. Jew. II, 15: rob 7 v xatanovovusvovg

J ri everything available etc. | | | |

2) Apostl. 18, 18; Cape. 21, 24. 26. |

2) At the time of Nero, Jos. de bell. Jud. II, 15. Huf. 9, 10 speaks of such vows in the service of Baal= Peor.

) Thus, in Latin, sacer means both holy and verse.

escape; the latter meaning e.g. in “auri sacra fames Virg.,

s) Aa pd Not. 21, 5. An oath and sacrifice

576

A product of fire service, taken from the greedy

Lust, with which the fire devours itself and consumes everything= not.

The relevant law is Leviticus 27:28.

ff. very clearly pronounced; even our mosaic books=

The human sacrifices at the Cherem are still confessed to in the book.

literally committing to the killing of all who are thus of the Je= to be sworn to. It says: "All that is banished (Che=) rem), what someone dedicates to Jehovah of all that is his is, of men and cattle and of the field of his own=

thumbs: that shall not be sold or redeemed; al-
 The exile is a most holy Jehovah's. No Exile, he who is exiled from men, shall to be released; he shall be killed." That Fifth Book of Moses seeks this ancient cruelty, which is noble-training against enemies was hampered by the danger of being killed.
 Leading to idolatry to excuse, Chapter 20, 16: "In the cities of the nations, which Jehovah your God is giving you To possess, you shall not let live anything that has breath, but you should exile them, the Hittites and the Amorites, the Cananites and the Perizzites, the Hevites and the Jebusitter, just as Jehovah your God commanded you: that they not to teach you to act according to all their abominations, which They do to their gods, that you sin against Jehovah, eu-
 "Our God." This apparent excuse of the old

The war booty was also in use among the Gauls. Caesar. de bell. Gall. VI, 17: Cum proelio dimicare constitue-runt, ea, quae bello eeperunt, plerumque devoveni; quae super raverint animalia capta immolant, reliquas res in unum locum They conferred. Here too, the death penalty was imposed for violating the vow. "Multis in civitatibus," Caesar continues, harum rerum exstructos tumulos locis consecratis conspicari. licet: no-que saepe accidit, ut,, neglecta quispiam religione aut capta apud se, occultare, aut posita tollere auderet; gravissimumque ei rei supplicium cum cruciatu constitutum est.,

577

Abominations cannot be justified; the Hebrews themselves were accustomed to the idolatry with these atrocities, even to the prisoners-fchaff, they didn't annihilate the Cananites everywhere either, fonfor example, the Jebusites lived next door to them in Jerusalem.
 let. The cherem was, in fact, a more sacred kind of Vows by which one committed oneself to devote oneself to Jehovah Object, be it a living being or a thing, to sacrifice, renouncing any solution; it was an increase in the ordinary vow and was not applied not only to enemies in war, but also to domestic entities-mix, on animals and inanimate things; hence also Numbers.

18:14 Law 9: "Everything exiled in Israel shall be brought to you (namely the priests) belong," a later amendment in favor of the priesthood, according to which the cherem, when it was a useful object, no longer burned not those, but the priests. Eyes
This type of vow probably also referred to living... loose things and those that were native to Sfrael. The passage in the third book of Moses is clear. One can say from to give something to Jehovah for every property—hen, from the field «fine property, from cattle, from men fchen. It is not at all noticed that the vow The Cherem is only applicable to enemies and conquered property. Rather, the passage remains quite general and shows also by the fact that it wants to be understood generally, that it It joins the usual vows. The author The preceding verses deal with the ordinary Vows that could be fulfilled, then he goes to the increased vow, the cherem, whereby no A solution was permitted. Had such vows only been based on Regarding enemies and enemy property, this would have to be in the Ge The sentences should be noted; but it will be in the regulation concerning The cherem was no more a restrictive addition than in the case of the vows that can be dissolved, at both points e

The same is true in Ezekiel 44:29.
| 37

578

It's generally cattle and people. »

However, as far as our news is concerned, this is now...
Examples of such vows are sufficient; only transgressors of the law Laws and enemies of war, who were sacrificed to Jehovah as Cherem will be; however, this does not preclude the possibility that also un Guilty Hebrews were consecrated as cherems. He stere was only struck by this fate in a very special way and far more frequently, because less consideration was given to her life and during the The oath of the enemies also had the intention of... To win God for the granting of victory. How can...

But now, given the historical fact that the old Hebrews: Thousands of enemies sacrificed to Jehovah praised and truly sacrificed, our present-day Jews claim ten want the sacrificial blood of a non-Jew to be valid before Jehovah For unclean? The cherem was not unclean to Jehovah.
but on the contrary, holier than any other sacrifice, highly holy 9, as our passage very certainly expresses itself.

Let us now listen to some biblical passages, first in Be Meeting point of the transgression of the law. Whoever worships other gods “sacrifices, except Jehovah alone,” it says Exodus 22:20.
"They will be banished." The commandment was apparently only issued by... the reformers made it; for idolatry was centuries ago through which state cult and no one was therefore banished; on the contrary, such a punishment threatened to be far more the reformatory prophets, as people who [regarded] the old
They attacked and sought to change the national cult.
The order was never applied at all; because even after exile, where there would have been ample opportunity to remember the
No one dared to set an example for the Hellenizing Jews.
to carry it out. It goes on to say 5. Mof.
13:12: “When you hear of one of your cities which

Y nims an ovgpizmp oam-3 3rd Mof. 27, 28.

579

Jehovah, your God, gives you to live there, so that you
He says: Worthless people have come out of your center and have misled the inhabitants of their city and Spoken: Let us go and serve other gods (which you do not know): so investigate and research and ask well; and if it is true, the matter has been done correctly,
If this abomination is in your midst, you shall see its inhabitants.
to strike that same city down with the edge of the sword. And You shall gather all their loot and take it to their market.
and burn the city and all its booty with fire,
as a burnt offering to Jehovah your God; and let it be a
A heap of stones forever, it shall not be rebuilt.
And don't let anything from the virus stick to your hand.

banished, so that Jehovah might cease his wrath and May he have mercy on you, and have mercy on you and increase you,
"Just as he swore to your fathers." Here too we have again the order of exile in a matter, which were not recognized before the exile. Where is it ever a former king of the Hebrews came to mind-men, a city which, like all cities of Palestine, to the was devoted to idolatry, to which Jehovah was offered as a burnt offering. to set fire to? All of Judah and Israel would have been in one would have to transform piles of rubble if one were to create such a thing
They wanted to execute the command. So that's how it is, then.
Commandment that a transgressor of the religious precepts of the
| The Pentateuch's need to die as a cherem is "a pious wish".
4. the reformist party, which they included in their Mosaic Law

K assumed, without ever having been carried out would be. Perhaps in relation to the old service at the

The law that applied to the former Hebrews was that whoever... despise Cherem; and on this the persecution probably arose—related to the prophets; in favor of a reformed—However, such a punishment was unheard of in the Jewish Jehovah's service before the Exile was certainly not explicitly stated; for idolatry was Yes, as will be shown in sufficient detail, public 37 *

580

Religion, which, on the contrary, the reformers considered newer pursued.

In contrast, another application of the cherem was certain
It was already in use in very ancient times. It was obligatory to... to gain Jehovah's favor, to protect himself and his family through any vow and declared him to be the Cherem who broke the vow. Such a case can be found in the history of...
(Saul's story). The king commands the Israelite Armies, under penalty of excommunication, must stay away from everyone during the day.
to contain a ring: "Cursed is the man," he says, who Bread eats until evening, until I have taken revenge on my

"To enemies." Jonathan had heard this saying from his father. ters did not hear; he dipped the stick he was carrying when The army marched through a forest, dipped in honey, and ate. Now Saul asks Jehovah if he will go down during the night. God gives no one to destroy the Philistines. Answer, from which one can infer that a great sin before He has fallen. One casts lots to find the sinner. the people stand on one side, Saul and Jonathan on the other. On the other side; the lot falls to Saul and Jonathan. They both draw lots, and Jonathan is hit, who for he immediately confessed his crime with the words: ten: »I tasted with the tip of the stick in my a little honey in my hand; look, I must die, and Saul replies: You must die, Jonathan. But will The sacrifice was not carried out here; the people will not tolerate it: "But the people said to Saul, 'Jonathan shall die, for he...'" This great victory achieved in Israel? Far be it! By the life of Jehovah, where from the hair of his head one falls to the earth; for he has dealt with God in this matter. Days. And so the people redeemed Jonathan, so that he would not ftarb. »

The swearing-in of the enemies of the war as a cherem for

) 1 Samuel 14:24

581

Jehovah is likewise an ancient measure, like the old The testament shows this in many examples. They didn't even remotely think so. The ancient Hebrews associated this cherem with an extermination of idolatry; for Cherem is in many cases also the enemy's cattle and even the inanimate property: the enemy But livestock could not be responsible for a seduction with tel to idolatry are considered when the native house animals were considered for that purpose. The enemy's cherem was rather a great human sacrifice promised to Jehovah beforehand, in order to to rely on divine assistance in the impending battle to insure; a custom that certainly also extended to the neighboring areas. Phoenician tribes had). That makes the matter perfectly clear.

a passage in the fourth book of Moses, chapter 21, verse 1 ff., where it means: "And the Canaanite, king of Arad, heard it, who living towards the south, that Israel came on the way to Atharim, and he fought against Israel and captured some of them. capture. Then Israel made a vow to Jehovah and He said: "If you give this people into my hand, then I will I will banish their cities. And Jehovah heard the voice. Israel's and gave the Canaanites, and they were exiled and their cities, and the place was named Horma. After the enemy side had gained the upper hand... shows, after the Canaanite king beat the Israelites, the king had, for so much must surely mean: «he began from her: When a prisoner is being held, one resorts to a means of providing assistance. To win Jehovah's favor, the whole nation promises him to the victim. Through this impending pleasure, he feels God was spurred on to strongly support the Hebrews; Victory is won and the vow is made to Jehovah, the king fills by killing all living beings and the living— loose objects are consigned to the flames. This was followed. Depending on the degree of danger, a certain gradation in the offering of such sacrifices. Was the danger very significant?

Traces of this can be found in Amos, Amos 1:2; Chapter 2:1.

582

tend, depended on the victory a particularly important decision, the king vowed the entire enemy people with all that they possessed. Then everything that breathed became their prey. They slaughtered men, women, children, and animals. Tents and houses were set on fire, all the property was destroyed. The spoils, councils and all treasures, even gold and silver, they gathered it into a pile and lit it. The king sent as a burnt offering to Jehovah. For less important ones, in some cases, the virgins are spared, into which they have fallen. the victors then divide, or also the cattle and the food. councils. Such a sacrifice by the enemy was also a Atonement for the sins of the Hebrews. "I am Jehovah, your God," said Isaiah, "the Holy One of Israel is your Savior; I give Egypt and Ethiopia as your ransom.

and Sheba instead of you. Because you are dear in my eyes,
 If you are valued and I love you, then I give to people
 Instead of you, and nations instead of your life. "My arrows
 "I will intoxicate with their blood," it says in the fifth book.
 Moses, "and my sword devours flesh, with the blood of the Lord."
 beatings and prisoners, from the head of the princes of the Enemy. Rejoice, you tribes, his people! For the blood
 He avenges his servants and pays vengeance to his enemies.
 and cleanses with their blood the fine people DI» Also Here again is the clearest statement that the blood of non-Jews are clean before Jehovah, the sins of the Hebrews erases. Jehovah himself takes care of his people, since Human blood is indispensable, the blood of enemies, in order to atone for the sins of the Hebrews.

According to biblical accounts, there are also cases where Je

1) Isaiah 43:3-4

) 5 Mos. 32. 43. De Wette translates: reconciles his people, which The same is true. In the Hebrew text, however, it says my N 22) literally: he covers with their blood his fine people, who are destitute fine people through their blood.

583

who chose a people for the Cherem and the Hebrews calls for this people to be sacrificed to him. After (after the victory over the Amalekites, Jehovah says to Mopheus):

"Write this in the book as a reminder and command
 It was in Joshua's ears that I had forgotten the memory of Amalek.

"He will destroy under heaven." On this, Moses builds a Altar, call his name Jehovah, my banner, and says:

"The hand is on the banner of Jah; war against Jehovah!"

To Amalek, from one gender to another! = This command

This is repeated in Deuteronomy 25:19: "If Jehovah, your Lord, says to you, 'If he says to you, "You will be slain, and you ...

God, grant peace from all your enemies throughout the land, which Jehovah your God gives you to possess, so you shall

You will destroy the memory of Amalek under heaven, you
 "It should not be lost." I consider this story a Product of the Davidic era, where one deals with the Amalekites who acted so barbarically that their complete extermination was near. Jehovah commands Saul (1 Samuel 15:3):
 He went and struck Amalek and banished everything that belonged to him.
 heard, and you shall not spare, and kill so Man as woman, so child as infant, so ox as sheep,
 So, a camel as a donkey. Saul defeats the Amalekites, but lets
 The cattle were alive, which greatly angered Samuel. So then David falls into the land of the Amalekites and "lets Neither man nor woman live, and takes sheep and cattle.
 the and donkeys and camels and clothes and returns 2). »
 But the Amalekites are not yet defeated by these blows.
 Courageous, they take revenge, invade Ziklag, set the fires on fire
 City approach, women and children lead away, also two David's women, but — how human compared to that chosen people! — «they had killed no one, sondern die wegführung und waren weiterwegs).»
 David chased after them and killed them all except for four hundred.
 The young men escaped on camels. The rest

9 2. Mof. 17, 14.) 1st Sam. 27, 9.) 1st Sam. 30, 2.

584

The Amalekites were destroyed by the tribe of Simeon in those times.
 of King Hezekiah).

In the victory over the Midianites, the Cherem in such a way that the virgins were alive stay. Moses commands 2): -Kill all males under the children and all women who recognized a man while they are asleep, kill them; but kill all the children among the women, who do not know the bedtime of a man, let them also live; » The Hebrews were also allowed to use the captured metal and to keep the equipment, but both had to be either
 They can be purified by fire or water. In contrast... will be in the war against Sihon, King of Hesbon,
 "He also killed the virgins. Jehovah," says Moses (?), "gave

He brought him to us, and we struck him and his sons and his
the whole nation, and we took all its cities for the same.
Time and banished all cities, men and women and Children; we left no escapee behind; only the cattle.
we made it our prey and plundered the cities, which we took." The general law of war, which Deuteronomy 20:14 stated that only the men should be exiled.
should kill, but take women and possessions for himself make; of this war law, which is already barbaric in itself
If it is right enough, the Cananites will be excluded, «from
 "In the cities of these peoples," it says, "you shall live nothing."
Let go of what has breath, but banish them, the He-Thiters and the Amorites, the Cananites and the Peresits, the Hevites and the Jebusites. »

Under Joshua, exile was commonplace.
Regarding Jericho, it says): "The city shall be banished."
They and everything in them will be devoted to Jehovah; only Ra-Hab, the whore, shall live, she and all who were in her house.
are; for she hid the messengers whom we sent.

) 1 Chron. 5, 43.) 4. Mof. 31, 17.) Deut. 2, 33.
– Jos. 6, 17. g N uj

585

But beware of the exile, lest you be deceived.
banish and take from the banished one, and the camp
make Israel an exile and bring it to ruin get. And all the silver and all the gold and all the copper and iron utensils shall be holy to the Lord, in the May Jehovah's treasure come. And they banished everything, what was in the city, from men to women, from Boys to the old man and to cattle and sheep and Donkey with the edge of the sword. But the city—
They burned with fire, and everything in it; only that Silver, gold, copper and iron utensils
They gave it into the treasury of the house of Jehovah. And Rahab, the whore, and her father's house, and everything that belonged to her She belonged to, let Joshua live, and she dwelt among Israel until on this day, because they hid the messengers which Jehovah Sent to spy on Jericho." Before the conquest of Ai Joshua commands: "When you have taken the city, you shall

 They should be set alight with fire. According to Jehovah's word...
 You do what I commanded you to do. And it happened, when Israel strangled all the inhabitants of Ai on the Felde, in the desert, where they had chased after them, ended and all fell by the edge of the sword, until they all were destroyed: then all Israel turned against Ai and struck it with the edge of the sword. And it were all those who fell on that same day, men and women
 But twelve thousand, all the men of Ai. And Joshua went his hand, which he had stretched out with the spear, not back, until all the inhabitants of Ai had been banished. Only Israel took the cattle and booty of the city for Robbery, according to the word of Jehovah, which he commanded Joshua.
 And Joshua burned Ai and made it an eternal heap.
 of the devastation to this day. I lead no white Other examples from the Book of Joshua, enough, «so struck

) Jos. 8, 8, 24.

386

Joshua the whole land, the mountains and the south and the Lowlands and slopes and all their kings; he let
 No escapees remained; and everything that had breath,
 He banished, as Jehovah, the God of Israel, commanded.
 The horses are paralyzed, the chariots are burned 2).
 The late author of this book revels in the pre-
 The position that Joshua led a Canaanite tribe after the would have strangled others; but the Book of Judges shows, that the Cananites were far from being destroyed, rather, here and there they even gained the upper hand over the Hebrews.
 had.

From this book of judges, which is of historical record
 The truth remains more faithful than the Book of Joshua, one can see.
 It is clear that the Hebrews were not so keen on exile.
 which was to succeed brilliantly, as the Book of Joshua recounts.
 Judah took possession of the mountains, but "the inhabitants of the plain could not drive it away because it has iron chariots.

 ten 9.» The reports in this book give a clear Testimony that the Canaanite peoples were not because of their Re-
 - figion were declared by the Hebrews to be the Cherem, son-but only in the hope of proving Jehovah through such great Human sacrifices tend to remain, which also includes the
 They had the advantage that by strangling all men-sons who could be captured, the enemy, if not completely undamaged, but greatly weakened.
 Where there was no prospect of victory, one also hears of no vow of exile. Thus sharply the commandment in The Mosaic books state that all Cana-
 They should be banished because of idolatry, so
 For the Hebrews dwell in the Book of Judges without any Discontent among these tribes will destroy them.
 not only do they not, but they become related to them by marriage and They practice their religious customs. The sons of Benjamin ) Joshua 10:40 ff.) Joshua 11:9.) Judges 1:18.

587

The Jebusites were not driven out, and so the Jebusites live
 "with Benjamin's sons to this day," and Ma Wetness did not drive Beth Sean away, and the Cananites let
 They liked to live in this land. And as Sfrael
 As it grew stronger, it made the Cananites obligated to perform forced labor; but drive them out, that it did not. And Ephraim drove out the Ca-Nanites did not live in Geser, and so they lived there.
 Cananites in their midst. Zebulun did not drive out the Be-inhabitants of Kitron, and so the Cananites lived in their Middle and became subject to forced labor. Asser did not drive out the Residents of Acco and the residents of Sidon, and so The Asserites lived in the middle of the Cananites, the Be inhabitants of the country). In short, the sons of Israel lived amidst the Cananites, the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Peresitians and the Hivites and the Jebusites and near-men made their daughters wives and gave their daughters to each other.
 They served their sons and their gods. This lasts throughout the entire period of the Judges: "And the sons of Israel

continued to do what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah and served Baal, Astarte, and the gods of Syria and the gods of Sidon and the gods of Moab and the gods of the sons of Ammon and the gods of the Philistines and left Jehovah and served him not).» Even if a judge appears and zealously advocates for Jehovah, his God is no more than Baal, has his golden image, like that one). A peculiar kind of Cherem is in the Book of Judges the one that this ban is against Israelites are exercising this right. Because of an abhorrent act. The sons of Benjamin are convicted of crimes by the rest. Israelites “struck with the edge of the sword, by from people in the cities to cattle, and everything, what they found, including all the cities, they set on fire.

) Judges, Chapter 1.) Judges, 3:5.) Judges, 10:6.) Judges, 8:27.
) Directive 20, 48,

588

When the inhabitants of Jabes in Gilead did not join the People To come to Bethel for the assembly, the Sfraelites send twelve A thousand men against Jabes with the order: "Strike the Inhabitants of Jabes in Gilead with the sharpness of the sword: tes and the wives and the children. And that is what You shall do: Every male and every female which If no virgins are found, you shall banish them (Y).

It is remarkable that one hears of the Canaanites He did not hear that they had also used the cherem against the Hebrews. applied. One would think, if only for the sake of revenge. would these tribes fight against the barbaric Hebrews have observed the same procedure; but it will be discussed further Nothing was reported. Either the historians of Hebrews concealed such great defeats (a defeated (are often granted by Cananite peoples), or the Cananites preferred what was also in keeping with their nature entirely corresponds to keeping the prisoners alive and to sell. The latter will also be confirmed to them by the prophets. ten were accused. During the judicial term, where the

Cananites still live powerfully alongside and among the Israelites= ten, where the latter almost excludes the cananitic service= were devoted and had their national Jehovah by their side
 When they set out, little is heard of Cherem; with Samuel
 But the Cherem also reappears in fine, terrible form. figuratively. Jehovah commands Saul through Samuel, the the entire tribe of Amalekites, with everything that has breath, to eradicate). A new, somewhat gentler species Cherem appears among David; he lets the captives Moabites stretch themselves down on the earth and the line with Measure with a measuring cord. The prisoners in length
 Two measuring cords, running along the (Those with the third measuring cable may remain alive). In contrast...
 Will all of David's other prisoners die?

) Not. 21, 12.) 1 Sam. Chapter 15.) 2 Sam. 8, 2.

589

brought. When he conquered the ammonite city of Rabba had, "he led out the people who were in it, and He placed them under saws and under iron threshing machines and under iron axes and stuck them in ovens. And so that he in all the cities of the sons of Ammon).. Of the
 He killed only all males among the Edomites, for six months.
 Joab remained there, and so did all Israel, until he had killed every male.
 had exterminated in Edom).

With the growing culture among the kings, one hears Little more of the Cherem. However, one example from this Time is strange because it proves that even the Hebrews had that Phoenician sacrificial custom, according to which one could... sacrificing animals or people, falling from a height;
 still in Lucian's time, in the second century after Christ
 At birth, children are sacrificed to the Syrian goddess.
 will be, from the terrace of the temple in Hierapolis thrown down, as we saw above. On
 In a similar way, the Jews under their king Amaziah took
 "ten thousand of the sons of Seir, whom they captured alive, and led them to the top of the rock and threw them down from the top of the rock, so that they all broke 9. »

It also lies in the number of prisoners, according to the type of Chro—
Nik, that's a gross exaggeration: that's how it is in the plot not to doubt myself in the slightest.

Even among the prophets of the Reformation, one can still find... the cherem. In Isaiah the Edomites were said to be Cherem be destroyed; “for Jehovah, says the prophet,” “to”
He is angry with all peoples and enraged with all their host; he "Ban them, give them up to slaughter." "Up and Thresh, daughter of Zion, “says Micah), for your horn

1) 2 Samuel 12:31

2) 1 Kings 11:16. Clearly, everything, everywhere, is arrogance.
bung; because the supposedly exterminated tribes always return.
again to the appearance. Compare 1 Kings 9:21.

) 2 Chronicles 25, 12.) Jef. 34, 2.) Me. 4, 13.

—

990

I'll make yours from iron, and your claws I'll make from ore.
that you crush many nations and you put Jehovah to shame.
their plunder and their property to the Lord of all the earth » there
He also threatens the idolatrous Hebrews in chapter 5, verse 13.
with the ban. According to Jeremiah, Babylon is to become a cherem.
will be: “Devastate and exile after them,” says Jehovah, and do exactly as I commanded you. How is it to The horror of Babylon has descended upon the nations! Do not spare!
"Her young men, banish her entire army!" The victory rich battle of Nebuchadnezzar against the Egyptian king Pharaoh-Necho at Carchemis is a great thing for Jeremiah.
“Sacrifice for Jehovah: That same day,” he says, “is for the Lord.”
Jehovah of hosts, a day of vengeance, to take revenge on its enemies; and it devours the sword and satisfies himself and becomes drunk with their blood; for a sacrifice

Does the Lord, Jehovah, who “ “ in the land of the North, on the Euphrates River 2). “R

N We have a few more words about the punishment at inflict which struck the one who took the vow of Cherem—
The cherem was a vow made to Jehovah.

To consecrate something through destruction; the object that one Cherem, who had been consecrated, was also named; Diejeni were also called gen Cherem, who lost their lives by transgressing a commandment had forfeited their right to Jehovah. Thus appears the cherem of a partly as a most sacred vow, partly as punishment. We have just seen that the Hebrews received the great curse to place their hopes on the one who was present at the people's assembly in Bethel would not participate, where the crime of The Benjaminites were to be negotiated. The inhabitants of Jabes did not appear; they thereby became a cherem, were killed. The same thing happened to the one who who dedicated something to Jehovah as a cherem and his Ge—
He did not keep his vow; he himself became Cherem. He was one of the ) Jer. 50, 21; Cape. 51, 3.) Jer. 46, 10.

591

Priests dedicated an enemy people to Cherem,
Thus, he who committed a crime was guilty of death.
Saul left the prisoners alive. Saul of the Amalekian cattle; he does not have to die, though; for he was king Too powerful for the priests; but the book of Samuel establishes the main reason why Jehovah deposed Saul from the kingdom violates that violation of the Cherem. Did that extend terrible vows on the lifeless possessions of the enemies, so was it a death sentence for the individual Hebrew—break if he loses any captured item; secretly and appropriated it. The Book of Joshua tells of this.
a detailed barbaric example of this, whose story
The actual truth may, of course, be doubtful, since the late The author of the book perhaps only took the opportunity to... to set an example of the severity with which Joshua was treated he carried out the laws; for when Joshua did it on the other side which again frees the Hebrews to decide whether they believe the Canaanite God-
If he wanted to serve tern or Jehovah, he had a difficult time.

The execution of the Cherem was handled so strictly. But The narrative will at least show what happened to the Hebrews in such cases was legal. According to this report in (Book of Joshua) would have had a certain Achan something of the Booty from conquered Jericho, which was declared the Cherem was and therefore must be delivered to Jehovah's treasury had to keep 2) for himself. This has the most terrible Consequences. Jehovah explains: "Israel has sinned, they have They have broken my covenant, which I commanded them; they have taken from the exile and stole and stole it secretly and placed it among their belongings; and now they can
 The sons of Israel do not stand before their enemies; their backs
 They will return before their enemies; for they are exiled.
 I will no longer be with you if you do not destroy "The banished one from your midst." The course of the under—) Jof. Cape. 7. 9 Jof. 6, 24.

592

The search that Jehovah prescribes is, of course, quite peculiar; the criminal is to be determined by drawing lots.
 First, the tribes must step forward, and which tribe
 The one who is struck by fate is guilty; then, in turn, through The lot determines which sex of this tribe will be the who is at fault, furthermore which house of the guilty Ge bad and finally which individual from the guilty House. "Whoever is found among the exiles shall be with
 He and everything belonging to him will be burned in the fire.
 because he broke Jehovah's covenant and committed a shameful act
 "Practiced in Sfrael." The lot now fell to the tribe of Judah,
 From this came the lineage of Serah, from this came the House
 Sabdi, from this the Achan. Achan also immediately confesses:
 "Truly, I have sinned against Jehovah, the God of Israel."
 I saw a beautiful Sinarian coat among the loot.
 and two hundred sekels of silver and one bar of gold, fifty Sekel her weight, and I lusted after him and I took it; and behold, it is hidden in the earth in my tent
 The silver underneath was damaged. Then Joshua took Achan, the Serah's son, and the silver and the cloak and the Goldstange and his sons and his daughters and his Cattle and his donkeys and his sheep and his tent and Everything that belonged to him, and all Israel with him and them

 They brought them up to the valley of Achor. And Joshua said:
 How you have brought us to ruin! May you be ruined!
 Jehovah on that day! And all Israel stoned him.
 and they burned them with fire and threw stones at them.
 Stones. And they erected a large stone over him.
 heaps until this day. Then Jehovah stopped from the The embers of fine anger, »

o. The circumcision.

Finally, a Ge must also be included in the cutting process.
 The need must be found, which is the place of the sacrifice of the
 It was supposed to replace people. This is described in the biblical books.

393

this rite is presented as a sign of the covenant that Jesus Christ has made.
 I have made a pact with Abraham and his descendants.
 Jehovah speaks to Abraham): "This is my covenant, which chen ihr halten sollt zwechen mir und euch und Heinen Sa Men after you, that all males among you be circumcised will be; you shall be circumcised on the flesh of your foreskin.
 skin, and that shall be the sign of my covenant between Give me and you. All of you should be eight days old, male.
 Your hair will be cut according to your genders, the house
 born and bought with money, any of the sons
 The stranger, who is not of your seed; circumcised
 ten become your home-born and your bought-with-money;
 And so, my covenant shall be in your flesh as an everlasting covenant.
 German federal government. And an uncircumcised man who is not be cut at the flesh of his foreskin: it shall be made of
 He has destroyed that same soul from among the people; he has broken my covenant.
 broken : _

According to this commandment of circumcision, the anse
 as if this rite belonged solely to Jehovah's worship, would be a sacred custom, introduced to honor Jehovah's servants to distinguish above all other people; the matter will also taken very seriously by the legislature, anyone who Anyone who cannot be cut off shall die. But now the Egyptians, Ethiopians, Arabs, Phoenicians and Col-(here?) the circumcision too, yes, it finds itself at several American peoples. As a result, this custom is losing its popularity.

 the Hebrew national character, becomes a property
 The freedom of all those peoples who, together with the Hebrews, were around the lay around the southeastern part of the Mediterranean Sea and from there deeper into Asia and * there. I extended.

9 1. Mo 17, 10. r

Br The Colchians on the Black Sea, whose skin was black and whose hair was curly, Hexodot explains for the offspring

Liner, degrading of W * Sefyfris Herod.
 u, 104, r

38

394

Herodotus says II, 104: The Colchians, Egyptians and Aethio-Piers are the only ones among all people who have always to circumcise the genitals. The Phoenicians and the Syrians in Palestine (the Jews) admit that they are the Be-They learned cutting from the Egyptians. The Syrians on the Thermodon and the Parthenius and their neighbors, who Macaroons, they say, only recently came into this use.
 adopted by the Colchians. They are the only ones.
 Peoples who practice self-pruning; they all do so openly to the public.
 Egyptians. From the Egyptians and Ethiopians themselves
 I cannot say which part of the other the
 I have learned how to circumcise; its use is apparently very common.
 old; but that he through trade with Egypt in Auf-
 The following provides strong evidence for the name:
 all Phoenicians who have dealings with Greece, ah-men no longer follow the Egyptians in this, but let their offspring uncut).» Also from Jewish-ancient writers, such as Josephus and Philo, will introduce the custom of circumcision to those peoples. not remotely disputed; rather, they use the white further spread of this rite, in order to use it against Greeks and defend the Romans 2).

The question now arises: what is the purpose of circumcision? Reason? According to the biblical passage just cited, They have the purpose of being the external symbol of a federation to surrender, which the Hebrew had concluded with Jehovah.

) Further testimonies of the ancients in Diod. Sic. I, 28; Strabo XVII, p. 824, where there is also mention of circumcision of girls at the Egyptians the speech if. Cyril. Alexander. contr. July X, p. 354; Joseph. antiqu. I, 12, 2, where the Arabs are mentioned that they will first cut their sons off in their thirteenth year.

Philo de circumcis refers to the Egyptians, who for a of the oldest and most learned nations; Josephus antiqu. VIII, 11, 3. and contr. Apion. I, 22, 11, 13. quotes Herodotus and also mentions the Egyptians.

595

This biblical view, which certainly puts the matter correctly— grasped, even if not clearly expressed, but was Even in ancient times, Jewish scholars did not quite agree. gend. They probably didn't dare to simply disregard the same. throw; however, in a time when the highest piety= If they found naughtiness in the mortification of sensuality, it must have been for them It may seem strange that Jehovah chose his covenant sign precisely wanted it attached to that part of the body, who, in their eyes, was the most contemptible. It suited them. at least this much is established: that Jehovah, by commanding his to affix federal insignia to the male genitals, where it was not even visibly apparent, special secondary purposes he would have to, otherwise he would certainly have a more suitable part have chosen the human body. As such side effects— The purpose was now set — namely Philo in his book Regarding the circumcision — the following points should be addressed. First, the Preventing circumcision of a very painful disease, which in hot countries not infrequently took hold of these parts), fo-then be conducive to cleanliness; cleanliness of the whole body, says Philo, is particularly suitable for the priestly class; therefore, the Egyptians Priests had their hair cut short and also had their heads shaved. had to cut off; it was further claimed that the circumcision Promote reproduction. These are the reasons for the new= followed 2). However, they have something to offer; summarizes

1) It is called av3oak, the glowing coal, in German carbuncle= disease and manifests itself through bumps and ulcers on the designated parts, caused by an accumulation of uncleanness Narrowness under the foreskin, which is very easily affected in hot countries. caused ignitions.

2) Michael. mof. Recht IV. $. 186. Win. bibl. Realw. I, 184. Rabbi Maimonides (Mor. Nevoch. III, 49.) believes that through The circumcision is supposed to suppress the sex drive= len. According to the old Christian Orthodox, the Jew should then- by being reminded of original sin, which is caused by the member

38 *

.

506

But if you look closer, they are not enough. The stated advantages could be easily explained by the simple washing instructions, which the Oriental without= Given is, can be achieved; therefore, one did not need to establish by a law that a piece of skin must be removed= will be cut. The last point, promotion of the Em= Conception, which of course is not brought about by washings Experience does not confirm what could be expected; Births are not more numerous among circumcised peoples than in uncut ones. What else can you expect from a preventative measure? The accusation of self-pollution has been raised, and it can be explained... so little justification; it has even been noted that the Jewish youth are particularly prone to this vice=

ben sey. |

With far greater right one finds in the snowmaking dung a remnant of the old human sacrifices, the consecration a part of the body instead of the whole body. Already Meiners says one cannot think of any other cause for the snowmaking

“Think of it as something that can be achieved through such mutilation.”

(to reconcile the gods, to keep their envy away).
Böttiger) notes, “that circumcision, as a consecration,
The passage teaches how the real child sacrifices took the place of the actual child sacrifices.
in Eusebius 1:10 (which we will discuss shortly)
"and would have been informed by the antiquarians who studied the custom
They often devised very nonsensical derivations regarding circumcision, will be reproduced! or it should be indicated that from Jewish seed of the Messiah shall come forth! or the Gentiles have ten through this striking use in the Jewish religion

They should pay attention! Undoubtedly, says Lund (p. 844).

- "Has God, through this physical circumcision, preserved the spiritual..."
Heart-cutting pre-formed!

) Meiners de circumeisionis origine et causis in the Comment.
Soc. Gott. XIV, p. 207. ff.

2) Böttiger's ideas on the myth of art. p. 375.

—

507 would be less overlooked;» Vatke N says: «Since the

The sexual process as the main moment of divine life»

was seen and the sexual organ, such as the phallus service shows that it was considered sacred; thus, it was easy for the Imagination of a total or partial sacrifice of "tie them yourself." Movers explains the circumcision for a symbol of consecration to Saturn and for a mitigation First, the castration. One had upon entering man ability in Phoenicia and Egypt instead of castration late the foreskin was consecrated to God, thereby becoming, as it were, sanctified, as if one, like the castrato, of all sexes wanting to avoid contamination, and thus gaining a claim on the protection of Saturn.

We will explain the origin of this usage in the to come closest to Hebrews and Semites in general, if we refer to the often-mentioned basic conception of these peoples to go back to the deity. This basic idea was the sun. The sun god partly developed a be- bend, creative power, partly in the heat of the oriental— Summer's was a destructive one; he was therefore both good and evil. God, he was sensual, generative, and abiding from sensuality. Charming, yet destructive at the same time. Upon closer acquaintance with the As noted, the enemy of nature was worn in the starry sky. The principle is applied to the highest night star, Saturn. about. They wanted to dedicate themselves to God, to his Assure protection. The most complete consecration was one's own. Victims. In order not to have this happen to them, The most precious part, the reproductive member, was presented. the creative force of nature was especially sacred).

-) Vatke Rel. of the old. Test. I, 382.
- 2) The Phoenicians I, pp. 315, 362.

This again takes place in the Dionysian service. Some want it, it is said.

in Clem. Alex. admon. p. 12. ed. Col., Dionysius hot At tis, because his genitals were cut off (críd o Eore- enuenov).

The phallus was indeed an object in Egypt and Phoenicia. had been of particular veneration, and no less so among the ancients. Hebrews. Before the temple in Jerusalem stood the Phallus both until their taking into captivity, as in front of the temples in Phoenicia; Herodotus still looks at his Time Phallus in Palestine). The original victim murdered himself at least to avoid a complete amputation of the member of which one dedicated to God by probing it. He was burned on his altar. From the Phoenician Priests. Many stars were disturbed well into Christian times. melt, and emasculation was considered taboo throughout antiquity. a holy, God-pleasing use. Otherwise the matter in the service of the nature-hostile being, the Saturn, understood in which emasculation is seen as a a sacred act preserved until the most recent times. To the Zeus. The member was sacrificed to the god of ungodliness because it was considered a blessing. but had value, the nature-hostile, the sensual Saturn was averse to it because it was hateful to him. It was sanctified. to him by giving the object that is to be sensual seduced by such actions, completely renounced. Both ideas lungs apparently mix in the Phoenician Religion. The galls, even castrates, serve like that of sensual nature; that enigmatic service, wherever sensual mortifications alongside sexual excesses The appearance of these religions clearly shows that the Semitic religions assumed a divine principle that simultaneously created. It was frightening and destructive, from the sun. It is very much to me. It is likely that castration was originally a sacrifice to the creative God; but she went in the Follow into the service of the nature-hostile god, in order to... more, since the one who mutilates the had sanctified the creative force of nature, forced it into chastity. gen was and thus in the service of the nature-hostile god spent his life.

1) Hero d. II, 106.

599

Mutilation to become a eunuch or castrate was
But now a religious act that one cannot well expect further Circles could expand. Apart from the fact that only Few will have been found who would have voluntarily submitted to the same.
subjected to, a further expansion of this use would This had a very detrimental effect on the population, the power have brought down the people. So one thought of a
A substitute that could be used without adverse effects.
This was found in the circumcision of the foreskin. In the
It seems that not everyone who wanted to could become an Egyptian.
to have it cut off; the cutting off was probably a precaution here.
right of the priestly caste, then in general of those who devoted themselves to the sciences, which initially only meant the Priests did. Who among the Egyptians, says Origen,
To study geometry or astronomy, to become a priest or
To become a prophet is to be initiated into hieroglyphs.
If he wanted to, he had to be circumcised first. Also Pytha~~s~~
As is well known, Goras had to undergo this consecration in order to to gain access to Egyptian wisdom. The later Hebrew national pride extended this usage to all He~~s~~
Brethren out, since the whole nation is a people of priests Should. In contrast, castration is prohibited, as is the case with the eager desire of the post-exilic Hebrews to have a great Becoming a people was very natural. The prohibition appears (only definitively in the fifth book of Moses 2); certainly Before the exile, castration was practiced among the Hebrews.
as common as with the Phoenicians, and only the Re~~s~~
Formators eliminated it as an idolatrous practice.
The Phoenicians traced circumcision back to Saturn;
Saturn himself is said to have appeared when there was a plague and famine.

1) Original in the Commentary on Romans 2:13.

2) Deuteronomy 23:1. Regarding animals, Leviticus 22:24. Indices rect, insofar as the position is based on a particular addition to the Hair that was associated with the excision could

Leviticus 19:27 and 21:5 belong here.

600

The need in the land was, to atone for Uranus, circumcised have 9, a point that quite clearly indicates that the Circumcision was a substitute for sacrifice; for in the Saturn sacrifices his son for the same purpose, but to himself
He performs the circumcision. According to biblical accounts. circumcision was already introduced by Abraham (Abraham (This applies to Saturn among the Phoenicians). However, I doubt it.
that this rite extends back to a deeper antiquity.
Was circumcision considered a means, even for such people?
to the sons who were not sacrificed, to mark the sacrificial sign to bring about a further expansion of human sacrifices to give without costing further human lives; so it may However, they may be very old; but to me it seems more likely, that this usage was originally a restriction of the up to her ordinary human sacrifices and the exterminations beab seen, not an extension of the rights of God to Human life, and that only the ease of accessing it
A way of dedicating oneself to the god, over time the circumcision.
it could be extended to entire social classes and peoples.
difficult in Moses' time due to the human sacrifices and the Castration has been so strongly opposed that one can only cite the possibility of its use.
Reduction was thought; as long as one considered a limitation of this who did not find such cruel acts desirable will also that milder usage has not been applied.
The Old Testament admits that Moses did not give his son
I have cut off; Jehovah must use violence in order to (be cut off 2); also, the cutting off, after (biblical confession, not carried out in the desert). That against it was already common practice in David's age.
to the Hebrews, how to learn from the foreskins of the Philistines

) re aidioie epireuverai San ä at Eus eb. praep.
Evangelical I, 10.

2) Numbers 4:24.

3) Jos. 5, 5.

601

David may deduce which purchase price for the Michal David may use to determine the purchase price for the Michal (to Saul delivers).

Even today's customs regarding circumcision show that this rite replaced a human sacrifice—should step. I don't want to count the lights here, which it is not at all about being lit, but it is significant—fam, that a large candle must burn especially brightly and that Among Jews, the severed foreskin is not universally accepted. (buried in dust or sand), but in many communities (also is burned). That this burning is due to a I don't need to elaborate on the victim's knowledge. Furthermore, deuter on an original sacrifice of the use, the child to cut on the same day on which the first to present the birth, namely on the eighth day. Rabbi Maimonides gives various reasons for why— They may explain the requirement of the eighth day in another way— He should; he thinks an older boy would no longer... to understand the circumcision, the child also feels the less pain than an adult, less worry The parents' concern is not so great when the child is eight days old. as in a grown boy, since the love of

1) 1 Samuel 18:22 ff.

This burial is to take place because it was intended to help the Hebrews in did the same in the desert.

) During the pruning, 12 small candles are lit and one large, heavy, supposed to weigh 32 loth. What is this single one for? A large candle? It surely takes the place of the boy whose Sacrifices, as with the Egyptians, were made by burning the candle— is drawn. Regarding the burning of the foreskin, which— I already discussed this in an essay a few years ago. When I was told it was connected to human sacrifice, a raven replied to me.

biner, he did not know this usage; but the usage is al—
However, they are present in many communities. Jewish church.
Cerem. p. 162 says: The severed foreskin is placed in sand.
or burnt ashes laid and subsequently with the above:
twelve small wax candles were reported burned.

602

Parents' relationship with children increases with age. This leads to...
It must be countered that such delicate considerations are not in Spirits of those ancient times lie; upon the pain of the Ael
The barbarity of antiquity took hold of the children or the children no consideration; rather, a religious act was performed for her.
The more deserving, the greater the associated pain
Zen were. Who were people, who were the firstborn sons?
who truly sacrifices, in whose eyes the pain that the subordinate act of circumcision parents and children
those who caused it do not deserve special consideration.
or demand; indeed the Arabs also have, according to the above cited passage in Josephus, the circumcision of the Kna ben first undertaken in the thirteenth year. Rather, he chose
For this act, the Hebrews said the eighth day, on whose firstborn had to die, in no other ab view, as if the circumcision involved the sacrifice of the child, that she should represent, to bring into the most precise relationship
gen. The boy's life is saved by the circumcision, which belongs to Jehovah, is actually given back as a gift.
After the ceremony is over, the rabbi immerses the Put your finger in the cup of wine, stick it in the child's Mouth and says: "God spoke to you: Live!"
It seems that this will now lead even further to the old men Sacrifices and the consumption of human blood at the
to the victims of the Jewish communities everywhere today usual use, taking a mouthful of wine and to suck the blood from the child's wound. Un
The blood should be pure; it should not be consumed with the mouth.
They are allowed to touch: and yet the rabbi sucks human blood.
from the child's cut! He spits it out like... the out: but nevertheless, this ceremony announces its
The origin is clear enough. In ancient times, people let the

1) Rab. Maimon Mor. Nevoch. pars 3, cap. 49.
Kircher, Jewish Ceremony, p. 162.

603

The victim's blood ran into a cup of wine and he drank into it.
A round to participate in reconciliation. This
The practice had transformed itself during the cutting process, that the rabbi immediately put the wine in his mouth and He mixed it here with the child's sacrificial blood. That Spitting is a feature of increasing civilization;
In ancient times, the priest surely mixed the wine with the blood.
swallowed to appease those present.

Furthermore, one must also deal with this Blood washes, as in the Mosaic Law the sacrificers to The priest's deprivation was marked with the sacrificial blood.
will be. A Hebrew of our day says about this:

“Other Jewish teachers, who also used circumcision blood
They considered it sacred and had the child held over water, since with the blood flowing in, and those standing around washed then their faces with this blood-water. But so that the Publicum eagerly reaches for this blood-water, decreed
One should only use water that is contaminated with-
It was cooked with various narcotic ingredients. On the same
"The operators proceeded in a certain way," the author continues.
with the circumcision blood, which according to Talmudic tradition
Some sucked the rule out with their mouths. Some spat it in. the sand, but some put it in the cup, from which they poured the Wine was taken to suck out the blood, and poured out.
Then put this wine behind the ark of the law. — Here too, then,
as when enjoying a bite of the Paschal sacrifice, a Combination with narcotic substances to counteract disgust encounter. Spitting back into the cup indicates that that originally the sacrificial blood ran into the cup let him drink it; the pouring of this blood mixture Behind the Ark of the Law, the libation appears to be represented.
for Jehovah: these customs also are proof that the—
The cutting is intended to represent a victim.

3 Brück, pharif. Folk customs and rituals, Frankfurt 1840.

Third Adfihnit.

During the human sacrifices in the service of these deities, enjoyed the blood and eaten the flesh.

During the course of our investigation, I have often encountered Ge-must take the opportunity to notice that among people sacrifices of flesh and blood were equally enjoyed was done, as with animal sacrifices. One may with good reason... believe that in ancient times, just as with the Animal sacrifices remained in practice, including sacrifices of meat.
ter Menschft held formal sacrificial feasts; after and afterwards these atrocities were limited to the extent that one only a bite of the meat and a little of the Blood was enjoyed. Finally, only a few drops were mixed in.
of the human blood under wine and drank of this Mixture. It shall now be our task to enjoy this pleasure.
of human flesh and human blood, from which also the Hebrews will never be able to set free, from to prove more thoroughly.

Already above, where from the sacrifice offered to Jehovah
When the topic was blood, more of what belongs here was presented;
brought, in particular rejecting the claims of the Jews, that consuming blood is defile. The latter view is new; blood was never something forbidden in ancient Hebrewism.
something unclean, but rather something holy, food of God—
The passage from Ezekiel has already been mentioned above.
where Jehovah offers fine sacrificial food “fat and blood”
He says: "Flesh is the food, blood is the drink of the god."
tes; therefore Jehovah also says in Psalm 50, verse 13: „Mei“

605

Do you want me to eat the flesh of bulls and their blood?
Do the goats drink? The same view was held by the Hei to the gods, blood is a refreshment; it is the seat of the

 The soul is the food of the spirits; one lures the demons through Pits into which blood is poured, from the underworld up),
 In this way, he summons the shadows of the deceased and moves them.
 They serve to reveal the hidden. They appear, just as They smell blood; a sword is held in the pit to to keep uninvited spirits from enjoyment, and also allows do not summon the summoned demon until he has turned to Ertheilung of the ordinary breakdowns understands 2).

The prohibition of fat and blood has had an effect on the He—Brethren certainly did not escape before the Babylonian captivity.
 'flirt; the ancient prophets may have liked the use,
 To partake of the sacrificial blood is considered idolatrous and therefore rejected.

1) Horat. Serm. I, 8: "Cruor in fossam diffusus, ut inde manes elicerent, animas responsa daturas." Cle m. Alexandr. Paedag. II, 1st p. 143 ed. Col. Ming doxel wor , Bdehvga Exei-va, dy &pirrayrai e aluadi yuzgai ur é 2oeßovg veriov xscraredveiotoy."n August. de civit. dei VII, 33: Genus di-vinationis a Persis allatum est, quo, adhibito sanguine, etiam inferi suscitantur. — I recall what was already mentioned above.

Image of Saturn, with open mouth under a—
 The perforated floor was covered, above which gladiator fights took place.
 were carried out to collect the fresh blood. Furthermore, it belongs Here is a passage from the text allegedly written by Cyprian.
 Letters de spectaculis p. 3: Plura prosequi quid est necesse, vel sacrificiorum in ludis genera monstrosa describere? inter quae nonnumquam et homo fit hostia latrocinio sacerdotis; stupid eruor etiam de jugulo calidus acceptus patera, dum adhuc fer-vet, quasi sitienti idolo in faciem jactatus propinatur.,

Odysseus follows this in Book 11 of the Odyssey, verse 23 ff.
 Procedure. When the blood of his summoning victim entered the
 The pit flows, the souls of the dead appear. Odysseus
 He fends them off with drawn sword until the soul of Tiresias comes near. She says that he should withdraw his sword,
 "aluarog Oyoa πο x] Tor vnusorea el.

They had it, but no one paid any attention to it. "An eternal sa

"Sung," it says in Leviticus 3:17, "for your future generations."

worse off in all your apartments: no fat nor blood

"You should eat," "Whoever truly eats blood, against a soul

I will face him and eradicate him from his People). It is this the same punishment which is used against children.

the sacrifice in Moloch service is pronounced 2), and one

As you can see, the author had the pleasure of drinking blood from these

Victims in the sense that he imposed such a high sentence on the state (sneezing blood at all was prohibited). Such strict laws always suggests a great tendency to transgress—strictness was necessary because the legislator had prescribed a custom wanted to meet someone who had been practicing since ancient times and at which was still in continuous use by the surrounding peoples.

The ancient Hebrews had a prohibition against fat and Blood completely unknown. Not even among our prophets and Even in the books of Moses, it is stated quite openly and without any pretense.

Rebuke was spoken of for the consumption of fat. Jehovah,

It says in Deuteronomy 32:14 that the people were suckled "with cream of the Cows, sheep's milk, together with the fat of lambs mer and rams, the sons of Bashan, and the goats,

together with the kidney fat of wheat; and blood of grapes

"You drank wine." How could anyone possibly believe that?

that a people whose primary occupation is animal husbandry was, had allowed himself to be deterred from enjoying the fat, that, as the prohibition itself shows, is for the best part of the animal, whose enjoyment God primarily desired

Rejoice? Where would the fat of those countless animals have gone?

) Leviticus. 17, 10. *) 3. Mof. 20, 3.

Maimonides already points this out in Mor. Nev. part. 3, c. 26.

attentive; only against two transgressions, he says, babe Je

hova the punishment pronounced, fine face against the overlord to direct kicks, namely against the child victims in the Moloch service and against the consumption of blood; for the eating of blood

I have given cause for idolatry.

Will those who were not sacrificed to Jehovah come? „Hö-
 "Return to me," (Let us read in Isaiah), "enjoy good things and
 "Let your soul feast on fat!" "I feast the priests."
 with fat, Jehovah says in Jeremiah 2), "and my people
 "My blessing is satisfied;" The mouth is quite obviously called Psalm 63:6: "As with fat and rich things, my heart rejoices and my mouth opens with jubilant lips praise you. »

The ancient Hebrew not only did not enjoy the bloodthe, but most likely with special air genosen. In the Dionysus service, the devouring of raw is preserved.

and bloody meat) also among the Greeks up to the Christian chronology; this service, apparently Inherited from the Semites, it testifies to what was among the Semitic tribes in ancient times used genosen, lets us glimpse the barbarity of prehistory-

 In those days. The animals were eaten raw, and they suckled well.
 also with pleasure the warm blood from the veins. There be-A curious commandment is found in Leviticus 17:13: + A

1) Yes. 55, 2.) Jer. 31, 14.

) Dionysus leads from the Berfschüngen db of the raw and bloody Meat, from eating live animals, at his feasts
 the name wunorns. Eusebius praep. Evangelical II, 3 and Clem.
 Alex. adm. ad gent. p. 9: "Jwvvooy oeyingovor Baxxoi G uo-peryig r- lepouaviay d yovreg xal rte ioxoudi rg xpzavouiag ro Yp6oyov., (my edition of Euseb. — Cölln 1688 — has (instead of r yovwv, which is in Clemens, r ycowy.) — Plu-tar ch. de orac. cessant.: "Eopras x, Ivoias, woreo Hiuvēj 6e anopoadag xai Ovvlgwras, Ev as wmopayici x dīrnoraouoi. , etc. Julius Firmicus de error. profane. religious p. 10: "lic inter ebrias puellas et vinolentos senes, cum scelerum pompa praecederet, old nigro amictu teter, old ostenso angue terribilis, alter cruentus ore, dum viva pecoris membrane dis-cerpsit. „ et. — Maimonides Mor. Nev. pars II, e. 48 leads as a religious use of the Orient: Animali viventi abbe debant membrum aliquod atque illud sanguine perfusum

comedebant. " |

608

Anyone who hunts game or a bird that is
If someone is being eaten, let their blood flow out and cover it with Earth; for the life of all flesh is its blood, whoever it
"It eats, it shall be exterminated." The manner of killing the Animals were provoked while hunting by arrows or lances already in and of itself at least a partial phasing out of the blood; even if some remained in the veins,
It did not follow from this that the Hebrew at home
He had to eat the animal with its blood; there he could eat the meat.
to be completely cleansed of blood. In our place, now but a prohibition of eating blood already upon arrival connected to hunting, from which one can assume with great
It is likely that it was common practice, the warm blood of the animals killed during the hunt to suck it out. I won't be blamed for being in
I would be going too far with this assumption if I immediately add another...
I cite another passage that provides literal testimony, that the Hebrews themselves even in the Davidic age
We ate the animals' meat raw and bloody.
Read 1 Samuel 14:32: "And the people fell upon the plunder."
Here they took sheep, cattle, and calves, and
They slaughtered them on the ground and the people ate with blood.
It is said beforehand that the Hebrews were very tired.
had been, since they were under Saul's curse until evening
Saul was forced to fast, and he also criticizes the food.
with blood, has a stone erected and commands that everyone Hebrews slaughtered their animal on this stone: but would Even back then, the punishment of extermination for the consumption of blood was
It would have been stipulated that such a public notice would certainly have been issued.
No one dared to violate the law. Nor is there any mention of... that any Hebrew was punished for the offense:
that would be. It is significant that not one individual with Blood is not eaten, but, as the text says, the people. Where they a mass of people, after they had barely gone a day without Food was understood to be for enjoying bloody meat,

Therefore, the consumption of blood cannot be anything terrible. Rather, it must be based on an old habit that it was likely to find disapproval at the time, to which one might but soon returned, as special circumstances dictated. encouraged. The criticism leveled against us also applies. This procedure of the Hebrews is only discussed. the blood, but not the fact that the meat is raw ate. Saul had the animals slaughtered on the stone so that the blood runs off; but he doesn't say a single syllable: You may Do not eat the meat raw; you must cook it. or fry. One wouldn't object that this has They are self-evident and taken for granted. Into the— In that case, even a meal containing blood could have no effect. It's a matter of speech; where meat is cooked, it will soon be cooked through. the broth purified of blood; where one takes the time, to fry, one will also find oneself there if a commandment exists- The thing is, to take the trouble to remove the blood from the piece of meat. to brush aside. But here, no one takes that time. The people “fall over the spoils and eat with the blood.” Each took the piece of cattle that had fallen to him, killed it, and immediately began to consume the meat, a procedure, which may contribute to understanding the cultural state at that time in to set his true light. Already the conditions in the Deserts of the Orient, where it is so often far and wide Lacking water and fuel entirely, they favored the barbarity of enjoying meat in its raw state. Even Ezekiel accuses the Jews of: “You eat with the Blood. After all, the Hebrews themselves ate fallen animals. and animal remains left behind by a predator!

“Anyone who eats a fallen or torn animal,” is said to Leviticus 17:15 states, “He should wash his fine clothes and bathe himself.” in water and be unclean until evening, then he is clean. And if he doesn't wash his clothes and his

Ezekiel 33:25.

"If the body does not bathe, then it bears a fine guilt." Here, therefore, where the idea that blood is the food of the god, If he does not interfere, a very light sentence will be handed down—then, or actually no punishment at all; because for such a Impurity cannot be considered. This insignificant consequence of impurity for one day, which also includes any marital relationship (apartment brought with him), shows that at least the poor Hebrews did not bury their fallen beast, but consumed 2.

Fat and blood were also made more readily by the Hebrews. from the earliest times without decency for many centuries enjoyed. But over time, the idea became clear. The tendency to view fat as an excellent food, and Blood, as the seat of the soul and noblest component of the body. The body belongs only to God. Regarding The blood seems to me to still reflect this idea among the Hebrews. to extend beyond exile; but fat became, as the one on guided prophetic passages show, up to the appearance of the new law after imprisonment without an. The blood was eaten. From then on, blood was only consumed when... The sacrifices are therefore also found in some bloodbaths. The Pentateuch offered the peculiar addition that one did not They shall eat blood in their homes; "No blood shall they eat." eat in all your dwellings, neither from the bird, ...still from cattle, it says Leviticus 7:269. Was the blood... Eating is forbidden altogether: why this addition? Eyes. The meaning probably lies in this passage: In the case of victims, one may They may eat the blood, but at home you must eat the blood. Avoid nuts, as blood is a sacred object, food Jeho.

) 3. Mof. 15, 18.

2) This is also the case in Leviticus 7:24, where eating fatty foods is prohibited altogether. It is said that one cannot get anything from fallen animals either. One should eat fat, which in turn presupposes that the roof has fallen. was eaten.

) Cf. Leviticus 3:17.

va's is, which one does not like an ordinary foodstuff, but may only enjoy it during sacred rites, in order to part to have Jehovah, to be reconciled to him. I have

"Your blood," says Jehovah (Leviticus 17:11), "on the An altar was given to atone for your souls; for blood
"It reconciles life." It is the view of all ages—

The belief that blood is food of the gods, that one should to make the gods favored by offering this food, that one comes into closer contact with them if one

I enjoy it when it comes to victims. Themistocles brings himself, as The old folks say he lost his life because of it, that he was at a (Victim drinks an unusually large quantity of bovine blood).

Even during the persecutions of Christians, as in the West, it was necessary to by smoking, or in the Orient by drinking from Sacrificial blood is given as proof that one has come to the heat.

Denthum confess 2). Ezekiel firmly establishes a blood-drinking ritual among the Sacrifice ahead. Jehovah will (chapter 39, verses 17ff.) for the birds and offer a sacrifice to all the animals of the field. Strö-

"Meet me here," he says, "all around to my sacrificial offering, which

I slaughtered you, a great sacrifice on the mountains

Israel's, and eat flesh and drink blood; flesh of

You shall devour heroes and drink the blood of princes of the earth.

fen; rams, lambs and goats, bulls fattened in Basan,

They all are. And you should eat fat to fill you up and

Drinking the blood of my sacrifice to intoxication, that

I slaughtered you. Rabbi Maimonides says about the

The following very apt explanation applies to the consumption of blood: "Although "The blood," he says 3), "is impure in the eyes of the Zabians."

Although it was, it was still eaten by them; for they believed it was the food of the gods and the one who—

Those who enjoy this food can use it in Ge—

) Cic. Brutus cap. 11. Val. Max. V, 6.

) Michael. mof. R. IV, p. 152.

3) Maimon. Mor. Nev. pars III, c. 46.

39 *

join the community and learn about their future. Meh=

However, it was very difficult for them to enjoy blood; for

This is one thing before which man should be wary.

Natural disgust. These caught the blood of the slaughter.

They placed the animals in a vessel and sat down in a circle.

around the pot filled with blood and consumed the meat of the animal. They believed the gods ate at the same time.

Time with them of the blood that stood in the middle, and

They would come together through this communal meal with the same into friendly contact, which is of great benefit to them would bring, in particular, the fact that the demons would appear to them in dreams revealed the future.

This is an introduction to our actual topic; now to the consumption of human flesh itself. Here too, who= which we will elaborate on a bit further for our purpose and first of all must demonstrate that the enjoyment of human flesh is deeply*

not unheard of in antiquity, but rather commonplace

be. « Meeting people was undisputed in the highest antiquity with (associated with the human sacrifices).» So we begin to= next in a further circle among the Scythians, In—

The Greeks and Romans then came to the Peoples who have had close and direct contact with the Jews=

rung stand, on the Persians, Egyptians, Arabs, Phoenicians—

Nizier, Syrian, and finally the Hebrews themselves. In doing so

It must be prefaced with the remark that precisely the se=

Mitish religion actually considers itself as a seat and homeland depicts the eating of human flesh and drinking human blood;

the Scythians, of whom the ancients said so much such stuff=

They gave nisse, worshipped those very bloody Astarte of the Semites;

What is found among the Greeks and Romans clearly shows=

The last traces of a legacy from Phoenician colonists.

Herodotus reports that it was a common custom of the fey—

among the ethnic peoples, that every aspiring warrior is of that blood of the first enemy he slays 9. He says in the same chapter, that the Scythians gave the slain enemies the Peel off the skin, tan it with your hands, and attach it to the Hang the saddle as a towel, or even several such hides. assemble them and make coats out of them. Others pull—he takes the skin from the right arm of the slain enemy remove the nails and stretch them as a coating over the Kö— Dear. I mention the latter here because the Jews in the rebellion under Trajan, where they spilled the blood of their enemies drank, skinned their fallen enemies, and (as a cloak thrown around the shoulders?). From the Massa Hero tells the story of the people whose only god was the sun— dot”), that among these people the old people of their anger would be eaten by the subservient. The latter come together, slaughter. ten the old relatives along with some animals, cook the They eat meat and consume it. They consider such an end to be... A great blessing. If someone dies of an illness, then eat They did not kill him, but buried him with great sorrow, that he was not fortunate enough to be part of the Der: were to be consumed. A similar custom is reported. Herodotus of the Issedones, a people who belonged to the Mas— They said it bordered it. The elderly person was among those who...

1) He rod. IV, 64. ro aluaros Eurive., It is here under the euxivet probably also means sucking out, as it there, Jews were forbidden from hunting animals killed during the hunt— ten will be. |

2) As mentioned above, the Sethians also did not keep pigs in the Lands; Herod. IV, 63.

Herod. I, 216. The Masagetes, a large and brave people, lived on the Araxes (probably the Volga, Herod. I, 202.) and lived by raising livestock. Herodotus does not classify this people as... the Scythians, but say they pray to the Seythian peoples similar clothing and lifestyle I, 215. 201. Cyrus known— lich remained in a battle against the Masagetes and their kings

Nigin Tompris threw his head into a blood-filled Hose.

614

– mn

not murdered, but died of natural causes.
Then the relatives came and slaughtered the little one.
Cattle, cut this and the dead man into small pieces, mixed
They divided the meat among themselves, cooked it, and ate it.
in communal meals (n). Aristotle speaks of wild peoples living in Pontus, who eat raw meat and find pleasure in the flesh of humans, where even
One father brings his children to another for festive meals.
(leaves). Further north, deeper into what is now Into Russia, man-eating may have been commonplace.
be; Herodotus calls the peoples who lie there straighter hin Androphages, man-eaters 3). — Also in In dien Human flesh was eaten. Herodotus says of the Kal—letiern, an Indian tribe, that they the corpses ih
The parents ate, but the burning of the bodies was prohibited.
considered a great sin.” This went even further in The Padean people. They not only killed the ancients.
People, but also the younger ones, when they became ill, because the disease is wasting away the body and the flesh is wasting away from us make it palatable. Here, the men were always the ones who were...
Men and women were eaten by women; old
There were few people among them, since they welcomed everyone who entered a Disease took hold, and they soon slaughtered 5). On some of the
This atrocities have spread from the Asian islands to more recent times.
Times preserved. The famous seafarer Martin Behaim
On his globe from the year 1492, he places the island of Java minor note: In the kingdom called Dageram is:
wonheit so ir Abgott s2agt, dass ein kranken Mensch s2sterben
"Should, so one suffocates the sick one in time, and the friend cook the meat for your sick friend and eat it.

) Herod. IV, 26.) Aristot. Eth. VII, 6.

3) Herod. IV, 18. 106. Cf. also Porphy. de abstin. II, 8; Sext.

Empir. III, 207.

Herod. III, 38.

Herod. III, 99.

615 together with great joy so that he might rid the worms nit zu thail werdte. a

People were inclined to consider such stories fables.
However, he had no other reason to do so.
than that which barbarity leads to the monstrous and unbelievable-liche went. We must not overlook the deeper antiquity.
to measure our concepts of humanity. We have already done that.
the examples of the American peoples are still so close to us:
Why should what people on the western half of the globe was practiced for thousands of years, in
Was this not also practiced in the East in ancient times?
Herodotus is, regarding the credibility of his message
ten have been sufficiently justified in recent times;
Even though the Indian peoples were distant to him, he could only understand them from Drawing on information from others: why should one disregard it?
Did they report the truth? Such news from a time when Where peoples still exist, they cannot be invented, must sen are based on truth; since the connection, although through inland countries, but was too multifaceted when that a false legend was not corrected immediately were.
In Greece, news reports are coming from an eating event.
The concept of human flesh is rooted in myth. Saturn devours his own children; Metis, the wife of the Jupiter teaches him a medicine, which he then swallows.
ten children are given up again; Jupiter, for his part, devours
Metis, out of fear of a son she would bear him Tantalus entertains the gods with the flesh of his (son of Pelops). Procne slaughters in association with ) The legend of Pelops clearly points to the Phoenician or Egyptian cult. The bones of Pelops are kept in the temple.

kept in a bronze box. The relics of his body-Pers can do wonders; without his shoulder bone, Troy cannot be er-be top. Pause on. V, 13. 22.

616 her sister Philomela gives her son Itys and places him as court before her husband Tereus); Atreus kills the two sons of Thyestes, Tantalus and Plishe—Nes lets the dismembered corpses partly boil, partly fry.

and gives Thyestes some of the meat at a banquet.
to eat and to drink of the blood under the wine 2).
Such legends point to a barbarity in ancient times that had practiced the consumption of human flesh; the de-
The legal aspect is not so much in the Greek legend either.
Consumption of human flesh, as in the circumstance that it is the were their own sons, who were sent by Tereus and Thyestes—Noses were eaten. In prehistoric times, this will Human flesh was also permitted in Greece.
They usually eat it; perhaps the Phoenicians only brought it here first.
brought, perhaps it was already the custom of the barbaric primal-Inhabitants of Greece. Heracles, Theseus, Orpheus, the same Heroes who slew those monsters we called above phö-
Those who have recognized the Niziic gods also create the food of Human flesh (from); Phoenician cult and human flesh-Food rises and falls side by side. As a medicine, it...
Did the consumption of human flesh and blood remain in Greece?
China and Rome throughout all time; even in ancient times
At that time, a drink of warm human blood was considered a gift.
tel against the falling addiction, as was still the case in our days 9.

— — —

1) Pause on. I, 41; X, 4. 6. Ovid. Metam. VI, 635.

) Hygin. fab. 88.

) Horat. de art. poet. 391:

“Silvestres homines sacer interpresque deorum

Caedibus et victu foedo deterruit Orpheus. “

Dieses foedus, is also referred to by Ovid as the enjoyment of man's meat is used, Ovid. Metam. I, 165.

) Plin. hist. nature. XXVIII, 1: “Sanguinem quoque gladiatorum bibunt, ut viventibus poculis, comitiales morbi: quod spectare facientes in eadem harena feras quoque horror est. At hercule illi ex homine ipso sorberi efficacissimum putant cali-

617

In these very places, which are even more remote from the Jews
The most reliable evidence that ancient peoples
Time spent eating meat during human sacrifices and whose blood was drunk. Where human flesh everyday fare, so it goes without saying that the
The use of the same was also practiced in human sacrifices.
But now religious institutions everywhere are far more difficult to be eliminated, as customs of ordinary life, so the eating of human flesh and people lasts for victims
Blood drinking was still practiced among cultivated peoples in a time long ago.

dum spirantemque et una ipsam animam ex osculo vulnere,
cum plagis ne ferarum quidem admoveri ora fas sit humana.
Alii medullas erurum quaerunt and cerebrum infantium. Nec pauci apud Graecos singulorum viscerum membrorumque etiam sapores dixere omnia persecuti usque ad resegmenta unguium:
quasi vero sanitas videri possit, feram ex homine fieri, morbo-que dignum in ipsa medicina, egregia hercule frustratione, si non cheers. Aspici humana extra nefas habetur, quid mandi?
What's wrong? Quis invenit, single membrane humana mandere? qua conjectura inductus? Quam potest medicina is an originem habuisse? Quis veneficia innocentiora Efficit, quam remedia? Esto barbari externique ritus invenrint, etiamne Graeci suas fecere has artes? Extant commen-tationes Democriti, ad alia noxia homines e capite ossa plus prodesse, ad alia amiei et hospitii " etc. - The Cappadocian

Aretaeus says in fine writing de acutor. et diuturn. morb. curatione lib. IV, cap. 175, he had himself seen how people to collect the blood of someone who has just been killed with a container and drank the same (rod aluaros zivoyras). By Cornelius Celsus it is called lib. III, cap. 23: Sanguis recens interfecti hominis morbum caducum pellit." On the accusation that Christians who enjoy the blood of sacrificed children make the Church Fathers unanimously denied the heathens the enjoyment of man.
 The use of blood as a drug against epilepsy is being alleged. Tertullian apologist. p. 10: Illi, qui munere in arena noxiorum jugulorum sanguinem recentem avida siti comitali morbo medentes auferunt." — Minutius Felix in Octav. p. 34:
 "Comitalem morbum hominis sanguine, id est morbo graviore sanare. "

618

a place where one could eat human flesh
 The medium has for centuries been the most decisive aversion had. One can safely assume that in the deeper In antiquity, people were sacrificed throughout Europe and Asia and was eaten from this sacrificial meat; namely the
 They used boys to slaughter and enjoy their
 To find something sacred in flesh and blood goes through the entire ancient world and is preserved in the Roman Empire in the Mithram mysteries well into the Christian era in. The Esthenes also worshipped their god Thor there.
 this way. In times of public danger, they slaughtered except Reading boys, who were sent by the inhabitants of the island of Oesel to stolen from foreign coasts and probably fattened up -
 The entrails were given to the birds of prey, which
 But the bodies were roasted and eaten. In Greece
 The horrors of cannibalism persisted among the ly—Caesarean human sacrifices in Arcadia even across the ages beyond Porphyry, who lived around 304 AD.
 Born, towards the end of Diocletian's reign, died.
 This philosopher assures that the use according to which the father took a bite of the flesh of his sacrificed child son enjoyed, having been practicing there in his time sey 2). According to some testimonies from the elders, those with Catiline's conspirators not merely mixed human blood with wine mixed and drunk, but sacrificed a boy, over swore an oath to his entrails and then the same ge—eaten 9. This news has absolutely nothing to do with disbelief—

Kohl, the German-Russian Baltic provinces. Part 2, p. 276.

) porphyry. de abstinence. II, 27. Pausan, VIII, 2. 38. Ovid Metam. I, 165. “

) Sallust says de bello Catiline. cap. XXII: “For ea tempe-state, qui dicerent, Catilinam, oratione habita, cum ad jusjurandum populares sceleris sui adigeret, humani corporis san-guinem vino permixtum in pateris circumtulisse; inde, cum post exsecrationem omnes degustavissent (sicuti in solemnibus

619

liches; for such sacrifices had their fixed place in the Orient
The reason and the mysterious sanctity which one in Rome, the religious customs of the Orient were generally observed.
They are people who commit murder and destruction.
conspired, the extraordinary nature of a human sacrifice and considered very suitable for the enjoyment of human flesh have given their terrible alliance a special consecration to impose. Far more frequently than the enjoyment of man—Meat was still a source of enjoyment for humans in later times.
blood at sacrifices and other solemn ceremonies.
That blood was drunk during animal sacrifices, later only Et—what was mixed with the horse blood in the wine, does not need to be further proven. Human sacrifices were prevalent.
the same use. As a remnant of the old bloody branch.
The service is maintained in the service of Bellona until the Christ—
During this time, the ceremony took place in which one baptized oneself with a drink. human blood dedicated to the goddess). But specifically it was in the conclusion of important alliances by the whole
In the Orient, it is common to drink human blood. Those who
Those who formed the alliance cut their skin open,
They let the blood run into a vessel and mixed in wine.
and drank this mixture. The Seythen appeared before us.
here they threw their weapons into the blood potion, to make this one a kind of...
to give consecration 2). ö sacris fieri consuevit) aperuisse consilium suum. , cf. Florus IV, 1, where it says: "Additum est pignus conjurationis sanguis humanus, quem circumlatum pateris bibere summum nefas etc., In contrast, Dio Cassius XXXVII reports. p. 43rd ed. Hanov.: alda c Tiyva α,νD S ,, Eni r Onkayxvov avrov r dN, mombas, Exeira Eonkayxyevoey aUTE herd ry allovy.

) Tertullian apologist. p. 10: "Hodie istic Bellonae sacratos sanguis de femore proscisso in palmulam exceptus esui datus signat." Minucius Felix in Octav. p. 34: "Bellonam sacrum suum haustu humani cruoris imbuere. "

) Herod. IV, 70. Mela II, 1: "Ne foedera quidem ineruenta

620

Let us turn to the peoples who are border neighbors of the Jews were, or at least were in ancient times, in closer contact with them, on the Persians, Chaldeans, Egyptians, Phoenicians.

In all these peoples, the aforementioned ge— custom in practice, to confirm a closed alliance= It is forbidden to enjoy human blood. Herodotus says in the 74th chapter... chapter of the first book, where Lydians, Medians and Babylonians are saying: "Their alliances unite these peoples." in the same way as the Greeks, and even moreover They make an incision in the skin on the arms, and One licks the other's blood. 9. From the medi= Herodotus tells a very similar story about the kings of Astyages. The plot as Greek legend attributes it to Atreus. Astyages reportedly wants to offer a thank offering to the gods for the to bring about Cyrus's rescue; he invites Harpagus to the sacrificial meals, but before that he slaughtered his son, cut up, cook part of the meat, the other Let it roast. This meat will be presented to the Harpagus. He finds it delicious. After the meal, they bring him... a bowl; when he uncovers it, he sees the head inside, Hands and feet of a fine son 2). We find with Cyrus already pretty much on solid historical ground; the narrative—sunt, sauciant se, qui paciscuntur, exceptumque sanguinem, ubi promiscuere, degustant. Id putant mansurae fidei signum certissimum. »

1) r alu avaleirovcı E j] · v; Ta says of the Armenians:
eius Annal. 12, 47: Mos est regibus, quoties in societatem coeant, implicare dextras pollicesque inter se vincire nodoque praestringere: mox ubi sanguis artus extremos suffuderit, levi ictu cruorem eliciunt atque invicem lambunt. Id foedus arcanum habetur, quasi mutuo cruore sacratum-“ Valerius
Max. IX, 11: Soriaster adversus patrem suum Tigranem, Armeniae regem, ita cum amicis consensit, ut omnes dexteris Manibus sanguinem mitterent atque eum invicem sorberent. “

Herod. I, 118. 119.

621

The lung will have its historical reason. But should it
...owe their origin solely to the endeavor to... the Ju—to embellish the history of Cyrus with strange incidents ken; so she also shows so, especially in connection with according to Greek legends, that in those times it was not uncommon
He heard that the plan was to take terrible revenge on the enemy.
that his own child was placed in front of him).

The closer you get to Palestine, the more noticeable it becomes the examples. Regarding the Egyptians, the Greeks have an ancient legend that in ancient times a terrible King Busiris ruled, who He sacrificed strangers and consumed their flesh. A drought and Famine was said to have occurred in the land, and Thrasius, a Oracles from Cyprus, who gave their oracles, predicted the plague
I will stop if Jupiter is given a menstrual cycle every year.
Singing sacrifices. Busiris, it is said, was involved with the sacrifice of the Thrasius immediately made a start and for a while Sacrificing strangers until he also sacrificed Hercules, who was after Er Laying of the giant Antaeus from Libya to Egypt came and captured him for this purpose. The latter, however, killed him.

the Busiris together with his fine son 9. Even the ancients have (This legend has been correctly interpreted). Busiris is an Egyptian
The word means "grave of Osiris." But Dfiris is just that.
the sun god, the great king, who was also known in Aegypt=

ten people sacrificed; the tomb of the god, where one could think of—Allegedly, his remains were kept there, like his coffin and the Holy boxes in general are objects of veneration.

1) When Cambyses' army was on its way to Ethiopia in
If the desert runs out of food completely, ten people each will lose.
Man among himself and consume him whom fate strikes;
Hero d. III, 25.

*) Apollodor II, 5. 11. Ovid. de art. am. I, 647. Ovid. metam. IX, 182. (again here of the human sacrifice foedantem Busirin). Dio d. Sic. VIII, 27. Hygin. Fab. 31.

3) Diod. Sic. I, 88.

622

—

Human sacrifices were brought to the grave, and at These victims had meat eaten from them. Therefore
The legend says that a king named Busiris sacrificed and consumed strangers.
She. A fortune teller from Cyprus must make the suggestion, that people were sacrificed because it was known to the Greeks was that on this island, a Phoenician possession, the Human sacrifice was being practiced.

From the War of Cambyses with Psammenite (525 (Before Christ) Herodotus Y recounts a strange incident, who belongs here. Cambyses had received from the King of Egypt—ten requested an ophthalmologist and the latter therefore the phase Phanes was sent to Persia. Phanes, who was reluctant to leave his homeland.
Having abandoned him, Cambyses provoked war against Egypt—ten, in order to take revenge on the Egyptian king. When the Persian and Egyptian armies at the Pelusian Mün=

Facing the Nile, the Egyptian relief forces took up arms.
peoples, Herodotus names Greeks and Carians, the sons of Phanes, whom he had left behind in Egypt, and They led them, one after the other, into the middle between both camps, where they were gathered over a mixing jug that held the blood caught them, slaughtered them. When all the boys had been killed in this way were, that one added wine and water, and then trans-all the auxiliary peoples of the blood 2); now the Meetings have begun. Will this barbarity also only affect the Egyptians—attributed to auxiliary troops, yet it happened on Egyptian soil, under Egyptian command, was

It did not prevent the Egyptians. Revenge was not the goal.
sole intention behind this deed; for one would have wanted to kill the sons.
of Phanes in the presence of the Persian army could kill no, without drinking their blood. The plot should rather it was a solemn sacrifice; the whole army drank from the sacrificial blood and thereby consecrated himself to the before—

1) Herod. III, 11.

2 «? 4 * * 5 1 9 7

) “Eumioyres rob a ua ,tx vreg o ERIXOVDOL: m 6823 standing battle. I would venture to guess that not merely the auxiliary peoples, but also the Egyptians at this Victims have participated, that it is a public, from The king's outgoing, albeit extraordinary, act was which means that at the moment when the fatherland should decide to make the gods inclined to consecrate themselves wanted to prepare for the upcoming battle. The Egyptian Priester, who resisted this barbaric act before the Greek—

The Chinese sages were ashamed and put them before Herodotus alone.
the auxiliary peoples. “How should those among whom there was a “It is a sin to sacrifice animals,” says this historian.
elsewhere, the Egyptians said, “to become one
How to understand human sacrifice? »» That's probably how the Egyptians
The priest spoke, and I want to believe that...
In Herodotus' time and even earlier in Egypt, it was publicly known

No more human sacrifices were made, but in secret—
They certainly didn't stop back then either. Moreover, it deteriorates.
Even in dangerous and extraordinary times, one can public life is resorting to extraordinary means, seeking again the old, in whose barbarity one can find a more effective Strength is suspected. This is how it manifests itself everywhere, and especially also among the Jews. For centuries, the basic—
The statements of the post-exilic reformers had a beneficial impact—flux on their education expressed: suddenly in the storm of

1) Herodotus II, 45. However, he says in the same place about whom Pigs, bulls, calves and geese are exempt from the prohibition;
So, apart from the birds, only goats and... remained.
Sheep remain as forbidden animals. And of these animal species
Herodotus is assured in II, 42, that the inhabitants of the Theban Kreises goats that sacrificed sheep in the Mendesian Circle.
Therefore, of the animals which are also found elsewhere, only the following remain Sacrifices were customary, except for the cow, which was sacred to Isis;
And Herodotus's conclusion above falls apart. We have above saw that the Egyptians, however, sacrificed people, namely—lich in times of drought and plague, to the evil god Typhon rothhaa—
Many people burned to death.

624

Outrage under Trajan plunges the people into the old atrocities.
back, reveals itself again in all its hideousness Ancient times. One may assume that among the Egyptians such little, as with the Hebrews, who never completely sacrificed humans
They stopped as long as the old religion persisted.
They were probably no longer brought out publicly, but in During this time, barbarity continued to proliferate among individual fanatics.
The Mithram mysteries with their human sacrifices had in Egypt firmly established itself. On a deserted place, where before—
When a temple of Mithras once stood there, the Christians pushed it down.
who wanted to build a temple there, on a vault that was full of skulls of older and younger people, which (one had sacrificed to the god for magical purposes). In the uprising of the Egyptians under the rule of Marcus Aurelius (CT 180 AD) was a number of the robber Bucolians, an Egyptian tribe, through the Romans were captured. Other Büfoli moved then put on women's clothes, approaching the Roman Sol— They dated and said they were the wives of the prisoners, ge— come to bring their men from the Centurion with money— to resolve. When the centurion and a companion approached them As the first one approached, they murdered him, but they sacrificed the second one. They swore over fine entrails and ate them 2). Here, suddenly, again after Christ's birth in Egypt— ten the ancient sacrificial rite. Juvenal explains to the Egyptians The very act of eating human flesh is itself a reproach;

) Soc rat. hist. eccles. III, 2: % & ol "Eilnves ro æe ` v ro

Mogg req earth æotoövreg avdowrovs xaredvor.n The Christians They triumphantly presented these skulls as an accusatory testimony. against paganism in Alexandria, which led to an uprising This gave rise to the construction of the Christian temple. had to stay.

1) Dio Cassius LXXI, p. 803. ed. Hanov.: “roy ovoyr« auro xarasucayres, exile re rv OriayXvwy AUTOvV OvyWouooay Kal Exeiva KATEPAYOY:n

625

He is surprised that in a country one can enjoy the pleasure of Avoid meat from sheep and goats, the food of Human flesh, however, is permitted), and cites as an example the inhabitants of Tentyris in Upper Egypt, where the warriors the prisoners consumed without even eating the meat. (cooking or frying). However, the examples of Human sacrifices, which history called in later times— few are held accountable; but one must consider that this Barbarism has not been associated with Persian rule since Cyrus. She was allowed to show more publicly that she also... The growing culture decided against this, so that it would... forced to carry out their atrocities in secret, of which only rarely is there a case that brings to the knowledge of a Greek or Roman historians could come. See

We are now suddenly facing another human sacrifice according to the old rite.
to emerge: this is a sure sign that no not an interruption of centuries, but a ge—
The thread of the story stretches down into the past.

– ö satyr. XV, 11:

. Lanatis animalibus abstinet omnis

cafeteria; ; nefas illic foetum jugulare capellae:
Carnibus humanis vesci licet.,

2) Juven. satyr. XV, 77:

“Labitur hinc quidam, nimia formidine eorum
Praecipitans, capiturque; ast illum in plurima sectum
Frusta et particulas, ut multis mortuus unus
Sufficeret, totum corrosis ossibus edit
Victrix turba: nec ardenti decoxit ahenis
Au verubus; longum usque adeo tardumque putavit
Exspectare focos, contenta cadavere cerudo.,

In the 86th verse, Juvenal says:

... But whoever murders a corpse
95 nihil unquam hac carne libentius edit.
Nam scelere in tanto ne quaeras, aut dubites, an Prima voluptatem gula senserit; ultimum autem
Qui always absumpto jam toto corpore, ductis
Per terram digitis, aliquid de sanguine gustat.,

40

626

The Egyptians, and probably everyone else besides them.
Semitic peoples also had the terrible practice of Human blood was used externally as a remedy for leprosy.
to apply. If an Egyptian king contracted this disease “He was seized,” says Pliny, “then it was for the people sad; for then, for the sake of healing, the Wan

"They are prepared in the baths with human blood."
 What a horrifying light this healing method casts on the Egyptian and Semitic spirit! How many children must ten bleed to death until the tub is filled with blood just once was, and how many such tubs does a king need?
 have, until he was free from the persistent disease of leprosy.
 was freed! Where one might need such baths, where
 If one can produce them without upsetting the people, then
 When one is used to the slaughter of children, then They too bled by the thousands on the altars, where For even the few traces are telling. Pliny is with this not mistaken in his horrific news, it becomes the culmination Reliability established through a completely independent testimonial of the so-called Pseudo-Jonathan in the ancient Chaldean Paraphrase of the Pentateuch. The passage is Exodus 2:23.
 where, besides the death of the King of Egypt, it is reported
 It is said that the children of Sfrael sighed about their work.
 and that this sigh had risen to God, is described in the chal-
 German paraphrase as described: "And in those great
 The king of Egypt received the consumption of food and water in several days.
 He ordered the firstborn of the children of Israel to be killed, to wash themselves in their blood; and the children of Israel
 They sighed over their work, which bent them down so much, and they cried out and their prayer rose to the highest heaven
 The Lord spoke through his word and redeemed

1) Plin. hist. nat. XXVI, 1: "Aegypti peculiare hoc malum; et cum in reges incidisset, populis funebre. Quippe in Balneis solia temperabantur humano sanguine ad medicinam eam.,

627

"They are from work." In the Midrash Rabah, Para 1 Shah p. 119. explains the passage as follows: "And it died the king of Egypt, who became a leper and a
 A leper is like a dead man; for it is said: They May he not resemble a dead man. And they sigh.
 Israeli children talk about their work. Why are they sighing? Because The magicians of Egypt say there is no [thing] for the king.
 other remedy than that given to the children of Israel Ten in the evening one hundred and fifty and in the morning one hundred and fifty battles, to be twice daily in their Bathing in blood. Not just the Egyptians, but also The Jewish doctors recommended such bathing for children.

 blood was used as a remedy against leprosy, and indeed in Christian times under Constantine the Great.
 Cedrenus reports), as Constantine, who suffered from leprosy, had come to Rome after the defeat of Maxentius,
 He gathered the most important doctors there to
 to be cured of his illness. Some Jews would have said he had to immerse himself in the blood of nursing children Bathing, such baths would free him from leprosy.
 The Christian emperor really did decide to undergo this cure;
 A number of mothers with their infants were gathered together.
 Lingen in the imperial palace. But when this was the
 When the reason for their summons was revealed, they broke into a heart.
 a heart-rending lament erupted, which determined the emperor, since Since success is uncertain, it's best to forgo the treatment.
 I would also like to point out that the belief that human blood heals the Leprosy, from the Orient, also spread to the Occitanie in the Middle Ages² dent passed 2).

) George. Cedreui historiar. compend. l.p. 271. edit. Paris.:
 Jou da to ry Eoyovrai, Adyovres, öri xolvußnlgav Xeon romoai ap aluarog vrouadiov Bospoy, xal Ev aurn evov xalapıLoıNvaL. »

I am reminded of "Poor Henry," by Hartmann von
 The floodplain, written around the year 1200 AD. To Henry 40 *

628

Most important for our investigation is Phoenicia;
 Regarding this country, we also have the clearest Evidence. The supreme god, Saturn, himself goes with the
 For example, human flesh-eating; he devours his own children. This is also what the Christian Apo² lodges everywhere to blame the heathens, where these Christians are permitted to enjoy the flesh of sacrificed children.
 Blame.

The Phoenician peoples demonstrate the barbaric
 A peculiarity is that they are far more inclined to human flesh.
 to enjoy, more than other nations. Among all peoples come Here and there are horrific cases where individuals, who are fearful... given a price in terrestrial choice, either to die of hunger or to eat human flesh, to resort to the last resort, to sustain their lives: but among the Phoenicians, Men-fenflöfch not a gruesome thing, but merely a ungŸ ordinary food that one only avoids for so long, than other foods. Like our armies in
 In times of need, the Phoenicians enjoyed horse meat.
 Human flesh. If a besieged city lacks nearby... rmittel, fist This is not yet a determining factor for Handover; one slaughters people or consumes the food-fallen. Of course, only a few examples can be named.

The doctors of Montpellier declared that his disease of leprosy incurable. The most famous doctor in Salerno knows only one.
 the only means for its healing, the heart's blood of a man-bare, pure virgin, who would have to decide voluntarily, to suffer death for the leper. The doctor says after the Translation into New German by Mailath:

"You must have a good virgin,

The honorable and therefore cheerful,

That she voluntarily takes her own life.

The pure maiden's heart's blood,

That would be good for your illness.

But it is not the nature of man to

That someone enjoys going to their death.

will be made, in which the story of the one with Karthago connected Spain such use of the Men exhibits squash flesh: but they will suffice to reach the To justify the assumption that what in individual cases has come down to us, among the Phoenicians in general. It was a necessity, if one wants to consider that even the men offering in and of itself the disgust for the enjoyment of the had to reduce human flesh, and those biblical steles, which are to be listed later, compares, according to which- They considered the consumption of human flesh to be an evil. threats are being made, which are associated with heavy sieges. Spain has been visited by Phoenicians since ancient times and with Colonies were occupied; Phoenician custom, like Phoenician Religion had taken firm root in this land); when Therefore, Spanish cities besieged each other for the enjoyment of To understand human flesh, this barbarity is all the more justifiable. attributed to Phoenician influences, as well as other clear and literal testimonies to the Phoenix to make human flesh a reproach. Thus is now being besieged by the inhabitants of Scipio Numantia tells that she, when other foods appeared were exhausted, and proceeded to consume human flesh. Even after the city had been captured, many were found which carried pieces of human flesh. Noth, Valerius Maximus says he cannot excuse these people; For those who can die need not be in such a way. to preserve life?). The Calagurritans went at the The siege by Pompey went so far that they had to evacuate their wives. and children ate after all the food had been consumed were, and salted the bodies of the fallen warriors. The pleasant pledges, Valerius remarks, which even the

In Cadix there was a famous temple of Baal. Plin. bist. nat. V, 19. Münter Rel. of Carth. P. 29. Note 95.
2) Val. Max. VII, 6; Flor. II, 18; Liv. LIX. epitome.

630

Animals were more expensive than life, the Calagurri made them taner for their midday meal and their evening meal). If one wants

I ask myself, by what right am I to do this in Spain?
Spaniards committed atrocities influenced by Phoenician culture.
derive the custom and extend it to the Phoenicians as well; so First, a passage from Livy serves as an answer. Here
It is reported in clear terms that Hannibal the soldiers of his army, gathered from afar which made them wild and warlike by building bridges and Dams were built from the corpses of the fallen.
and she taught how to eat human flesh. In the teaching-
It is clear enough that even among the Carthaginians there was a such lessons no longer took place, but
The matter was already being practiced. Through human sacrifices.
They have been eating food from people since ancient times.
meat is used to it. This is supported by tremendous evidence from... the Old Testament itself, laid down in the Book of Wisdom Chapter 12, 3 ff. against the Cananite tribes in general, thus also against the pre-exilic Jews, who were the Phoenicians were devoted to certain cults. The passage says: "You (Jehova) hated the ancient inhabitants of your holy land, because they perform abominable works of sorcery and sacrilegious deeds.
customs practiced and as merciless child murderers, which sacrificial feasts of human flesh and (Blood held), as a shameful idolatry. consecrated and helpless [children=]J. Soul-choking parents, and

1) Val, Max. VII, 6; Flor. III, 22.

2) Li v. XXIII, 5: "Hune (namely the Punic soldiers) natura et moribus immitem ferumque insuper dux ipse efferavit, pontibus ac molibus ex humanorum corporum strue faciendis et, (quod proloqui etiam piget) vesci humanis corporibus docendo,

3) U TExywy re yoyeas ayeleyuovag nal Orlayxvyopayovs aylowri-yoy 6opxwy ai Yolyay aluarog Ex uEdov uvoras Seicg bov, xerj aulEyras yoveis yuxzwv ateBonImroY. »

631

You wanted to destroy them with the hands of our fathers. Similarly

The same book, chapter 14, verse 22, says: It was enough for the people. not to err in the knowledge of God, but by living in a great struggle of ignorance, they give such great evils for happiness. For by either child-murderous sacrifices or hidden secret celebrations or wild feasts after strangers Customs no longer uphold, they no longer preserve marriage and life changes del rein, but one murders the other in cold blood or insults him through adultery. The author enters the his last point on his presence, where only at the A celebration of hidden secrets, that is what the mysteries are about. Human flesh was eaten. — By the tribe of The Philistine says to Jehovah in Zechariah 9:7: I will do this Blood from his mouth and the horrors from his teeth nen », whereby the Prophet most likely refers to Men Sacrifices refer to those involving flesh and blood was enjoyed. The fact that Zechariah, whose oracle to the time of the second temple construction, after the return from to fall into Babylonian captivity, only for the future That the abolition of atrocities takes place shows that the Philistines, even after exile, continue to treat people in the old way. They committed a form of sacrifice.

In later times, the enjoyment of man is preserved— meat in these countries and here and there throughout the whole Roman Empire during the human sacrifices in the Mithramy Series. A boy was slaughtered, fortunes were told from a fierce- his entrails and enjoyed them. Also the Si mon Magus, a Samaritan who is known to have been in the When the story of the apostles (chapter 8) is discussed, such things will be Victims blamed). Under Domitian, Apollo-

) “ rexvoò vous refderds 7 xu oie vuonπvEjqa
 2) Clem. Rome. recogn. II, 13: «Nam mihi aliquando et Nicetac roganibus, ut expose, quomodo haec possint arte magica effici et quae esset hujus rei natura, Simon tanquam familia-nus of Tyana accused, in the vicinity of Rome,

632

in favor of a conspiracy against the emperor, a fol Children were sacrificed and their entrails were eaten.
to have). Against the first Christians, this was the fault= ribus suis explanare ita coepit: Pueri inquit ineorrupti et vi olenter necati animam adjuramentis ineffabilibus evocatam assistere mihi feci et per ipsam fit omne, quod jubeo." Peter expresses against Simon recogn. III, 44: "Go into your home et ingressus interior cubiculum videbis imaginem positam continentem pueri violenter necati effigiem purpura coopertam, ipsum interroga et docebit te vel response vel visu," whereupon

Simon was violently frightened. — Mithras is also the old one.

Sun god. Misc 0 ijdios πῑρα lleoocis." Hesych., Strabo says lib. XV. from the Persians: Tu tiv NA, 6v xalovoi

Midgov., The sun god Mithras is also associated with the

The concept of Saturn begins. The number seven is sacred to him.

Selden de diis. Syr. p. 313: "Mithrae septem sacrae erant portae, planetarum numerum referentes, de qneis Celsus apud

Origen lib. V. Viri item, foeminae et pueri ei mactabantur, uti est in Athanasii vita apud Photium Cod. CCLVIII., ) Philostrat. vit. Apollo. Tyan. VII, 20; VIII, 5. 11. It will

He was accused of being an Arcadian boy

I have fallen victim. It almost seems that the use in

The Mithram mysteries are related to the Lycaean human sacrifices in

Arcadia is connected, and it was precisely because of the area there that one had

Human sacrifice, an Arcadian boy, is particularly suitable held. The defense of Apollonius (Philost. VIII, 15.)

This sheds some light on this terrible superstition.

initially rejects the accusation in general, since he Never sacrifice and touch nothing on which there is blood; the gods are open=

They bestowed their will upon pious and wise men even without

Oracles; blood and entrails could only signify misfortune and would cause the divine spirit to depart from him (VIII, 10).

 Then, in chapter 15, he explains that man is capable of such things.
 He did not sacrifice himself, as he realized beforehand that he was about to be killed.
 The true seat of the oracles is in the liver. Now, let the a courageous man, angry when he is to be killed, who Cowardly, fearful. Anger and fear would have their influence on the Bile, which lies next to the liver. Bile rages in anger.

633

gung among the pagans in general. They invoked Ge—sistencies of people who were in the service of Christians;
 However, such things are described by the Church Fathers as being through Threatened with torture, rejected. The Christ
 The teaching of the New Testament and the Church Fathers is certainly far from speaking out about such atrocities up, so it pours over the flattened liver and covers the parts of it that are particularly important in divination. At Fear draws up bile and at the same time takes in the

 The clarity inherent in the smooth parts of the liver.
 Here, it was preferred to use the animals' entrails for to use divination, especially of patient goats and lambs—However apparent these reasons may be, they are nevertheless due to refutes the fact that the boy who was to be sacrificed,
 He was not allowed to suspect his death and was suddenly killed.

“Violenter necatus,” says Clemens Romanus and at Tertullian chap. 8. blame the Christians: Infans tibi necessarius adhuc tener, qui nesciat mortem, qui sub cultro tuo rideat. The matter remains correct. In the Myfte In rien, people were sacrificed and their entrails were removed—eaten. Until 97 BC, this was permitted in Roman times.
 fchen Reiche, as Plinius reports (hist. nat. XXX, I.) öffent
 It happened. At that time, the first Senate resolution appeared, “ne homo immolaretur;,” “palam in tempus illud sacra prodigiosa

“celebrata,” says Pliny in the aforementioned chapter, where he talks about the “magicas vanitates,” says Nou satis aestimari potest,, fclouses the chapter, quantum Romanis debeatur, qui sustulere monstra, in quibus hominem occi dere religiosissimum erat, mandi vero etiam saluberrimum. , — Strange that the belief in the magical power of children's intestines has strayed into our times. In the middle of the previous-

In the 19th century, a notorious crook was born in Bayreuth, called Hundssattler, executed, who had the belief that A person can fly if they have nine children's hearts, who still carried in the womb, eat. The
This inhuman man has already killed eight pregnant women and Eight such hearts have been devoured. According to him, they must have still twitching and warm. 8 sketches
XIII. Collection p. 107. | 2

634

talk; but it remains very likely that back then, especially in the Orient, there were people who called themselves Christians—ten and that in those times among Christians everywhere for a
The Eucharist, considered a mystery, where one partakes of the Lord's Supper.
The talk was of body and blood, in the manner of the Mithrage—customs or that of the old Pasha celebrated 9. The Roman ) Tatian. contr. Graec. p. 286: Hag ul oûx Eorîy dro aov,, , es find yeud oer ugeg , welche Dies Ansprüche.

Just. Martyr. apolog. II. p. 127. says, the shameful demons
They would also have caused that, that one could have servants, children and women of the Christians were tortured and forced to r-rides rœbræ ra u ovvovo],e vc, & cr pyavspws : f oovē
NE paoxoyres Ficovov uvormgia releiv èv rw avdoöpoveiv xai
Ev rw aluaros Eurixlacle., Eusebius erzählt hist. eccles.
V, 1, they had taken servants of the Christians prisoner and They were forced to make statements under threat of torture, which the soldiers demanded, and if so, would they have lied? Ous orie deinya xai Oidirodeiovg uikers, to which the Christians do not enter one might think. According to Euse b. hist. eccles. IX, 5., a Roman commander in Damascus a number of common wise men to bring together those who were formerly Christians, and these would have made such confessions. Minucius Felix in Octave. p. 31: "Quasi Christiani monstra colerent, infantes vorare, convivia incesta miscerent." This also belongs to Hieber
The passage already mentioned above in Tertullian, Apologet. c. 8:
"Infans tibi necessarius adhuc tener, qui nesciat mortem, qui sub cultro tuo rideat; item panis, quo sanguinis jurulentiam colligas; praeterea candelabra et lucernae et canes aliqui et offulae, quae illos ad eversionem luminum extendant; ante omnia cum matre et sorore tua venire debebis., Also the last accusation may be in the sexual service of pagans= mysteries which converted pagans with their Christians= Things connected, find their reason. If nowadays still Similar religious aberrations occur among Christians: why not even in that first time when the mysterious customs of the Did paganism have an influence? — Also the governor of Bithynia, Pliny, knows the accusation against human flesh= Essens in the Christian mysteries and investigates accordingly. Plin. Caecil. Second, ep. X, 97: Nomen ipsum, etiamsi

035

Emperor Heliogabalus commits such mysterious acts. sacrifices were still widespread in the third Christian century.

flagitiis careat, an flagitia cohaerentia nomini punjan-
 "Tur?" However, during the investigation, apostate Christians asked... from, "se sacramento non in scelus aliquod obstringere, sed ne furta, no latrocinia, no adulteria committerent, no fidem tra-rent, ne depositum appellati abnegarent: quibus peractis morem sibi discedendi fuisse rursusque coeundi ad capiendum cibum, promiscuum tamen et innoxium., on which holds Pliny, in order to obtain certainty, deemed it necessary "ex duabus" (from doubt).
 ancillis, quae ministrae dicebantur, quid esset veri et per tormenta quaerere." "Sed nihil aliud inveni," he says, quam superstitionem pravam, immodicam. " — In general, could
 The above accusation does not apply to Christians; however, it may also
 It cannot be accepted; it is completely unfounded.
 and merely through the misunderstood doctrine of the Eucharist among the Pagans were prompted. The Christian teaching of a Enjoying the human body and blood in the Eucharist came too close to the old customs of the Pasha and those in the Mithraic mysteries, as if it were not very believable.
 It should be said that converted Jews and Gentiles had here and there in the
 The doctrine of the Eucharist found a sanction for these customs, na=
 Menlich in Phoenicia, Syria and Chaldea, where the people with Men= Mysteries associated with sacrifices flourished. In Damascus, the sun... len, according to the passage cited by Eusebius, apostate Christians have admitted the accusation as true; and if when comparing this to the actions of Emperor Heliogabalus, a former Syrian priest who had hundreds of boys sacrifices, so such an aberration will also be seen in those regions.

 On the Christian side, most likely. What now, in isolated rare cases involving fanatics, this has happened.
 the pagans turned on the Christians in general; hence the general
 My accusation in the old world was that the Christians in their at secret meetings they slaughtered a boy, from his—to eat meat and drink fine blood. Tacitus certainly a prudent, sincerely truth-loving writing Steller speaks of Christians with such abhorrence that one
 He cannot help but assume that such examples exist for him.
 been known; “exitiabilis superstitio,i” he says Annal. XV, 44 on the religion of Christians, “rursus erumpebat, non modo

636

Heliogabalus bore the fine name of the god, the chief:
 He was a priest in Emesa in Syria before the locals...

per Judaeam, originem ejus mali, sed per urbem etiam, quo cuncta undique atrocita aut pudenda confluunt celebranturque., Regarding the execution of the Christians by Nero, who, as acknowledged by Tacitus, falsely accused her of who had set Rome on fire, he says: unde, quamquam ad-versus sontes et novissima exempla meritos, misera-tio oriebatur, tamquam non utilitate publica, sed in saevitiam unius absumerentur., — A connection of the Mithradienst and especially the Mithridome mysteries with the mystery of the
 The first Christians cannot be doubted anyway.
 The first Christians celebrated the Feast of Mithras on December 25th.
 as the birth festival of Jesus; it was a solar festival, a celebration
 the winter solstice in honor of the sun god Mithras;
 The Christians, of course, could not celebrate the day of Jesus' birth.
 knowledge (Augustine, sermon 16th century). The personified Mithras was born in an extraordinary way, out of a rock.
 Jerome. advers. Jovin. I, p. 139: “Narrant gentilium fabulae, Mithram et Erichthonium vel in lapide vel in terra de solo aestu libidinis esse generatos." Justin. Martyr. dialog. cum Tryph. p. 289: e xeroas yeyernodaı avröv.n The Early Christians celebrate their mysteries in caves and catacombs, as was the case in the Mithraic period. So far, one has claims that the Christians retreated to such places, in order to remain unnoticed by the pagans. This interpretation can not enough; they would also remain unnoticed at night in their Houses that remained in lonely places in the forest: why search Are they currently exploring the catacombs? Even in the Old Testament, who... Sacrificed to the children in the rock crevices. To the Mithradinian Church One is initiated in caves; the Church Fathers can tell the The relationship of these customs with Christian ones is not a lie. They attribute it to the influence of evil demons. Justin. Mart. dial. c. Tryph. p. 289: "öray o rd rov Mi-loov uvoryow wapadıdöyres Acywoiw, &% regöæg yeyevñd S a?e-roy nal oxnAaıovy xadwoı-roy ToXov, EN uveiv ToVs æedo-usvovs aurw rapadıdovow. „ Echen bald nach: "avisropyda nv xai roocyonpa aro rov Hoclov zegıxongvy (he refers to himself on Isaiah 33:13-19, where rocks, bread, and water are mentioned. (is, but the place doesn't fit here), ele d rous Aoyovs

637

Roman legions in the year 219 AD to the birth of Christ appointed Roman emperors; the name of the god Helio— Gabal is much like Sun=Baal, sun god. Note In a worthy manner, we will still meet this man in the third person. tenth century after the birth of Christ, all the customs suddenly resurfaced publicly, something we have known for centuries previously in more or less clear traces in those Ge= have encountered those who have been in the service of the sun. Helioga= bal was circumcised, ate no pork I, indulged in the most unrestrained sexual lust and also wore as Kai-s?er the clothing of a Syrian high priest of the sun. He appeared in crimson robes at the gladiatorial combats. wand, without a doubt, because he viewed these battles as sacrifices=

Exeiyoys rob r Migge uvoryow æcegced idr Ev TORw Ert-xalovusvo rag avrois Onnialo uveiodaı ur aurov, UNXÖ death dunBolov Evepyntyvai eineiv. Christ is also in a

Born in a cave. The Mithramysteries take place in caves.
Bread and water were served; Justin. Mart. apol. I, p. 97:

- *ööreo ey rois rov Midgœ uvörnoiors maoedoxay ylyeodai uvvmP oausvor oi novnpoi daiuoves." Tertullian says de praescript.
advers. haeret. c. 40: "Mithram signare in frontibus milites suos et panis oblationem celebrare." As in Mithra-Mysteries, as was said by the first worshippers at the Last Supper not only bread and wine, but also water was given; Justin. Martyr. apolog. I, p. 98: "agrog woospegereu , l 16th vol. , The gatherings and the Lord's Supper were held by Christians on the day of the sun, "rn roö Miov deyouey2y young, Just. M. apolog. I, p. 97. The Christians celebrate v roö io Juegay, explains Justin. M. apol. I, p. 98, because this was the first day on which God created the world, and because Christ rose from the same; but it will also What remains most striking in this explanation is that the Christians celebrated the same day with similar customs, which was the Mediator (the god is called Meotrys Plut. de Isid. c. 46) and Ver-

The sons of Mithras were holy.

) Dio Cass. LXXIX, p. 911 and 912. ed. Hanov. ro aidioiov xe-ots repentance xt x oov,7 Ho 0 Gale,ji.

638

He performed his duties, as if acting as a priest. - He married a Vestal Virgin, to serve as his God's representative with this to produce divine children of a pure virgin); also of a fine God Heliogabalus gave him a wife, like the one in Babylonian mythology.
niche temple held in the uppermost chamber dedicated to Baal was. He danced at the sacrifice 2) and placed it in the temple. his god's male genitals); but especially
He practiced those shameful boy sacrifices. Throughout Italy-
To this end he sent his men, who were with the
The noblest families select the most handsome boys and after had to deliver to Rome. There he spoke daily with the Ma(they perform such terrible ceremonies). We see It is quite clear from this man's actions that the Human sacrifice in the Orient had never ceased, that neither the rule of the Persians, nor that of the Greeks and The Romans were able to completely eradicate these atrocities; they They simply withdrew into secrecy, and this too not everywhere; just as political power has fallen into the hands of a ) Seongeig xte e Dio Cassius le ) woxeiro xai Jwv. Dio Cass. I.c.

) aidioia avsonrov Eußaiuy Dio Gass. le | ) Dio Cass. I.c. "Tas de aroponrovs Sud, cg br ve, raldas Opayındösuvos xal yayyavevucoi X0W@uevog." Lam-Pridius in Heliogab. says of this emperor: "Id agens, ne quis Romae deus, nisi Heliogabalus coleretur. Dicebat praeterea Judaeorum et Samaritorum religiones et christianam devotionem illuc transferendam: ut omnium culturarum secretum Heliogabali sacerdotium teneret. — Caedit et humanas hostias lectis ad hoc pueris nobilibus et decoris per omnem Italiam patrimis et matrimis. Omne denique magorum genus aderat illi operabaturque quotidie hortante illo et gratias diis agents, quod amicos eorum invenisset, cum inspiceret exta puerilia et excrucieret hostias ad ritum gentilem suum."From the emperor Commodus says to Lampridius: Sacra Mithriaca homiecidio vero polluit., p. 49 Lamprid. Commod. in Paris. output the scriptor. historian August. by Salmasius.

639

A man comes who shares the abominable superstition,
They reappear in public and there are hundreds of Priests who readily offer their hands. The aversion Even the most thoughtful people were so little able to grasp this deeply rooted—to eradicate such atrocities as the prohibitions which already the
The Persians, on the other hand, had issued decrees. The Greeks and Romans
The writers are unanimous that human sacrifice is only can be practiced by the most despicable barbarity—ten, Greek spirit permeated the Macedonian lord—
They covered the entire Orient; Greeks, then Romans, were Since Alexander the Great, rulers in these lands, who Greek was the language of all educated people, Greek-Chinese science had to be at least somewhat understood by everyone.
to be cared for, who wanted to claim educational merit:
and yet the horror of human sacrifice remains hidden

They continued to practice it! — Why not among the Jews as well? —

We come to the Hebrews. This people has before the exile in relation to the eating of human flesh and Drinking human blood was not practiced by the Phoenician tribes.
distinguished; after the imprisonment in the second temple
This barbarity continues in secret, and at the Em Revolt of the Jews under Trajan at the beginning of the Second World War
In the Christian century, it reappears on a grand scale.
to the outbreak. |

The fluency of the imagination must already be present.
a pleasure derived from human blood and human flesh, which both in the Old Testament and in other Jewish texts Scriptures found, leading to the conclusion that these were given to the Hebrews Barbarity was not foreign to him. In the fourth book of Moses
For example, chapter 14, verse 9 states: “Do not rebel against Jesus.”
Hova and do not fear the people of the land, for our
They are bread. Their protection has departed from them and Jehovah is with us: do not be afraid! — Here we have we have an indication that the ancient Hebrews with their Ge—to seduce prisoners just as they did the Egyptians and Carthaginians, namely, they consumed; for what other reason could there be?

640

Is the comparison with bread valid? The author must Understanding more than simply defeating, the image goes towards very much into the particulars of consumption. Zechariah leads This hint is further given in chapter 9, verse 13, where he says: “As Bo-
I will stretch Judah as my bow, and I will grasp Ephraim as my bow.
Awaken your sons, Zion, against your sons, Greeks—land, and make yourself like a hero's sword! And the—Hova will appear above them, and like lightning it will travel out of his arrow, and the Lord Jehovah blows the trumpet.
and goes forth with the storms of the south. Jehovah the Hordes of armies will protect them; and they will devour their enemies!
and crush them like sling stones and drink their blood]), make noise as if from wine, and become full as Offering bowls, like the corners of the altar.” The Pro-Phet lets us glimpse his dreams of victory into
The barbarity of the victorious Hebrews. In ancient times,

They ate their fallen enemies as food; later they drank only in the euphoria of victory did she consume their blood. Torn-off pieces of her body. That's how monstrous it is. The bloodlust of this people, that it is not merely inwardly full the will of enemy blood, "like sacrificial bowls," but also outwardly, "like the corners of the altar. The Prophet about does not drive; his statement will, as we shall see, through a report by Dio Cassius to a most remarkable—

1) Balaam says in the blessing he speaks over the Israelites Numbers 23:24: "Look, the people rise up like a lioness!" And like a lion, it rises up. It does not lie down until it consumed the loot and the blood of the slain. drinks., Likewise Numbers 24:7: Higher than Agag is fine König (the Israelites, of course, didn't have one of those back then) and His kingdom arises. God led him out of Egypt, Buffalo's speed is in him. He devours nations, his enemies, and he gnaws off their bones, and shreds their arrows he grinds.

641

proved to be a dignified Jewish practice. In Isaiah 49:26 Jehovah comforts the Jews in captivity through the promise that their enemies would clash and "Their flesh and blood will be eaten. Your brothers," he said. he, "I will let her eat her own flesh and as if from must "May they be drunk with their blood!" Also Jeremiah—Mia uses the image of human flesh eating. He says chapter... 5:17: Behold, I am bringing against you a people from afar, and it will consume your harvest and your bread; it will... Your sons and your daughters will consume it. Your sheep and your cattle consume your vine. and your fig tree." Chapter 13, verse 16: "Therefore you shall All who devoured you will be devoured, and all your sorrows "They will go into captivity." Likewise, Micah, Chapter 1. 3:1: "Listen, you leaders of Jacob and princes of the house!" Behold Israel! Is it not for you to know the law? Those who hate good and love evil, who hate the lion peel off the skin and remove the meat from its casing.

leg; and which devour the flesh of my people and their
to strip off the skin and crush her bones and it to shreds like meat into a pot and like meat into a jug.
Palm 14:4: "Do not all evildoers realize that..."
my people devour like bread, they do not call upon Jehovah 925
In these last places is the human flesh-eating of all to take things only figuratively; but the image has its own
The reason lies in the barbarity of past times, where one acts
He skinned his enemies, drank their blood, and ate some of their flesh; the Jews also practice skinning.
the rebellion under Trajan. The image of the flesh eating and drinking the blood of human bodies maintains itself until the very latest times. Josephus says of the Jewish people...
The leaders Simon and Johannes, who took over the top violence was usurped in Jerusalem, which was besieged by Titus

1) The same is said in Pf. 53, 5.

41

642

had): "Those whom Simon had plundered,
They dragged him to John; the one whom John had taken to Simon;
so these two drank, as it were, the blood of the Citizens gathered and viewed the dismembered corpses. »
In the Talmud, the passage Lamentations of Jeremiah 4:10, where it says
It is claimed that the Jewish women had cooked their children, attributed to the Jews as a virtue they displayed before the inhabitants of Sodom, with whom the prophets compared them (pre-existing?). Is this claim also based on only based on a peculiar interpretation of the word pn

(misericordes), with which in the prophetic passage the wisdom those who perform this action are designated;
It is striking enough that Rabbi Yochanan who can perceive this abomination as a virtue. In The rabbi says of the same Talmudic treatise, Sanhedrin.
Hillel: "Israel will not get a Messiah; because they
They already ate him in the days of Hezekiah; and

This assertion about food is also made by the rabbi, which contradicts Hillel's statement, not as something Ab-
 The unusual and unheard-of were rejected. I. Let us think only the new testament! Was the bloodshed against the Jews?
 Nuts have been so strictly forbidden since ancient times, they shuddered.
 even before the thought of enjoying people
 6 |

*) Joseph. bark. Jew. V, 10.4.

2) Tract. Sanhe drin. bei Gersong Talmud. Judensch. S. 211.

) Tract. Sanhe drin. bei Gerf. S. 130: Rabbi Hillel spoke:
 Israel will not have a Messiah; for they already have him.
 eaten in the days of Hezekiah. Rabbi Joseph said: His Lord, forgive Rabbi Hillel; for when did Hezekiah... lives? At the time of the first temple. But Zechariah has in the an-
 The temple was prophesied and spoken to: Rejoice greatly, you Daughter of Zion, etc. (Zechariah 9:9). So not against the un-Rabbi Joseph explained that he had heard the request for food, but he objected:
 He discredits his opponent by pointing out that prophets who later lived when Hezekiah had announced this Messiah.

643

flesh and human blood back: how could in the new test-ment the image of a meal of flesh and blood be used by the Messiah? How could the belief that Such a pleasure, forgiveness of sins, works for the Jews-How could Christians find it so appealing? How could the very idea of it even be conceivable?
 that the Messiah was destined for sacrificial death, that his blood
 the world, a bite of his body, a drink of his Does bleeding to erase the sins of the individual even create them?
 When Jews are accused in recent times of that the horrors of human sacrifice permeated their entire lives
 The Middle Ages in isolated, albeit rare, cases
 They would still appear, they have pointed to the origin of the Christians pointed out, from the new testament Stelpresented arguments intended to prove that the

The idea of the necessity of a human sacrifice and from the reconciling power of the smell of flesh and blood-
 It only originated with Christianity, and only the Jews that it was therefore attributed to the fact that the heathens were between the
 They were unable to distinguish between the first Christians and the Indians.
 would have. These ideas alone are incompatible with Christianity.
 not unique; they originate from the Jewish religion Gion, find their origin in the ancient Passover sacrifice; the Jews are referred to by pointing to the Christians
 The doctrine is not remotely justified. The teaching of the new Te Instead, statements foregoes any other sacrifice, because through the sacrificial death of Jesus, sufficiency was given once and for all schehen sey; but Judaism continually needs strong atonement means, since the Messiah had not yet appeared and Jehovah's favor for this appearance through the complete to achieve the most profound atonement for the sins of the Hebrew people gen ist. N

Furthermore, it belongs here that Old Testament passages in the distress caused by hunger, the enjoyment of food Partly threaten, partly claim to have actually happened.
 report. A people who eat human flesh

41 *

644 considered an abomination, even in the distress of a
 The siege will not be resolved; it will take its course.
 or die. During the siege of Samaria by the
 A woman appears before the Syrian King Ben-Hadad.
 from Israel and asks for help; she was with another
 The woman and husband agreed that both would slaughter their sons.
 to eat them. When the son of one woman had been eaten,
 The other one didn't want to keep her promise and hid it
 Her child. The king's decision is not revealed; he He tore his clothes, it is said, and swore to the prophets to have Elijah beheaded, who had received help through the promised aid Jehovah's cause for this extreme resistance). — If the Old Testament passages the eating of human flesh
 By threatening at all, they thereby indicate that
 In such cases, not only individual inhuman beings should be brought to this bar.
 not just Bavarian food, but that they are generally used for the last substitute was considered, to which one in the Re= used to grab the gel before the handover was considered unavoidable= recognized as absolutely necessary. In the third book of Moses, chapter 26, For example, in 27 it says: "If you do not obey me and If you walk against me, then I too will walk against you in fury. And I will chastise you seven times for your sins. And you shall eat the flesh of your sons and the flesh of your daughters You shall eat them. And I will devour your heights and rot your Sun pillars out and throw your corpses onto the ruins= You and your idols and my soul abhor you. And I will scatter you among the nations, and after you the Draw out your sword and let your land be a wasteland and your "Cities in ruins." — The author writes: "visual appearance" after the destruction of Jerusalem by the Babylonians and has the experience before him that of the besieged Human flesh was eaten. This is confirmed in Deuteronomy 5. 28, 52, where it says: "And [the foreign people! oppress you

) 1 Kings 6:24 ff.

645

through all your gates, until your walls fall, the high ones and trust in those you rely on in all your life Land; and you eat the fruit of your womb, the flesh of your sons and your daughters, whom Jehovah your God, given to you in the distress and anxiety with which your Your enemy frightens you. The man who is the most soft beneath you and is very abundant, will be given to his brother and the wife at his bosom and the rest of his sons, who he left behind, begrudge it, one of them from to give his sons the flesh which he eats, since they have given him Nothing left in the distress and fear, with which your enemy frightens you in all your gates. The The softest among you and the voluptuous one who did not tempt, to place the soles of their feet on the ground before opulence and before Softness, is felt by the man at her breasts and her to begrudge their sons and daughters the afterbirth, which emerged between her legs, and her sons, who She was born; for she will secretly eat them because of lack of

Everything, in the distress and anxiety with which your
 "The enemy terrifies you in your gates." — The author, speaking of...
 is apparently driving him; he wants the punishments that are imposed on the Violations of the law should be followed, described quite vividly,
 And so must the besieged themselves take care of the aftermath?
 They envy women the birth of their children, with which they satisfy their hunger—len: a thought that represents the highest degree of disgusting barbarity reached. Until then, the barbarity of the Hebrews is true-probably not gone; but we will likely emerge from the Take so much from it that human flesh eating is involved.
 prolonged sieges, when the remaining food supplies were depleted, as the last substitute in use came. It deserves attention that the author not the eating of human flesh in general as a terrible punishment threatens; it would have been enough if he had said:
 You will find the bodies of your fallen countrymen consume. But this thought did not terribly displease him.

646

nug, and thereby he proves that the same is also for the He-Brær did not have the horrific thing, precisely because of the consumption of the fallen, which has often occurred and is true-
 That was probably the rule before one surrendered. Rather, it lies
 For him, the horrific aspect of the threat lay in the fact that the parents out of necessity the most valuable human creatures, the own—Children will be slaughtered and eaten, so that even the richest and most lavish inhabitants indulge in the enjoyment of Human flesh, specifically the flesh of the nearest neighbor.
 Those who belong will have to understand; in the common war—
 In contrast, the consumption of the fallen is practiced in times presupposes necessity. Jehovah also threatens at Eze—Chile, chapter 5, verse 8, told the inhabitants of Jerusalem that he wanted to do to them as he has never done before and will never do again
 I will do, namely, "Fathers shall eat their sons in your "Middle and sons shall see their fathers." Now ask
 I wonder what to think about the cultural state of a people, to whom one can only threaten that the parents, in order to to satiate their hunger, to eat their own children who—the: apart from the fact that the Old Testament authors
 They only voiced their threat after success and the ent-had already experienced legal challenges? Can a people

 The consumption of human flesh is something truly horrific—tes s²eyn, in which it is believed that at Bela—
 The parents fought, preferring to eat their own children rather than that they die of hunger or even just surrender to the enemy Ben? — Zechariah also refers to this man-eating thing.
 fen in distress through hunger, when he chapter 11, 9 says: “I will not graze you. What dies, die.”
 decay, decay; and let the remaining ones feast—
 One man eats another's flesh... Jeremiah speaks entirely of the... same threat as in the Mosaic books, chapter 19, verse 8:
 “I will make this city an object of horror and derision; whoever before...”
 If someone approaches her, they will be horrified and will mock her.
 all their complaints. And I make sure they get the flesh of their 647

Sons eat and the flesh of their daughters; and one follows to eat the other in distress and fear, with which They frighten their enemies and those who seek their lives
 hen. Indeed, Jeremiah did after the capture of Jerusalem Lem's in the lamentations it is Jehovah's fault that he had brought the horrific upon the city. “Look, Jehovah, he says (chapter 2, verse 20), and look! To whom are you accountable?
 So, what was done? May women eat their own fruit, and may children eat it?
 their arms? May someone be strangled in the Lord's sanctuary—
 The priest and prophet? Lying on the ground in the alleys Boy and old man, my virgins and young men are Fallen by the sword; you strangled on the day of your death.
 Wrath, slaughtered without mercy! Chapter 4, 9: “Happy
 Those slain by the sword are better than those killed by the Hun.
 Those slain, who languish, pierced by Man Gel on the fruits of the field. Tender women's hands cooking their children; they must serve them for food at the yam more of the daughters of my people. —

As for the enjoyment of human flesh and blood Regarding victims, we have the passage above from the Book of Wisdom, Chapter 12, verse 3, already mentioned, where the Cananites clearly condemn such sacrificial feasts as a pre-event.
 A throw will be made. The religion of the Hebrews before the

Their exile was no different from that of the Phoenician tribes;
 The Hebrews did not destroy the nations, they mingled among themselves with them and learned their deeds; they served their idols.
 Images that became their downfall; they sacrificed their Sons and daughters to the idols and shed innocent blood
 Blood, the blood of their sons and daughters, which they dedicated to the idol Ca-Naan sacrifices were made, so that the land was defiled by blood; and they defiled themselves with their deeds and committed fornication with their actions). "Your origin and your—" burt, says Ezekiel 2), «is from the land of the Cananites; ) Pf. 106. 34 ff.) Ezech. 16, 1. 20.

648 -

You took your sons and daughters whom you bore to me, and sacrificed them to them [the Canaanite gods] as a sacrifice.
 to drain. Was there too little of your whoring that you also
 You slaughtered my children and gave them up by slaying them.

“You consecrate?” “Jehovah said to me: Reveal to them Their atrocities, that they committed adultery and spilled blood on their hands is, and that they committed adultery with their idols ben and even their children, whom they bore to me, gave to them consecrates for food 1). These passages do not confirm only what our entire previous investigation has detailed darthut that the pre-exilic Hebrews the Canaanite Cul ten were found to be that they, therefore, according to the book of wisdom Even their victims must eat human flesh.

have; but they also give at the same time to the testimony of the aforementioned
 The tenth book itself provides new support. Ezekiel also summarizes the Child sacrifice as food of the gods; it is not the beforz
 the power of human blood, which the Hebrews called They did not sacrifice their children, but they slaughtered their children.
 the goddess “to consume 2). Have the gods
 Those who have eaten human flesh will also be those who sacrifice there.
 (from comrades, as from sacrificial animals). It is according to the evidence we have presented here, certainly irrefutable

) Eszech. 23, 37. The entire 16th and 23rd chapters of the Prophet Ezekiel provides extensive evidence that the religion of He Brethren at no time before the exile from that of the surrounding

The peoples differed significantly.

2) The Mexicans also practiced human sacrifice for food.
God. The high priest placed the victim's heart in the idol.
with a golden spoon in the mouth and smear the lips
the same with the blood. The Mexicans ate from the body.
Only arms and legs. The rest they threw to wild animals.
before or burned it. Clavigero, History of Mexico I, p. 390.

It has already been noted above that through enjoyment from the food of God, which is from the sacrifice with which God believed he was getting into a closer relationship; the eating of The sacrificial meat was handled by a pious hand, pleasing to God.
lung; cf. Leviticus 7:18.

649

The truth is: like the Canaanites, so were the ancients.
Hebrews, merciless child murderers, who held sacrificial feasts of human flesh and blood; the parents have
They sacrificed their own children and ate the meat.
Specifically, the firstborn sons are placed in the eldest Times of this fate have had; for before Jehovah shall one eats the firstborn year after year (9), which of course is un-
The Mosaic law applies only to cattle and sheep.

In the times of our prophets, people were, like me
I believe we are already so far removed from the monstrous barbarity.
It has come to pass that formal meals are no longer possible.
held the human flesh, but only a bite more (from the victim and a little of the blood), to use this more suggestive usage to represent the old victims to replace feasts, with the gods nevertheless the common to share the meal, thus to sanctify oneself and the to assure oneself of divine grace. It was probably believed that now, with the human sacrifices, the actual sacrificial feast from the meat of a pig that one, the relative shaft for reasons of taste and internal structure, incidentally slaughtered. Therefore abominations appear among the prophets.
Bites alongside the eating of pork. Isaiah 65:4:
"The people who constantly offend me in my face, in offering sacrifices to the gardens and burning incense on the bricks, that sitting in graves and sleeping in caves, the sweat nefleish issted and abominations=bites 3) in fine bowls

) 5 Mos. 15, 20.

) However, the victims did not eat raw and bloody meat.
still in practice. Ezekiel 33:24: "You eat with the blood and Raise your eyes to your idols and shed blood., Of which= Ezekiel is probably primarily criticizing the eating of sacrificial meat. on the mountains, Ezek. 18:6, 11, 15; Ezek. 33:25. For pray he was only referring to the sacrifice on mountains in the sense of: was=
And is he talking specifically about food?

3) DD P29 The expression SD foeditas does indeed give information about the hat, that says: Stay to yourself, don't come too close to me;

—

650

"For I am holy to you." "Such a smoke finds in my Nose, a fire that burns continually." Isaiah 66:17: "The to sanctify and purify oneself for the gardens, following one in the middle; eating pork and abominations) and Mice, they will all perish, says Jehovah.
The Prophet clearly distinguishes the abominations from the Pork; the Hebrews call it "pork and abominations."
bite, » eat nasty things «pork and horrors and mice. » Abomination cannot generally be defined as something impure here—to draw; since the prophet was once the objects=
If he lists the abominations individually, he must also include the "horrors".
bite » to have something special in mind; that he means it Understanding bites of pork is not believable; because after he had already said in general terms: they eat Pork, he cannot continue: and bites of Pork. Rather, he understands a special kind of meat—
The enjoyment of the abhorrent, the enjoyment of which, alongside that of the Pigs and mice went about; a species of which one only enjoys a bite, because it offers something to those enjoying it.

had repulsive things against which he harbored such great aversion, that he doesn't even want to describe them in more detail. Since it turned out is that the ancient Hebrews, in the sacrifices of the man— eating sirloin, that's how one becomes, especially if one eats the verse

The substance from which the bite is made requires no further analysis.

However, it describes something highly abhorrent.

Leviticus 7:18 and 19:7 describe the consumption of the thank offering meat.

- on the third day, for which the death penalty is imposed, so called.

Ezekiel (4:14) uses the expression where he is commanded, To bake bread with human excrement.

) Here the Hebrew text has the word 5D res abominabilis, detestantis, which is needed for everything impure.

Zechariah uses the related word pe from the sacrifice meat which the Philistines have in their mouths (chapter 9, verse 7).

651

I want to emulate what we have been taught about the Passover celebration.

Ben, can hardly doubt that the biblical author under the abomination small pieces of cooked or fried

Human flesh, which one no longer understands in one's time not as a meal, but enjoyed as a kind of sacred consecration.

The passage Psalm 106:28 also states: "They ate victims of the Todten - would like to belong here. It has been stated so far,

(Among the dead, the idols are to be understood), in the Ge Propositions to the living Jehovah. As long as one is, of course, at

The Hebrews, who did not think of eating human flesh, must

One should look for another explanation; we will certainly with greater justification the place in our sense grasp. The Hebrew expression MO is not only used by a natural death, but also a violent one used, and the addition "Gods" is not in the place;

 She simply says: "They ate sacrifices of the dead, who Corpses of victims.
 Regarding the consumption of blood, as already mentioned above...
 3 Pf. 16, 4. is quoted, where a Hebrew boasts:
 I don't donate their blood donations 2). A speech bi proof that the ancient Hebrews also among the people Sacrificing blood has not ruled out the consumption of blood; is the until custom existing to this day, that in the case of the—cutting, which takes the place of a victim, the Rab-

) The passage Isaiah 8:19, which has been cited as a parallel, does not fit and is also mentioned by Gesen in the thesaurus. II, 779. to: Rejected.

) Gramberg says about this passage, critical history of religion of the ancient world.
 T. I, 144: The psalm is probably not without reason dedicated to the Da—attributed to vid 2, and since he himself made human sacrifices from the did not dare to remove Jehovah's cult (2 Samuel 20:8-9); so This mention of the wine spears mixed with sacrificial blood speaks volumes.
 not at all against it, whether they were heathens or what the expression n makes, offered by Israelites become.,

652

Biner sucks the blood from the wound. We also have information about that.
 We've already spoken.

The bar was used until the Babylonian captivity Publicly practiced the practice of cannibalism of victims, in the earliest times, as noted, by formal meals consisting of meat, later by only enjoyed another bite. In Babylonia, one must...
 Even back then, barbarity was considered an abomination.
 although even here in the mysteries much later the Boy sacrifices come to light. The victorious babies
 Ionians and their allies make the defeated Hebrews
 The act of cannibalism is cited as an accusation. (See Ezekiel, chapter 36.)

where of the downfall of the Kingdom of Judah, of the abduction, imprisonment and the mockery of the peoples
The Jews are being discussed, Jehovah says in verse 13: Because they are They said to you: "You have eaten people and You have made your people childless, «« therefore you shall no longer devour people and no longer devour your people "Make me childless," says the Lord Jehovah. And I will.
to no longer let you hear the insults of the peoples, and You shall no longer bear the scorn of the nations, and your
"You shall not make your people childless again," says the Lord.
Jehovah." — As the Book of Wisdom tells us about the Canani-as well as of all the peoples, as the prophet Ezekiel states here about the Jews, a literal testimony that one can see the ger Sacrificed children consumed.

After the Babylonian captivity, we encounter
those found by Antiochus in the Temple in Jerusalem Greeks, who had been fattened up for a while in order to to sacrifice at Passover and to eat his flesh: a Proof that, as with the Samaritans and Phoenicians in the mysteries, as also among the Jews in secret.
The belief persisted that the enjoyment of the flesh of a to give a special consecration to sacrificed people. After the
The destruction of the Temple occurs during the outrage of the Jews.

653

*

during the reign of Emperor Trajan (115 AD)
the old barbarity of eating human flesh once again in to an unimaginable degree. All the horrors of The ancient Hebrews suddenly reappear here in their entirety.
Abomination exposed. The main center of outrage was
The North African city of Cyrene. The fourth part of the
The inhabitants of this populous city consisted of Jews).
They attacked the Greeks and Romans, sawing some of them in half.
the prisoners, including David, others threw them wild animals, others forced them to live and to fight with each other in death, partly they slaughtered the

They themselves ate their flesh and entrails.
 They smeared themselves with blood and peeled off their skin.
 and hung around their shoulders). Around 220,000 people are said to have died in this uprising. He spread also across Egypt and Cyprus, where the Jews who practiced the same barbarity. The number of those in these
 The number of people who remained in the countries is given as 240,000. Are they Even these round numbers are not entirely certain, but they do demonstrate of thousands of sacrifices, in which the Jews such atrocities were committed back then. No such thing has happened in Cyprus since.
 Jews were tolerated more; even when the storm hit a ship
 the coast, where Jews were located, diesel fuel was used.
 Ben killed).

9) The Jewish community was so significant in these regions that the Cyrenians had their own synagogue in Jerusalem (Acts 2:10).
 Chapter 6, 19.

) Dio Cass. LXVIII, 32. p. 786. ed. Hanov.: ἡ γὰρ ὁπάξας ἀνῥω Εἰροσύνη καὶ τὰ Ἐγρεῖα ἀνέδοσαν, τὴν ῥε αὐαὶν Ἰεῖπον καὶ ῥα ῥεῖον Εὐδὸν. Eusebius says hist. eceles.
 IV, 2: 6 ἡ δὲ ζευαρογ δερύον ῥιγὸν αἱ Ὀραϊσδὸν διἀπὸ τῶν Εἰρεῶν ἡ γὰρ ὁπάξας Εἰρεῶν Ὀραϊσδὸν.

3) “ὡς καὶ εἰσὶν ὑποβάδας ῥεῖον. Dio Cass. l. c.

) “want Εδοῦσαν ὡς. Dio Cass. l. c.

) However, even the pagans in Cyprus still celebrated back then.
 Human sacrifice. Lact. inst. div. I, 21: “Apud Cyprios huma-

654 |

What can one say to this? Even in the second century
 According to our calendar, the scattered Jews eat the meat of the heathens, smear themselves with their blood, not just one not just individuals, but the entire mass of the outraged — and that The blood of heathens should be considered unclean? — Or have many—
 Could it be that pagan writers simply invented these atrocities?
 The pagans did not invent their story, but rather... the Jews the age of their abhorrence of human sacrifice and before human blood. The above passage in Zechariah provides irrefutable proof that the message of the Dio

Cassius is true; for how there Jehovah took revenge on the Jews
 She promises to her enemies, so here she will in truth practiced; you shall devour your enemies, says the Prophet,
 They crush them like slingshot stones, drink their blood, full
 They become like offering bowls, like the corners of the altar.
 One might object that the Jews are too un-
 The barbarity was only amplified by this prophetic passage.
 were they prompted to do this; had they not practiced such things before?
 Sad enough as it is! Sad that the religious book that a people has such terrible promises; dreadful, that this people willingly endures even the most inhuman things—leads to this, because a prophet, in the name of a fine God, leads to—Cheers! But a people decides to eat people.
 not based on a prophetic pronouncement, if it is a For millennia, the enjoyment of human flesh, yes even the mere touching of the animal's blood with the lips considered an abomination: here lies an old, formerly general, but then quietly maintained by individuals
 The exercise is fundamental; the prophetic passage has at most contributed to the perception of these atrocities as a phenomenon understood with which the messianic empire had to begin,

2

— — —

nam hostiam Jovi Teucus immolavit idque sacrificium posteris tradidit, quod est nuper, Hadriano imperante, sublatum. "

| 655

(for the most terrible revenge against the heathens is everywhere the beginning of the new empire) and the cannibalistic ver-
 He practiced driving on a large scale. The location of the diorama also shows... other barbarities which violate the promise of Zechariah does not name it, and yet they have their other side among the Jews—broad justification can be found. The enemies are sacrificed, One does not merely eat the meat to test them according to the proto literally devour a Phetic saying out of revenge, son-which also includes the entrails, which, as with pagans, (This also applies to the Jews), to whom God burned as food.

were, in order to enjoy this community holy. Furthermore, the prisoners are skinned;
 and the saying: To skin someone alive is, as we say | have seen the Jew as an image of a high degree of Abuse is common. Perhaps it was also the case with humans.
 sacrifice, as with those of animals) use that the
 The sacrificer had to skin the slaughtered person.
 But now, one might object, those under Trajan among the Jews in Libya, Egypt and Cyprus to the Ta
 a barbarism that is emerging in secret used to establish a practice: how is it that the Jews in Palestine during the earlier uprising under Vespasian Did the pagans not practice the same barbarity? — That this
 The fact that it didn't happen is proof of our previous under search. In Palestine itself was our present Mosaic
 The law has been in force since Ezra and Nehemiah, far more so there was greatly enhanced by this law of the old barbarism richer counteracted 9. Into northern Africa but

1) 3 Mos. Chapter 3.

2) Leviticus 1:6. The Scythian peoples also hang as trophies, as noted above, the tanned hides of the enemies.

All the provisions of this were rejected by all the Jews.
 Law never recognized in ancient times. The Essene sect.

3. B. made no bloody sacrifice at all. Even outside Pa
 There were Jewish temples in Laestina. The Egyptian Jews

—

056

Were Jews already before the adoption of the new law?
 immigrated, people who, as can be seen from the reports of the
 The prophet Jeremiah sees the reformatory innovations were very inaccessible. If it was already so difficult, those from Babylonian captivity to Palestine to accustom immigrant Jews to the new law: in order to

How much sooner will the remnants of the old barbarism resurface at have received the Jews scattered in Africa, where a Ezra and Nehemiah were not effective! — An example of The enjoyment of human flesh is nevertheless also derived from the The Siege of Jerusalem by Titus is recounted. A distinguished A Jewish woman named Maria slaughters her own child and cooks the meat. meat and eats it; she calls this murder a victim). Josephus is indeed very keen to describe the heartache, with which the woman embarked on the horrific act, and the horror that this incident caused among those brought, who received knowledge of it; alone by the name Given the misery of the besieged city, one must doubt that This case was the only one that remained.

They had their own special temples and special priests, who were in They were not allowed to perform the service in the temple at Jerusalem. Onias, the son of a high priest, had received from the ägyptifdyen king Ptolemy Philomator had a place (e.g. 162 BC) (Birth year of Christ) and according to the pattern of the Jerusalem church at Leon Topolis built a famous temple. Jos. bell. Jud. VII, 10. 2. and antiqu. XIII, 3. 2. From the latter passage one can see, that a Jewish temple has existed on the same site since ancient times pel stand, which was then dilapidated. It says therein that the Jews also in Phoenicia and elsewhere against all odds The cost of temples would have caused many divisions: I have to give. 1) Josh. bark. Jew. IV. 3. “) Point 4 of the 3rd chapter.

Second section.

The individual Old Testament examples of people sacrifices of the Hebrews.

First section.

The period before Moses—

The story is known to have been told by the Hebrews up to the point where... the creation of the world, indeed the biblical verses barrels are so bold, even the sex registers of their famous ten men with a list of their ancestors up to

to guide the first pair of people down. They are about a historical garment with which she unhistorical, into the Names dating back to prehistoric times adorn, not at all ver-They lay. They know of an Adam, of a Cain, of to give a Noah details from his life-judge, as by David and Solomon; the fifth chapter
The first book of Moses even knows the number of years of life.
all descendants of Adam except Noah. Hopefully Our time will not be improved by such arbitrary statements.
longer more in their investigations about the age of our-res gefsexes and the latest transformation of our earth-Define the surface and let it drive you crazy. Touch us.
These news items will not be discussed in detail here; however, we too are in the case, the real, starting point of the Hebrew history to look for the story in the Old Testament, since it already existed before Moses a bone of a human sacrifice given by Abraham becomes 42

658

It has already been noted above that the prophets their not relating to the history of the Hebrew people to trace the exodus from Egypt; Ezekiel begins fine rebuke with the stay in Egypt); Abra-Ham is very rarely mentioned among the prophets, the Je(hovadienst selbst nicht über Mose obenführung). To this end
The significant circumstance arises that the old testament about
He has nothing further to say about his stay in Egypt.
than that he was 400, or according to another source 430 years old-lasted; the first book of Moses concludes with Joseph (ph.),
The second begins with Moses; between the two men there should be a period of 400 years; the following information is given about this period.
The biblical scriptures contain no information on this. It is very likely that... the historical memory of the Hebrew people about the ex-the train from Egypt did not return; moreover, they had further legends of a patriarch Abraham and some his first descendants, who had gone to Egypt long before They supposedly immigrated during a famine. Is Abra?
If he even still has a historical figure, he certainly forms one.
the outermost historical figure of the Old Testament.

We'll take him for that; but it's difficult to decide.
 be, what the Old Testament accounts say about him
 Historical truth and what is an addition by the author.
 One should not be misled by the Old Testament account.
 to be bribed; she has, as I said, the peculiar quality that They give all their persons a secure historical background
 There are also those that appear to be unhistorical.
 Genesis knows very well that God himself created the first human being.
 Skirts made of furs, so that he could put a mark on Cain have, so that no one would kill him 3), as the story Jo

) Ezech. 16, 26; Ezech. 20, 5.

2) Jehovah has been the God of the Hebrews only since the Exodus from Egypt.
 Deuteronomy 32:10; 1 Chronicles 18:21-22. In Egypt they
 The Hebrews had a different law. Ezek. 20:18; Ezek. 23:3.

3) Genesis A:15, and yet the genesis proceeds from the perspective.

659

knows every detail of Seph's life. What is this based on?
 The reliability of their information about Abraham? On (the legend). The legend is not to be completely dismissed; but A guarantee for historical truth cannot be given.
 during; also the story of Adam and Noah is based They rely on legends, and yet these people are decidedly un-historically. Abraham is not only criticized by the Jews, but also by the Jews.
 who were also declared by the Arabs to be the ancestor;
 In the latter case, he naturally did not include the later Jewish, son-the Arabic religion. Whom should one believe more?
 The Arabs or the Jews? Was it the Hebrews, as it as is evident from Exodus, chapter 3, even in Egypt Jehovah is a new god, so Abraham can also
 He had not been a servant of Jehovah; however, the assumption is not supported.
 Nothing prevents him from also seeing the sun, even if I did not worship him under the name Jehovah. From Abra-Ham's father is granted permission to worship other gods.
 serves); but Abraham himself, the patriarch of the nation,
 He must of course have been a worshipper of Jehovah; Moses designated him as such.

not his God, unknown to the Hebrews, as the old one, in The forgotten God of the patriarchs, to whom the (to win over Hebrews for him). One may assume that the God of Abraham, the ancient Semitic El, was said to have been, the man as a generative sun being through sexual service, But they were also worshipped with human sacrifices. The biblical sian narratives, according to which Abraham and Isaac their beautiful women were given to the kings to eat from this pasture that only one human couple was present at the beginning. For

To whom will God give the sign? Adam had two sons, Cain and Abel; Cain killed Abel: who is still there,
who could kill Cain?

5 Gramberg says critical history of the religion of the Old Testament I, 437: the Genesis is a mirror of the Davidic era, whose challenges the ascribed to patriarchs.

) Jof. 24, 2.) Exodus. 3, 13 - 17.

42 *

660

The idea of securing places is surely based on very old news.
ten; for the later Hebrew would have invented such things.
No, rather he was trying to downplay the offensive nature of the matter.
to cloak in his own way; Jehovah wants to punish the kings.
fen, not Abraham, and the matter must also be besides the stricter concepts of later times for glorification the patriarch is absent. Abraham came from Chaldea.
to have immigrated; in this land reigned in the service of the
The sun god Baal was the greatest until the most recent times gender neutrality: it is all the more likely, that Abraham shared these views, since it was generally the
It appears that in ancient times, in honor of the chaf-
God's fending the sexual drive the immeasurable freedom (permitted today). When Saturn worship later became a Conversely, what was mixed was considered to be in the service of this nature-hostile
Essentially a restriction or suppression of procreation

Driven for a meritorious work.

The human sacrifices are described very clearly in the Old Testament. clearly traced back to Abraham; Abraham is ready to be
To slaughter their own son as a victim. We read Genesis 22:1-19 as follows:

“And it happened after these things that God Abrah...”
Ham tested him; and he said to him, “Abraham!” And he
He said: Here I am! And he said: Take your Son, your only one, whom you love, Isaac, and go Go to the land of Moriah and sacrifice him there as a fire.
sacrifice on one of the mountains which I will tell you about.

Consider the legend of Lot. The Elohim mingled to the daughters of men, Genesis 6:2. Also in
In ancient Egypt, the most extravagant gender inequality prevailed.
Commitment. Cheops' daughter conditions herself for the Each act of devotion lays a stone, and from these stones builds one of the pyramids Herod. II, 126. Cf. Herod. II, 130. 135. Male goats mate publicly with Egyptian females.
Herod. II, 46.

661

That morning Abraham got up and girded himself
He took a donkey and two fine servants with him, and Isaac Y, fine son and split wood for a burnt offering and set out and He went to the place God had told him to go. On the third day
Abraham raised his eyes and looked at the place from afar.
Then Abraham said to his servants: Stay here with the donkey, but I and the boy, we want to go there and worship and return to you. And Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and laid it on Isaac, his son son, and took in his hand the fire and the knife;
And so they both went together. And Isaac spoke to Abraham, to his father: My father! And he said: Here
I am, my son! And he said: Look, here is the fire.
and the wood: but where is the sheep for the burnt offering?
And Abraham said: God will choose the sheep to be

Burnt offering, my son, and so they both went together
And they came to the place which God had told him to go to,
And Abraham built the altar there and laid the wood straightened him and bound Isaac his son and laid him on the
The altar was placed over the wood. And Abraham stretched out his hand.
and took the knife to slaughter his son. Then 'The angel of Jehovah called to him from heaven and said: Abra' Ham, Abraham! And he said: Here I am! And he said:
Do not lay a hand on the boy or do anything to him;
For now I know that you fear God and have not wronged me your son, your only one, refused. Then Abra-
He opened his eyes and looked, and behold, there was a ram!
entangled in the thicket behind with its horns; and Abraham went and took the ram and sacrificed it a burnt offering in place of his son. And Abraham
He called the name of that place "Jehovah erfiehet", so that

Among the Arabs, it is not Isaac, but Ishmael who is the one who...
Abraham's son destined to be sacrificed. Quran, Wahl's edition.
p. 442. |

662

One might ask today: "On Jehovah's mountain will "Rejoice." And the angel of Jehovah called Abraham to the second ten times from heaven and said: I swear by myself, Jehovah says that because you have done such things and your Son, your only son, I did not refuse to let me bless you.
will and multiply your seed like the stars in the sky.
and like the sand on the seashore; and your seed
He shall possess the gate of his enemies. And they will
All the peoples of the earth will bless you with your seed, because You obeyed my voice. And Abraham returned. to his servants, and they arose and went with each other to Beersheba; and Abraham lived in Beersheba.

These need to be reported in considerable detail.
tete did not dissect the victimhood narrative any further in order to
to be found to a highly striking degree. What in our Mosaic laws and the prophets to the utmost is frowned upon, and here the nation's founding father is...

riding, without the slightest suspicion that the action, whose
 He intended to be an abomination to Jehovah. Je-Hova himself calls for the human sacrifice; Abraham is to to take his only, beloved son and place him on the They slaughtered the people of Mount Moriah. How completely opposite is this desire of the god those threats of the mosaifchen law, according to which Jehovah wants to destroy everyone, who sacrifices his child! Jehovah, it is said, wanted obedience.
 To examine Abraham's teachings. Does an omniscient God need a
 Such a test? Does he not see Abraham's resolve?
 Before? But what then is obedience to God?
 But surely in following his commandments. If he now
 He abhorred human sacrifice as an abomination when he saw them has strictly forbidden it: can he see them on the other side?
 Can he command the side again? Can he lead people to the over?
 transgression of his commandment, inciting sin and in willing obedience is a sign of piety-
 Can God give commandments that contradict each other?

663

lift up, now command, you shall not offer a human sacrifice, Now again, you're supposed to slaughter your son? And Would such a case be conceivable: how would the person react?
 How should they behave? It would probably not follow from that.
 They earn a merit in sin, as is the case here with Abraham.
 is found, but in the persistent avoidance of-themselves, in refusing to obey God's command, because he incites the transgression of the law. — Abra-Ham sets off in the morning with his son; they are traveling three long days away together: the father had concerns-Plenty of time, but his decision remains firm. What a scene!
 A boy is sent by his father to the led to death; the sacrificial wood on which the son
 He is to be burned, carries a donkey beside him, it belongs to the father.
 constantly in his face. The boy, who believes it If you are aiming for an animal sacrifice, go along patiently. After For three days, the mountain is in view, on which the
 The son is to bleed to death. The father leaves the servants behind;
 He lays the sacrificial wood on the boy; he himself takes in His hand held a firebrand and a knife. Thus they rise

They went up the mountain. My father, said the boy, look here.
There is the fire and the wood, but where is the sheep to go?
Burnt offering? God, the father replies, will provide that I have chosen a sheep for a burnt offering, my son. And so they went
They both together. Having reached the summit, he carries Abraham gathered stones together to form an altar and laid the Wood on it; then he binds his fine son, who is not now
It could be more doubtful that he was the sheep which to long for God, lays him over the altar and grasps his Messer: he wants to slaughter him with his own hand! — This
It is precisely that horrifying kind of piety,
as Arabs, Phoenicians and Carthaginians displayed:
How could that be a high merit for Abraham?
nen, which is a terrible religious atrocity for them will be explained? — Abraham is ready to make the full sacrifice

664

bring: there, at the moment when the fatal blow occurs
The story should take a different turn;
Jehovah's angel intervenes. Do not lay your hand on him.
“To the boy,” he said; “for now I know that you
God fears you and has not forsaken your only son. refuses.” In these words, where one, according to the spirit of the Reformers, a decisive disapproval of the people
The sacrifices one should expect from Jehovah's side will become more noticeable.
Only the impending sacrificial act is eliminated, the Victims of the firstborn in general, but their meritoriousness left; whoever fears God, it is said, may give him the one not to refuse his ninth son; the fear of God of Abraham
She has been put to this test, and she has passed it. stood. Yes, it is linked to this willingness to to offer the firstborn as a sacrifice to Jehovah, who said:
gen, which to this day is responsible for the national
The hopes of the Jews form one of the most important pillars.
“I swear by myself,” says Jehovah, “that because you Doing this and giving me your son, your only son, not refused, that I want to bless you and your Seeds multiply like the stars and like the sand on the shore of the sea; and your offspring shall possess the gate of its Enemies.” Obedience is not even a consideration here;

Jehovah does not demand obedience from his only son.
To examine Sam Abraham's — This would also have led to other Art can happen — but to find out if he is To entrust even the dearest things to God, for His love even...
he would give up his only son.

It is striking that this procedure Abraham's even in times when human sacrifices were already considered... abhorred, even from the standpoint of Christian Or thodorie is still considered a great achievement to this day.
is praised. No wonder, if even today it is still praised today.
Religious fanatics feel an inner call to action these days.
to sacrifice their child, and to truly accomplish the horrific act

605

under the delusion that Jehovah would intervene immediately, if he does not want to carry it out until the deed is done men let!)

Philo initially even tries to prevent the tempted man
Abraham's sacrifice was considered superior to similar sacrifices of the Gentiles. to be highlighted brilliantly. (According to a fine report?) Isaac was a maturing youth, excellent in body and mind and dearly loved by his father. Unexpectedly, Abra receives...
They received the divine command to sacrifice this dear son,
And so great is the piety of the patriarch that he thereby (Not even his complexion changed). He trusts finely.
Secret to no one, moves with two of the finest and most loyal Servants approaching the place of sacrifice, when Isaac saw it, he had to to take the fire and the wood upon himself, for he holds it for fitting that the victim's object is the device 9. Now he lays stones to an altar one above the other, and Isaac asks where The sacrificial animal? Another father, Philo thinks,
Had pain overcome him during this speech, he would
He discovered his intention through tears. However, it was different.
Abraham; he doesn't change his expression. "My son," he says.
cold, God will choose a sacrificial animal, with God is Anything is possible; and with these words he suddenly seizes Isaac, lay him across the altar, ready to deliver the death blow lead. Then God calls from heaven and prevents the escape.

Management of the project. But if the deed itself Although it was not completed, says Philo, it still applies to completely accomplished I, both in Holy Scripture and in the readers' conviction. The malicious slander

1) John 8, 39.) Philo de Abrah. p. 373rd ed. Paris.

3) "oUre] xooav wereßaken;" so confidently the Jews know including the most specific circumstances in the history of their ancestors from thousands of years ago.

Even Jesus had to carry a cross to the place of execution.

) "olonimpos rail. navreing." a

666

But of course, those who are accustomed to denigrating everything Jewish,
She doesn't want to appear so extraordinary. They say, too.
many others would have given their sons up for the sake of the father offered up as sacrifices to war, drought, over to avert flood and plague; the Greeks would have through such victims already in the first attack, the greatest enemy Armies defeated and the fighting people of the comrades preserved; even barbaric peoples have sacrificed their [sacrifices] since ancient times Children; the Gymnosophists in India still practice this today.
to burn oneself to death of one's own free will upon reaching old age
Yes, even the women there climbed with joy.
pyre, to be burned alive next to the man's body
to burn: such boldness deserves admiration,
But not Abraham's unexecuted plan. Against "Such hurtful diminutions," I replied, "he drives Philo continued, "as follows. Those who sacrifice children,
They do this partly out of habit, partly because they have no other option.
other kinds are able to inflict great evils on their state to avert. Some are violently attacked by power

Some are forced to do it, others do it out of fear of men fchen, again others with the intention of joining the group and to make posterity famous. Anyone who, out of habit, names their child Sacrificing something does nothing special; an old custom can

 As a rule, as much as nature allows; even the unbearable
 The easiest task becomes less difficult through habit. Whoever...
 Anyone who, out of fear, sacrifices their child deserves no punishment.
 Praise; who, out of lust for fame, murders his son or his daughter Giving someone a victim is reprehensible. In none of these cases
 The sacrifice belonged to Abraham; with him there was neither national Habit, fear, or lust for fame are the cause, but only the purest piety. Other fathers, too.
 if they give up a son for the public good,
 They do not participate in the sacrifice themselves, but at least they apply the ) « Baoxaviay xai πv!LN i calls Philo this reply.

667

Look away when the child is killed by a stranger.
 will; Abraham, however, was ready, like a priest, to
 To slaughter his beloved son himself would probably have made him...
 He also cut it into pieces and put them himself into the Fire set on the altar: so little did he allow himself to be swayed by the Love for a fine son, driven mad by refined piety.
 Even according to Josephus, Isaac was excellent at Body and soul. Abraham had no greater wish.
 than that God would grant him this son. But now Jehovah appears to test Abraham's obedience, holds
 He describes all the benefits to him and says that in return he demands Nothing but that he sent his son Isaac to Mount Mori-
 Yes, lead and there offer yourself as a sacrifice sanctified by God.
 Burn. Abraham obeys willingly, keeping his plan secret.
 and goes with Isaac, who was then twenty-five years old
 He went towards the mountain. Once there, he set his son down.
 of the command of God. He says, Jehovah
 I have long since seen such a token of veneration around him.
 serves. The patriarch finds an award for Isaac.
 in the fact that Jehovah does not, as everyday fate would have it the person, through illness, through war, or any other reason not take his life in another accident, but through
 I draw a holy sacrificial act, accompanied by prayer, to my soul.
 Isaac gladly hears this speech; even if it is only

He says it was his father's wish that he be sacrificed.
If he were to die, he would consider it a sin to devote himself to him.
withdraw, and immediately steps up to the altar 2). Thereupon verse Jehovah denies Abraham the sacrifice; he has, says
He, not out of lust for human blood, was the victim of not to command his son, but to test his obedience.
Then came Jehovah's promises, Abra-

1) Joseph. ant. I, 13.

How much this corresponds to the biblical narrative of Abraham hid his plan from Isaac and bound his son, Clericus has already noticed Comm. in Gen. p. 174.

668

Ham and Isaac embraced each other and returned to Sarah.
House.

Christian interpreters show just as little decency, Abraham's attempted sacrifice as a great merit-grasp; in their case, the action still has a special quality
The importance of her setting an example of Jesus' sacrificial death.

Ephrem the Syrian says in his Commentary, the
The execution of the order should be very wise on the third day.
postponed so that one could not say, Abraham acted only in his initial zeal, without further consideration, He obeyed the commandment. He remained silent against his surroundings.
so that she wouldn't rush at him to break him in his
To make decisions waver; also, there would be reason to fear... nature that the inhabitants of the surrounding area by force the freed the innocent from death, or at least through their Intervening delays the execution of the divine command would have. Abraham would truly have made the sacrifice, if the angel had not intervened; two kinds Therefore, in this sacrificial act, he is to be praised for... that he had been ready to make a sacrifice and that he firmly remembers the way-
I believed in the revival of his son; for it was
He was given the promise that he would be succeeded by Isaac.

company maintained. That no ram had been on the mountain before.
The question of Isaac proves that there were trees there.
The sacrifice laid upon Isaac shows that men completely lacked it.
wood: so the mountain suddenly had a tree, the tree produced a ram; this one hanging on the tree, Instead of the ram sacrificed after Isaac, an example should be set to be that Lamb who was crucified for the sins who suffered death in the world.

Origen gives similar interpretations of the passage.
Views on the day). God, he believes, would have given Abraham

1) Ephrae Syr. comm. in Gen. p. 76th ed. Rome. "Hebrews 11:17.

2) Original in the Latin eighth homily that came down to us to genesis; tom. II. p. 81st ed. Par.

669

They could only command the sacrifice once they were on the mountain, but the
The patriarch's faith should endure a longer test, the goal of the struggle of paternal love against the god
The legal order can be postponed further; also, the Third day a mysterious consecration; Abraham is firmly over testifies that God will raise the sacrificed Isaac from the dead. will be. Even in Origen's work, the entire hand of the godfather refers to... lung on Christ. One can see from his speech that one who already then replied to the Jews and Christians: If Jehovah is all-knowing, so why does he conduct this test?
prevents the action at the moment of execution by
He says he now recognizes that Abraham also in the difficult
Will he obey his demands? According to Origen,
This was done, for example, to protect the future.
worse to show that faith is also expressed in works must prove itself. Theodoret says, God has given this.
than, not because he first had to realize what he already knew, but to show that he had a just cause,
To hold Abraham in such high esteem. This is also true of him.
Sacrifice an example based on Christ. Isaac, who does not die, is the image of the divine, the ram that is sacrificed, that of human nature in Christ. Even time itself.

"That agrees," he says, "here and there it's three days."
and three nights.

I will not go into further detail regarding the explanations of age and a new ecclesiastical writer; it is well known that They have been in contact with the Jews in this country for almost two millennia.
Abraham's sacrificial act was an extraordinary merit
ZEN that they are the noblest in this example, on the 9 "ut per totum triduum recursantibus curis paterna viscera erucientur et omni hoc spatio tam prolixo intueretur filium pater, cibum cuni eo sumeret, dead noctibus puer penderet in aniplexibus patris, inhaereret pectori, cubitaret in gremio. vide, in quantum tentatio cumulatur!

) Theodoret. in Gen. interrogat. 73; tom. 1st p. 55th ed. Par.

670

Deepest stirrings imprinted on the human heart, older to turn love into a sin against God, that against suppressing the same, the insistence on the en-
The conclusion that murdering one's own child is a rare act of piety rise up. What kind of eutfegli- on the side of the heathens To explain such delusion, that is, in Abraham's case, proof of a a high degree of fear of God.

It cannot escape the notice of an impartial observer that this by Jehovah himself, the tribe and father of the nation.
foaled victims, albeit interrupted in their execution
The action provides significant evidence that Men Sacrifices before exile constitute an essential part of the have identified Jehovah's service. "If we consider the whole thing," Gramberg says, "correct, namely as a philosophical
To consider myth, one can learn about a historical event.
Laffung in the life of Abraham is not mentioned. The purpose,
To show his submission is fully achieved, although that
The sacrifice was not completed, but the youth with the ram is exchanged. Jehovah does not say that people
The victims should be displeasing to him at all, therefore we would like to This seal is more a trace of those which also lead to David's time had not yet come, as symbolic To present the admittedly obvious idea that the "Firstborn among men also belong to Jehovah." Vatke): "Had the idea of human sacrifice been completely..." located outside the sphere of Jehovah's service, so

 Was the legend allowed to make such a demand of Jehovah himself?
 not disguised as temptation, and Abraham Ham would have acted quite rightly if he had obeyed the order when "Unworthy of God, he would have been rejected." Is it However, there is no doubt that one has already...
 Abraham's time had human sacrifices; (the sun

1) Gramberg critical story. the religious of the a. . I, 97.
) Vatke Relig. of the a. T.I, 276.

671

God demanded fish from the most ancient times.
 human offspring as well as his gift of Gratitude, as from the animal and plant kingdoms); so It is nevertheless not believable that our Old Testament
 A narrative, a historical fact, is reported. The whole
 A historical account of Abraham's life is when
 Not unnatural, but highly questionable.
 It may be true that the Jews have old legends about a
 The patriarch Abraham had the idea that Abraham truly was a historical person: but time and circumstances
 The nesses of this man could not change our Old Testament verses.
 The fibers are not known in detail. One only notes the Course of the first book of Moses; with a few leaps it is The author has traced the history from Adam to Joseph, about
 For two millennia! He didn't tell a story!
 ben, but rather legends about a few men compiled, with which he fills the enormous period of time, so well it wants to go. However, now it is being discussed that the Orient is He kept his legend true, it was inherited there from mouth to mouth.
 Mouth truly through centuries; but with which Does one really want to claim this? Isn't it already inherent in... the human tendency to tell stories according to one's own well-being to embellish and alter, and divides the

Doesn't the vivid imagination of the Oriental also include this inclination?
 Does not the Old Testament itself show how ready-willing one was to participate in the real story according to Gutdün-
 Can changes be made to the written statement?
 Between Abraham and Solomon lies, according to the usual...
 Time reckoning, a millennium; over how many tongues
 The narrative had to go on until it reached the Old Testament.
 The author came! In my opinion, our mosaics Books contain very few truly historical notes about the lives of the patriarchs were ruined; the legend had the meager material has been available since ancient times from nearby sources relationships filled, and so the story came about.

672

Editors of the Genesis, which still according to their own Er-They changed the masses. The story of Abraham's sacrifice is not historically; did Abraham really sacrifice his son?
 so he was hardly the first to do this, nor was he
 the last one; he acted according to a more generally applicable religious principle.
 Gösen view; history also had no reason to change this
 To preserve the action as something special. But certainly.
 Moses would have felt compelled to close what had previously been free-willing victims of the firstborn, which he elevated to the status of law, to sanction by an ancient ancestor of the nation let it. The legend certainly originally went something like this:
 that Abraham really sacrificed his firstborn son have, whereupon Jehovah, out of gratitude, gave him even later years ago, Isaac was given, from whom a mighty Ge-poorly bloomed. The fifteenth chapter of the first book.
 Moses points quite clearly to such a relationship.
 Jehovah appears to Abraham and says: "Be afraid
 "No; I am your great reward." Abraham answers:
 "What will you give me? I'm going there childless."
 and the owner of my house is the Damascene 'Eliefer.'
 Then Jehovah led him out and said: Look towards Him.
 Melt and count the stars: so shall your seed be fine.» Abra-Ham is not vaguely accusing Jehovah here, that he had not fulfilled his promise; he had many Children expected, precisely as a consequence of the sacrifice of the first birth, which will be blessed with numerous offspring

He should have; but now he is leaving this world childless. The Ab-
 The view of this original relationship will have been, on to show, using the example of the patriarch, that the blessing for the victim of the firstborn, even on a wound-be implemented in a reasonable manner. The fact that Abraham the sacrifice on the later Temple Mount Mo-Rijah wants to carry out his plan, but it is very unlikely that he will be able to do so before
 the
 The founding of the temple has been added. It is believed-
 Dear, they moved the scene of the crime here in order to 673 to give the Temple Mount an ancient consecration, as if one the temple: would have been built on this spot, because it was through the Legend has it that Abraham's sacrifice already received this consecration.

 Later, a second revision was added; the Aus-
 The child victim's involvement is eliminated, instead of the son.
 A ram has been slaughtered. This depiction forms the basis.
 starting point from the commandment of human sacrifice to the - messenger of the same; she stands in the middle. Very naturally could the prevailing view of the time, the conviction that child sacrifices were necessary, not immediately to the opposite state-point to rise, on which these victims for an abomination
 This applies. There is a transition point in the middle, on which Jehovah was content with an animal instead of a child, without prohibiting traditional human sacrifices. The bi-
 The biblical narrative, as it is presented to us, aims to inform the later Use of the solution of the firstborn to sanction, it has the Apfii icht; to provide proof on the progenitor that the traditional sacrifices of the firstborn are not necessary, that Jehovah would be satisfied by an animal sacrifice and at the disposition that would be sufficient, which willingly gave the son
 He would, if he demanded it. This attitude of ours
 The narrative provides evidence that it was written earlier, as our Mosaic Law; for according to the spirit of this law Jehovah would have acted harshly against the people.
 victim pronounced "which is not the case here. She erin-nert to that place in Micah where without any consciousness-
 When asked about the injustice: Should I give up my first?

To bring the bores to sacrifice? . but the guild the fore-
 The train receives before the victims. The later processors of the Mosaic books do not consider it necessary.
 have to change the presentation, since the victim of the
 The firstborn was also eliminated in Abraham's case, and a swarm-| fer Tackel would have violated the sanctity of the patriarch. Uebri-
 We must not disregard the fact that gens also exist here.
 An Aries is one who takes the place of man, like 43

674

at Pasha, where a ram or sheep is sacrificed and eaten-should be; this place too, therefore, must be our above
 The view presented serves as support for the idea that the Paschal sacrifice originally, and with the exception of Josiah, was a human being. After According to the rabbis, Abraham, when he visited Widwho offered sacrifices, calling to Jehovah with each individual piece:
 "O Lord, accept this in your grace, just as if it were
 It happened to my son, as if my son had been killed.
 It was as if my son's blood were shed, as if My son's skin was peeled off, as if my (Son dismembered and burned to ashes): a tradition, which very clearly represents the ram in the Jewish imagination as a representative of man in the victim, which shows that-who even harbors doubts as to whether the animal sacrifice is truly with Jehovah could replace a human sacrifice. Also as atonement for a
 An unintentional murder was symbolized by a ram among the Jews.
 Ben, who averted the blood feud, through his death the life had to buy the perpetrator's life. Incidentally, it can be found be-The legend that a god prevented human sacrifice is well known.
 derte and put an animal in its place, also among the Greeks-chen. The barbarity, to which one attributes a supernatural origin.
 What had been given also required a divine command.

) Bochart. hierozoicon II, 49. Lund jüd. Heiligth. p. 642.

The prevailing idea among the Jews was that the ge-
 He sacrificed an animal instead of a man; this is the May.
 nung of all antiquity; the laying on of hands on the victim-Here, from the side of the sacrificer, the blame was borne by the man.

The rabbis prescribe that the
 The person offering the sacrifice should think, when they see the sacrificial blood flowing, that
 Not the animal, but he himself deserved death. Through The laying on of hands, they say, requires the person offering the sacrifice to confess that
 the
 Let the animal take its place, and let animal blood replace its blood.
 the altar was destroyed. Even today, the Jews must pay tribute;
 the sacrifice of the rooster at the Reconciliation Festival the thought ha that the rooster represents her own person. Cf. Buxtorf synag. Jud. e. 25; Lund jüd. Heiligh. p. 642.

675

to be eliminated. To avert a plague, they should
 The Lacedaemonians annually ensnare a virgin of noble birth sacrifice. The lot falls on the beautiful Helen. Already it is Just as one is about to perform the sacrifice, an eagle appears.
 Zeus descends from the sky and places the sacrificial knife on a (Young cow standing next to it). Since then, the La cedamonier this traditional human sacrifice. Iphigenia, about to suffer a sacrificial death, he is visited by Artemis (abducted and replaced by a doe). Phris Rus, the son of the Boeotian king Athamas, is to become to be sacrificed to ward off famine; his mother,
 The goddess Nephele sends a ram with a golden coat,
 on which Phrixus and his sister Helle escape 3.

Finally, I would like to point out the relationship once again.
 there, in which the Phoenician legend already mentioned above with the story of Abraham. Abraham is the Al ten Saturn, and this god also leads the Phoenicians the name Israel. Kronos, says Philo of Bytius 9, whom the Phoenicians call Israel, was king of the land of and was after his death under the star of the Saturn worshipped. He had from the Anobret (the water (rich source) a single son, who was therefore called Jeud
 (the only one), a designation that still exists today many sons among the Phoenicians. When the land was un
 "He drew"

5 Lydus de mens. p. 113.

. 9) Ovid. metamorphic. XII, 28. Hygi n. fab. 98.

9 Hygin. Fab. 2. Apollod. I. 9.

9) Eusebius. praep. Evangel. I, 10: “Hoovos roiyv, or o Doiynes

I geaE ravvtoo,^o D 7 Basikevov us Xwpas xl DOrepoV ue rd ry toō Biov redeuriy eig rev rov Koövov aoreon are

Seis, ec trix nun Ayo he deyou&vns, vioy ezar

| movoyer, öy did rovro Jeovd Exalovy, Tov wovoyevoüs whether reg

Eri x vb cou o rad roig Solviti, sirdivwy. Ex Hole uo ueyiorwy xareulmporwv r7v xwoay, Basilimo x00uNdas d

nari rv vid, Bwmuov d& xaraoxevaoauevos fr: d,.

43*

676

to this son the royal decorations, built an altar and sacrificed him. (Movers claims) Philo mixes here Jewish and Phoenician mixed together, he seeks the Na= men Hebrews of Anobret, overflowing spring, the Na= men Jews from Jehud, the only one, to derive as well Isaac is actually named in the passage Genesis 22:2;
In Isaiah it is also said of the Jews that they “from the water of Judah, “from Sarah’s well spring”= proceeded. It was even easier for the Phoenicians, the third name of the Jews, Israelites, with the phö=
to connect it to the Niziian myth, since the name Israel, warriors of God, undoubtedly already involved early on with the
the whole story of Esau, which the Phoenicians called Mars= Ufov was transferred. The following will be von Movers conceded that this Phoenician explanation very old and yet probably originating from Sanchuniathon must, since a later time would see the Jews, who were so despised at that time, as would not have been deemed worthy of the honor of honoring their ancestors to be so closely connected with the sacred legend bring. Fr
For us, the matter is viewed differently.
viewpoint. The Jews were not the viewpoint of before the exile.
the related Phoenician tribes in religious terms= hung completely secluded people, like our old testament it wants; the tribes all had their communal things and trained them in their own way. On this occasion society, based on reciprocal religious exchange where do the Old Testament traces of a kinship of the History of the patriarchs with Phoenician legends, not... that the Phoenicians from the religious book of the self

I heard something here and there from the graduating Jews and I
They would have incorporated them into the mythical cycle. The old, dark Sa Giving it a historical garb was not solely its own.

1) Mo v. the Phoenicians, p. 131.

677

The customs of the Hebrews, but also of the Phoenicians; we
This can be seen from the few fragments that Sanchu Niathon remained. Regarding the Hebrew Myth became increasingly associated with this dress among the Jews, the more it corresponds to the growing reformist endeavors
Therefore, what was to be done was to remove the shell of the old national heroes.
to take off the demigod's robes; and so we were told about ancient names, a very natural one, arising from the circumstances ei a story passed down from a later time, which told them only a very small part of it has been heard. For example, we will be told about...
Jacob received messages which in themselves were the greatest Parts of it are very believable, and yet this person suddenly appears again as the Heracles of the Phoenician and Greek myths
The one who wrestles with God and injures his hip. Man one might reply: Wouldn't it be far more natural to... bibli entirely in keeping with patriarchal conditions to let the history of the patriarchs stand as historical.
and to assume that the authors of the same only had here and there incorporating a feature from Phoenician myth Men? I answer: no! Because, as noted, the ger Classy dress is deception; otherwise it couldn't also They bear names such as Adam, Abel, Noah, etc., of which The biblical authors simply knew nothing.
could. And if one were to further object that the patriarchs Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob are, after all, the Old Testament figures.

Authors are already a considerable amount of time closer
Although they have moved away, they still remain too far away for me.
farther away than I could believe, the detailed after-actions judge which ones we have of them, be truly through-commonly founded. Between Abraham and Solomon lies,
As asked, one millennium within this period four centuries, which is the duration of the stay in Egypt should take, and these are mentioned in the biblical story.
skipped. Has one from this closer time-
The room had no news, so it can go back further.

078

Knowledge of history only to the point of lesser depth.
have stretched out. Surely today's story will...
Writers would do best to write the history of the Hebrew people with to begin with the exodus from Egypt. Where from, when and Under what circumstances did the Hebrews come to this land?
That will perhaps remain uncertain forever.

Let us also consider the patriarch Abraham as a historical figure, so let's refrain from using the unconditional credibility of the accounts given about his life-
They can only assume that a few individuals, to the religious spirit of that ancient time in general-
The corresponding traces have a historical reason, such as the worship of a sun god El, the child sacrifices and gender neutrality in his service; whereby
It may also be noted that this whole
The personality of Abraham among the Jews only became apparent very late gains importance; the older Jewish writings revert to have rarely or never been on this since its founding of the second temple, the highly celebrated ancestor of the Nation. Regarding the sacrifice of Isaac, this story must... lung is declared unhistorical, although it is based on the whose side it is by no means improbable that Abraham in the sense of his age, his firstborn child to the son-
I have truly sacrificed myself to a god. The human sacrifice service of the Hebrews required both a celebrated introduction and that of the Phoenicians. The latter attributed their atrocities to a old king Saturn, later placed among the stars-back. It is very likely to me that Abraham was among the

The Hebrews originally had the same personality as Saturn among the Phoenicians, namely one active in ancient times a celebrated man who, over time, became a living, existing man.
was worshipped and described as the founder of religious customs, which, however, with increasing civilization of the peoples, one old name was needed in order to be willingly practiced further.

679

Second section.

The period from Moses to David.

With Moses we come to a historical, of course both in the interest of national glory and in that of the later reformers, who based their views on Moses carried a highly disfigured field.

Jehovah was unknown to the Israelites before Moses; only Moses had this God whom he met in the desert of Midian.
He met it on Mount Sinai and introduced it to the Hebrews.
We will come back to this point again here, as mentioned above.
some explanatory remarks further elaborate on the sentence.
The proof for this is not difficult to provide; it lies within.
openly displayed, partly in clear expressions of various bi Bible writings, partly in the history of their introduction of the God in the second book of Moses. The Hebrews were Only with the exodus from Egypt did Jehovah's property become his,
Psalm 114:1 is spoken in clear words.
Israelites will find Jehovah's inheritance, it says in Deuteronomy 32:9;
But only in the land of the desert did the god find this his people, and since then he has cherished them like the apple of his eye. Je Hova speaks Exodus 6:3: I appeared to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob as a powerful EL, but my name is Jeho va was unknown to them. Joshua gives to the Hebrews still the choice between Jehovah and the gods of the past drive, saying Sof. 23:14: "Fear Jehovah and Serve him with sincerity and loyalty, and remove the Gods whom your fathers served beyond the river and in Egypt. And if you don't like it, the Je-

To serve, choose today whom you will serve.
let, whether to the gods whom your fathers served beyond the Stromes, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land

680

You live there; but I and my house will live in the presence of the Lord.
serve, » |

Such passages are given through the first chapters of the
The second book of Moses provides another explanation. Moses, in order to to escape the punishment for the murder he committed against an Egyptian who had committed the crime, fled to Midian and arrived there with the priest (he) Jethro in connection, who gave him fine Toch-
The refugee Hebrew hü-
He put his father-in-law's sheep on the mountain God's Horeb). Was Jehovah the ancient God of the Israelites?
ten: how is it that he is here in the Arabian land of Midian
Why is Horeb the "mountain of God"?
Does he not live in Egypt with his Israelite people?
or at least in Palestine, in the promised land?
Why here among the pagan Midianites? Everywhere
Did the deities of antiquity have their place among their people?
Seat, not abroad; the God who is in the land of The Medianiter who lives on Mount Horeb is therefore an eye-probably not the God of the Hebrews, but the God of Midianites-Nitish priest Jethro, of the Arab tribe of the Midianites. On this mountain Jehovah now appears as Flame of fire to Moses, declares himself to be the god of bronze-fathers and promises, the Hebrews from the Egyptian Beto save oneself from distress. One will consider the historical consequences.
They think something like this. Moses stays with his...
a father-in-law, the Midianite priest Jethro;
In this way he learns the service of the Midianite God.
nen, which this Arab tribe on Mount Horeb living there, he thought. Meanwhile, the situation of the Hebrews in Egypt is becoming increasingly oppressive. The Egyptians are close to... to forcibly expel the foreign, leprous people from the country drive. Moses and Jethro are in this unfortunate state.
the Hebrew people had been discussing it amongst themselves for some time;

— —
) 2. Mof. 2, 16; Leviticus. 3, 1.) Leviticus. 3, 1.

681

The Midianite priest, familiar with the area, knows that fertile lands lie to the north; it makes the foreground
The plan was to lead the Israelites to those regions and to...
To drive the Canaanites out of it; Jethro is really The leader on the train. When the Egyptians were already going to use force to get the Hebrews out of the country in the shortest way
To create for the land, Moses appears, announces his Midianite God as the God of the ancestors, himself as whose messenger, through whom Jehovah has brought his people into a he wanted to cultivate fertile land, which he had already known in the oldest times.
times promised to the patriarchs. "Look," Moses said.
Exodus 3:13 to Jehovah, "when I go to the sons of Israel"
Come and say to them: The God of your fathers is sending
I came to you, and they said to me: what is his name,
What should I answer them?» It was so completely unknown
So, to the Hebrews, a God of the fathers, that they did not even knew his name; their religion will differ from the Egyptian one.
(tables at that time differed little), and Moses
It therefore couldn't be that difficult to learn his Midianite God against the gods of the hostile Egyptians as ancient to foist the tribal god of the Hebrew people upon them. When they heard then, "it says in Exodus 4:31, 'that Jehovah after the sons'
He saw Israel's misery and that he saw its misery, tending ten fie sich und betreuten an. Besondere wichtig für unsere Claim that Jehovah is the Midianite god of Jethro
The circumstance that the Midianite priest Jethro worshipped no other god than the god of Horeb.
Jethro was already called priest when Moses came to him, he
He was no longer a young man back then, because he could to give a daughter as a wife: a priest of established Old age doesn't give up its national god so easily, and
One cannot therefore try to help oneself by saying,

Moses converted Jethro. A single abandoned man

) Szech. 13, 3; Cape. 16, 26; Cape. 20, 5-14; Cape. 23, 8/3

682

A refugee whom a priest takes into his fine house will certainly more the religion of the priest and the people take, in which he finds refuge, rather than that he the priests who would leave their people and serve a foreign god would gain. The Bible gives no trace of a conversion. attempt that Moses made with Jethro, but probably certain Prove that Moses adopted the religion of Jethro Jethro gives his daughter to the stranger as his wife. a proof that the stranger proved compliant; Moses remains many years with the priest and the Midianites, without that his or the priest's religion among the Midianite people aroused the slightest offense, and, what is striking about the matter, It is documented that Jehovah lives among the Midianites on Horeb, before Moses came to Midian; from this mountain God, as already mentioned above, gives his gift. fetz and Horeb will remain the apartment Jeho for a long time va's, when the Israelites were no longer in that area to stop. Jethro also leaves this mountain of God's fineness. and his homeland not until Moses arrived with the train at Horeb has arrived; then he joins and leads the train to Canaan). It will be seen upon arrival as a very celebrated man was received; Moses goes to meet him He turns and bends down in front of him, he tells him the wonderful Jehovah's guidance, "and Jethro rejoiced over all that Good things that Jehovah has done for Israel, that he saved it from the hand of the Egyptians. Praise be to Jehovah, he said, "who saved you from the hand of the Egyptians," and it Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took burnt offerings and Sacrifice to God; and Aaron and all the elders of Israel came to eat bread with Moses' father-in-law

According to Exodus 18:27, Jethro departs after a visit from Moses. at Horeb back to his homeland, but later Moses asks him to be a father-in-law, to show the way to Canaan.

2) Exodus 18:9-12

683

before God... Immediately the next morning, the midianite attacks Nitic priests involved in the governmental acts of Moses),
He doesn't act like a newcomer converted by Moses, sondern as a man to whom the Israeli law-giver obeyssam performs. «Moses obeyed the voice of his father-in-law-father's and that Everything he said 2). »

That this Midianite god from Mount Sinai was worshipped in the form of a bull, about that, as well as about
We have already discussed the human sacrifices in his service.
This concerns the individual historical events.
to speak of examples of such victims, about whom, of course, in uns2er biblical representation usually a more or min-
the thick veil has been drawn.

Moses sacrifices his son.

First, we meet in the fourth chapter of the second book-Moses told a highly striking story. Jehovah had ordered Moses to return from Midian to Egypt.
to return, since all the people who had followed his life had died.
They sought. Moses put his wife and his sons on a donkey and returns with them to Egypt.
“And it happened,” it continues verbatim in verse 24, “While traveling and staying at an inn, Jehovah came upon him [Moses!] and wanted to kill him. Then Zipporah took a knife and She circumcised her son's foreskin and threw it in front of his feet and said: You are a blood bridegroom to me! And he She let go of him. At that time she spoke to the Blood Bridegroom of the Be-
For the sake of a haircut. »

The connection in this message is very clear-one can recognize an insertion that the biblical author from ) Exodus. 18, 13 - 27.) Exodus. 18, 24.

9) Who wouldn't find a highly striking verse in this story?

Can I find a connection with Matthew 2:19-21?

*

684

had included another document in his report, than the one from which he usually drew. Verse 27
It fits much more naturally with verse 18; especially the Verses 24 to 26 are strikingly out of place in the middle; the Jehovah, who had previously spoken so kindly to Moses, now wants to kill him all of a sudden, just as he was about to go to Be-The god's failure in the most important matter after Egypt-to withdraw ten, presumably for no other purpose than because Moses had not circumcised his son; a verse debt that the legislator already incurred before his departure wore it, without Jehovah expressing his displeasure because of it.
Verse 27 begins a completely different account of the
The Journey of Moses. According to this passage, Jehovah commands the Aaron went to meet his brother in the desert; this meets Moses "on the mountain of God," precisely where Moses herding his father-in-law's sheep, anyway near Moses's residence. Both brothers then enter...

The maturity is being assessed in a general sense. This representation is far from accurate.

Of course. The very circumstances suggest that Moses to the dangerous enterprise he was going towards, not wife and child, but

They will be left safe with their father-in-law—

have; and this is also confirmed by Exodus 18.

6, where Jethro met with the wife and children of the Moses arrives at Mount Horeb when the Sfraelites begin their campaign has already arrived there.

Nevertheless, I must provide a genuine basis for the position.
recognize; it has been completely remade by the editors of the
The book is not reliable. One could say it was a... switches to demonstrate the necessity of the pruning;
Only Jehovah and Moses appear in a very bad light, than that the report, in its very structure, already constitutes an invention which could be later times. Jehovah falls upon his Darling here and want to kill him; the old Jewish overlords.

Setters perceive the unworthy nature of this place; they transform it.

685

the "Jehovah - in «Angel Jehovah's). Moses on his side is unaware of the necessity of circumcision, nor of the blessing that is given to this in the story of Abraham
The ceremony is tied; the legislator follows the old one, so Jehovah's earnest commandment is not true; his Son is uncut. In my opinion, the report is based on the
The fact that Moses once suffered a severe illness Illness, perhaps shortly before his departure for Egypt, when time was running out, he ordered one of his sons to be sacrificed, to receive a swift recovery from Jehovah.
The sacrifice was later changed into a circumcision.
The "seeking to kill on Jehovah's side can be eye-catching." probably cannot be interpreted differently than by a killer=
a disease with which Jehovah secretly afflicted the Lawgiver(searched). Now we hear nowhere that the circumcision a son helping a sick father to recover
It should have been, but it was actually done in a human sacrifice at ver different peoples and also among the Jews this power= found. Moses, like the frequently cited passage Ezekiel.
20, 24 clearly show that the sacrifice of the firstborn is to Laws were made. With such a view, he could not see the May have the opportunity to live his life through the insignificant to be able to buy the gift of his son's foreskin; such a Jehovah's grace demanded a different, more expensive life. It should also be taken into account that our position is quite does not say that Moses' illness was a punishment for the W n gewasfen; rather, the Er

) The Septuagint has dye dog xugiou, "the Chaldean para phrase of Onkelos; NN Cf. Bibl. polyglott. Lond. I. p. 243.

) The Hiphil of 3 is used more often fo, "saepe de morte ab ipso Deo per morbos, famem, al. immissa. Jes. 65, 15; Hos. 2, 55; Exod. 16, 3; Exod. 17, 3. etc., Gesen, in the-saur. p. 780.

686

sick without further specified cause, and the Be-Cutting off the son is listed as a means to achieve the goal. to regain health. Mother Zip's reluctance Pora suggests more than just a simple cutting off of the Foreskin; today's Jewish mothers are not horrified so very much against this use. If one were to object that Zippora, the trimming is new and therefore stands out widely. who was, thus contradicts the biblical account; a woman who cuts her child with her own hand must other such cases are also known; she would the Opera otherwise it would be difficult to undertake it oneself. It is certainly not It is quite plausible that the child's victim was subjected to pressure. that Moses's conception was performed by his mother herself; indeed But the execution on their side is equally unwilling. to be sent for circumcision. The speaker has the sacrificial Person (perhaps Aaron) eliminated and who because of the death Zipporah, her child's anger against her husband The circumcision was postponed. She accuses Moses of... the foreskin before his feet and says: a blood bridegroom Are you to me! The latter term is too closely related to Moses. bound, as if one were to refer to the son and say Zippora might understand this statement to mean the child Be through circumcision to Jehovah or to Israel have been, as it were, wedded to the people. By taking the lead

She reveals that she throws her skin at Moses' feet.
 that she does not agree to the ceremony; she can therefore also not enter into a mode of thinking according to which her
 The child would now have been wedded to God; such a thing would have
 They can only pleasantly touch her spirit. Even against Does the addition "a blood bridegroom be" speak to this explanation?
 you to me; not her, yes, the child would be in this case a not the bridegroom, but the god. The Chaldean Onkelos' paraphrase summarizes the passage in such a way that Zippora the husband was saved because of the blood from this circumcision would have been). We also source from most suppliers. gladly the "Bridegroom in Blood" on Moses. The Hebrew ex-druck), which is translated here as bridegroom, means any relative by marriage, and is called in

687

 In our place, just as much as a husband. Zipporah, take care.
 Mert, grieving over the death of her son, makes the precept to Moses.
 throw: You are a bloody husband to me, you desire death of our child! Apparently, the expression means bloodbath tigram To describe more than the little bit of blood that comes from a Circumcision wound is penetrating.

To celebrate the giving of the law on Sinai, the Israelis are holding a ceremony.
 They suffered a great loss of life.

Another, very clear trace of great human sacrifice, which the Ssraelites brought in the age of Moses shows in the 32nd chapter of the second book, where the story
 The story is about the golden calf.

The story itself is apparently from the Bear
 The text of the Old Testament is highly distorted. been chosen to legislate on their reformatory principles ten to save. The simple historical facts are not other than that of the Israelites, by Moses on the mountain who is staying to receive the laws from Jehovah, on Foot of the mountain, under the direction of the high priest Aaron, to the god whose image is a bull, a religious festival celebrate). When Moses came down from the mountain, ) Targ around uncle. in the Latin translation. the London. Polygl. p. 243:

“Propter sanguinem eircumeisionis hujus detur nobis sponsus meus. Et cum dimisisset eum, tum dixit: Nisi propter sanguinem circumcisionis hujus condemnatus erat ad mortem sponsus meus.” — Clericus, on the other hand, translates in fine commentary. to the passage not “propter sanguinem condemnatus erat, » fondern “sine sanguine damnatus erat etc.,

2) 1 vrgi. Winer's Hebr. Lex. p. 375.

Vatke is approaching this view. One must consider the ideas.

088

The celebration of the enactment concludes with a grand ceremony. Thanksgiving offering, to which many Sfraelites offered their brothers and Sons deliver.

Even the preamble, which our biblical Darjiel lung this so-called waste for bull service gives, if very weak. “And when the people saw it, it says Exodus 32:1, that Moses delayed coming down from the mountain, gathered The people went to Aaron and said to him, “Arise, make us go.” a God who goes before us; for this Moses, who Man who brought us up from Egypt, we do not know, what happened to him. The editor of this section found the report that the Israelites were then under Aaron iherem Jehovah in the form of a bull to celebrate the giving of the law They have committed a crime. He uses this news to... to provide a historical example of how much Jehovah and the Lawgiver Moses abhorred the bull service — and However, this service was and remained the public religion of the Hebrews, especially the Israelites, until the fall of the Israelite Empire! Before Moses' absence on the The editor was allowed to edit mountains 1 1 a of individuals (like Moses) according to their geit berabftim= men; one could, assuming that the tradition extends beyond fine effectiveness, even if only in the greatest part, be true, we= the subtle appearance, nor the entire course of subtle history To understand: Rel. des alt. Test. I, 183. — It is most untrue= probably that the later priest myth contains such elements (of idol worship, serpent, calf) into the Mosaic Age displaced, indeed would have even suspected Moses and Aaron, if not the unanimous legend took place that at least one large Part of the Israelites were truly devoted to idolatry. Later legends, of course, reinterpreted much so that it wouldn't It seemed as if Jehovah were an idolatrous people from Egypt. led 2c., Vatke I, 186. — Gtamberg (Gefdy. der Relig. (des a. T. I, 443) explains with the N bet, the whole story of the calf for myth, in which there is nothing true, he= “found against the Jehovah=Apis=Cult in the Kingdom of Israel.”

—

to grant veneration, so as not to deprive his heroes of this service to participate; the bull is thus first made, after Moses went to Jehovah on the mountain. "We don't know where this Moses has gone," they said. the Israelites, “so make us a golden bull image!” It may remain an open question whether Moses spent forty days and He had been on the mountain forty nights; one can of course, it was impossible to foresee why he should remain there for so long. have been there, also the numbers forty and seven (only on On the seventh day Jehovah spoke to Moses 2)) those general sacred and popular names, the correctness of which One is not allowed to build according to the Old Testament. But now... Also, that Moses stayed for a very long time, yes, a people will indeed emerge. Don't treat your leader like an escaped prisoner Sparrow, whose fate no one worries about anymore= mert. Kam Mose within the determined or presumed Time did not descend from Sinai, so the next thing to come was on the Mountains to look for him; if he was thought to be lost, then There would have to be at least one part in the narrative— He accepted his fate, felt pain over his loss express. But the author doesn't think of that; it is only to find a reason for the celebration=

the; fine heroes of the worship of the bull god free speech, in order to then see him as a fierce opponent of the same.
 to let them enter. Even the brother of the law, Aaron shows not the slightest sympathy for his Brother. He cheerfully accepts the people's proposal;
 "Tear off the golden rings," says ex, "that are in the ears."
 your wives and your sons and your daughters find, and Bring them to me. How would I think of that? That Aaron, the high priest, the brother of Moses, with whom Jehovah yo long ago, the one before Phargo, who performed miracles, that this man, from whom the priesthood, of Jehovah

) Exodus. 24, 18.) 2, Mos. 247%%½ 44

690

should descend, here devoted himself to a different service than the national one introduced by Moses? Aaron also speaks very clearly from the bull verse 4: "This is your god, Israel, who brought you up from the land
 Egypt," that is, exactly the same God who was through Moses a better land had been promised and was thus far under Moses' rule
 The leader had been honored on the train! The godmother's name is Jehovah too. Aaron builds an altar before his! Form
 'And proclaim! "A feast to Jehovah tomorrow!"' Similarly, the Ifraelitifche says: King Jeroboam of to the calves he raised up at Bethel and Dan: Behold,
 There is your God, Israel, who brought you up from the land Lalide Egypt Y.» "Long enough," he says, "feyd" ihr up to Serufalem. "Apparently, then, it was
 The image was also still in Jexusalem at the time of this king.
 Jehovah's bull; for Jeroboam wanted his people to give a substitute for the God in Jerusalem, so he has been a god also made like that of Serufalem; a
 It would have been a completely wrong idea if he had thought of Israel liten, to replace them in Jewish service," an image had placed there, which was considered idolatrous by the Jews.
 would have been reluctant. As the later Israelites...
 They love lavish sacrificial feasts, so they already hold them here.

before the Bull of Aaron they hold a feast and lead a Dance up; David dances too * an 8 way in front of the Ark of the Covenant! t J 17
 Thus Moses remained on the point; from whose (where Jehovah appears as fire), Aaron is also below.
 not inactive among the people, he presents an image of Jehovah= may
 And it offers it to the Israelites as the God who brought them this far.
 = Egyptian-led, presented as a form of worship. The narrative
 Now let Moses continue this scene with great fury.
 behold! A message which came through the altar of burnt offering.

) 1st king 12, 28.) Exodus. 24, 117777:

691 with: his bull's horns and throughout the entire history of the Kingdom of Israel, where Jehovah is continually under the

 The image of the bull, which was revered, has been very decisively refuted.
 The punishment that Moses received for this service was...
 The Israelis imposed this sentence, which clearly shows itself as an er= the discovery of the reformatory spirit, which was concerned with the
 The legislator set a terrible example against the bull service.
 to let. "Let each one draw a sword against a fine
 "Side," he said to the Levites, "walk back and forth from from one gate of the camp to the other, and each one kills his brother, each his friend, each his Neighbor. And the sons of Levi did according to the word of Moses.
 se's, and there were many of the people on that day at three= (thousand men). . I think there's nothing to say about this.
 If the Israelites had been sheep, then they would have been like this.
 To believe something even sooner; but there are people
 If they were, they would have reliably caused such choking of some Few accepted it calmly, at least not what was said.
 wiß s?elbest sheep would have done, the fleeing.
 With stories like these, you don't know what you're talking about.
 What should be more surprising is the limited understanding of the inventors, who boldly defy human understanding and deny belief in such things To expect things of us, or: on the limitations of W which they can believe to be true.

% Now, however, in the 29th verse (?) follows a saying of Moses, who demands our attention in a very special way.

The host says: Come today with a full hand for Jehovah, yes, everyone with a fine * and his . and bring blessings upon you today. 5

cr The addendum: Bring 8 on yourselves today, separate The passage is very clear! (Interspersed with what was just said)
nen e “ the Mose . of the nn *

- ____ *

“Be

b The Yalgata asked. x ke in the 1 quasi viginti

“ tria-millia hominum. , 2) Chapter 32.

44 *

692

let it happen, and connects it to the previous report of the joyous celebration. May blessings be upon you today.” namely, to say as much as: today is a festive day, which Day of the giving of the law, we still need to ask Jehovah for a... to express our gratitude in a special way, in order to partly acknowledge his blessing to become liable." Regarding the Grimme case just previously reported This statement by Moses is not true; the lawgiver would not have said in this mood, "bring Se=" "No, but seek the wrath of Jehovah from you." to avert, to appease God, to forgive your sins his to receive forgiveness. Rather, the passage leads us to the The situation was such that Moses, who had come down from the mountain, was, with pleasure, observing the Israelites' festivities and remarked to them, praising them: we must participate in today's so do even more on important days to receive Jehovah's blessing To secure our future, we must express our gratitude. to express his law in an extraordinary way, namely by offering him what is dearest to him,

What we have is that a number of devout Hebrews to
At the end of the celebration, he gave him a son or a brother.
sacrifices.

That is precisely what the passage is trying to say, 'as such a human sacrifice. Its name is literally: "And it Moses said: Fill your hand today for Jehovah, namely Each one with his son and with his brother and...
(Pray blessings upon you today)." Already in and of itself lies In this expression, the meaning is clearly in mind that the sons and brothers are given to Jehovah as a sacrifice should: but any other interpretation of this passage is completely invalid Rejected by the parallels. Fill the hand for Jehovah with an n "it. a also A in 9 4

II 141 1
*

> per 022 WM '3 nr dyn 09 wog 12 M nee bee 755 dg nn!

2 7

23 2

693

Old Testament common expression for sacrifice. Thus it is called 2 Chronicles 13:9: Whoever came and filled his fine hand with - a bull and seven rams, who became a priest of non-gods); 2 Chronicles 29:31: You have your hand Filled for Jehovah, so come forward and bring sacrifices and thanksgiving offerings to the house of Jehovah." Even the ancient Jewish The outliers grasp the spot of a victim of the sons and brothers, but turn them so that Jehovah will stop the killing those sons and brothers who were punished for the bull—
I have considered it a sacrifice to serve (2).

This idea was undoubtedly also part of the intention of Reformation-era editors of our book. They let the sons and brothers given as a thank offering in the one They staged a revenge scene as victims of punishment, without considering, that the verse inserted verbatim from an old relation 29 put the matter in a different light and that the exit² Press sons and brothers to their Levites, through whom the The criminal court proceedings should be carried out, but that doesn't fit. Because the Sons and brothers of the Levites would simply be Levites again. had been, and so those who gave the order— should lead to the punishment being carried out in itself, not to to the people. But that is apparently what the authorities now want— don't say; they imagine the process to be such that the, Levites, as a chosen flock, right and left, without sin² The difference was the person among whom the people would have murdered. There Against that, it is quite possible from our point of view.

1) Here too, the verb ND is used with 2; the same

The verb also has the position mentioned further.

) The Septuagint says: “Eriyowoare rag xeipas vucv 07- uegov xvpi Exa0ros &v r viw 7 e To e avrov, dosrval p uud evloyiay.n The Targum Onkelos in the Latin. Over. the London. Polygl.: “Obtulistis manu vestra oblationem hodie coram Domino, unusquisque in filio suo et fratre suo ut detur hodie super vos benedictio.,

694

and, even probably, that Moses the preacher and servant had the sanctuary particularly in mind when He said: Come today with a full hand; each one should offer a sacrifice. A child or a brother! Among the brothers, of course. It will be difficult for minors and boys to understand, for example, because it is difficult. In fact, an adult brother of the older one has a derar² to allow excessive force to be exerted over oneself.

Aaron's 8 sons Nadab and Abihu are sacrificed.

The tenth chapter of the third book of Moses tells
The following incident. Aaron's sons, Nadab and Abihu, Each took his smoking pan and put a fire in it.
and placed incense on it and brought foreign fire before Jehovah, which he did not command them. Then fire went out.
from Jehovah and devoured them and they died before Jehovah—hova. Then Moses said to Aaron: This is what Jehovah spoken and said: Among those who approach me,
I want to prove myself holy and before the eyes of the Lord.
that all the people would declare me holy. And Aaron remained silent.
And Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uziel, the son of the Lord.
Aaron's father's brother, and said to them: Come near,
Carry your brothers out of the sanctuary, out before the Camp. And they came and carried them away in their Out in their tunics, outside the camp, just as Moses commanded. And Moses spoke to Aaron, Eleazar, and Ithamar, his Sons: You shall not uncover your heads or your clothing.
that will not tear, lest you die, and not anger Come on the whole church; but your brothers and sisters and the May the whole house of Israel mourn this fire, which Jehovah did. And from the door of the meeting tent
You must not go, or you will die; for the anointing oil Jehovah is upon you. And they did according to the word.
Moses' »

ITnm third chapter of the fourth book of Moses verse lff.
It says: "This is the lineage of Aaron and Moses, to the time when Jehovah spoke with Moses on Mount Sinai.

95

And these are the names of the sons of Aaron: the Firstborn Rene Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the anointed priests, who They were ordained to the priesthood. But Nadab died.
and Abihu before Jehovah, when they offered up foreign fire before Jehovah, in the Sinai wilderness, and they had no sons;
And so Eleazar and Ithamar were placed under supervision.
Aaron's, her father's.

The report contains many enigmatic elements; one has the original sought to conceal the original facts therein and the historical fact that two sons of Aaron before the Altars died, i.e., were sacrificed, a cause underpushed, which imposed the death of the two men as punishment- Nadab and Abihu are to be made to shine by Jehovah. killed because they did not light the fire for their smoking pans from take the holy fire from elsewhere, rather than from the altar; However, the preceding text doesn't even mention the— It has been wrongly assumed that the sacrificial fire could only be lit from the May one take burnt offering altars: such severity, Jeho— va's was also striking to the orthodox interpreters, and they have therefore always liked to find their way over this spot- I rushed. The mistake isn't so huge after all that it He deserved death! Josephus feels this too and allows it. Therefore, the offense is very arbitrary, according to its specific intent. to somewhat improve his chances by not paying the penalty the failure to ignite, but rather the fact that it occurs because of this, because the priests burn incense in the old way, not according to the (had presented new divine precepts). It was about, Our office says fire from “the face of Jehovah” and devoured them and they died “before the face of Jehovah.”

1) Joseph. antique III, 8: “xonioayres er roy Bouov on GY nooeinev Movons Ivucrov, all above ExXowyro roöregoy etc.» Josephus could also understand Your to mean a sacrificial animal; Because the word also has this meaning.

696

The expression phressen is just as we noted above ben, the one who is customary among the victims, the Jehovah as fire consumed), he means a complete upconsume, which is confirmed by the translation of the Septuagint will. Likewise, dying "before the face of Jesus" indicates va's pointing towards a victim. It then continues verbatim: “And Moses said to Aaron: This is what Jehovah has said...” He spoke by saying: To those who are close to me, I will sanctify myself and before the face of the whole

The people shall praise me. An important passage. That Holy I to Jehovah coincides with the sacrifice.

“Holy to me all firstborn I” is just as much as:
Offer me all firstborn. Whoever approaches the altar of burnt offering...
It is holy, that is, as we have seen, it must to be sacrificed. "Being close to Jehovah is also..."
probably by the priests to be applauded (): and so they would have We here most likely find the remains of an old,
"Eight Mosaic commandments, which read: 'My I demand sacrifices especially from those sacred to me.
priests, so that the whole people may see that I too
“I will not withhold what is most holy, and I will boast.” Aaron
He remains silent, he suppresses his pain, lets it be as a prie
The sacrificial order takes its course. The victims may be mourned.
They will not be killed, they will be sacrificed to Jehovah.
ben; it would be a sin to honor one Je to express grief following Hova's death.
Up to this point, verse 1 being the obvious exception, we are on

2) The Hebrew text and the Chaldean paraphrase are used
The word DER, the Septuagint has xarapayeiv.

2) vn and vn

) 2. Mof. 13, 2. Bu |

4) 2 in propinquis meis. Compare 3. Mom. 16, 1; Ez. 40, 46;
Zephaniah 3:2.

697 _

historical reason; but what now with verse 4.
What follows is another addition by the editors. This becomes very clear.
The second verse states that the holy fire will bring forth the sons Aaron's eaten, consumed, with other words ten, that they had been burned on the altar. This But the authors did not do that in the following verses.
taken into account. They are not consumed by fire.
suddenly turns into mere bodily harm, either because they overlooked the meaning of the expression, or because they ab—

 They obviously did not elaborate on it further, since the word too clearly pointed to a victim. They transform the
 "to be consumed by fire" into a violent death without any particular bodily harm. They thought of an electric shock.
 trisch blow that killed the priests, freer the They probably also suspected Moses, as if he an electric art against the two men who were his
 He would have disobeyed orders and put them into action.
 They believed the fire had destroyed the priests' clothes.
 attacked and they died from the burns: but The rest of the narrative is very far removed from the eating⁸, that even the men's tunics are unharmed; for According to verse 5, they were carried out in their tunics in front of the Warehouse. The matter is easily explained like this. To the processor of the section that transforms the victim into a mere killing-transforms and fails to notice that being eaten by
 It is conceivable that fire includes the consumption of the corpse.
 In his account of the event, he also mentioned the two to dispose of corpses that lay in the holy tent and that contaminated it. He therefore lets them, as is usually done—
 Shah, carry him out of the camp and bury him.

One could say the whole narrative is a didacticism.
 tung of the later priests, which intended to be through a
 To show an example from the history of the Mosaic period, how necessary it is that the priest should consult the saints
 He strictly adheres to his instructions. Only the 698

Traces of a historical basis are too clear to be considered.
 that I could confess to Diefer's view. Hardly.
 would the later priests be the ex-born son of the superior:
 priest Aaron and his second son. such a
 They have attributed offenses when they cannot be attributed to a single cause.
 for the explanation of the violent deaths of these men would have been needed. Such an example: would have been far more appropriate.
 more likely to have it placed on a priest of a later period.
 But now that the historical fact was available that Nadab and Abihu were killed in the sacred tent, it was reached by presenting the victim with an error⁸

The purpose of this was to demonstrate Jehovah's strictness in this regard.
 prove and the story of Moses about this man to cleanse victims. Furthermore, the expression "devour" also indicates very clearly points to an older relationship, the representation of which Our authors erased; from the men's point of view, which the corpses in the linen skirts, with which the Prie
 Those who were clothed at the victim's side were to be carried out of the camp.
 The idea that "let" could not have arisen is that Both priests were consumed by fire. In what way
 But now the actual reason for this sacrifice—
 It cannot be said what the situation was. Moses had given the commandment—to sacrifice the firstborn. This probably also happened.
 already in the temple of the one worshipped under the image of the bull Egyptian sun god Osiris at Heliopolis; the new thing was the
 The institution did not; but probably Moses raised what
 In earlier times, as with the Egyptians, so too with the Hebrews.
 was left to free will, for his Jehovah to Law. The high priest had to lead by example.
 go; he sacrifices his two oldest sons. Also Moses will not have been left behind; from the sacrifice of a
 We have the son of this man during his illness
 Already acted. Perhaps this sacrifice of the sons took place.
 Aaron's immediately after the giving of the law; in the preceding
 The chapters begin with the consecration of Aaron to the Oher

699

The priest spoke; it would be possible that Moses after the Legislation 'fine brother on the divinely ordained verses' orders oblige and this part for the consecration of the day partly to prove to the people how willing he submit to the law of the firstborn, at the insistence of the Moses (because the addition: "Aaron remained silent" points to page Aaron's no particular zeal) his two oldest sons would have sacrificed. The historical connection.
 Unfortunately, the fate of this victim can only be surmised, since the third
 The Book of Moses contains little historical information, but is almost entirely—common regulations are included. It is also possible that the two
 The high priest's sons had to die to save Jehovah merciful for the upcoming military undertakings to agree and to ensure fine support; for

In Arabia and Phoenicia, it was common for kings to and distinguished persons in public danger or at important times Enterprises one of their sons for the good of the people kes to sacrifice).

In the impending attack on Palestine,
Some prominent Israelites were sacrificed.

Moses, as they approached the border of Palestine,
Respected men were sent out to conquer the land.
to spy on. These men, with the exception of the Joshua and Caleb before the attack on the enemy peoples sacrificed. In the 13th and 14th chapters of the fourth book of Moses.
This incident is recounted as follows. Jehovah commands to send Moses to Canaan to settle the land to explore, each from a tribe a prince, who were The man he saw, twelve in total. The reporter knows even the names of these emissaries; I doubt their authenticity—the same name, as well as the statement that Moses was exactly twelve and that I have sent one man from each tribe.

) Eusebius. praep. Evangelical IV, 16, 700

Moses speaks to these men (chapter 13, verses 19 ff.): + See the land as it is, and the people who live there, whether whether it is strong or weak, whether it is little or much, and how
The country is the one in which it lives, whether it is good or bad.
and like the cities in which it lives, whether in camps or fortresses, and what the land is like, whether it's rich or lean, whether trees are found in it or not; and take courage and take-from the fruits of the land. This command is very
Of course, and beyond doubt. But if the men...
ner im Thale Eskol, di Traubenthal, eine Traube abfchne the one which two of them carry on a pole, so it is This proof of the land's fertility is too clearly evident from the naming of the valley is taken from it, as if one were to call it might consider it historical; likewise are the forty days, after which the scouts return, one too frequently recurring term in the Old Testament, as that one could consider them historical; especially since later on this forty-day absence of the forty-year stay in the desert. But these circumstances touch—

 They don't come any closer. The men return and instead They gave a report at a public meeting. They explained that...
 The land is very fertile, but the people living there live in—fortified cities, it is large and strong, and one will not to master it. Upon this message «ers
 The whole community raises a cry and the people weep.
 That night; all the sons of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron and say: Why does Jehovah lead us into this land, that we may fall by the sword, our women And our children become prey? Isn't it better for us to return to Egypt?" Joshua, however, and Caleb, who were also among the spies, spoke—chen: «the country we traveled through is very good; if If Jehovah is inclined towards us, he brings us into this land and There is a land for us that flows with milk and honey.
 Just do not rebel against Jehovah and do not fear him.

701

People of the land; for they are our bread. They have departed.
 Their protection is from them, and Jehovah is with us; be afraid.
 No! Then he thought, "it goes on to say, 'The whole society
 My word is to stone them; but the glory of Jehovah is
 It appeared in the tent of assembly before all the sons of Israel.
 Jehovah threatens the people with plague because of the lack of Trust in his support; no Hebrew who is over two who counts decades, is supposed to come to the promised land, except for Josua and Caleb; according to the number of days in which one Having explored the country, they are to remain in the desert for forty years.
 to die and perish in it. Right in the middle of these threats is now... but a verse was inserted in which Jehovah is completely contrary-speaks in a set sense. God says in the 25th verse of the Chapter 13: "But the Amalekites and Cananites live
 In the valley: tomorrow turn around and go into the desert.
 towards the Sea of Reeds." This verse, which initially began with the preceding and following verses in no way relatedmenhang fteht, rather the opposite says, is eyes—probably taken from a different context. One I cannot say that Jehovah gave this order to retreat, to carry out his threat of a forty-year sentence—

to initiate immediately; for this withdrawal will be here not motivated as a punishment, but the reason for it is that the Amalekites and Cananites live in the valley, and Jehovah notifies his people of this danger in order to
to save their powerful enemies.

Chapter 14, verses 36-38, follows.

like the ones I literally turn on because they are the most important for us—
The most significant part of the story is: "And the men, it is called..."
it, «which Moses sent to explore the land, and which They came again and the whole community murmured against him.
did this by spreading a nasty rumor about the Land: the men who spread a bad rumor died.
brought before Jehovah through a plague. But Jonah, who Nun's son, and Caleb, the son of Jephunna, remained de 702

ben of the men who set out to conquer the land—3

Completely contradictory to the previously expressed Zag—
The narrative continues: "And Moses
He spoke these words to all the sons of Israel: then they mourned
The people were very... And they got up in the morning and They went to the top of the mountain and said: Here are we want to go up to the place from which Jehovah has prepared
He said, "For we have sinned." Then Moses said, "Why?"
But are you transgressing Jehovah's command? It won't be Succeed! Do not go up; for Jehovah is not under so that you will not be defeated by your enemies.
For the Amalekites and Canaanites are there before you, and You will fall by the sword; for that is why you have turned away from Jehovah, and Jehovah is not with you. And They were presumptuous, to ascend to the height of the mountains.
But the ark of the band and Jehovah did not depart.

from the camp. Then the Amalekites and the Canaanites who lived on that mountain, and Ben and They scattered as far as Hormah. »

| Among these various contradictions, I imagine the
The historical facts, then. They had reached the border.
Palestine's come and now deemed it necessary to send "scouts".
to send into the country. These respected men came returned with the news that the land was indeed very fertile,
but inhabited by warlike tribes, whose expulsion
This exercise will present significant difficulties. Due to this [be]
The people were greatly discouraged, so that the price
The company felt it was necessary to do something extraordinary.
To revive their flagging spirits. It was decided the victim of some prominent Israelites and chose to do so the most disheartened of the explorers, because of their view. This For men, constantly reacting to the mood of the people, buckets threatened to have an effect. Encouraged by this sacrifice / begin the Hebrews the meeting initiated the * will but be ge-hit (

—

1% The expression « fie farben vor oder bei dem Angesicht Jehovah's can mean nothing other than that they died before the image of Jehovah in the holy tent; for everything that was The events before Jehovah's attack are presented, but It refers to an action that takes place before the altar in the
The tabernacle is going on. The expression 222 is translated.

the bet with Plageze, the word "Plage" alone depicts a continuing state and wants to advocate for the sudden death suffered by these men, not well eig-nen. The word, in its first meaning, rather means...
u violent blow" and asks in our context:

“fe dye before Jehovah a watery death .

Now, one could of course also use it as punishment in the Ange-Jehovah's view is that they suffer death, which then becomes an atonement sacrifice.

depicted what God had done for the crime committed was brought; but of a punishment of the spies in the actual historical circumstances of our narrative
"Lung not the speech" can be. Jehovah sends the men out to explore the land; the all-knowing God
That shouldn't have been necessary. Whoever knows
He who sends a saffron, demands the truth from them.
drive. The 'pebeäifchen men correspond to this expectation'

rr a 5 j 8 ss. z .

00 Jof 8 indeed, that a messenger had been sent out
2. He said that they brought bad news, but kept silent about the whole situation.
10 waltf men death of the same.

11 22. percusait; Niph. 'edesus est. 2 plaga, clades bellica.

j Gesen, 'thes. Map. 850. Likewise Winer. lexic. Hebrew p. 599.

1114 to
1177 e fer, pertussit, cecidit. The e translates & 77
7

* CAN DI. Blow, violent injury, wound. The he Ka; Abrashi? The term also has the meaning of a plague.
or a plague-like disease, as Numbers 25:8; only in the

The present case is better suited to the first meaning.

704 tung, find their duty true, they say how they the land found, their statement is confirmed by the success:

So why a punishment? When Moses sent out spies, so he had to know in advance that their report would either
It would turn out favorably or unfavorably. Did he not want any unfavorable outcomes?
Having received favorable news, he either didn't have to do anything at all.

to send scouts or to signal their advance,
 that the people should only hear encouraging reports;
 In this case, he could choose men who were...
 He had his intentions. This, however, he did not do.
 wanted the truth, made no secret of it.
 makes; for the envoys carry their report in the People's assembly before: how could he therefore 'want' to punish them?
 Such a procedure would only have further alienated his people.
 more discouraged and turned against himself. Just the Um=

It was stated that the death of these men as punishment should be so terrible.
 The fact that it is tivirt and yet is reported proves that the ge= historical fact of the killing of some prominent Israelis=

ten, which was a sacrifice of the same, that our report=

erstatter euphemistically dressed in the garb of punishment
 The people needed encouragement to launch their attack.
 and this existed before the battle among: all peoples which were devoted to the service of human sacrifice, in that one was Human sacrifice was brought about. The Gesi guild, the Hebrew, suddenly... lich another, the courage raised, for e penetrate into the Ge=

They hide and attack. But if now the biblical
 The author urges his Jehovah to withdraw, as Moses did.
 even leaving him behind with the Ark of the Covenant, he does this,
 to give God and his lawgiver a view into the future=

to save the future. The Hebrews were defeated; this
 The facts were available. Jehovah and Moses therefore had to appear before a Meeting with the enemies to warn them, so that it doesn't happen to them.
 It appears they did not foresee the bad outcome.
 see. Moses stayed behind, 16. that he did it out of concern for fine. 'Sanctuary, which in. the t etz, where 705

The fighting had to become very isolated, danger could threaten.
 What benefit did his staying behind serve in a different way?
 His fate was, after all, tied to that of his people;
 When the Israelites were defeated, it was the same for him personally.
 as bad as for any Hebrew; and if now
 the people persecuted and destroyed from the Amalekites to Horma=

Since it was scattered, he also had to react in the case of a return.
 remain with his sacred implements likewise to Understanding escape.

For the atonement of Jehovah, who had a plague-like disease | “sent, some Israeli captains will sacrificed.

“Israel,” we read Numbers Chapter 25:1ff., “sat in Sittim “and the people began to whore with the daughters
Moab's invited the people to the sacrifices of their gods,
And the people ate and worshipped their gods, and Sfrael
He clung to Baal-Peor, and the wrath of Je was kindled.
Jehovah over Israel. And Jehovah said to Mofe: Take all the heads of the people and hang them up before Jehovah.
the sun, so that the wrath of Jehovah might turn away from Ifrael. Then Moses said to the judges of Israel: Kill Every person his people who have hanged themselves on Baal
Peor.” The following is a story about how Pinehas attacked a woman before Israelis take the daughter of a respected Midia Neters seized them both in the act and struck them both with a lance.
pierced. “There,” it continues in the 8th verse,
The plague was repelled by the sons of Israel, and There were twenty-four of those who died from the plague—tau send!>

Historical information is difficult to glean from this report.
be, as this. Among the Sfraelites was, presumably in
In the heat of high summer, a plague broke out that It claimed the lives of many people. In such times, it was also In Egypt, the * “the representative of 45

706

The sun's destructive power to sacrifice people.
Moses sends some noblemen to atone for the sun god.
Hebrews hanged as sacrifices before the sun. (Probability)
These victims were then tied to a cross and taken to the
He established his position facing east. We have discussed this.
As already mentioned above, one can use the expression “people”.

“Hanging before the sun for Jehovah” cannot be expressed any other way, than that Jehovah is the sun god to whom the sacrifice is offered will be. The word 123 before is the same as 5 in the an= faces or opposite. The use, in Sew People affected by drought and suffering from illness were seen as victims before the Sons To crown a god, can still be found under David, the Saul' (Offspring destined for such a sacrifice). —

The narrative given by our biblical text wind This can be explained as follows. The editor of our ab= Schnittes found in his traditions a participation of the Israelites at a festival of the Moabites and Midianites, at the same time also a report of a great epidemic, to de= To defend himself, he sacrificed some nobles; he used the last one= The circumstances were such that he had sacrificed the colonels as punishment. For this sexual sin of the people, death suffer 9. In the eighth and ninth verses he gives us, Of course, without intending to, the clarification that we under the so-called wrath of Jehovah in verse 4, a plague= to understand a kind of disease that is prevalent among the people raged, thereby revealing the true nature of his report. will be. Not for sexual service in the cult of the The leaders die before Baal, but as sacrifices for defense. the plague; also, of course, find the figures, according to web

1) 2 Samuel, Chapter 21:

3) The Targum Onkelos feels the injustice that here the upper= sten for the sinful people must die, and describes: Great omnes principes populi et judica et occide illum, qui reus fuerit mortis coram Domino contra solem,.

Bi

All the colonels and 24,000 men of the people lost their lives (To lose, as usual, greatly exaggerated). The Berfaffer uses the opportunity to set a truly terrible example to establish the punishment for sexual intercourse. The= But his ministry was then with the Hebrews and remained until to the downfall of the kingdoms of Israel and Judah as well public worship, as among the Moabites and Midianites.

 I am referring to the outbuildings that have already been mentioned several times.
 for the women at the Temple and at the Feast of Tabernacles. A Such a festival must have been the one at hand. The Baal, who is glorified here, was not so good to Jehovah.
 very alienated, he is rather in the preceding Ka-Piteln is confused with Jehovah. The Moabite king Bas
 Lak, according to Numbers 22:41, cites the prophet Balaam.
 The heights of Baal, there the Prophet built seven altars,
 He sacrifices seven bulls and seven rams and speaks to the King: Stand beside your burnt offering, and I will go,
 Perhaps Jehovah will meet me halfway, and what he will do for me
 I will tell you what Jehovah will show you. When Jehovah comes, he says Balaam to God: I have set up the seven altars and
 A bull and a ram were sacrificed on each altar. (This is a fragment of a larger text.)
 In gratitude, Jehovah gives him a revelation. The God, to whom the Moabites sacrifice here on Mount Baal, is So, Jehovah. Since the oracle of Jehovah was on this mountain
 If the outcome is in favor of the Israelis, Balak leads the Bi-Leam on the summit of Mount Pisga 2), also builds here seven altars and sacrifices; but also on this mountain it says Jehovah's pronouncement for the benefit of the Hebrews. Now

1) Gramberg, History of the Religion of the Old Testament, I, 480, says: That 24,000 Israelites surrendered without resistance to the priests or
 The idea that elders would have ordered murders is completely unbelievable.
 Gramberg's main purpose is to show how the Ab-Idolatry must be punished, secondary purpose to confound the Pinehas-magnificent.

) Numbers 23:14;

45 *

708

(Balak leads Balaam to the summit of Mount Peor)
 "It rises above the surface of the desert, so probably the
 The highest in the whole region is the same one where Baal-Peor lives, which of them bears his name. Here too, the God, whose spirit comes upon Balaam, not Baal, but called Jehovah. The blessing which came from the prophet

 What is being spoken of is evidently from a much later time; we be-
 He doesn't stir here; we only take so much from the Dar-
 The position claims that Jehovah and Baal-Peor are very close.
 are related, that the worshippers of Baal on the holy Mountains of this God sacrifice to Jehovah and Jehovah that does not reject the victim. It cannot be assumed at all.
 will be that we under the Baal-Peor here a special-their God would have, whose epithet Peor) (like the Hebrew-(and according to them the Christian interpreters claimed), of a predominant sexual veneration, of a-
 to be understood as the relinquishment of virginity. The Sexual service was present in all cults of the sun god.
 among the Semites at home; that we, the Israelites, here...
 Rade, at such a festival of the god, cannot meet prove that Baal-Peor exclusively demands this service
 I have. Peor is rather the name of the mountain, and Baal
 He takes this nickname from the mountain that was sacred to him,

) Numbers 23:29. G

) Ny hiatus montis. Hebraeorum interpretes (cf. Jonath. ad

Num. 25, 1) nomen ye referebant ad uh puellarum aperiendum (a radice M aperuit os mägno hiatu), et mon-tem Peor a cultu Baal-Peor numinis dictum esse volebant.

 Sed istud etymon vel propterea displicet, quod D a tali usu alienum est. Imo potius Baal, qui alias quoque generandi nu-men est, a monte Peor apud Moabitas illud cognomen traxisse videtur. Gesen. thesaur. II. p. 1119.

709

Self-flayers of Aaron and Moses.

We come to the mysterious disappearance of the Aa= Ron and Moses on a mountain.

The deeper antiquity shows in relation to its men= The significant peculiarity of the sacrificial service is that it has its Victims not only from the lower classes, but also from important ones primarily handles matters from the highest estates. It was believed that a distinguished person should also... to whom God means far more than to a man of low rank, that the sacrifice of a prince or priest the divine Help is far more surely gained than surrendering a man. People from the common people. As a rule, they are Therefore, in earlier times, nobles, priests, and kings' sons, who are singled out as victims in times of state danger, And among several peoples, priests and kings die depending on... a certain time of her office, determined by an oracle= They voluntarily offered their sacrificial death for their people. I allow it to happen. A more detailed explanation of this important fact was recently provided by some partly already mentioned in the earlier sections Lay down. The ancient, deified King Saturn himself sacrifices. in a time of great distress for the state, his own son, who represents the king: for actually, the The king himself must suffer death for his people. This is the The reason why Saturn, when he sacrifices his son, gives him the (attracts royal jewelry). In the same way, the Moabites King Mefa in the distress of the siege His own son and heir to the throne as a sacrifice. The Atha= Mantids in Greece, of whom the firstborn was the Those who had to be sacrificed to Zeus were considered to be of a special nature. God's and were a priestly family. The misfortune in The Carthaginians wrote the war against Agathocles to the Circumstances that they had been in place of the sons for some time.

) “Bacılızw vovvá Oynuarıröy ul, Eus e b. praep. evang. I, 20.

710

more parents had sacrificed purchased children, and immediately As penance, several hundred nobles, children and adults will be executed.

grown, slaughtered. When the exiled Carthaginian field-Lord Maleus besieged his home city of Carthage, he defeated his son Cartalo, clothed with priestly and royal robes and a badge, in the face of the city to a high Cross, and soon he takes Carthage. 9. In service Astarte, Artemis, Bellona, are preserved, as we have seen.
 have, the priest sacrifices up to the Christian era in. Even in Strabo's time (Strabo XI, 4) the Astarte from the Phoenician people of the Alabans annually a A fattened hierodul was sacrificed for this purpose. The Christians, which were thrown to wild animals in the Orient,
 When one put on the red clothing of the priests of Saturn, eyes-

Justin. XVIII, 6. Cartalo was taken by the Carthaginians just after Tyre was sent to the Tyrian Hercules, as Ges
 It was customary to bring the tithe from the Phoenician spoils.
 gen. According to Justin, Maleus would have brought his son back from there.

called, but he replied that he had to go to publicae reli- earlier

gionis officia exsecuturum, quam privatae pietatis., As now the son ornatus purpura et infulis sacerdotii into the camp
 When he comes to his father, the father keeps him in secret (in secretum). abducto) a reprimand for his disobedience and this of his magnificent procession before unhappy citizens. Atque ita eum cum ornatu suo in altissimum crucem in conspectu ur-until suffigi jussit. Post paucos deinde dies Carthaginem cepit. "
 We will not be wrong if we view this process differently.
 grasp. The secret speech of Maleus to his son, which Since Justin gives such a detailed account, this historian could hardly understand it.
 He has no reliable source. Rather, he is looking for a reason.
 why Maleus' fine son in the priestly and royal Ornate nailed to a high cross, and finds this in a Disobedience and in royal attire. But we will in the process, one of those forced victims is far more natural-the one that compelled God to intervene. Truly.
 Did this sacrifice have such a discouraging effect on the besieged that Maleus captured the city a few days later.

probably with no other intention than to allow them to, according to the Urals.
In its use, as a priest, a kind of atoning death died for the sins of the people.

We get even closer to our subject when we envision a different use of antiquity
sen. In those ancient priestly states of the Orient, where the Kings were taken from the priestly lineage, is it very likely common for many centuries that no head of state dies of natural causes.
ben was allowed to, but after a certain time for the well-being of others.
the people had to suffer a sacrificial death. This time was Determined by the priests according to an oracle. I need not to draw my readers' attention to how we still
This idea is very clearly contradicted in the Epistle to the Hebrews, where the Messiah, as High Priest and King, brought death to He suffers the sins of the people. Herodotus hints at this.
referring to this custom, when he, from the Ethiopian Sabako reports that after fifty years he relinquished his rule over Egypt voluntarily laid down its powers because it gave him the Ora.
Kel had only agreed to this for this time. 9. Even more clearly
The aforementioned use in the service of Diana Aricina, after whom the high priest of this god.
tin, which most likely has Phoenician origin.
“and the old Astarte is, each time of fine successor had to be sacrificed by hand. The most important news
However, this can be found in Strabo and Diodor 2.
In Meroe, Diodorus recounts, the priests held the highest office.

) Herod. II, 139.

) Strabo XVII, p 1178. Diodor. Sic. III, 6.

3) Diodorus. I. c.: “Kar& nv Meoonyv oi xeg rag ry lewv eo , re xc riuac diunroiBoyres legeig, ueyiörny xal xvgiord-17V rt Exoyres, ereiddy eri vovv avrois EAIN, rEurovov üyyelov , roy Bavilea, neleveyres ArOoIVNOREIV" rob ya Seobg æbroig rœöræ nexenuarxevai, x, deiv To noöorayua r asayarwv.uro lyyrjs pPudews undes rapopa lm va.

Violence. If it comes to their minds, they send to the king and tell him that an oracle is required² a death, he must submit, since a mortal is subject to the will² One should not oppose the gods. (Other reasons) They connect to what simple understanding, of course, which is based on is accustomed to the old, continuously practiced custom of slightly altering² knows. In earlier times, the kings obeyed the Prie² star, without being forced to do so by weapons or other violence² to become 2), out of pure religious bias; under the reign of Ptolemy II, however (in the third century) (Before Christ) the Ethiopian king Ergamenes, a man, who was enlightened by Greek science, the Courage not to obey this priestly command, he sam² He assembled an army and marched to the remote place where the golden temple of the Ethiopians stood, killed the priests and abolished the custom. — Until beyond the time of Alexander the Great. Great, so this custom was preserved among the priests² Queens of Meroe: in Moses' time, she was therefore every² if in practice. It should be taken into account that Me² roe was the state from which culture spread over Egypt further north came, the Egyptians themselves were from Meroe immigrated to Egypt), that furthermore Moses a Ethiopian woman had. The custom has very likely become established. It also extended to Egypt in the earliest times.

) „tregouē Aōyovs.,,n These reasons are derived from the circumstances taken which should make it necessary that the king died a sacrificial death.

2) Kara robg Eravw Xoōvovs unixovoy ol Badideis rois iegevotvy, o örkois ovdE Big xgarnI Evres.n

The state of Meroe consisted of one large country with two arms. However, his rule extended even further to the island formed by the Nile. Beyond this island. He is the biblical Seba, Joseph. antiquit. II, 10. 2, famous in antiquity because of its fruit² Ability, his wealth and his power. Meroe formed a a part of Cush or Ethiopia.

It is not at all isolated; it seems to have applied to him.
 all in ancient times as a sign of holiness, the Natural death is not to be expected, but rather in later years.
 to voluntarily renounce life. That is how the Indians used to do it.
 As we already saw above, according to a report by Philo, they know
 (to burn oneself to death in old age), and most strange
 In a certain way, one finds among the pagan Prussians a completely similar institution. «The headquarters of the Prussian Here archie, » says Mone in fine history of the Nordic Hei—

— —

The reason given is that they had lost their spirit from the chains.
 wanting to liberate the body. This view introduces reflection.
 ahead of a earlier time, whose standpoint one would otherwise not was more willing to submit to such barbaric customs to pull. One must assume the original reason
 The reason for such a voluntary death lay in the fact that the accused Hene Mann in a solemn manner that impressed the people wanted to leave the world. With such a voluntary death, he...
 The concept of a sacrifice for the people was linked to what demfel ben in the eyes of the common man an even higher Werth gave. The belief that one had to free the spirit from its chains.
 freeing the body is a later conception of the inherited Usage, according to which those who are through Holy ness or power elevated themselves above ordinary people, also through a special death in front of the common man wanted to draw. In this later sense, that was and is Self-immolation is common among Buddhists, who thereby nirupa become, who give up their essence and enter the state want to pass on the liberation (moksha). In the earlier Lamas, says Bohlen, old. Ind. I, 290, “it seems at all

 It had been the custom to suffer death by fire in old age, in which but the love of life has made it more comfortable over time, so that they are currently content to first burn the corpse no, after they had been embalmed. But always the Self-immolation is a voluntary sacrifice, which is only for men.

and among these, only the wise and holy ones.
was carried out, which means that the burning of widows was not permitted.
may be confused, although they too are victims.
traditional costumes are., |

714 denthums 1, p. 82, «was too Prussian. Here where the high priest of all the people lived, called Cri-

we or Criwe Criweito, judge of judges, which The name also indicates the highest secular authority. He was the chief soothsayer, who advised the three highest gods
Romove maintained an eternal fire and was visited by everyone
He received the third part of the spoils of war. When he grew old,
He sometimes used to sacrifice himself for the salvation of the people.
and burn himself to death. He appears to have been unmarried;
For his successor was chosen by the priests.

After these introductory remarks, we come to our actual subject, initially the sacrifice Aaron's.

We read Numbers 20:22 ff.: “And the Sons of Israel, the whole community, on the way of Kadesh and They came to Mount Hor. And Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron at Mount Hor on the border of the land of Edom: Aaron shall be gathered to his people; for he shall do not come to the land that I gave to the sons of Israel
I give because you were rebellious against my command.
Miss at the waters of Strife. Take Aaron and Eleazar, his Son, and lead them up to Mount Hor, and Take off Aaron's clothes and put them on Eleazar, bea son, and Aaron shall be gathered and sterben itself. And Moses did as Jehovah commanded, and they climbed Mount Hor before the eyes of the
the whole community. And Moses removed Aaron's clothes. out and dressed Eleazar, his son, and Aaron died there on the top of the mountain, and Moses and Elea-
"They descended from the mountain. And when the whole community
When they saw that Aaron had died, thirty of them mourned Aaron.

Days, the whole house of Israel.” Chapter 33 of the Fourth book, bold, verse 37 ff., added: “And the sons The Israelites set out from Kadesh and camped at Mount Hor. on the border of the land of Edom. There Aaron, the priest, went up.

715

later, to Mount Hor, according to Jehovah's command, and died there in the fortieth year after the departure of the Sons of Israel from the land of Egypt, in the fifteenth century Moon, on the first of the moon. But Aaron was 123 years old. old when he died on Mount Hor.

I think this biblical account speaks clearly enough;
all the preconditions for a violent sacrificial death are found there
All that's missing is for the death of the high priest to be considered a Sacrifices would be granted. Jehovah commands Moses to make a fine sacrifice.
to lead Brother Aaron up the mountain, where he is to die.
If you die of natural causes, you know the Month, week, hour as reliably as it gets here
What is assumed? Orthodoxy will, of course, discuss this further.
This difficulty can be easily overcome; Jehovah knows how.
Moses knew this from him; this is enough for her. But why Must Aaron really, in his final moments of life, still To be led up a mountain? Who would go to that trouble?
to climb a mountain when death is imminent Is? Would Aaron, who is the approach of a natural... to experience the onset of death through a decrease in one's strength.
Had he not died more easily in the valley among his own people?
Why must he go up to a pagan mountain?
The Arabs and Canaanites lived on these mountains.
Chinese deities? The biblical account does not mention Aaron.
once, as with Moses, that one during the ascent of the mountain-ges had the intention of creating a prospect for Palestine win. — The matter is clear. Bergen also lived Jehovah; Aaron must climb to the top of the mountain in order to in this holy place, closer to the sun, to Jehovah to be sacrificed. He must also give up his priestly robes.
Put on dung; for as a priest he was to be sacrificed,
To die a sacrificial death for his people. The scene on the
Our biblical narrator omits mountains themselves with numerous Liem silence. How would this supposedly natural silence be?

Has death now occurred? Had Aaron said nothing to Moses,

716

He spoke to his son, no farewell, no blessing for
The Israelite people? Did Moses know his brother, Eleazar?
Having nothing more to say to his father, one is silent upon the
He went up the mountain, there Aaron would have sat down silently.
He would have been stretched and died; he would have been cold-bloodedly...
Had she taken off her clothes and silently gone back downstairs?
Not even a funeral is called with a single syllable.
I thought! The priest's death was also seen as a punishment for that incident at Haderwasser) in our biblical Be=

The judgment is ill-founded. For according to the biblical account...
Aaron wasn't even among those involved in that incident.
murmuring Israelites, but on the contrary, it says in Numbers 4.
20:2: "And the congregation had no water; so they gathered..."
They rebelled against Moses and against Aaron.≠ How Can Aaron be punished here, since he is so
Was Moses innocent of the tumult?

I will not dwell on this victim any longer, however important.
This object also exists; the biblical text speaks for itself.
It's clear enough on its own. The author conceals the cause of the Aaron's death; he says neither that he suffered from an illness, nor that he died of old age; Aaron goes ge=

It went up the mountain and never came back down.
The cause that the biblical text gives for death,
is completely untenable, and one really has to wonder, that our reporter would not have reached the golden one much sooner
Kalbe took refuge, thus preventing this death at white
The situation could have been interpreted better than as a punishment. However, this is...
It is impossible to overlook that even in our biblical account Mo fe appears acting. For a natural death of the Aaron needed this active intervention of Moses.
No. The course of the incident is presented in such a way that...
Moses intended it and put it into action. He points to Jehovah commanded Aaron and Eleazar to go up the mountain.

) 4 Mos. 20:1 ff.

up, he puts the robe of the high priest on Aaron.
 He took it out and clothed his son Eleazar with it. What can This could be called something other than Moses sacrificing Aaron on the summit of the mountain and placed his son Eleazar in the High priestly dignity? We have reliably confirmed this here.
 Same old custom as in Meroe: Aaron dies after a Oracle for his people, the sacrificial death, he is, as still in the new Testament of the Messiah, as the Athamantids in Greece land, as indeed the priests of Moloch and Astarte, Priest and victim at the same time. The reason for the
 The sacrificial death of the high priest can occur in various contexts.
 Stands are being sought. Either it was common that In this case, the duration is determined immediately upon commencement by a oracles were established, and that the high priest had the ver had an obligation to resign his office after this period of time. to lay down and sacrifice oneself. That's where the situation could lead.
 indicate that Sabako also lays down the scepter after the time allotted to him by the oracle has passed, yet
 However, it was more commonly used during the Babylonian Saka festivals.
 Here, a slave was cared for for five days with to adorn the royal dignity, he even had a right to the royal harem, however, after this time (He was burned). It is not unlikely that one will find in this custom replaced an ancient practice, according to to which persons who hold the highest offices in the state clothed, like kings and high priests, according to the course of a They died a violent death at a certain time. To prevent this To escape fate, the kings assigned a slave to their place, which had to meet the requirements of use. On the other hand However, it would also be possible that the sacrificial death did not occur in The consequence of the passage of a predetermined amount of time was carried out would have been, but rather due to special circumstances.
 states. In case of impending disaster, in dangerous situations

) Compare Mover's Phon. I, 496,

The oracle explained the state's situation, stating that now was the time. point of sacrificial death had come, or the high priest submitted to it of his own free will. In the Ver= The attitudes of the Israelites must have been particularly difficult to to gain firm footing in the promised land, to ever-increasing sacrifices are being demanded, and it is not at all It is unlikely that the sacrificial death of Aaron and Moses at the same time had the purpose of giving Jehovah the final one= to extort the promised land.

The Old Testament recounts the death of Mofe with (following words): "And Jehovah said to Moses: Ascend to this mountain Abarim and behold the land which I the given to the sons of Israel. And when you have seen it, you shall You will be gathered to your people, you too, just as Aaron, your brother, has been gathered together; because you rebelled. Stig waret against my command in the Zin desert, at the Ha= the community, to glorify me through the water before their eyes. (That is the ragwater to Kadesh in (the desert of Zin.) And Moses spoke to Jehovah and said: It was Jehovah, the God of the spirits of all flesh, who commanded it. a man over the community who goes out and comes in before them, and he who carries them out and brings them in, that the Jehovah's congregation should not be like a flock that has no shepherd. ten hat. And Jehovah said to Moses: Take Joshua, the Son Nun's, a man in whom is spirit, and lay your Place your hand on him, and set him before Eleazar the priest, and before the whole congregation, and command him in their presence, and place some of your dignity upon him, that he may obey him. The entire community of the sons of Israel. And he shall stand before Elea. Sar, the priest, approach, and ask him through the Judgment of the light before Jehovah, and according to his command shall They moved out and moved in at his command, he and All the sons of Israel and the entire community. And Moses

1) Numbers 27:12 ff.

that, as Jehovah commanded him, and took Joshua and set him before Eleazar the priest and before the whole congregation and laid his hands on him and commanded him, as Jesus did... hova spoken by Miofe, »

The fifth book gives the account of Moses' death. as follows. Chapter 32, verses 48 ff.: "And Jehovah spoke to Moses on the same day and said: Go up this mountain Abarim, Mount Nebo, which lies in the land of Moab, Jericho opposite, and look at the land of Canaan, which I called the Give to the sons of Israel at the sanctuary. And die on the Mountains, wherever you climb, and be gathered to your heart. People, just like Aaron, your brother, died on the mountain He was gathered to his people; because they You have wronged me among the sons of Israel; for You shall see the land from afar, but you shall enter it. "You shall not enter the land that I am giving to the sons of Israel." Chapter 34, 1 ff.: "And Moses descended from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, the summit of Pisga, the Jericho-ge opposite lies, and Jehovah let him see the whole land, Gilead to Dan 4c. And Jehovah said to him: That is the land that I gave to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob I swore and what I spoke of: To your seed I will I'll give it to you. I'll let you see it with your own eyes. But you shall not cross over. And so you died there. Moses, the servant of Jehovah, in the land of Moab, by order Jehovah's. And he buried him in the valley, in the land of Moab, Beth Peor opposite, and no man knows his grave until on this day. Now Moses was 120 years old. old when he died; his eye had not grown dull and The subtle power did not escape.

Moses also dies on a mountain. The biblical... The author knows of no other cause for this death either. lassung, as the murmuring of the Hebrews in the desert of Zin. Mount Abarim, on which the Lawgiver decreed death finds, or rather seeks, is strikingly the same.

720

which is sacred to Baal-Peor; Abarim was the name of the god

Birge, Nebo, Peor and Pisga were the individual peaks the same). According to the biblical account, Moses would have the must climb the mountain to reach the promised [something] before its end To be able to see the country, at least from a distance. It was but it is by no means necessary that Moses should long for this ten sights were spared until the end of his life; the Israelites
 They are supposed to remain at the borders of this country for decades.
 They had traveled around and therefore had ample opportunity to
 to take a look inside from a mountaintop, namely
 They were already in the same place much earlier in the Moabiterlande had been when they were at the festival of Baal-Peor
 They participated, and the Moabite king with Balaam on the Berge Peor sacrificed to Jehovah. As the high priest Aa Ron, while still alive, bestowed his dignity upon a successor.
 who must bear and sacrifice himself, so too the ruler, or
 If we want king; for Moses clothed quite
 The same dignity as the kings of the nomadic tribes. Much
 It is easy to see that even among the Midianites, where Jehovah was on Sinai his homeland, this institution existed. That it was there for those countries were not unfamiliar, we learned from other sources.
 Saw them playing. There was no question of violence involved. Je
 He who assumed one of these highest offices knew beforehand, that such a death awaited him, and he submitted to it.
 voluntary, because such an end would be incompatible with his position un inextricably linked and the sanctity of his Andes
 It depended on that. The long-standing custom takes This use is also extraordinary; among the In This habit remained in practice for thousands of years.
 She lost her way among the Hebrews when the national gangs with the incursion of the people among the Cananites looser were. The Indian sage in Alexander's entourage of the Great, Sphines or Kalanus, an old man, lets

1) Winer bibl. Realw. I, 3.

721

Even abroad, right among the Greeks, not to prevent him from suffering a fiery death at Pasargadae, he jumps (boldly into the burning pyre). Ultimately, perhaps

It should also be noted that, if already for the self-stuffer Aaron's, especially for that of Moses, a story~~er~~
The biblical news reveals a natural cause
There is. With Moses' death, the conquest begins under Joshua. of the promised land. And Jehovah, it says in Numbers. Chapter 33, 50, "spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab, on the Jordan near Jericho, from the institutions that were in to be met in the conquered land of Canaan. One may presume this statement, according to which Jehovah was with Moses in The same area is being discussed regarding the impending conquest. delt, in which Moses performs his self-mutilation, points to a council of prominent Israelites in Moab about the means by which one comes into possession of the promised land could reach. As a result of this consultation, Moses, who had probably come to this realization, joined him. liked that he was not a general, that he would be sooner or later Life already devoted to Jehovah, in order to gain the favor of the God's for the impending invasion of Palestine~~er~~ win, to offer to Jehovah for the encouragement of the people~~er~~
The kind of fine sacrifice, like that of Aaron, will a burnt offering, a complete burning on a pyre~~er~~ heaps had been, as was the case in that fire service and also as would be common among the Indian Brahmins. What Josephus, who liked to draw a parallel between his hero and Romulus (would have spoken of a rapture through a cloud?), ver~~er~~
This does not serve as a consideration.

) Arrian. exped. Alex. VII, 3. Pio Dor. She. XIX, 2. To the
In the time of Emperor Augustus, there was also an Indian philosopher, called Zarmanochegas, di Sramanacharyas, the saint, whom Greeks in Athens witnessed such a spectacle of self-immolation. Bohlen alt. Ind. I, 289.

*) Joseph. antiqu. IV, 8. 48. Philo also speaks in related terms.

| 46

722

Joshua sacrifices the captured kings.

According to the account in the Book of Joshua, this Jewish Leaders the inhabitants of the conquered villages in the Rule explained for Cherem. Although these great sacrifices also regarding the individual cases of human sacrifice by the Hebrews belong to those which the Old Testament reports; so I will tell them but will not be subjected to a more detailed examination here, since this item in what is under the section of the vow was said, its sufficient fulfillment has been found. Only one sacrificial act of Joshua, which we As I have mentioned from time to time, I would like to make a special point. Demand consideration for the sacrifice of the captured kings.

First, one reads Joshua chapter 8, verse 23: "And the king..." The nig von Ai captured him alive and brought him to Sofua. » Verse 29: "And he hanged the king of Ai on the tree until evening, and at sunset, commanded Joshua, then they took his body down from the tree and threw him at the entrance of the city gate and he= They raised a large pile of stones over him, up to this point. Day.

Joshua had besieged the city of Ai. As usual The biblical narrator also enjoys himself in the Book of Joshua. on this occasion in exaggerations. The Jewish An= The leader appointed no fewer than thirty men from his army. a thousand men to an ambush that was located in the (Should keep hidden near the city!) In the 12th verse He once again lays an ambush of five thousand men, which likewise, as above, are located west of the city, between to conceal Bethel and Ai; so that one cannot help but It can be assumed that the processor already had in the twelfth Phrases as if Moses hadn't actually died, but had remained in that he had been taken up from heaven; Phil, vita Mos. III, p. 696. Edit: Paris.

9) Joshua 8:3-4

Verse forget that he was already in the third thirty dancing
 The man marched. The actual army of the Hebrews.
 now advances against the city, allows itself to be besieged, all Be-Residents of Ai come out to persecute the Hebrews,
 Then the ambush plunges into the empty city and sets it ablaze.
 to the inhabitants of Ai, from the two Jewish armies-Departments included, will all be referred to as Cherem never-Made. However much we know of the brilliant success
 This company will have to withdraw in order to—
 To get closer to the historical truth, that is the up—Hanging the king's head in front of the sun is very likely historical fact. For this action points to...
 He refers to the old human sacrifices and stands against the war-
 customs, in which the editors of the very late Bu—
 Joshua lived too far away to be believed,
 They had no historical basis for this sacrifice.
 have and the same only to glorify the old war-devised deeds. The king is elected by the general Choking is ruled out. It must be a thank offering for the Victory on the cross to die. They captured him," it says, "le-"Flexible." This expression says that the king is not voluntarily revealed what was already assumed anyway.
 may, for he had to know what fate awaited him before-
 He stood; he will therefore have defended himself to the utmost.
 To capture a person alive who is responsible for his Fighting for life is no easy task. Have the He-Brær took nothing further into account in this capture alive, than a mere execution: why don't they make it Easy, why didn't they kill the king on the battlefield?
 field? This saving had to be reliable, and the later Execution after a hard-won victory was a particular intention and have importance, and where else could this best—hen, than that one should give thanks to the god in the king of the vanquished Did one wish to offer a solemn sacrifice of thanksgiving to the people?
 hung it up, not on just any tree, but on 46 *

He translates the Septuagint as Kudov duövuov, the Chaldean as...
Paraphrase has N foy 3% crucifixit super crucem, fo

that there is no doubt, this is no ordinary Strangling, hanging from a tree, but a cross= meant 9. But the crucifixion was, as we have in one of the preceding sections, which was written by the Pasha=

The victim acted, with good reason, demonstrating a situation in Sun services were the usual type of sacrifice; the sacrifice was performed before God relaxed us all day. In our place
Although the word "sun" isn't there, we have it in our minds.
another place where Moses brought the leaders "before the sun" hangs, » (found. Other traces in the book also show Joshua himself said that Jehovah in the time of Moses and Joshua the
The sun is. In the tenth chapter, verse 12 ff., it says:
"At that time Joshua spoke to Jehovah on the day when Jehovah
the Amorites surrendered before the sons of Sfrael and said Before the eyes of Israel: Sun, stand still at Gibeon and Moon in the valley of Ajalon! There the sun stood still, the
The moon remained stationary until the people took revenge on their enemies.
"Is not such a thing written in the Book of the Redli?"
chen 2 2) And the sun stood still in the middle of the sky.
and did not rush to perish for almost a full day. And

— — — — — ö — 2 11d — 1/8 —

) Saul's body was also taken by the Philistines to the city:
The wall was stretched, and the crucified one. The Hebrew text uses Here, 1 Samuel 31:10, like Genesis 32:26, the verb 52

dislocate. The spot clearly shows that this hanging of the Captive kings not understood of strangling:
which can, but means a crucifixion; for the Philistines had already prepared the body of Saul according to 1 Samuel 31:9=

He cut off her head.
The book is cited again in 2 Samuel 1:18. There it is from a lament by David over the death of Saul and Jonathan spoken of, which it contained.

There was no day like this, neither before it nor after it.
 that Jehovah listened to the voice of a man;
 For Jehovah fought for Israel.” Here we have more a very clear trace from an old book that Jehova was the sun god and the moon goddess was at his side had. I am not dwelling on the contradiction, in which this request of Joshua with the Copernican
 The world system still stands, even with the various attempts to do this Difficulty to overcome. Whoever wants to be sincere will become-had to admit that Joshua was not referring to Jesus at this point.
 'bova demands that he bring about a standstill through a miracle.
 the sun and the moon, but rather that Sun and moon are the gods he calls upon in the sky-to stay in Mel, to fight the battle under her protection-Those who actually listen to the voice of Joshua and fight for Israel. The twelfth verse in particular says quite clearly that the sun itself was Jehovah, if it
 This means: At that time Joshua spoke to Jehovah in the presence of Israel's: Sun, be still at Gibeon! This folk not That means as if Gibeon were lying towards evening.
 and Joshua had asked that the sun, having arrived there, delay their complete downfall, pause in their course ten may. The addition "of Gibeon" is rather local.
 Name of the sun god. Gibeon, as in Sof. 10:2 says, “a large city, one of the royal cities and
 "All its inhabitants are contestable," he had argued with the Hebrews.
 allied and Joshua against the approaching
 The kings were called upon for help. Joshua appeared and whom... dete fich in den Gott von Gibeon, als Schutzherr der Gegend, who was also Jehovah to him as the sun god. The-.fer God of Gibeon had, as can be seen from the later Ge

1) 5922 It is equally permissible to assume that the Moon goddess in the valley of Ajalon had her . and therefore

 The goddess of the valley was called Ajalon.

%

The story was seen, in Gibeon a famous height and stood in great prestige. King Solomon goes to Gibeon, to sacrifice there, for that was the great height; Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on the altar there. Jeho va appeared to Solomon in a dream at Gibeon. Night, and God said: Please, what I shall give you» 2c.). According to 2 Chronicles 1:3, Solomon commands all of Israel, to all princes and chieftains, “that they went, Sa Lomo and the entire assembly with him, to the height to Gibeon, for there was the meeting tent of God. tes, which Moses, the servant of Jehovah, made in the Desert. That's also what it says in 1 Chronicles, chapter 22 (according to a (other division, Chapter 21), Verse 29: “The dwelling Jehovah's, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the fire The sacrificial altar was at its height in David's time. Gibeon. According to 1 Chronicles 17 (16) 39, David orders the Priestly lineage of Zadok before Jehovah's dwelling place the heights at Gibeon, to offer burnt offerings to Jehovah offerings on the altar of burnt offerings.» On the same It was also at the height of Gibeon where David was defending. a famine, the descendants of Saul, the Jehovah sacrificed), |

Incidentally, the crucifixion of the King of Ai is mentioned as a thank offering presented to the sun god, in the book Joshua not in isolated cases. Another passage shows that It was the rule that the enemy leaders (kings could) hardly mentioned)) to spare oneself in the battle itself, to sacrifice them after the victory. The army of the five enemies The “kings” who marched against Gibeon were from Joshua was defeated and the leaders hid themselves. in a cave. Joshua ordered them to be guarded there until the

1) 1st King 3, 4 ff.) 2nd Sam. Cape. 21. |

3) Joshua appointed no fewer than thirty-one such kings; Joshua 12:24. Every town asked for its own special king.

The persecution has ended. After the Hebrews were taken to the camp
 When they had returned, the captured kings were summoned.
 led, the Jewish captains approached one after the other.
 and put their feet on their necks, then they struck Joshua killed them and hung them on five trees, and they
 They hung in the trees until evening. And it happened.
 At the time when the sun was setting, Joshua commanded, and they
 They took them down from the trees and threw them into the They built a cave where they hid, and placed large stones there.
 the opening of the cave. »

Jephthah sacrifices his daughter.

We come to that Old Testament example of a Human sacrifice in Jehovah's service, which is so clear and book-like
 It is literally before our eyes that it is from the Orthodox Jewish Szeglish and Christian interpreters never overlooked this could be.

According to the biblical account, the Hebrews were of threatened by an attack from the Ammonites, who have lost their They wanted to reconquer the land. Jephthah, to the leader
 If he chooses, he first seeks the Ammonites through amicable means.
 to bring about peace; when this failed, "then came
 The Spirit of Jehovah came upon Jephthah and passed through Gilead and Manasseh, and moved to Mizpah in Gilead, and From Mizpah in Gilead he marched against the sons of Ammon.
 And Jephthah made a vow to Jehovah and said:
 If you give the sons of Ammon into my hand, then,
 Whoever comes out of the door of my house to meet me—
 gen, if I return happily from the sons of Ammon,
 He shall be consecrated to Jehovah, and I will... sacrifices for a burnt offering. And so Jephthah went against the
 The sons of Ammon, to fight against them. And Jehovah gave them into his hand. And he struck it from Aroer to about Minnith, twenty cities, and as far as Abel-Ceramic, in a very great battle, and the sons of Ammon were who bowed down before the sons of Israel. And when Jephthah After Mizpah he came to his house, and behold, there walked his daughter. She came out to meet him with drums and dancing; she was but she was the only one; he had neither son nor Daughter. And it happened, when he saw her, that he tore his She dressed and said: Oh, my daughter, you bow me down so low and you're bringing about my downfall! I have my mouth opened up against Jehovah and cannot take it back. And she said to him: My father! Keep your mouth shut. opened up against Jehovah, so do to me as it has come forth² departed from your mouth, after Jehovah had vengeance upon you. They lent to your enemies, the sons of Ammon. And they She said to her father: Let this be done to me: cease from I have two months to go down to the mountains and I weep for my virginity, me and my playmates. And he said, "Go!" And he dismissed them for two months. And she went with her playmates and wept. about her virginity on the mountains. And it happened. After two months, she returned to her Father, and he performed on her the vow which he had made praises. But she had known of no man. And it It became customary in Israel: from year to year the Daughters of Israel, to praise the daughter of Jephthah, the Gileadites, four days a year). " |

728

If one puts oneself in Jephthah's shoes, then One will not be able to avoid considering the present presentation, who seems to tell her story so sincerely, to make the accusation, that she had partly falsified the historical course of events. She acknowledges Jephthah's sacrifice, but tries to downplay the to turn the matter around in such a way that not an original intention, but merely an unfortunate accident that resulted in the daughter instead led another being towards the victorious father, who instigated the child sacrifice. Whoever leaves the

“The door of my house opens towards me,” says Jephthah, “who
 It shall be dedicated to Jehovah, and I will sacrifice it for Burn victims. Of course, it would also be in keeping with the spirit of the
 It was quite possible at that time that Jephthah was fine. (Ges.) (vows so generally placed) in order to give the god the choice to decide which person he wanted to meet first, and then the biblical author would be more justtigt; alone, to me, this is not probable. The speaker further reports that Jephthah was deeply troubled when His daughter came towards him. Could the man but expect that a slave might meet him-
 'Ben, shouldn't he rather expect that fine single
 The child will hurry especially to see him as the winner at his to welcome the return, and thus also according to our biblical
 The presentation presupposes that in this, his vow, his Will the daughter fall victim? Where will she come from later, when the event occurs that he has been experiencing since making the vow
 What could one have foreseen, the painful surprise?
 The biblical narrative confesses, probably unintentionally, already in the 31st verse with the words: Whoever 2) goes out
 "From my door towards me" very clearly, that Jephthah not an animal, but only a human sacrifice was in mind;
 For how could one say or expect of an animal?
 that it is visible to someone arriving from the door of the house

) This is how Servius tells the Aeneid. III, 121: “Idomeneus, de semine Deucalionis natus, Cretensium rex, cum, post Eversam Troy, reverteretur, in tempestate devovit diis saerificaturum se de re, quae primum occurrisset. Contigit, ut filius ejus primum oc-curreret, quem cum immolasset, ut alii vero immolare voluisset, et post orta esset pestilentia, a civibus pulsus est regno. “

) In the Hebrew text, the word TUN (to do) appears, which of course does not mean anything in itself.

It separates, since it means Who, and What; but the addition D 2 D “from the door of my house to me-

"Against" only applies to one person.

730

going towards? At most, one could think of a dog.
ken, but such a thing, as an unclean animal, was allowed to go after They must not be sacrificed according to the Mosaic Law! Jephthah has Certainly, right at the beginning, when he took his vow, only his daughter, his only child, in mind and this also clearly spoken.

This biblical text has been interpreted by Jewish and Christian commentators.
The report caused considerable difficulties. [The last sentence appears to be a fragment and is omitted.]

Yesterday, one would have removed Jephthah from the circle of luminaries.
the Jehovah cult is completely excluded, whereby one focuses on Judges 11:1, 3. sought to support, where it is said that he he had been the son of a whore and, when his brothers saw him as an illegitimate son from his father Gilead's inheritance had been expelled, fled to the land of Tob, where he
He gathered reckless people around him with whom he went on robberies.
moved out. Even in recent times, the Jewish scholar explained Steinheim) against Vatke den Jephtha for a «from Israel's community exiled, among the peoples Canaan's roaming robbers." What did this phrase mean?
Did not all Hebrews in the Age of Judges pass under around the Canaanites and mingled with them? Practice
They were not robbers just like Jephthah, only on a larger scale Style, by showing the old inhabitants their land and their Did I forcibly remove him? Didn't David also...
Was he originally such a privateer? Or was he supposed to be...

“Son of the whore,” Jephthah from the “ifraelitist Ge—” exclude society at a time when an unbound
Sex mixing even a part of public worship
What made it special? Didn't all patriarchs and judges have their own Concubines alongside the actual wives? And what was For Solomon, the celebrated king of the Hebrews? Was he Didn't it even spring from a love affair?

1) Steinheim the revelation from the standpoint of the higher Critique. Kiel 1840.

731

Such objections from the Orthodox Church are decided there by being rebuffed that on Jephthah “the Spirit of Jehovah’s comes, from a Christian Orthodox standpoint still especially through the honorable mention of Hebrews 11:32, where Jephthah to David, Samuel and the Prophets about The main one is placed to the side.

Ephrem the Syrian admits that Jephthah was with him. He had intended to sacrifice a person in fulfillment of a vow, but... He probably, this church father believes, was of the opinion that Jehovah will, as with Abraham, replace Abraham with an animal. February 9. Theodoret calls the vow ill-considered); for Jephthah could not have known whether he might not have a encounter a dog or donkey, which were unclean according to the law. Jehovah allowed the daughter to be sacrificed, to set a cautionary example that one should be in one's One must be cautious with vows. Confess in the same way. many Jewish people (who considered it a real sacrifice of their daughter) and Christian interpreters, including Luther. In contrast Others turn to them, among them the two kimchis”), to the unnatural explanation that the daughter was not really sacrificed, but brought to the High Priest as a Nazirite woman

1) Ephr. Syr. opera. I.p. 321st ed. Rome.

) Theodoret. II. quaest. in Jud. 20. “!Avoyros ayay / roñ Every voozeos." He says s deowörys Seeg 0Ux ExwAvoe nv Opayiv.n» ) Moses Bar Nachman; Rab. Bechai etc., cf. Selden de jure nature. etc. juxta discipl. Ebraeor. IV, Cap. 11.

Joseph and David Kimchi, also known as Levi Ben Gerson. After David Kimchi described Joseph Kimchi's vow as follows: Et consecratum erit seu sanctum manebit Domino, si non sit holocausto idoneum; Au offeram in holocaustum, si fuerit ido-nine holocausts. "One could have given the girl a special

She built a house there, she would be cut off from the world, as a
Those dedicated to Jehovah, remaining alone, and once a year...
The Islamic girls came to her. Cf. Sel-

the le

732

was where she performed all sorts of services in the sanctuary—ten must. This is strikingly contradicted by the fact that not only the text contains no syllable of this, but also the Ge Jephthah's vow literally on a burnt offering tete, the annual festival of the Hebrew girls, furthermore through A mere consecration as a temple servant would not be justified.
But why, they continued, did Jephthah give up his daughter
Not solved? "Good Jephthah," Lund says, "would have..."
He would not have had to keep his vow; he would only have had thirty
Take Sekel or fifteen Reichsthaler in your hand
If only, then the misery would have been alleviated; was his
If the daughter were not yet twenty years old, according to 3 Mos.
27, 4. 5. only ten skeletons or five Reichsthalers were done.
The rabbis who permit the sacrifice say, Jephthah
I, as the chief of all princes in Sfrael, did not go to the High One Priest Pineas wanted to go in order to initiate the solution;
But Pineas, for his part, thought: What should I do, I
I am a high priest and the son of a high priest, a "People of such humble origins pursue?" and so be (the solution was omitted). In contrast, the ortho escapes Doxen Lund made the statement: "Those were the times back then."
Strange, since little was known about God's law.

Based on the course of our investigation so far,
For us, the matter is clear. The war against the Ammonites.
This was a cause for concern for the Hebrews; they did not turn away without necessity.
He thinks of the exiled Jephthah. Jephthah himself considers it ) Selden de jur. nat. etc. IV, 11. Both persons should However, Jephthah had been punished by Jehovah with paralysis.

of the members, the high priest by deprivation of the holy spirit

stes. Sed vero," notes Selden, ut praeteream difficul-Tates chronologicas de Phineeso hoc tempore superstite, non-dum mihi e commentariis Ebraeorum compertum est, quodnam jus illud fuerit adeo pontifici singulare solvendi hoc votum, ut absque eo id solvi nequiret. “

) Lund Jewish Sanctuary. p. 566.

73

good, first attempt at a peaceful agreement to
They dared; however, the Ammonites did not respond. Now
It was necessary to take a special vow to pledge support.
To assure Jehovah in this general danger. A Animal sacrifice would be nothing out of the ordinary for the god.
It had been something; he received such things for completely insignificant offenses.
Occasions, perhaps even back then on a daily basis. This feeling Even the orthodox interpreters agree; therefore, they let it be said in near Jephthah's dwelling some herds were milling aboutspaziren, which would then have fallen as a kind of hecatomb should; unfortunately, their daughter would have preceded them.
hastened! But there's not a single syllable of that in the text, much-Only one being is mentioned, and this must come out of the front door. To the front door
Only people probably went out back then; the cattle was outdoors or under lightly constructed roofs;
Neither sheep nor bulls go towards humans.
What if no animal was being driven towards you?
would that be? Doesn't Jephthah's expectation presuppose that Prerequisites the cooperation of an understanding being, who who leaves the house with the intention of greeting him? Who Should we greet him now? Slaves? Quite possibly; certainly.
But above all, women and children. Do the slaves go along?
Thus, they reliably give precedence to family members.
Now Jephthah has only one child. From married—
We hear nothing about the ten women who were allegedly sacrificed.
gends; they were through their physical contact with the
A man not pure enough to be sacrificed to the god; probably
But pure virgins are sacrificed everywhere. So...
Jephthah vowed to sacrifice the first being that came to him from
As he approaches the front door, he cannot see any other property.
They meant to be his daughter; for he also had,
as a displaced person from a fine family, no other an—relatives around them, at most one could say they were Relatives on the female side had been in his house;

734

However, the biblical Tert contains no trace of this.
As I said, I disregard the general version of the law.
Lübdes ab; Jephtha immediately from the outset his only one
A child was promised as a sacrifice. That's how it was, as we often heard.
have seen it used in those countries; in public
The nobility were accustomed to protecting their own children from danger.
sacrifice. The warlike one, accustomed to blood and murder Jephthah quickly decides; he shows the Hebrews that they to have come to the right man, the one responsible for the victory no sacrifice is too great, and vowed to encourage the Warriors before battle offer their child as a burnt offering.
When he returns, his daughter comes to him, who knows nothing of her Fates know, joyfully anticipated, and according to these circumstances
A later time will give the matter a turn ha—ben that Jephthah had generally given his vow to the first time
He imagines what will come to him from his fine apartment.
The possibility of redeeming such a vow with money was not considered.
That wasn't thought of back then; it wouldn't have been anything more then.
Hals an oath of thirty secels; the less could in the present case, where Jehovah has provided such a significant Success granted, the promise withdrawn so far.
will be that the solemnly vowed burnt offering is not performed
It was carried out. It is also literally stated in the biblical text.
"And he fulfilled the vow he had made to her."
The Chaldean paraphrase says the same thing and adds that one
I gave the law that no one should kill his son anymore or burn my fine daughter as a burnt offering, like Jephthah
He did not consult the high priest; for
Had he behaved in this way, he would have killed his daughter.
(solved with money). Josephus also admits this.
Burning the daughter (2). There is never any help here.
fen! The Spirit of Jehovah comes upon Jephthah, even before

1) Targ around Jonathan in the London Polyglot II. p. 140.

*) Joseph. antique V, 7.10. "Lucas i7V xalda aavoẽ,jũ d rod ev.,

he makes the decision to sacrifice himself; only driven by this
 In his spirit he resolves to perform the highest act of piety.
 keit, whom his time knew, his only child as a burnt offering to offer up. Jehovah proves this through the victory he has granted, that this vow was pleasing to him; he does not enter into it perhaps with a ram in between, as with Abraham: that (Girl is burned as a sacrifice on a fine altar!)

The biblical narrative now has another peculiarity
 A further, more important point. The girl is asking for two months.
 to mourn her virginity, and this shall take place in Accompanying their female players on the mountains took place.
 We first extract from this message the speaking Proof that human sacrifice was neither rare nor were forbidden. Jephthah did not in his first surge of anger acted; he had enough time within two months,

) Clericus says in his fine Commentary II, p. 124: "Credere
 etiam par fuit theologos christianos, deum miraculo potius aut ministerio prophetae ereptum fuisse innocuam virginem perverse religioso patri, quam permissurum, eam sibi mactari;
 quemadmodum voce angeli vetuit Abrahamum, ne mactaret Isaacum; cum praesertim res pessimi esset exempli, quod vietimas humanas mactare solerent finitimi populi, possetque videri deus, probasse nefandum votum hominis, cui victoriam concession. However, but in truth it is nothing.
 Such things happen. Vatke notes in Rel. des a. T. I, p. 275:
 "Only at first glance does this event appear to be happening sporadically;
 to be entitled to it. For the form of the vow already shows that Jeph-who intended a human sacrifice from the outset, since he... only one person coming out of the door of their house.
 could; but through such a sacrifice he could only succeed in the
 If you think you deserve Jehovah's help, that to whom other people were also sacrificed; in the ent
 By falling into the opposite trap, he only provoked Jehovah's anger. The
 The consummation of the sacrifice also speaks in favor of this, and the a striking circumstance, that the Hebrew tradition only has this one example
 The game explains itself by the fact that a later continuing Custom attached to it, which according to tradition itself became the leader served.

736

to reconsider and change his decision. Since the Ge The female players accompanied the girl, so one can see all the more less say that the father's gruesome plan was
It was not known that he had the same until the execution kept hidden. If no one appears at all to to dissuade the father from the terrible decision, when even the priests are so afflicted by such a screaming injury to remain silent about the supposedly Mosaic commandment when others
Parents themselves instruct their daughters, through their accompaniment To honor the girl: well, that can truly be said of the existence of a ban on human sacrifice is no longer
The speech should be! But what now about the girl's departure?
When she and her playmates reach the mountains, I must
the cause given for this in our biblical text Doubt. First of all, there's no need to go to the mountains.
to go and cry over an impending misfortune that It can also be done at home; it is also not foreseeable, how one could resolve to spend a certain amount of time, two long hours Shedding tears for months, especially if they were the accompanying girls in a very peculiar way
The situation had been. But then we have often seen that For the victims, a very important point was that...
Sacrificial animal cheerfully approaching the altar; especially they had to All tears are avoided in the case of human sacrifices, if The sacrifice should be pleasing to God. Furthermore, what about the a particular point concerns the fact that the girl her youth=
The woman wanted to mourn, namely fate, that she must leave this world childless; that's how he fits. likewise not to the views which the time held with such victims were associated with them. One imagined the victim a virgin as a marriage with the god; that The girl was a holy, divine bride. She could so at most they cried about the fact that the end of their Virginity is imminent.

Much more in line with the ideas of that time

So, we'll explain it like this. Just like the girl.
 was aware of her father's vow and had consented Having been destined to die a sacrificial death, she was dedicated to Jehovah.
 a holy person. She left the elder's house and was led up a mountain in a festive procession, where Jehovah's sanctuary was. There she had to for some time awaiting the sacrificial death of holy Uebun⁸ Prepare the food, perhaps eat some of the consecrated foods, and meanwhile enjoyed a kind of [something] from her female players divine worship, which continued even after their sacrificial death annually at a special festival; they praised (not «the weeping ⁹ ») Jephthah's daughter four days in the year, without doubt as a savior of the fatherland;
 because it was the price of victory.

Finally, we will mention the hypothesis of Ca—pellus). He finds his daughter in Iphigenia.
 of Jephthah again; both in the similarity of the circumstances-niffe), than in that of the name; for Ipiyevsiu fey ent⁸
 They stood from Ter- vet.. One needs this assumption not currently with Winer) by an exclamation mark — to reject. Jephthah's daughter was given an annual sum.
 They celebrated her with great enthusiasm; the Samaritans revered her according to her appearance.

The Septuagint translates the word 3m as Soyveiv, the vul-

gata with plangere, Luther with "klagen", also Mover's follows This translation. It is, of course, sought by all those who who wish to eliminate the glorification of sacrificial death. Alone 1 means neither in Hebrew nor in Arabic, at all never mourn, but the opposite: praise, as from Not. 5, 11. decisively emerges. Cf. Clerie.comment. II, 124. and Winer. lex. hebr. p. 1046.

 - 2) Ludoy. Capell. diatrib. de vot. Jephthae.

) Euripid. Iphigen. Taur. 17 ff.; Cicer. Rev. III, 25; Ovid. metam. XII, 31.

) Win. bible Realw. I, 636. Note of Epiphanius), as a goddess. That the Greeks many religious ideas adopted from the Phoenicians has been, is settled; and so contradictory is therefore the Verne Muthung does not mean that the myth of destiny also Iphigenia's sacrificial death in a Semitic legend is. I can find a reason. The idolized girl could be with the Astarte merged and thus became part of the Greeks—come; for as much as we have shown above, It is probably undeniable that Iphigenia was originally the Phoenician Astarte is. Only this arises from the above assumption. against the fact that, as the circumstances clearly show, one deals with the biblical narrative on firm historical ground Hebrews finds, and that it is not foreseeable how this will be for the special interests of the Hebrew people sacrificed girls—would such a thing have had any significance in Phoenicia? can win that the Sidonians or Tyrians also the same divinely worshipped and this service brought to the Greeks would have.

47

1738

Samuel sacrifices the Agag.

Samuel speaks to Saul (1 Samuel, Chapter 15): "I have Jehovah sent you to anoint you as king over his people, about Israel; and now obey the words of Jehovah. So Jehovah speaks to the hosts: I have seen what The Amalekites did to Israel, as they presented themselves to him in the They put a stop to it when it moved out of Egypt. Now move on and Beat Amalek, and banish everything that belongs to him, and You shall not spare a fine person, and kill both man and woman. So child as infant, so ox as sheep, so camel as

1) Epiphane. advers. haeres. Lib. III. tom. II. p. 1055th ed. Petav.: Ex ya Zixiuog, Tovr&oriy & rn vv Nerds, Iv-Glass ol Erixzwgior relovciv eig Ovouc 75e Koons , dj dev ex o-pc rg Hvyaroos Jep de, rc or . re Oe ice Sr

739

Efel.» Saul obeys this order; he marches against the Ama-Lekiter with no fewer than 210,000 men!). »And Saul attacked Amalek from Hevilah as far as Sur, that against Egypt. And he attacked Agag, the king of Amalek, alive, and he banished all the people with the sharpness of the sword. But it spared Saul and the people.
Agag and the best of the sheep and cattle and those of second-rate lambs and everything that was good, and They did not want to banish them; but everything that was contemptible
And those who were unfit, they banished. Then the word went out

Khova's to Samuel and said: I regret that I Saul made king; for he has turned away from me.
turned and did not fulfill my words. And Samuel ent-
It burned and cried out to Jehovah all night. And Samuel Saul set out early, against the morning light.
And when Samuel came to Saul, Saul said to him: Bless you!
You are not from Jehovah! I have the word of Jehovah.
fills. And Samuel said: And what kind of thing is this?
The cry of sheep in my ears, and a cry of Cattle that I hear? And Saul said: Of the Amales-
They brought the same to kiter because the people of the best Sheep and cattle were spared to be sacrificed to Jehovah, the Lord.
"No God; but the rest we have banished." Now Samuel gives the king a rebuke and says: "Because
If you reject the word of Jehovah, Jehovah will reject you.
"Throw, so that you are no longer king." So willingly Saul repeatedly confessed his guilt and assured everyone, That's why the people only have the best sheep and cattle.
to keep them back in order to sacrifice them to Jehovah at Gilgal; so
The angry prophet refuses to be appeased.

Finally, Saul says again: I have sinned; now honor
I only wanted to speak before the elders of my people and before Israel, and return with me, that I may worship before Jehovah,

19 1 Sam. 15, 4.
47 *

740

"Your God." "Then," it continues, "Saul returned."
Samuel followed Saul and Saul worshiped before Jehovah.
And Samuel said: Bring to me Agag, the king of Amalek. And Agag came to him merrily and said:
Traitor, the bitterness of death has vanished! And Samuel
He said: Just as your sword made women childless, so May your mother be childless before women! And Samuel
He cut Agag to pieces before Jehovah in Gilgal.
And so Samuel went to Ramah, and Saul went up to his house in Gibeath-Saul. And Samuel did not see Saul.
more until the day of his death; for Samuel mourned about Saul, and Jehovah regretted that he had Saul.
made about Israel. »

We will only address this terrible story in such a way far more than the sacrifice of Agag requires, to give it to Jehovah leaving it to him to form his judgment on this report as well the Jewish God and the nature of his priests and To identify prophets.

First, the misconception must be dispelled that the Sparing the king's life in battle for a certain reason Consideration for him had been initiated by Saul, and the Samuel's anger was mainly based on the fact that Agag, unlike the other Amalekites, did not immediately go to the Battlefields had been killed. The biblical text understands This view is not supported in the slightest; Samuel expresses himself not displeased about the preservation of the king. The anger
The Prophet's reason, however, lay solely in the fact that the Hebrews had not killed all the animals, as this
What really happened to people. Amalekites

Lek was declared a cherem, a sacrifice to Jehovah. Everything
He therefore had to die. If the Hebrews only saw the un-
They killed the more handsome animals, but kept the better ones for themselves.
ten, so this was a grave insult to the god,
who instead claimed the best of everything for himself.
Saul, however, says that his people only have the better animals.

741 therefore saved up in order to give them to Jehovah later on the to sacrifice at altars to Gilgal; alone to have completely

This was probably not the intention of the Hebrews; however,
fie. a number of animals were sacrificed there, which Most, however, kept it to themselves. What the king...
That's enough, the biblical text says very clearly that Saul from Samuel had been commissioned to save him alive.
bring. Saul replies to the prophet in 1 Samuel 15:20:
-I obeyed the voice of Jehovah and followed him
I went to the place where Jehovah sent me, and I have Agag, the king of Amalek, brought along, and the Amalekites banished. This was also the custom among the Hebrews.
We saw above that in the wars of Joshua, so Whenever a people was declared Cherem, it was always the king who was captured in bendig to be used as a token of gratitude after the battle-sacrifices are offered.

The king of the Amalekites was therefore already from the front.
destined to be sacrificed on Jehovah's altar. Why?
Otherwise, would he have been spared in the battle?
Could one have started differently with this single king?
len? Saul must have known that when a people turns to Cherem was declared, the first of this people least of all.
allowed to remain alive. In Gilgal at that time, the Bun-deslade and Jehovah's main altar. "The people," he said.
Saul (1 Samuel 15:21) "took sheep from the plunder and cattle, the exalted's finest, to make it ever—to offer sacrifices to your God, to Gilgal (2). After the Victories draw the army of the Hebrews to the altar of Jehovah, to capture the enemy king and a number of captured

Gilgal was Jehovah's place of residence at that time; it was clearly stated there. Main altar 1 Samuel 11:15; Chapter 13:8. But Samuel also sacrifices Elsewhere, 1 Samuel 16:5.

2) The later prophets did not attend this sacrificial site, Gilgal. favorable. Amos 4:4, 5. Hosea 4:15.

742

to sacrifice animals. On the way there, Samuel meets the Saul; with difficulty the king persuades the prophet to come along to march and participate in the sacrificial ceremony. By Now that Saul is praying before Jehovah, the prophet performs the main rite. Sacrifice, slaughter the enemy king. Bring me Agag, He speaks, the king of Amalek. Agag came, like the bi The Bible text says, with merriment, and spoke: "Trust, yielded (is the bitterness of death). One interprets these outward appearances. The suggestion was that the king had hoped he would receive it from The Prophet was spared life. Agag alone He was probably more familiar with the situation than ours. Interpreters, and knew whose spirit's children these Hebrews They were prophets. Right from the start, there was no way he could It is a secret that he was only seen on the battlefield that he therefore gave his life because he could afford to give it up for the He wanted to save a thank offering after the victory. When he When he is brought before the prophets, it is clear to him that he is giving his last ten gang go; but he doesn't want to show his enemies the sight to play the part of a troubled soul, but to die as a hero, and thus steps firmly before the altar with the outer rung: I do not fear death! The biblical text suggests, to eliminate the idea of a victim, the Sa muel spoke a kind of criminal verdict about Agag: "Just as "Your sword has made women childless," said the prophet. "Why is your mother childless before women!" What does he want? Samuel with such a statement? Didn't they? rather the Hebrews through their predatory invasion into Did Palestine make the women childless? Didn't that just happen? First the Prophet himself led his Hebrew people to the destruction of the Amalekites were asked and, according to biblical sources, none to find another cause for this barbaric procedure known that several centuries ago the Ama

) The Septuagint translates: “el oürw Kinpos 6 lavaros;n
the Vulgate: “Siccine separately amara mors?,” lekiter had submitted to their homeland ge to defend the Hebrew robber hordes? — And Samuel, it continues, chopped the Agag into pieces.

743

Jehovah to Gilgal). This clearly states, that the beating together represented a sacrifice; in the other
The only possible outcome would be "chop Agag to pieces".
The addition "before Jehovah" is the expression of sacrifice; he struck him into pieces “in the presence of the Sehovaf statue,” in order to then to offer the individual parts as burnt offerings on the altar burn. The addition Gilgal does not mean to say that Sa muel carried out this action in Gilgal, but is the local name for Jehovah, who from his abode Stop at Gilgal, like the sun god of Gibeon above, «Ger hova is called Gilgals.

Third section.

The period from David to the return from the Babylonian-niche captivity.

David has so far been considered by Jews and Christians to be one of God especially favored, highly praised for his fine piety celebrated man; he formed the true center of the Judaism. For over two millennia, Jews have been striving and chopped into pieces.

translates the Septuagint with “xai Zopase.”, The Chaldaean Paraphrase has d) “et discerpsit.” Battles are also

Elsewhere, much more than sacrifice; jo means a mactavit, then sacrificavit 1st king. 8, 62; 2 Chronicles 7:4.

744 N

and Christians competed to see who could see the temple of this of theirs.
to crown supposed religious heroes with fresh palm trees
Zen: It is time for humanity to finally open its eyes.
Do this and bring this Hebrew into his true historical light
The place that the historical books of the Old Testament do not
To cover it up once. One would only have had to want to, then it could have been done.
We've seen it long ago. Because the collectors of the Old Testament Writings of a number of the best psalms bear the name of this King's decree, so David had to be exempted from the Ge—to be inspired by thoughts which are expressed in those psalms
That his life with such a disposition in the unequal
The most recent contradiction was not seen, not wanted.
(to see, or at least ignore). We only have it here to do with the human sacrifices which date back to the time Da vid's fallen and were brought by this king himself;
But this task of ours also puts us in a difficult position—digkeit, to eliminate ancient prejudices which were in David a devout Jehovah's Witness in the Reformation sense to recognize who would have been far removed from every human being victim, previously a glimpse into the life of this celebrated king—to throw nigs and messianic ancestor.

The books of Samnel, from which we have formed our judgment (about David, one must) find, of course, if they are the same among the oldest in our Bible, from very different sources

1) Vatke, The Religion of the Old Testament I, 292: Let us compare the religious spirit of the Psalms with the overall picture which the Books of Samuel and of the Kings by Davidic Solomon Given the ages we live in, we do not consider ourselves entitled to...
We will certainly place one of the palm trees we have received into that one.
to advance (Davidian) ages, not even the eighteenth,
at least not in its current, refined form.

) The late, historically unfaithful chronicle, whose author misrepresented the historylichen substance so often falsify as if it were for the justification of ih-
Those who find later views beneficial, we will leave cheaply at the-
His sketch of David's life completely disregarded.

145

whose stories are compiled. They begin the story.
story of their hero with no fewer than three each other wi-corresponding reports. According to 1 Samuel, chapter 16, it turns out that David already presented himself as king at his very first appearance; the
The author begins his story with the anointing by Sa—muel ein. David, the youngest of the eight sons, fine Samuel had previously been completely unaware of Isai's father and will be done by the Prophet according to a special instruction Jehovah's, though the most unsightly of fine brothers—dern, taken away from the herd and appointed king.
Already in verse 14 of the same chapter we come to a from this very different report. The author of this
The section knows nothing of the anointing. After him, [it] Saul is struck by “an evil spirit from Jehovah.” The king requires a fully-fledged lute player who can focus his mind—cheerfully. A servant replies: “Look, I have a son Isaiah the Bethlehemite saw him, who was skilled in the game.
Ist, a brave hero and warrior, eloquent and handsome.
Form, and Jehovah is with him.” Saul lets David fetch, and this one does not appear as one anointed by Jehovah—ter anti-king, not even with a fearful conscience, but modestly, as a willing subject. Send to “I am David, your son,” Saul tells Jesse. Then Jesse took a donkey with bread and a skin of wine.
and a male goat, and sent it through David, his son, to Saul. And so David came to Saul and stood in front of him and he grew very fond of him and he became his
"Armed carriers." — The seventeenth book connects this in a different way.
Chapter on Saul's acquaintance with David. The He-
The Brethren are at war with the Philistines. They are in the camp.
David's brothers, of whom there are not seven here, as in 1 Samuel.
16, 10 is said, but only three are. The old Jesse

1) 1 Samuel 17:15: David was the youngest; the three older ones were They followed Saul. It will be said that the other four sends his fine youngest son David there with provisions, to receive news about the well-being of his sons.

The two armies lay at war for no less than forty days.
opposite; every day Goliath emerges and demands a Hebrew to fight. David, a young, cheeky lad
She, hear of the reward which Saul will give to him has hunted, the one that would overpower the giant, he has air, to risk the fight; although his eldest brother forbids him
the inquisitiveness that led him to the camp and now even to this foolish one, quite unsuited to his strength—who wanted to be led astray; but David lets himself be led astray by not dissuading him from his decision truly leads him to it.
happily out. — So David is not yet a weapon here.
Saul's bearer, not an anointed king, but continuingrend, an overlooked shepherd boy. An editor of the text tes felt how little this narrative had to do with the previous one forthcoming voice, according to which David Saul's weapons trager syn sollen. He thus inserts the words in verse 15.
the text: David, however, went from Saul to Saul to to tend his father's sheep in Bethlehem. Through this,
He thinks he's been helped; David is now being allowed to carry weapons.
Saul's, now to be a shepherd again, then both can-Counts exist side by side. But already in the 55th verse of the same chapter he forgot the plan he had devised through—wanted to lead; for here David is once again a completely unknown man. When the young shepherd met Goliath—
As Saul goes, he asks Abner: "Whose son is he?"
Boy? » And Abner said: By your life, O King,
"I don't know," And the king said: "Ask me,
"Whose son was the young man Fey?" When David with the Sons, of whom nothing is heard here, are simply too stayed home; but we certainly suspect, not without reason, the first editor had the father of his celebrated king

He added several more sons, because among the Hebrews there was the
It was a great honor for parents to have many sons.

When the Philistine's head returns, Saul asks him: Who "Are you a son, O boy?" And David said: "The Son of your servant Jesse the Bethlehemite—"And Saul," it then says in 1 Samuel 18:2, "took him on that day she came to him and did not allow him to enter the house to return to his father." Still in the eighteenth and three-twenty-verses of the same chapter, when Saul the David schon zum Obersten über Tausend gemacht hat (Verse 13), The latter speaks quite modestly: "Who am I and what is my Life, the lineage of my father in Sfrael, that I egg— Should I become the king's dam? Am I, after all, a poor man and "Lous man!"

Samuel certainly wasn't so unwise as to create an un- interpreting young people to the king, indeed to the anti-king to anoint. In order to be able to act as such, one must— They already have prestige and power. Rather, one will see the To think about relationships in general in this way. The young man David distinguished himself through bravery, thereby diverting the Saul's attention on fi), was by this to the Be— erroneously raised and even received a daughter of the king for marriage. The prophet Samuel would have liked Saul. eliminated. This king did not blindly submit to the pro- Prophets to the leadership: This was his entire crime. The domineering Samuel therefore considers ways to... to bring another king to Saul's place, and enters with (connected to the upstart David). But judge-

1) A formal anointing is out of the question; such a thing would have Saul, who also did not include the priests allied with David in Nob fdyonte, probably also punished the Prophet with his life. Samuel, however, remains unchallenged, albeit in a withdrawn manner, in Lande, when David had already fled abroad. The Bes action which Samuel partakes of the upright King Saul What can be done is truly outrageous; where there is only an opportunity- This shows that this prophet seeks out the king before the people. to harass him and bring him misfortune. This is stated, for example, in 1 Samuel.

Both did little during Saul's lifetime. Even after the Only two tribes, Judah and Ben, turned to Saul's death.
 Jamin, to David, the rest remain with Saul's son, Isboseth, faithful, who, however, was soon murdered from the Paths are being cleared. It's strange that even religious ones...
 Differences in the disagreement between Saul and Samuel to seem to be the underlying principle. It says in 1 Samuel 14, 35: "And Saul built an altar to the Lord; this he built
 He first used it as an altar to Jehovah. (1 Chronicles 14:3)
 David: "Let us bring the ark of our God; for We didn't ask about her at the time of Saul. After 1 Chronicles 10:35: Saul's ancestors lived in Gi-
 The name Beon and the name Baal come up frequently in the family.
 Before, one of Saul's ancestors was named Baal, a son Saul's Esbaal, a son of Jonathan's Meribbaal. I I suspect that Samuel was already under the priest Eli, whose Sons were accused of leading a dissolute life will, tried innovations by expanding the previously existing Gibeon than to worship the sun more in its nature-friendly aspect—ten Jehovah was trying to transform into Saturn=Moloch.
 Saul remained true to the old cult, at least he only went very reluctantly embraced this innovation; David, on the other hand, was inclined-to give credence to the voice of the Prophet. The Prie-

Chapter 13: A battle with the Philistines is about to begin. Saul is gathered... melt the Hebrews in Gilgal to offer the proper sacrifices before the
 To bring about the war, which was all the more necessary, because the Hebrews, for the most part, cowardly hid away. Seven He waits here for days for Samuel, who is to carry out the execution of the victims.
 had said; the prophet is not coming. Time is running out, the Philistines are in their suits; without sacrifices, the battle cannot be won.
 As the few people begin to leave Saul, so they begin to leave.
 sen; there the king performs the sacrifice himself. Just as the sacrifice
 Once the [item] has been brought, Samuel arrives; Saul goes out to greet him, But Samuel said, "What have you done?" and promised Un-luck. N

ster of Nob, whose leader is called Achimelech, are Favorable to David, they even grant him the showbread.
eat, as he lacks food while fleeing.

That Saul persecuted David, as was noticeable was that he was in agreement with Samuel) and Striving for the crown is very natural. Saul has the David, as long as the latter honestly thought only good things about him done; it is the most honorable testament to the character of the The king, so despised by Orthodoxy, that the
to bring no other crime upon him in the biblical books knowledge, by which he made himself unworthy of the crown before Jehovah had done more than that he fought in the battle against the
The Amalekites did not allow all the animals to be killed, and the victim himself completed after waiting in vain for Samuel for a long time had. Not melancholy and false suspicion prompted Saul's pursuit of David; the plans of the rebel
They had already progressed quite far. When he was forced to flee
He sees and comes to King Achis in Gath, they say Servants of this king: Isn't that David, the king? of the country 3)?» David is pretending to be crazy here; probably Such people generally enjoyed a kind of respect, because they were believed to be possessed by a spirit, and David sought refuge among the enemy through this deception.
(to secure his life against the Philistines). Rejected by Achis,

) 1 Samuel 21:1 & The name is related to Moloch.
MN Brothers, means a close person. In Nob is an image of Jehovah (1 Samuel 21:9); behind it stands the Goliath's sword, laid there by David. Saul lets the Priests of Nob, as followers of David, murder and destroy Everything living in the city was considered a cherem. After Samuel's death

He gets rid of the death summoners and clever men from the Lande, 1 Sam. 28, 3.

) 1st Sam. 19, 18. 3) 1st Sam. 21, 11.

9) The Romans also called epileptic fever sacer.

morbus.

250

He flees into Abdullam's cave; there a part of it unites.
fine party with him, dissatisfied people, and "Whoever has a believer Biger had four hundred men. His father about David places himself under the protection of the king of Moab; he himself but withdraws at the request of the Prophet Gad y with his a crew to Judah. Here comes Abiathar, a man from Nob, the escaped priest, son of Achimelech, came to him and (brings the exaggerated image of Jehovah). Thus, the horde now also their God in their midst, who was also among the (Employments, fine oracles are given). One led small
He raided and hid whenever Saul went out with an army.
A division appeared in the mountains. The incident in the Cave where David cuts off Saul's skirt and last Terer, with tears in his eyes, explained that he knew that the king thum will come to David, may David only swear to him
It is obvious that he wants to spare his offspring.
Poetry. Such a course of action was not in the
The character of the brave Saul, the greatest enemy of the fine personally pursued in his hideout, most recently also as

) 1 Samuel 22:5

2) 1st Sam. 22, 20; 1. Sam. 23, 6.

) 1 Samuel 23:9. The image is from David in Phitifter:
Land needed when he entered the service of King Achis there.
1 Samuel 30:7. — Jonah plays a mysterious role than. "As long as the son of Jesse lives on earth," almost Saul Very true to this fine son, "you will not succeed, you and your kingdom (1 Samuel 20:31). — Against this comes Jo Nathan to David and says 1 Samuel 23:17: Be afraid

No, for the hand of Saul, my father, will not lay a hand on you.
meet, and you cast yourself as king over Israel, and I will be the
"To be second after you; and Saul, my father, also knows it so."

– One would think that man had been weak and therefore blindly taken in favor of the stronger David; alone He is otherwise described as a very brave man; a strong one. But surely the king's son wouldn't voluntarily relinquish his claim to it. Crown in favor of an upstart.

751

a man of courage with his sons on the battle-
The field remains. Saul would have been near David's horde. Certainly not someone who slept in a cave without a covering. Also would he tell his enemy, who was said to have spoken to him, It was difficult to calm down and let him leave, now that he had just returning home victorious from a battle against the Philistines moved and the entire Israelite army. had. A so—
This incident would at least have led to a reconciliation between Saul and... and David must have at least one annexation as a consequence. However, the old enmity still persists.
Saul goes home, David and his men turn (to the mountaintop). Another time (1 Samuel 26, 25) The author lets Saul, who killed David, to follow, and to the latter even to say: "Blessed are you, my son." David, you throw out a company and carry it out. —

With his team, which according to biblical accounts is based on

When the number of men had grown to six hundred, David could not obtained in ways other than through acts of violence and robbery; He is in this period, in the manner of the marauding Arabs,

Leader of a bandit gang. Chapter 25 of the first

The book Samuel tells a story that is characteristic of this way of life. Case. In the city of Maon in Judah lived a wealthy man Man who had numerous herds on Mount Carmel, The fine woman was named Abigail and was a woman «Flight of Ver» "It stood and was beautiful in form." As Nabal fine sheep David, having his head sheared, sends ten of his men out of the desert. to him, with the desire to give him a gift, since

1) 1 Samuel 24:23. The story in 1 Samuel, chapter 26, where David again, Saul is not killed, but rather from the middle of the camp Out because Jehovah again? A deep sleep upon all

He dropped only Saul's spear and bowl, and stole them.
Equally unlikely. Saul marches against David as often as he
I discovered a trace of him, and yet I would never have objected.
he undertook it when he publicly appeared in his immediate vicinity.
opposed!

752

He had not offended the shepherds and nothing was missing.
Hey, they were at Carmel for a long time. Who is David?
“Who is the son of Jesse?” Nabal replied. “Nowadays there is...”
There are many servants who run away from their master, and he shows them
The demand is met with resistance. In response to this negative answer, Da breaks down.
Abigail and four hundred men rose up against the shepherds.
But Nabal's wife rushes to the horde leader, unaware of the danger.
her husband, with a considerable gift in return, greeted him humbly and pours himself into expressions of the Discontent with her husband. By the life of Jehovah, David says, "If you hadn't hurried and hadn't been there for me..."
Had it been conceded, nothing would have remained of Nabal.
until the break of morning, something is peed on the wall.
David accepts the gifts, Abigail returns home and She meets her husband at a meal. “The next morning,
It is said, + Nabal's heart died in his fine body, and after Ten days later, Jehovah struck Nabal down so that he starved.
David, on the other hand, “found his way and spoke with Abigail to resolve the situation.”
to take her as his wife." And Abigail hurried and made She got up and rode on the donkey, and five of her harlots, who They followed her footsteps, and she drew David's messenger after her.
and became a fine woman," — What do we think of this story?

* —

David could not stay in Saul's kingdom for the duration of his reign.
Hold fast. Jehovah's chosen one shows no remorse.
with a fine six hundred men to the arch-enemies of the auser=

The people chose to join the Philistines. “Did I

“Grace found in your eyes,” he said to Achis, a king of the otherwise so despised uncircumcised, «so Give me a place in one of the country towns, so that I may dwell there; for why should your servant dwell with you?
nen in. der Königsstadt)? Achis instructs him to Ziklag.

) 1 Samuel, Chapter 27. The narrator knows the circumstances so well.
to turn. David himself must express the wish, not in the 253

Here he continues his robbery schemes, sparing even...
Jehovah's people, not his homeland Judah. David and "Fine men went out," it says in 1 Samuel 27:8 ff. "and invaded the Gessurites and the Girsites and the Amalekites, and he struck down the land and left neither man
There were still women alive, and he took sheep, cattle, and donkeys.
and camels and clothes and returned and came to Achis.
And Achis said: You didn't come today, did you?
And David said: Into the south of Judah and into the South of the Jerahmeelites and south of the Kenites.
But David left neither man nor woman alive to to bring them to Gath; for he thought: They would like to who will tell us and say: This is what David did. And That was his custom all the time he lived in the country.
(the Philifer). And Achish trusted David and said:
He made himself stinking among his people, among Israel,
And he will be my servant forever. Now when the Philistines
The pious poet-king is very much preparing for war against Israel.
ready to join forces with the idolaters against his orthodox, out-

To live in the royal city! Rather, it will be the Philistine city.
They considered it advisable to keep this dangerous foreigner away.
not to include him in his city.

The biblical speaker wants to make people believe that David had fine
The raids were not actually undertaken in Judah, but He spared his own people and plundered other tribes, at But Achis, in order to recommend himself, pretended he was fighting the He-Dräer. He shall therefore kill everything and take no prisoners.
carried them with them so that Achis wouldn't find out about it.

that he might be lying to him. What do these biblical Writers give their readers everything! How could one have been robbed? train, which 600 people carry out, of which at most one or two days' journey far away, for the duration of which the place was forbidden- gen can remain, in which supposedly the entire population was put down! Later, it was admitted without hesitation. David felt very badly that the Philistines had attacked him. did not participate in the war against his fatherland.

48

754

to take the chosen people into battle. It happened in the same (Days)), the Philistines gathered their armies for war. to fight against Israel. And Achish said to David: You should know that you must go with me to the camp, You and your men. And David said to Achis: So You will know what your servant will do. And Achis said to David: "So I will make you my keeper." always set the head of the army. The army detachments of the Philistines are sampled; as with the troops of Achis also David and his men passed by, they said. (Philistine leaders 2): "What are these Hebrews doing?" Achis replies: "It is David, the servant of Saul, who has been with me for years, without me even noticing it except for the hay- Something would have been found on him that day; but the superiors They press for David's release. Thereupon Achis lets him go. come before him and say: By the life of Jehovah (2), You are honest, and in my eyes your oneness was good. Going and going out in the camp; but in the eyes of the princes You will not be well respected. And now return so that you do nothing bad in the eyes of the princes of the Philistines! David replies: "But what have I done, and What have you found in your servant since I came before you? I have come until this day, that I should not come and fight against the enemies of my lord, the king— nigs? « As much as Achis would have liked to have David with him: He cannot comply with the will of the other Philistine princes. counteract this, David must go to Zik with his team lay to return. He came just in time; for the

The Amalekites (3) had taken advantage of the Philistines' absence, Ziklag burned and the inhabitants, along with two women David's captives were taken away. David chased after them and) 1st Sam. Cape. 28. 2) 1st Saturday. 29, 3 ff.
2) These Amalekites are said to have been so often (just recently again by Saul in 1 Samuel).

(Chapter 15) have been destroyed, and they always come back.
For appearances' sake!

755

The biblical speaker takes back the stolen goods.
leaves this spoils for his hero as a gift to the Jewish send people to places that were favorable to David; alone in the moment the Philistines clashed with the Hebrews in wars were being waged, the Philistines could with difficulty tolerated refugee. Not daring to do this, even though this existed.
Loot from the belongings of the inhabitants of Ziklag, who David was not given to the Hebrews, but apparently to had to return his then Philistine fellow citizens.
Furthermore, it is highly likely that the Amalekites, who at the same time fall into the land of the Philistines, where they to march against the Hebrews, back then with the Hebrews in alliances were formed; for even in battle it is a matter of... friendly Amalekite, whom Saul asks to kill him.
The battle which the united Philistines now wage against Delivered to the Hebrews, made the turning point in David's story.
sal. Three sons of Saul, Jonathan, Abinadab and Malchisua Chisua had remained at the ballot box; when Saul, as
It seemed, severely wounded, saw that everything was lost, (He took his own life). According to 1 Samuel, chapter 1, he takes the Amalekite who killed the king, the crown and armband, and brings it to David; he lets him
He punished them for it with their lives and composed a psalm in which He exalts the fallen king. This attempted right-David's production proves that he needed one.
to give the impression that he is the most sincere—honor would have been bestowed upon Saul; but the man who had just willingly with the most implacable enemies of his people to take up arms against his king and his fatherland

1) According to 1 Samuel 31:4, he fell on his sword because his
If a bearer of weapons does not want to be acquired, according to 2 Samuel 1:10 he asks a passing Amalekites, to kill him. The speaker lets the The Amalekites say: "for I knew that he would not live could after his fall!, N

48 *

756

If desired, no dirge will be sung for Saul's death.
David now asks his image of Jehovah for advice, whether he Should they go to Judah? Jehovah affirms it, and he goes
So he went with his horde to Hebron. Here his [king] anointed him.
The tribe of Judah became king over Judah. He sent to the other tribes, in order to be recognized by them as well, alone, with Field Captain Abner at the head, explained
They renounced Saul's son Ishbosheth. Seven and one half
Last year, David was king of Hebron over the house Judah, "and the strife was long between Saul's band and the house of David; but David grew ever stronger.
ker and the House of Saul grew ever weaker. Finally They resorted to assassination to save Abner and Isbo~~s~~ to eliminate seth. The first one seems to be in conflict with Isboseth.
to have been advised, because the king rebuked him, that he a concubine of his father Saul had slept with 2). Abner establishes a relationship with David; however, it is considered
It would be better to take this opportunity to kill the man forever.
Eliminate him; David's captain Joab kills him. After the biblical narrative "now all the people come to the king David was to be given food that very day, "but the king
She wanted to fast out of grief for Abner, and it noticed everything.
The people and all Israel on that day, that it should not be from Kings will be killed, Abner to be killed. — And yet it remains Joab went completely unpunished! — Soon after this, Isboseth was also murdered. Two of his captains forced their way into his chamber, as he takes his midday rest, they pierce him, they beat him cut off the head and bring it to David in Hebron.
I cannot believe that Isboseth's captains committed this deed

1) 2nd Sam. 3, 1.) 2nd Sam. 3, 7.

It seems more likely to me that Abner, with the knowledge of Isboseth,
He was sent to David for the purpose of peaceful negotiations.
David stipulates that his wife Michal must return to him.
will be given; Isboseth takes her from her former husband.
Paltiel and sends it back to David; 2 Samuel 3:15.

757 carried out of their own volition; they would also not have been so foolish as to give the head to David

To bring, it would be true that this was the Amalekite, who the Saul was killed, or would have been executed. This is bribery.
and abominable betrayal. David shall also kill these murderers.
had him executed. But if he was so noble against Saul
And his house thought: why does he come after Saul's death?
with his horde, in order to seize the throne,
Why is he waging a continuous war to protect his son?
to overthrow this king? Why does he leave the rest of the night?
Will Saul hang them at a suitable opportunity? — After Isboseth's death, the other tribes also arrive.
to David and anointed him king; "he was thirty years old
David was old when he became king and reigned for forty years.
He. His power had now increased considerably; he conquered Jerusalem from the Jebusites, relocated his residence
He went there, enlarged his harem, and had himself invaded by Phoenicians.
Builders are constructing a palace. When the Philistines hear that Once he was crowned King of Srael, they begin to War, David defeats them, he also takes their idols.
off, which he probably took to the sanctuary of his Jehovah
He erected a statue; for it is not said that he destroyed them.
(I have 2). Now the Ark of the Covenant is also being taken to Jerusalem.
David dances ahead, and Michal says: How Did the King of Israel glorify himself today, by... exposed himself before the maids of his servants, just as he—
"One of the reckless ones is exposed!" The king replies:
"I want to be regarded as even less than this; but among the Handmaids of whom you speak, with them I will be ensnared.
"Wonderful!" "But Michal," the biblical speaker adds,
"had no children until her death."

David now continually wages successful wars; 2 Samuel.
Chapter 9 recounts in detail how he met Mephibosheth,

* 2nd Saturday 5, 4. *) 2nd Sam. 5, 21. 2 2nd Sat. 6, 20.

788

Jonathan's lame son, taken into his house—
However, one has a commendable action, which but Jonathan had probably earned it for him; from the lame
Manne was hardly to be feared! The story with Uria's
I will omit the woman. It was sufficient for Jehovah's chosen one.
not yet his large harem; he still had to find the wife.
to seduce an honest man. Like a confirmed
He practically sends the despot over to Uria's house and lets to fetch the woman; but the good man, whom one might from the Camp summons and intoxicates, but does not bring joy:
who wants to leave the marriage bed to him, while his countrymen in
The problem of standing in the field is resolved by connecting it to a dangerous place in the battle where he falls. — And From this union of David with Uriah's wife, the Descend to the Messiah! — On the procedure of this exhortation—
We read a horrifying account of voting against prisoners of war—tenth report 2 Sam. 12:29 ff. “David,” it says, “was; gathered all the people and marched against Rabbah (the capital of the Ammonites), and fought against them and captured them. And He took the crown of their king from his noble head and
He brought out the city's spoils in a very large quantity.
And he brought out the people who were in it, and laid
They under saws and under iron threshing machines and under iron axes and stuck them in brick-ovens. And so he did in all the cities of the Sons of Ammon. It is not heard that the Ammonites that had given cause for the war, it was purely a matter of fact.
Conquest against innocent people who have done this—
He tortured his chosen people to death with refined barbarity.
Meanwhile, a severe thunderstorm moved in.
together with the head of David. The Israelites were with him.
never truly devoted; his son Absalom exploits their insinuations satisfaction, in order to dethrone his father. Also

1) 2 Samuel 11

759

Judah is averse to David, for he is still fleeing from the suit of Absalom from Jerusalem; the king is deep saddened, goes barefoot, cries and therefore seems to have little stamina^s to have had the opportunity to stand up to his son.

A man of Saul's lineage, named Simei, encounters him, throws stones at him and says: "Away you!" Blood-headed man, you wicked scoundrel! Jehovah will bring you back. all the blood of the House of Saul, in whose place you He became king, and relinquished the kingship to Absalom's, your son! Behold, now you are in your sin.

Lucky you, because you are a blood person! 9, The Companions David's men wanted to kill the man; but he would not allow it.

We believe there is a trace of greatness in his character. to find; but subsequent events teach us otherwise.

David endures the insult without seeking revenge, in order to thereby doing a kind of penance and regaining Jehovah's favor^s

2) he also gives Simei a drink after a fine victory.

Politics (life); but still recommends on his deathbed

He ordered Solomon to execute the man. Absalom was Having entered Jerusalem, he had assumed the regency. and to prove that he was king, before an assembly the Hebrews slept with the women of the royal harem).

The battle takes place in the Forest of Ephraim. The Sfrailites will be defeated; but this would not yet end the war.

would have been over, were it not for the new king on the

The election site remained; Absalom fell at Joab's hand.

David is deeply saddened by the death of this son, which is why Joab makes serious accusations against him; the latter demands the king - to go forth, without delay, among the people and to them

1) 2nd Sam. 16, 5 ff. 2) 2nd Sam. 16, 12.

) 2 Samuel 19:21. Mephibosheth, who according to the account of his

Squires 2 Samuel 16:1 hoped for the kingdom—

He should have power, according to 2 Samuel 19:24, is to be faithful to David—stayed.

) 2 Samuel 16:21-22

760 to speak kindly to him; “for by Jehovah I swear,” he says.

This strong captain, “if you don’t go out, then...”
No one would stay with you tonight, and that would be worse for you than anything bad that could happen to you (It came from your youth onwards). There it sits. There
He went under the gate and the people came before him.
The Israelites decided that since Absalom had fallen, they should submit to the...
to subdue again, but the Jews still waver, David therefore sends priests to them 2); he promises to grateful enough to the Amasa, who has power there, that he made him the army commander instead of the faithful Joab 3).
would want, if he were to achieve a smooth reinstatement among the Jews= ken would. Thereupon, Amasa arranges for the recall of the Kings, however, does not enjoy his new dignity for long, Joab stab him!).

This outrage makes an important contribution to the discussion.
David's role. The biblical account conceals the causes of the people's discontent, she only admits
So much for Absalom's ability to improve himself through kind treatment.
have won the hearts of the Israelites; even this already
This at least presupposes that David's behavior is unfriendly.
It had been. But it was reliable even more than that;
for a reserved seriousness of a prince who otherwise speaks=
If a people thinks wisely and acts justly, no nation will be provoked to outrage.
bring. After all, the king is from his own tribe, Judah.
forced his own capital city Jerusalem to flee: how Could this indicate a sense of attachment among the people?
It would not be going too far to assume that David had through tyrannical acts of violence against his subjects=
It has made him extremely hated. It is also after In oriental terms, the highest degree of tyranny, when a prince invades the harem of his subject and a

1) 2nd Sam. 19, 7.) 2nd Sam. 19, 11.) 2nd Sam. 19, 13.
) 2 Samuel 20:10

761

A woman from the same place who lets herself be taken to sleep. I think
One must now consider the treachery with which he betrayed his Captain Joab is treating him, without whose assistance he would certainly not be safe.
would not have ascended to the throne: a king who such actions against respected men of his immediate family who caused offenses in the local area will be held against the common-a man is treated all the more harshly and arbitrarily have. David's victory over the outraged is not a Be-knows that his entourage was still significant, he won through his battle-hardened foreign mercenaries; the above statement Joab's statement clearly enough illustrates how bad things can get with refined looks.
among the people. But the more the abominable
The more blemishes accumulate in this king's life, the more noticeable they become.
He will ensure that the reformist party, which is a had better morals, he was considered a shining example of Jehovah's Witness could put it down; it will be this, besides his happy war-his outward reaction can only be explained by the fact that he is reacting to the re-entered into the light of the efforts of a party which at that time to assert the Saturn service alongside the Sun service sought, the same party from which, as a consequence of the newer, reformed Jehovah's Witness developed.

Upon his return to government, the beleaguered king, conciliatory; Simei, who had been throwing stones at him
He threw himself at him, pulled him towards the Jordan and begged.
Forgiveness; he says he is the first to come out of the may the whole house of Joseph come to meet him today, may he So not punish him with his life. David swears to him that life will last.
ben to. Saul's lame son, Mephibosheth, comes.
likewise towards the king, "he had neither fine feet made up, with a fine beard, and fine clothes—from the day the king left, until the day he happily returned).» Mephibosheth he-clarifies that Ziba slandered him; since he is lame, he

1) 2 Samuel 19:24

762

he could not immediately follow the king on the run; nevertheless, he must share his possessions with Ziba. We cannot determine the reason for the leniency shown towards Simei here either. in an act of the king's nobility, she had Their reason lies solely in a necessary policy; for Had he begun his new regime with executions, It wouldn't have taken long. His recovery- The upper throne was still very swan-like at that moment— kend; a certain Seba stirred up the revolt in Israel of New things, also Amasa, who in David's name the men The fact that one of Judah is to be called to war seems to be intentional. have to rejoin the rebels; but the “Joab's men and the executioners and runners and all Heroes, the paid foreigners whom David in His service also dampened this uprising. At a The king now seizes the opportune moment to relinquish his throne. to ensure that all male descendants of Saul were from clearing the way, an action we will discuss later in before- who must undergo an examination. From then on, the biblical The report about David's life is very short. Still, I find... The Philistines were not defeated; the wars with them continue. And in a strange way, 2 Samuel 21:19, the giant comes Goliath von Gad once again appears, here from the Bethlehemite Elhanan is defeated?). What in the

). 2 Samuel 20:7.

It is hardly helpful to have a huge family. Goliath in Gad assumes, from which later such a one arises again. A man appeared. This second passage also has, as in 1 Samuel. 17:7, the addition; “the shaft of his spear was like a Weberbaum., The editor probably had two different ones the relations before him, in one of which Goliath was from David, in the other defeated by Elhanan; it is likely far more likely, that later, to the glory of the celebrated king, the David was credited with a victory that was attributed to Elhanan heard; the latter, like David, also becomes “a Bethlehemite, ge:

named. Was David, when he fought Goliath?

763

David will be reported on shortly, serving fine cha
A fact to dishonor. He has the people counted; Jehovah—Enraged, he wants to punish him and gives him through the pro;
pheten Gad the choice between fleeing from his enemies,
Famine and plague. Far removed from the character
The king takes one of the codrus, which he himself has enrolled.
He did not seek punishment, he did not choose to flee from his.
enemies, but the plague, from which seventeen then died (Thousands of people die). We, for our part, speak of the David was freed from this shameful trial; the narrative
It seems that only so much history underlies it, that David had the people counted, which according to the counting practices of the time Views of a sin were considered valid, and that a plague would follow.
followed, in which Jehovah's punishment for the people was announced.
The count was found. To avert this plague, David must, after by order of the Prophet Gad, on the ancient sacrificial site the Jebusite at Jerusalem, on the threshing floor of Aravna, the Je= to erect an altar; on the same spot Sa—Lomo later built the temple. With this step it seems the victory of Jehovah Moloch over Jehovah Baal= separated. It is important that this Jebusite sacrificial site with all his equipment the entire long-term David's reign had been preserved untouched, and that David the priest, whom orthodoxy, of course, in Stillen to Jehovah has been converted 2), so reverently comes to meet him. The angel of Jehovah, who brought the plague brings, has its seat on the sanctuary of the Jebusites.

should have, nor, as the biblical narrative would have it, an insignificant-tender shepherd boy, whom the father sent away from the father because of his youth To hold back on the battlefields would be the greatest recklessness.
of Saul and the Hebrews in general, who decided—to place the day's ending in his hands.

1) 2 Samuel 24:16.

2) "Aravna," says Clericus in Commentary II, 358, "videtur fuisse Proselytus Jebusaeus.,

764

"Unleashed," that is, the plague is being used to promote the cult. to direct attention to the god of destruction, who is on that The place was worshipped. David went up there and offered sacrifices to it. God. According to the biblical account, Aravna would be a simple dear farmer, who had his dwelling up there and would have had fine vein instruments. The space alone was limited. to whom sacrifices are made here and later the temple is built, It had to have a sacred character even before. Also Isn't it unbelievable that a king, who in solemn ceremony The train ascends to a hilltop to avert a to sacrifice to the plague, without having come with any of the sacrificial implements, so that Aravna sacrificed his bull, his threshing carts and would have to offer and hand over harnesses for the sacrificial wood must. Aravna is rather a priest of the Jebusite faith. Moloch and the bull for the sacrifice), which he gave to the king instructs a Moloch statue, in or on which the victims to be burned, which are presumably not animals, but the Importance of the desired outcome according to, as otherwise During epidemics, people were.

This concludes the Second Book of Samuel. We We continue to follow David's story in the first book. of the kings, where it continues in the first two chapters and is completed. King David," it says in 1 Kings. 1, 1 ff., «was old and aged, and one She covered him with garments; but he did not get warm. Then his servants said to him, "Seek my master..." the king, a whore, a virgin, and she stood before to the king and be his nurse and sleep by his Busen, so that my lord, the king, may be warm. And they searched for a beautiful prostitute throughout the whole land of Israel, And they found Abifag the Shunammite woman and brought her to Kings. But the maiden was very beautiful indeed. And she was the king's nurse and served him, but the king er-

% 7d 2 Sam. 24, 22 the bull for the sacrifice, di the bull on which sacrifices are to be made.

 "She didn't know her." — Such things are certainly not the case with oriental things.
 nothing unusual for the great figures of the Italians; but with ours pious hero of faith David, according to whose principles a such a community of the bed with an unmarried young woman
 a woman would have to have something highly sinful, dür
 We cannot ignore this note. Can
 The oldest people in our northern climate...
 To warm blankets, so this must be said to King David, to whom so many resources were available in the hot Palestine had become much lighter. But he also wanted to...
 Human warmth helps: why couldn't someone be Why were the squires able to perform this service?
 Why not many of the women in his harem? Why does one search in the all over the country looking for the most beautiful girl, when it would have been nothing more than an expectation Men and care? That's quite obvious, isn't it? something completely different is the basis, that one cannot find in any other intention for eager investigations for a female-natural beings of particular charm, rather than because the Even in his old age, the jaded king still sensually Excitements desired, which the most beautiful girl in the country would have which should bring about).

As the king's end drew near, his son Adonia's attempt to seize the regency-long, but Bathsheba, in connection with the Prophet Nathan, appointed the king, Solomon as his successor

) The following story shows that Abisag for the favorite David's was viewed. Adonia wants to make high demands on the to secure the throne through her marriage. He demands her from Sa-lomo, in whose harem she probably as an inheritance from sei-who had passed away from his father David to his wife; Bathsheba, who asks Solomon for the Abisag for Adonijah, receives In response: Why are you asking for a graduation party? Why are you asking for him?
 about the kingdom; for he is my older brother. 1 Kings 2:22.

to appoint successors. On his deathbed, the Cha-
 The man's character once again in all its disgusting detail.
 keit. Even people who have done much evil in their lives, Thinking of peace and forgiveness in the hour of death: There Vid's last thought is murder and bloodshed. He lets the Solomon is summoned and initially recommended execution.
 a man who, though barbaric, was like his master, but had proven faithful in so many storms and the
 had been the strongest support of his long-standing government, of the aged field commander Joab. The old king seems harbored a long-hidden resentment against this man have, who often acted independently, without David's knowledge.
 dared to eliminate him. "Leave fine gray hairs," he says.
 he, with appalling ingratitude, on his deathbed to his Sons, "do not let them descend in peace into the underworld." world). Then he comes to Shimei: Behold, Shimei
 He is with you, This one cursed me when I moved to Mahanaim,
 But I came to meet him again at the Jordan; there he swore
 I prayed to Jehovah not to kill him; but now do not let him Unpunished, let his grey hair come down with blood.
 into the underworld! And so David lay down with his fathers.
 and was buried in the City of David. And the time,
 David's reign over Israel lasted forty years;
 He ruled Hebron for seven years and Jerusalem for thirty-three.
 Years 2). — |

This is a glimpse into David's life. He will bear witness. to give that this man is true in his character and in his
 a way of acting of pagan despots of the Orient
 no difference, that he was before other kings of the Hebrews, those accused of idolatry, through—
 He had nothing in mind: how should he now have a better religion—had greater conviction than they did? Only one party
 It was priests and prophets who made him a pious man.

1) 1st King 2, 6.) 1 Kings. 2, 8 - 12.

767

men, men of God graced with higher revelations raised because he favored them; he became the ideal of the Reformers, because the reform movement would later emerge from this party—developed pederal endeavors. He himself had none.
A better religion than the so-called idolatrous kings also; he was probably among the pagan Philistines and provided for his father among the Moabites, the people of the Camos. His god was the carved image of Jehovah of the Priester of Nob, in Jerusalem he also sought the plague at Help to the God of the Jebusites. David offered human sacrifices.
brought in large numbers. We take them more or less.
clear news about this in the books
Samuel remained, under closer examination.

When David brings the Ark of the Covenant to Jerusalem, Uzza sacrificed.

According to 2 Samuel, chapter 6, David gathers the nobles.
Hebrews, to bring the Ark of the Covenant to Jerusalem, which which previously stood in Abinadab's house. They are placed on a new cart, which Uzza and Ahio, Abinadab's sons, lead. David!) and the whole house of Israel acted before Jehovah, bring us all kinds of cypress wood and lutes and with harps and with timpani and with cymbals. And when they When Nachon came to the threshing floor, Uzza stretched out his hand towards the ark of God and seized it; for the cattle had gathered themselves torn free. Then Jehovah's anger flared up against Uzza,
And God struck him there for the offense, and he
He died there by the ark of God. David was grieved.
about Jehovah having struck a blow against Uzza, and he named the place Perez-Uzza (Uzza's beat) except for this one Day.

First and foremost, so much is acknowledged from each side.
will have to be such that the event does not unfold in that manner

1) 2 Samuel 6:5ff.

768

It could have happened as it is told here. Everyone
An impartial observer will admit that a wooden chest is not suitable for this purpose.
They could fight and kill each other. Does Orthodoxy want to...
to place themselves in the realm of the wonder, so they set their Je-Hova in a very negative light, since he through the USA would have been killed by a lightning strike because he was in the dwelling place of God who wanted to overcome the shame caused by the shynessto be thrown into the dust like a bull. Abinadab had undoubtedly performed priestly services at the Ark until now.
hen, as well as his two Sa who were also on the train to-Go to the nearest Ark. Can one now see the Ark of the Covenant?
not touch them without being killed by them, so asks
It's like: how did they get them onto the new car?
Brought? How would they unload them again? It was indeed a popular belief cultivated by the priests, that the Be—stirring the Ark would bring death; but the priests themselves,
As sanctified ones, Jehovah spared them, because they were indeed lifeless.
A large number of human hands were needed to move it from place to place.
to come. Nobody is closer to the Ark than Usa.
and Ahia; they certainly had the same on the wagon.
raised; both priests are certainly; but as priests they had to
They may lay their hands on the Ark. On a killing because of Therefore, contact cannot be conceived from any side.
will be; also, the Usa, in whose house the chest lay, had to be brought.
long ago, its dangerous properties were well known.
and he would certainly have been careful not to stop the carriage, if he had no right to do so. What one might expect from a has spoken of an electrical device that is in the drawer-had been brought into it, does not want to enter into those circumstances at all.
fit.
I explain the incident to myself as follows: Before the construction of the
During the Temple's relocation, the Ark of the Covenant changed its location. (Verschie-)
The localities of the country made their presence known.
Claim, because one is assured of the abiding of the god Se-promised. So the Hertha car was also in guided from municipality to municipality in northern Germany, because the presence of the goddess brought blessings, even if No one could touch this holy chariot without to die). Now the Ark of the Covenant, which Saul had destroyed, was to be brought to the world.

had been neglected, without doubt as a holy counter—stag of the priestly party hostile to him 2), through David in solemn procession from Baal-Judah to Jerusalem be brought. This was a great celebration. On certain occasions Stations were paused to offer sacrifices; our biblical The text allows itself the enormous exaggeration that Every six steps a cow and a fattened calf were slaughtered tet habe 3). One must imagine the matter as follows, that one or more animals may be found at intermediate stations, at Main stations: sacrificial animals in larger numbers or also I slaughtered people. One such main station was the threshing floor Nachon. The term Nachon has so far always understood as a proper name, as if the owner of the The place would have been called Nachon. Only 7102 is an active adjective. and means "elevated"; "dressed", thus "the sublime or also: »the prepared threshing floor 9.« Both meanings are found Quite telling; the place had previously been used for a sacrificial act. prepared; an artificial mound of earth was thrown up, as it was otherwise customary so that the assembly below

h Tacit. Germ. c. 40. 7) 1 Chron. 14, 3.) 2 Sam. 6, 13.
9 172, of which Niphal 1122 erectus est, curatus, administratus, paratus, praeparatus est, Gesen. thesaur. II, 667. Also from In the old translations, the word is interpreted adjectivally. The Chaldean paraphrase translates: Et venerunt usque ad locum paratum „, fie hat den Ausdruck d; die syr. Ueber fettung says: "usque ad areas paratas,, the Arabic "ad locum arum paratum., cf. Polyglot. London. II, p. 327. In the 1 Chronicles 13:9 refers to the same threshing floor 72 na, that would be a threshing floor of the spear, or also threshing floor of ruin, of destruction
+ N

Bens, designations that do not contradict a victim.

49

770

lung was able to comfortably watch the sacrificial ceremony. One

Usa, the son of the priests, dies here as a sacrifice. The place

It has since been called Pherez-Usa. De Wette translates

"Usa's blow"; the number 7 alone means in the first sense

"to split, to divide, to tear apart), it can

So nothing should prevent the word from being used with "partition of the USA".

translate and interpret the whole plot as a Paschal sacrifice grasp. The biblical narrator has the sacrificial act

by eliminating the Usa, for whose death the name

He testified as punishment for touching the holy

Wagens is killed. But he doesn't tell us,

-how the car with the now timid ones fared

Bullen continued to go on, since after Usa's death certainly never

mand more dared to approach the dangerous chest.

David should prepare himself for this killing of Usa before the Ark.

have feared; however, she will again be without any fear.

dangerous effect in the heap of Obed-Edom's deposited, whose whole family is blessed by it). My He Eighthly, Obed-Edom would also like to stay with them.

Lade had forbidden entry into his house, if they had just begun would have killed innocent Usa.

David sacrifices the prisoners of war.

We read 2 Samuel 8:12: "And it happened afterward."

Then David struck down the Philistines and subdued them and took the bridle of the capital from the hand of the Philistines. And

He defeated the Moabites and measured them with the measuring cord, in which he had laid on the ground, and measured two measures.

One cord for killing and one measuring cord full for life⁹ let them. And so the Moabites became servants of David, who brought gifts. »

— —

9 59 rupit, secuit, laceravit, disruptit, 99) ruptura, disruptio,
* eo.

dispersio. Gesen, thesaur. II, 1130.

9) 2 Samuel 6:8-17

2771

David used to be on friendly terms with the Moabites.
circumstances; his father and his siblings found at
They were given protection from Saul, just as he himself was among the Philistines. When King of the Hebrews, he attacks them to subdue them⁹
Jochen, and treats the prisoners — because not all
We in Moabiter want to extend the horrific, although the
To demand this seems — on a truly barbaric way. They must prostrate themselves on the earth,
A rope is brought and measured according to length;
Two rope lengths are killed, the third is allowed to live.
We will not be wrong if we see in this cruelty a Find Cherem. Usually, such a thing required...
Vow that all prisoners of war will be sacrificed to God;
Here a limitation comes into play; the god receives only two One-third; one-third remains for the victor. If only it were... it came down to quenching the bloodlust or the freitto reduce the bare manpower of the Moabites, that would have been the did not require careful measuring. Herein lies a Ge—Lübde to the ground, according to which two thirds of the prisoners—nen were destined for the Cherem, which were to be used after a successful victory also conscientiously separates. Among all peoples, which Men⁹
When sacrificing [something], it was customary to offer a [something] after the victory—
We know that one percent of the prisoners of war were given away as a thank offering.
battles); in our present case we can speak of so there is less doubt that measuring and killing is a intended to be a victim, since David's patron, the prophet Sa⁹

Muel was a friend of such barbarity. He had indeed...
Saul commanded the entire Amalekite tribe with all
To destroy animals as Cherem, and was in the most violent Anger arose when the Hebrews saw the better animals at the le—Ben let them. Certainly, his favorite David is in this spirit.
faithfully received!

1) The Shthians sacrificed one man from every hundred. Hero d. IV, 26. |
49 *

772

Another example is told in 2 Samuel 12:26-31.
Joab, it says here, “argued against Rabbah of the sons of Ammon's and captured the royal city. And Joab sent Messengers to David said: I have argued against Rabbah, I have also taken the water city; and Now gather the rest of the people and besiege the city.
Take them, so that I do not take the city and my Her name should not be mentioned. Then David gathered... all the people and went to Rabbah and fought against them and He took her. And he took the crown of their king from his head, its weight a talent of gold and precious stones, and placed them on his head, and the booty of the city
He brought them out in very large numbers. And the people, (which was inside, he took out and placed under saws) and under iron threshing carts and under iron axes and He put them in brick kilns. And so he did in all the cities of the sons of Ammon. And so David and all returned.
People return to Jerusalem.

We are only claiming the position here for ourselves, which translates the bet as: «he stuck them in brick kilns.»
This interpretation has been in use for many centuries sought to help those who were there, to help David, who was still like that.
as the most terrible barbarian appears, at least before the
To save Moloch services. Even the Septuagint was lost
At this point, the Moloch is put into a brick kiln and translated as "Otto audiov," the Vulgate follows it and says "traduxit in typo laterum," only in the Hebrew text

It states very clearly:

) Caligula also did this (Suet. Calig. c. 27: "multos honesti ordinis..... medios serra dissecuit"; of course he is one abhorrent heathen barbarian; but David was immediately at his calling by Samuel the Spirit of Jehovah advised and from then on it remained on him (1 Samuel 16:13); this is the righteous one. The Lord's anointed ones, he can act barbarically and yet remain the chosen one.

773

2 obe Vahr

et transire fecit eos in Malchen, he let them pass through in their Moloch statues; in other words: he sacrificed them the ammonite Moloch, in whose territory it was located and whose favor he, as the new ruler of the land, would acquire wanted. The > in the text was changed to a 2 and as rimless 7272, oven, fitted; also fo is the Victims not freed, because the victim's intuition was true.

heit Oefen, Jehova, as we saw above, appears as rough
A beautiful oven. And now, in addition, there is the very special...
Expression to let pass, the same word which everywhere is needed by Moloch sacrifices and "burn" means; besides this word, the borderless proves itself very clearly a forgery. Also, the circumstance of Be
The interpretation is that the chronicle omits the passage entirely.
1 Chronicles 21:3 says: "And the people who were in it led he went out and cut them up with iron threshing carts and Axes. And so David did in all the cities of the sons Ammon's. The chronicler wants to speak of barbarism itself.
David should not be acquitted, otherwise he would have had to do the rest as well. concealed; rather, he finds something praiseworthy in a Such an expression of power over neighboring peoples. Why?

Is he now suppressing the "passage through Malchen?" Au-probably because he recognized Moloch victims in this place and his hero from the idolatrous process-wanted to. According to our investigation so far,
 They didn't want to reply to me, but David could Prisoners of war in the ammonite Moloch statues burned, but not as sacrifices, but around the idol—
 You serve this people through the objects of idolatry to punish himself. In this case, the chronicle would not have had a reason to misinterpret the message of Samuel's books. secret. In those days, the gods were the neighbor—peoples not yet despised beings, but, as in the whole

774

Antiquity, the lords of the land where they were worshipped,
 And a conqueror had to think of that, inclined themselves to it.
 to do. Also, being burned in the Mo—
 The Ammonites did not even consider the holes a punishment.
 of idolatry, but also just as a res
 It was considered a religious act; since the people did not not only prisoners of war, but also constantly natives,
 David sacrificed his dearest children to God.
 Furthermore, he was by no means an enemy of the neighboring deities, like fine voluntary services among the Philistines, fine Aner-Identification of the Jebusite sacrificial site on the threshing floor of Aravna and the stay of his relatives with the Moabites to prove it clearly enough. His son Solomon did indeed...
 Ammonite Moloch in Jerusalem even a sanctuary built! |

To avert a famine, David Saul's Sacrifice male offspring.

Chapter 21 of the second book of Samuel tells
 The following, literally: "And there was famine in the days of David."
 Three years, one year after the other. And David sought the face of Jehovah and Jehovah spoke: Because of Saul's and because of the House of Blood Guilt, because he the Gibeontians killed. Then the king summoned the Gibeontians and spoke to them. (But the Gibeonites were not of the sons of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites, and The sons of Israel had sworn to them; but Saul sought to strike them in their zeal for the sons of Israel and Judah's.) And David said to the Gibeonites: What shall I can do to you, and with what shall I atone that you have lost your own- Does Jehovah bless? And the Gibeonites said to him: We are not interested in silver or gold against Saul and his house, and we are not trying to kill anyone from Israel. And he said: What do you say that I should do to you? And they said to the king: The man who ravaged us and he plotted against us to destroy us, and not There are more throughout the entire territory of Israel! Give us seven men from his sons, that we may hang them^s to Jehovah at Gibeah-Saul's, the chosen Jeho— va's. And the king said: I will give them. But the The king defended Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan Saul's son, for the sake of the oath by Jehovah, who between them was), between David and Jonathan, the Saul's sons. And the king took the two sons Rizpah, the daughter of Aja, whom she bore to Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth, and the five sons of Merab, the daughter of Saul, whom she bore to Adriel, the son Barsillai's, the Mahalothite's, and gave them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them on the mountain before Jehovah. And so the seven fell all at once; they but were killed in the first days of the harvest, at the beginning of the barley harvest. Then Rizpah, the daughter, took Aja's, the sackcloth, and spread it out on the rock^s sen, from the beginning of the harvest until water falls over them^s He fell from the sky, and let no bird of the sky rise. They rest by day, and no wild animal of the field rests by night. And it was reported to David what Rizpah, the daughter

775

The author forgot that he was referring to 1 Samuel 24:21-23, the David the sparing of all Saul's descendants swears— "Behold, I know," Saul said at the aforementioned place.

Places that you will become king and in your hand the king-
 The darkness of Israel exists; so swear to me now by Jehovah that You will not eradicate my seed, but rather my own.
 You want to erase a name from my father's house... "And David, it continues, swore an oath to Saul, and Saul went to his house, and David and his men went up onto the Mountain height. Incidentally, I also consider the sparing of Mephistopheles to be important.
 boseth only for an ahistorical insertion by the author;
 For immediately following is another Mephibosheth, son of Saul, who among those destined to be sacrificed; both names are probably only one person.

776

Aja's, Saul's concubine, had done. Then David went there.
 and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan,
 of his son, by the citizens of Jabes in Gilead, which they stole from the marketplace of Beth San, where the
 The Philistines hanged them at the time when the Philistines killed Saul They struck Gilboa. And from there he brought up the Bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan, his son, and they also gathered the bones of those who had been hanged and—
 They dug up the bones of Saul and Jonathan, his son, in the land of Benjamin at Zela, at the burial of Kis, his father
 They did everything as the king commanded. And God
 He was subsequently requested by the country.

We need only a little of this detailed report.
 to add; the meaning is clear. It was a long-lasting drought;
 To soften the god required a great man-offerings, as is always the case with the Semites in such cases.
 So, seven prominent Hebrews are appointed at the height of Gibeah!) crucified before the sun. Through this sacrifice
 The god is appointed to control the famine, namely-
 To send forth rain. In contrast to the sacrifices on the cross.
 Under Moses and Joshua, the situation here is that the battle-Victims remain hanging on the cross for a longer time. David be-seizes the opportunity to bring the dangerous Saul to a fine family-to get rid of the dynasty all at once; his prize-They must find a reason for Jehovah to all of Saul's descendants were demanded as sacrifices. This version

We do not know the occasion. What in our biblical text
The way it is described is inappropriate. According to this, it should have been Saul to incorporate the Gibeonites into the Israelite Empire sought, although Joshua had once promised them mercy.
had. After many years, when Saul had long since died and

1) The hill of Gibeah was a sacrificial site. According to 1 Samuel 10:5
The city is called Gibeah=Elohim; there the prophets come.
in a solemn procession from the height.

777

Even if his successor David were already near the grave, it would be
It suddenly occurred to Jehovah to... this offense by Saul against the innocent Hebrews through to take revenge for a famine. The author invents
This story serves to justify his hero David.
Saul's story does not mention that this king was against the had ever undertaken anything hostile against the Gibeonites; also were indeed in Saul's time, despite the alliance, of wel—
As Jos. 11:19 says, the Gibeonites have long since incorporated into the kingdom of the Hebrews. According to Joshua 18:25 the city still founded by Joshua himself, the tribe of Benjamin handed over and according to chapter 21, 17 to the priests of He—Brethren resigned. Such priests were indeed those Gibeoni—ten, to whom David handed over the seven descendants of Saul had them crucified at their sacrificial site. Our Bible
The author still lingers with pleasure over the... constant burials, which David now fully ge—
The collected bones of the Saul dynasty included some will be allowed to happen. It is likely that David, the Saulian party, giving the impression that he had only—forced into the sacrifice, and that he also achieved this through the responsibility for the burial of the remains of those descendants Saul's, which he had now completely devoured, to recognize Ben searched. But, as we saw, the burying had
The bones of sacrificed people also have a religious reason.

Human sacrifice under Solomon.

We had to stay with David for quite a while because us this man as a devout Jehovah's Witness in the Reformation who wanted to impose his senses, which he wasn't. With Sa-lomo finally we come to the time from which in our from the biblical books of human sacrifice to the under-the course of the two kingdoms is granted; and we can Therefore, we should keep our statements all the more concise from now on. If one wants to ask:
Why should the biblical authors of earlier times have the 778

They concealed their idolatry, even though they were among the
To grant to the kings of Judah and Israel? This serves as an answer.
Word: This idolatry was also concealed in earlier times.
These are not times, the authors cannot deny it.
that he was in practice among the Hebrews at all times—sen sey. But they used the darkness of ancient times to to trace their system back to famous names that distinguished themselves from who had inherited there, such as Moses, Joshua, Samuel, David, and explained the old religion, which in their view was not voted for a departure from the paternal cult. The closer
The more they came from their own time, the less they could understand it.
Concealing human sacrifice. The open admission begins with the division into the kingdoms of Judah and Srael, Solomon stands on the border. The Books of Kings—secretly, the idolatry of Solomon was no longer practiced; the late
But the chronicle is bolder; it knows nothing of a
This man's idolatry; in her eyes he is the chosen one.
pious Jehovah's Witnesses even to their graves).

Solomon does not consider individual human sacrifices to be a form of human sacrifice.
judges; but it is literally admitted that he the I worshipped Moloch and the Astarte, and this is proof enough that people were also sacrificed by him,
The Books of Kings first let the king in his Al-
He seduces them into idolatry through his foreign wives;
for "King Solomon loved many foreign wives, and alongside the daughter of Pharaoh's Moabite women, Ammonite-nen, Edomites, Sidonians, Hittites, and he had Seven hundred princesses and three hundred concubines among the women. women). If Solomon was a Jehovah's Witness in the Reformed era would have been in a matori sense if he were our mosaic

 Had he known the law, he certainly would not have known any foreign ways.
 have taken them. As has often been noted, those times know They do not yet harbor hatred against neighboring peoples; the He—

—

) 2 Chronicles, chapters 1 to 9.) 1 Kings 11:1, 3.

779

Braer find still in religion and custom with the Cananites and Arabs. The most closely related. Especially with Phoenicia stood Salamo, as had David before him, in friendly relations.
 business relationships; his fatherly God Jehovah can had no aversion to this people, since he was—
 He had a temple built by him. The construction of the Jewish temple
 The temple was built by the Phoenicians according to the Phoenician model. led: how would one, under such circumstances, to consider a significant—
 To think of a clear difference in religion? Solomon ver buys from Hiram, King of Tyre, twenty Galilean Cities 2): could a devout servant of Jehovah the chosen one Jehovah's people to an idolatrous king hated by God—Negotiate at all? Jehovah himself was then true to his nature.
 no one other than the Phoenicians and Canaanites—fchen deities; the rebuke which Solomon received after the Be—His achievements in his time consisted solely of the fact that he [had] the cult of foreign gods, the national Jehovah:
 negligent. Now, if the biblical text explicitly states, that Solomon destroyed Moloch, Aftarte, and Camos—honored, so it can be doubted all the less that he
 He also brought human sacrifices. It says in 1 Kings 11, 5: And Solomon walked after Ashtar, the God of the Sidonians, and Milcom, the monster of the Ammonites. » Verse 7: "At that time Solomon built a high place for Camos, the monster of Moab, on the mountain that is before Jerusalem lies, and Moloch, the monster of the sons of Ammon.

And so he did to all his foreign wives who had their
They burned incense and made sacrifices to the gods.

1) 2 Samuel 5:11; 1 Chronicles 14:1

) 1 Kings 9:11; on the other hand, the Egyptian king destroys the iniquity.
inhabitants of Geser and gives the city to Solomon as a dowry
2 Kings 9:16

780

Human sacrifice among the kings in the kingdom of Israel,

With Solomon's death, the ten tribes separated (the Kingdom of Israel) of Judah and choose Jeroboam as King (975 BC). What part of David do we have? » speak they; «we have no property in the son of David's.» According to the Book of Kings 2) he Jeroboam delivered two golden calves to Bethel and Dan, to provide fine Israelites with a replacement for the temple in Jerusalem to give peace. He was afraid, it says in 1 Kings 12:27. when his people went up to worship in the house of Jehovah To sacrifice to Jerusalem, the heart of the same wishes to turn back to Rehoboam, king of Judah. Therefore he advised The king made himself two golden calves and spoke to To the Israelites: Long enough have you gone up to Jerusalem! Behold, your God, Israel, who brings you up led from Egypt! — The editors of the books of Kings and the chronicle present the circumstances as they were when the later purified Jehovah cult was established in Jerusalem at that time would have flourished, and the Israelites until then, as it only happened after the Exile Law was, they would have gone to Jerusalem to to bring their sacrifices, Jeroboam, therefore, with his people from had fallen away from his father's service to Jehovah. But now this has changed. Apparently not. The temple in Jerusalem was there. once a very new institute; Solomon himself, Jeroboam's predecessor initially did not sacrifice at Jerusalem, where the Ark of the Covenant was, but at Gibeon, where the old

(copper altar stood). The tribe's new sacrificial site Judah at the sacrificial site of the Jebusites, the threshing floor of Aravna, It couldn't have such a high reputation back then that the Israelites had abandoned their ancient sacrificial sites and would have gone to Jerusalem, which they were not going to anyway—

1) 1st King 12, 16.) 1 Kings. 12, 28.
) 2 Chr. 1, 1-6.

281

were inclined. From the place Dan, in particular, we know of a express testimony preserved in the Book of Judges, that there from the time of the judges until the downfall of the Rich Israeli priests were those who practiced their cult in the town itself.
practiced. It says in chapter 18, verse 30: “Judge the sons of Dan.”
They looked at the carved image; and Jonathan, the son Gersom, the son of Moses, he and his sons were Priests of the tribe of Danites until the time when the Land was taken away. Likewise, the bull service was not Jeroboam's apostasy from his father's cult. He himself explains the bull as the god who brought the Hebrews out of Egypt² ten led, as did Aaron fine bull “Jehovah calls. His bulls were the old ones, since the times of Exodus from Egypt, neither by priests nor prophets²
ten, not at all challenged from any side, general
The image of Jehovah, which is an object of orthodox worship also received throughout the entire duration of the Kingdom of Israel.
This is also particularly evident from the behavior of Jehn.
proven. This bloodthirsty outrage-monger is being pro-
The prophets Elisha was crowned king against Ahab to fight the idols.
to exterminate. He murders Joram, King of Israel, whose father was devoted to the Baal service, the king—Ahaziah of Judah, the seventy sons of Ahab, whose
He raised his heads in two heaps before the gates of Samaria.
settles; likewise the forty-two brothers of Ahaziah, lures the priests of Baal, as if to a feast, into Baal's² Temple, let them all be killed here, tear down the temple.
– “Come with me,” he said to Jonadab, “and see my zeal for Jehovah — but on the other hand cultivates the Bull service at Bethel and Dan), which therefore apparently

This also applied to the orthodox cult of the Prophet Elisha.
Even if Jeroboam had first established this service, to keep the Israelites from Jerusalem, it would still remain in

) 2 Kings, chapters 9 and 10.

782

more the kinship of fine bulls with the god of Je—Jerusalem undeniably; for he wanted to give his people a He—
To offer a sentence, he had to give him a god who would give him the early was at least related to heren. A people that until now Had he worshipped a spiritual god, it would not be evident from
To make a few bulls happy; just madness!
The king could, with such an action, increase the chances—position that he thereby satisfies the desire for the encountering earlier religious services. Jeroboam will only be reminded of this.
had been mindful of the bull cult in Srael, in contrast to decorate the temple in Jerusalem more brilliantly than as was previously the case under the Davidic family, which neglected the Israelites. It was in Bethel, after all, where where a bull image stood, a famous school of prophets;
Alongside this, Jehovah's bull ministry flourished without the ge—
The lowest disapproval; no Islamic prophet zealously opposes the same), nor Elijah and Elisha; no one admonished.
the Sraelites, to move to Jerusalem to establish a holy site to seek Jehovah 2). All the kings of Srael remain loyal to the bull service, with the exception of Ahab and his Ahaziah's son, who introduces Baal worship. Thus it appears this service as the ancient, orthodox cult of the nation throughout the entire duration of the Kingdom of Israel (from 975 to 722 BC); only the later Jewish prophets ha—
They called it idolatry.

Now 2 Kings 17:17 is cited as one of the causes “white—half of the Israelite Empire had fallen, it was stated.
that they had their sons and daughters

1) Hofea in. as noted above, probably not a Sfraelit, but from the kingdom of Judah.

2) Vatke is absolutely right when he says in I, 399: Since the Hebrew legend traces the bull symbolism back to the Mosaic Age² If this is the case, then we may consider the associated cult to be the oldest. historically based form of folk religion and the Kingdom of Israel to consider him as a representative of the same until his downfall.

783

to go through fire; in other words:
that they burned them as sacrifices. A god will
It was not specified how one could even speak of a Worship of the ammonite Moloch in the Kingdom of Israel: Nothing hears. According to our previous investigations into the
But for the Jewish Jehovah, it can now be all the less.
It is doubtful that even the Islamic Jehovah is fine
Human sacrifices were received, and our position is based on such sacrifices.
refer to; the biblical author may not name the God² to describe them as such, because the bulls, when they are seen by him as to be idolatrously rejected, yet always presented with an image of Jehovah-
They asked how these victims had perpetrated their crimes.
It cannot be determined, as the text gives no indication.
Three scenarios are possible. Either the Israelites Hollow bulls in their entirety, in the same manner as in Carthage and Pergamum found a specimen, or they were² Images of half the human population were used for the human sacrifices—form, like that of Moloch in Jerusalem, or finally they—
The children were burned on ordinary altars.

Isolated cases of human sacrifice by the Israelites were—those in the historical books of the Old Testament, except for that of Elijah, which is not mentioned. The general Be-2 Kings 17:17, however, sufficiently shows that, as In the kingdom of Judah, and also in Israel, child sacrifices were practiced as Iris.
but an Jehovah from the earliest times up to the Un²
the decline of the state its regular, legal course had. Jehovah seems to have less of a hold on the Israelites from Sa² Having assumed that they had turned, they remained more of a sun god.
be; the prophet Hosea at least makes the Israelites primarily feasts, sensual uninhibitedness for the pre-throw, what an overwhelming veneration of the creative

The same expression is used in this place as with the Moloch victims.

784

I would like to speak of principles; however, on the other hand, even the Jews the worst degree of sinful debauchery Blame assigned.

Elijah's sacrifice to the priests of Baal, now we must join in a few words to consider in particular. The preface
This issue has already been mentioned above, with regard to... of the character of this celebrated prophet; this is about to care for the victim. Isabel, wife of Ahab, had the Jehovah's prophets were killed; Elijah had to hide himself, to avoid suffering the same fate. During a severe drought Does he dare to come forward and bring rain to King Ahab? to promise. The time of need, in which one feels readily resorts to any means that promises relief, makes It is likely that Ahab, who so far has only known his Phoenician... had favored his wife Isabel because of the Baal cult, he responded to the Prophet's suggestions. The latter finds the cause of the public misfortune lies in the fall of Jehova and offers to provide apparent proof, ben, that his God is the true one. One erects two Altar on Carmel; Elijah's sacrifice ignites itself), not So says the priest of Baal. The Prophet uses the green The rising mood of the surrounding people calls upon them to To seize the Baal priests leads them down into the stream Kifon and sacrifices itself. The Hebrew expression is called np); this word actually means "abschlach" (shut up). ten, killed, but it is also a very ordinary exit (pressure on victims). Does one mean to say it could happen here immediately?

Pausanias I, 16 also tells us that the wood grew by itself. I lit it when Seleucus, before Alexander's departure for Persia, to whom Jupiter sacrificed in Pella. Yes, there it moved.

Wood even transformed itself into a statue of the god.

2) 1 Kings 18:40

) Leviticus. 1, 5; Cape. 3, 2; Cape. 14, 51; Yes. 66, 3; Hof. 5, 2;
Ezekiel 40:39. Regarding human sacrifices, see Isaiah 57:5.

155

probably a mere killing, without the intention of creating a victim^s means to be, since it was very likely that Elijah was responsible for the murder^s
...who wanted to take revenge on the prophets of Jehovah; so However, I do admit that there was so much to the extent that the intention of revenge that this act was connected with a sacrifice to But Jehovah remains her nonetheless. We know this well enough, that one also sacrificed one's enemies to Jehovah. Now, [this] Elijah did not immediately kill the priests on the spot, but one must take them down into the valley, to the Ki stream to lead from; and already this shows that it is him
...or anything other than to murder her
He had been. One cannot say he had put her down there.
to be brought, because the altar and mountain of Jehovah through the
The murder of these people would have been desecrated; for also Samuel kills Agag before the altar and Saul's after
They will come and be crucified as victims on the holy hill.
Rather, the Prophet follows one of the sacrifices here.
another rite, which takes place on hills, according to which one, probably because of the water, the valleys and ravines for sought out the execution of human sacrifices. Isaiah 57:5, where Even the sacrifice by Duc is given, it is said that the Jews killed their children in the valleys and in the rocky clefts slaughtered. I suspect that among those victims who not burned in the sacrificial statue, but slaughtered were, sought out the water, because it was next to the fire

It was a sacred element: water and fire, moisture.
And warmth were the life-giving forces of nature; the
The sun was made by fire, the moon by the weapon-he represents; as is very likely, that of the two calves of the Israelites, one the

The male Jehovah, the sun; the other a female one.
the moon, represented. Furthermore, this too proves deadly.
ten of the Baal priests as a sacrificial act of circumstance, that Elijah did not seize the people who had seized the priests, | 50

786

requests the execution to be carried out, which is the shortest would have been, but the killing with one's own hand full-brings, apparently seeking an action within it that not the common man, but a priest or pro-
The prophets are entitled to this. Finally, this sacrifice of strangers is also found.
Priests find a parallel in the second book of Kings, chapter 1.
23, 20, where also the orthodox King Sofia the Prie-
The highest of the heights is sacrificed. One might assume the whole History is a work of poetry by the reformist party, in order to to not let the murder of Jehovah's prophets go unavenged—sen; only the further account of our narrative, that Elijah, after he carried out the cruelty, out of fear of the Isabel's revenge caused her to leave the country and climb the mountain.
Horeb fled, points to a historical basis).
Horeb, of course, does not want the hidden stay of the Mannes became s2ei; one only lets the prophet there flee, because this homeland of Jehovah is a very worthy home.
curse him; also the number of victims has decreased.
slaughtered priests, who are estimated to be 450, apparent-Much too high. The author has also included verse 19.
named after the 400 prophets of Asherah, who were at the
If victims had been found, that would be 850 actual victims.
Men had been; such a number certainly would not have been possible.
patiently let Elijah slaughter them, thus giving up their lives.
Sold for as much as possible.

It is also apparently unhistorical that Isabella sent a messenger sent to Elijah and informed him that she would see him tomorrow want to kill (1 Kings 19:2). Elijah will immediately go after his

That they hid and fled from the country when he heard that he was being considered for a similar solemn sacrifice of Visit the pages of Isabella. Incidentally, Horeb is also called here.

“Mountain of God,” 1 Kings 19:8. Jehovah is still there.
at home. He asks Elijah what he wants, and Elijah tells him, that he had zealously interceded for him in Israel. 1 Kings 19:9-10. Here Jehovah lets the prophets see his form. Verses 11-12.

787

Human sacrifice in the Kingdom of Judah.

Human sacrifice continued even in the kingdom of Judah.
throughout the entire duration of the state until its complete end towards ruin. No detailed treatise is needed.
lung, to prove this; the 22nd chapter of the second
The Book of Kings confirms it briefly and clearly. Regarding Josiah's Times, which abolished idolatry around the year 622, are the statues of Solomon still exist, to which Men offerings were made. "He defiled," it is said.
Verse 13, "the heights which Solomon built of the Astarte, the monster of the Sidonians, and the Camos, the monster Moab's, and Milcom, the abomination of the Sons of Ammon." Verse 10: "He defiled the Topheth in the valley of the Sons of Hinnom, that no one should ever again see his son and his Daughter consecrated to Moloch through fire. Here's a clear one.
a confession that these cults have continued undisturbed since Solomonbloomed; the statues of Moloch and Astarte were
The site has neither been destroyed nor contaminated to date.
states very clearly that Josiah has defiled the Thophet, so that no one should ever again dedicate a fine child to Moloch; they He explains that, since there has been no contamination so far, instead had found that the sacrifice of sons and daughters continued was in practice. Some earlier kings, well mentlich to Hezekiah, the reformatory verse attributed to him
The searches must therefore have been very insignificant; they had ben s²ich at most auf auf erst, die nationale got Jehovah to gain the highest prestige in the temple in Jerusalem.
If all these foreign deities now offer their human sacrifices continuously received, so certainly the National God Jehovah did not forgo this most holy kind of sacrifice.

hold. The Moloch statue in the Valley of Hinnom, which is very clear 2 Kings 22:13 of that of the ammonite Moloch, which Solomon had placed on a hill outside Jerusalem,
The distinction made was most likely an old one anyway.

50 *

788

Jehovah image and represented the Jewish national god. Jo fla's Reformation was, as we have often noted, Veran had been granted leave, of no duration; his own son leads the old religion is reintroduced; and it remains as it was before,
State religion until the fall of the empire. With vol
Therefore, we can say regarding rights: the human sacrifices are justified.
deten a legal and essential part of the Hebrew Religious practice from Moses to the downfall of the two Rich, i.e., as long as the Hebrews were an independent entity made up the people.

Individual examples of such human sacrifices in Judah
We find the following preserved. »-Ahas, it says 2 Kings.
16:3, "walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and also
He consecrated his son through fire, like the abominations.
of the nations whom Jehovah drove out before the sons of Israel El's. And he sacrificed and burned incense on the heights and on the hills and under every green tree. The Ver
The report does not specify the reason for this victim; nor does the
The God to whom it was addressed is not named.
Son can be both Jehovah and the ammonite
They have been sacrificed to Moloch; the former is true to me.
probably, since the biblical author silently referred to God passes over. The circumstance that the king's sacrifice was taken Being held liable suggests that one cannot rely on the Victim of an insignificant firstborn eight-day-old child to think of, but of that of a grown-up boy ben or aspiring young man, who might be chosen by the king given for the special glorification of a Passover feast, perhaps also to avert the hardships of war through which was offered as a sacrifice to Syrians and Israelites.
Manasseh is also briefly mentioned in 2 Kings 21:6:

"He consecrated his fine son through fire." Manasseh threw the reformatory institutions of his father Hezekiah, which However, they were not as significant as the biblical account suggests. represents, once again overturned, the old religion fully restored, and will probably be used as a public beacon. knows that he considers human sacrifice an important part of the cult, having offered up his own son^s ben; for him the idea of a Paschal sacrifice would be even more appropriate. here, as with Ahaz. 5

789

Finally, Josiah, the king, who was on the who most readily accommodated the wishes of the reformist party, he counts that he in his eradication of idolatry in Sa^s Mary, "all the priests of the high places who were there, on the sacrificed at altars and burned human bones on them." However, this barbaric act initially appears to be a punishment; however, it does not exclude the victim; the Men had to be sacrificed as an atonement on the same altars. die, through which they had sinned. I have already I noted above that I doubt the truth of this report. As we have seen, our Mosaic Law at that time completely unknown; Josiah, as well as the priests, was firmly convinced of the legitimacy of the cult at that time. It was only through the discovery of the law book that one became one To lecture others. That would be an outrageous act of barbarity. Had the king been, the priests in Samaria because want to kill someone who deviated from the new law, de— The entire Jewish people and he himself are also guilty. had done. It was certainly possible that he had... a cruelty allowed to the helpless remnant of the Sfraelites would have, which he did not dare to carry out in Judah; but the The story in the prophet Jeremiah and the one already under Jo^s fia's sons show that the old cult is flourishing again, that even un^s

) 2 Kings 23:20. The Hebrew text has number [number] which is a very

The usual expression for sacrifice is; "non tamen," says Winer Hebrew Lex. p. 271, "de sacerdotum ministerio, sed de iis adhibetur, qui victimam ex gregibus suis eligunt eamque in loco sacro vel mactant vel mactari jubent." The Septuagint translated: x Elvoiaoe wayrag roùg legeig.

790

In Sofia, the reformatory endeavors had no significant impact. had success; as indeed in the case of the utmost resistance of the Jewish people, a king in the then turbulent times Times could not even dare to do so in favor of a small party with such a devastating seriousness as he as described in the biblical books, against old holy ones to appear as a nation's treasure. We probably have in the narrative of Josiah's sacrifice of the Samaritan Priest only one of those pious wishes of the reformatory Editors of the Old Testament, who usually work on blue The extermination of those who adhere to any other view is a crime. tet find.

These are now some examples of human sacrifice in However, few in Judah were rich; one must bear in mind, that the biblical authors described the individual human sacrifices as something ordinary, not something to list, and also not could. The general complaints of the prophets show deuter light enough that these victims were in continuous practice -and that probably no Sabbath passed without the A metal statue in the valley of Hinnom received such a sacrifice. would have. The books of the Kings by Ahas and Manasse make Some only name the victim because it is for something. It was considered extraordinary if a king did not have a bought one. Boys, but his own son, could the
* "gave a victim."

Human sacrifice in captivity.

How the old idolatry continued in Babylonian exile
The practice of 9 included human sacrifices. The prophets,

Those who lived in exile say this very clearly. Several of the Main bodies which presented the Jews with the human sacrifices as a pretext throw, are from the time of the Babylonian captives

) Ezech. Cape. 14; Ezech. 20, 39; Ezech. 34, 6; Ezech. 36, 25, 31;
Jeremiah, Chapter 44.

701

Shaft. For example, Pseudo-Je Saia, who was in exile, says propheied, chapter 57, 5, that the Jews were inflamed for the idols under every green tree and the children
They slaughtered in the valleys, beneath the rocky clefts. Ez e Church 20:30-38: "How, following the way of your fathers..."
You unclean yourselves, and you fornicate with their abominations, and by bringing your gifts, by showing your children
By passing through the fire, you defile yourselves through all your [spiritual]
Idols to this day: and I should ask you Luff, House of Israel? By my life, says the Lord.
hova, with a strong hand and with outstretched arm and with out
With poured fury I will rule over you and I will destroy you Lead you away from among the nations and gather you from the countries, in which you are scattered, with a strong hand and with out with outstretched arms and with outstretched fury, and wants bring you into the wilderness of the nations, and there against you To hold court face to face. How I judge delivered concerning your fathers in the desert of the land of Egypt,
"So I will judge you," says the Lord.
Jehovah. And I will let you pass under the Staff and bring you into the bonds of the covenant, and I
I want to separate from you the rebels and those I reject.
renegade: I want to remove them from the land where they reside.
lead, but they shall not enter the land of Israel, that "You will know that I am Jehovah,"

The Prophet threatens those who do not believe.
confessing to Jehovahism that they have learned from their previous beliefs
The residential areas in Babylonia will lead away to a desert.
They should not return to Palestine.
They are allowed to. How little attention was paid to his threat is shown by...

the fact that the wealthy Jews no longer wanted to return to their homeland when it was through Cyrus was allowed to. Only when the Persians conquered those lands Ten, the human sacrifices were stopped. 9. Me res

) Michael. mof. Law I, ©. 128.

792

The Jewish party, known for its reformatory approach, sees the finger of Jehovah. in the mission of Cyrus, who neither idols 9) nor It tolerated human sacrifice and welcomed the Persian conquerors. With rejoicing. Come forward, Elam, besiege, Medes! he says. an oracle attributed to Isaiah), » all sighs Make an end to it! Fallen is Babel and all its idols! Images have been shattered. Bel sinks, Nebo falls,» Pseudo-Isaiah says: "Their images arise. Beast and Cattle; those you carry will be burdened, a load. "To the tired cattle!" Je awakens the spirit of Cyrus. ho va; the god of the Persian king is the same as the Jewish one She; all the kingdoms of the earth Jehovah, the God, has given me of heaven, given, Cyrus speaks at Ezra), and He commanded me to build him a house in Jerusalem. The Jewish Reformers and the Servants of the Zend Religion to recognize in Jehovah and Ormuzd the same being, the one, Like the other, God of heaven is; the Persians, says He Rodot consider it folly to erect idols of gods, since They have a use against it, to which Zeus is on a high mountain culminating in sacrifices, thereby breaking the circle of the whole (Invoking heaven as Zeus). As the neighboring city to speak up for the Jews during the construction of the temple, to say * "We are servants of the God of heaven and

2) ai murchftstößet den Apis zu Memphis mit den Worten: You wretched people, these are supposed to be gods, when they... "To have flesh and blood and to feel the iron!" Herod. III, 29. He mocks the image of Hephaestus, burns it spot tend the statues of the Cabiri, He rod. III, 37. Xerxes omits the image of Baal from the Temple of Babylon fschaffen, Herod. I, 183.

2) Yes. 21, 2. 9.) Jer. 46, 1; cf. Jer. 50.2; 51, 47.

4) Ezra, Chapter 1.

) Herod. I, 131. Here it is also said that the Persians nor did they erect temples and altars; as is well known, they speak also passages from Jewish prophets * that God has no temple need.

793

of the earth, Cyrus gave the order: "the house of God
"It will be built in a fine place." Darius commands that the Construction should not be hindered, but rather financed at royal expense.
to supply materials and sacrificial animals, "so that they may sacrifice for A sweet fragrance to the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king and his noble sons). This in the foreground.
to discuss the exact relationship of those in that time
Time of decisively emerging reformist views from Jehovah with the religion of the Persians; I still remember to the now emerging Jewish dogmas, which appear taken directly from the Zoroastrian system, to which Distinguishing between a good and an evil god, Anah and Ahriman Positions of good and evil angels, of a battle of the good and evil principle, of a final defeat of the evil god, resurrection of the dead, from heaven
Rich and hell.

The political power of the Persians thus gave the votes
The Prophet's emphasis was not tolerated by any public. People no more sacrifices. Darius extended the Persian prohibition of such sacrifices.
He even committed atrocities against those not subject to his scepter.
The Carthaginians threatened them with war if they...
(would not refrain from human sacrifice). From then on,
This barbarity is no longer considered an essential part of the
to assert public worship; however, it lies in the
The nature of things is that a ritual that has lasted for millennia what was considered especially sacred, not suddenly - through a prohibition was to be completely eradicated. The horror spread into the—
A sense of security returned and also appeared publicly here and there.

to the occasion, if circumstances allowed. In Persia itself, as we have seen, was in the Mithra-Mysteries continue to involve the sacrifice of children. The new Jewish

1) Ezra, chapters 5 and 6.

*) Just. XIX, 1: Legati a Dario, Persarum rege, Carthaginem venerunt, afferentes edictum, quo Poeni humanas hostias immolare et canina vesci prohibition. “

50 * *

794

The law spoke out decisively against the atrocities of men.
Shen sacrifice, but this law was not followed by all Jews recognized as binding, and furthermore, the He-secret traditions allegedly originating from Moses, of which it can be assumed that they are based on the ancient Men-Referencing the nation's sacrificial cult, weat least depending on the course of a certain time, the victim of a People demand. On the remnants of old man-sacrificial service among the Jews until the destruction of the Temple Under Titus we already have under the article: «Little People-
The sacrifice was spoken at the Passover festival. The sacrifices were then made by Seiten of the Christians and Muslims subsequently guilty-gung that even the Hebrews scattered among the nations until Even today, you can still occasionally see a person.
Making sacrifices no longer falls within the scope of what I I have set aside for myself for this writing, but would the constitute the subject of a separate treatise.

Bischoff, Erich,
The Jews and Christian Blood:

C.
Au
205720 1-10

Digitized by Google.

The *

*

and that Chrissenblut.

Posts

Explanation of the hypothesis of a Jewish "Slukritual"

from

Dr. Erich Bischoff.

"Blood is a very special fluid."
Goethe.

ed FP

Berlin SW. 12,
Publishing house of Gustav Ad. Dewald,

Owner of Georg Höppner's bookshop.

1891.

The question of a Jewish “blood ritual”, i.e. the question, whether blood is used somewhere in a secret Jewish rite, namely Gojim=(Christians=) blood, which is needed, is very old; it is now especially through the case of Bernstein of Breslau (B. was a rabbi= (national candidate and drew blood from a Christian boy in 1889) This has been suggested anew; more recent cases have also led to the same conclusion. Suspicion arose. In contrast, according to a report... Berlin Papers 1890 Rabbinical Circles considered the idea have to call on the Pope to end the accusation against the Jews To declare ritual murders a lie! — Ours such Due to circumstances, the question has gained renewed interest, and bor:

lying contributions which want to explain what that blood is for=

Ritualistic accusations might inspire someone more qualified.

to further.

My writing is directed neither against modern Jewry=

It does not express any accusation whatsoever, but rather

It merely reflects the current scientific state of the question.
Reason for objective grouping and supplementation of the material so that new results can be obtained. I let Jews, baptized and unbaptized, as well as non-Jewish witnesses, anti-Semitic and Jewish-friendly, get a chance to speak.

First, some information about historical accounts of murders, which are described as ritualistic. A series will be available soon.

such as those listed in Eisenmenger's famous "Discovered Judaism", Vol. II, pp. 218 ff. Regarding credibility

As for the sources cited there, first of all regarding... the historian Aventinus (Joh. Thurmaier), the Ver= barrels of the Annales Bojorum (libri VIII), on the unown= limited praise of Breyer in Ersch and Gruber's encyclopedia (Part 6, p. 499), as well as the certainly not anti-Semitic Meyer's Encyclopedia (1st ed. II, p. 596; 4th ed. II, p. 180) pointed out where especially his "noble . unbest ieg= 8

“

“ ‘me 1

* Im N . ne PR I 45 Sat N

K. En 2 25 en AN =

1 2. 2 —.—

—

—

1

4 L |

true love of truth, thorough study of sources, equally free= meaningful, such as magnificent worldviews, are highlighted: "They (the Annales) are the first modern work of history." — About Matthias Radersus), who also wrote some very gra— four cases are presented, cf. Church Lexicon by Wetzer and Wette, Frb. i. B. 1852. Vol. 9.

About Papebroek, who fought so boldly against the Inquisition, therefore also not to be counted among the "shady characters", |. De- zobry et Bachelet, Dictionaire de biogr., Brockhaus Konv.= Lexicon and also Meyer 1st ed. Vol. 12. — Dol. ibid. about Tentzel, who distinguished himself through his great candor and shrewdness, especially in his dispute over the ancient mysteries against Schelstrate, distinguished. So precisely "enlightened, liberal" Men tell us about those atrocities, some of them under the influence of— detailed description of the abhorrent methods of killing; unfair Therefore, Eisenmenger's sources cannot be named.

Further material can be found at Drum ont, "the ver—" "Judete France"; (Vol. II, pp. 282 ff). On the more recent cases, which have been associated with the "blood ritual", The historical information can be found in Glagau, Kulturkämpfer issue 118. (Berlin, O. Glagau), furthermore in the version edited according to Laurent") Brochure "The Murder in Damascus". Marburg, Hesse. (Published by the "Reichsherold") 1888. — The one involving bloodletting The murder of the Christian boy Abdelnour in the Jewish quarter Regarding Damascus, it is reported, among other places, in the "German Social "Blätter" of July 6, 1890, p. 240. As the latest case, The "Deutsches Volksblatt" in Vienna reported this on April 24, 1891. the report from Corfu in the Jewish synagogue Greek girl found murdered and wrapped in dough. See "Deutschsozialblatt" of May 3, 1891, p. 210.

Thanks to the kindness of my publisher, I received shortly before this document went to press, the extremely instructive and a solid work by the Parisian Professor Henri Desportes:

* Relation historique des affaires de Syrie depuis 1840 jusqu'en 1842 and the complete procedure in 1840 against the Juifs de Damas; by Ach. Laurent, Paris, Gaume. 1846. Laurent has the authentic Court files used, which are in the Paris Ministry of Foreign Affairs— the facts were (the murdered priest was French), but in 1870 under the minister Gremieur (the founder of the Alliance israclite!) disappeared there. (Desportes p. 188.)

x

8
u ee

Le mystere du sang chez les juifs de tous les temps.

2nd edition. Paris (Albert Savine) 1889. In this is the thoroughly processed the material available so far, especially also on the more recent cases, especially the Breslau one gone.

Since it was important to me in the present document to state that existing material through my compilations to be complete, so I only found parallels in Desportes' works guided. |

To the reported historical accounts, I add my own observations. Further research has revealed a few more.

I. From "Rerum Bohemicarum antiqui scriptores etc. e bibliotheca Marquardi Freheri (in the translation by Drumonts Book p. 150 erroneously "Marquard u. Freher") Hanoviae 1702" a murder from the year 1303, on Easter Sunday by the Prague Jews committed. The passage reads: "dasselbst les ist s²sonderlich die" Historiae Bohemiae by Joh. Dubravius) pag. 152 verbatim translated: "1303. After Otto's envoys left Prague Having left, the Jews decided to commit a heinous crime on holy Easter days against a Christian; they accordingly dragged it to a hidden place and hung it up. He crucified him naked on a cross, and while they stood around, Some spat on him, others punched him, others Whips with a rod, others finally did everything to him that Once Christ was from that horrible and wicked people: litt." (Cf. Desportes, p. 43 and 270 f.)

II. Cluver (ius), Epitome historiarum etc. p. 483: "To London was (483) a particular disgrace of the Jews apparently became, since they had, in a sense, treated a Christian boy as annual sacrifice offered." — p. 579 (anno 1509): "Similarly, not a few Jews who were affected by the Paul Formius, the desecrator of holy sites, bought and desecrated Hostien.

who had also ruthlessly murdered some Christian children, to Berlin and elsewhere will pay the price for it.”

III. The one by Wigand in the “Wetzlars” is interesting. Contributions” (Gießen 1851) Vol. 3, pp. 258 ff. communicated, still overlooked file material about a Jewish ritual murder, which the testimony of an incriminating witness and the admission of the

HE

Jews are included, and from this (the other one below) follows 1 it:

He had the child in question for 10 fl. (from a (vagrant) bought,

2. he had been commissioned to do so by the Jews,

Jer was also present at the killing (also mentions the other attendees),

4. He possessed blood from the child, which was in a quill pen was in his table,

5. They would give the remaining blood to the rabbi.

sent to Frankfurt,

6. the child was murdered in his lower room and

1. buried under a reaper's pyre,

7. If they were to have such a child, they would let him have everything. He would draw blood wherever there was blood until he died. There They used to say: “Praise be to God, who gave us this has happened,”

8. also from another (specifically stated) ritual

He received blood from the murders in Bingen; (over the For a similar blood trade, see the interesting section on Desportes.

Chapter (p. 317 ff.),

9. He reports the infanticide he committed to Ilsau, specifying the location where he killed his victim.
fcrart,

10. a second infanticide on his part, also with all incidental circumstances,

11. the reasons for the ritual (see below).

The very specific details about the locations where he buried the bodies, furthermore about what is yet to be found
The stored blood, etc., contradict all these statements.
Stamp of truth.

Regarding the almost classic in its abhorrence Trento Murder (cf. Desportes p. 132 and 162 f.) of 1475
, it befürderts zu beachten die von Tentzel (Monatl. Unterred.) 1694, p. 123) reported “travelogue of Duke Albrecht to Saxony after Jerusalem”, which in 1476, thus still during the

*) Cf. “The Murder in Damascus”, p. 11 above: “If one distributes the blood

Among the faithful? — Not at all, it is given to the highest.
Chacham (Chief Rabbi).“

co

en

Processes, written, containing all details, as well as Tentzel's compelling proof of the historical worthlessness of protection= Testimony of Mocenigo for the Jews. (Mon. Unt. 1688,
p. 555.)

In that travel description, which was “by JFG Rentmeister, Hansen von Mergenthal, written and in the Princely Library “At Gotha, it is certainly laid down” (Duke Albrecht came with his entourage on the Thursday after Judica 1476 Trento) it says: "In the year of our Lord 1475 the Jews met in council

(It was on a Thursday) went as they Christians take blood, as if they had killed a Jew, named Tobias, from cleverly, he went into a narrow alley (when I rented (I saw the master) and found a child sitting in front of a door, a poor man's son, named Simon, quite a beautiful
He had pulled the child up and put it under his coat, until the Jewish house, they had him open from that moment on done, the child taken from him, hidden for a while, until They prepared their equipment and called the others to it, and they that same dear child had his genitals cut off, and that Blood specially captured, and then a piece of cut his cheeks, and all over his chest and arms and pierced holes with other instruments, of which it was very
It bled, and when it wanted to scream, they told it

Hein placed a handkerchief on his fine neck and pulled it tight, and so long tormented, until his spirit fell into God's hands given. The Jews had hidden the child and taken it away.

than, but God did not want to suppress that, but rather that it becomes apparent, and one notices much about the Jews' feet
They were hung up and dogs beside them, much burned, so they still sat.
Three Jews were captured when we were there on Thursday, then
They will be burned on Saturday."

Regarding the letter of protection from Mocenigo, "Duke of Venice",
When it came to this, he sought to understand what had happened in the interest of the Jews.
to simply decree it away. The nullity of this "innocent" Tentzel (loc. cit.) proves the "testimony" with the following striking Found:

1. Mocenigo gave his testimony that the Trent murder
It was only a "rumor", solely to protect the Venetian Jews.

rn

He had no other right over the one in another.
A murder that occurred in a city outside of Venice's territory to deliver an authentic judgment.

2. Mocenigo's judgment is not impartial because he is influenced by Venice was dependent on the Jews. Venice needed help from the Turks. He received an enormous amount of money and therefore was not allowed to harm the Jews.
to make enemies. — Which, by the way, the Jews already did back then. They thought they could dare to do so, as can be seen from the description of the events through from reliable Papebroek, that they are responsible for the liberation of the Tribal comrades brought in during the trial, as it is called in Latin The original means, "to gather plans and funds." "When they so that they saw no success with the city authorities, ver
They increased the raised sum to such an extent that it was firmly secured. dared to marry Bishop Hinderbach or Sigismund of Austria (the Archduke) thus for the release of the prisoners to be able to win. But these men's eyes, too, were for The gifts closed their ears to the pleas. Therefore summoned those jurists from Padua, who were right to or should defend their cause against injustice. But also their The attempts (tricks) were in vain, since God had committed such a grave crime. did not want to let it go unpunished."

3. Mocenigo sprach lite pendente, dh während die Streit
The question was still floating, so not as an objective evaluator.

4. The Venetians did not actually receive his testimony. recognized, but rather discredited by the fact that, when the murdered boy Simon (in the book printed in Venice in 1487) Missale Romanum) was included among the martyrs, she regularly publicly celebrated the ceremony ordered for him. (See the letter from the bishop's secretary Rigoki dated...) March 16, 1889; Desportes, pp. 162, 163.) — The recently The allegedly discovered court documents have already been used by Bonetti. (Desportes p. 136.)

So much for the historical aspect of the question; now to explain the charges themselves!

To explain the ritual murders, people usually refer to the The Talmud pointed this out, indeed, in recent times it has been explicitly stated. for this reason (and of course for other, more legitimate reasons)

A state translation of the same was demanded. If the Talmud were...

LAKE

to most of these petitioners not a book with seven seals, so they would soon learn from the failure of this undertaking² take, as far as the "blood ritual" is concerned, convince.
What can be said in this regard has already been said by Eisen²
Menger brought it. But Eisenmenger and after him Rohling
They sometimes also include very secondary and late evidence in their proofs.
Writings that were never authoritative at all. Especially In the literary justification of the "blood ritual", a
It is generally accepted that Rohling von Delitzsch committed the most serious misconduct.

Understandings have been proven ("Checkmate the Blood²") liars" etc. (from Frz. Delitzsch). Was also the poisonous D.'s polemic is not conducive to making a brute give in.
However, such wicked errors harm a serious Research most highly.

What can be said provisionally about the blood ritual?
prove it? Oertel believed in the Talmud itself ("What do they believe?").
Jews?" Bamberg 1825. p. 130 ff.) in the passage Mishnah VI, 7, 2 to have found proof and Daumer (fire and (Moloch service of the Hebrews, p. 79) wrote it after him, "that the
The rabbi declared the blood of the heathen to be pure, and so, the restrictive of biblical blood prohibitions, to cannibalistic sacrifices²
"Needs and bloodlusts have saved the necessary leeway."
So, Daumer's and Ghillany's statements regarding the human sacrifices among the ancient Hebrews may have been,
The Mishnah passage only states that, while Jewish Women would become unclean through their menstrual blood, this was said to be the case with a
This is not the case for pagans (because for them the whole purification process² (Laws do not apply at all)!

The only places where a permitted spillage
Those who speak directly of Gentile blood are: 1. Rabbi Bechai, comment. in Pentateuch. Parasha Shemini fol. 132. col. 1:
"He (Jehovah) has permitted them to give blood (of the non-Jews) as it is said (Isaiah 60:12): And the Gentiles (Goyim) shall be completely devoured.” — 2. Vajikra rabba, fol. 146,

col. 2. parasha 13: “He has permitted their (the goyim's) blood to be shed,

*) The human sacrifices of the ancient Hebrews. 1842. — The recently discovered dismissive judgments about the two aforementioned writings are still...

much more caution is needed than some of the bold claims of the two Author.

As it is written (Deuteronomy 20:16): You shall not

"Let live." — 3. Bammidbar rabba, fol. 229, col. 3: "Everyone,

He who sheds the blood of the wicked does as much as when he (God) sacrificed.” But that with the “Goyim” and “Godless” in the first line, indeed almost exclusively the Christians.
meant find, proves Eisenmenger I, c. 16. 17.

From these passages, however, one can only be certain of one thing.
that Jewish vengeful spirit the bloodshed towards the goyim (non-Jews) were permitted. However, that this shed

Blood is shed for a specific purpose, it can be explained cannot prove this, and — I firmly maintain — will never be directly derived from Jewish religious writings whiten, just as little as from Jesuit writings of the Aus
The saying that the end justifies the means. All too believable.
is the insurance of the Israelite who has converted to Christianity Legal scholar Haham (whose work is probably the original) of the “Ul sangue cristiano” identical to Drumont II. 300 (cites), when he says (Daumer, p. 80): “Such murders, like the one that occurred in Damascus in 1840, however, were prescribed, but this secret shall not be laid low written, and not known to everyone, but may be spoken of by The "knowing" knowledge is only to be shared with one son. Thus He learned it from his fine father." *)

We are therefore available to answer or explain the Question about the ritual use of human or Christian Blood, especially Jewish, which has become known to us customs depend on it and must be derived from these our explanation.
search. Here is a modest sample.

*) See Desportes, p. 258. See also p. 252: "Before the Court in
At Trent, they asked the old Moses: From which writings did the Jews learn
Have you learned these practices? — No text, he replied, speaks of such things.
Regulations. These are known only to the leaders and teachers who have them.
reproduce orally." Furthermore, p. 260 note 2: "That is the secret of great Chachams (wise men) — Mohammed Effendi told us in the trial of Damascus reports." (See also ibid., p. 276, note 2 and p. 277).— —
Incidentally, on page 262 Desportes mentions the extremely strange
The circumstance is noteworthy, that one witness at the Trent murder, without himself being present,
to have been, but the exact same information about the method of blood collection.
does, like those who were there. He concludes from this that a certain one before A written ritual existed for such "bloodletting". Likewise, it leads to him the similarity of the wounds, which always occurred in the same places Places taught are, to the same conclusion.

UA SEEN

— 1 —

—

First (in the sense of the indictment): If human blood, why?
Christian blood? Well, the blood of the goyim is permitted (fo), the
The only available goyim are usually the Christians. (In the Orient) also Muslims. Baseler Miss. Mag. 1837. p. 598; (Daumer p. 78.) Would something be given to a Jew for such a purpose?

Blood would be drawn, since according to Jewish ritual interpretation in Bleed the soul, life is lost, some life has been taken from it. — But isn't this done during circumcision? This is supposed to but also only represent one victim of the whole human being, like Exodus 4:24 ff., when the Lord wants to kill Moses, for this Zipporah circumcised her son, as if as an atoning sacrifice. Be-
This view is further reinforced by the sacrificial nature of B.
because the mohel (tailor) was still used until more recent times
Time had to suck some blood from the fresh wound (Sof. Bergel, The Medicine of the Talmudics, Leipzig 1885, p. 29) which on the one hand prevents insufficient bloodshed was, on the other hand, the associated pain was also considered Victims are likely to be considered.

On which ritual occasions should this blood be used?
Will they be forced to do so? First, so it is said, at the Passover festival! For that First, a testimony from a Jewish* source: In the [source of] Tentzel (Mon. Unterrd. 1694, p. 130 ff.) described in detail
The statement of the “Jews” is found in the files of the trial.
i.e. the old Jewish woman, that if she did not have the Christian children-
If they had received blood, they would not have been able to celebrate a great Easter.
can. — It should be noted that the files repeatedly point this out.
It has been pointed out that the statements are “voluntary and well-intentioned” (2)
It was made that Christian blood was needed precisely at Easter.
Other Jewish testimonies in trials also state that this will happen.
This falls, as the “Antis. Corresp.” already pointed out, a
A very large number of such murders around Easter (others in the time of the reconciliation festival), so that the general opinion was very easily came to associate it with the Passover festival.
set (see Daumer, pp. 71 and 81). Daumer points out at this occasion-
This points to the connection with the ancient Hebrew Moloch cult, which You demanded human sacrifices at Easter. (That child sacrifices in particular were required)

*) For other Jewish testimonies, see: “The Murder in Damascus” Pages 9 and 14.

SB

Having been favored, Desportes is looking for opportunities in several locations.

know, e.g. BS 313, on the grounds that they are innocent and would be virgins, like Jesus. Also towards the Damascus-slaughtered, highly honorable Catholic priest Thomas (This fit.)

What should be a use for this Goyim blood?
to be found at the Passah? The old and widespread accusation is:

1. They bake it into their unleavened breads,
2. They mix it into their wine.

A third accusation is that they at the Passover meal enjoyed the heart of a goyim boy, a letter from the Pope Innocent IV, a patron of the Jews, dated July 5 1247. Mon. Germ. Hist., Epistol. saec. XIII, sel. per Pertz, ed. Rodenberg, Berlin 1883, p. 297).

Regarding the charge ad. 2., which applies in so many cases
When it reappeared, the missionary Wolf even found it at to the Muslims of Persia. (Baf. Miss. Magazine 1837.) Just This accusation has always been made by Jewish writers rejected with utter indignation, referring to the Mosaic and Talmudic precepts that prohibit the consumption of blood Strictly forbid it. (Before exile, of course—according to Ghillany, (p. 604ff. — the Hebrews drank blood.) And yet a Classical witness, Antonius Margarita, that she blood Drown in wine! Antonius Margarita, the author of the Book “The Entire Jewish Faith” MDXXX, on which Buxtorf in its famous “Renewed Jewish School” almost words lich based, was the son of the chief rabbi of Regensburg (dg Jüd. gl., p. 76) and recounts all Jewish customs According to his own observations, with the utmost impartiality. He De:
The drinking of blood wine during circumcision testifies to... he, as a serving boy, as such were prescribed, often may have provided enough assistance. What about the decision?
Wine? Before the mohel, after the first cut, some blood
He sucks it out, then takes it from a specially prepared cup.
Take a sip of wine.

he then in the sand, or, as is expressly attested, to spit back into the aforementioned cup. (Bruxtorf, pp. 98/99.)

|

17

EEE.pr

“

The wine is sprinkled “on the child three times and (the mohel)
He speaks to him, stay alive in your blood, these and other many more words.
He speaks to the child from Ezekiel. 16. After this he gives to all to drink from young boys” (Ant. Marg. p. 60. — Buxtorf (pp. 100, 101.) — Here, then, is a valid testament that at least in the case of an occasion”) and in some places blood wine was drunk.
ward, who according to Mishnah V, 1, 8, 6. like bare blood
It should be noted. A general conclusion from this was Easy. So much for the explanation of that accusation ad 2.

Regarding the one ad 1 concerning the baking into the unused Regarding leavened breads, Daumer (p. 78) provides testimonies.
from travelers in Greece and Turkey, “it prevails Among the Greeks and Turks, there is a common belief that the Jews had a practice of keeping stolen children for 40 days.
fatten them up, then drain all their blood and use it for other purposes to distribute the mixture with the unleavened bread,” a Viewing, to which further coatings in various
To rediscover court records concerning Jewish child murders.

The second date on which Christ's blood is needed,
The accusers refer to it as the Day of Reconciliation. How How did that come about?

All atonement is tied to the blood (Leviticus 17:11) according to the idea of representation. The rabbis have for this the Canon, the blood fei ikkar hakkorban or ikkar hazzebach (Root, foundation of the victim) and claim: a dx Ps

nulla expiatio nisi per sanguinem, "without bloodshed it happens"
"No forgiveness" (see Hebrews 9:22). Only in the shed blood.
The sacrificial work is completed. (Winer, Bibl. Real=WB I,
p. 188. — Bähr, Symbolism II, 200 f)

In this sense, it happens on the 9th day of the first month.
in the new (Jewish) year, the day before the Feast of Atonement,

The sacrifice of a rooster according to ancient Jewish rite. (Buxtorf, Ern. Judensch.)

(p. 450 ff.; Ant. Marg. 35th page). On this 9th day, only If you serve God, then, it continues, when you leave the church |
*) via another (Passah) cf. Desportes = 307; also p. 41.

= ) For Passover: Desportes p. and 305ff; for Purim:
p. 311 ff. — Furthermore: "The murder on p. 10 and 12."

>= 14 en | re

Every man must have a rooster, every woman a rooster.
a hen, the pregnant women carry both; when they go home= come, the head of the household sacrifices under special (aa O. ge=,
(as reported by Nau) ceremonies: first his rooster, then the others.
First the rooster's blood is spilled, then the same on the earth thrown ufw — But why is a A rooster sacrificed? In Babylonian and Talmudic Hebrew it means...
Giver of the rooster, in Old Hebrew - man, human being. If so a

If a rooster is sacrificed, it is as if "one man is sacrificing another."

"Man takes upon himself the sin of man." How great the regret is.
had been aware that this victim was not a real man could, and how strong the desire was to fulfill this wish=, Getting as close as possible will perhaps be achieved from the one in Buxtorf and Antonius Margarita clearly stated the fact, as consistently handed down, that old Hasidim (wise men, those knowledgeable in the law) suggested, “that man ain affen zu folchem nemen fot, dann (= denn) der

"I myself look most like a person" etc.

One more step, and we would have the real thing.

Victims of human blood; for not the killing itself

It doesn't matter what it is, but rather the blood that is shed!

One must indeed admit that the logic which a

Monkey sacrifice demanded, in connection with the subject of the ver-reconciliation-minded and persistently repeatedly brought up-diving claim of Christians associated with it-

Murders committed by the Jews easily lead to the accusation of ritualistic violence could lead to gojimmordes, or at least to the assumption that that Christian (Goyim) blood is desired for ritual purposes.

It is unnecessary to briefly address the other occasions, in which, according to the accusations, the Jews were said to have consumed the blood of Gentiles.

served. |

Samuel Friedrich Brentz (in fine “Jewish stripped off” Snakeskin, c. I, p. 5, col. 1. u. 2.), which is also called Eisen-

Menger II, 225 is listed and as a former Jew from Experience speaks, indicates that at birth (cf. Desportes)

(p. 289), if the mother is in distress due to childbirth, the same

Three slips of paper, each with Christian blood on them, were placed on the head.

placed in the mouth and in the right hand. — Iron-

Menger, in light of the contrary Jewish statements, leaves the

“ „

—

|

The matter is settled, and I too do not dare to decide whether the Breslau blood collection center Bernstein, where the blood was also drawn was caught on paper, so it could be related.")

However, this much is certain: Brentz (as well as Ant. Margarita), because he was a baptized Jew, but not therefore, as some might say.

The Jewish side emphasizes that he is unbelievable as an "apostate".

Daumer rightly observes that no one willfully destroys their own urjump to insult tends to, and that one knows exactly, "in to what degree the Jews who converted to Christianity sympathize with their tribe, and with what fire

They tend to fight against the accusations that are made against them that makes them." (p. 76.)

Another occasion where Christian blood is needed is, so they say the available sources, including the death of a Jew. In the Files of the aforementioned Wigand's Wetzlar contributions

During the trial, the accused Jew stated: "They (the Jews) meant namely, just like the angel who in Pharaoh's time saw all the first

Birth in Egypt, killed overnight and no house left

I have already, except where the doorposts were sprinkled with lamb's blood and had been besmirched, so they also besmirched their dead.

on both temples with Christ's blood." So it also appears here the blood of the Gentiles, so to speak, as an atonement offering, so that those with

The person designated by the atonement blood shall be spared punishment:

"so that if they were to rise again on the Last Judgment, they might be reunited with the would be called Christian blood, and God therefore all the more gracious, fine, and their beautiful soul."

I conclude with Daumer's words: "By the way, I'm far removed, all Jews currently living of a traditional ecclesiastical character without making a distinction between them and man-sacrificing monsters.

Remnants of the old sacrificial atrocities can be found among various Jews.

*) Desportes suggests on page 248 that perhaps from this blood-soaked paper the ominous ash was to be produced, which (according to his sources) was made from... consisted of burnt goyim blood and the two spouses at the wedding served egg halves (p. 301), as well as the egg at the Purim festival (pp. 304/5) was sprinkled and baked into the unleavened breads (see above).

) See also Desportes, p. 3 above, pp. 277, 295 ff., 305. —

There are also other reports of Jewish use of goyim blood.

cited is that of Antonius Bonfinius (Desportes p. 287), who used 4 different ways

Types are distinguished: 1. as a hemostatic agent during circumcision (see p. 301),
2. as a love spell, 3. during menstruation, 4. as a sacrifice.

ee e ae marriage

* *

communities in different ways and to different degrees received, partly shrouded in a very deep mystery-have drawn, from which the great mass of the industry entirely was officially excluded (cf. above the testimony of the learned man) Haham), some of which have already disappeared.” — My

The intention was to indicate what is currently happening about the Blood charges can be investigated, and to explain how the (especially in

(following the Bernstein case, the suspicion resurfaced that it was)

There is a secret, orally transmitted tradition among the "knowing" people.
Teaching on the ritual use of Goyim (Christians) blood, ent-could stand. Whether such a doctrine still exists and to what extent Whether it is still valid, perhaps time or chance will tell.
Enlightenment. That much is clear even today from the sources used.
It is clear that the use of goyim blood reported there is not based on a cannibalistic appetite for blood, but a has symbolic meaning. That such symbolism, as it in the aforementioned cases and by Desportes in which is covered in the section “philosophy of facts”, it is possible is (of course only in the strictest Jewish Talmudic Orthodoxy)
— so strange, bizarre, and unlikely they are to our
The feeling arises — that will be known to anyone who often feels like a monster
The rabbis' probing, subtle symbolism and interpretations Admittedly, the Talmud only has a somewhat limited understanding of it. However, that a
Such a “blood ritual” does not fall under the category of state-sanctioned acts.